15 Theses Of Reformation

Wolfgang Simson

God is changing the Church, and that, in turn, will change the world. Millions of Christians around the world are aware of an imminent reformation of global proportions. They say, in effect: "Church as we know it is preventing Church as God wants it." A growing number of them are surprisingly hearing God say the very same things. There is a collective new awareness of age-old revelations, a corporate spiritual echo. In the following "15 Theses" I will summarize a part of this, and I am convinced that it reflects a part of what the Spirit of God is saying to the Church today. For some, it might be the proverbial fist-sized cloud on Elijah's sky. Others already feel the pouring rain.

15 THESES

1. Church is a Way of Life, not a series of religious meetings

Before they where called Christians, followers of Christ have been called "The Way". One of the reasons was that they have literally found "the way to live." The nature of Church is not reflected in a constant series of religious meetings lead by professional clergy in holy rooms specially reserved to experience Jesus, but in the prophetic way followers of Christ live their everyday life in spiritual extended families as a vivid answer to the questions society faces, at the place where it counts most: in their homes.

2. Time to change the system

In aligning itself to the religious patterns of the day, the historic Orthodox Church after Constantine in the 4th century AD adopted a religious system which was in essence Old Testament, complete with priests, altar, a Christian temple (cathedral), frankincense and a Jewish, synagogue-style worship pattern. The Roman Catholic Church went on to canonize the system. Luther did reform the content of the gospel, but left the outer forms of "church" remarkably untouched; the Free-Churches freed the system from the State, the Baptists then baptized it, the Quakers dry-cleaned it, the Salvation Army put it into a uniform, the Pentecostals anointed it and the Charismatics renewed it, but until today nobody has really changed the superstructure. It is about time to do just that.

3. The Third Reformation

In rediscovering the gospel of salvation by faith and grace alone, Luther started to reform the Church through a reformation of theology. In the 18th century through movements like the Moravians there was a recovery of a new intimacy with God, which led to a reformation of spirituality, the Second Reformation. Now God is touching the wineskins themselves, initiating a Third Reformation, a reformation of structure.

4. From Church-Houses to house-churches

Since New Testament times, there is no such thing as "a house of God". At the cost of his life, Stephen reminded unequivocally: God does not live in temples made by human hands. The Church is the people of God. The Church, therefore, was and is at home where people are at home: in ordinary houses. There, the people of God: share their lives in the power of the Holy Spirit, have "meatings," that is, they eat when they meet; they often do not even hesitate to sell private property and share material and spiritual blessings, teach each other in real-life situations how to obey God's word- dialogue- and not professor-style, pray and prophesy with each other, baptize, 'lose their face' and their ego by confessing their sins, regaining a new corporate identity by experiencing love, acceptance and forgiveness.

5. The church has to become small in order to grow big

Most churches of today are simply too big to provide real fellowship. They have too often become "fellowships without fellowship." The New Testament Church was a mass of small groups, typically between 10 and 15 people. It grew not upward into big congregations between 20 and 300 people filling a cathedral and making real, mutual communication improbable. Instead, it multiplied "sideward" -like organic cells-once these groups reached around 15-20 people. Then, if possible, it drew all the Christians together into citywide celebrations, as with Solomon's Temple court in Jerusalem. The traditional congregational church as we know it is, statistically speaking, neither big nor beautiful, but rather a sad compromise, an overgrown house-church and an under-grown celebration, often missing the dynamics of both.

6. No church is led by a Pastor alone

The local church is not lead by a Pastor, but fathered by an Elder, a local person of wisdom and reality. The local house-churches are then networked into a movement by the combination of elders and members of the so-called five-fold ministries (Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Evangelists and Teachers) circulating "from house to house," whereby there is a special foundational role to play for the apostolic and prophetic ministries (Eph. 2:20, and 4:11.12). A Pastor (shepherd) is a very necessary part of the whole team, but he cannot fulfill more than a part of the whole task of "equipping the saints for the ministry," and has to be complemented synergistically by the other four ministries in order to function properly.

7. The right pieces - fitted together in the wrong way

In doing a puzzle, we need to have the right original for the pieces, otherwise the final product, the whole picture, turns out wrong, and the individual pieces do not make much sense. This has happened to large parts of the Christian world: we have all the right pieces, but have fitted them together wrong, because of fear, tradition, religious jealousy and a power-and-control mentality. As water is found in three forms-ice, water and steam-the five ministries mentioned in Eph. 4:11-12, the Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Teachers and Evangelists are also found today, but not always in the right forms and in the right places: they are often frozen to ice in the rigid system of institutionalized Christianity; they sometimes exist as clear water; or they have vanished like steam into the thin air of free-flying ministries and "independent" churches, accountable to no-one. As it is best to water flowers with the fluid version of water, these five equipping ministries will have to be transformed back into new-and at the same time age-old-forms, so that the whole spiritual organism can flourish and the individual "ministers" can find their proper role and place in the whole. That is one more reason why we need to return back to the Maker's original and blueprint for the Church.

8. God does not leave the Church in the hands of bureaucratic clergy

No expression of a New Testament church is ever led by just one professional "holy man" doing the business of communicating with God and then feeding some relatively passive religious consumers Moses-style. Christianity has adopted this method from pagan religions, or at best from the Old Testament. The heavy professionalisation of the church since Constantine has now been a pervasive influence long enough, dividing the people of God artificially into laity and clergy. According to the New Testament (1 Tim. 2:5), "there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." God simply does not bless religious professionals to force themselves in-between people and God forever. The veil is torn, and God is allowing people to access Himself directly through Jesus Christ, the only Way. To enable the priesthood of all believers, the present system will have to change completely. Bureaucracy is the most dubious of all administrative systems, because it basically asks only two questions: yes or no. There is no room for spontaneity and humanity, no room for real life. This may be OK for politics and companies, but not the Church. God seems to be in the business of delivering His Church from a Babylonian captivity of religious bureaucrats and controlling spirits into the public domain, the hands of ordinary people made extraordinary by God, who, like in the old days, may still smell of fish, perfume and revolution.

9. Return from organized to organic forms of Christianity

The "Body of Christ" is a vivid description of an organic, not an organized, being. Church consists on its local level of a multitude of spiritual families, which are organically related to each other as a network, where the way the pieces are functioning together is an integral part of the message of the whole. What has become a maximum of organization with a minimum of organism has to be changed into a minimum of organization to allow a maximum of organism. Too much organization has, like a straightjacket; often choked the organism for fear that something might go wrong. Fear is the opposite of faith, and not exactly a Christian virtue. Fear wants to control, faith can trust. Control, therefore, may be good, but trust is better. The Body of Christ is entrusted by God into the hands of steward-minded people with a supernatural charismatic gift to believe God that He is still in control, even if they are not. A development of trust-related regional and national networks, not a new arrangement of political ecumenism is necessary for organic forms of Christianity to reemerge.

10. From worshipping our worship to worshipping God

The image of much of contemporary Christianity can be summarized, a bit euphemistically, as holy people coming regularly to a holy place at a holy day at a holy hour to participate in a holy ritual lead by a holy man dressed in holy clothes against a holy fee. Since this regular performance-oriented enterprise called "worship service" requires a lot of organizational talent and administrative bureaucracy to keep going, formalized and institutionalized patterns developed quickly into rigid traditions. Statistically, a traditional 1-2 hour "worship service" is very resource-hungry but actually produces very little fruit in terms of discipling people, that is, in changed lives. Economically speaking, it might be a "high input and low output" structure. Traditionally, the desire to "worship in the right way" has led to much denominationalism, confessionalism and nominalism. This not only ignores that Christians are called to "worship in truth and in spirit," not in cathedrals holding songbooks, but also ignores that most of life is informal, and so is Christianity as "the Way of Life." Do we need to change from being powerful actors to start "acting powerfully?"

11. Stop bringing people to church and start bringing the church to the people

The church is changing back from being a Come-structure to being again a Go-structure. As one result, the Church needs to stop trying to bring people "into the church," and start bringing the Church to the people. The mission of the Church will never be accomplished just by adding to the existing structure; it will take nothing less than a mushrooming of the church through spontaneous multiplication of itself into areas of the population of the world, where Christ is not yet known.

12. Rediscovering the "Lord's Supper" to be a real supper with real food

Church tradition has managed to "celebrate the Lord's Supper" in a homeopathic and deeply religious form, characteristically with a few drops of wine, a tasteless cookie and a sad face. However, the "Lord's Supper" was actually more a substantial supper with a symbolic meaning, than a symbolic supper with a substantial meaning. God is restoring eating back into our meeting.

13. From Denominations to city-wide celebrations

Jesus called a universal movement, and what came was a series of religious companies with global chains marketing their special brands of Christianity and competing with each other. Through this branding of Christianity most of Protestantism has, therefore, become politically insignificant and often more concerned with traditional specialties and religious infighting than with developing a collective testimony before the world. Jesus simply never asked people to organize themselves into denominations. In the early days of the Church, Christians had a dual identity: they were truly His church and vertically converted to God, and then organized themselves according to geography, that is, converting also horizontally to each other on earth. This means not only Christian neighbors organizing themselves into neighborhood- or house- churches, where they share their lives locally, but Christians coming together as a collective identity as much as they can for citywide or regional celebrations expressing the corporateness of the Church of the city or region. Authenticity in the neighborhoods connected with a regional or citywide corporate identity will make the Church not only politically significant and spiritually convincing, but will allow a return to the biblical model of the City-Church.

14. Developing a persecution-proof spirit

They crucified Jesus, the Boss of all the Christians. Today, his followers are often more into titles, medals and social respectability, or, worst of all, they remain silent and are not worth being noticed at all. "Blessed are you when you are persecuted", says Jesus. Biblical Christianity is a healthy threat to pagan godlessness and sinfulness, a world overcome by greed, materialism, jealousy and any amount of demonic standards of ethics, sex, money and power. Contemporary Christianity in many countries is simply too harmless and polite to be worth persecuting. But as Christians again live out New Testament standards of life and, for example, call sin as sin, conversion or persecution has been, is and will be the natural reaction of the world. Instead of nesting comfortably in temporary zones of religious liberty, Christians will have to prepare to be again discovered as the main culprits against global humanism, the modern slavery of having to have fun and the outright worship of Self, the wrong centre of the universe. That is why Christians will and must feel the "repressive tolerance" of a world which has lost any absolutes and therefore refuses to recognize and obey its creator God with his absolute standards. Coupled with the growing ideologisation, privatization and spiritualization of politics and economics, Christians will-sooner than most think-have their chance to stand happily accused in the company of Jesus. They need to prepare now for the future by developing a persecution- proof spirit and an even more persecution-proof structure.

15. The Church comes home

Where is the easiest place, say, for a man to be spiritual? Maybe again, is it hiding behind a big pulpit, dressed up in holy robes, preaching holy words to a faceless crowd and then disappearing into an office? And what is the most difficult-and therefore most meaningful-place for a man to be spiritual? At home, in the presence of his wife and children, where everything he does and says is automatically put through a spiritual litmus test against reality, where hypocrisy can be effectively weeded out and authenticity can grow. Much of Christianity has fled the family, often as a place of its own spiritual defeat, and then has organized artificial performances in sacred buildings far from the atmosphere of real life. As God is in the business of recapturing the homes, the church turns back to its roots-back to where it came from. It literally comes home, completing the circle of Church history at the end of world history.

House Church Network
www.housechurch.org/

2005 Year Of Accountability

Linda Neilson

ladnila@hotmail.com
January 9, 2005

2005 is the year of accountability. God is calling and bringing His people about to accountability towards Him, and His purposes for their lives.

It is a year of uprooting of the old things, the old traditions, the old and familiar ways of doing things. He is replacing these with new things so that there may be a new growth, and more fruitbearing and more abundance in all areas of the lives of His believers.

This is a time of purging, purifying, and cleansing to remove the old dross, so that what remains is pure. He is going to be doing a shaking of His people, so that the chaff is removed from the wheat, so that what remains is good and pure.

This is a year of tearing down of strongholds that the enemy has had on His people's lives, removal of footholds, even strongholds that have enabled Satan to have over certain areas of people's lives. This is a year of great victories and great conquests in defeating the enemies powers over people's lives. Strategies will be revealed, and released to God's people, darkness will be exposed, shedding new light to the believers, so that they may walk in the paths of victory ordained to them by god. Paths of victory and provision will be set before them, to be able to walk into new places they have not walked or traveled before, even places that once seemed remote, distant or even unsurpassable to them.

Exceeding great and precious are His promises to them that are believers, who walk according to His will, for He desires an intimate relationship regarding His bride, therefore:

Let us be a pure and spotless bride before Him, and let us purify and prepare our hearts, cleaning ourselves from all impurities and defilement. Let us be pure and spotless, without blemish before Him, for He is holy. Let our hearts and minds be sanctified and set apart for His purposes only, and not our own agendas or those of the world. For He has great plans and purposes for each and everyone one of lives, to be wholly sanctified, set apart, and holy before Him.

Let the wedding feast begin. Let us partake of His banqueting table. Let his banner over us be love. The Lord is calling out to the bride and saying, "Come the time is near, the banquets tables are prepared and ready. The feast is about to begin. Come one, come all, come and dine. Feast on me, take your fill. Partake, and drink from the river of live, that you may thirst no more. Come and eat of the bread of life, and be hungry no more. Come, receive fresh manna,. Take your fill, come. Come one, come all. The invitation has been sent."

2006 A Year of The At Hand Kingdom

Ron McGatlin

The kingdom of God is being revealed. The reality of the issues of the kingdom of God are becoming more apparent to many more pure hearted sons of God.

From the valley of decision the mountain peak looms ahead beyond the foothills that are immediately before us. The easier path of less resistance would be to continue in the valley of non-decision. But even that is a decision to not make the decision to ascend the hill of the Lord. The hill of the Lord is an upward walk of increased resistance but one that promises the great reward of the New Jerusalem kingdom of God lifestyle.

Heb 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels,

The glorious mountain of the kingdom of God is within sight. It is at hand and may be approached by those who will turn and change their direction upward toward it. A generation that has continued the downward slide of previous generations into the corruption of prideful self life and man focused religion now has the opportunity to stop, turn, look upward and see the glorious light of the kingdom of God coming into view through the thinning clouds of deception.

A new holy and humble generation is coming forth.

A people made holy by the indwelling Christ in the Holy Spirit. A people reborn, in whom all things are fresh and new. A people with pure hearts in whom there is no guile. These are the people who can see the kingdom of God in view and at hand. These are the people who will ascend from their past lives of religion and self worship to press upward into the righteousness of God.

Psa 24:3-4: Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD? Or who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart,...

Religion has made a mockery of being "born again". Those who are truly spiritually born again have a totally new and different life. Natural birth was from the corruptible seed of the first Adam. Spiritual birth is from the incorruptible seed of Christ through the living Word of God. A mature spiritually born again soul is purified by the Spirit of Christ into pure love.

Only those who are really born again can even see the kingdom of God. And only those who see the kingdom of God will turn from their path of pleasure seeking self life and man focused religion to move toward the glorious light of the New Jerusalem lifestyle in the kingdom of God.

John 3:3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

1 Pet 1:22-23: Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart, having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever,

Many people who believed they were "born again" when they joined a church or prayed a prayer or completed some other religious form but have continued living a self focused life are seeing their need for more. Some are now being truly born again into a life of spiritual intimate oneness with God in the Holy Spirit. These are the ones who can see the New Jerusalem kingdom of God potential and are moving toward it with strength and abandonment of all else.

Seeing the "at hand" kingdom motivates people toward real repentance. Real repentance is a total death to all that is not of God and a true new birth (resurrection) experience into the pure and holy life of Christ in the Holy Spirit. Repentance is a life of leaving the past and pressing on toward the goal of the high calling to become one with God. And to intimately know Him and be intimately known of Him - to be really born into the God family as mature sons of God - to be in the world as Christ is in the world.

Enough is enough.

God and His new generation of pure hearted people have tolerated the weak idolatrous religion and the resulting immoral pleasure seeking corruption spawned by it long enough. In the past there seemed to be hope and a continuing space for repentance for the perverted systems built by the self focus of misguided spiritual adulterers. But now that the kingdom of God is in view there is no more room for tolerance of evil ways and passivity toward the kingdom of God and His righteousness. Human compassion for the dead must become spiritual passion for the living. Let the dead bury the dead. The kingdom is in view and it is not our part to bury the dead systems that fathered us into spiritual adultery. Our part is seeking the kingdom of God and His righteousness. We must follow Jesus into the New Jerusalem kingdom of God life.

Mat 8:22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Luke 9:60 Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God."

The love of Christ compels us to follow Him and take up our cross of repentance from dead works including dead religion. Christ died for all and rose again, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but instead the resurrected Christ should live within them.

2 Cor 5:14-15 For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

Gal 2:20 "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

The love of Christ flows through the lives of the "Christ in you" people.

God's love is the foundational and most powerful force of the kingdom. It is the only force that will destroy the darkness of evil and fill the earth with the glorious light of righteousness. To combat hate with hate and evil with evil only produces more hatred and more evil.

God is love and in Him there is no darkness at all. There is NO evil in Christ. There is no death in Christ. There can be no sin and no sickness in the resurrected Christ. Christ Jesus is life. He suffered death at the cross but in the resurrected Christ there is no death. It is not the Christ on the cross that indwells sons of God, It is the resurrected Christ that abides in true sons and it is the resurrected Christ in whom they abide.

Phil 1:19-21: For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

In the truly born again son, the new life is Christ. Therefore there is NO evil in the new life. There is NO sin in the Spirit of Jesus Christ and the Spirit of Christ is the new life of the born again son of God. Those who say they are born again and love God but continue in internal sin are deceived and liars. Those who yet carry hatred for a brother or the inner attitudes of self, pride, and arrogance, which spawned the hatred, do not have the Spirit of Christ and are not fully born again.

Repentance is a process of death to self and life to Christ.

Repentance and death to self-will and self desires is a process. Being born again is a process of repentance or death that leads to life. We daily meet the cross of death (repentance) and daily participate in the resurrection life of Christ. In this process sin is fully dealt with and has no reign over us and no part in our inner lives. Lust and pride are destroyed in the continuing process of repentance (death) and the continuing experience of new birth (resurrection).

The inner evidence of the kingdom of God is righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. The outworking evidence of the kingdom of God is the rule and reign of righteousness, peace and joy of God manifested into the earth through the fully born again sons of God in the Holy Spirit. Christ living by the HOLY Spirit in mature sons governing the earth with the love and wisdom of God.

The gospel (good news) of the kingdom is in the Christmas message. The same message the angels announced at the birth of Christ Jesus,

Luke 2:10-14: Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. "For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord*..... And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:* "Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"

Pursue Love, It Never Fails,
Ron McGatlin
www.openheaven.com
ronmcgatlin@earthlink.net

2006 Breaker Anointing

Robin Paisley

And the Great Divide of the Church

(Break/her- the will and soulish emotions)

> Through the thick darkness quickly sweeping over the earth there doth arise a Light from within; God's glorious army adorned in His humility and arrayed in His love. Resting quietly upon the thighs of this great army is the silver sword of redemption, the reflection alone will not only invade this gross dark mass but will break it in two through His power, it will shine forth His glory for all to see. Yes, vision to the blind and a veil to those who have seen; a voice to the silent and a muted tongue to those speaking deaf words, may we hear and see what the Spirit is saying to His church.

When asked by the Father to bring a portion of His word forth for the year of 2006 I set my heart greatly on doing so, pressing in deep while also myself being exposed but oh how things did strategically move forward and quickly. Upon awakening this morning, November 17th, my spirit was quickened to bring forth the message when I was taken up in His Spirit and told to begin the word with the vision He now laid bare before me and His words first came forth like unto thunder as His breath caught in my ears and He said: 'My Key Holders are under attack!'

No earthly time can compare to God's quickness as I found myself upon an Island with Jesus, it was The Five-Fold Island of Christ; heavily adorned in plants of every kind, great foliage of the earth but very overgrown and unattended. Located in the very center of this island was a man and a woman side by side as if one cutting down the vines, trees and other plants, creating a path for others to follow, they were both apostles yet not limited in their calling; they were unknown apostles making a way through the jungle for the body, they were vital key holders to doors in His Kingdom yet they were under heavy and violent attack.

Each time they would swing their sickles and chop down the vines another well known leader whether apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor or teacher would come along and immediately sew another over grown plant in its place, making it appear to be working in unity but under the spirit of control and instantly the plant would grow larger in size, weaving a web of its own thus creating more constriction for the clearing. Jesus began to share with me the critical error of 'their' ways, many in leadership roles unwilling to be repositioned, unwilling to allow the merger of the old with the new; they are unable to see through the eyes of the Lord for their eyes are clouded in pride. Church can not exist any longer like she is for the walking, living and breathing 'church' with no walls have arrived, I am one myself among many.

As in Isaiah 22 the valley of vision, we have been called to a time of mourning and weeping for His body, for those who are emerging from His bosom and under attack.

The overgrown plants are those who have tarried too long in their positions when already called by God to move; they have become the 'unwilling' ones and are walking in fear of what they may lose or have to leave behind. The Lord is asking of them to leave everything, even their former vision and be ye willing. Some are being uprooted and taken right back into the deep with Jesus, while others a changing of guards from a gatekeeper to a knight. The Father than expressed to me the urgency of prayer for these key holders for our prayers are like sweet smelling incense and will be a healing balm to the offense for some were even now retreating back into the caves to lick their wounds because of the battering. This company of people hold specific and strategic keys that will unlock many doors for His people, doors of great opportunity and prosper for His body and that we must not only pray in agreement for His peace, His bridge of peace and truth to prosper but also that we, that all of WE His body have eyes and ears to hear what the Spirit is saying to His church. The Father than again expressed much grievance towards the pride in the hearts of His people and that if they did not repent and turn from their wicked ways they would become like Sodom (burning) and Gomorrah (submersion) and there was a dispatching in His words, a quickness in His warning.

Luke 17:28-33 “So also [it was the same] as it was in the days of Lot. [People] ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

But on the [very] day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed [them] all.

That is the way it will be on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

On that day let him who is on the housetop, with his belongings in the house, not come down [and go inside] to carry them away; and likewise let him who is in the field not turn back.

Remember Lot's wife!

Whoever tries to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve and quicken it.”

Oh the agreement in prayer will set His Word in motion for the year of 2006 is almost upon us and so on this note of joining our hearts together I want to bring you great encouragement and joy from the Father’s heart to yours that the year of 2006, will be one of great BREAKTHROUGH and VICTORY!

I was shown in a vision two people walking side by side whether man or woman it did not matter but it was two joined in the unity of Jesus and in His Name. We are on the very precipice of an awakening of both men and women, side by side in their unique gifting and calling’s, “Again I tell you, if two of you on earth agree (harmonize together, make a symphony together) about whatever [anything and everything] they may ask, it will come to pass and be done for them by My Father in heaven.” Matthew 18:19 This vision was a symbolism of the double anointing of man(there is neither male nor female, Galatians 3:28) in the year of 2006 for the number 2 means ‘witness’ and the number ‘6’ man.’ A year of friendship and Covenant blessing, (Hebrews 8) a year for husband and wife, male and female to walk side by side, together in Him. Hebrews 8 speaks of the new covenant blessing in Christ, a rich and new beginning in 2006 (2+6=8) A merger of the soul and spirit man together in freedom. Genesis 2:25 “And the man and his wife were both naked and were not embarrassed or ashamed in each other's presence. The word ‘ashamed’ here is the Hebrew word ‘Buwsh’ which means ‘to feel shame or to delay.’ We will see this bareness of both man and woman, side by side, no shame or delay but total freedom to let God rule, to let God reign in His fullness.

Oh the laying down the wills and the soulish realm of man, the soul in alignment with her spirit, this will bring in the breaker anointing through a people made ready and trained by the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, not by way of man. This will cause a great disruption and holy division from inside the walls of the church, one of fear, religion and debate but God Himself has gathered His people to not only tear down the walls of man but build up a church, a Holy people gathered together in HIS NAME ONLY; much breakthrough of mindsets that have held His body in bondage and slavery, a severing as spoken in Hebrews 4:12

> "For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power [making it active, operative, energizing, and effective]; it is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and [the immortal] spirit, and of joints and marrow [of the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and sifting and analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart.”

A few months ago while sharing with a friend about the recent events that had taken place in both of our lives we were caught up in a vision and the edge of a silver sword came from her belly straight into mine. No handle to display came forth from this sword but only two sharp points on both ends running parallel and we were pierced with His justice while Holy Spirit came down in the heaviness thereof, like a weighted shadow and covered us both in righteousness and much hidden truth was revealed. Isaiah 28:17 “I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plummet; and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the hiding place (the shelter). Oh the severing that must take place before the joining and establishing.

> "And Jesus cried again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit. And at once the curtain of the sanctuary of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth shook and the rocks were split. Matthew 27:50, 51

A year of man also means a year of great exposure of things of the flesh and this will be where those who carry the breaker anointing will become like walking circuit breakers of the Lord, they will cut through, divide and put asunder all that is not of God because of the fullness of His presence abiding in them.

They will cut through with a two-edged sword, generational curses, roots of disease and all that is keeping man from attaining their true calling in Jesus.

> "The Breaker [the Messiah] will go up before them. They will break through, pass in through the gate and go out through it, and their King will pass on before them, the Lord at their head." Micah 2:13

The Greek word for 'breaker' here is parats, paw-rats' to break through or down or over, burst, breach, to break out violently upon. Webster Dictionary defines 'breaker' as one that breaks, as a machine for breaking up or crushing a substance, such as rock, coal, or plant fibers. A circuit breaker. A wave that crests or breaks into foam, as against a shoreline.

Recently Holy Spirit whispered to me, "breaker, breaker 1-9" and then Psalms 19 came into view. Breaker, breaker 1-9 is what truck drivers say over their radio's to check to see if the channel is clear so also the Lord is doing with His body, clearing us from any hidden faults.

> "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows and proclaims His handiwork.
> Day after day pours forth speech, and night after night shows forth knowledge.
> There is no speech nor spoken word [from the stars]; their voice is not heard.
> Yet their voice [in evidence] goes out through all the earth, their sayings to the end of the world. Of the heavens has God made a tent for the sun,
> Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber; and it rejoices as a strong man to run his course.
> Its going forth is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the ends of it; and nothing [yes, no one] is hidden from the heat of it.
> The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the [whole] person; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
> The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure and bright, enlightening the eyes.
> The [reverent] fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
> More to be desired are they than gold, even than much fine gold; they are sweeter also than honey and drippings from the honeycomb.
> Moreover, by them is Your servant warned (reminded, illuminated, and instructed); and in keeping them there is great reward.
> Who can discern his lapses and errors? Clear me from hidden [and unconscious] faults.
> Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me!
> Then shall I be blameless, and I shall be innocent and clear of great transgression.
> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my [firm, impenetrable] Rock and my Redeemer."

Over and over again I hear the Lord saying as though in a whisper but in shouts of thunder; "how hungry are you, how hungry are you for My presence?"

A cry escapes from somewhere deep inside, a cry to the Father to make me, to make us starving for His presence, more than anything, anything in our lives! This is His cry to us, 'how hungry are you for My presence' to be satisfied no longer from the crumbs of man, ask yourself how hungry are you for a face to face, holy encounter and then fight like you are fighting for your very life!

Arise oh mighty men of Valor, Arise!!

Emerging from the depths of the Lord's bosom, from the very depths that can not be found in any structure, book or manual of 'how to's' but in the very deep part of God's heart are mighty warriors already enlisted and in active duty from the army of Gideon and the army of Joel, now we will see the merger of these two anointed armies like never before; the minstrel of the word with the minister of the word. Gideon's army will be armed with the sword of the Lord through their radical music straight from the heart of the King and Joel's army is the Word being brought forth in Living Form; No more one man shows, yes, side by side, amen!!

Let me share with you a vision I received from the Lord of Joel's end time army, which you can also find in the book 'Coat of Arms.'

(Pg.116-119)

Coming forth from the fire was an army of white horses and their riders as one; it was the end time army of the Lord as spoken of in Joel 2. (1) "Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the Lord is come.

They covered the land in the strength of the Lord, an awakening of much that had been hidden. They had long white hair that spoke of the wisdom of God they tarried in; and their thighs were as strong as armor. (2) 'And the day of darkness and gloom is near, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, like the morning spread upon the mountains; it shall come upon a great and strong people; there has not been ever the like from of old, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.'

Along their left thigh was the silver sword of Redemption; their oath to God. Written upon the right thigh was Truth and Righteousness and upon their hearts the seven Spirits of the Lord. 'And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.' (Isaiah 11:2) Nothing remained hidden in their flight. (3) 'A fire devours before them; and behind them a flame burns; the land is as the Garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; and nothing shall escape them.'

The horses were fitted in silver armor of redemption that looked like giant locusts; appearing as if one with their riders and moving in perfect unity. Along the right thighs of the horses read:

'A priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.'

Into the darkened places the army of God will travel; into the tall walls of man they will go. They know to Whom they belong for they have waited on the Lord for many years; rested at his feet and fed by his manna alone. Their words are the words of the Lord that will devour all sin in its path.

They walk in pure and holy truth having been purged by the fire of God; trained one on one by the King himself and not by man.

> (4) 'The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and like horsemen so they run;
> (5) Like the noise of chariots that rumble on the tops of mountains, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, like a mighty people arrayed for war.
> (6) Before their presence the people shall tremble; all faces shall be dismayed and confounded.
> (7) They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the walls like men of war; and they shall march in order every man on his way, and they shall not turn aside from their ranks.

Their eyes are on the King of Kings, where he leads they will follow. They do not compete with man but will march together in the harmony of the Lord and in his perfect will; no weapon formed against them shall prosper.

> (8) Neither shall one push another; but they shall walk in order every one in his path; some of them shall fall down because of the weight of their armor, they shall not trample them.'

Who can withstand the sword of the Lord as it reaches into the depths of the hearts; into the hidden places of the church? This mighty priesthood of God will not look the part of the former 'man trained army' for they are unique vessels. The voice of one crying in the desert 'prepare ye the way of the Lord.' They will look straight into the eyes of another and right into their soul, their deepest hidden sin exposed; utter darkness to behold. They too will see man's destiny, call it forth from the darkness of the womb and into the Light.

> (9)They shall go up against the cities; they shall run upon the walls, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter through the windows like thieves. (10)The earth quakes before them; the heavens tremble; the sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars have withdrawn their shining.

The soul will yearn to escape from the wrath of God but it is in the wilderness of despair when God will cleanse her from all impurities and make her whole. It will be like a mighty army invading the darkness but his light will prevail.

It is the same for the church, she will be cleansed from all impurities and looking very desolate as the fire of God purges away the dross.

> (11) The Lord has shouted before his army; for his host is very great; mighty is the work executed by his word; for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; who can endure it? (12)Therefore now, says the Lord, return to me with all your heart, and with fasting and with weeping and with mourning; (13) And rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God; for he is gracious and merciful, patient and of great kindness, and he averts disaster. (End of pg.119)

Gideon's name means 'a tree cutter or hewer, he that bruises or breaks; a destroyer' and Joel's name means 'he that wills or commands, Yahweh is God.' Oh the precious breaking through in His power, the laying down of self to the complete will of the Father. "Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all the earth: Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises. Psalms 98:4 (ASV)

Oh the precious anointing on Papa's women arising from the deep, great victory through a company of women this year, a company of Deborah's that will bring His justice to His body through divine love and kindness but in His power and boldness that will loose those in mindset slavery. This is the divine merger of men and women that is so badly needed in the church to break through and set her free; they are supernatural, superhero, superwomen sent by God during the uprooting, during the upheaval to lift many a weakened hearts up unto the Lord.

We are seeing our hidden Jael's arising that will be used of God to break through the obstacles set by man, breakthrough the mindsets of the sleeping church as Jael did while driving the tent peg into the temple, of Sisera. Judges 4:21 "But Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent pin and a hammer in her hand and went softly to him and drove the pin through his temple and into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep from weariness. So he died." While seeking the Lord on November 1st I was shown in awesome display the Lord Jesus holding a holy drill, it was now activated and released within His body. This holy drill looked much like a normal drill one would see a carpenter use but Jesus, the Holy Carpenter was using it to drill through mindsets keeping many in the body of Christ in heavy bondage and attaining their callings in Christ. I have had many visions of this holy drill over the years but this was even more unusual for there was a corporate breakthrough released. Be careful not to judge what you may not understand or see for in the coming season this breakthrough will cause many in the body of Christ who have been holding up the banner of the Lord and pointing the way to be called back 'in' and into positions we may not understand or even agree with but it is to make room for the hidden warriors now emerging with the Lion of Judah anointing and all for such a time as this;

A reversal of positions will bring in a reversal of fortune to His Kingdom and a Holy Spirit reconciliation and renewal.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. {2} And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” Romans 12:1, 2 (KJV)

(Titus 3:5 KJV) “He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but because of His own pity and mercy, by [the] cleansing [bath] of the new birth (regeneration) and renewing of the Holy Spirit.”

The word "renewing" in both of the above verses is the Greek word "anakainosis" and means "renewal or change." The laying down of mindsets that keep us bound and not free to be who God truly created us to be “to be or not to be: that is the question.”

Renewing is a continuous process of sanctification; an elimination which brings illumination*.

This renewing is like unto the sound of thunder as it awakens many from their sleep, 'Wake up, wake up, Deborah! Wake up, wake up, break out in song!
Arise, O Barak! Take captive your captives, O son of Abinoam.' Judges 5:12

(Pg.135-136 “Coat of Arms”)

The mighty blast of a trumpet resounded through my spirit and I was taken up in the Spirit of the Lord and set back on the grounds just outside the cave where Joan of Arc was waiting. This time she was sitting upon a brilliant silver horse and in her left hand the Celtic cross. Beside Joan was my horse Amber, no longer the color of amber but pure white while her veins were pumping victoriously in silver all throughout her body; redemption was the cry. There was rich excitement in the air so thick you could cut it with a knife as Joan raised her fingers to her lips and let out a whistle that sent shivers down my spine. It echoed throughout the nations as it pierced the earth with the sound of the King and then a rumbling began beneath my feet that shook the earth with a great blast!

The rumbling was the sound of many horses and their riders; they were women from every tribe and nation upon the earth, marching in unison into battle. Written upon each and every horse were the names of women from the past, from Sarah to Miriam, Deborah and Hannah, from Hulda to Esther and so many more and their names were alive! Written upon Joan’s horse was the name Abigail, ‘oh the Father’s joy!’ The site was more than breathtaking; it was pure victory for the Spirit of the Lord was moving in and out through these women in total freedom to reign. Then Joan cried out in song as we all met her voice together in harmonious waves of the Father’s glory:

> “Arise, shine; for your light is come, and the glory of the Lord shall rise upon you.” Isaiah 60:1

This was sung over and over again until Joan the humble maiden raised the cross high towards heaven and the light of the Lord met it in song as his mighty breath began to blow in and throughout the Celtic cross.

The breath of God began to turn the circle upon the cross much like a wheel would turn and with each and every spin light beams would hit like fire bombs upon many churches in Europe igniting them in reformation that would spread through out the earth. There was such love and unity flowing through the cross and we knew it was now time to ride as we mounted in joy, we mounted in love and we mounted in the unity of Christ. We were then given a camel colored, leather tool belt positioned around our waist in gentle humbleness yet in courage and a three-cord lariat in our hands.

The belt was full with many tools such as hammers, chisels, crowbars and knives as we set out in the Spirit of the Lord to tear down the walls of man. The ropes were used much like one would do when lassoing but instead of cattle their grips were on tent pegs as they were pulled up from the earth;

The hidden ones now illuminated in the light of the Lord. Many women began to chisel on the walls outside the church until the walls crumbled to the ground. Some were climbing the roof tops like mountain climbers as they too began to tear the 'covering' off of the church; man's ways were being exposed unlike any move of God before as I bid farewell to all my sisters in the Lord; until we would meet again!

How long I tarried there in the spirit it I do not know but oh how my soul did ache in love pains for the Lord Jesus; quicken me oh Lord.

"Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy lovingkindness." Psalms 119:159 (end of page 136)

This is a call to the Potter's house, to lay before the Lord and be ye willing, yielding and obeying in His Mighty, Mighty hands. Have you been to the Potter's house lately for the door is always open while the room is full with the fragrance of wet clay and fresh cut wood, oh to be healed, delivered and transformed, to know that all that was used against you, the sabotaging of your youth will be the very thing that God will use to set man free, all for the Glory of God!

Some of you may know 'my story' as I continue to share little sound bites along the way, not to reflect on the past in anger or despair or the need for anyone to feel sorry for me; it is the opposite for it is a great and glorious testimony and a gift I have received to know that all the evil that was leashed upon me, afflicted upon you through out our lives, oh the darkness we did enter was not in vain but a pure treasure, a gift of strategic keys that has given us authority in Christ to set the prisoners free in His love for greater love has no one than this that a man lay down his life for a friend. (John 15)

The darkness I entered as a child began even before I had verbal skills of communication, a web of sexual abuse beginning with my father and weaving its way both inside and outside the family walls. The summer of 1970 seemed to be marked out by the enemy like a large x upon my forehead, horrific sexual abuse at a local Christian camp, I was seven years old and the call of God was deep in my heart as I fought to know who He really was through the lies and abuse inside the church. As summer was coming to a close I was walking along a dirt road outside my house when I was kidnapped and dragged into a local wooded area, brutally raped and about to be killed when God intervened and pulled me out from the pit of hell in awesome victory and display.

The drunken man with clouded glasses began to express his grief in having to kill me and how sorry he was for what he had just done and I spiritually saw past the man and into a horde of demons; there were so many surrounding him that I could no longer see his face when the light of God shown down through the shadowing trees and two glorious angels appeared in the natural;

As real as the man who was abusing me, there they stood, 7ft. maybe taller, both Gabriel and Michael the archangels of God and the man loosed his hold upon me and fled. I was later told by the Lord that he never abused again and is still alive today, living a life of gruesome guilt and despair, my prayer is that he will be set free oh to know the true love of Jesus and be totally and wonderfully set free!

This was my first encounter with Gabriel and Michael and I was commissioned and dispatched on the spot and I knew that I would never return to the former ways of how man did church. I was given a new lease on life, new hope even through the pain and I was told many future events even the death of my own father. I knew that my life had been spared because of His love and so too for the release of many, many others bound in darkness. This is God's Holy Amber Alert for His missing children, the sound has gone out and we are taking back the land that the Lord God prepared even before we were born.

> Exodus 23:20-22 "Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep and guard you on the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared.
> Give heed to Him, listen to and obey His voice; be not rebellious before Him or provoke

> Him, for He will not pardon your transgression; for My Name is in Him.
> But if you will indeed listen to and obey His voice and all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

There are many angels being sent out before you and to you; even unto those who are blinded and cannot see from whence they choose to reveal themselves and through whom for God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. 1Cor. 1:27(NIV) Yes, they are coming through the broken, the meek and humble, just like in Gideon's army the clay pots were broken to reveal His Light and the trumpets, the voices in the unity of Jesus sounded and the enemy not only fled but turned upon one another. We must be willing to get over ourselves and keep our eyes on the King of Kings, do not be rebellious with hardened hearts and refuse to see for you just might miss the excitement in the exposure and the tearing down of man's walls for the eviction notice has been given out to the man made church and now the church on foot has not only emerged but they too have been given their walking papers from out of the caves and deserted places of the Lord and they are speed walking my friends towards the higher calling in Christ Jesus, may we merge together in His Name, Amen!

"Speak, Lord, for your servant hears". 1 Samuel 3:9 (all scripture is Amp. Unless otherwise noted)

robinpaisley@comcast.net

2006 Shepherd's Rod

Joni Ames

Last year at this time, I had it confirmed to me that I'd been given a Shepherd's Rod for 2005. I prayed and wondered whether I'd get another one this year for 2006, and believe I did.

For those of you who do not know what a Shepherd's Rod is....The term "Shepherd's Rod" refers to the belief that God's people pass under His Shepherd Staff for evaluation and promotion, in much the same way that sheep pass before and are evaluated by their Shepherd. The term also refers to the prophetic revelation and interpretation that the Lord releases on and around the Day of Atonement. - Basically, "New Year's Prophecies" and instruction for His people.

The following is what I believe the Lord gave me this year:

SONS OF ISSACHAR CLOCK
The Lord spoke to me about a spiritual Sons of Issachar clock we have been given in this time and showed me that every minute that passes is like money passing through our fingers. It came with directions:

Value the time you are given as you would value money.

Spend time wisely. Time is life. Time can be used to make money, but money can't be used to buy time. Every minute is far more valuable than money.

Invest time wisely. I love people. But some people are time wasters and can wear you out. They won't take any advise you give to them, and they simply abuse your kindness by sucking up valuable time. Invest your time into those who appreciate and receive from you.

Save time. We can save time through a variety of things. (1) Delegate instead of micro manage. That is even helpful when training others. It gives them a sense of responsibility, accountability and trust. And it delivers us from a spirit of control! (2) Make "to do" lists. (3) Don't drive all over town for the things you are looking for. Let your fingers do the walking through the phone book and find the place that has what you need and go there.

Reserve & Make time. Set time aside for what is important - the Lord, family, friends. - Vacations. - Even Jesus, who is perfect, knew that He had to take time aside to be refreshed. You'll be a better spouse, parent, friend, and person for doing so.

Mark/Measure time. Keep a journal of what you do with your time. Keep a journal of your prayer requests and when they are answered and how. There are many times of "spiritual markers" and it is important to mark those times. The Lord writes a book of remembrance about us, and we need to do so for Him!

Time sensitive. Handle time sensitive things in an appropriate manner. Don't miss out on those "Kairos" moments when you have a small window of time in which to do something.

Don't waste time. Don't window shop and drool over things that you know you won't buy. It just brings on a spirit of discontent. Don't worry over things you can't change. Don't daydream over things you wish could be. And by all means, don't waste time in unforgiveness or in trying to get revenge or get even with someone!

Be timely/on time. We make time for what we count important. It is rude to make appointments and be consistently late. If you find you are going to be late, call and let the person know. Manners are always appropriate. As Christians, we should use them.

Don't be discouraged by or waste time delays - sometimes God allows us to be delayed in a traffic jam to keep us from an accident. Sometimes the delays to our goals take longer than we desire - months or years longer. Don't get into murmuring and complaining in that time frame. - Use them wisely as time to draw closer to Him.

Know the time of your visitation. Acknowledge the Lord in all your ways and He will direct your path. (Prov.)

REPLACE FEAR & DOUBT WITH HOPE & FAITH
I awoke one morning to hear this: "Know that your worst nightmare (worst experience) is the seed bed of your greatest miracle."

It is important in these times to remain rooted in the Word and keep our focus upon the Lord. As we do that, the Lord promises that we will be kept in perfect peace, if our minds are stayed on Him.

The word panic comes from the root word "Pan" which is the name of the Greek god of panic and fear.

Even as the terror alert has been elevated in our nation in the natural, the enemy has tried to elevate levels of terror spiritually as well.

Terrorism means "Use of force or threats to intimidate or control."

Terrorize means: (1) To terrify; (2) To coerce; (3) To make submit by filling with terror.

Remember, God hasn't given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind. (II Tim. 1:7)

Don't let the enemy steal your peace of mind or your hope, and if he already has, I pray this scripture for you and over you: "Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13)

"PASSOVER"
The enemy is trying to hasten death of those who are not yet sealed for the Kingdom. I heard "Pray for Passover." Pray that the storms and terror pass over and not hit our families and our nation.

I also saw that taking communion before the Lord would be of great value in our personal times with Him. I also encourage you to take the communion juice/wine and anoint the door posts (temple area) of yourself and your family members, as well as the door posts of your home and it's parameters, your vehicles, work areas, schools, churches, and wherever the Lord speaks to you to do this. Some intercessors groups may even want to mark the gates of their cities in this manner. As you do this intercessory prophetic act, it would be symbolic of the protection of blood of Jesus, much as when the Israelites put the blood of a lamb on their door posts and experienced Passover when the death angel passed by.

DIVINE POSITIONING/RE-POSITIONING
Go where you are anointed to be and where you can fulfill the purpose and destiny for which you have been called. You were born for this time! To be a deliverer and encourager in these perilous times!

Be flexible and willing to change, that your circumstances will not hold you back, but rather, will fit into His plans for your life and calling. There is nothing more fulfilling than doing just that. There are some who may feel to sell homes and belongings, get a Motor Home, and go on the road. If you are married and come into agreement on that, do not worry about what the neighbors or relatives think! This is a time to hear and obey the prompting of the Lord and "Go for it!"

WOMEN
The Lord continues to call for the "draft" of the Psalms 68:11 great Army of Women.

Many women were sent to the prayer closets to pacify them in years past, but there are now great explosions coming forth, and they are "coming out of the closet" in tremendous power and anointing which they got from that time with Him, and they are becoming a force to be reckoned with and set many free!

There is neither male or female in heaven. Churches dominated by all men or all women are not healthy. They can be likened to a homosexual marriage. There is no reproduction.

Nurturing and reproduction comes from true mothers. Not from those women who try to be men. That is spiritual Lesbianism. True mothers may not have even had natural children, but they have that sense of nurturing in them and the heart of the Lord with a spirit of adoption, and they will raise many children in the Kingdom in these times!

It is also time for the Titus 3:5 mature women to come forth and raise the younger ones.

I fully realize that some of you may have had mothers who were like mother hamsters that eat their young. Even they will be set free when they see and experience the love and nurturing of these Spiritual Mothers that are now come forth!

These loving, Apostolic Mothers will be used in this time to restore The Lord's nurturing "El Shaddai" (as nurture from the many breasted one - ref: http://www.hebrew4christians.com/Names_of_G-d/El/el.html) to the church.

DISASTERS
Record breaking natural disasters (even man made ones) will increase, as well as National disasters. BUT...

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (2 Chron. 7:14)

God is God. Nothing is impossible with Him. He can make suitcase atomic bombs peter out and not work. He can unwind the power of hurricanes and tornados. He can take volcanic lava and send it into earthquake fault lines and cause it to be like welding material to seal up the cracks and stop earthquakes. He is God. No one else is.

Stand in the authority the Lord has given to you and speak peace to the storms! Command the twisters to unwind! Demand that the terrorists become confused and fall into their own pits! Speak death to the viruses and plagues! Pray Psalm 91!

"No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling!" (Psalm 91:10)

STIRRING UP OF RACIAL ENMITY, ANTI SEMITISM & RIOTOUS SPIRITS
Fear and panic does strange things. The enemy is trying to use it in these times to stir up a enmity between the races, and to revive KKK and Nazi spirits, and a riotous spirit, even in areas where there has been much racial reconciliation. We must not let the enemy destroy what God has accomplished.

God will not allow a spirit of elitism to crush His people of any background. He is no respector of persons. We must pray that the enemy's plans be thwarted.

ALASKA, CANADA & GREENLAND
Alaska, Canada, and Greenland will be in the news regarding weather, disasters, and global warming related problems.

FRESH BREAD!
For days, I smelled fresh bread in the air. Many are prophetically getting the urge to bake fresh bread. It is a sign of what the Body of Christ is hungry for, and what the Lord is giving. Fresh Bread. Not canned, pre-packaged sermons. It may take longer to "get it on your own," but that is what relationship with Him is all about. Once we have it, He says then, "Feed My Sheep."

"Give us this day our daily bread." (Matt. 6:7)

Jesus is the Bread of Life (ref.: John 6:33, 35, 48, 51)

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst." John 6:35

"For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." (John 6:33)

I am the bread of life. (John 6:48)
I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world." (John 6:51)
MANY THUNDERS
The Lord again spoke to me about thunder. God speaks in the thunder. There has been much rolling thunder, and I believe He is speaking.

I live between two Air Force bases - Hurlbert (special operations) and Eglin (flight training). One morning when I woke up, I heard a lot of "booms" that rolled and shook the area. I said, "Lord, is this thunder or are they on maneuvers?"

He said, "Both. My angels are on maneuvers and I'm speaking in the thunder because the battle is heating up."

The Lord speaks in the thunder. In John 12:28 & 29, a conversation between father and son is recorded. The Father made a promise that He has and is going to again glorify His Name. Those that stood by just heard thunder. We don't want to be those who hear only thunder when the voice of the Lord speaks.

Years ago, someone had a prophecy that the Lord was bringing forth "Sons of Thunder" in worship. Don't take that term as gender specific. If the men can be the Bride of Christ, women can also be "Sons of Thunder!"

I believe deep is calling unto deep, and His Thunders are speaking to the spirit inside of those "Sons (and Daughters) of Thunder" to call them forth, for such a time as this. James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James were referred to as "Sons of Thunder" due to their passionate (sometimes volatile) personalities. Some even refer to James to as "the lightening bolt." - I believe they were also soul winners, and the Lord is bringing forth his "unconventional," passionate soul winners.

There is a territorial war over our nation in the heavens right now. "The kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force." (Matthew 11:12) Yet we know, to fight, it is "'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' Says the Lord of hosts. (Zech. 4:6) and that, "...The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds," (2 Cor. 10:4)

Many others have commented recently about the thunders, and I believe that the Lord truly is speaking. Like Samuel, we need to say to the Lord, "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening," and then DO just THAT! - LISTEN!

"Hear attentively the thunder of His voice, And the rumbling that comes from His mouth:" (Job 37:2)

POWER WITH OUR WORDS
Proverbs 31:26 says of the virtuous woman, "She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness." I believe the Bride of Christ will be noted as such a virtuous woman.

He is putting the coal to our mouths, and cleaning them up, so that our words will become purified - even the prophetic words we speak forth to others.

In the process of this, there will be power coming forth from our words - creating as they flow forth - healings, deliverances, signs, wonders, and miracles.

"ALL HANDS ON DECK!"
I heard what sounded like a Navy ship's siren and heard, "ALL HANDS ON DECK!" This happened once before prior to some serious things occurring. I knew immediately that it was a call to the intercessors to get sober and do some "hit the deck, hands down, on our face" serious intercession.

I then saw the Ezekiel 9:1-4 inkhorn brought forth to mark all of those willing to spend time before the Lord and listen for His commands for prayer. - Not to be seen or heard by man, but to be heard by and obey the Lord.

"The Lord said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it." (Ezek. 9:4)

"I will gather those who sorrow over the appointed assembly, Who are among you, To whom its reproach is a burden." (Zephaniah 3:18)

"But if they are prophets, and if the word of the Lord is with them, let them now make intercession to the Lord of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the Lord, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon.' " (Jeremiah 27:18)

OVERDUE BABIES BORN & RAISED QUICKLY!
The longer the wait, the bigger the baby you're going to birth! COME FORTH! This is "due season!"

I saw big, out of proportion babies being birthed. They were awkward to even be handled. But when they were taken in arms of love and nurtured, they became properly proportioned and healthy. Don't be afraid. Don't give up on your babies. The Lord will teach you all you need to know, and you and your babies will make it!

A while back, the Lord showed me that "Due" season was spelled three ways:

(1) Due Season: The harvest is due; The babies are due.

(2) Dew Season: We don't want to go if He is not with us, but the heavy dew, heavy presence of the Lord is here.

(3) Do Season: Time to just DO it!

Some of you have been through a lot of "doo-doo" to get to this point! Don't expect sympathy! That just makes you fertile ground!

"MY HUSBAND"
I again heard Hosea 2:16: "And it shall be, in that day," Says the Lord, "That you will call Me 'My Husband,' -And no longer call Me 'My Master.'

This will truly be a time of knowing the Lord as Husband, Provider, and protector.

Many are coming forth from their desserts, leaning on the arm of their Beloved, to fulfill their purpose and destiny. Hold tightly to His hand! - You are etched on it!

GO FOR IT!
Many of you have passed beneath the Shepherd's Rod for inspection and gotten promotion. GO FOR IT! Don't acquiesce the purpose and destiny for which you have been born. Do not let anything start stopping you, or it will never stop stopping you. DO IT! You were born for it! Jesus paid the price for it for you, and He deserves to get what He paid for!

Joni Ames
P.O. Box 1346
Fort Walton Beach, FL 32549
E-Mail: JoniAmes@aol.com
Main Website: http://www.joniames.info
Newsletter Website: http://www.joniames.org

2006 The Coming Kingdom

Clay Sikes

December 15th, 2005

‘He said, the knowledge of the secrets of the Kingdom of God has been given to you’.(Luke 8:10).

Watch in 2006 as the order (government) of God begins to be birthed throughout the earth (Luke 11:2/Isaiah 9:6-9). God’s order will produce chaos when it touches anything that is out of order. Think it not a strange thing to see the institutions of man fall into disarray and confusion as God’s order rises in the earth in the days, weeks, and years to come. ONLY those who are led of my Spirit will truly grasp the meaning of the times that are upon us, and the events that these times will spawn.

Light will shine into darkness and those hidden evil things will be revealed as never before (John 1:5). Much of this exposure will come through here-to-fore hidden vessels that step forward in obedience. During much of 2006 the world will get its first modern day glance at the power and government (Kingdom) of God operating in power and authority in the earth. Many changes will occur during the beginning of 2006 as God’s order and rule begins to be established (Revelation 11:15). A new day is coming in which the true Saints of God will rise in His power and into prominent positions of power. Great wealth will transfer into the hands of the faithful as God releases His hand of favor and blessing upon His people in unprecedented ways. Clearly, what is spoken of here will only happen to those who hear and obey. This will happen proportionate to their degree of total surrender (Revelation 2:26/3:21).

Erase all doubts as the Kingdom’s presence upon the earth as 2006 gives rise to the Kingdom and demise to The World’s System. The things of man will weaken as the things of God strengthen. Once again, the world will recognize the one true God as His hand of favor touches His people (Isaiah 60/61).

Those walking in the light will expose darkness by their very presence, as this light will first offer repentance (Matthew 3:2) to all in darkness who touch the light (Acts 9:3-5). So too will light weaken darkness by simple exposure as the schemes of evil are exposed for what they are. Those who fail to repent (Matthew 3:2) unto salvation will diminish in strength and no longer occupy places of strength and power. These things will begin in earnest in 2006 and continue until the end.

2006 - Year of Visitation

Bayo Omoyiola, jr.

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

2006 will be my year of visitation. I will visit my people in a new way. I will push those who are called into new levels of anointing. I will make a way for them that know me to rise upon the name of the Lord till that new level is formed - saith the Lord .

What an awesome word from the mouth of the LORD. We have his word. So lets be expectant for its going to be awesome. What GOD has spoken will surely come through.

I believe we all should pray this season for 2006. Lets seek God. He’d speak to us.

I feel in my spirit that the devil has marked out 06/06/06 for himself and I just want us all to pray for the church and the nations so that God’s wish be done. Lets pray against the devils wish for that day.

Rapture is about the corner though we do not know exactly when. Lets keep ourselves pure for Jesus is returning soon. I believe very much that the time of his return very much depends on our readiness. Is the church ready for his visitation? I don’t think so. Therefore lets get ready to welcome the king of kings in a new way. Should he come in 2006, we would be ready. Selah

24-7 Prayer In New Orleans
Chad Taylor

24/7 Prayer In New Orleans Flourishing But Much More Help Needed

12 states and innumerable people have come through the threshold of 24/7 prayer and worship in New Orleans at our first of many 24/7 beachheads at 2001 Airline Hwy off of I-10. Literally teams are and have come from as far away as New York, Minnesota, Washington state and Florida to create a perpetual sound and act of worship and prayer in New Orleans which has become a vortex of spiritual possibilities. I believe the entire nation is in the balances and her continued response to the Gulf Coast and New Orleans will be a determining factor for the future. Though we have had a incredible response from people across the country we still need a great number more to accomplish true 24/7 prayer and worship in New Orleans. There are many gaps to fill especially in December and the months to follow. Our commitment to sustain 24/7 prayer and worship is indefinite so please respond with your dates and times that you and a team could come and lift the standard.

BAY ST. LOUIS AND GROUND ZERO

When you visit Bay St. Louis and the surrounding areas of Waveland etc., you witness something out of a science fiction movie as 20 blocks of what once was habitable neighborhoods and livable land is simply non-existent. Reports have come in that there is still recovery of dead bodies. Bay St. Louis is literally where the eye of Katrina hit. Consuming Fire has joined forces with Streetscape Ministries who consequently have been on the ground in Bay St. Louis 3 days after the hurricane struck and Blaze of Glory Ministries from MS. to raise up another 24/7 prayer and worship tabernacle! We will circulate teams from New Orleans into Bay St. Louis, MS. near Gulf Port and Biloxi and seize this divine opportunity with 24/7 prayer and praise. Please contact us now so we can begin strategizing and filling the gaps thus seizing this divine moment to literally lead hundreds of thousands of people into the Kingdom of God.

STRATEGIES, ALLIANCES AND A CONCENTRATION OF FORCES

The frontlines are being forged as the church allows the destruction and devastation to be its clarion call of action and outreach. The question is how many will sit idle while one of the greatest thresholds of revival stands open to us? How much does it take to shake the dust of predictability and apathy from the altars of our heart and say, "Here am I, send me"? If we knew the gravity of our obedience to this historical landmark in American history we would be leaping into it with absolute abandonment. We still are extending the invitation for you to come to these strategic areas to give yourself to prayer and worship; please respond now. If you are a church or ministry in the Gulf Coast area and desire to network and possibly create a 24/7 prayer and worship beachhead in your city or region please make contact as well. This concentration of forces on the frontlines of this nation's future will set the stage for revival for the next 40 years. Let's seize the moment!

"AN ARMY OF RV'S" AND OTHER OPPORTUNITY

A word was given from a brother Kevin Frasure in Aug. of this year which one caption read, "ARMY OF RV'S" here is portion of that word: "I see an army of RV's. I see RV ministries beginning to pop up. Some of the RV's will be ministries to feed the poor and heal the sick. These RV's will be equipped to pick up and go, set up and leave. It will be a portable strike force. They will operate in the Glory and Power of God. I hear the words "Trail Blazers" They will go and rebuild cities...."

How true this word has become in the Gulf Coast where it is reported 40% now live in a RV or Travel campers. In most places there simply is no housing. The portable "strike forces" are God's way of getting us into these uninhabitable places to set up camp and sustain 24/7 prayer and worship. The challenge is getting enough RV's, motor homes, 5th wheels, and campers to accommodate the need. We are currently functioning in one RV in New Orleans and desperately need more. Can you help? Do you know anyone that has a RV or camper that we can use during this campaign? What price is too high to see cities and 1/3 of our country rebuilt that has been impacted this year by hurricanes and floods? We need some radical faith-filled believers that can help us secure this enormous need. Please pray with us and use any practical means possible to help. We will need at least 4 more portable trailers or motor homes to accommodate teams in New Orleans and now Bay St. Louis. To help with this specific need go to www.consumingfire.com/NONEEDS.htm

Contact Info. And Online Donation For New Orleans And Bay St. Louis

Our teams on the ground need gas money and other practical expenses to be met you can help right now by going to Operation Rescue Link: Hurricane Katrina, online calendar of 24/7 prayer teams and donations go to: www.consumingfire.com/operationrescue.htm see new pictures from Bay St. Louis area and the prayer and worship tent go to: www.consumingfire.com/katrinapics.htm

EMAIL US DIRECTLY AT: help@consumingfire.com

24 Hour Prayer And Worship In New Orleans
Chad Taylor

After 3 consecutive trips into very eye of devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina we knew right away that sustained 24 hr. prayer and worship was critical if not the hinge by which the door of true restoration will open. Last week we were allowed into downtown New Orleans in the French Quarter, Bourbon St. etc. It was one of most astonishing and overwhelming things I have ever witnessed. Yet in the midst of all the destruction and utter hopelessness I had the most powerful sense of hope and the incredible possibilities that awaited us. I could literally see the hand of God upon this entire ordeal and His plan to rebuild New Orleans on the foundation of prayer and worship.

As of last week we have secured the location to stage the 24 hr. prayer and worship literally 5 minutes from downtown New Orleans. I met with Lance Rowe of Cross Country 4 Jesus Ministries and others that have been coordinating relief since Katrina stuck. They share the same vision and passion to see 24 hr. prayer and worship sustained in New Orleans. Lance has a outdoor tent that will be up as soon as next week to accommodate 24 hr prayer. We are still locating a flat bed truck or something similar for live worship to occur. Global Impact will also be in the same location feeding approximately 10,000 to 15,000 a day - can you imagine the people this can reach? Do you want to be a part of this? You can be.

We are ready to receive requests from teams around the world that desire to bring worship teams, join prayers teams, daily outreach into the streets and ultimately 24 hr. intercession and live worship in the shadow of downtown New Orleans and in the parking lot of a church that only weeks ago was under 9 ft. of water. If you or someone you know wants to join a concentration of forces and help make this happen you can email me at chadtaylor@consumingfire.com and we can help you coordinate this now. Even if you are a simple prayer warrior and want to fill the tent with prayer, please respond. Maybe you have a youth group or church group that wants to volunteer and stand in the gap each day and night, please respond. Possibly a worship leader and you desire to use your gift to rebuild a city, please respond. Anyone that can come and pray, please respond...

PERTINENT NEEDS TO MAKE THIS HAPPEN

We still have a number of pending needs and without a concerted effort from many we can never hope to achieve something so dramatic. Accommodations are a challenge though an enclosed building will be available for those coming, Lance Rowe who is literally giving his life 24/7 in New Orleans needs a 5th Wheel or motor home for him and his family. Currently his wife and children are staying 1 1/2 hrs. away as he labors in love literally day and night. Please, if have a motor home or any kind of travel trailer/5th Wheel could you contact me immediately? What a chance to use what you have for such a time as this. We can pick up and bring back if necessary. Extreme times demand extreme measures and extreme givers. We are forever gracious for your radical unprecedented commitment to revival and harvest.

Our team is returning sometime next week (Oct. 9-14th) to help with the set-up of the prayer and worship location and will have a permanent base camp in New Orleans by Oct. 31st. We need your support to make this happen. It is a challenge with current gas prices which have tripled since hurricane Katrina but it will not be enough to stop our efforts. Please visit our Operation Rescue Website for updates, picture and the means to donate online. THANK YOU!

www.consumingfire.com/operationrescue.htm

EMAIL US DIRECTLY AT: chadtaylor@consumingfire.com

Two Churches Two Kingdoms

Randy Williams

openeyes@verizon.net

Exodus 33:7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

Hebrews 13:12-14 So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.

Brothers and sisters, make no mistake about it, we are in the end times. There are a few things we need to realize about these days that we live in. Mainly we need to understand that there is a “cosmic struggle” being played out in the heavens, and of course it has its counterpart down here on Earth. The battle is spiritual but it manifests itself in the physical also. I am afraid, however, that we are somewhat ignorant of both the spiritual and physical elements of this struggle. Maybe we can change that today.

There are two kingdoms aligned against each other: The Kingdom of God and the kingdom of the devil. Jesus was sent here to represent the Kingdom of God. The Antichrist will be here soon to represent the kingdom of the devil. It is hard to see the Kingdom of God with the naked eye, but the kingdom of the devil is all around us. Perhaps we would be surprised to know how pervasive the devil’s kingdom is. I wonder how we would feel if we found out we were helping to build the devil’s kingdom? Let’s take a look.

When Jesus came to Earth, He preached the Kingdom of God, which He also called the Kingdom of Heaven, or just, The Kingdom. While He was preaching the true Kingdom there was also a false kingdom operating. Of course these two kingdoms clashed violently. Eventually the devil’s kingdom, represented by the religious system of the day and by the political government of the day, killed Jesus and persecuted His followers.

The Pharisees and Sadducees, who were supposed to be “God’s authority”, teamed with the political government of Rome and put Jesus to death. Jesus did His Master’s bidding and the religious and political people did their master’s bidding. This same configuration was seen in Elijah’s day. Elijah, more or less single-handedly, represented God’s Kingdom, while Jezebel and her false prophets represented the devil’s kingdom. This clash has played itself out since Adam and Eve listened to the serpent and disobeyed God. Are we so foolish as to think it isn’t being played out today?

Yes, the battle still rages. We need to be very frank and very serious at this point. Today’s churches are either representing the Kingdom of God, or, the kingdom of the devil. WE are either helping to build God’s Kingdom or we are supporting and building the devil’s Antichrist system. Of course we recoil at the very suggestion. We would NEVER help the devil. Would we? Would we have been one of the Pharisee’s who teamed with Rome to kill Jesus? Would we have been eating at Jezebel’s table? Yes, I am afraid that many of us would have done those evil things. Why do I say this? Because we take part in a religious system today that is building and supporting the Antichrist’s coming kingdom: A religious system that is teamed up with our political government. Sound familiar?

Let’s break it down and see where we stand. Let’s look at our modern church system and compare it to the apostolic church in the Bible and in the first few centuries of its existence. Let’s see if we are in the devil’s camp or if we are going to Jesus outside the camp.

“Outside the camp” versus “mainstream.” Until Jesus returns to set up His Kingdom, the true church will NEVER be “mainstream”. The devil is always “mainstream." After all, we know we are of God and the whole world is under the rule of the evil one. The “mainstream” world and its newspapers and televisions and governments WILL accept the Antichrist. So if our churches are accepted in the “mainstream” world, what does that tell us? The true church is always a remnant: A peculiar people who are sojourners. We are destined to meet with Jesus outside the camp. So how is it that our modern churches are so widely “accepted” by the world? Where is the violent clash? How is it that a church can sit on the road next to a palm-reading witch and there are no sparks flying? Why don’t our church “leaders” clash with the world like Jesus did? If Peter and Paul were here today whom WOULD they clash with? Would they clash with our church “leaders?” Yes, they would.

“Approved by God” or “Licensed by the State?” This is one of the main indicators. Where is our approval from? Jesus was approved by God but rejected by the political and religious system of His day. The Apostles were beaten and forbidden to preach in Jesus name by the religious leaders of their day. John Bunyan was jailed for 12 years for preaching without a license. Upon his release he refused to get a license and was jailed again 3 years later. Remember that there are two kingdoms in place. The devil’s kingdom will ALWAYS run the governments of the world until Jesus returns. Whereas early Christians died rather than be licensed, today we VOLUNTEER to be “licensed” by the state. In America we now APPLY for 501c3 status from the IRS. Why we can’t see through this trap is beyond understanding. In return for some nice tax breaks, the pastor agrees to a number of things that Jesus or Paul or Peter would never agree to. For instance, a 501c3 organization cannot try to affect legislation. A pastor of a 501c3 church can’t even tell you who to vote for. So for 30 pieces of silver our modern churches have been gagged and bound in numerous ways. The sad thing is that the IRS clearly states in their documents that churches aren’t taxable anyway. A true church is a church that is free to speak what Jesus would speak. A true church doesn’t take “hush money.”

“Simple and Straightforward” or “Complex and Organized.” This is another basic difference between a true Kingdom of God church and a false, man-made, kingdom of the devil, church. The bible shows a very simple setup for church leadership. There were to be plural elders at each church. We don’t find complex hierarchal structures in the Bible. Yet, in the churches of the devil’s kingdom, we find all varieties of intricate leadership structures with dozens of titles and positions: Popes, Cardinals, Rectors, Senior Pastors, Assistant Pastors, 3rd Junior Pastors in charge of washing the Senior Pastor’s car, Left Handed Worship Leaders twice removed. Where are all these titles in the Bible? What is the purpose of all these titles and positions? The devil is all about centralized power. Through his hierarchal networks he is consolidating his religious and political and business structures into one tight unit so that the Antichrist can then assume power. The true church is under the headship of Jesus alone. The Bible never puts us under any “mother church” or into any “convention.” If our churches are full of hierarchal complexities and titles and positions, we need to ask ourselves what kingdom do our churches belong to. If our churches belong to councils that are working to unite all of the world’s churches under one roof, we ARE building the devil’s kingdom. (Hint; something is wrong if you need an appointment to speak to your “pastor.”)

“Newness of Spirit” or “Oldness of Letter.” Until Jesus returns, the Kingdom of God will remain largely invisible. It is hard to point to the true Kingdom and say, “here it is” or “there it is.” It is even somewhat hard to define or explain it since it needs to be spiritually discerned. Jesus told parables to try to explain the Kingdom. The devil uses another method for his kingdom; he likes to write it all down and define it in minute detail. Whereas Jesus spoke in simple terms, the devil likes complexity and small print. Think about it. How did the gospel spread? It spread by people talking to each other. Of course most of them couldn’t read anyway and that didn’t seem to hinder them. How does the devil gain his power and spread his influence? He uses laws, contracts, fine print, creeds, and constitutions. We lose something when we try to commit the things of God to paper. We already have the Bible and that should be enough. But the devil needs more. He likes to have creeds written down so that we can have something to argue over. He likes to pass thousands of complex laws every year that boggle the mind in complexities so that he can continue to gain power. The Kingdom of God doesn't need these things. So why do our "churches" have creeds, mission statements, bylaws, contracts, bulletins, tithing envelopes, offering envelopes, doctrinal statements, programs, visitor cards, brochures, flyers, and magazines. Seems we are getting away from the work and methods of those unlearned fishermen. Are we using the devil's methods to build God's Kingdom? Unfortunately it doesn't work that way: the devil's tools only build his own kingdom. What is born of flesh is flesh, what is born of Spirit is Spirit.

We could talk about many other things but we should be getting a clear picture now. God's ways are not man's ways. What is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the eyes of the Lord. We need to wake up to what is going on around us. Our "institutions" are NOT building the Kingdom of God. We have allowed ourselves to be duped into building the kingdom of the devil. We have settled for convenience and the lowest common denominator. We have rejected the headship of Jesus and therefore we have been given children and blind men to lead us. We have adopted man's business model and ignored the Lord's model. We are so much like the world that they have no need to persecute us. We have rejected the Living Water and we prefer broken cisterns that can hold no water. We have taken Jesus off the throne and put human reasoning there instead. So what can we do now? How can we get back to the biblical model? The Bible tells us what to do.

2 Cor 6:17 Wherefore, come out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

We need to come out from these unclean churches whether they are from Rome or America or Israel or wherever. We should come away from liars and perverts and pedophiles and millionaire con artists. We should stop using God's money to build the devil's kingdom. We should stop relying on the arm of the flesh and the vanity of the human mind. We need to start relying on the Spirit. We should spend more time with other true Christians at their homes. God is the God of the living, not of the dead. We don't need to assemble with the dead and their professional clergy hirelings. We need to come out from among those who worship at the government's table. We need to go to Jesus where He is: outside the camp. Let those who bow to Nebuchadnezzar's statue continue to do so, but let us worship the true God and build the Kingdom of Heaven.

Three Kinds of Unbelief

by Bill Somers

> Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 1 Cor 10:11. (KJV)

I see this verse quoted by some of my favorite writers. It is usually as sign that the writer has some scriptural insight.

One factor that strikes me as important is the way it deals with three levels of unbelief.

First take the verse out of context and generalize it to apply to the entire bible. [It really is OK to do this.]

Then we see that is says [paraphrasing] that the things written in the bible
A. actually happened.
B. Happened as examples for us to learn from. and
C. the examples have special meaning or depth for those of us living in the end times.
Daniel says after all that the books are sealed till the time of the end.

So the levels of unbelief are:
1. Not believing that the things in the bible actually happened
2. Not believing that these things have any relevance or lessons for us
3. Not seeing or seeking to apply these things to the end time context.
Those at level 1 are 'liberals'
Those at level 2 are 'historicists'
Those at level 3 are 'literalists'
Those who get past these levels are 'prophetic'.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of

Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

A Three Question Test
by Bill Somers

I've recently been made aware that there are very many who are having a hard time figuring out what God is up to with the current refreshing/revival. Where should you look for answers?
Let me give you a hypothetical multiple choice test.

1. Amos 3:7 "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the ___________ ".

a. theologians
b. best selling authors
c. prophets
d. talk show hosts

2. 2nd Chronicles 20:20 "....Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his ___________ , so shall ye prosper".

a. theologians
b. best selling authors
c. prophets
d. talk show hosts

3. Ephesians 4:11-12 "And he gave some, apostles; and some, ___________; .... for the edifying of the body of Christ"

a. theologians
b. best selling authors
c. prophets
d. talk show hosts

The answer is C, C, C!
See what the prophets are saying!

God has given us prophets. He has given them to us for a purpose. "Brethren, I would not have you ignorant."
Let us seek them out and hear, through them, what the spirit is saying to the church. Then let us also seek the Lord and hear for ourselves.

This website, End Time Prophetic Vision, is a good place to start. There are many others as well.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

The Time is Come

by Bill Somers

This is a 4 part word I received from the Lord on May 14, 1997.
Part A is a short parable about a disobedient son.
Part B is a look at Why Judgment must begin at the House of God.
Part C is speculation about what to expect in this Judgment.
Part D is a prophecy employing various scriptures concerning the Judgment and the Redemptive Work that the Judgment will bring about. It also ties these scriptures together to convey many insights that the Lord has given me in this area.

Part A. A Story

On a certain day, young Johnny's dad comes home in the afternoon after being away for some time.
Johnny is downstairs in the family room when his father calls down to him.
"Johnny, you need to get outside and finish cutting that grass. It's fixing to storm soon."
"I don't even see any clouds dad!" the boy replies.
"They're just over the horizon. I saw them as I came over the hill on my way home. Now hurry up."
So right away Johnny goes to the fridge and gets a coke and grabs some snacks from the pantry. He sits down in the family room and resumes playing his Nintendo. After a while, the father calls down to him.
"I thought I told you to get out there and cut that grass!"
"OK Dad, I'll get right to it!"
About 10 minutes go by and Johnny is deep into his video game.
"Son", we hear, "are you going to cut that grass or not?"
"OK Dad, just a minute, I'll do it."
Some more time passes and the father calls out again.
Johnny says, "OK Dad, I'm almost done here."
Now the father is angry, and he comes down stairs.
"Son, I thought I told you to get out and cut the grass! What are you doing?"
The son says, "OK Dad, just one more round of this game."
Now the father is furious.
The first thing he does is take away Johnny's coke.
"Hey, what are you doing dad?" Johnny says.
Then the father takes away the snacks.
"Dad, that's my snack! Where are you going with my snack?"
The father says, "Now what was it I told you to do?"
"I'll do it, Dad! I'm gonna do it!" says Johnny.
Then the father turns off the Nintendo.
"Hey Dad, I was almost done!"
Then the father takes a scissors and cuts the plug off the Nintendo!
"DAD! Johnny cries, you ruined my Nintendo!"
"You're not going back to that, son." his dad answers.
Then the father, still furious, grabs hold of the son and begins to shake him, quite violently.
"OK, Dad, I'll cut the grass, I'll do it, I'll do it. Stop shaking me, you're hurting me, Dad!"
Johnny is getting really scared.
Then the father gets his paddle and whips his son to the point of tears. He does this so that he won't ever have to do it again.
"Son, I told you what to do, and you keep ignoring me. You seem to forget just who I AM."
By this time, Johnny is crying, I'm sorry, Dad. I'm sorry. I'll do it. I'll cut the grass. I'm sorry dad!"
When the father is satisfied that Johnny has been punished enough, he puts away the paddle. Then He goes and gets a Kleenex and wipes away Johnny's tears. This father loves his son very deeply and does not stay angry for long.
"OK Son, now let's get that grass cut. Look, you can see the storm clouds already."

As Johnny goes outside, his father gets out the fuel can and gasses up the lawnmower. The father even starts the mower and hands it to his son. Johnny quickly finishes the grass with his father helping him in the rough spots.

Now of course the Father stands for God and the son, Johnny is the church.
The snacks and drinks are the comfortable lifestyle.
Inside the house speaks of inside the 4 walls of the church.
The Nintendo is all the worldly distractions that keep us from God's purposes.
The Grass is the harvest field, and the gasoline is the power of the Holy Spirit.
The coming storm is the Wrath of God upon this world!

Part B Why Judgment

There are two issues here. Why Judgment on the House of God and Why Judgment must begin at the house of God.

Why Judgment on the House of God?

The Lord goes to great lengths in his word to spell this out. Just read Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel applying it to the Church instead of Israel and see how accurate it is.

Why Judgment must begin at the house of God.

Because we have heard but not done. We have been hearers of the word only.
Because we have called Him Lord, Lord, and then disobeyed.
Because we feared the Lord, but served other gods.
Because we have repented but not fully.
Because we have been refreshed but not revived.
Because we have been in the river, but have not gone into the deep.
Because the Bride has played the Harlot, and has to get back her virginity.
Because the Lord of the Harvest must first be Lord of the Laborers.
Because the Church must repent before the World can.
Because the World must see Jesus in us, or it will never see Jesus till too late.

Part C What can we expect these judgments to be like?

Organized Christianity will be shaken to pieces.
The accuser of the brethren will go all out. Using the worldly media and also using the Church against it self.
Unprecedented amounts of accusation, envy, jealousy and division.
The Church will have her sin exposed to the world and become a laughing stock.
Intense strife and conflict in the Church.
Increasing persecution by the World.
Many horrible accusations will come, mostly false but some true and very devastating.
Many believers will back away or fall away.
Some Christians will be martyred.
Many ministries will fall.
The furnace to be 7 times hotter that in 88-90, when we saw big name ministries fall right and left.
Increasing signs in the natural reflecting changes in the spiritual.

Part D The Prophecy

For the Lord would say to his people:
The time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: For I am setting my Throne in the midst of my people to establish my kingdom on this earth. And That Throne that I set in your midst is a Judgment Seat. The Judgment seat of Christ.
Yea there is Judgment coming to my house, for I shall set my house in order.
My House must be fitly framed before I can allow it to grow.
Yea there is Judgment coming but my word says, that when my judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.
I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?
Yea the dragon stands before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. But I say this manchild shall come forth as I have ordained.
Yea, The enemy shall come in like a flood, but I shall raise up a standard against him.
Yea, there are many weapons being formed against you, but I say No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper;.
Yea, many tongues shall rise against thee in judgment; but I say thou shall condemn them all.
When Jesus said to Peter, 'thou are Peter' he pointed at Peter.
When he said "and on this rock I will build my church" he pointed to Himself.
Yea the gates of hell are open. They are the doors you have opened by sin.
Yea the foxes have holes, the gates of hell. They are the holes that the foxes can use to enter my vineyard and spoil my vine.
But I will build my church on this rock - The Lordship of Jesus - and even though the gates of hell are open, and even though the hordes of hell flood in, they shall not prevail against you.
Submit unto God! Come under the Lordship of Jesus, then when you resist the Devil, he will flee.
Yea the enemy has dug a pit for you, but he shall fall into that very pit himself which he dug.
Yea the wolf shall come and the sheep will be scattered, but the hireling shall flee, because he is just a hireling. And I shall give you true shepherds which shall be men after my own heart.
Yea Judgment is coming; Zion shall be plowed like a field. but that is how the fallow ground will be broken up. Then that fallow ground will receive the seed of my word. And my word shall go forth to the nations.
This great mountain that man has built in his image will be bought low and humbled. It will become a plain. Then I will bring forth the Chief cornerstone, the Headstone. and He that believeth shall not be ashamed.
Yea my hand shall lay the foundation and my hand shall finish the work and the glory of the latter house shall be greater than that of the former house.
You have said show us the Father and that will be sufficient, and I say the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.
For whom the Father loveth he chasteneth, and if ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for this coming Judgment is for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
Yea this Judgment that is coming to my house shall be grievous: nevertheless afterward it shall yield the peaceable fruit of righteousness to my people.
For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.
Behold I have told you these things before hand so that when you see them come to pass, you will believe.
And when you see these things begin to happen, look up for your redemption draweth near.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

Ashes To Embers

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, Sept. 23, 2005

In these last hours of the age, a holy nation, a holy people, a sanctified stick that has Ephraim's name written on it by the hand of the Almighty Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, is literally being raised from the grave.

We were cremated by the fires of YHVH's judgments and our ashes (e-ph-r) were scattered by the four winds to the ends of the earth. But now, today, the same Spirit that raised our Messiah from the dead is raising us up from that grave, or ash heaps, as live embers, to become a nation on fire with His Spirit, a recognizable stick/tree, nation and people. This is not a religious denominational issue for Ephraim - it is a national one!

Before the Father brought our brothers back to this land and restored to them their national identity, He moved upon their hearts to return to Zion. The sons of Judah came from all nations, backgrounds and people groups to form this present nation. Zion is our mother too, our homeland, the emblem of our nationhood and is still holy ground, because it is the abode of the Holy One of Israel. Every single one of us, who has had his eyes opened to his Ephraimite/Israelite identity, should have a burning desire within him to be part of this second recognizable stick, or nation, in the hand of the Almighty.

We are Judah's brothers, but we are not the nation of Judah. We are Ephraimites/Israelites with our own peculiar identity. We have our own testimony of the Elohim of our fathers, which is not the same as Judah's (at this time). The Father has two witnesses, two nations, two sticks in his hand. Yes, we will be one, but in His time and in His way. The nation of Judah has already come together and is seen, but Ephraim's is in the process of being gathered. Many in Orthodox Judaism have been reasoning that, "Yes we are a nation with a land, but democracy is not supposed to be our government." They are beginning to realize that the scriptures say that they are to have a king, priests, judges and a temple. Without those they really are not the nation that HaShem planned for them to be.

On the other hand, the redeemed remnant of the nation/stick of Joseph, in the hand of Ephraim, (ref Ezekiel 37: 16) has a King, a High priest, a Judge and a temple (not made with hands). But what is lacking in Ephraim is an exclusive national identity. This nation of Joseph is to be a flame (ref. Obadiah 1:18), a mighty weapon in the hand of our Elohim (Zepheniah 9:13). We are to be His servants. "We are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that we may proclaim the praises of Him who called us out of darkness into His marvelous light; we once were not a people but are now the people of Elohim, we had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy" (1 Peter 2: 9-10)(see also Hosea 1: 9-10).

Do not despise the day of small things; one "live ember" can set an entire forest on fire!

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim

Ascend To Zion
Musa Opiyo

Feb 23, 2005

I have called you My people to ascend the hill of Zion by way of praise. For many of My own have been weighed down and afflicted with what is going on down below that many have forgotten that I indeed rule and reign and that I sit upon the throne. The Lord God Almighty is calling His people to leave all that is behind them to come up higher. Do not allow the baggage of the past to be as an anchor but instead let go because I am doing a new thing says the Lord.

I speak to you now to spread your wings and let the wind of My Spirit carry you higher. It is not something that is done by the flesh or by your own strength but as you stop struggling and cry out to Me, I will fill you with new strength and stamina with which to run the race ahead. I am calling you upwards. It is a constant call to look heavenwards at what I am doing throughout this earth and in and through your lives.

As you soar high, you will see things as I see them. Even as the eagle has sharp vision, so I am redefining the vision that My people currently see. What was once blurry is now being made clear in your lives. I am bringing a new level of truth that will clearly demarcate that which is real from that which is not. Yet in spite of all I am doing, I say again, ascend the hill of Zion by way of praise. I do indeed dwell in the praises of My people, and as you praise Me this season you will not only see walls crumble and breakthrough coming, but you will step into the next level of intimacy and coming to a deeper knowledge of who I AM.

Yes indeed the call has gone forth and I am indeed calling My children higher in Me. No longer be satisfied with the normal, but reach forth, climb higher into the realm of the impossible where there are no limitations of the expression of praise.

To My people who desire more of Me, I say, ascend, come up higher,

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

The Seed And The Fulfillment Of The Promise
Musa Opiyo

March 2004
The Lord is releasing the fulfillment of the promises He has made to His children in this day. Many of these promises have occurred almost as instantly as they have been spoken. Yet for many of God's people, you have waited long and hard and have wondered whether God really did mean what He said. Some have even doubted that it was God who spoke at all.

But the Lord says that many of these promises are likened unto a baby in the womb. Once that word was spoken and imparted, it was put in the belly to grow and mature. To the natural eyes it may have seemed that there was no outward manifestation. In fact, if anything, circumstances went from bad to worse. Supports and comforts that were once available are no longer there to sustain, and as the child of God gropes for support, they realize that there is One who has been their rock and their fortress the whole time, the Risen Christ, Jesus Himself.

As they learn to trust in the Lord, their faith begins to rise and grow. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Faith causes God to act. As the faith is activated through the word and through victory after victory won, that seed of the promise planted deep within begins to grow and form. As God brings more tests and trials, sometimes ones harder than the previous, God reminds His people of who He is. He reminds His beloved of the inability of their strength and the supernatural power of His. As this promise grows after a period of molding, testing and the furnace, the time of birthing arrives.

Pushing, that last final advance before the promise, is always the hardest. But God promises never to leave us nor forsake us. That child pushes past oppositions, forgetting those things that are behind and reaching forward toward the prize of the high calling of God. Forget the voices of unbelief and circumstances that do not line up with their vision, and push forward. Like a bull in the ring that focuses on red, so the child of God focuses on the red crimson stream that flows from the cross to the throne of God.

He never said that it would be easy. But it is in the journey that He has formed Himself within you. He could not have done it any other way. There are some aspects about the journey to the fulfilled promise that God chooses not to reveal because if He did, we would refuse to move forward and cause that growth to be stunted through words of unbelief on our part.

Be encouraged. The Lord has not brought you from one hellhole to let you rot in another. The only thing at this point that rots away as we behold Him is our flesh which grows more corrupt everyday, but we arise in the new man who is built according to the design of God. If the road is narrow, you are on the right road. When you find mountains on your path that are insurmountable, that is God's opportunity of showing Himself as the Almighty. When you find the words of mockery, rejection and slander come forth, rejoice for Jesus suffered the very same things.

Your wilderness time is over. It is a new day for the fulfillment of your promise. It is the day when the Lord is bringing many out of the caves into the battlefields. It is a day when He is bringing many out of the pits into the palaces. Do not give up now. God is getting ready to birth something new in the lives of those who simply say yes to Him. It is the season and it is the time of transition from one place to another. Shut the doors of the past and go through the new doors He is forming for you.

Step in and do not look back. Keep your hand to the plough and activate those gifts and talents that God has placed in you. Some are saying, "I have no gifts and callings." Pray and ask God to stir those gifts within you for the glory of His kingdom.

"To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven." - (Eccl 3:1).

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us... Nay in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us." - (Rom 8:18,37).

"Nay but O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, 'Why hast thou made me thus?' Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor?" - (Rom 9:20-21).

Ask For The Fear Of The Lord

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Do you suffer from intimidation or the fear of man ? The word of God says, "The fear of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous run into it, and they are saved !" So what is the fear of the Lord ? The church in this age has said we are not to be afraid of God, but be filled with "reverent awesome fear". And we know that when we come before Him, we can come boldly it says to His throne of GRACE !

Psalms 111:10 NKJV says
The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all those who do His commandments. His praise endures forever So fearing the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; If you love Him, you'll obey Him.

Lev 19:14 KJV Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD. This warns against placing yourselves above others in your own mind, and warns to be compassionate so these are also part of being filled with the fear of the Lord.

Ex 18:21 KJV Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

If you have the fear of the Lord you will HATE covetousness of others, you will follow the Truth, and be a leader among men/women.

Lev 19:32 KJV Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD.

We are commanded to fear the Lord !

Lev 25:17 KJV Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

Lev 25:36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

Lev 25:43 KJV Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God.

These all again show we are not to be ensnared by pride and try to rule over others out of our own ambition, and are to be compassionate towards others who are believers. And indirectly shown God is the avenger we are to depend on Him and obey Him if we have proper fear of the Lord.

Ex 23:27 KJV I will send My fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

If we obey Him in proper fear He will make our enemies even to be friends with us He will avenge us; no need to do it ourselves.

Deut 4:10 KJV Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

Remember the time the people wanted to hear God too like Moses, and they were asked to consecrate themselves for three days, not even to sleep with their spouses, then they would all come before the Lord together and when God spoke it was too much for them...they ran in fear ? If you don't have INTIMACY with the Mighty God...it will make you RUN from Him in fear, instead of towards Him when He appears or speaks.

I think AWESOME is a powerful word and that what they heard and saw were too awesome for them to behold because they were not accustomed to the voice of the Lord, because they had no intimacy with Him. They just had selfish ambition, and jealousy, wanting to be like Moses. But they were not fasting 40 days back to back for each other They did not have to speak to pharaoh directly like He did. The Lord once told me in a prophecy that the day is coming when the heavens will part, and we will hear the sounds of horses hooves, and angel's trumpets, but for those who don't know Him, the sound will be TERRIBLE !

Deut 6:2 KJV That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

Deut 13:4 KJV Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.

Deut 28:58 KJV If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD;

So according to these scriptures, again is the theme of obedience so that things go well with us, that we would live a long life, being filled with the fear of the Lord.

1 Chron 28:20 KJV And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

Judg 6:10 KJV And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

So does the Lord get upset when we fear others, or satan more than HIM ? Yes, because He knows this means we do not trust HIM more than what they can do to us.

"Some trust in chariots, some trust in horses, but we will trust in the name of the Lord." So it is necessary to trust in the Lord. If we are to have proper fear we need to understand Him; How loving and how just and mighty He is. How much He loves those who love Him. We need to understand His ways. If we do, we will have proper balance, for we are not to be manipulators ordering God around, nor are we to lack trust in His ability to care for us, whatever it takes.

1 Samuel 11:7 NKJV So he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen." And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

Now to me this looks like fear, real fear, not just a wishy washy,. running away fear, but fear for your life.

1 Sam 12:24-25 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

Again I see fear of the wrath of the Lord and His holy presence consuming us.

2 Kings 17:28, 34-37, 39 KJV Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. v.39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

Our God is an all consuming fire. The priest could not stand in His presence. If he came into the Holy of Holies with sin he was killed. The priests even had a rope tied to their feet for this purpose, such that if he was killed by the Lord they could drag his body out. Our God is returning not as the humble servant but the mighty LION OF JUDAH. He is awesome and He has ALL POWER and authority in heaven, on earth and below the earth.

If we don't press into Him for the healing we know we need in His presence, will we be killed like Ananias and Sapphira ? In 1989 I spoke with a pastor from New Zealand whose body had prayed for the glory for a year and when it came 9 people fell dead. You can bet that after that there was a fear of the Lord in that church! There is a truth about getting too familiar with God, so that we don't reverance Him as we should.

The Israelites thought they knew Him when Moses went out with them...but they found out...that they were not ready...they acted familiar, as if they had that intimacy Moses did, but they did not...

1 Chron 16:29-31 KJV Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness . Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

2 Chron 20:29 KJV And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

2 Chronicles 14:14 NKJV
Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

2 Chronicles 17:10 NKJV
And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

Fear of the Lord here also seems like they feared for their lives because they saw the hand of the Lord God of Israel on His chosen people. Whoever He told them to fight against were killed . But there is not dreadful fear in the hearts of those who KNOW HIM.

Job 4:12-15 KJV Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof. In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake. Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

Now here Job is experiencing the other spirit of fear in reaction to something he heard , secretly brought to him.in a vision of the night. We don't know if it was a good or evil presence....Now this seems to be the experience of a supernatural presence as when the spirit passed before his face hair on his arms stood up. We fear what we have not experienced often and this was foreign to him.

Here is the antidote for fear:

Ps 27:3-6 KJV Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

Ps 22:23-25 KJV For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard. My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him

Ps 27:1 KJV The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear ? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Ps 31:19 KJV Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

Ps 33:18-21 KJV Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear Him, upon them that hope in His mercy; To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. Our soul waits for the LORD: He is our help and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His holy name

Ps 34:7-10 KJV The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

Read these outloud as you read this.it is prophesying over ourselves to do so.

Ps 46:1-5 KJV God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

Ps 56:4 KJV In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

Ps 60:4-5 KJV Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

Ps 64:1-4 KJV Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity: Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

Ps 64:9-10 KJV And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

Ps 67:7 KJV God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Ps 72:5 KJV They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

Ps 85:8-13 KJV I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase. Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

Ps 86:11-12 KJV Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

There are so many scriptures on this is amazing . Here is David saying come, I'll teach you the fear of the Lord.

Ps 34:11-22 KJV 11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. 12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? 13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. 14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. 15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. 16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. 18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. 19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

Ps 103:11-13 KJV For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him

Ps 103:17-18 KJV But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

When you pray these, they are not to be recited presumptively but because of the blood of JESUS. We don't recite them to get what we want from God in a manipulative way but to speak into existence the truth of what HE SAYS out of relationship with Him. New Agers speak things into existence they think they want like magic This is not magic, though his love is amazing , we do it out of covenant relationship with the King of Kings...

Ps 115:11-14 KJV Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield. The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron. He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great. The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

Ps 118:4-7 KJV Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place. The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

Ps 119:38-39 KJV Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear. Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

Below, David sure sounds like he is in something other than just an awesome fear But he considers the punishment God would do if he does not obey. Our relationship with God is like that of Father with children indeed, but didn't we also fear offending our fathers and mothers as children? We did not want to feel the wrath of their hand or belt on our backsides. We know there is a law of sowing and reaping, and we do not want to reap the whirlwind as it says.

Ps 119:119-122 KJV Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors. Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

Here is some wisdom from Isaiah

Isa 41:13-15 KJV For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

Isa 41:10 KJV Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Isa 43:1-3 KJV But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour:

This can seem contradictory if we don't understand the ways of God Now he is saying fear but it is because sometimes we lose heart and our flesh is weak and we fear what we should not fear. We don't understand how much God loves us, and all who fear His name. If we are doing all we can to try to do according to His word, even if we are not fully healed and delivered, He will uphold us through the hard times. He will vindicate us. He is a Mighty Warrior and the LOVER of our souls and He WILL UPHOLD US ! We can have confidence in that . It is the hope of our salvation.and we must keep on that helmet and not take it off; not allow the enemy to say we are disqualified.

Isa 29:23-24 KJV But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

I believe this is a word for our times, in that God is releasing the apostolic teaching, and that the fear of the Lord will be restored to the house of the Lordand those who have erred will be confounded. The wise in their own eyes will be dismayed and come to their senses when the Bridegroom enters the church. They will see the fire of the love in His eyes for His own and He who is WISDOM will prevail.

Isaiah 33:6 NKJV Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times, And the strength of salvation; The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

Isa 35:4-6 KJV Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

I love the imagery of Isaiah; streams in the desert is like cool refreshing waters that come ;The power of the love of the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit breaking down every wall of resistance in our hearts and peace like a river enters inpeace that goes beyond all understanding.

Isa 54:4-5 KJV Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more. For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

Here is an indictment that keeps ringing in my head ,"their fear of Me is taught by the precept of men" but then The Holy One gives a promise of restoration

Isa 29:13-19 KJV Wherefore the Lord said, For asmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from ;me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

Don't you know oh beloved of God, how much He loves you and does not willingly cause you to suffer? He is so enraptured with you ! He loves you so much! He is now releasing judgement; like when Miriam got jealous of Moses and instantly was stricken with leprosy. He will not be silent when those who hate us come against us. So be careful of your words. They have the ability to bring life or death. Life and death are in the power of the tongue, so speak LIFE to all, for He is not willing that any should perish, but that all would come to the saving knowledge of Him.

Isa 59:16-19 KJV And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence. So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

Remember this scripture? When the enemy comes in like a flood, which he is in the process of doing. THE SPIRIT WILL LIFT UP A STANDARD AGAINST HIM. Hallelujah ! The gates of hell will NOT prevail against His church. Christ gave Himself for the church, will He let it fail ? What it looks like will hopefully change to the better to be more like Him. How we meet will change, but it will not fail in it's mission, so be confident of what He has told you, and go forth in HIS POWER. !!!!

Isa 60:3-6 KJV And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

The abundance of the sea refers to the sea of peoples like in Revelation. The harvest is coming; the end-times harvest; the fullness of man predicted throughout the old testament and new. And HE promises all we need of money and resources will be ours !!!! Believe it son of man , that He will fulfill all prophecy ! This will come and it is soon, so steady your heart; fix your eyes on HIM for the days draw near.

Isa 63:17 KJV O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear ? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

This indicates He allows our hearts to be hardened from fear of Him so Isaiah cries out for Him to returncome and change us oh GOD he is saying. Return and refresh us.this should be our hearts cry now !!! WE DESPERATELY NEED HIM TO COME WITH HIS LOVE. PERFECT LOVE CASTS DOWN ALL FEAR (the wrong kind of fear ie fear of man, fear of demons, fear of loss, fear of death, fear of losing control, etc) We need HIM to fill us up with the fear of the Lord, that we might endure and not succomb to the spirit of this age.

Jer 2:19-20 KJV Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

Jer 5:22-24 KJV Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you.

Jer 10:7 ASV Who should not fear thee, O King of the nations? for to thee doth it appertain; forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like unto thee.

Below sounds like the condition of the world today. Babylon comes from Babel and meant confusion because that is where God confused the tongues of man after Noah's time when some rebelled from the word . He told them to go forth and multiply to scatter across the face of the earth , and some disobeyed and wanted to build a tower thinking they could reach heaven. God is trying to take all the Babylon out of us; we have rebellion so much in our hearts, even in the church. We do not want to go for Him. We want to dictate what we do for Him. Even so, yet He loves us, but corrects us and leads us in the way of understanding. We are not to hold on to anything of this world. We are Christians, bought and paid for with the precious blood of Jesus. We are love slaves to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jer 51:43-46 ASV Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. And I will execute judgment upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Jehovah.

Lam 3:47 KJV Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction

Here are promises in Jeremiah of restoration

Jer 32:38-41 ASV and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

Jer 33:9 ASV And (this city) shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure unto it.

Prov 3:7-8 KJV Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Prov 1:33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Here are some promises from God for those who fear Him. They will have health. Your navel represents the center of your being. Marrow to thy bones - marrow is one place where red cells are produced.the life of your blood. And it says that you will dwell in safety and be quiet from the fear of evil if you obey and fear HIM. I know I want more of the fear of the Lord !

Isaiah 11:2-3 NKJV The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, The Spirit of counsel and might, The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. His delight is in the fear of the LORD, And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, Nor decide by the hearing of His ears;

Eccl 12:13-14 KJV Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

This indicates there is a portion of His 7 fold Spirit called the fear of the Lord, thus we can ask for the Spirit of the fear of the Lord in our lives, to fill our homes and churches. It says the Lord delights in the one who fears Him who obeys His words. There are eternal rewards for us who do.

Isa 8:13-15 KJV Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

If you are filled with the fear of the Lord you will be a stone of stumbling to others, a rock of offense. You will also be untouched by the wickedness of the world, for those who touch you, will be dealt with by the Living God ,Who is your sanctuary, your hope, your defense.

Isa 25:3-4 KJV Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

This I found interesting. So if you are strength to the poor and needy in their distress, and a refuge from the storms of life and a shadow from the heat when people are being oppressed, others will be fearing you. You will be a threat to those who are lukewarm. Strong people will glorify you and nations will fear you ! In other words God will be your rear guard and will deal with all. He will make even your enemies to be at peace with you !

Ezek 3:9-11 KJV As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

God has told His prophets to not fear the faces of men, though they be rebellious. If He gives you a word to speak to others, you must speak it; you must be obedient. Do not fear what man can do to you Jesus said, but fear him who has the power to cast your soul into hell.

Dan 6:26-27 KJV I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end. He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

Dan 10:19 KJV And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me

Hos 3:5 KJV Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days. This is encouraginga promise of restoration for Israelfor the latter days.that is now

Amos 3:8 KJV The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

When the true voice of the Lord is heard, it is accompanied by the fear of the Lord. This was seen when Moses gathered the children of Israel and the Lord spoke great fear came upon them.

Jonah 1:9-10 KJV And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

Fleeing from the presence of the Lord is definitely not a good place to be ; been there, done that, as they say. Being on your own, doing your own thing, instead of what GOD wants you to do is always a bad idea. He will often let us go our own way till we fall on our face, or till we do what we want, then realize that it was not fulfilling and the best for us.

Mic 7:17-19 KJV They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us;

In Lamentations 3:33, God declares that He does not willingly afflict or grieve the sons of men. His heart is one of compassion and mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. His judgment is His love greatly provoked. Here in Micah he says they shall be afraid because of us.!!! We have not fully comprehended the heart of God for His own if we don't understand this. A good parent does not ignore his child when he sees him heading for self destruction.

When my son was only 10 months old, he crossed, by himself, a busy street near Wheaton College when a soccer game was going on. I guess he saw the people across the street and followed. Perhaps he thought I'd gone there, but I'd gone in the house and my sister and mom were supposed to be watching him. I came out and panicked when I didn't see him in the yard, then saw him on the other side of the street !!!!

Imagine, that God sees you slipping into complacency or apathy, into indifference that is a dangerous place to be. So what might He do ? What would a good parent do if they knew their kid was doing drugs at 11 yrs old ? They would do everything they could to draw him back to right behavior and to know they love him. We have lost our fear of the Lord in so many churches. God is drawing us back to make HIM our FIRST LOVE. Sometimes the only way to do that is to shock us

Mal 4:2-3 KJV But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts

Here is a wonderful promise of healing in Malachi, not only healing, but prosperity of soul, and a promise of treading down the wicked if we are among those who fear the Lord. WE are living in the days this will be fulfilled.

Matt 10:26-29 KJV Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Luke 7:14-16 KJV And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people

Luke 8:37-38 KJV Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, Acts 2:43 KJV And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

Acts 5:3-5 KJV But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

Acts 5:10-11 KJV Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

In all instances of the new testament scriptures here, fear of the Lord returned with great displays of His power. This testifies that UNBELIEF is the companion of a lack of fear of the Lord. Just as the children of Israel were unbelieving when Moses did not come down when they thought he should. The desires of their flesh along with the enemy taunted them into creating God in their own fashion.

We are no different today than they were. In many places of worship who proclaim Jesus as Lord, there is unbelief, lack of proper fear of the Lord, and disobedience to dependence on HIM. He said, unless you become as a little child, you will not inherit the kingdom of God. Many say things like " God can't do that " or " God doesn't do that anymore", or "God wouldn't do that anymore" presuming to know what God might want. That is unbelief !!!! Also the Lord told me once that DISCONTENTMENT is the mother of presumption. Timothy warned of these times when the church would have a resemblance of looking like believers, but with no power thereof.

Isa 64:1-7 NKJV Oh, that You would rend the heavens ! That You would come down ! That the mountains might shake at Your presence2 As fire burns brushwood ,As fire causes water to boil--To make Your name known to Your adversaries, That the nations may tremble at Your presence! 3 When You did awesome things for which we did not look, You came down, The mountains shook at Your presence. 4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard nor perceived by the ear, nor has the eye seen any God besides You, Who acts for the one who waits for Him. 5 You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness, who remembers You in Your ways. You are indeed angry, for we have sinned--In these ways we continue; And we need to be saved.

6 But we are all like an unclean thing and all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags; We all fade as a leaf and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. 7 And there is no one who calls on Your name, Who stirs himself up to take hold of You; For You have hidden Your face from us, and have consumed us because of our iniquities.

OT:3372 yare' (yaw-ray'); a primitive root; to fear; morally, to revere; caus. to frighten: KJV - affright, be (make) afraid, dread (-ful), (put in) fear (-ful, -fully, -ing), (be had in) reverence (-end), see, terrible (act, -ness, thing).

Father, in the name of Jesus, we ask You to restore in us, our homes, our churches and our nation, the Spirit of the fear of the Lord. We ask for You to rend the heavens and come down Lord, change the face of Your church. Deliver us oh Lord ! Pour out Your mighty LOVE in our hearts that we would love, as You love. Bring a mighty awakening to our nation and to the world, that every knee would bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord !

Forgive our petty jealousies Father, our sibling rivalry, and our self-centeredness and greed, and help us to live as You lived, to walk as You walked, to give as You gave, to speak as Your spoke. We will not be satisfied oh Lord till we awake in YOUR IMAGE ! Have mercy oh Lord on us. Forgive and deliver us from our unbelief, our discontentment and pride. Give us a humble heart oh Lord. Forgive us and come down OH LORD ! Make Yourself known to the nations. Give us the grace to stir ourselves up to take hold of YOU !

copyrighted 2001

Extended Forgiveness
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct 5th, 2005

Matt 6:14-15 AMP   For if you forgive people their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins, leaving them, letting them go, and giving up resentment], your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins, leaving them, letting them go, and giving up resentment], neither will your Father forgive you your trespasses.

“I want to talk to you about forgiveness beloveds, because it is the root of much torment that many are going through. Forgiveness is not a one time,
“I forgive you”. That is the obedience of forgiveness, but it is only the beginning. For unless you forgive from the heart, you will still have resentment. Verbal agreement with forgiveness is good, but it is what is in the heart that counts. Can you now pray for that one without your own anger getting in the way. Do you still hold on to RESENTMENT, even though you have forgiven. I will tell you a true test. Can you send love to them from the bottom of your heart ? Then and only then are you FREE.

Forgiveness is a process with most people because of their human nature.
I have given you MUCH GRACE in your life, and likewise you should give much grace to others. To whom much is forgiven much is required. As I have forgiven you over and over every day since you said you wanted ME in your life, so must you forgive EVERYONE who you perceived to offend you. I don’t mean you have to trust everyone right away, and some you may never trust. But you must forgive.

I hear a lot of rationalization these days of bitterness and resentment in hearts that say they belong to ME. But bitterness is not a fruit of the Spirit. Bitterness is a stench in My nostrils. Resentment is not a fruit either. I want you to search your hearts and if you cannot remember, to ask ME to help you sort out anything you are still holding on to. For these bitter roots bring fear and resentment, and are still holding on to anger and vengeance, which I said belongs to ME alone. I AM THE JUDGE. I AM the One Who knows every heart inside and out. I alone know what is in the heart of a man ! Cast aside all your ASSUMPTIONS and OPINIONS and come to ME for MY OPINION.

I do not care how grievous the offense is. The requirement is still forgiveness. I know how hard it is for some to forgive those who have bludgeoned them through betrayals, and thievery, through adulteries, and all manner of taking advantage of others. I know the sins of all. Believe ME, when I say that I know ALL THINGS. And not to forget that you also MUST forgive YOURSELF for all the blunders and mistakes, all the sins of omission and commission you have made. THERE is nothing I cannot forgive save the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. There is nothing too big for ME to erase, if there is true repentance of heart.

I know who are the Sauls and who are the Davids. I know who are the Jacobs, and who are the Esaus. It is not up to you to decide what punishment they deserve. I hear my own people CURSING EACH OTHER with ungodly prayers. It also is a stench in My nostrils. Yet some in the pulpit have taught others to pray JUDGMENT on their own families, on their enemies, and do it themselves ! What has light to do with darkness ? Did I not tell my disciples “ You do not know what spirit you are of” when they wanted to call down fire from heaven ? So who are you to judge anyone ?
Who are you to command sentence and verdict when you cannot see the deep recesses of their hearts as I can ?

I will judge and I will separate.
It is MY JOB, and it is not for you to tell me who should or shouldn’t be judged. If you remember rightly, The judgment with which you use to judge, will come back on your own head. So if YOU would desire mercy, then YOU GIVE MERCY ! You cannot continue receiving MY forgiveness, if you do not forgive.

Go back as I show you any resentments you have held on to, and ask ME to help you to fully forgive, deep in your heart. I will help you if you ask!
I will give you vision and ability to heal your heart of all that is necessary to be free. TAKE the wounds to the cross and leave them there, and do not demand back your rights. IF YOU HAVE TRULY GIVEN ALL TO ME, AND SURRENDERED TO YOUR ADONAI , THEN YOU HAVE NO MORE RIGHTS.

I AM YOUR KING. I AM YOUR RULER NOW THEN. AND I AM TENDERLY CALLING YOU TO LAY DOWN ALL BITTERNESS AND STRIFE. I AM NOT CALLING FOR UNSANCTIFIED MERCY. That is a whole other issue.
I am talking about FORGIVING completely from the deep part of your heart and emotions that your emotions will be free of all demonic strongholds.

For then you have invulnerability to the enemy. ONLY when you are fully forgiving, can I trust you with authority that you have asked for . Come to the cross beloveds and lay down all the burdens there. Forgive and it will be forgiven you. Extend mercy and love to your enemies, and you will overcome. Give up all the pride that keeps holding on to unforgiveness ! Testify of your forgiveness and Mine towards you, and it will put a huge hole in the wall the enemy tries to put around you ! SPEAK OUT your testimony and watch how he will try to stop you ! Do not love your life, but give it up ! Let go of your rights and you will overcome !”

Rev 12:11 NKJV And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony , and they did not love their lives to the death.

Luke 6:37 AMP Judge not [neither pronouncing judgment nor subjecting to censure], and you will not be judged; do not condemn and pronounce guilty, and you will not be condemned and pronounced guilty; acquit and forgive and release (give up resentment , let it drop), and you will be acquitted and forgiven and released.

Luke 17:4 And even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and turns to you seven times and says, I repent [I am sorry], you must forgive him (give up resentment and consider the offense as recalled and annulled).

Eph 4:31-32 AMP Let all bitterness and indignation and wrath (passion, rage, bad temper) and resentment (anger, animosity) and quarreling (brawling, clamor, contention) and slander (evil-speaking, abusive or blasphemous language) be banished from you, with all malice (spite, ill will, or baseness of any kind). 32 And become useful and helpful and kind to one another, tenderhearted (compassionate, understanding, loving-hearted), forgiving one another [readily and freely], as God in Christ forgave you.

Eph 6:4 AMP Fathers, do not irritate and provoke your children to anger [do not exasperate them to resentment], but rear them [tenderly] in the training and discipline and the counsel and admonition of the Lord.

1 Tim 2:8 AMP I desire therefore that in every place men should pray, without anger or quarreling or resentment or doubt [in their minds], lifting up holy hands.

Heb 12:15 AMP Exercise foresight and be on the watch to look [after one another], to see that no one falls back from and fails to secure God's grace (His unmerited favor and spiritual blessing), in order that no root of resentment (rancor, bitterness, or hatred) shoots forth and causes trouble and bitter torment, and the many become contaminated and defiled by it--

Atmosphere, Anointing, and Authority, Part 1

Clo DiPilato

A couple of nights ago, a sister in the Lord and I were sharing a bit on our understanding of the kingdom. She was stressing that it's "righteousness", and I agreed much with this statement, as the Bible very plainly tells us that the kingdom of God is not "meat and drink", but righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost.

> For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Romans 14:17

Righteousness, His righteousness imputed unto us, is the foundation of our peace and our joy. It's impossible to have peace and joy when one is unaware of the availability of His righteousness made a personal reality to us through the death of His Cross.

> Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: Romans 3:22
>
> But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: 1 Corinthians 1:3
>
> For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Corinthians 5:2

As I've continued the past couple of days meditating on what I truly believe is the "kingdom" when I refer to it in conversation, prayer, prophecy, and deep desire for the fullness of it's appearing, there are three things that come to mind, and that is "atmosphere, anointing, and authority".

ATMOSPHERE:

The kingdom of God is a spiritual realm where we live and walk above the pull of the earthly and the carnal, or things that do not relate to the true rhema word of the Lord to our lives. Actually, when the Lord speaks in the above highlighted scriptures of "many mansions", He is speaking of different realms in the kingdom of God. This doesn't start when you die. Access to realms in the kingdom begins the very moment you make Jesus Christ your Saviour with intent of allowing Him to establish His lordship in your life.

Even in things that pertain to the natural life and circumstances, when one is in the "kingdom atmosphere", they will always have a sense within their spirit that God is always there, very much behind the scenes, orchestrating every decision made in life. Drawing us, wooing us, and winning us into the paths of the just which are indeed those paths that shine brighter and brighter unto the "perfect day". (Proverbs 4:18)

So that God can make His will known, there are breakthroughs into the realm of our understanding through a quickened scripture. Or it could be through dreams and visions. Or it might be through a personal prophecy. Sometimes it's through a strong inward witness of the Spirit. God has His ways of communicating with those who live their lives in the "atmosphere of the kingdom".

We often hear, and use the phrase, "the Presence of the Lord". Within that kingdom atmosphere, where a true child of God should have his present abiding if he has been truly delivered from the power of darkness, and translated into the kingdom of His dear son , (see Colossians 1:13) are different levels, strengths, and manifestations of the Lord's Presence to us. From that initial sweet awareness of sins forgiven, and the great peace that it brings all the way to being in a visitation of the manifest Presence of the Lord . It's that place where His glory and holiness is so overwhelming that we become like the priests slain in the Spirit who could not stand to minister because of God's glory. Heaven truly comes down and kisses earth with an extra dose of the power, presence and glory of God. It's probably just a previous step to actually shedding the bars of bone that hold the soul before one takes his flight like a mighty eagle, when the Saviour sets our spirits free. (That's from an old song I just love!!)

> So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God. 2 Chronicles 5:14

But in between those two locations within the realms of kingdom atmosphere, that glorious sense of the initial joy of "sins forgiven", and the very "manifested glory of God", is a purchased piece of Holy Ghost real estate where our souls can find continual refreshing and delight, that I'm going to call "fullness".

*

Now, I'm beginning to feel a real sense of the quickening, and the scriptures are bubbling forth in my spirit, so that I hardly know where to begin:

Let's start with understanding that the "fullness" on planet earth is at this point in time, for most of us, only the "earnest" of our inheritance.

Few have pressed into even a greater level of fullness, and oh how I long to be in that number!!

> Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Cor. 1:22
> Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 2 Corinthians 5:5
>
> In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Ephesians 1:13, and 14.

Yes, the glorious reality is that this "fullness" is only the "EARNEST of our inheritance", and not the complete fullness we shall all come to know. If you are a "dyed in the wool Pentecostal" adhering faithfully to the tenets of classical Pentecostal doctrine, you don't walk in much hope for anything beyond this "fullness in earnest", until you die and go to heaven. Then all your dreams and visions about the beauties and glories of heaven will become a reality for you. You've camped at Pentecost, and are probably quite content there.

Being "camped at Pentecost", is not necessarily a bad place to be, but the Lord does have more for you in this life-time! It's better to be camped there than to not have ever been there at all. And there are many who think they can bypass Pentecost and go into the fullness of tabernacles without it. These have a religious experience and know a lot about the language, but something of the life of God is glaringly missing in their conversation and spiritual delivery. They know the "sound", but lack true substance.

On behalf of Pentecost, and the fullness that it represents, I want you to notice the abundant use of different forms of the word in the following passage of scripture. And I'm still very much talking about "kingdom atmosphere", and I will tie it all together!!

> ¶And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. ¶And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, > and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. Acts 2:1-13

Beloved, I must tell you very seriously, if you claim to want all God has for you, and you claim to desire a close relationship with Him, but then you snub Pentecost, it's not a true heart for God that is leading you onto greater things, but rather a religious spirit. A true and pure hunger for God will cause you to desire everything He has for you as evidenced in the Scriptures.

When I say "Pentecost", I'm not talking about a local church where they roll in the sawdust, and swing from the rafters, beat on tambourines, and run the aisles speaking in tongues. (Though, I'll freely confess I am truly a great lover of ALL of the above!!) I am talking about a promised visitation of the Father to you where you are filled with the Holy Ghost, speak in other tongues, begin to experience the cleansing fires of God, and then are endued with power on high for His service. (For more on this, please see Wade Taylor's article:

http://wadetaylor.org/articles/wadetaylor/becoming_a_witness.htm

John the Baptist recognized that Jesus would be the One who would baptize His church into this experience:

> I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.
> Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. Matthew 3:11-13

My dear friend, until you have been to Pentecost, you do not know the true blessings of "kingdom atmosphere". The kingdom is a spiritual realm that has it's very own personal "smell" about it. I've related this example in a past writing: Having lived in both the North and the South, I've had the opportunity to cross the borders to go both into Canada and into Mexico. Immediately upon crossing the border, there is a strong sense that I'm in a different country because there is something of a difference in the very air. Now, to get to either of those foreign countries, if I am going to do so legally, I have to drive through some sort of "checkpoint".

Well, there is a "legal entry" into the kingdom atmosphere. The Bible tells us very clearly who was given the "keys" to get us into the kingdom. These "keys" were given to the Apostle Peter, and on the day of Pentecost, he used those keys to lead 3,000 souls in. A key is used to unlock a door. Peter unlocked the door into the kingdom atmosphere. True to His Word, the Lord Jesus promised that Peter would have those "keys to the kingdom", and then it was Peter who was that anointed spokesman on the day of Pentecost.

But first, let's look at the place where we see Jesus gives Peter the keys:

> When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?
> And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
> He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?
> And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
> And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.
> And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
> And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Matthew 16:13-19.

Because Peter had a revelation of whom Jesus was, the son of the living God, the Lord opened the kingdom to him. The key had to do with very specifically unlocking the door INTO THE KINGDOM REALM where things could be loosed, and things could be bound. Beloved, until we are living in kingdom atmosphere, we have no true authority to bind or to loose.

Read carefully Acts Chapter 2. This is very much a "kingdom" chapter in the Bible, and not a Pentecostal Doctrine chapter. This is extremely obvious on the surface because of the references and comparisons to David and his throne, and HIS kingdom........a king who without doubt was the pride of the Jews. Peter knew his subject matter. Those Jews who crucified Jesus were incensed because they felt he was an imposter, and not their true Messiah at all. Peter, who had only days before denied the Lord Jesus, now vigorously defends the good standing that Jesus had with the Father.

When he got done preaching under a mighty anointing to those people, the Bible says they were "pricked in their hearts" and they asked Peter the question, What shall we do?

> "Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Acts 2:37

The whole message Peter preaches to those Jews who were gathered from many places because they were keeping the feast of Pentecost at Jerusalem, caused their natural understanding about the kingdom of Israel to be submerged by the truth of entryway into the spiritual kingdom when Peter forthrightly gave them the answer:

> Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts 2:38.

Talk about the floodlights of revelation going on!! The Bible says that when those people GLADLY heard the word, they were baptized!! Peter had the keys of the kingdom, and opened the door, and led 3000 souls in!! And then as we read through the book of Acts the wonderful and miraculous and glorious things that were accomplished by that New Testament church, we know that much "binding and loosing" against the powers of darkness, and sin and sickness and disease took place!! They were in the "kingdom atmosphere" where it was all possible to take place!!

Peter's message on the day of Pentecost was not all that different from the message of the Lord Jesus Christ to one lone man, Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews who came to Him by night:

> ¶There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
> The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
> Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
> Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
> Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
> That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
> Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
> The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
> Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?
> Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? John 3:1-10

Notice, there is a difference between SEEING the kingdom of God, and ENTERING the kingdom of God. Also notice that because Nicodemus was a Jew, the Lord expected him to have a certain level of kingdom understanding. One must be IN the kingdom to wield kingdom authority.

Beloved, you cannot be outside of the "atmosphere" of the kingdom, and have power and authority with God. Jesus gave Peter the "keys to the kingdom".

That is why Peter preached at Pentecost, and not James, or John or Andrew, or any of the other apostles.

On the day of Pentecost, Peter used those keys to open the door to the kingdom. If you have not yet repented, been baptized, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost, you are living outside the kingdom ! I am not splitting hairs with you over baptismal formulas. The phrase "in the name of", means "in the authority of". Peter and the apostles had a revelation of exactly what Jesus meant when He said:

> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.
> Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:
> Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Matthew 28:18-20.

Shame on God's people for dividing the body of Christ over baptismal formulas!! Read your Bible. Matthew 28:19 is the LAW, and the book of Acts is the TESTIMONY on how the LAW was carried out!! Go through the book of Acts, and see how the apostles baptized, and you will receive truth. If the apostles were not baptizing according to revelation of what the Lord spoke to them to do, then that means Peter led 3,000 souls astray on the day of Pentecost, and we have truly been in spiritual trouble for the past 3000 years!!

Personally, I've been baptized in both formulas.........and God mightily visited me both times!! When I understood exactly what the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ represents, and that He received His Name by inheritance, and then went down again into the waters of baptism to renew my covenant and by fresh revelation, what a blessing!! But NEVER would I say my first experience in water baptism was not a real and genuine meeting with the Lord!!!

When you want to understand doctrine, always use the rule of "law and testimony". Find out where the "law" is, and then follow through on the "testimony". Here's a great example for you: The book of Mark tells us this:

> And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
> He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.
> And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;
> They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.
> ¶So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.
> And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen. Mark 16:15-20.

Mark was anointed by the Holy Ghost to lay down the "law". He told them, "they shall take up serpents". Now, do we see in the book of Acts anywhere that there is a practice of taking up serpents??? We see people healed, saved, delivered, recovering from illnesses, and speaking in tongues but nowhere do we see a practice of taking up serpents. So, where is the "testimony" to this???

It's found in Acts 28.

> ¶And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.
> And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
> And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper > out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

> And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
> And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm. Acts 28:1-5.

Paul accidentally took up a viper when he was in the process of gathering some sticks for a fire. He was able to shake that thing off without harm. He did not deliberately take up a serpent. But God's word proved to be true. The law of God proved to be true, as the TESTIMONY indicates!!! Not a deliberate handling of snakes, but in an accidental situation, Paul was spared!!

Praise God, Paul was in that situation amongst a bunch of kind-spirited barbarians on the island called Melita where they showed him "no little kindness". And YET, he was truly living in another atmosphere, the "atmosphere of the kingdom". Paul had repented, been baptized, and had received the gift of the Holy Ghost that gave him entryway into the location of spiritual authority where he had the right to shake off that viper!!

Beloved, those about you may be totally ignorant of spiritual things. They may be dead in their trespasses and sins. You may live with someone who swears like a sailor, barks at you like a junkyard dog, orders the porn channel on cable, chain smokes Swisher Sweet Cigars between guzzling down 6 packs of beer with garlic-flavored onion rings on the side, and refuses to open the windows to let fresh air in.

But if you've made a LEGAL ENTRY WAY into the kingdom by using those same keys that the Lord Jesus Christ gave to Peter, you know that you are living in such a sweet and clean and wholesome place in God. Those things of earth don't pull you down!! You're living in another world. You're in a different place. You're of a different spirit. All is clear around about you. Your atmosphere is totally different!! You are living IN, and partaking OF the kingdom of God!! The kingdom of God is Holy Ghost ATMOSPHERE, and if you are there, you know exactly what I'm talking about, and if NOT, I trust you'll consider reading Acts 2 until God gives you greater revelation about the keys of the kingdom.

Acts 2:38 gets you inside the door, and it's so gloriously wonderful, the Bible calls it "fullness". I believe it's because our unregenerate flesh really cannot stand much more. I've literally seen people who looked like they would explode if even an ounce more of the Holy Ghost fell upon them than what they were experiencing at the time of a mighty visitation. In Bible School, my church history teacher had the Spirit fall on him, and he held onto a pole, turned red, and looked like he would explode because it was so overwhelming! And yet it's only a fraction of the glory of God that is promised to us!

Do we have to wait for heaven? No.......these things are available to us NOW because the Bible tells us that He is very presently made unto us what IS, and not "what will be"!!!

> That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:
> The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
> And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Ephesians 1:17-19.

It has to do with an increase in our capacity for the Lord and spiritual things.

Are you a spiritual "cup", or a spiritual "gallon"??? If you are a "gallon", then you can receive much more! What will fill a cup will not fill a gallon. Pray for an increase in your capacity to receive from the Lord.

Before we can move in true authority with true anointing, we need to understand kingdom ATMOSPHERE. That's where all the things we desire of God's Presence and Power and Glory and "binding and loosing" takes place!! And within that "atmosphere", you have the ability to change your location. You can live close to God, or far away from Him. You can be like Lot who had his tent pitched toward Sodom, or have your face set as flint toward Zion!! You can just be "barely esccaping", or be one who is "clean escaped from sin", "saved to the uttermost"!!

Here is beautiful Old Testament truth about the high priest found in Exodus 28. On his shoulder were placed stones engraved with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. They were placed there according to their births. The high priest was always to bear their names up before the Father for a memorial. It's been said the strength of a man is in his shoulders, while the strength of a woman is in her hips. Well, Jesus is YOUR high priest, and the very strongest part of Jesus is always bearing your name up to your Heavenly Father!! What a comfort to help us through those times when we feel we might not quite make it!!

There is more to the story, though, about the names of the twelve tribes of Israel: They were were also engraved on precious stones on the breastplate, according to their position on the road. Beloved, we are known to God according to our birth into the kingdom, but we are also known to Him as we seek to draw closer to His heart!!! You might not be able to change your spiritual "birthday" but you can change your position on the road!!! The closer you get to His heart, the greater and richer your abiding in kingdom atmosphere will be!!

I will write two more articles about "Kingdom Anointing", and "Kingdom Authority". Please pray for a special anointing on this, as I feel to go ahead and send this article before the others are written.

Love and blessings in the Name above EVERY Name: Jesus!!

Clo DiPilato
Herald of His Kingdom

Apocalyptic Anomalies And End Time Paradigms: 2005 And Beyond

Chad Taylor

"Look among the nations and watch - be utterly astounded! For I will work a work in your days which you would not believe, though it were told you. (Habakkuk 1:5).

Sudden Changes In Weather Patterns And Political Hierarchies

The currents, tides and winds shall bend to my pleasure says the Lord. As you see these things come to pass know that the thrones of kings and princes are hinged upon these natural events. As the plates shift and the earth releases its fire, know that it is only fulfilling My desire. As the gale winds blow uprooting and displacing rock and earth know too that principalities and powers are toppling and giving place to My will. I will mark these places in time by unusual and strange signs in the heavens above and earth beneath. It will uncover My secrets and reveal My mysteries to the world. All peoples shall see it and be amazed. Watch Mt. Saint Helens - she is an ensign to the coming revival in Washington State and Oregon. Watch the fault lines of California it will indicate the direction and desire of My spirit. Watch the hurricanes in the South they are a landmark of the rising tide of My presence in the East. Watch and wonder.

A Surplus In Alaska And A Mother Lode In The Rockies

I will open up the hidden treasures of darkness in the place called Alaska. I will unlock the secret treasures in the Rockies. I will anoint the science of excavation and paleontology revealing an end time surplus of oil and supply. I will give eyes to the blind and they will see My hidden treasures. I will remove the resistance disguised as conservationism and give back to My people their inheritance upon this earth. I will give them back the anointing Adam once had in Eden when he took dominion over the land and used its resources. My servants and stewards shall harness this power and the wealth of the wicked will finally be in the hands of the righteous says the Lord. In the next 4 years you will see groundbreaking legislation which will open up these frontiers to witty inventions and great discovery drying up the dependence on Middle Eastern commodity. The Rocky Mountains will cascade with My provisions says the Lord.

The Beast Of The East Will Fall At Your Feet

I saw a dragon falling from the sky and into the eastern ocean. The blood of this ocean turned red like blood. A triune counsel of wickedness is being broken. Iraq, Iran and Afghanistan. This unholy trinity will no longer possess its authority. For in these days many have said "God would not judge them" but I say I have already judged them and I will now set their captives free. You will see groundbreaking reform in the next five years in these places to the extent that Christianity will prevail. The dragon of Islam will be pushed out as a flood of My servants enter these borders and establish My kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven. I will place my representatives into positions of ruler ship and authority creating a spiritual paradigm thus manifesting a harvest unparalleled in modern history. Iraq, Iran and Afghanistan you are in the palm of My hand says the Lord. Islam is a dying dragon wounded by the prayers of the saints and from her bowels billions will be saved.

A Revival In "Sodom And Gomorrah"

I will lead my people from the land of Sodom and Gomorrah. Like Abraham of old I will send my chosen vessels into the bowels of these places to open the prison to them that are bound and set the captives free. Millions of marching feet will be heard in the streets as they come out of the closet of their own despair to follow Me. I will give them a new heart and renew their mind and they will be leaders and prophets in these end times. What others have despised are precious in My eyes says the Lord. Arise and shine to an appointed time and the least of these shall be a great and exceeding army. A significant medical breakthrough will occur in the HIV disease in 2005 - a landmark to My deliverance. Key leaders in the homosexual community who are also represented in Hollywood will be saved and impact this community unprecedented. You will see it and rejoice.

N. Korea And Iran: Displacing Principalities And Powers

As Daniel confronted the Prince of Persia so are my saints confronting the Princes of North Korea and Iran in this hour. I am calling a concentration of intercession toward these two countries says the Lord. I will open the floodgates of prayer and My people will overcome. They will come out with a divine concentration of prayer and fasting. I will anoint a certain leader and ambassador in N. Korea that will do My bidding. This leader will have my heart as Daniel did in Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom and will turn many to righteousness. He will be a peace maker between North and South and the stubborn barriers will fall between them. 2005 will mark the beginning of great transition in these places and it will be published abroad though news and media. There will be blood in the streets of Iran but from these fallen seeds of sacrifice will come much fruit. Watch, wonder and be amazed.

Nobel Peace Prizes And Groundbreaking Discoveries

I will open up the matrix of cancer and put within reach of My servants a cure. In human weakness and frailty My strength will be perfected. You will hear it said in the corridors of the dying and diseased, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" I will catapult science and medical knowledge a century ahead as I unravel the mysteries before them. The icon of cancer will crumble under the feet of My servants says the Lord. They will walk the halls of the esteemed and legendary glorifying My name as Joseph did in Egypt. Like Moses, My servants will break the back of plagues and disease to set a people free from the bondage of sin. I will hasten it to be Says the Lord of Sabaoth. "The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet." (1st Cor. 15:55, Rom 16:20).

A Quantum Leap, String Theory And An Open Heaven

I am removing the barrier of earth and space and will allow this world to peer into the next with unparalleled clarity and focus. I am not only opening the spiritual heavens but the physical one as well. The gravity of this present paradigm will not hold back a new generation of physicists and scientists who will reveal eternity. The archaic teaching of evolution will be unraveled as my servants peel back the Truth from the layers of humanism and godlessness. The minds of the children will grasp the depths of discovery unfolding and communicate the heart of God. New worlds and galaxies will give way to this Enoch generation. They will walk with God and tell a world of what they have seen and heard. They will discern the depths of creation and untie the knot of ignorance that has bound My people for centuries. They will go where no man has gone before.

2005: A Leap Year And Time Of Great Advancement

What you have said you will do in three years you will do in one. What you have said you will do in five years you will do in two. What you have said you will do in ten years you will do in three. I will put your vision before you and it will be made manifest. For this is the year of ADVANCEMENT both spiritually and naturally and the land I promised your forefathers will be inherited. Boundaries and limitation that hitherto have held you back will now be leaped over as I accelerate you into My will. The veil of resistance will be rent in two as My people step out in obedience to the divine call. This year you will leap you into the future and redeem the time re-digging the wells of hope and opening the prison doors of the impossible. My captives will go free. This is your mandate says the Lord, "Ask of me, and I shall give you the heathen for your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession."

Chad Taylor
Dec. 25th, 2004
www.consumingfire.com

Abiding And Believing

Becky McLendon

The Lord is saying quit your toiling and let me do the adding. The Lord adds what his plan needs.

Seek ye first the kingdom
And all these things will be added.
Seek ye first perfection
Seek ye first conversion
Seek ye first his rest
Seek ye first the beginning
And all these things will be added.

If man wants to "add to"...he first needs to seek the kingdom. People want “things” in their carnal lifetime instead of His life, His love and His kingdom. We are to be in Christ for all things to happen. We then begin to see what we gave up, and what we have come out of. Wow it stinks. Being in Christ is so clean, so holy and so precious. Perfection is the destination; and we have assurance in Christ. Assurance gets us to the destination! When we have found His plan, we have one head, which is Jesus. Jesus has lots of tearing down to do. His Life must fill and cover the earth.

The carnal mind is beguiles most. It lies to most people. The great delusion is the carnal mind and the carnal system that calls itself “god.” It is Satan declaring his ascent above the throne of God. It is Satan challenging, “Hath God really said?”

Much unbiblical teaching is founded in a gross misunderstanding of scripture brought about by painstaking study. The carnal mind studies; then it lies and then makes laws and bylaws of these lies. The carnal mind has to create all those things to justify the lies they have added. They think they do, but they have no bible for their studying. It got buried under all their laws and by-laws. Their carnal mind lies to them and tells them they have to study, but the study they are “commanded to do” is the study of their lies rather than being diligent about hearing the heart of God. Man says, “We won't like you if you don't study...and if you don't study our doctrine.” They are “speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;” 1 Timothy 4:2.

There is more to the word “study” than sitting in on a man’s bible study and pouring over heavy volumes of commentaries. The word itself means: To hasten, make haste; to exert one's self, endeavor, give diligence; to be diligent; be forward; do diligence, give diligence, labor; be eager, make every effort,

I see nowhere in this where God is saying go to men's bible studies or sit around discussing passages of scripture within the context of men’s doctrines. It DOES say to be diligent to show yourself approved unto God Himself, and not man or a denomination. Most just say:” study to show thyself approved." and leave it at that. Therefore it becomes a law of man. And to get the "man of God's approval" you are supposed to "study your bible every day, and we have the prescribed study and methods of study all laid out for you." That is their way of being “approved unto God,” but it is the “god” they have created with their laws, by-laws and interpretations.

What God says is this: “hasten to show yourself approved to God. Exert yourself to show yourself approved unto God. Be diligent about it. Rightly dividing (cutting straight, cutting straight ways; proceeding on straight paths, holding a straight course, equivalent to doing right; making straight and smooth, handling aright, teaching the truth directly and correctly; accurately handling the present truth in Christ.) The truth would be, objectively speaking, what is true in any matter under consideration; truly, in truth, according to truth; of a truth, in reality, in fact, certainly. Truth would be what is true in things appertaining to God and the duties of man, moral and religious truth. And, subjectively speaking: truth as a personal excellence; that candor of mind, which is free from affection, pretence, simulation, falsehood, and deceit. Truth is free from the additions the carnal man attempts to attach to it. Truth and truth alone can set men free. To really STUDY is to cleave unto God and His word, adding nothing to it to make it more palatable to our carnal nature.

There are other examples of the carnal mind “adding to” what God has said and then developing lengthy “studies” to keep men entrapped in the system of “studying to show thyself approved”, but taking away from God. For example, the carnal mind is "using" the doctrine of "tithing" to where it has become almost a "sacrament of the church" They place a huge emphasis on “tithing” to make sure they can keep the bigger and more elaborate building that "god" told them to build running. I have seen church after church completely fold because "god" told them to build a new sanctuary. Then they start preaching tithing every Sunday to pay the bank note that "god" told them to take out on the new sanctuary. The people leave and the thing goes under.

Seek ye first his divine nature.
Seek ye first his holiness

To teach that God won’t bless you or heal you if you don’t tithe is wrong. It is the gospel of condemnation and puts a "condition" on the wonderful grace of god. They are teaching "tithing" as a magic formula to get the genie in Aladdin’s lamp to "perform". It turns my stomach. A cheerful giver is not one who "faithfully" obeys the local church government's command to permit them extract 10% from each "member's" income to pay the bank note and help the preacher live like a high roller. A cheerful giver hears the voice of God who says I want you to give to this one or sow into the life of that one, for they do my will and bow not to the pressures of men. God calls us to be the supply for the needs of others, not their lusts.

But then these same preachers won’t preach that if you continue in sin, God can’t bless you or heal you, because if they preached a repentance message, they would lose their "faithful givers" and it would all fold.

I had an "ordaining" group (my "covering" or place of "accountability") write threatening letters to "their" people that they would check with the employers to see if they were "giving" their faithful tithe to the organization. I sent back all my credentials post haste saying I want no part of them anymore. Never heard a word from them wondering why. However I think they knew why.

Sounds like they had a big "ministry" debt to pay off! However, if God did not anoint the ministry as his ministry, you are going to "beg for money" all the time. If he did anoint the ministry as his ...he will supply all you need for that ministry and not what you lust for. A cheerful giver gives in the anointing of God to be the supply for the need.

Another “teaching” that has called for much “study” by men is “healing. There is already a great deal taught and preached regarding healing and restoration, and there is certainly much truth in those teachings. But the additions of carnal men who have “studied” and formulated more teachings have buried the simple truth: Believe Jesus, who healeth thee.

A friend of mine pointed out: “There will be those who will say, well, we got to get the sin out. We have to pray more. We have to believe more. Confess more. More confessions. More faith-songs, more communion, more church, more teachings, more pleading the blood, more casting out demons, getting forgiveness of generational curses and sins, getting forgiveness of grandpa's sins and grandma's sins, Masonic curses, regional curses, etc. etc.

In short, the list of things that "teachers" have come up with regarding healing is getting longer and longer; so long that a few brothers and sisters have balked upon seeing just how many have been taught.

I'm not saying at all that these teachings are false or irrelevant or superfluous, etc.
But I've noted in the Gospels that Jesus when asked for healing would ask the petitioner one question and almost always one question only: DO YOU BELIEVE THAT I AM ABLE TO DO THIS? Or, in a nutshell, do you believe?

He didn't even ask, Do you have enough faith? It was just a simple yes/no type question, Do you believe, yes or no? A qualitative question, not quantitative. Simple, direct. And it worked.

Carnal “study” produces men’s lists. Man studies to satisfy his carnal nature to “do good works”. My friend continued to say: When there are seemingly long lists of requirements to accomplish a good spiritual thing, Satan can easily tempt a Christian with thoughts of, “Well, you have an incomplete list, or you forgot item no. 19, or you didn't do them in order, or you didn't completely finish step 14, so you have to redo everything or it won't work at all and God will be displeased with you. “

It sounds just like the Old Testament man-made laws and traditions...oops you forgot commandment 596 of the Levitical law...sorry try again next year. We can't study man’s way without exalting ourselves, having a high opinion of our ability. We say in our studies: “look at me I am smart.” Look! I took this bible class and got a certificate of completion. I am now an "expert" on this book of the bible! But in these studies, I am not smart enough to know who is right. So I just keep on studying. Studying only "almost persuades" but never converts. When all you do is study men’s studies, you add, and you take away. When you get through, all you have is what you added, and took away. The truth is buried. It is all vanity of vanities, so those that study are ever learning, and never arriving. By revelation we are never adding. By revelation we arrive every day into his present truth.

Living in His spirit, is the only way. We can be approved of God only by living in Jesus. That is the true meaning of "study": be diligent to live in the spirit. Abide in Christ, believing what He says. It is that simple.

Blessings and Shalom,

Becky

Believe In Healing
Becky McLendon

I was reading nutrition articles this morning about what several people did to combat different diseases. Some ate only raw vegetables .Others drank only juices. Others did this and that. You see different articles coming out daily on "how to" overcome disease and maintain health. These are all good, But a body can sure get confused as which method is the "right" one. There comes a time where many of these articles of sound health advice can confuse the reader to despair!! What to "do"!!

The Lord quickened me: I am the LORD that healeth thee. He said HE would show me the way and it would be a way that would help others. He just said: I AM THE WAY. We are to let HIM choose how we are going to be healed. When HE chooses to "put us on a diet" or to have us take supplements or whatever. IT IS GOING TO WORK.

I HAVE TO BELIEVE! I HAVE TO BELIEVE IN HEALING AND HEALTH AND THE ANOINTING THAT WILL DRAW THE NATIONS TO HIM . I HAVE TO BELIEVE TO LIVE AND NOT DIE. AND BECAUSE JESUS BELIEVES IN ME, IT IS EASY TO BELIEVE.. IT WILL BE GIVEN TO US WITHOUT THOUGHT
TO DO THESE THINGS .PERFECTION HAS THE MIND OF CHRIST. HIS LIFE does not go to the doctor. HIS LIFE does not go to the hospital. HIS LIFE does not have things cut on, or poisoned with drugs or burned with radiation or replaced. HIS LIFE LIVES. and HIS LIFE IS IN ME. HIS LIFE SAYS IT ALL, DOES IT ALL.

We put FIRST things first...Seek ye FIRST the kingdom. and HIS righteousness. It is NOT OF WORKS lest any man should boast, THANKS BE TO JESUS I AM HEALED AND WALK IN HEALTH. HIS LIFE COUNTS THINGS THAT ARE NOT AS THOUGH THEY WERE. LOVE IS LIFE, and LIFE IS LOVE. LIFE IS BEING A PART OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD. I AM THIS DAY PART OF JESUS; HE IS PART OF ME, and WE ARE ONE. THE BRANCH AND THE VINE ARE ONE, SO WE ARE IN CHURCH WITH THE VINE. WE ARE IN SCHOOL WITH JESUS.

Trust ME he says...Let ME do it MY way, for MY way is better than any man's way. So just as you set in your spirit that man's MEDICAL way is not MY way, so shall you set in your spirit that MY way of nutrition and over all care of your body is superior to even the BEST of men's ways.

The Spirit Of Don’t Go Too Far
Becky McLendon

The carnal mind thinks only on carnal things associated with this bios, which we think is “life.” Never do their thoughts and prayers tap into Zoë, which is Christ’s life that he desires to give us. We see carnal people only caring about their own little back yard, their pains, their desires, and their plans. We see much "political praying" such as. Lord, make "my" nation stronger than "their" nation. We are the "good" guys and they are all the "bad" guys, so bless us. We see even fervent prayers for football teams and other worldly cares. Let us win. Bless my meeting. Bless my ministry. However Jesus only confirms what he has given. He will not confirm what he has not given. It is vanity for men to ask god's "blessing" on that which he has not confirmed. There is that falling away of what the lord has not joined. There is the falling away of the "great assembly" that is not his assembly.

Jesus keeps what he has joined. This gives new meaning to "the household of faith, and the house of God". It is made up solely of those whom god has joined! The rest is cast out. Those brought to the house of faith on someone else’s “coat tails” or to satisfy an agenda other than God’s are cast out. He says they have gathered but not by me. It is wrong to fashion church meetings to be “seeker friendly.” To attract the world one must become worldly if he is not in the anointing to draw men. God says, they have joined "house to house" and "field to field", but not by me. It is what God has built and what god has added to that makes up God's house. They do these things to increase themselves, not knowing it is god that gives the increase. It is the increase of God, not the increase of goods that matters. He will give increase until he says, "my storehouse is now full,” and shuts the door.

The Lord's plan is for the willing and those with a single eye. Time is too short for the carnal to wait. They are so busy loving their own lives that they will lose those lives. They will not have renewed their strength waiting on the Lord. It’s the Lord's leaven that gives us time to wait. Knowing he is the master bread maker, we wait as the dough is completely leavened. If we have so waited, the lord can use us to heal the land. We wait for the anointing that will stop all this bombing and killing.

The words submit and believe would be the same, but unbelievers don't submit. There is a “don't go too far” spirit. We will not let ourselves be fenced in by that spirit. We will sidestep all denominational fences that people would like to put around us. A lot of people have had healings but they will still say the gifts ended with the apostles and that once saved always saved no matter what your life is like. Had a preacher who believed his denomination was the only one with truth. He had had a healing miracle but would throw down tongues or any other gifts of the spirit in a heartbeat. He preached those sermons looking right at me; fully knowing i spoke in tongues. Mocked me on a couple of occasions

You ask, well how did they get healed if they don't believe? Many healings are for judging. He searches the heart to see whether we have in us the spirit of "Don't go too far": or a spirit that runs all the way in to God. In the end, if they "don't go too far," they may wish they had never been healed, if they went about adding to and taking away from the One who healed them. We know there is coming a tearing down and with no mercy. Our Jesus is angry. They have turned their back on light that he gave them for the praise of men. So he goes through the temple with the whip and turning over their tables. They have made my house a den of robbers. They are making lies their refuge. They go to big churches for advantage. It's good for business. It's good for image. But "don't go too far!" Their whole faith is based on what that huge church can do for them. They are duped into thinking they are part of the house of God, the kingdom of God and that they are saved. But sadly they are merely a "brotherhood" carnal religion. How often do we here of someone who knows a fellow church member who is doing something highly illegal, but they say to "well he is a "brother" in my church-a deacon. I cannot turn against my brother. This kind of fellowship is for unbelievers, and Jesus will judge. It is the self-righteous He sends strong delusions to. They have kept themselves from "going too far" and have wound up "far from God."

Our prayer is always, "Jesus, keep me in Your paths; lead me into all things for the glory of Your name." Amen

Blessings and shalom,

Becky

Ascending And Descending

Susan Cummings

The ascending and descending has begun. For I am bringing forth all that you will need in the days ahead. You will have My Wisdom, My Glory, My Word, My Holy Spirit, My Power, and My Angelic Messengers who will bring forth My Will through your lives.

Just as My Son declared in John 17, that My People would be filled with Me, and know Me as He did, they also will walk in the same power and greater understanding, and have the angelic help that will enable them to walk out My Will upon the earth.

It is time for the greater works to be done by My Own. It is time for the Word to be made manifest in the earth, as a witness. It is time for the people of God to begin to display their God.

I choose the vessel that will display Me. I choose the encounter with My angelic hosts, and determine the timing. For what I have declared in the heavenlies and in the earth, will surely come forth now.

Just as I ascended and descended upon Jacob in his dream, and I also ascended and descended upon My Son, surely I will also ascend and descend upon My People in this last hour. And I will do so with even greater display, as I have held in reserve a portion of Myself that has not yet been seen in the earth, until this final generation.

That time is now.

I AM no longer going to withhold and reserve Myself anymore. I will begin now to fully come to Mine, and transform them, and fill them, and then pour out of them, as I choose. I will not be dictated to, controlled, channeled, or ordered by men. My Name is Holy, and will be seen as Holy in the nations.

What was done by My disciples in Acts, is only a portion of what I will do now. What I released through them, in their day, was for their day, and for that hour, in My Purposes.

Behold, I do a new thing! It shall spring forth. It will be a strange work, indeed! Men will either embrace Me, as I come, or reject Me. I will not come as before, but as I choose.

I will be glorified in the earth, and in My House.

I am ascending and descending anew.

No gate will shut me out. No bars will hold Me. No stronghold will stand in My way. No army can even stand before Me. No man is wiser than Me. No plan of man or devil can stop Me. I AM.

As I come, I will transform, and change My Vessels. They will walk in the fullness of My Covenant and in the Power of My Name and nothing shall prevent them!

For I AM rising up!

My House has been empty long enough!

My Church has been powerless long enough!

My Name has been mocked and scorned long enough!

My Glory has been refused long enough!

It will now begin to ascend and descend upon Mine Own, and then I will break forth, as I have shown. For the Door has indeed been opened, and now they begin to step through. Transformation will now come, as they do. Then I will ascend and descend upon them and through them anew.

-Susan Cummings

2-11-05

1:01 am

Gen. 28: NKJV

10 Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran.
11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep.
12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
13 And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: "I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.
14 Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.
15 Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you."
16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it."
17 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"
18 Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it.
19 And he called the name of that place Bethel;[a] but the name of that city had been Luz previously.
20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on,
21 so that I come back to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God.
22 And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God's house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You."

Gen. 28: AMP
10 And Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran.
11 And he came to a certain place and stayed there overnight, because the sun was set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down there to sleep.

12 And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it!
13 And behold, the Lord stood over and beside him and said, I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father [forefather] and the God of Isaac; I will give to you and to your descendants the land on which you are lying.
14 And your offspring shall be as [countless as] the dust or sand of the ground, and you shall spread abroad to the west and the east and the north and the south; and by you and your Offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed and bless themselves.(A)
15 And behold, I am with you and will keep (watch over you with care, take notice of) you wherever you may go, and I will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done all of which I have told you.
16 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place and I did not know it.
17 He was afraid and said, How to be feared and reverenced is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and [a]this is the gateway to heaven!
18 And Jacob rose early in the morning and took the stone he had put under his head, and he set it up for a pillar (a monument to the vision in his dream), and he poured oil on its top [in dedication].
19 And he named that place Bethel [the house of God]; but the name of that city was Luz at first.
20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go and will give me food to eat and clothing to wear,
21 So that I may come again to my father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God;
22 And this stone which I have set up as a pillar (monument) shall be God's house [a sacred place to me], and of all [the increase of possessions] that You give me I will give the tenth to You.

Daniel 7:13 AMP
13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, [a]on the clouds of the heavens came One like a Son of man, and He came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him.

John 1: NKJV
50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, "I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." 51And He said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, hereafter[j] you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Apples And Ducks
Vicki Camp

(-a vision, a word of knowledge and wisdom, a word of instruction for some of us, to hear …)
pre: Not too long past, I was in prayer for a certain man, an elder in the faith who leads other saints, and who is (most likely unbeknownst totally to himself) grieving Holy Spirit at this time, which in turn is affecting our Lord's precious 'sheep'. After experiencing the wonderful flow of Christ' Love for this man while in prayer (and thus I can testify first-hand that truly our Lord loves this man !),,,, Our Lord then presented to me a short vision. If you care to read this piece, please bear with the first part which seems more personal to this man, and read on through to the last portion which is not ....

I was shown a man pushing a large wooden flatbed one-wheeled cart. It was like a wheel barrow or hand-cart with a fairly large flat-bed like an old wooden horse drawn wagon, only not as large. This was a country setting with some tall golden grass on the sides of this old road or wagon trail (?), that this man walked with his cargo. He was struggling up a slight incline, gripping the wooden handles, walking carefully so as not to disturb his load which was obviously very precious to him, for I could easily observe the great care he was taking........

I wondered what could be so precious ? I looked closer to see then, and I saw that his cart bed was full of these great looking red apples. However, what was quite odd due to this outdoor scene, man and cart in this country-like setting, was that these great looking red apples, being 4 or 5 layers deep, were all evenly lined up in the most precise and neat layers and rows ! - Very neat, very organized, and this man was incongruously intent upon attempting to walk and push his cart whilst not disturbing a single solitary individual apple, nor row, as he and his cart-barrow jostled along this bumpy uphill trail,,, quite slowly.

Suddenly as I watched the vision continue, the great hand of God came down from the sky, extended HIS Index finger close to the man's cart...... not even touching it really, just coming close -- whereupon the whole cart toppled sideways with apples bouncing and flowing out everywhere. This surprised me, however as I then looked at the cart-pushing man, he was most startled and dismayed ,,, his mouth opening in some small horror as he fell to his knees holding his head,, aghast,,, watching his apples all bouncing away, bruised and breaking, dislodged apples, even a few bursting open,,, his precious cargo of apples.

Yes, God does sometimes speak in puns, and you may have guessed already that our Lord was showing me a 'word of knowledge' in vision form concerning this person I was praying for -- Our Lord HimSelf is going to upset 'the apple cart', upset this man's preciously organized and cared over apples in his cart. Though this man has over the years gotten all his 'ducks in a row' (he felt) , one problem is that they are just exactly that, in part = his' ducks (apples); Not necessarily all were God apples, that is not all were God given to this man of The Word and by The Spirit.

The Lord revealed to me more about this person; his having been In Christ for many years and thus he had collected much spiritual wealth in the process (apples = Godly fruit, teaching, Holy Spirit gifts, doctrines, and the more….); Many many apples, even several layers deep of apples, but therein lay also some bad apples (great looking on the outside, to be sure, but not necessarily of divine source)
The presented problem?: This man is 'not open' to be budged an inch to anything new that might displace any of his apples, that might disturb his gained possessions which he had collected and compartmentalized so very neatly, over time - both the God given divine apples, and then too the self reasoned and otherwise procured apples.

God needed to "move out", "add to" in some cases, and even to "displace and replace" completely in other cases some of this mans apples which were like ducks in rows, but he was not receiving nor hearing presently. The good God apples, and then too his man-and otherwise-appropriated-apples were all being held equal in this man's cart, and as the vision shown he was not going to allow to be "budged" nor "dislodged" one single apple ... thus he struggled in a handicapped way to continue walking his path given of Lord - his now, present time struggling to move along up 'higher', In Christ.

God loves this man greatly, and wants to speak to him freshly and to correct some of his misplaced, and/or wrongly-gathered held-tightly-to apples, but this person is too preoccupied with guarding his 'years upon years' of collected apples (the good and the not so good, and even a few hidden rotten bad sown in of enemy),, and so he is not presently hearing, even to HIS Lord, Whose Voice this man knows well! For in his preoccupation he actually could not hear anyone, nor God HimSelf, and thus he was found spiritually deaf. Sad and grievous.
So, as I had been shown in this vision, drastic God' measures would be required and were going to be taken. Not because of God's anger with this man, but because our Lord cares lovingly over HIS' sheep being effected, and more so BECAUSE God loves this person oh so personally, this man, one of our Lord's beloved sons. (Heb. 12:5,6)

As I was receiving of Lord concerning this person, I spoke to The Lord, "Ah, Lord....... I have seen and now understand a little better about this person. I thank You........"
And, my Lord interrupted me,

"Vicki"

"Yes Lord ?"

"This is not only a picture for this man alone. Daughter, you are not this man nor are you placed where he is. Nevertheless, I now ask you, Have you checked your own apples lately ?"

"Oh !,,,,,,,,uhm....... yes Lord, I must do that...... I mean,,, I will do that,,,this ! .....", I rather sort of mumbled in stumbling answer.

"All right, daughter. Now, please tell some of my other son's, men and women whom I love, to check their apples also",

And this is what I hear my Lord speak further to some of us,

"Tell My established people who need to hear this, to check their own apples; Apples which they have gained and neatly aligned into their possession and holding's. I want you to check and then check again to find which are truly sourced of Me, and which are of man. You may not be able to tell the difference yourselves, because you have blind spots, but as you ask of Me, and are open to hear, My Spirit will show and reveal these to you.

My beloved, you need not be toppled-over in your walk, nor corrected harshly if you will do this afresh and regularly .... you need to enlarge your good possessions of Me, and in some instances you need to replace some of your cargo. I assure you ahead, you can do this easily, one apple at a time as needed, by "listening" to Me. My yoke is light.

As you come to Me asking, I will speak and instruct you directly by My Spirit, and through My written Word, and through your brother and sister saints. Open your ears to hear and adjust; In doing so, you will experience newly opened doors of greatest spiritual wealth influx - Mine. Release what is of man, of self, and some even sown of our enemy. Go for My Spirit gold and precious jewels, lest I come to startle you later, turning your walk awry, toppling all of your precious good holdings along with the vane that must be loosed.

I tell you in Truth, if you will do My bidding, I will then cause your joy to be again filling unto fullness overflow because you humble yourself, being open and obedient to Me.
I have said, 'He whom The Son sets free is free indeed ', and if you will receive it, this same freedom Word Truth is for you presently. This is so, and will be so as you seek Me, listen to My Voice, and partake of Me more deeply and righteously.
Receive, do and embed My ease instruction today and thus you will prosper and not stumble harshly tomorrow, of My Hand and by My very Finger. Loose your zeroed-in rigidity that now hampers, and thus discover your own 'more freedom'…… My beloved ones with ears of hearing, bring to your remembrance that I alone am God,,,, and you are not.
Know this; Times grow short and My work is accelerated.
Open now.
I am displacing, reshaping, reforming, and enlarging portions of your holdings, and indeed of all My sheep; For and unto Myself,,, Myself alone."

Heb. 12:5, 6 "And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; For whom the Lord loves He chastens, And scourges every son whom He receives."
v. 11 "Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. "
"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver." - Prov. 25:11

" .... I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. " - Jesus, Jn. 10:10b

-v.c.
Bill and Vicki C. http://write-the-vision.net

An Arrow In The Sky
Sandy Warner

Apr 17, 2005

AN ARROW IN THE SKY
Consider the geese when they fly in the sky,
Lined up like an arrow, when they pass by.
In oneness they move, united in synch.
One after the other, they are so linked.

They move forward to comfortable weather.
It is their instinct to stay together
As I plant in their hearts this common ground,
Of moving on and following the sound.

They are noisy as they move overhead.
While some stay for winter, these press on instead.
With vision and purpose they flap their wings.
Through the cold air, forsaking winter's sting.

Taking the brunt of the opposing air
The lead bird is strengthened against what's there.
I pour into him the strength of My might
As he seeks the landscape for promise in sight.

As he takes his place all others follow suit,
Then together they move on in one pursuit.
He takes his watch at the tip of the arrow.
Setting forehead like flint through bone and marrow.

He's fulfilling his time with faithful passing.
He can hear other flocks gathered and massing.
It strengthens resolve to proceed past winter,
Behind him is frozen from cold endured. .

Before him is comfort and warmth and rest.
As he flaps his wings opposing the test.
He knows My way through instinct in his heart.
With resolve inside, he shield's fiery darts.

>From the unit he's leading, he takes the brunt.
Their sound from behind braces him out front.

Should he grow tired, they all change places.
For another to watch, releasing My graces.

So consider the birds as they fly in the air,
And know your position to stay in prayer.
I AM moving you forward to a better place.
Follow My calling and soar with My pace.

Ps 124:7-8 NLT
We escaped like a bird from a hunter's trap. The trap is broken, and we are free! Our help is from the LORD, who made the heavens and the earth.

Poetry2Ponder are poems birthed out of intimacy with the Holy Spirit through yearnings of intercession. They are posted once a week.
Sandy Warner : swauthor@usa.net ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com
~ Permission given to forward or post. ~

Homesick Children
Sandy Warner

Apr 13, 2005
HOMESICK CHILDREN
I AM drawing all My children who have been running away. They have run from their callings, from My voice, from their destinies, from My arms. Growing homesick, the walls of their fortified hearts are cracking as they remember better days. I have only forgiveness in My deepest longings for these, My runaway children. I will catch them in My loving embrace until they cease their struggles and strivings to let go and rest. Simply to be loved and forgiven, that is their wish and that is Mine.

Luke 15:17-21 NKJV
"But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."' "And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Time In A Bottle
Sandy Warner

Apr 11, 2005

Time In A Bottle

My Beloved, I have saved your time in a bottle and recorded all of your journey. I have treasured your every step in your pursuit to overcome and be with Me. All your tears, all your smiles, all your rabbit trails and all your bull's eyed targets… they are all numbered one by one. Each treasure is safely tucked away in the deep recesses of My heart. How I cherish your innocent trust in Me, My Beloved.

Like a bottle tossed into the sea, you cast your prayers upon the waters of life and waited for the return of your harvest. In those lost and lonely times, when you saw no return and continued to span the horizon, you did not give up hope. You waited as an innocent child while I kept your bottle and held your heart in safe keeping as you continued to hold on to your faith. I AM your High Priest Who has been touched by your deepest wishes. I have prayed you through your darkest hours and I understand those things you carefully tucked inside that bottle, including your time of waiting. We both have had a time of waiting, precious one. I have waited eons for you and you are so greatly worth it. When I think of the rest of time and eternity, it is My extreme joy to think of spending it with you!

Ps 56:8-13 NKJV
You number my wanderings; Put my tears into Your bottle ; Are they not in Your book? When I cry out to You, Then my enemies will turn back; This I know, because God is for me. In God (I will praise His word), In the LORD (I will praise His word), In God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me? Vows made to You are binding upon me, O God; I will render praises to You, For You have delivered my soul from death. Have You not kept my feet from falling, That I may walk before God In the light of the living?

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

An Ascension Into the Reality of Communion

David Weber

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ;

I don't know what your personal experience is lately, but my experience is that the Lord is greatly increasing His presence and His glory in the earth, and that He is doing that through a remnant that is crossing all denominational and sectarian barriers just to love on and minister to one another, and to worship the Lord together with all of their hearts.

It seems to me that somehow when the Lord's anointed come together in that way, and there are not divisions and various forms of strife among them, but rather, they truly come together in the love of Christ to minister to the Lord and to one another as the Spirit leads, THEN there seems to be a multiplication of the anointing (the Lord's presence) which exceeds the simple sum of the collective presence within the individuals.

What I mean by that is that when believers mutually give and share of themselves those things which God has put within them to share, and they do it under the power of the anointing and in an environment that bespeaks of true worship, then there is an increase of the anointing within and upon each one of the believers, bringing all involved into a greater experience with God Himself!

Are you with me here folks?

If in our gatherings we prophesy and speak anointed blessings over one another, the anointing on and within each individual is increased because the inner spirit man of each individual is fed and increased by the anointed Word of God Himself!

I don't know if many of you even realize what I am saying here just yet, but I felt this morning that the Lord wanted me to share something with you today about "Communion," and after having waited upon Him for many hours about what to share, this is what He has given me!

Dear ones, what I am sharing with you here is what COMMUNION is in the truest and purest sense of the word. That is, feeding upon the Body and Blood of Christ, not by the carnal ordinance of juice and crackers, but by the Wine of the Spirit and the anointed Word of God which is the Bread of Life!

Beloved, your spirit can only feed on spiritual bread and drink wine that is of divine essence. Anything other than that might touch your flesh or even the mind and emotions of your soul, but it cannot reach into your spirit. The religious ceremony and liturgical act that we have grown so accustomed and call "Communion Service," is based upon a symbolic act of Jesus that was meant to convey a much higher truth than that of the figurative act itself, but instead, it has become another dead religious Christian ritual that has served to obscure the truth rather than reveal it.

Bread and wine, flesh and blood, manna and water; all of that has been the symbolic representation of the Word of Love and Life; which is the Word mingled and mixed with the Spirit. Beloved, the Body and Blood of Jesus that we are to consume and assimilate into our beings is the Anointed Word of God. When we share that communally we are partaking of the Lord's Supper. His Supper is His presence, and as we feed upon His presence within one another, that presence is increased within each one of us exponentially.

Today dear friends, is a day when the Lord's presence and His glory is greatly increasing in some Christian gatherings because there is a people arising in the earth today who are learning to COMMUNE with the Lord and with one another in Spirit and Truth.

Beloved, it's time to step away from some of the carnal and religious ordinances now so that we might congregate as a people around the Lord's table, where we no longer look at things in only the figurative religious way, but rather come to understand the divine lessons of which the figure was only a signpost.

In His Love, DW

Angelic Activity Released
Todd Bentley

Angelic Activity Released to Judge That Which is Holding Back the Destiny That is Over You by Todd Bentley & Charlie Robinson
Fresh Fire Ministries
www.freshfire.ca

In this teaching, we will examine the angelic realm and how to get into position for angelic encounters that go hand in hand with God's desire to release the fulfillment of His promises in our lives. We'll close by joining together to carry out three prayer assignments.

It's worth repeating -- God's Word always reflects His personality and character. Just like a patient father goes to great lengths to help his children, so does our heavenly Father go all out to help us win the race that He designed for each one of us to run (Hebrews 12:1). One of the most significant sources of help that God created for mankind is the ministry of His angels. However, the church's understanding of the angelic realm today is quite limited so I'm going to share several keys about how we can welcome and also be ready for the angelic realm that God wants to release into our lives.

THE SET TIME

I had a recent encounter with the angel called "Promise" who comes at the set time to announce the fulfillment of a word that we have received from the Lord. There is something about this angel's presence that shakes those things loose that have been tied up and held back in the spirit realm.
I believe that this angel's visit is connected to the set time we are in now concerning God's desire to execute vengeance on His adversaries as well as His desire to fulfill His promises in our lives. Many believers are waiting for their prayers to be answered. Christians have been saying, "God, You spoke this word over our church and over our region." Or, "God, when am I going to see the things You promised me through Your prophet?" So I want you to think back to a prophetic word, a dream, a vision, or a promise, because the Lord showed me, in the spirit, that the answers which have been tied up and held back for years are going to break through to fulfillment. Things are about to change!

ANGELIC SUPERNATURAL INTERVENTION

Just like Daniel experienced a hold up in seeing the fulfillment of the word of the Lord, so have many of us. What God had intended to release to Daniel the first day was held up for 21 days. It took Michael, the archangel, to break through and say, "Daniel, God heard you on the first day. The first day the answer was already released in heaven, but it took 21 days to bring it to earth" (Daniel 10:11-14). How about 21 years, or 6 years, or 10 years? God wants to release the angelic realm to do battle on our behalf so that what has been held back, even for 20 years, is going to be released. It's going to show up with salvations in our families and with financial breakthroughs. Incredible things that we haven't thought about, all of a sudden, are going to be knocking at our door. This applies corporately, as well as to individuals, and there will be a fulfillment of prophetic words, dreams, and destinies that have been hanging over the Northwest for 20 years.

The angelic realm is coming in supernatural intervention to bring the answer we have been waiting for to our door! Let's remember the story of the apostle Peter knocking on the door after the prayers of the saints released the angel to free him from jail (Acts 12:5-13).
The saints were praying all night for Peter. They prayed fervently because he was in prison and he needed supernatural intervention. Their prayers released the angel to go into the prison to help him escape. When he came and knocked on their door they couldn't believe he was really there! (vs. 14-16)

We're like that too! We're so used to praying for a breakthrough and waiting for it to happen that when the answer is at the door we can't believe it! I've noticed that those with the seer gift usually see so much about the future that they really don't expect anything today. Listen. Angels are going to intervene in our circumstances. All we have to do is open up the door and let the answer in! I'm talking about what we've been praying about for years!

Did you know that there are angels in heaven that not only scribe and record, but there are angels who interpret and give us understanding of dreams and visions? Gabriel came to both Daniel and Mary (the mother of Jesus) to bring understanding. He oversees a host of angels in heaven that help men, women, and prophets in particular, understand world events, times and seasons. He is also the angel that comes during a major transition like when Jesus was to be born (Luke 1:26-33).

I believe that we are in the midst of a move of God and that Gabriel is coming because we are about to break into something new. There is about to be an increase in angelic activity. Feathers, diamonds, gold dust -- a lot of what has come in the past is coming again stronger because we are about to break into something new. I don't know exactly when it's about to hit and I don't know how it's going to hit, but I know it's not just going to hit one place.

POSITIONING FOR ANGELIC VISITATIONS

We're going to discuss three different angelic encounters from the Bible that all have similar key characteristics. This will help us get into position for an increase of angelic supernatural activity, visitation, and intervention. We'll examine in detail the encounter that Abraham had and then take a brief look at the encounters that Gideon and Lot each had.

Abraham had several encounters with the Lord, but I want to talk about the one that is described in Genesis 18:1:
"Then the Lord appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day."
God appeared to Abraham by the terebinth trees of Mamre. Mamre means firmness, strength, and fatness. God visits in the place of strength and fatness and with those who are living in the fullness of the anointing. Is your spirit in a place that is strong? Are you focused? The anointing is a prophetic picture of strength and firmness.

Terebinth means landmark, burial, and judgment. God chose to visit Abraham in the place called landmark, burial place, and judgment. That is the place where God comes in blessing. Firstly, every time God would supernaturally visit the patriarchs, they would make a landmark by building an altar to mark the place where heaven opened and God came down. Bethel was a landmark for Abraham and it was marked as a geographical place that triggered an open heaven. Abraham went back Bethel (Genesis 13:3-4) to the exact place where he had previously called upon the name of the Lord and where he built an altar (Genesis 12:8).

"LANDMARKS"

Initially, when Abraham chose to move his tent by the terebinth trees of Mamre in Hebron (Genesis 13:18), which in the spirit is the place of firmness and fatness, he built an altar to the Lord there. There is something about when God sovereignly chooses to visit a city and it becomes a landmark, but there is something about when we choose a city and build an altar and God comes because of what we build.
There are times in which God will sovereignly just move in revival and say, "I'm going to put this city on the map!" But there are other times where God says, "I'm going to visit you because of what you build." Whether God called us to have revival in Abbotsford or not, we will surely have revival. God will come because of the altar we've built.

Today, there are designated places -- landmarks -- found in cities, churches, and ministries where God sovereignly chooses to visit. Modern-day landmarks are Toronto and Pensacola, because God visited these cities. As well, when many believers think about Abbotsford, they are reminded of Fresh Fire Ministries and Fresh Fire conferences. For them, Abbotsford is a landmark where believers come and encounter God's presence because God is visiting there.

So what is Abraham doing by choosing to move by the terebinth trees of Mamre? He's building a landmark! And so God visited him in the very place in which he built his altar (Genesis 13:18). Now, when God chooses to visit Abraham and release the promise (Genesis 18:10), where does God come? To the place that Abraham built. Why? God honors landmarks.

"BURIAL" AND "JUDGMENT"

Secondly, terebinth means burial place. We have to die to ourselves, our agendas, and ideas in order to make room for a visitation from the Lord or from His angels. There has to be a burial!

Thirdly, terebinth means judgment. Examine me, God. Try me. See if there is any error in my way. We don't always understand why the Lord is examining us. When the Lord appeared to Abraham by the terebinth trees, He took on the form of a man (Genesis 18:2). Abraham saw three men standing opposite his tent. This was a test. We'll discuss this later in this teaching under Angelic Encounters Bring a Test.

When Lot encountered the angels he did the same thing as Abraham!
"But he [Lot] insisted strongly; so they [angels] turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate." Genesis 19:3
Lot actually got into an intense discussion with the angels because they wanted to spend the night in the square, but he insisted strongly that they come with him to his house. Little did he realize that his concern for the angels, in the end, would save his life and the lives of his two daughters, because the angels personally escorted them out of Sodom before it was destroyed (vs. 12-22). [Lot's wife died because she didn't follow the angel's instructions (v. 26)]

BECOMING "UNLEAVENED BREAD"

Now let's take a look at Gideon's encounter with the angel of the Lord.
"The Angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth tree . . . " Judges 6: 11
There it is again! We're talking about Gideon, not Abraham! Where does God visit Gideon? Under the terebinth tree. God visits landmarks and burial places. Gideon wanted the angel of the Lord to stay and to give him a sign that it was God speaking to him and sending him into battle against Midian. So Gideon did the same thing that Abraham did!
"So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them." Judges 6:19
In all three angelic encounters (with Abraham, Lot and Gideon), there is the same response. Here is the similar key characteristic that will help us get into position for an angelic encounter -- each one knew how to entertain the angelic realm. They knew how to position themselves for the angelic visitation. Abraham, Lot, and Gideon all prepared unleavened bread for their heavenly guests. There was a feast going on in all three angelic encounters. Each feast symbolizes "The Feast of Unleavened Bread." Isn't it interesting that this Feast also represents Passover and the Last Supper (Luke 22:1-20). I believe that when all three men prepared unleavened bread, their hearts were prophetically in agreement with the very essence of the Last Supper when Jesus shared unleavened bread with His disciples saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me" (Luke 22:19).

It is fitting that they did not prepare bread with leaven because leaven represents iniquity, lust, hypocrisy, uncleanness, wickedness, false doctrine, religion, and legalism. So we need to take this to heart because before the angel can come to our house, we have to get rid of the leaven! God wants unleavened bread! The apostle Paul knew this and he advised the Corinthians:

"Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us." I Corinthians 5:7
It's like Paul is saying that we need to examine ourselves; there must be a consecration in our lives in order to prepare ourselves for a visitation. Let's not miss this! God is looking for those who will examine themselves and allow the Holy Spirit to shed His light on their sin and then take the necessary steps to get rid of the iniquity, the lust, and the hypocrisy.

PROLONGING VISITATION

So there is something about prolonging visitation by baking bread! Sitting down and eating with people we don't know, or with people we do know, builds friendship and intimacy. Jesus said, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me" (Revelation 3:20).
If we want to have angelic visitation and have God come (and prolong our visit when God does come), then we need to learn how to sit down, eat and drink with Jesus. There has to be a place of intimacy.

God always chooses terebinth trees -- landmarks, burial places, and judgment -- of Mamre -- the place of firmness and fatness. God is looking for people who are strong in spirit, people who are pressing in, and for those who are building an altar. Where did God visit? He came to the altar that Abraham built. The altar represented Abraham's attitude of worship, prayer, fasting, and pressing in. Abraham came to a place and said this place is going to become a landmark. I came to a place ten years ago, Abbotsford, and I built an altar there. I've been calling on the Lord ever since, and now God is starting to come and visit because of what we've been building, and He'll continue to come.

ANGELIC ENCOUNTERS BRING A TEST

However, it needs to be said that the Lord usually comes disguised and the only way we can recognize Him is when we have the eyes of our heart opened by the Spirit of God. So often we mistakenly expect to see the Lord on a white horse or a glorious angel like Gabriel decked out in all his shining splendor.
The apostle Paul says, "Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some [you] have unwittingly entertained angels" (Hebrews 13:2).
Without knowing it, how we treat the stranger is a test as to whether God will visit us with an angelic encounter or pass us by. How can we have heavenly visitors if we can't remember the poor? How can we be trusted with supernatural revelation and heavenly encounters if we don't give consideration to the stranger and the afflicted.
The fact is, most of the time we don't feel comfortable with the stranger. But how we treat the poor, the widow, the broken, the lost, and the stranger will determine whether or not we are in the right position to receive a visitation from heaven. So let every opportunity you have to bless the poor be an opportunity to serve and bless Jesus, because you never know if "they" are angels!

When the Lord appeared to Abraham He hid Himself in the package of three normal men because He wanted to see what kind of treatment He was going to receive. Listen. If we knew an angelic visitation was going to happen at a certain time and place we'd have the best of everything ready! But the fact is we never really know when angels will show up and we never really know how they're going to look. So we always have to be ready. And the test is when the broken and stinky street-person comes and needs ministry. This "person" might be an angel!

DON'T DESPISE OR DEVALUE THE PACKAGE THE MESSAGE COMES IN

It's clear that Abraham was ready in his heart before the Lord and the two angels even appeared to him because he literally ran to them (Genesis 18:2)! Instantly his attitude was warm and he asked them to stay. Nothing was going to stop Abraham from blessing them with a foot washing, offering them a shady spot to rest up, and then preparing a great meal. Sometimes our heart is ready to run right into God's purposes! Have you noticed also that sometimes our heart is ready, but our mind kicks in and argues? It's like our spirit recognizes God or an angelic encounter, but our mind hasn't caught up with the reality of the experience.

The encounter that Abraham had here is absolutely crucial because it's in this visitation that the set time comes to confirm and release the promise that Sarah (his wife) will be holding her son at that same time next year (Genesis 18:10-14). Listen. It is possible to miss something that God has for us if we despise or devalue the package the message comes in. Jesus, Himself, and the two angels came to Abraham in the form of three normal men. We need to be sensitive to the Holy Spirit in order to be ready and then recognize God and His angels when they come to visit us. The Lord and the two angels were ready to come and leave right away. Abraham's answer to the test was, "Please, stay a while." Is that the cry of your heart when the Holy Sprit shows up? Do you hope that the encounter will never be over?

Isn't it interesting that the next thing God says is, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing?" (Genesis 18:17). Should I continue to hide our plans from Abraham my servant or should I bring him in on what we are doing? [So obviously he passed the test because he is invited into a conversation about Sodom and Gomorrah.] Abraham, I'm thinking about coming down and destroying these cities. Would you like to be in on that because I reveal my secrets to my prophets? You are one of my friends now because of the way you treated us when you didn't know exactly who we were.

ANGELIC ENCOUNTERS COME WITH A COST

We want the supernatural, but are we God's friends, ready to give whatever it costs us? Are we going to sacrifice ourselves and pay our vows? We need to examine our lives and make some decisions. It's the place of judgment, but it brings us into the place of blessing. It's going to cost us something.

When God visited Jacob in a prophetic dream there was an open heaven, angels ascending and descending (Genesis 28:10-15), and Jacob marked the spot where he had the encounter -- he made a landmark (v. 18). He vowed that if the Lord would look after him and bring him back to his father's house in safety, the Lord would be His God and He would give the Lord one-tenth of his wealth (vs. 20-22). Can you imagine? Twenty years later God shows up and says, Hey Jacob! I'm the God of Bethel! Get back to the landmark! Get back to the place! And by the way, fulfill your vow. I want the money! (Genesis 31:13) You see, it's going to cost us something. We won't have a visitation without a burial in our life. Something has to die, change, shift, and move.

What's your cross? I've asked God for an increase in the anointing, but when I ask for an increase I know that more will be required of me, because with every increase comes a requirement. So God responds with, What are you going to give? I'm going to come to your house with three angels and not tell you they are angels, because I told you a year ago I was going to come with the promise and I want to see if you remember what I told you a year ago! I'm going to show up at your house disguised. Why? Because I want to see what you're going to do when I come.

So, I want to ask several important questions. What are you prepared to give to see your set time come to pass? If you're asking for more, then God is asking, What will you give Me? Where is the goat? Where is the sacrifice? You want Me to visit you and to stay? Do you want angelic activity to increase in your life, your church, and your city? I'm about to release angelic assignments, but there is a test in the promise. I'm coming and I want to know how you're going to welcome Me when I come. I want to know what kind of sacrifice you're going to make.
What did you promise God? Have you paid your vow yet? If you haven't fulfilled your vow then that could be hindering your destiny! What are you prepared to give for the increase? What are you prepared to give for the promise that is waiting in heaven?

We need to be like Abraham. He knew exactly what to do when the Lord and the two angels came by.

He was ready to give. He was in the right place in the natural and in the spiritual. He built the altar, he was in a place of prayer, and he was calling on the name of the Lord (Genesis 12:8). He positioned himself in a place in which God would come and stay awhile, in a place of firmness and fatness. He realized that he would have to change things in His life when God came, but he was willing to pay the cost. God responded by releasing the set time (Genesis 18:10).

IT'S THE SET TIME TO PRESS IN

The set time or the appointed time comes to fullness exactly when God decrees. For instance, at the set time on the day appointed by God, Jesus came into the synagogue in Nazareth and read a particular passage from the scroll of Isaiah. He told everyone, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). That passage of Scripture was there for hundreds of years, but there was a set time ordained by God when those particular words would be fulfilled. Just like it was at the set time when Jesus fulfilled the words spoken from the book of Isaiah, I sense that we are at the set time right now to make decrees and see destiny and prophetic words come into fulfillment from today forward.

There is a shaking that is coming to the Northwest. I believe that the fulfillment of God's promises for the Northwest is coming right now. We are saying, "God, open up heaven! Come down! Shake; bring judgment, because it's going to release blessing and answered prayer. Just move whatever you need to move, but let there be supernatural intervention because I want the answer banging on my door." Listen. It's going to happen quicker than we think.

This very day the angel could come. We may not see the angel or angels, but the effect of their intervention is going to be released. I want you to think about this with me now. What are the top two prophetic dreams that you have on your list? It's the set time for the answers to come. It's going to be there on the computer or on the telephone! The check is going to be in the mail and the property is going to sell! The investment is going to come through. Your son and daughter are going to get saved. That miracle is on its way! Revival is about to hit! There are pastors, leaders, churches, and ministries that have been building altars for 12 years, 15 years. This is the year that God visits those very places. Believe it!

How long did Jacob wait? Twenty years! There is that number again. There are angels in heaven that are ready to add incense to our prayers and mix the prayers with the fire of the altar and then take the golden censer that is on the altar in heaven and throw it to the earth (Revelation 8:3-5). It's answered prayer coming down! Mark my words, this message will be confirmed with some natural event, because as answers and blessings come down from heaven, judgments, voices, lightnings, and an earthquake come with it (Revelation 8:5).

God is making His name known against His adversaries (Isaiah 64:1-3). He's judging the very thing that's been holding back the promises from their fulfillment. The very principality that Daniel faced, that held up his answer for 21 days, God judged it by sending the archangel, Michael (Daniel 10:13). There is going to be angelic activity released to judge the very thing that is holding back the destiny that is over your city, region, nation, or church. And there is power in this set time to pray it through. God has come with a promise again and again for our lives, for our cities, and over our regions! We want to receive it! The next time the angel visits us, this angelic encounter will be different than all the other angelic encounters! That's because it's not the word being spoken and then repeatedly confirmed. The angel that is coming is the angel that comes to release the set time! Let's go for it in the spirit today!

Start preparing your sacrifice, the price, the cost -- whatever it costs! I see destiny hanging in the spirit realm being released and coming down in our lives, our churches, our region, and in our nation. Let's prepare ourselves to go deeper and higher, and let's prepare ourselves to live in the supernatural. Let the angelic presence that we've been sensing today, let it increase. Let it come in dreams and in visions at this set time! We're going to position ourselves before the Lord in a way that is pleasing to Him because He is coming to the terebinth trees of Mamre!

RIGHTEOUSNESS AND PRAYER

So I want to invite you to lift up your voice today and pray. There is power from God right now to pray through, to worship, and to make decrees. Let's cry out to the Lord and lay hold of this appointed time, this set time, for the fulfillment of God's promises, and untie them today as we pray.

Also, there are many believers reading this teaching who live in the Northwest somewhere: Washington, Oregon, and California. We need to pray! Really pray that God will spare the righteous! You know, when we walk in righteousness, principalities and powers are weakened substantially! God can judge His adversaries through the righteous living and righteous acts of the saints. We'll pray into this in a few minutes.

Remember, Abraham was in the right position not only for a visitation from the Lord and angels, but he was also in the right position to hear the secret counsel of the Lord. The Lord was about to judge the principalities and powers promoting wickedness in Sodom and Gomorrah. So He said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing?" (Genesis 18:17). Abraham was brought into the situation and, not only that, he was personally involved because his relatives lived in Sodom.

So we're going to carry out three prayer assignments. The first one is that we're going to ask the Lord to release the angel of promise (who comes at the set time to announce the fulfillment of a word that we have received from the Lord). Second, we're going to make a decree. Third, we're going to stand in the gap.

PRAYER

Father, we declare today that we want to build an altar in our heart that is marked by prayer, fasting, and worship because we are desperate to see Your kingdom come and advance in our lives, our cities, our churches, and in our region. We want this altar to be soaked in purity so that we're in the right position to make our requests to You and then to issue a just decree.

Father, loose the set time, the promises, the dreams, and the visions today in the heavens! Let there be encounters, angelic encounters, angelic activity, supernatural intervention in our lives today. God, let the angel of promise come right now. Let the angelic realm that oversees prayer in heaven be released. Release the angel that sends back the answer. Let them fulfill Your Word. Let them do what You promised. Let them bring forth the manifestation of the answer.

Many of us have come to understand that you love decrees of justice, God. So together we want to decree that You will come and oversee this set time for the fulfillment of our destiny and those prophetic words and promises that you have given us. Thank you, God!

Father, we're drawing near with confidence to Your throne of grace so that we may receive mercy and grace to help in a time of need. There's nowhere else to go. We see the upheavals that are happening in the earth today and, in these upheavals, we see Your hand judging Your adversaries, those principalities and powers at work that promote wickedness.

We cannot help but also see many souls struggling in the valley of decision -- those whose consciences are not completely seared. We also see Your children who know You. Father, when Your judgments are released against principalities and powers, many people could die. We want to stand in the gap at Your throne of grace and contend for the salvation of the lost who don't know You, because Your word says that when Your judgments are released there will be some who will turn to You and learn righteousness (Isaiah 26:9b). And we want to stand in the gap like Abraham did and contend for the lives and safety of the righteous who do know You.

May both groups receive mercy from You and repent. Please come with a spirit of repentance, O God. May those who don't know You repent and turn to You for salvation and may those who do know You repent for not walking with You with pure hearts. You said that if Your people who are called by Your name would humble themselves and pray and seek Your face and turn from their wicked ways, then You will hear from heaven and forgive their sin and heal their land. When we turn from our wicked ways and walk in righteousness then the principalities and powers are weakened substantially. Lord, then powers of wickedness are judged through righteousness prevailing in the land. O God, you are always looking for ways to release your mercy and so we pray that righteousness would prevail so that Your judgments come without a great loss of life. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

by Todd Bentley
Fresh Fire Ministries
www.freshfire.ca

Apostles And The Government Of God

Jill Austin

office@masterpotter.com

I feel like the Lord is going to challenge Gatekeepers and Senior Pastors with one piercing question - do you have oil in your lamp stands?

Do you just have the name of Jesus over your church but there are no demonstrations of the Bible nor any signs and wonders? You cannot say, "Hey, but I am an Apostle!" The apostles radically brought salvations to the feet of Jesus. If you see no one saved, you are not an apostle. If you are not moving in signs and wonders, you are not an apostle.

Just because you have moved in a church for 30-40 years doesn't mean that you have governmental weight, and it doesn't mean that you move as an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and teacher. Governmental weight means that you have the goods; the goods are the Kingdom of God and the anointing.

What Confronts the Jezebel spirit There needs to be a fresh cry in each one of our hearts that says, "Come, Holy Spirit, we want a fresh touch of Your presence. We want Pentecost. Lord, we want to have an Elijah anointing. We want you to rebuild the altars in our churches so there is unction and power and authority and government." The government of God can confront that Jezebel demonic spirit of perversion and immorality and bring healing and restoration to multitudes!

The Challenge of Jesus

May I ask you something? What is your secret life like? Are you a double agent where you go to church worshipping and praying, yet you entertain yourself in dark movie theaters, polluting your eye gates with violence, witchcraft, sensuality, fantasy, or internet pornography or gambling. In other words, the Lord is challenging us that we can give no common ground to a demonic Jezebel spirit.

We really need to go before the Lord and say, "Lord, are there demonic strongholds in my life?" Before you have the authority to take things into society, you must deal with it in your own life first of all! Can you confront darkness if there is darkness in your members? You cannot.

Elijah was a revivalist

He confronted evil in his society with the power of Holy Spirit, bringing repentance and turning them back to first love. There needs to be a cry in you that returns back to first love. A fresh cry, not on the anointing you had during the last decade, but something that pushes the line that you want more of Him now. Something in you must be hungrier and more desperate than ever before! There must be a cry in you that says, "Lord I want to know you more, no matter what is takes."

Two Kinds of Spiritual Warfare

God wants to kill our passions, perversions, pornography, fantasies, manipulation and addictions to alcohol and drugs!! We are in a communication age of television and movies and what we are dealing with are two kinds of spiritual warfare.

One kind of warfare involves our polluted eye gates. What we see has opened us into that whole seductive realm in the spirit that is unholy and unclean.

Another kind of warfare involves the way Jezebel takes over through a religious, controlling spirit that cloaks itself in the name of righteousness. It says, "Oh, this is wisdom!" In the name of wisdom, we shut down the move of God in our churches.

The Fire of Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit wants to come in and challenge and shake everything that can be shaken. He comes in and shakes government, society, churches, and our lives. Holy Spirit brings in a convicting power and it needs to go into the sanctuary and into the hidden back rooms.

Do you feel the tangible presence of Holy Spirit in your life? Are you still on fire with this hunger inside of you that you want more of Him, no matter what? Is the fire bigger and stronger than when you were first filled with Holy Spirit?

Which Do You Want?

Or are you dealing with respectability versus the anointing? Have you been seduced by intellectualism or elitism? Has the political arena of your church or the fear of man put you in a box? Are you one of the leaders who say, "I want Holy Spirit to bring balance?" But is that balance at the cost of no salvations, no deliverances, no healings, no signs and wonders. That is a heresy! That is not the Gospel! That is not balance! Holy Spirit came in, broke open ground, and took territory to bring radical healings, salvations and deliverances.

Are we afraid of emotionalism? Do we want everything to be nice and neat? Jesus was birthed in a manger and birthing is messy. Is there really no room in the inn for Jesus to come in? Do we really want Jesus? Even as a baby, Jesus was going to come in and shake things!

Do we want nice, neat prophecies about fire? Do we hear enough from Heaven where we are able to bring in words that expose darkness and pride but also challenge people that he is God? He brings the spirit of adoption. He is a strategist and has destiny, calling and birthright! Can we call people into their birthright and destiny?

Where Does the Church Stand?

Is there a cry in us that we want to see people really run for Jesus and move in the radical things for God? In your churches, is there so much fire on the altar that you hear the sounds of weeping and intercession? Do you actually cry and weep for your family and the ones who are lost? Do you weep over your city and church? Or do we have a form of prayer without fire and intellectual prayer? Or do you have people really interceding and weeping and crying out to God?

Or is there so much fire on the altars of our spirits that we can really stand in the gap for others who are broken and hurting? There needs to be that cry where we are really willing to birth revival.

A Reality Check for America

Our cities and nations are on the brink of disaster. They are controlled by demonic principalities. We desperately need revival. We desperately need our cities to be transformed. We need laws to be changed. We need to see reversals.

Right now we are in a place where we could verily easy see shortages: food, oil, gas, finances. We are looking at limited nuclear war here in America. Can you hear the voice of God? Are you moving with a cutting edge revelation? When we are moving in a time of great shaking and suddenly things are upon our society, it is too late to say, "Oh! I wonder if I am able to hear God's voice."

We are in war.

If your son or daughter were suddenly sent to the war-front, do you know for certain that they can they hear the voice of God for themselves? Do they know what city or village to walk in and where the land mines are? Do they know how to follow God? There needs to be that fresh cry that says, "Lord, we really want to hear your voice."

We are talking about preparation for war. We are talking about moving in radical signs and wonders. We are talking about a demonstration of the Bible - a demonstration that's moving outside of our churches, social clubs, outside of our religious institutions and being able to really impact our society! We are in this season of war – but are we prepared? Our double-portions sons and daughters must be prepared for this!

Prayer: So Lord, right now, I just pray that You will put a hunger in people for You so they realize that they need to hear the voice of God. Give them revelation that the Jezebel spirit is an evil governmental principality and that it is confronted with the power of God, which is governmental.

We understand we are talking about two governmental powers clashing. Come, Holy Spirit. Where we have grieved You and where we don't want You to be radical, we want to release You to break outside the walls of our culture and our religious institution. We want You to open up the heavens so that You can bring radical visitations.

As we are dealing with the media and communications, we pray that You will give us the radical ideas of the entrepreneurs. Lord, start to raise up the Joseph Company. Raise up men and women who are like a dream team - ones who move in hearing the voice of God and putting forth world trends."

Lord, we do pray that where we have been seduced and half-hearted and where we have been too comfortable, that You would start to break off apathy. Break off religiousness. And Lord, start to awaken our hearts.

Ankh And The True Eternal One

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 15th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Main Entry: ankh Function: noun Etymology: Egyptian 'nh live
: a cross having a loop for its upper vertical arm and serving especially in ancient Egypt as an emblem of life

The Lord said, ‘Ankh’ so I wondered at why He would want to talk about this. And I looked up some definitions. If you are sensitive to witchcraft stuff, then don’t read any of the definitions. They are at the bottom of the word.

As I read the definitions and then contemplated the cross and how Jesus died,
I felt I got this understanding of some of the power of the cross in redemption from what the cross stood for as I’d not realized before ! If the ankh and the cross were used in worship of the sun, and gods/demons, then JESUS dying on the cross would seem to symbolize HIS VICTORY over all these things. Yet there is such a fear among many Christians of those who have participated in witchcraft and who still participate in it. And I felt such an amazing view considering this now, as I had never before, realizing that the very cross was an occult symbol in itself. So Him depicted on it is such a powerful message that NO OTHER god has done this for us. No other god has such power ! And it reminded me of Moses in the wilderness and how the bronze serpent was something put on a pole and when it was looked at they would be healed.

Num 21:8-9 AMP And the Lord said to Moses, Make a fiery serpent [of bronze] and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live. 9 And Moses made a serpent of bronze and put it on a pole, and if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the serpent of bronze [attentively, expectantly, with a steady and absorbing gaze], he lived.

It restored them from the judgment that was rendered !!!

This is symbolic of what Jesus would do in the future…He would crush the serpent by dying on a cross, bringing about the healing of all who would LOOK to HIM. Serpents not only represent evil, but also wisdom. Jesus is Wisdom.
Then compassion was on me and I began to weep at the power of the cross and how little we understand of that power in this age. So many of us have walked in fear of man, and fear of demons, and fear of many things. But HE died that ALL EVIL would be crushed. Not just some evil - But all evil !

Then I listened for His voice and heard…

“ I AM THE ETERNAL ONE. There is no other like Me ! Many today are mixing witchcraft with Christianity as if it is a small thing. When I died for you, I paid the price for freedom. But I did not pay that price that you could once again entangle yourselves with evil practices. The priests have not taught the flock the difference between good and evil. There are hirelings who have even brought witchcraft into their own homes ! How can this be you say ? How is it that anyone would be seduced into practicing evil ? A backslider will be filled with his own ways. One sin leads to another. Rationalization of one sin, will leave vulnerability to another, and on and on till there is degradation and the person moves away from real relationship with the Creator, and serves the creature instead. [See Romans 1]

When you cannot pray, or worship or read the Word, then there is some form of witchcraft at work, whether it is people cursing you, or you pointing your finger at others, all is witchcraft. I have told you NOT to align yourself with the accuser ! So I am telling you now, that when you do that, you are practicing witchcraft because you are in REBELLION to My words, and rebellion is as witchcraft.

How can you conquer witchcraft in the world when you entertain it in your mind and heart and home ? THE CHURCH all over the world needs to REPENT of all unrighteousness. Many have grown callous to sin.
Even frivolous to practice sin. Bondage to alcohol, drugs, sex, & perversion is common in the house of the LORD !

Isa 58:9 AMP Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry, and He will say, Here I am. If you take away from your midst yokes of oppression [wherever you find them], the finger pointed in scorn [toward the oppressed or the godly], and every form of false, harsh, unjust, and wicked speaking, [Ex 3:14.]

Titus 3:1-3 NKJV Graces of the Heirs of Grace
Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work, 2 to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men. 3 For we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.

“This is why I must purge and cleanse My people ! I will not stop purging My threshing floor till My people who are called by My name will HUMBLE THEMSELVES AND PRAY and turn the House of the Lord once again into a House of PRAYER for all nations ! Many go to church to FEEL good, or to participate for that service, then the rest of the week live in total rebellion to Me, and distant from My presence ! CRY OUT FOR THIS NATION FOR REPENTANCE FROM WITCHCRAFT ! REPENT for your own CONTROL and fear, and pride that undergirds it ! DISCERN the signs of the times !

Know that in the days ahead, if you will humble yourselves, you are about to see great repentance among those you thought could or would never repent !
But first You need to humble YOURSELVES before ME. Repent of your fear !
FEAR is not from ME. I have not given you a spirit of fear , but of power and love and a sound mind ! Your own fears cause you to run from ME, rather than TO ME ! SIT AT MY FEET and learn of ME, for I am gentle and humble of heart and I treat you with tenderness because I love you. If you do not know that, then you do not KNOW ME or MY LOVE. THIS IS THE WHOLE OF LIFE, to learn to LOVE ! Only in MY PRESENCE will you be freed.
Come to me and learn of Me. Soak in My presence that You may be filled with My love and mercy, My grace and compassion. It is compassion that makes miracles. It is faith in My love for you and compassion that move mountains !

Do not run away anymore from My presence. EMBRACE the CROSS and confess your sins to one another ! STOP PRETENDING everything is ok when it is not ok ! OPEN up your hearts to ME, and know that I know you and LOVE you , and that I am full of GRACE to those who will humble themselves before me ! There is NOTHING that I have not DIED FOR !!! Your sins are no surprise to Me. Remember I know the beginning from the end and I knew all the choices you would make before I called you ! DO NOT ALLOW SHAME to rule your life any longer. COME TO ME. LIE DOWN on the Divine Physician’s couch and let me do the necessary surgery to remove all that has plagued you !

I AM the ETERNAL ONE. I AM greater than all that could come against you !
Many look to the ankh for protection but I AM YOUR PROTECTOR. Many look at the ankh as a symbol of eternal life. But it is a symbol of WORLDLY LIFE and darkness. ETERNITY is in MY HANDS. I AM the ONLY WAY, the TRUTH and the LIFE. THERE is only ONE road to life, and it is a narrow road. The way to death is wide. I died on such a symbol because it was a sign of OVERCOMING all, including death that would come against you ! GREATER is HE Who is in you, than he who is in the world. Do not be afraid of what man can do to you. GRACE is your great protection. That is why I said to Paul, MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT for you ! MY GRACE is the covering over your head, over your person, all around you ! Believe in My GRACE, because it is for this reason I DIED ! NOTHING can oppose the blood I shed for you !

Persecutions and calamities may come, but you are more than a conqueror through ME, for I strengthen you and will enable you to walk through fire, water, winds and storms. Just as I was with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and Daniel. I AM WITH YOU ! I AM WITH YOU ! I AM INSIDE you ! I AM IN FRONT of you, and BEHIND YOU. I AM YOUR COVERING !"

JESUS

From: http://www.touregypt.net/featurestories/ankh.htm
The ancient gods of Egypt are often depicted as carrying ankh signs. We find …many other gods often holding the ankh sign, along with a scepter, and in various tomb and temple reliefs, placing it in front of the king's face to symbolize the breath of eternal life. During the Amarna period, the ankh sign was depicted being offered to Akhenaten and Nefertiti by the hands at the end of the rays descending from the sun disk, Aten. Therefore, the ankh sign is not only a symbol of worldly life, but of life in the netherworld. Therefore, we also find the dead being referred to as ankhu, and a term for a sarcophagus was neb-ankh, meaning possessor of life.

http://www.nazarite.net/occult-symbols.html says this about the ankh…
Also known as the long life seal. While Christians try to say the ankh is not a cross,
Make no mistake about it , it is another rendering of a cross. This symbol originated in Egypt and stands for reincarnation. Egyptians were pagans and worshipped many gods like the sun-god Amen Rah, and the pagan sun-trinity: Osiris, Isis, and Horus. The ankh and cross were both used equally in ancient sun worship.

http://www.exposingsatanism.org/signsymbols.htm
Symbolizes fertility rites and the building up of lust within a person. A spirit of Lust is the power of this union of male /female representations. Also called the Long Life Seal.

Terror & Transgressions
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 14th, 2005

2 Cor 5:11 NKJV Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.
NT:5401 phobos (fob'-os); from a primary phebomai (to be put in fear); alarm or fright: KJV - be afraid, exceedingly, fear, terror.

Ps 91:4-8 NKJV He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. 5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, Nor of the arrow that flies by day, 6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. 7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near you. 8 Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked.

"I am not a God of wrath and destruction, but a God of RESTORATION. My ways are higher than your ways. My ways are not the ways of men, or of men's ways of thinking. To REBUILD, one often has to tear down to the foundation so that a NEW FOUNDATION can be built upon. My church has built at times from generation to generation on the wrong foundation. So I am reestablishing the FIRM FOUNDATION which is the CROSS of Christ Jesus. You cannot build as you have built before because a new wind is blowing and you must go with the Wind, or you will find yourself in opposition to My plans."

1 Cor 3:13-15 AMP The work of each [one] will become [plainly, openly] known (shown for what it is); for the day [of Christ] will disclose and declare it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test and critically appraise the character and worth of the work each person has done. 14 If the work which any person has built on this Foundation [any product of his efforts whatever] survives [this test], he will get his reward.
15 But if any person's work is burned up [under the test], he will suffer the loss [of it all, losing his reward], though he himself will be saved, but only as [one who has passed] through fire. [Job 23:10.]

1 Cor 3:10-11 AMP According to the grace (the special endowment for my task) of God bestowed on me, like a skillful architect and master builder I laid [the] foundation, and now another [man] is building upon it. But let each [man] be careful how he builds upon it, 11 For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is [already] laid, which is Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one).

“No longer will My church be built on the wrong foundation of prosperity and promised riches of this world. But it will be built on the blood of the prophets and apostles. It will be built on the cross for which it stands. It will be built on TRUTH and JUSTICE and FAITH. It will be built on mutual love for the Savior and for those made in His image and likeness. It will be built on oneness with the Spirit. There is no partiality in ME.

I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. I will fill with terror those who oppose Christ IN YOU. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and this generation will learn what that means. The foundational teaching of the apostles and prophets will be restored. I AM RESTORING the TRUE FOUNDATION. TRUTH will be your shield and buckler.

Do not underestimate the power of the cross, and the blood of the LAMB. Do not underestimate the power of your testimony ! As you speak TRUTH, I will follow it with signs and wonders. SO LIFT UP YOUR VOICE in the fray and announce to the masses the TRUTH of My WORD ! Do not be ASHAMED. Call upon MY MIGHT, and I will fill you ! I will surprise you with My glory ! It will burn away all that withstands My will in you and for you !
Come to My side and take shelter under the shadow of MY WINGS My beloveds for I AM YOUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH. Nothing will withstand the glorious blade of righteousness I hold in My hand. Take MY yoke upon you & learn of Me.”

Matt 11:29-30 NKJV Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

“ The enemy has been pressing down but I will work a mighty reverse in the flood of his wave of torments. Look to ME and worship ! Fill your mouth with praises and watch the turn around of the flood of his anger. Though his anger will persist, the weapons of your warfare will be with greater authority than you have experienced thus far. TRUST that I am working a reverse of circumstances SPIRITUALLY. I will send terror into the camp of the enemy ! I will intimidate the wicked ones instead of them terrorizing you ! I will use you like Gideons if you will not give into the fear, and if you will persist in speaking MY WORD, over the threats of the enemy !

Take hold of the weapons I have given you and USE THEM ! Do not cower to his threats ! Take authority that I have given you and appropriate it ! STAND, and again I say STAND ! REJOICE and be glad for your Redeemer draws nigh ! Your Beloved knocks on the door of your heart ! Do not leave him standing out in the cold. HONOR ME, and I will honor you ! Cling to ME, and the enemy will FLEE ! Go out into the harvest fields and I will send My terror ahead of you ! ”

Luke 21:26-27 NKJV men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
Luke 21:26-28 NIV Men will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. 27 At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

Ps 9:20 NIV Strike them with terror, O LORD; let the nations know they are but men. Selah

Gen 35:4-5 NIV Then they set out, and the terror of God fell upon the towns all around them so that no one pursued them.

Ex 23:27-28 NIV "I will send my terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run. 28 I will send the hornet ahead of you to drive the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way.

Deut 2:25 NIV This very day I will begin to put the terror and fear of you on all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you."

Deut 11:25 NIV No man will be able to stand against you. The LORD your God, as he promised you, will put the terror and fear of you on the whole land, wherever you go.

1 Sam 11:7 NIV He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israel, proclaiming, "This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not follow Saul and Samuel." Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they turned out as one man.

2 Chron 14:13-14 NIV They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror of the LORD had fallen upon them. They plundered all these villages, since there was much booty there.

Job 15:20-26 NIV All his days the wicked man suffers torment, the ruthless through all the years stored up for him. 21 Terrifying sounds fill his ears; when all seems well, marauders attack him. 22 He despairs of escaping the darkness; he is marked for the sword. 23 He wanders about-food for vultures; he knows the day of darkness is at hand. 24 Distress and anguish fill him with terror; they overwhelm him, like a king poised to attack, 25 because he shakes his fist at God and vaunts himself against the Almighty, 26 defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield.

Ps 31:13-14 NIV For I hear the slander of many; there is terror on every side; they conspire against me and plot to take my life. 14 But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God."

Ps 78:32-33 NIV In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; in spite of his wonders, they did not believe. 33 So he ended their days in futility and their years in terror.

Prov 21:15 When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers. NIV
Prov 21:15 It is a joy for the just to do justice, But destruction will come to the workers of iniquity. NKJV

OT:4288 mechittah (mekh-it-taw'); from OT:2846; properly, a dissolution; concretely, a ruin, or (abstractly) consternation: KJV - destruction, dismaying, ruin, terror.
OT:2846 chathah (khaw-thaw'); a primitive root; to lay hold of; especially to pick up fire: KJV - heap, take (away).

Isa 13:6-8 Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. 7 Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man's heart will melt, 8 And they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; They will be amazed at one another; Their faces will be like flames. NKJV

Isa 13:8 Terror will seize them, pain and anguish will grip them; they will writhe like a woman in labor. They will look aghast at each other, their faces aflame. NIV
OT:3998 mebuwkah (meb-oo-kaw'); from OT:943; perplexity: KJV - perplexity.
OT:943 buwk (book); a primitive root; to involve (literally or figuratively): KJV - be entangled, (perplexed).

Isa 22:5 The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a day of tumult and trampling and terror in the Valley of Vision , a day of battering down walls and of crying out to the mountains. NIV Isa 24:17-18 Terror and pit and snare await you, O people of the earth.

18 Whoever flees at the sound of terror will fall into a pit; whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare. The floodgates of the heavens are opened, the foundations of the earth shake. NIV

Isa 24:18-23 And it shall be That he who flees from the noise of the fear Shall fall into the pit, And he who comes up from the midst of the pit Shall be caught in the snare; For the windows from on high are open, And the foundations of the earth are shaken. 19 The earth is violently broken, The earth is split open, The earth is shaken exceedingly. 20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, And shall totter like a hut; Its transgression shall be heavy upon it, And it will fall, and not rise again. 21 It shall come to pass in that day That the LORD will punish on high the host of exalted ones, And on the earth the kings of the earth. 22 They will be gathered together, As prisoners are gathered in the pit, And will be shut up in the prison; After many days they will be punished. 23 Then the moon will be disgraced

And the sun ashamed; For the LORD of hosts will reign On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem and before His elders, gloriously. NKJV

Isa 31:9 NIV Their stronghold will fall because of terror; at sight of the battle standard their commanders will panic," declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, whose furnace is in Jerusalem.
Isa 31:9 NKJV He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear, And his princes shall be afraid of the banner," Says the LORD, Whose fire is in Zion
And whose furnace is in Jerusalem.
OT:4032 magowr (maw-gore'); or (Lam 2:22) maguwr (maw-goor'); from OT:1481 in the sense of fearing; a fright (objective or subjective): KJV - fear, terror. Compare OT:4036.

Isa 54:14-15 NIV In righteousness you will be established: Tyranny will be far from you; you will have nothing to fear. Terror will be far removed; it will not come near you. 15 If anyone does attack you, it will not be my doing; whoever attacks you will surrender to you.

Lam 3:47-50 NIV We have suffered terror and pitfalls, ruin and destruction." 48 Streams of tears flow from my eyes because my people are destroyed. 49 My eyes will flow unceasingly, without relief, 50 until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

Ezek 7:25-26 NKJV Destruction comes; They will seek peace, but there shall be none. 26 Disaster will come upon disaster, And rumor will be upon rumor. Then they will seek a vision from a prophet; But the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.
Ezek 7:25-26 NIV When terror comes, they will seek peace, but there will be none. 26 Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumor upon rumor. They will try to get a vision from the prophet; the teaching of the law by the priest will be lost, as will the counsel of the elders.

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Abba Father

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, May 27, 2005

I hope that I don't sound redundant, as the only way I can express appreciation is to say "thank you". Many that had responded to our time of testing and trials shared with us that they too had been experiencing hard times. I have had to ask our Heavenly Father "why"? Especially after listening this week to a sister here in Israel, who had become embittered towards YHVH for not (yet) keeping a promise that she had received from Him many years ago. She had even tried to commit suicide a few years back. But although she had taken enough pills to kill her five times over, she woke up with absolutely no side effects. She knew then that it could only have been YHVH who had spared her. Yet, in spite of that she is still in a great deal of pain and is teetering on the brink of unbelief and mistrust of Elohim, as she is still feeling betrayed and is continuing to walk in bitter disappointment. After a number of hours of sharing about the Father's love, I could sense that hope was starting to sprout within her. A seed of realization, that her Heavenly Father did have her best interest in mind and that His love would never fail, was sown into her parched soul. That evening Abba was ministering to us too, and that is why the subject of this letter is "Abba-Father".

This past week has been one of the most incredible in my entire walk as a believer in Messiah Yeshua. In spite of life's pressures, joy and peace have ruled my heart as YHVH's anointing of love has brought me deeper into my identity, while recognizing continually who YHVH is, as my Abba-Father.

The Scriptures tell us: "He that loves not knows not Elohim; for Elohim is love" (1John 4:8). The Greek word that John uses over and over is "agape". This type of love has been defined in many ways, but the more we receive revelation into the heart of our Heavenly Father, the less there are words that can adequately describe His nature of love. Paul speaks of a man who was caught up into the realm of the third heaven, which is paradise, "and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter" (2 Cor. 12:4). This man was in the presence of the Father and therefore could not find human words with which to express what it was like. I believe that he experienced the Father's love. When we are first filled or indwelt by the Father's Spirit, we cry out "Abba" (ref. Rom. 8:15). The word "Av" or "Abba" is made up of the first two letters of the Hebrew alphabet and our spontaneous proclamation of it is evidence of our new life and nature. However, from that point we must grow into maturity.

John writes further: "I write unto you, little children, because you know the Father" (1John 2:13). Why must we, as little children, know the Father? Is it because our own identity is locked up in that relationship? It is especially true for men, as we are the male expression of the Father's image and likeness.

The most tragic condition in humanity, past and present, is the loss or absence of a father in the home. Children are mostly brought up by their mothers, or even by older sisters. Thus, during those formative years they lack the role model for their own budding identity. Without that essential ingredient it is almost impossible to mature into the Godly role of a man or woman, mother or father that had been designated for us by YHVH, and this is especially true for the males. This tragedy is magnified in the Body of Messiah, as we are brought up by "mother church" whose religious system has been governed by the "queen of heaven" (see Jer 44:17-19). This fact is seen, for example, by the depictions of "baby Jesus" in the arms of a protective mother, or a "dead Jesus" in the arms of a mourning mother. And then, in many of the Protestant denominations "Jesus" is portrayed as "Lord" or "Master", yet what did Yeshua say about himself to his followers: "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? "Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me?" (John 14:9-10). The life and nature of the Father resides in Yeshua, and He came to reveal His Father's agape nature. We, who now have the Father's life in us as new-creation beings, are also here to bear witness to this love, respectively as females (wives/mothers) and males (husbands/fathers), according to the Father's Kingdom order.

Interestingly, one cannot dismiss the closeness of sound between the Hebrew word for "father" - "Av", and the word for "love" - "Ahvah". John the apostle describes this "agape" as if "it" and YHVH Elohim are one and the same: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love [agape] is Elohim; and every one that loves [or expresses that nature] is born of Elohim and knows Elohim" (1 John 4:7).

This Shabbat it might be a good idea to read the entire fourth chapter of 1 John, and to consider the relationship between the nature of the Father, YHVH Elohim, in Yeshua, and our own identity as a "new creation".

Women pray for the men, that our Heavenly Father will raise them up to know Him as their "Father", and that they may mature in His "agape" nature. This is absolutely imperative for the health and well being of the family, the community (tribe) and the nation. It is essential to the restoration of YHVH's kingdom to Israel.

Blessings and Shabbat Shalom, Ephraim

Abba's Objectives

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow IsraeliteApril 8, 2005
Why did YHVH send His only begotten Son into this world? Did He send Him to give His life and die for the purpose of starting a new religion called Christianity? Did Yeshua shed His blood in order to restore a religion called Judaism? Or better yet, did He come to combine the two into one religious expression called Judeo-Christianity? Why did the Father send the Son? In Luke chapter one we read the message which the angel Gabriel brought from YHVH to Miriam, and the word of prophecy which was uttered by Zachariah the priest, when filled with the Holy Spirit. Both announced the Father's purposes for sending Yeshua:

- To redeem His people (Luke 1:68).
- To raise up a horn of salvation for us in the House of His servant David (Luke 1:69).
- To sit on the throne of His father David (Luke 1:32).
- To save us from our enemies, from those who hate us (Luke 1:71).
- To show mercy to our fathers (those who received no mercy - Lo-ruhamah, Hosea 1:6).
- To remember His holy covenant, which He swore to our father Abraham (Luke 1:72- 73), whereby He committed Himself to give him a land, to "make him" a nation and a blessing (ref Gen. 12:2-3).
- To bring deliverance from our enemies, that we might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life (Luke 1:74-75).
- To rule and reign in the House of Jacob forever, and there to set up an everlasting kingdom (Luke 1:33).

None of these objectives appear to have anything to do with religion, or with some other form of temple worship. Rather, Yeshua came to restore a relationship between His Father and us, His people. He also came to restore the House of Jacob, meaning the relationship between the Two Houses of Ephraim and Judah; to abolish the enmity and jealousy between the brothers.

"Listen, O coastlands, to Me and take heed, you peoples from afar! YHVH has called Me from the womb; from the matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name" (Isaiah 49:1); "You shall call His name Yeshua [salvation]" (Luke 1:31). "And now YHVH says, Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Jacob back to Him, so that Israel is gathered to Him… Indeed He says, `It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You as a light to the nations, that You should be My salvation [Yeshuah] to the ends of the earth'" (Isaiah 49:5-6). How were all these objectives to be fulfilled?

Before sin marred the relationship between YHVH Elohim and Adam, man was designed to be a servant and one who would "listen, watch and walk". After YHVH redeemed Israel from Egypt and slavery, they too, as a nation, were told the same thing: "Listen to My voice and walk in My ways" (When Israel failed to do that, and missed the mark (sinned), YHVH gave them a religion, using the Aaronic Priesthood. Sin was the reason for religion. As long as we remain in sin we will always have a need for some religious expression. But what was YHVH's promise to the nation of Israel? "For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us" (Psalms 103:11-12). "But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back" (Isaiah 38:17). "I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; And I will not remember your sins," (Isaiah 43:25). "And I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, everyone will invite his neighbor under his vine and under his fig tree'" (Zechariah 3:10).

Notice that when sin and iniquity are removed, relationships are made possible. How did the Father accomplish this reconciliation? "Now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself (Hebrews 9:26). Remember what John the Immerser declared when He saw Yeshua? "Behold the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world," (John 1:29). "YHVH was in Messiah reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:19). "By Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross" (Colosians1:20). This is why Paul insisted only on one thing: "For I determined not to know anything among you except Yeshua the Messiah and Him crucified" (1 Corinthians 2:2).

Yeshua died to atone for sin and to remove it altogether. How did He do this? By being offered on the cross as the perfect lamb for the sacrifice. He fulfilled every requirement of the religious system. In removing sin as far as the east is from the west He removed the need for a religious system, and restored the priesthood according to the order of Melchizedek (ref. Hebrews 4:14-5:10; 7).This was the priesthood that all Israel was to partake of. By virtue of the Torah being inscribed on the heart, worship rendered to YHVH could now be in spirit and in truth (John 4:23), resulting in Divine relationships. “For do you not know this about yourselves that you are a tabernacle of the Holy Spirit” (ref. 1Cor. 3:16) "that Yeshua the Messiah dwells in you" (ref. 2Cor.13:5) and "that you have died and that your life is hidden in His, and that He is NOW your life" (ref. Col.3:4, Gal.2:20)? This reality is revealed through faith, but if we hold to an outward form of religion we actually deny His presence within our Holy of Holies (our spirit). This will bring about the anti-Christ lie, which denies that Yeshua came in the flesh (in this case in the spirit-filled believer's flesh). John explains to us that “the world is under the power of the evil one” (1 John 5:19), meaning all of the world's political and religious institutions. In verse 21 he warns, "Children keep yourselves from idols". But "sandwiched" between those two verses is a powerful statement of truth: "We know that the Son of Yahoveh has come and has given us understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Yeshua the Messiah. This is the true Elohim and eternal life" (v.20).

Yeshua is restoring the "fallen Succah [booth] of David," by uniting a remnant of the Two Houses, and by being enthroned in the hearts of the individuals who form this remnant. Through the reunited House of Jacob (the nation Israel), He will administer the everlasting kingdom government to the rest of the nations. But we must come out of religion into Divine relationships and national identity.
Be separate and wait for the Lord who will whistle for us to return to the land "(ref.Zec.10:8), there to become a royal priesthood after the order of Melchizedek, and a holy nation; Thus the covenant that YHVH made with our father Abraham, to become a blessing to the rest of the nations, will be fulfilled.

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

A Bright Light Is Dawning

Deborah McKnight

Great darkness is coming upon the earth
But upon my people a bright light is dawning
They will go forth with healing in their hands
They will be my people and I will be their God
Do not be afraid
My Spirit is upon you
And will continue to grow Stronger in you day by day
Seek my presence, my holiness
And love not this life.
He who has ears let him hear
I am calling you to come forth
I am calling my church to unity
And love in the Spirit.
Come to me with all of your hearts.
Seek my face, repent of your sins
Says the Lord
Humble yourselves before me
I will do a mighty thing in your midst
That if I told you,
You would not be able to comprehend it!
Come together and pray
In the bond of unity
In the Spirit
I will come to you
My Shekinah glory will overshadow you
And you will be a light to the peoples
The time has come!
The time is now!
Don't delay!

Ancient Boundaries Revisited

Ephraim Frank

April 15, 2005

Shalom Fellow Israelite

This week the daily English language, Jerusalem Post, published one of those "no surprises" in its article on the security fence around Alfe Menashe (which is where we live). Apparently this portion of the fence is now being contested in the International High Court of Justice. Two years ago our mayor appealed to the Sharon government to include our town of approximately 6,000 within the fence. The request was granted, as 3 large Arab cities and several small ones surround us. One such city, Kalkilya, is noted for its hive of terrorists who are wont to shoot at cars and to blow themselves up in nearby Israeli towns. This particular city is only 1/3 of a mile from a major Israeli city, Kafar Sabba and a major toll road passes it by within 200 meters. A couple of years ago a 6 year old girl was killed in a terrorist shooting incident in that area. Alfe Menashe is only about 1 mile from the "greenline" and ½ a mile from Kalkilya. The fence was built on what is termed the "seam line", constituting a stretch of about 40 kilometers, or 22 miles, along the coastal plain, close to the1967 "green line" (a border "of sorts"), which is about 12 miles from the Mediterranean Sea.

The fencing around our area was a massive project that took about a year to complete (most of it 24 hours around the clock), while filing away the hills and filling in the valleys cost millions. It all but brought the terrorist activity to a halt. However, the Palestinian authority is claiming that it is responsible for the peace in the area. It has recruited the terrorists to its forces by giving them an ultimatum to either join the police force or go to jail. The government of Israel has also helped the PA beef up their armed forces, by turning over thousands of their prisoners who were in Israeli jails. Apparently the government may need the space in our prisons, should the Jews living in the free and non-racist democratic Republic of Palestine begin to stir up trouble.

The afore-mentioned article stated that the ICJ (International Court of Justice) views the fence as a violation of international law, because it was built for political reasons in order to annex Jewish settlements to Israel. The fence also surrounds 5 Palestinian villages "cutting them off from their fields, from essential services and from friends and relatives". According to the petition, the Palestinians are being forced to suffer for political reasons. The hundreds of Jewish families who have suffered loss of life because of the "non-political" aspirations of the Palestinians, must have not been consulted by those who formulated the petition (Association for Civil Rights in Israel).

Well, let's move on to something more edifying. This past week we visited a friend down in the Gaza settlement of Nisanit and enjoyed her beautiful yard, fellowship and steadfastness of faith and hope. It was encouraging to see how she and others are facing the almost daily/nightly bombardment of rockets and the dilemma of not knowing what is in the offing for them. Then later on in the week, in Jerusalem, we watched with excitement and amazement a lap top presentation put on by two young Ephraimite ladies who have assembled photos and maps of the Land, which originated with Ephraimite believers back in 1902. These two young students also have at their disposal many writings by the individuals who had been exploring the land at that time while praying mightily for YHVH's restoration and purposes to be realized. Below is a short chronology of that group, compiled of excerpts taken from a letter sent me by Timothy Murray of New Hampshire.

The teaching of the Two Houses was already in existence in about 1898 in a Bible school in Maine. In 1901 the teacher at that school felt clearly directed by the voice of God to his heart to go with his wife and two devoted women students to Jerusalem and commission them to pray on site for the restoration of the City and the Land. But as the planning began, it became clear that God was not going to be satisfied with two--He was after 12! Eventually, in June 1901, a group of 12 set out from Boston, and they arrived in Jerusalem in May 1902. They were going, consciously (and, they felt, at God's direction), as representatives of the 12 Tribes, returning to what they now explicitly believed was their Land to establish true heart worship of the God of Israel, in tribal unity on site! For "The Twelve" their mission was to recover their lost spiritual and tribal heritage as a symbolic re-uniting of both Houses.

The Twelve remained on station in Jerusalem and were later joined by others. By October of 1902, they felt God had clearly directed them representatively and symbolically to enact a "restoration" for the two Houses of Israel. What they understood it to mean was the restoration of the Kingdom of David, under the sovereignty of Christ, in a single national Entity. It was for them the groundwork, spiritually, for the joining of the two sticks-- under one King.

In 1906 a small group of explorers was searching out the biblical borders of the Promised Land, and were at that time on the coast at the northern end. (In a few years, others of the group made a complete and historic land journey around the inland borders to explore and pray over their restoration.) They were swept by an outpouring of the Spirit, and they expressed, in a faith-filled prayer, the conviction that the Land was there and then "restored" not as Israel, or Palestine, or Canaan, etc., but by the future, prophetic name, "Beulah." [meaning "married", reference Isaiah 62:4]. This was a moment of supreme inspiration, according to their accounts, and it was accompanied by a tremendous sense of divine approval.

I wish to thank Tim Murray again for the above information, as well as for the "Border Songs" below. Here is one of four "Border Songs". It's called "Beulah--Northern Border". It was written in 1933 by Joseph Harriman, one of the two explorers who searched out the northern border in May 1908. This song, along with the others, exudes the sense of "future events made current events by faith"!

See also Letter 254.

Ho! Dan's true sons and daughters, Redeemed by precious blood! Come with me to the northland, By the Orontes flood: And Asher is invited; O Naphtali, be true! Where our forefathers faltered, The Call is now to you.

It is a lovely region, Where Israel failed of yore; To you this northern portion Is given to restore! To wipe out all the failures Which caused the tribes to roam, And bring through these grand mountains A hallowed sense of "Home."

"Mount Hor to Hazar-enan" The boundary is drawn: Northward the Syrian mountains, Southward "The Lebanon." "The entr'ing in of Hamath" What lovely fields of grain! From Tripoli's fair gardens to the Orontes plain.

The grandest peaks of Beulah--ten thousand feet they rise-- Stand near us as we journey, Their white heads in the skies. How grand those awful gorges! Through centuries the names Of "Eden" "Holy River," The tongue of man proclaims.

And now the mountain landscape Gives way to one of plain, Where Beulah's greatest river Flows north, the sea to gain. Another range of mountains, The Anti-Lebanon-- Has come within our vision, There "toward the rising sun." Between these great twin ranges, Behold a valley fair; The most astounding ruins In all the earth are there. Now to the northern limit: And in Jehovah's Name, We stand at ancient Ziphron, And Restoration claim.

Beyond the eastern mountains, Where scarcer falls the rain, At Hazar-enan's fountains The north-east point we gain: To Thee, the nation's Sovereign, Ascends believing prayer, That Israel's northern border Shall of Thy fullness share.

And now here's "Beulah--Eastern Border". Written by the same author, also in 1933.

We start our eastern journey At Hazar-enan's fount; We cross the desert foothills, And head for Hermon's mount; Milch camels with their offspring In thousands grazing near, Black tents of Ishmael's children Are pitched in spring-time here.

Like pearl in emerald setting, Damascus greets our eyes; For thirty thousand gardens, Abana life supplies. We're near the spot where Jesus The sins of Saul forgave, And "far hence to the Gentiles" Went forth His glad "bond-slave."

See Galilee below us, Where Christ was wont to teach; How oft His feet have journeyed Along that shell-strewn beach! The mighty Jordan valley Is Canaan's border line; Yet fruitful Gilead eastward, Jehovah said, "is Mine."

Where Jordan pours its waters, Behold a land of dearth; A sea without an outlet-- The lowest spot on earth; Yet God has promised healing, And on His Word we stand; We rest not till all Canaan Becomes Immanuel's Land.

(He footnotes the song this way: "The imaginary journey described in this song is a composite of several trips made by the author, including an eleven-day exploration of the Dead Sea in a canvas boat.")

Copyright by the Kingdom Press; used by permission.

The love for YHVH's inheritance is powerfully expressed by these early Ephraimite pioneers, who graced each of the sites they laboriously and lovingly found by words that issued out of their faithful actions.

Shabbat Shalom, Ephraim

A Basin Of Water And A Towel
Bill Yount

"We Were Shaking The Very Gates Of Hell With A Basin Of Water And A Towel!"

In the Spirit I saw God's foot step down into cities and regions of the earth. I knew that His foot represented great authority coming to earth.

When I saw His foot I knew He had come to take back territory that the enemy had stolen from His Kingdom. As I began rejoicing at why His foot stepped down upon the earth, He interrupted my praise service with a strong command..."Wash My Feet!" I was dumbfounded. I said, "Lord, how could I ever wash your feet?"

The Lord spoke, "When you see Pastors and Leaders coming together and washing one another's feet, you will see My foot come down with great power releasing whole regions and territories back into My Kingdom!

I then saw a vision of Pastors and Leaders humbly kneeling before each other with basins of water and towels. As they began washing one another's feet; titles, positions and even names of churches started drowning in that small basin of water! Pride, jealousy, and envy were being drowned in just "twelve inches" of water! Weary blistered feet that had lost their way in the dusty, soiled road of life were being healed by just water and two hands of a pastor down the street.

Help was never that far away all along.

Tears began filling these basins to overflowing...tears of repentance from judging and misunderstanding one another. Even our eyes were being washed with tears to see that we were not each other's enemy but we were on the same team.

It looked like such a beautiful pitiful sight. Pastors of huge churches and leaders of small churches humbled and bowing before one another confessing our total inabilities to advance God's Kingdom. Revelation began breaking forth upon us that we needed each other. Many were held in each other's grip breaking together. Holy kisses started being given out upon the faces and the feet. A presence came as though we had kissed the face of God!

At that moment I saw Divine Authority flow from the feet of One who was also in our midst. A Divine Authority and power was being unleashed upon regions and territories. We were shaking the very gates of Hell with a basin of water and a towel! It seemed the smaller we became in one another's sight the bigger God became in the sight of the enemy! God began exalting Himself in the earth and among the heathen.

I heard the Lord speak to the angels that were present during foot washing. .

"Take the tears from those basins and put them in bottles. They will bring forth a great move of My Spirit to bring in the Harvest."

Bill Yount
http://www.billyount.com/

And They Went Out Another Way
Bill Yount

MATTHEW 2:12

by Bill Yount (theshofarhasblown@juno.com)
Blowing The Shofar Ministries - www.billyount.com

Mathew 2:12 "And being warned of God in a dream that they (the wise men) should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country 'another' way!"

I sense there are many of God's people right now who are seemingly backed into a corner by the enemy. You have tried every conceivable way you thought the Lord was speaking to you to move forward in your God given destiny but door after door has seemingly shut in your face and your very life appears to be at stake. There seems to be no way out for you and the enemy has given hellish orders for you to report back to him. The bottom line is... 'the devil wants you back'!

ONE GREAT GENERAL ONCE SAID... "WE ARE NOT RETREATING, WE ARE ADVANCING IN 'ANOTHER' DIRECTION!"

It seems the maneuver of this great general for his army first may have appeared as though they were retreating but they weren't! Perhaps the fact that it appeared like they were retreating even in the eyes of their enemies may have been the very edge they needed for advancing in 'another' direction and ultimately winning the battle. It may appear at times like we are going backwards but with God it is often the back door that opens up into the front yard of our promised land!

GOD HAS SOMETHING UP HIS SLEEVE THIS HOUR... 'ANOTHER' WAY OUT FOR YOU THAT IS FOOL PROOF!

Yes, I saw God having something up His sleeve for many this hour in their dilemma. It's 'another' way out for you that hasn't been revealed to you yet but it is there. You can't see it and neither can the devil! I sense it will not be 'your' way, nor even the way you thought that God was showing you to go but 'another' way out for you that is fool proof! I sense He has hidden it from you so you wouldn't mess it up. But it is there... right up His sleeve!

HIS RIGHT ARM HAS ALREADY GOTTEN YOU THE VICTORY!

God already has a way for you to not just escape from the enemy's schemes but to advance 'full throttle' into His kingdom!

Jeremiah 31:11 "For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob and ransomed him from the hand of 'him' that was stronger than he."

Psalm 98:1 "O sing unto the Lord a new song; for He hath done marvelous things: His right hand and His holy arm hath gotten Him the victory!"

It is interesting that "'being warned by God in a dream,' the wise men departed into their own country 'another' way." While they were in a resting position and even sleeping, God revealed His route of safety for them. Sometimes when I am overwhelmed with a problem, I have found the most spiritual thing I can do is to go take a nap! Rest often brings me revelation... and sometimes a dream!

THE LIFE THREATENING STORM AT SEA...WHAT MADE THE DISCIPLES AFRAID PUT JESUS TO SLEEP!

And when they awoke Jesus, He rose with great power and authority to just speak to the storm! I believe Jesus was resting in His Father's great love for Him and He fell asleep in it! He knew also the Father's words spoken to Him and His disciples before the storm... "We are going over to the other side!" There was sweet rest in those words.

Someone said, "Don't tell God how big your storm is... tell your storm how big God is!" And rest in your Father's great love for you!

"Seriously... maybe you need to go take a nap!"

"I Saw 'Accounting' Angels Descending Upon Oil Wells, Banks And

International Treasuries, Decreeing... "We've Come To Transfer!" Bill Yount

As these angels were being released to the earth, the Father seemed to be reminding them once again. "And don't forget the silver and the gold... that belongs in My kingdom also! Let the transfer begin!"

I heard 'notary' angels declaring over the earth. "Many shall be free in deed!"... as deeds of property and buildings were dropping into the hands of God's people! Titles of vehicles, airplanes, television and radio stations were being stamped 'transferred' as large amounts of money seemed to come out of nowhere for these 'sudden' purchases! There were other miracle transfers that were gifts from people who didn't quite understand why they were just giving things away! Many of these people didn't even know God or His people they were giving to. They were 'just' giving to the 'just'!

"MANY SINNERS WILL JUST START GIVING TO THE 'JUST!... JUST BECAUSE!"

Proverbs 13:22 says, "The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just." As I read this verse recently, I asked the Lord what does this mean? I sensed the Lord saying that many sinners will 'just' start giving to the 'just'... just because!

The 'just' ones will be 'just the ones' who will not keep it for themselves but for His purposes and who are already vessels in being faithful in little. You have heard good intentions by people who have said, "Brother, if the Lord would bless me with a million dollars, I would give the church a tithe from it. But the same person who is blessed with ten dollars doesn't give a dollar to the church! As our excitement grows over inheriting the sinner's wealth, our main focus must be.. "where will it go and how can we use it for God's glory?

"AS THE WEALTH OF THE SINNER BEGINS TO COME INTO MY KINGDOM, THE SINNER WILL FOLLOW!"

I must confess at times that I have been more excited over the fact that the wealth of the sinner is coming into God's Kingdom than the sinner themselves.

I sense the urgency to not only expect and believe for the wealth of the wicked to come into the kingdom but also to cry out and believe for the wicked to come in also! I sense that God's purpose in bringing in the wealth of the wicked is to ultimately invest in us, His people, so we can effectively reach out to the lost including the most wicked people on earth.

"REMEMBER, THE WEALTH OF THE SINNER IS ONLY A 'MEANS' TO OUR REAL INHERITANCE."

Psalm 2:8 "Ask of Me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession!"

I THEN SAW THE 'ACCOUNTING' ANGELS CAUTIONING THOSE WHO WERE BEING BLESSED WITH THE WEALTH OF THE SINNERS....

"How many sinners did you bring into your houses and buildings, transporting them in the vehicles you were blessed with by their wealth? Or did you visit them?

"To whom much is given, much more will be required." We will give an account before the Lord with what we have done with the wealth of the sinner as well as what we have done with the sinner himself!

"Lord, with all of our getting, give us the heathen for our inheritance!"

I Heard Heaven Responding 'Asap' To June Wedding Invitations... "We'll Be There With Bells On!"

Bill Yount

I saw heaven's balcony about to break with so much weight of angels, miracles and the glory of God leaning against it, as Jesus was seemingly begging the Father.. "Can we go again to one more wedding like we did in Cana where we released our first miracle on earth to get the attention of generations to come so everyone would know that they are My Bride to be... Can we Father?"

In December of 2004, I received a word from the Lord that 2005 would be the 'year of the brides!" I sense now as this word unfolds that it is also the year of the Bride of Christ to begin to be wooed back to Jesus to be unveiled and seen in the earth!

I sensed the Father saying, "In May I had revealed prophetically worldwide where most of My Bride to be really is through a precious young girl whom I love, who became overwhelmed with all of the details of her wedding day. I believe this event was actually blown out of proportion through the media by the enemy so we, the Bride of Christ, would not possibly think that this 'runaway' bride could ever be us! But I believe it was!

THE BRIDEGROOM JESUS WILL NOW BEGIN TO PURSUE HIS BRIDE LIKE NEVER BEFORE TO WOO HER BACK!

I sense that June Weddings will be mightily visited with attendance of angels, miracles and Heaven invading earth through these ceremonies and receptions. As the wedding veils are lifted off of these brides, spiritual veils will be lifted off of the eyes and faces of many attending these weddings and across the earth releasing divine revelation that 'we' are the Bride of Christ!

"WHEN I BEGIN TO HEAR MY BRIDE SAY THE WORDS.. "I DO!" THEY WILL HEAR ME SAY.. "I WILL! I WILL HEAL ALL YOUR LAND AND I WILL DO GREAT WONDERS AMONG YOU!

There will be many attending these June weddings, who will renew their wedding vows in their hearts to their spouses and to Jesus, their Bridegroom, as I pour out the very best wine that I have saved for last for these end time weddings!" Vows and commitment in marriages and to the Bridegroom will become contagious! Through these weddings, Heaven will literally begin invading the earth releasing healing, miracles and wonders as the Father's love explodes inside us casting out fear, doubt and unbelief!

CAUTION: WEDDING RECEPTIONS MAY BE MORE LIVELY THAN EXPECTED!

I hear Jesus saying..."Expect salvation, deliverance and a whole lot of rejoicing and dancing from out of this world into your receptions! We're getting ready for the 'Big one!"

Absolute Unity

Robert Ricciardelli

In Essentials UNITY, in non-essentials, LIBERTY, in all things LOVE.

I love this 2nd century quote by St. Augustine. In fact it is a central theme of our ministry. We as Christians should be unified in absolute truth and give each other freedom in the non-essentials. As we embrace the love of the Father towards one another through the Holy Spirit, we can then bring His kingdom in power to every nation. It is undeniable the most potent combination of God given authority and commissioning towards winning the world for our Savior and King. Why has this been so difficult for the body of Christ to live out? Yes there is an enemy; yes the human element of who we are comes into play. But more importantly, we have created absolutes that absolutely reject others that do not think or live like we do.

I was recently having discussions with a friend of mine regarding Truth. We all know there is absolute truth that comes from God and then there is truth "As we know it" There are widespread gaps between "Truth as we know it" and Absolute Truth sometimes. Outside of Absolute Truth there are interpretations and deductions. Interpretations and deductions that stray to far from absolute truth are heavily influenced by personal preferences, subjective opinions, cultural norms and feelings. I have a new slogan today because of my experiences of knowing:

I know what I know, I know what I don't know. I do not know what I do not know until it is revealed!

The fact is, God is always showing me paradigms I have thought of as absolute truth, as absolutely not His Truth. The truth I thought I knew was just truth I had embraced through my human experience and engagement with others who had influenced me over the years. It is only through progressive humility of our limited understanding, which we can admit that some of what we believed as true is just a Matrix reality and not REALITY as the Father sees it. This will forever keep us pursuing the deeper things of God that can only come by pursuing Him with every breath in every day of our existence.

In past years of my experience in Churchianity, I had been instructed to only read from Christian authors. As I read many books, I was also continuing to read the Word of God which is Absolute Truth. I began to realize that many of the authors wrote their interpretation and deductions of truth that seemed to have at times variances from the absolute truth. In fact many times there was a mixture of absolute truth mixed in with human interpretation, based on life experience, culture and preference. It was at this point that I began to realize that I must truly check with the Holy Spirit and His Word regarding new truths or paradigms, regardless of who the author was.

How many times have you read something that seemed to be a "little off", even if there was a chapter and verse next to it? That is why it is so important to read the Word in the context of the passage and then again in context with the whole Word of God and His heart. The way some people interpret God's Word and who He is, sends the message of a god with a multi-personality disorder. They seem to emphasize a god who changes when Jesus Christ enters the world.

Absolute Truth says: I Am The Lord God, I Do Not Change Malachi 3:6

A good example of presuppositional truth straying from the absolute truth would be, Christians that do not believe God would ever want His people in a war. It is very evident, that in the past, our God led His people to conquer nations for Him. He is that very same God and has not changed. This is not a statement to say God is for or against our current engagement in Iraq, but is a biblical fact that God at times has and will lead His people to battle. In the midst of all conflict in the world, God's love and mercy has become available to all who would receive Him through Jesus Christ.

The following presents some of the layers of theology and elements of our belief system and faith:

Theology is a human attempt to explain God's Word and God's works in a reasonable and systematic way. His ways are sometimes far from reasonable or systematic in much of how we see Him and how we see Him interact with all of creation. Imagine theology being like many layers of an onion and having a core. The further we get away from the core of absolute truth, the more human dimension comes into play in our theology and life expressions of faith.

Absolutes: The essentials of our faith

Absolutes for God's people are the core or foundation of everything else we believe. Some key absolutes as described by Peter Wagner in his book "Changing Church" would be: God's existence, the integrity of Scripture, the death and resurrection of Christ, and the existence of Heaven and Hell. These should be absolutes in the life of every member of the body of Christ. What happens sometimes that can cause division or strife, is when we use a deduction of our interpretation of truth and make it absolute. We can get ourselves in trouble and not live in unity when we emphatically make our presuppositions absolute truth.

Interpretations

We can all agree on the authority of Scripture, but then we must realize the meaning and applications to live by from Scripture. One example of a human dimension interpretation of Scripture would be those who profess Christianity and want to justify a homosexual lifestyle by twisting or misinterpreting Scripture. It would be hard to get away from the absolute truth in a passage like:

Romans 1:26-27

[26]Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones. [27]In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion.

Attempting to force another meaning on this is unacceptable and further emphasizes the truth that personal interpretation of Scripture is not okay! If the authority of Scripture is one of our absolutes, then twisting of the Scripture to advocate alternative ways to live out a Christlike existence should firmly be rejected.

Deductions

While interpretation is explaining what a passage of Scripture means, a deduction is taking parts of Scripture away from its original context and combining it with other Scripture to create a conclusion that would not have been evident from either of the verses in their original context. A good example of eschatology through a method of deduction would be the popular "Left Behind" Series. Realities may be formed from deductions and often placed in the absolute circle of truth. For the majority of us, admitting that our end times theological positions are deductions rather than absolutes is relatively easy to admit. When it comes to some of the other deductions of our faith, we will see contentions that may develop and lead to divisions in the body of Christ.

Culture

Joyce and I have spent much time with other cultures. It is amazing how we have developed different ways to live, move and have our being in Christ, expressed in such a unique way through the culture we have been raised in. I will make a point to note that our cultural influence should never supersede our absolute truth. But if not coming directly against Christ, His Word and Truth and the grace we have embraced in Him, our style in Him is okay! That is what makes us unique. We must never think that our culture, or expression of which we are in Him, is better than a culture expressing in a different way then ours.

Imagine with me the world our Father created as a symphony, and every nation and tribe playing a unique instrument unto the Father. We as Americans may be trumpet players, my friends in Uganda may be flute players and the indigenous tribes in Columbia could be violin players. We may think that the trumpet players seem to add to the symphony more than some of the other instruments. So we go to Columbia and teach them to play the trumpet. They may eventually play the trumpet, and look and sound like a trumpet player, and play all the songs of the trumpet, yet the fact remains that they were made by the Father to play the violin. We can teach them the notes (gospel), but if we allow the Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth, then they will become the sound or expression that God had created them to be.

That is why we believe so much in indigenous ministries that can bring the relevant gospel to their nation in many jurisdictions of their culture. There was a time when the church mandated to Native Americans to dress like them, sing their songs, cut their hair and conform to be able to be part of Christ's church. It is so uplifting to watch the Natives today in their regalia and with their drums and flutes, worshipping their almighty Father in their own Native way.

Personal Preferences

This is another one the enemy likes to use to divide. One side may say, "well brother those people are bound up and do not know how to praise feely". The other side may say, "Those Charismaniacs are running down the aisles, jumping over pews and falling on the floor as dead". I can tell you, I have seen God move in both crowds and more than once when I did not think He could in certain environments. He proved me wrong. I have seen Him move in believers from every denomination and non-denomination. I am not saying there is not an element of flesh type of behavior or lack of behavior that shows up from time to time, but God sees beyond it and ever seeks to break through to win the hearts of men and women.

In Essentials UNITY, in non-essentials, LIBERTY, in all things LOVE

If He sees past it, why can't we? If His love goes beyond the natural way things may look, then why can't our love go there too for each other? It comes down to embracing the essentials of our faith together and having grace in non-essentials and knowing that we are called in obedience to love! If His church gets this, and the mindsets and paradigms of His people begin to shift, you will see a church that the gates of hell cannot stop or even slow down in His divine plan. Let's hold onto the core of our faith, Christ Himself. Through the absolutes of His Word and Way, may we be agents for transformation wherever we go.

America, Bow Your Knee

Elaine Rumley

On August 8, 2005

While in prayer, I had an open vision.

I was looking down upon the whole earth…
A thin white curtain was being drawn back and the nations were being fully revealed.

As I observed the nations
There was bloodshed, and fires.
Pillars of smoke….burnings….burnings.
Everything was shaking.

I heard:

Full view is coming.
Fire and blood are coming to the earth.
There will be signs in the heavens and signs in the earth.
Great fear and wonder, but this is not the end.
It is a shaking...a trembling to release men from their apathy and pride.

God, in His mercy is holding and shaking the earth.
He is mindful of every soul.
Many…many…many are in the valley of decision.

Get strategically POSITIONED.
No tunnel vision! Open vision!

I sensed this deep warning in my soul:

Don’t focus on your possessions or your life.
Have eyes to see and ears to hear.
Respond to the Holy Spirit.

Know the Word… be in unity with those who know Him.
Move into the harvest fields!

Fire… fire and vapor of smoke.
These things are upon us, because rage is great in the hearts of men.
Be filled with the Spirit.
Walk in unity in God’s House and prepare others to do the same.
Nations are shifting!

I saw:

All of America in the grip of a Great Hand.

(The thumb was around the West Coast and the fingers around the East Coast).
Pressure began to increase....

Then the East and West Coast began to be indented.
Everything was being pressed towards the middle of the country.
There was great constriction with pain and travail.

I heard:

Get ready! Claim the borders of the USA.
Stand guard at the gates (airports, ship ports and all waterways).

Many want access to America.
There are pressures growing on every side.

This pressure is pushing inwards… trying to breach our borders.

I heard:

America, America …bow your knee.
(I saw the old picture of General Washington bowed in the snow by his horse.)
America, bow your knee!

Shield all officers with prayer.

PRAY FOR:

Every leader whether civic or religious.
Those who wear a uniform of any kind need prayer covering.
All who have been trained to help, to guide, or guard.

PRAY!

The enemy is after the “valiant ones”!
Pray for great wisdom and protection…
For discernment and advance preparation.
Prepare… prepare, America.

Rev. Elaine Rumley
Eagles WIN, Inc.

A Call to Maturity

Bayo Omoyiola

Bayo Omoyiola, Jr. Lagos Nigeria
scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

I sense a call to maturity coming from the heart of the Father unto the body of Christ.

Its a year of fullness, completion and perfection. The Father is calling us unto perfect love, perfect peace and perfect patience. He is calling us to Faith, Hope and Patience. He wants us to forgive and grow up in humility.

The book of Ephesians is a book I would prescribe for any Christian who wants to grow up the more in Christ. I don't care how matured in the faith you maybe, if you would take this scriptures and eat them several times, digesting them over and over again. You would be more like Christ than you've ever been. This is the promise of God to you.

Its the year of the Holy Spirit. A time of Total take-over by the Spirit of God. What is in your hands. Release it unto him. Let him have it. He would transform your life as you begin to respond to him in love by obeying his scriptures. Then you will begin to climb the steps of wisdom till you meet him face to face (and become fully like him) for the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom. Precept must be upon precept. Here a little then there a little till you become like him. The Holy Spirit is ready to take over. Are you ready to let him have his way?

This is the prophetic writing ministry of Lion of Judah Int'l Ministries www.ourchurch.com/member/s/scroll_of_david Lagos Nigeria

A Challenge To Pray

Cyndee Pillow

Dear Ones,
I have been reading of the warnings of Mass destruction. I refuse to line up with the words that don't bring hope to God's people. I only receive those sent with a word to pray that these weapons to explode of mass destruction, will not take place**.

I feel that the prophetic should stop sending these things out declaring that there WILL be an attack, and PRAY that there WILL NOT BE an attack. I just feel that we have forgotten that Jesus came to bring LIFE and life more abundantly and we need to line up with that and pray accordingly.

I feel that the prophetic are missing the main point in the dreams, visions they are given, that say that the enemy has a plan of MASS DESTRUCTION.

We are to PRAY that these things are diverted. That the weapons sent out by the enemy to destroy "Christians" above all others, will be turned back upon the enemy's head.

Swiftly!!!!!!!!!!!!

I believe that GOD should get the glory for any spanking that goes on in this country and not any idiot that thinks that they are God's chosen and holy and think that their calling is to destroy us!!

My prayer is:
I bind up any enemies that wants to send out any bombs, etc. I pray that they will misfire and be turned backwards upon the enemy's head. I pray the LORD of GLORY will come out of His place and put an end to those that call themselves GOD and turn them either around for Him or remove their man-made glory, as He, GOD, causes their weapons of Mass destruction to be of none affect!

I pray that the wicked be confused and forget things and loose things. I pray they make BIG mistakes and all the weapons are spilled out before the eyes of those looking to stop their evil diabolical plans!!!!! I pray that this day, they be found out! That our GOD expose their hiding places and pluck them out of hiding and shine light on that dark place and show their faces to all seeking to capture them~!

I pray for all prophetic voices to speak forth the LORD'S will, which is LIFE and LIFE more abundantly for God's people in this nation and abroad. I pray that every word that has been spoken forth, from any word or vision, that doesn't declare life will become of none affect in the earth and in this nation. I declare the LORD be magnified in restoring HIS order and HIS way in the earth and in this Nation, and that if any so called wrath comes to America, that no enemy of God will be used to bring it. Not one of them will get any glory any longer.......from this day forward!!!!!! Cause them to flee out 7 ways! Cause them to run in fear of our God who IS the ONE AND ONLY HOLY GOD over His people and this nation. Let every deceitful plan be destroyed and stopped!!!!!!
I pray that the LORD use HIS way and HIS means to spank the ungodly in our nation AND the whole earth........ and no man, will take credit for what our God does.

In the precious name of Jesus our King! AMEN!

Cyndee P.

A Call to Repentance

Report by Robert Holmes

On July 8th 2005, the Lord called for time to be set aside by people in Canberra and the surrounding districts. Brian Medway called the church to gather in the Albert Hall, and seek God's face.

We heard (via video) from John Malindy a pastor involved in the revival in Uganda. He noted that:
- In 1883 the first Christians were killed in Uganda. This lead the people to pray and cry out.
- In 1893 the first revival took place in the Anglican church.
- Idy Amin became leader in 1971 and five years of terror reigned. This caused the people to pray and cry out. He was deposed.
- But the 1980's were worse, and the regime which followed was even more terrible. This lead the people to pray and cry out to God. Change came in 1986.
- In 1995, the World Health Organisation submitted a report to the Government. They said that 30% of the nation would die of AIDS, 30% would be made sick and there would be economic collapse. You guessed it, this caused the people to pray and cry out to God!

God said to John and his church, "You have experienced much pain, but you have learned very little. Won't you stop praying about problems, and start focusing on me, and my purposes for you. I have a redemptive plan for your nation, seek my face and do not focus incessantly on the problems".

Overwhelmed by problems

Research in genetics has advanced significantly in recent years. But according to Evans Laguda, of the CSIRO, our answers are only a small portion of the problems. He says, "Every advancement we make also creates new diseases, and we are only solving a tiny portion of the issues". The fact is, problems will overwhelm us, if we focus on them.

The world was shocked by the London bombings, which took place on July 7th between 9-10am. It is hard to ignore the timing, right after they won the Olympics and the G8 summit forgave massive third world debt. London stated that "life will go on as usual", but it cannot. People are paralysed by fear. Three Scriptures speak to this:

Hab. 1:4 - the law is powerless at times to help us. Psa. 4:2 - men have turned Gods glory to shame. Job 22:9-12 - when we do not live justice, terror fills our nation.

What is the solution?

Australia has long been plagued by drought , and we pray for rain. We pray about a solution to a problem. But it will surely be followed by rain, and the rain turns to flood. So we pray about the flood, and the problem goes away, only to be replaced by pestilence.

Brian Medway was in Townsville, up Mt. Barker when he had a fresh revelation about 2 Chr 7:14... the Scripture most often quoted as a call to prayer. But this passage does much more than call us to pray. Let's read it again.

"When I shut up heaven and there is no rain,... if My people who are called by My name will:

1. humble themselves, and 2. pray and 3. seek My face, and 4. turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

We are facing a time when such dramatic climactic events are touching every nation on earth. It is not just "end times" and it is not just "global warming". Scripture is clear - it is the hand of God. He shuts up the heavens. God loves His people, and His people are the cause of this turmoil. He speaks to them in the Law, He speaks to them by His Son, He speaks to them by His word and His prophets. If they do not turn from their wicked ways, He is only left one choice. Brian Medway calls this "unnature". When nature acts opposite to its constructed ways.

If MY people. Not if the world, not if the politicians, not if the government, not if the minorities, not if the Muslims. God is calling on us, Christians, to do four things. humble ourselves, pray, seek His face and turn from our wicked ways.

Isaiah had that revelation. In the year his friend, King Hezekiah died, he looked up and saw the Lord (Isa. 6:1). Having seen the Lord, he could declare "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips!" (Isa 6:5 NRSV).

Ezekiel had the same revelation. Their guilt, is our guilt. The rulers, priests and prophets of God's people are guilty. We, the people of God are guilty (Ezek. 22:25-31). Not our ancestors, not our political system, not our farmers and not El Nino.

A false report

The problem lies in the fact that we do not even see there is a problem. We call a time for repentance, and we are dumbfounded. We do not even know what to repent of. We think of things like our speeding fine, our parking ticket, drinking too much coffee, eating too much. Trivial things do not amount to "wicked ways". Wickedness is manifest in greater evil - evil which God lays at the feet of His Church.

Only we do not esteem ourselves this way. We are like the church of Laodicea, thinking we are one way but God sees us another way (Rev. 3:17,18). We think we are rich, and have need of nothing. But we are wretched, blind, poor, pitiful and naked.

Time to turn

God is calling us to a time of seeking His face, or turning aside, of ceasing in our struggles and finding out the meaning of this:

Moses went out from the camp, a great distance, and the presence of the Lord was there (Exod. 33:7).

Balaam did not go out as at other times (Num. 24:1).

God told the people to stop going around the mountain, and to move on! (Deut 2:3).

God told Moses, "Come up to Me on the mountain and be there" (Exod. 24:12).

References

Sentinel Group. "John Malindy" in Transformations 2, Seattle Conference Medway, Brian. "If my people" audio message, July 8 2005

A Call To Repent

Coleen Reid

28th Sept 2005

This morning I turned on my computer to check for emails and there was one from Kathie Walters copied below.

Soldiers spooked by New Orleans Ghosts (video news clip) BY KATHIE TERRI LEE Sept 27, 2005
http://cbs5.com/video/?id=6789@kpix.dayport.com

Out of curiosity I decided to watch the clip. The clip was quite amazing. Several parts caught my attention.

Firstly, the News Announcer Makes this slip " Famous - or should I say infamous New Orleans has had a reputation from vampires to voodoo - a city of sin"

Secondly, a soldier (Chaplin perhaps) is 'cleansing' the building the soldiers are staying in by prayer & anointing oil. He states "New Orleans is very ingrained in voodoo, cannibalism & witchcraft. This is indeed a dark city."

Thirdly, the video goes to the marina showing boats tossed like paper, and no paper to be found for miles, but sitting a the dock a solider finds a Bible lying open to Rev 10 & 11. In a church completely blown away somewhere else in town a Bible is found in front of the alter open to the same chapters.

A solider relates what these chapters say " It's about a great storm that lasts 3 days and wipes away a city and that there are bodies in the city.

After watching it I went back to making porridge for breakfast and then felt the Lord tell me to read those two chapters.

So I did. I tired to find what the solider was talking about and it is true 3 & half days are mentioned, bodies (2) lying in the city for 3 & half days, and two mentions of earthquakes and one hailstorm. But as much as I could stretch it, it didn't really seem that God was trying to speak about anything, at least not to me.

Then a thought hit me "It's very unlikely that just Chapters 10 & 11 would be on the open pages. So I read Ch 12 - no nothing there. Then I read the last part of Chapter 9 which is most likely to have also been on that page.

Rev 9:20-21 (NLT) But the people who did not die in these plagues still refused to repent of their evil deeds and turn to God. They continued to worship demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood - idols that can neither see nor hear nor walk! And they did not repent of their murders or their witchcraft or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

After I read that I thought to myself " They missed it". And then a great sadness came over me.

While the 'Church' seems divided over whether it was God's judgment or the hand of the Enemy that brought about New Orleans's destruction - this much is obvious at least to me - there is/was considerable wickedness (the city has a national reputation for voodoo, cannibalism, witchcraft & spiritualism) in New Orleans and there needs to be repentance. Will New Orleans's repent?

Please pray that they will.

Colleen Reid

A Challenge To The Pew Warmer

John Lallier

Jeremiah was a man after God 's heart; he gave messages that the apostate people didn't want to hear.

Today God is doing the same. Catholics go to the Queen Of Heaven, the Church Of England go for gays in ministry.
The holy ghost churches went for the money and glory which God will not share. So God anoints men and woman to stand for him and his word and bring bad news which nobody wants to hear.

In dreams and visions of the night I see the church as a whore in adultery. The church has become pastor worshipers, loving to be in the church and having dinner with the pastor. My pastor my pastor, what a great man of God!
People sit for hours outside of the mega ministries wanting to get a good seat up front, [Baal worship].

I was eating in a diner one day and I was talking to a woman and all she talked about was Joyce Meyers and what a great teacher she is and all the tapes and books she has of Joyce Meyers. I asked the woman, what about Jesus? What kind of relationship do you have with the Lord. How much quiet time do you spend with him [Jesus]? Thank God we have pastors and teachers and the 5 fold ministry, but the 5 fold ministers are to lead you to Christ

And Christ s spirit is to be your teacher and that you need to go to no man to teach you, john 16, 13. And when you hear from God; then go to the 5 fold ministers and get a confirmation on what the Lord showed you. Now you will get excited, put Christ first and let him be your teacher and your God. Be led by him, 3 to 5 hours a day I sit in the front seat of the Lord and hear him and will be taught by him.

Put Jesus first in your walk and get your eyes off the big shots. Quit throwing your money at them and go help the poor and sick and needy. Go to the prisons and go to the darkness and be a light in the darkness. The lord is watching, babies need milk; but when will you grow up and go for the meat [Jesus]; and only do what the lord tells you to d; and only be led by the spirit so you can be a son of God?

Instead of sitting in front of a 5 fold minister worshiping him and letting him do all your home work for you and getting second hand information; go to the source [Jesus] and let him be God over your life,

Years ago while at a spirit filled church I asked the lord at the service, I said lord is this all I can look forward to, is this it? To my amazement the lord showed up in my bedroom that night. I'll stay in his presence and only be led by his spirit,

I grew up and don't need super stars anymore. I challenge you all to go to the best teacher [Jesus]. Become a son of God instead of a pew warmer having etching ears and chasing signs and wonders! I'm telling the truth and many will come against me, praise God .

A Call To Walk By Faith

Musa Opiyo

Jan 14, 2005

Heb 11: 1 Now faith is the substance of things for, the evidence of things not seen.

I am looking for faith in the hearts of My Beloved in this season. Faith in My Written Word. Faith in the word that I have spoken to you shall indeed come to pass. This is how it works in My kingdom. I speak to things that were not as though they were and it is done. I have spoken many promises to you of the things to come this year. Some of them have been feasible, yet some have seemed outright outrageous. I hear the hearts and mouths of My beloved shouting yes and amen to those things they perceive with their natural eyes as possible, yet I hear the sighings of those things that seem like mountains. Those things that to you would say 'wouldn't happen in a million years'.

I am not going to do in a million years what I am prepared to do in the NOW for those who would trust Me. I have opened great avenues of faith for My people to walk in and take the promises made to them yet I see very few actually stepping out of the boat. I made My promise of provision, of power, of strengthening by My Spirit to all My children. If these promises was meant for only a chosen few then I would have only made that accessible to them. Yet when I died and gave My life for all, whatever I said you would do and accomplish shall be done because you have accepted Me into your heart and you are My blood washed covenant child.

Beloved let it be known to you that if you have read My promises in the Bible for you, then it was meant for you to claim it by faith and lay hold of that made available for you. I said greater works shall you do than what I did upon this earth. This is the year of the greater works. Not for the purpose of entertainment or for the exaltation of man or ministry, but so that the harvest would be gathered and brought into My storehouse. This is the year indeed to speak life into those things that were dead and call them to life. This is indeed the time to lay hands on the sick, even to merely declare healing upon those with infirmities and see them recover.

I have indeed in this day sent forerunners with My anointing to show and equip My Body how to walk in the power and the anointing of the Spirit. It is not by any strength of their own but through faith in Me and in the fact that I will meet them with signs and wonders following.

Now My beloved church it is time to pick up the mantle of faith and walk through your 'River Jordans' and 'Red Seas'. This is indeed the time to march around your 'Jericho walls' and trumpet forth My word and see them crumble. This is indeed the time to let those stones fly and knock your goliaths to their death. All this accomplished by faith.

My people the enemy has launched the offensive against you, yet I have already given him into your hands to claim the victory. With the shield of faith deflect the arrows that are released. Because I sit on the throne says the Lord. I have released an army of faith warriors who will march across the lands of the earth under My direction waving high the banner, 'If my God is for me, then who shall be against me?'.

My people, yes it is a time of great war in the heavenlies, but it is also a time of great grace and favor where I shall release great faith upon My people to take back the land that was stolen, to take back the lost family, to take back the businesses that were stolen and reclaim them. My people it is not a time to remain passive, but to rise up in faith, yield to Me and say, 'Lord here I am. Send me and use me for your Glory and yours alone'.

I tell you that faith will open the door to the miraculous, to the healings, to the victories and I am calling each and every one of My Beloved chosen to get into their positions and seek Me concerning what I would have them do

I speak forth now and declare to you to speak forth those things that were not as though they were. Even that mustard seed faith shall move the mountains and cause the enemy to be displaced, for I have a people who will move out in great faith says the Lord.

Blessings,

Musa Opiyo

http://mannaword.no-ip.com

A Call For Separation And Repentance
Richard Copeland

7-31-05
Note: This article is strictly the opinion of the author based on impressions and inspiration through prayer and study and should not be taken as a direct word from Our Lord.

I believe that God is calling us to ‘self-less separation’ through obedience to His word, His full Truth. From an individual as well as a corporate standpoint, we have been blinded by our compromises to this world. This call is summed up in the book of 1 Peter “For it is time for judgment to begin in the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?” (1Peter 4:17) God’s justice will not allow His people to continue to compromise His word and thereby letting us yoke ourselves to this world. If we do not awaken ourselves and repent, we will be awakened by Our Lord. Our nature does not like to be separate from worldly influences. We want to feel accepted and included or at the other end of the spectrum, we want to rebel ‘in principle’. Both can be considered compromises. In the former category of acceptance and inclusion we may compromise by engaging in drunkenness, damaging gossip, or attending a bachelor or bachelorette party that will involve strip clubs or pornography. In the latter category of rebellion we may cheat on our taxes because we feel that the tax burden is unfair or we may call in sick to spite a boss that you feel is being unfair. It could be in the form of boastful or prideful behavior, misguided ideology, or a critical/judgmental spirit showing the Lord that inwardly we are still yoked to worldly behavior. The point to this is that there are many things that we do that compromise God’s word, things that God will have to address with us if we don’t separate ourselves through repentance and obedience. It should be stated that this is in no way a call for perfection but ‘holiness’ (Lev. 11:44 For I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that crawls upon the earth.).

There is also another consequence to not staying separate from this world through obedience. Without separation, it is hard to see God clearly. We become confused; our compass for good judgment becomes cloudy and muddled. In a word, we lack sound judgment through discernment. Through this lack of discernment we create ‘blind spots’ and start reacting in the flesh to the problems that our blindness has created. Instead of asking God to show us our blindness so we can repent, our pride gets in the way and we become more determined to resolve the issue through our fleshly determination and self-will not realizing that our basic issue is a spiritual issue that was most likely precipitated by a compromise that we made that offended God. This blindness happens on both an individual and corporate level. On an individual level we can look at the wise King Solomon who was so blinded that he entered into a depraved state of sin and disobedience. From a corporate aspect we can look at many other examples from Israel to Nineveh during the time of Nahum.

Corporate Separation

The main focus for this article has to do with corporate separation and how we have compromised ourselves as Christians and as a nation by disregarding God’s full truth through compromise. The message that was given to me by the Lord called “The Sign of Jonah or Nahum” was an indictment of our compromising system of politics and the Church’s tolerance for such activity. The implication of this message is clear but I do want to point out that the underlying result of this message is that Our Lord is looking for His people to separate themselves totally from a sinful and depraved world, sound a trumpet call for repentance, and usher His Son back into this world. The chaos that we see around us is the wicked world ushering in its own leader. We should take this as a sign to start the separation process in ourselves in order to usher in our own.

Much of what was given to me concerned the degenerative state of politics in America. Our Lord is also concerned with His anointed leaders looking the other way to this corrupt system of politics that has also ensnared good Christian men and women into the enemy’s trap of power and control. “The Sign of Jonah or Nahum” is just as much about the repentance of God’s anointed as it is about the repentance of America as a nation, from the least of us to the greatest. As stated above in the Book of Peter, God's "judgment begins in the house (family) of God". That could also suggest that if "judgment" begins with us then repentance must begin with us as well. God loves His own and He will discipline us through judgment if we do not come into repentance. In the Book of Jonah we see that Jonah needed to repent for disobeying God's prior command before the Kingdom of Nineveh could repent. Jonah was running from his responsibility to preach God's truth to a slumbering nation headed for judgment. The same could also be said for God's anointed leaders today. That being said, it should be stated that the established Church and ALL of God's people have a responsibility to rebuke and challenge corruption within our system of government. Jonah skirted this obligation and was judged accordingly by God through the belly of a fish. Will we heed the call or be judged as well? As I was compiling the Lord's message and this article I read in the 'cliff notes' part of my Bible that Jonah is also representative of God's redemptive nature through His people to the world. This is such a fitting example of who we are to America and it affirmed for me the message given.

The Lord has been impressing upon me the need for us to see our current political system for what it is: a system of greed, influence, power, deception, slander, malice, dishonesty, strife, pride and so on. This is the system that raises up our leaders. It is a system of rampant compromise to God's word from campaign to inaugural oath, and from oath to tenure. Yet we tolerate the manner to which we raise these leaders which is in clear violation of God's word then wonder why things go so horribly wrong for our leaders and our nation DESPITE our desperate pleas and prayers for God's blessing upon them. Is it any wonder that eventually this type of continuing compromise will not meet God's certain justice? The Lord has already judged our leaders in many ways by 'exposing their corrupted fruits' (from 'The Sign of Jonah or Nahum'). How many times has God exposed the corrupted fruits of our leaders just in the past forty five or so years? And as we can clearly see throughout history, no one political party is immune to exposure because God's justice has no partiality. He's in the 'truth telling' business regardless of political affiliation or the worldly labels we tend to use to categorize each other to mock or name-call. God only has two categories of concern 'saved' and 'unsaved'. But when this judgment from God does come in the form of exposing 'corrupted fruits', what do we do as American's? Most of us blame the leaders (or find excuses for them depending on which side of the political isle you sit). But is the bad seed really the leader or is the bad seed the system that helped produce their corrupted fruits? This is not to say that we are to let our leaders off of the hook, but it is to say that our leaders can't be blessed if we allow them to "skip down the road of compromise" to God's word on the way into office. Can our leaders bless God while consistently compromising His word in a system that demands it? Can we bless our leaders if we root and holler for their success into office through a system of compromise and corruption? This is double minded. In contrast to the fruit of corruption, John the Baptist points out that we need to "produce fruit in keeping with repentance" (Mt 3:8). This starts with acknowledging the problem by seeing it how God sees it. God is not afraid to call out His own, He called out Moses in his disobedience and it kept him from 'seeing' the Promised Land. I believe that Christians are developing a sense of pride and loyalty that inhibits our ability to call out one of our own to repentance. We believe that if our leaders aren't having an affair and are against homosexuality and abortion then they've pretty much met our standard. But God's bar is always the same height even if our political system demands that we walk under it, especially if we want any influence. This produces the 'corrupted fruits' and let us make no mistake, it is a problem for Our Lord.

Why are even 'small compromises' so damaging to our leadership and our nation? The simple answer is because it 'yokes' us to the enemy by compromising God's word. This is why separation is so essential to Christian leadership especially in politics. It's pretty fundamental that those who are going to have any success or influence in the world of politics must play the game of 'let's make a deal'. In its most basic form, politics involves promises to special interest groups in exchange for money and votes. The candidate can promise a certain special interest group an introduction of new legislation or the support of current legislation, in exchange for monetary and ballot support. And these groups fight tooth and nail to gain the power necessary to influence a candidate to support their cause above all others. Already we are seeing how the subtle corruption of the world is taking shape. This in and of itself causes tremendous pressure on a candidate to compromise God's word in order to gain influence and we have only scratched the surface. Yet do we believe that this behavior, not to mention the litany of other corrupt behaviors in politics, is acceptable in the eyes of Our Lord? Surely not. As Christians we are called to influence the world, not be influenced by it. And we cannot influence the world by yoking ourselves to it.

In the case of a Christian politician, once a ‘deal’ has been made or a compromise in any form (i.e. slander of an opponent by shaping public perception using half-truths) is transacted to gain influence in the system of politics, they have now ‘yoked’ themselves with the world. And worse yet the Christian community, knowing full well that this activity most certainly goes on, look the other way. Why? Because we believe that despite the ‘imperfections’ of our candidate, this Christian politician will further our ‘moral and ethical’ agenda that America so desperately needs to get back into God’s good graces and blessings. Do we not recognize the obvious double mindedness in this thinking? Has God ever allowed His people to compromise His means to get to His ends? Obviously not, for He cannot suspend part of Himself to support another. He’s a package deal, always has been. There are no shortcuts, not for the Israelites not for us. And by looking the other way, we too have yoked ourselves to this world. For if we look the other way and fain “ignorance” we deceive ourselves and deception does not come from God. So we now have become yoked to this world and the result we fall asleep to the ‘God understands our plight’ mentality. This gets us to rationalize outside of God’s word and we fall into this subjective empathetic behavioral pit which results in ‘self-sympathy’ and ‘self-justification’. We are guilty of this as individuals and as a nation. God’s truth is not bound by bias, denomination, ideology, social or economic status, political affiliation, nationality and so on. Truth is what it is because God is who He is. No amount of justification on our part will change who He is, how He looks at compromising sin, and how He will deal with that sin if there is no repentance. We need to realize how seriously Our Lord is about His truth for those who have slumbered through it were shaken by it. (Note: this last phrase was added after the event of Hurricane Katrina)

When we fall into this trap of ‘self-justification’ we begin to believe God will favor us no matter what and tarry His justice until His Son decides to come down and deal with all of these wicked people causing us problems. Somehow the unsaved sinner’s repentance is mandatory but ours is optional because we’re different, we’re the ‘good guys’. And somehow we never want to think that we have brought on our own problems through our own disobedience. Why do that when there are so many wicked to blame? I believe that we have become so focused on the wickedness Paul describes in detail in his Epistles that we forget about the simple truths and instructions that God gave us in the Book of Proverbs. By rationalizing in this way and overlooking the wrongdoing of our brothers and sisters in politics and ourselves, are we opening the door for God or for Satan to work in our lives and in our country? This is the result of small compromises that yoke us to this world and the one who rules over it. Yet we continue to scratch our heads in wonderment as to why America isn’t as moral as it should be. How can we minister to the immoral if we’re engaging in and supporting corruption in the name of morality? By allowing ourselves to be influenced, we have little to no influence which is why separation through obedience is so important. In God’s economy ‘values’ is all inclusive, and in God’s economy ‘influence’ is not determined by compromising those values but by obeying them and staying separate from the world that wants us to compromise. I believe this kind of ‘holy separation’ is what God is looking for in these end times. His eyes are keenly scoping the landscape looking for those who will be willing to usher in a new day for the world. I believe that those who stand strong and separate in their faith, without a compromising yoke, will be called upon to usher in Our Savior just as John The Baptist did when he humbled and separated himself while calling on all to repent for ‘the Lamb of God’ is coming. Paul sums it up nicely and I believe the Holy Spirit was talking directly to us today when he said in 2 Cor 6:14-18 [14] Do not be yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? [15] What accord has Christ with Be'lial? Or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever? [16] What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will live in them and move among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. [17] Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you, [18] and I will be a father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

Who among us will sound the trumpet call of repentance for Our Lord?

Once again Christ is the example

Compromise is a good deal for Satan and he loves the corrupted fruits that it brings upon our leaders. If compromise weren’t such a good deal for Satan he wouldn’t have tried so hard to get Jesus to do it. Satan’s no dummy for he knew that if he could get Jesus to compromise, Jesus would have no legitimate holy influence in this world and the temptation in the desert would be the last chapter in the Bible. And notice too how Satan tempted Jesus. Satan tempted Jesus by trying to get Him to 'make a deal' (sounds familiar) that included, among other things, POWER AND INFLUENCE. Here we read about this in Matthew 4:8-12: [8] Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them; [9] and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." The words 'these I will give you' in reference to 'all the kingdoms of the world' are pretty significant. Satan definitely had something to offer. One cannot give unto someone that which they do not have in ownership. And if Satan and Christ were 'co-owners' then there is no deal to be offered as well. Clearly then, God the Father has given Satan ownership of 'all the kingdoms' of this world. Ownership is legitimate control and Satan was offering Jesus a little slice as he does everyone in leadership today. But Christ, being no dummy Himself, knew that His ministry was not about ownership or control but influence through obedient separation. Christ was not going to be fooled into yoking Himself through compromise. This test of Christ's separation was so important that it was the Spirit of God that led Him into the wilderness for this very purpose. If this was that important for Jesus then how important is it for us to stay separate from this world?

If we fast forward to the Book of Revelation we see just how significant it was for Jesus not to be yoked to the world through compromise in the desert. In Revelation chapter 5 John weeps because it seemed that no one was worthy to open up the scroll. That is until the Lamb came forward "and I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" [3] And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it, [4] and I wept much that no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. [5] Then one of the elders said to me, "Weep not; lo, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals." The Lamb 'is worthy'. Why? Revelations says that Christ was worthy because He was slain for us. But I believe Christ's worthiness is also in the form of obedience to His Father and triumphed when He successfully resisted Satan's temptations of compromise and thereby was not yoked. If Jesus gives in to any of Satan's compromising offers, there can be no cross. But He stayed separate from this world, it has no power over Him: 'but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world' (John 16:33). When Jesus spoke these words to His disciples He was not only comforting them, he was also warning them that the time had come for His expedient journey to the cross. I believe Christ's worthiness hinged on two things: overcoming Satan, and being obedient unto death. Also note that Jesus' ministry of healing and casting out demons did not come until He first defeated Satan in the wilderness through staying separate in obedience to His Father. Jesus first had to pass His Father's test through overcoming Satan in the wilderness before He was worthy to overcome and conquer the one who tried to overcome and conquer Him. In God's realm healing cannot take place if the healing instrument (Christ) that He is using has been yoked to the one inflicting pain or injury (Satan). Any Christian who wants a healing ministry cannot be used if they are yoked to the one causing the sickness. This is why Jesus cautioned the disciples that some cases involving casting out demons would require prayer and faith to make sure that we are separate and unyoked (Matt 17:19, Mk 9:29). And I believe a nation cannot be heal itself through Our Lord if those in leadership of Government and in Christian ministry are yoked to the one who is trying to inflict spiritual sickness and injury upon us. Acknowledgement of sin and repentance are essential to the spiritual well being of an ailing nation.

So then if Satan was bold enough to test Jesus in this manner how much more will he work on fallible men and women in politics, especially those who take the name of Jesus? In this game of 'gotcha' the crafty Satan cleverly poses to our leadership a small compromise in return for a greater influence within his system under the guise of a promise for a successful overall moral agenda. Of course Satan is incapable of making good on a deal (he never planned on giving Jesus anything even if He had compromised), but he will give us some success. However, he owns the right to pull the rug out if we continue to bow to him in compromise. Satan's a liar, Jesus knew this, I wonder why we don't. But repentance and obedience to the truth of Our Lord removes Satan's grip from the rug. The paradox of influence in God's economy is that we have the most influence in this world when we are not influenced by it. I believe this should be the message to future Christian leadership in this nation. I believe the only thing that has saved us to this point is God's mercy for us and that His will is not yet complete.

Jesus won favor with His Father by staying separate, and we must do as He did, "be holy for I am holy". Not be perfect, but holy. The question is not if we will make mistakes but if we will repent in order to get back to obedience and separation. Obedience and separation gives us the ability to see and think clearly and the power to overcome Satan's lies and deception.

The Ten Commandments

The display of the Ten Commandments on the grounds of state and federal buildings has been a hot button issue among many American's, most especially for Christian's. Contentious debate swirls around the issue of The Ten Commandments display and lines are being drawn between 'the powers that be' and 'the will of the people'. But is there more here that God is trying to tell us that we aren't recognizing? Our Lord has impressed upon me that there is certainly more to this issue.

The rejection of the Ten Commandment's display from our government buildings symbolizes the very essence of the outcome: God is being rejected by the world. Although God has always been rejected by an inherently sinful world, there's little doubt that we are seeing an increase in hostility and a fervency to exclude God in Government and our school systems that we have not seen in the history of our nation. This is symbolic of the times we are living in. As Our Lord stated in His message "A Sign of Jonah or Nahum?" the world is ushering in its own. The current global geo-political issues, and our own internal struggles as a nation trying to keep God as a symbol and a cornerstone of our nation, bear witness to this fact. This is yet another sign of SEPARATION. And in order to start that process of separation the world has to start rejecting righteousness in a more brazen manner. This isn't to say that the mere stone that carries the Ten Commandments is righteous of itself, but is symbolic of it. Isn't their a natural separation when this world rejects God's Kingdom? We should heed the sign and voluntarily separate ourselves spiritually from this world. Just as Christ said in Revelations that He will spit out the 'lukewarm' Church of Laodicea, the world will spit out the righteousness and the holiness of Our Lord. Even as we Christian's tried to 'force feed' the Ten Commandments upon the Supreme Court of Alabama through prayer and protests, Our Lord still allowed this event to happen (perhaps Our Lord felt that the Supreme Court wasn't worthy of the Ten Commandment's). Regardless, this event plus the overall push for the word 'God' to be deleted from the pledge of allegiance and our schools is the world starting its push to reject and separate itself from us. This will continue to happen whether we like it or not. If there is any surprise to the fact that even in America the world is rejecting us, then we are not paying attention to the landscape that God is allowing to take shape in order to send out a message of separation. And while many are looking for miraculous 'signs and wonders' as God's way of spelling out His agenda, we are ignoring the not-so-subtle realistic signs of the world rejecting God and His people. But instead of seeing this as a sign of separation, we see it as a threat to our well being and a bold snubbing of God (which it is). The lines are becoming more distinct from the spiritual world to the physical in terms of alliances in these end times. The world is developing an 'acceptance policy' and will know us or reject us based on the criteria of our willingness to compromise God's word. But this is also how Our Lord will gauge our faithfulness and obedience. I believe these are the battle lines being drawn in the spiritual right now in these end times and will continue until the trumpet call in Revelations to 'come out of her My people'. This is a call for separation.

Our Founding Father's clearly set forth the agenda and laws for America with Our Lord in mind. Our Lord was a 'cornerstone' for America then, and now He is being rejected. But scripture makes it clear that those who reject the cornerstone will be crushed by it. I find it also symbolic that our 'builders' that make up the State Supreme Court have rejected 'a stone' with The Ten Commandments and in essence are rejecting Our Lord.

Luke 20:17-19. But he looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written: 'The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner'? [18] Every one who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but when it falls on any one it will crush him."

We are being rejected by a world that is growing intolerant of righteousness through Our Lord but vengeance is His, He is the 'head of the corner' that will come back to judge those who rejected Him with a crushing blow. Let us repent of our compromises and pray for those who are ignorant of this reality of Our Lord's justice.

Is it really about influence, or is it about control?

Separation is God's way of influence to this world, compromise of God's truth is the world's way of influencing us. But if we think about it, Satan doesn't just want to influence us, he wants to control us.

And it seems also that we want to control him as well. As I look around today, especially in the political arena, it is all about control. And it appears that Christians today don't want just influence, we want control. But what kind of control are we talking about? Are we talking about control God's way or the world's way? Jesus wasn't known for His control of the Pharisees or the Roman Empire, rather He was known for His influence despite His lack of control. He didn't need control, He had faith. God's plan succeeded not because His Son had political control or influence but because He was obedient to the end. It seems that for many Christian's today our faith is in direct proportion to how much control we have. It's almost as if we are trying to control Satan himself and he's trying to control us in an epic battle 'for control of the world'. Well as we saw earlier in the Book of Matthew, God has already established who is in control of worldly kingdoms and it's not America or Christianity. But we are taking the 'control bait' hook, line, and sinker. Satan knows he has control and he's more than willing to give us a slice if we compromise God's truth to get it. And when Christians compromise to get control, who really has control? Satan is clever indeed. So God gave us a glimpse in Matthew as to who has control of the kingdoms in this world and He also gave us a glimpse in Revelation of who had control just before the coming of Christ in Rev. 20:2-3 [2] And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, [3] and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years were ended. After that he must be loosed for a little while. Pre or post-trib notwithstanding, it is not Christianity or America who has control of kingdoms before Christ's return. If this were the case, we wouldn't need our Savior at all and His coming, or our rapture to Him, would be a matter of convenience for us rather than a necessity.

I believe many Christian's don't want to admit as to who has control because too many of us want control. When our desire or our need for control outweighs our desire to be obedient to God, on an individual and corporate level, we become vulnerable to the lure of compromise. This is not to say that we are to stay silent, refrain from necessary contention, or not get involved in a cause but to consistently understand how Our Lord would want us to do it. Christ confronted the Pharisees and Sadducees without compromising His Father's commands. Jesus defended His Father's honor through honoring Him. Jesus never brokered a deal, met behind closed doors, or received any money from outside sources to take on the Pharisees because He had something better…His Father's blessing and anointing. We wonder (at least I did) why things seem to be falling apart around us despite our many fasts, prayers, and desperate pleas to Our Father. I believe the reason is our compromises and our blind eye to the obvious improprieties of our leaders in government, Church and ministry leaders, and organizations. If we can't open our eyes, repent, and call on repentance then why would we expect God to open His ears and hear our prayers?

Beware of 'The Great Label-maker'

When I pack up my belonging for a move to a new residence, part of the organizational process is for me to put certain items into boxes and put a label on the box to describe what is them. In one box I may put 'kitchen items' on another I may put my name or my wife's name with 'clothing items'. This will help us to distinguish where these items will go at the next residence. Although these items are boxed separately and distinguished through labels they are equally important to me, they are part of my household. The pots and pans that I have marked as kitchen items are just as important to my household as my clothing. This distinguishing process is helpful when needed.

In the same way we use names and labels to describe certain groups of people. We use the terms Asian-American, Nigerian, British, Latin-American, or Australian to describe ethnicity or national origin. We use Republican and Democrat to describe political affiliation and Methodist, Baptist, Catholic, or Pentecostal to describe denominations in Christianity. These are distinguishing names or labels, if you will, that are used for a neutral purpose.

However there are those labels we put upon certain groups or sects that are damaging to us, to them, and to the cause of Our Lord. These labels are derogatory and harmful. Satan is this type of 'label-maker'. He uses it to desensitize us to others, to define others in terms of their behavior or belief system in a way that demeans, accuses and excludes us from engaging in meaningful intercession for them. We can't have meaningful and sincere prayer when we demean or belittle those who do not have Christ in their lives. And we use such terms on an individual and corporate level. We label people as rednecks, ‘trailer trash’, elitists, thugs, left wing radicals, right wing nuts, bleeding heart liberals, neo-cons, humanists, feminists, chauvinist, etc. One does not need look beyond the news to see how this type of labeling stirs emotion. I’m not advocating ‘political correctness’ for there is no polite way to re-label something when the same derogatory tongue is speaking it. The problem can’t be fixed by simply tinkering with the terms that describes it, but only by understanding the behavior, or sin, behind the action. Labels themselves are completely neutral. However, when combined with an attitude of exclusion in the form of condemnation, these labels become judgmental and have the underpinnings of pride, whether it be personal, ideological or otherwise. Satan knows this and is an advocate of derogatory labeling and name-calling because Satan understands what Our Lord says in James 3: 8-15 better than we: [8] but no human being can tame the tongue--a restless evil, full of deadly poison. [9] With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the likeness of God. [10] From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brethren, this ought not to be so. [11] Does a spring pour forth from the same opening fresh water and brackish? [12] Can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh. [13] Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. [14] But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. [15] This wisdom is not such as comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish.

James, through Our Lord, is talking to US in this passage and it is one of the most important, yet underrated, passages in the God’s Word. And Satan uses our ideological pride most effectively to bring us into the double mindedness spoken by James. Can we sincerely pray for those whom we label in a derogatory manner? Can God work with the prayers of such double mindedness? Agree or disagree but this kind of sinful behavior that James is speaking of is a form of verbal persecution. I fail to see anywhere in the Gospels that says Christian’s are to be the source of persecution. The Apostle Paul plainly states that we are to endure persecution, not engage in it (as he once did which may be why God chose Paul to give us this message). Too many people today ignore such truth suggesting that it calls for ‘tolerance’ in the form of ‘inclusion’. As mentioned above, God does warn us not to be yoked with ‘unbelievers’, which is a form of physical and spiritual separation. It is clear that Our Lord is not telling us to be ‘tolerant’ of anything or anyone that violates His word but he does demand that our ‘righteous anger’ remain within the bounds of His rules and His truth (2Tim 2: 21-26 see below). The moment we lose sight of His truth and ignore His commands as to how we are to engage in these battles, our anger is no longer ‘righteous’ but punitive, and it is not Holy Spirit driven but flesh reactive. Our Lord plainly tells us He will repay (Romans 12:19). If we ignore His instruction and go it alone we become ‘rebels with a cause’ by unwittingly rebelling against God for His cause. One of Satan’s most useful snares is to get us to go against God’s nature to achieve His Will. Some believe that ‘intolerance’ (in the form of a certain style of ‘righteous anger’ through name calling and derogatory labeling) proclaims ‘separation’ from those who do not know Christ. But in the realm of the spiritual, those who engage in this behavior are actually ensnaring themselves by playing Satan’s game of labeling and accusing. Those who believe that Satan cannot or, will not, use God’s children in this manner to do his work for him are deceiving themselves.

Many Christian’s today equate intolerance to faithfulness and that may be, to a degree, but when that intolerance spills over into punitive and accusatory labeling we actually lack faith in God’s ability to deal with the issue on a spiritual level. Righteous anger gone amuck and derogatory labeling is not God’s way for us to minister our faith to others. There are preacher’s and pastor’s who will mock certain groups from the pulpit causing laughter throughout the congregation and then, through that same pulpit, call for the congregation to pray for those lost ones. Church and ministry leaders who do this aren’t mocking people, they are mocking God who has entrusted them with the truth and has given them proper instruction as to how to minister HIS truth. Those instructions did not include planting seeds of mockery to congregations only to call on them to water that seed with prayer and a call for repentance. Those leaders who do this are a great stumbling block to effective prayer and make it more difficult for other leaders in ministry and whose ministry involves obedience that rejects double mindedness.

In 2Tim 2: 21-26 Our Lord gives us clear instructions on ministering our faith through Paul: [21] If any one purifies himself from what is ignoble, then he will be a vessel for noble use, consecrated and useful to the master of the house, ready for any good work. [22] So shun youthful passions and aim at righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call upon the Lord from a pure heart. [23] Have nothing to do with stupid, senseless controversies; you know that they breed quarrels. [24] And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kindly to every one, an apt teacher, forbearing, [25] correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant that they will repent and come to know the truth, [26] and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. Notice again in verse 21 that Paul through The Holy Spirit is, first and foremost, calling for US to purify ourselves before we start calling for the repentance of others. I believe that purifying ourselves in this way should be an on-going spiritual cleansing that is necessary to keep us humble and obedient to Our Lord. So perhaps we should tame our tongues and righteous anger and instead trust Our Lord to do His just and holy work through prayer, supplication, and intercession that is free from double mindedness.

As stated previously, when all is said and done at the time of Christ's second coming, Our Lord is only interested in two labels: SAVED AND UNSAVED. If that will be the case then, then that is the case now. And just as my kitchen items were just as important to me as my clothing in MY HOUSE so too are rednecks, thugs, liberals, conservatives, feminists, humanists, hippies, skin-heads, chauvinists, Baptist, Methodist, Buddhists in the HOUSE OF GOD. At one point in our lives, all of us we're just as unsaved as any 'thug', humanist, hippie, or skin-head and there is no better way to honor God and our salvation than by praying for the lost souls with a pure and blameless heart knowing that we were once blind to Christ ourselves. We cannot do this by cursing them with the same tongue that prays for them (if indeed we do pray for them) we must not let Satan have that foothold.

America Like Solomon

Our Lord also impressed upon me that America is mimicking the reign of Solomon. America, like Solomon, was wise and righteous in its youth but eventually gave into the lure of compromise and depravity in its not-so-wise latter years.

In the beginning of Solomon's reign as king, God was the cornerstone of his life and the foundation of his kingdom but in his latter days (because of rampant disobedience and political convenience no less), God faded to the point where Solomon even questioned the truth of one reigning God. America also had God as a cornerstone through the lives of many of our founding fathers, and a foundation of God among its people and government. But today we see the word 'God' and His Tem Commandments fading from the landscapes of our school system and from our court systems. The word 'God' also is being challenged for removal from our pledges as well as our currencies. Like Solomon, America who once embraced God as a cornerstone and foundation is rejecting God.

As Solomon remained faithful to God in his youth, he eventually feasted upon his lustful appetite by having many women in his life with up to 700 wives and 300 concubines. His fascination and obsession with women gripped him to the point that his eyes were off of God and on to a seemingly uncontrollable desire of flesh and idolatry. Likewise, in its youth, America was more righteous in its intentions and without a rampant and publicized sexual appetite (even up to the 50's and early 60's). But in these latter days, America has given into rampant and unchecked pornography (including internet and child pornography), raunchy movies, billboards, video games, and commercials and TV shows. Pornography has gripped our nation and is a multi-billion dollar industry that allows porn-peddlers and industry insiders ride around in the nice chariots that once adorned Solomon. And loose minded advertisers and the television industry continue to flaunt indecency in the face of our children. There were times when all Solomon had to do was come to God, repent and ask forgiveness, and God's love and might would have broken down the strongholds and given him back his wisdom and anointing which was far more valuable than women and wealth. But Solomon did not repent and was given over to his depraved state. What will America choose in it's latter days?

Solomon had lavish and rampant building projects that cost a fortune, including an elaborate palace, and had excessively abundant possessions. His wealth was practically beyond measure. Likewise America has 'super-sized' itself from luxury cars to massive homes in a housing market that in and of itself is keeping in good pace with Solomon's kingdom expansion (in a symbolic way).

In his youth Solomon, who was a public leader as well as an anointed leader of God, proclaimed the name of God in public and honored Him. But in his final years Solomon, behind closed doors (where God couldn't see) compromised his little heart out and eventually boldly married the daughter of the Pharaoh of Egypt making his yoking, and his final undoing, official. Similarly, some of our leaders are doing the same by publicly taking God's name only to compromise God's word behind closed doors and bowing to the system of the world of politics.

I believe Solomon's 'international affairs' are also symbolic of America's dealings with nations today. Although Solomon was warned not to marry outside of his nationality he was lured by foreign women, political convenience, and a lucrative trading business into marrying, and thereby yoking, himself to other nations. Understanding that there is no rule from God that prohibits America from intermingling with other nations (we are after all The Melting Pot) in a symbolic way America has also married itself economically to other nations that do not share our values as a nation. Corporate America doesn't care if a Communist Regime worships a different god(s), oppresses its people, and uses its new found monetary gains for military build up. In a world where profits are literally the bottom line, money is the idol. This isn't to say that capitalism as a means of trade and the buying and selling of goods in and of itself is wrong. It's not. Nor am I offering an opinion but an observation. But I do believe that we can say that Corporate America has developed a rampant and unchecked greed that exploits poor nations to please shareholders and so we can live more abundantly. And I think is fair to say that Corporate America bows itself to mammon. However, that greed isn't just confined to the corporate realm as the average American struggles with mounting individual debt in a 'gotta have now and MAYBE pay later' mentality. The American consumer and corporate America are caught in a vicious cycle of co-dependency as our companies have become desperate for us to buy more and more product to bump up their publicly traded stock as, we the consumer, say 'we need more money outside of our income so we can spend more for you and on ourselves'. And when companies can't reflect accurate sales revenue from consumer spending they make up for in 'cooking the books'. We will see more greed exposed just as with the recent reports about the local governments in China demanding 'corporate kickbacks' to do business in certain regions. With the introduction of the new 'Euro', the rise of China economically and militarily, and overall economic globalization, corporate America is helping to advance the landscape that the anti-Christ is eager to take over. Our growing global interdependence with other nations for our economic well being and growth not only sets an end time stage for the anti-Christ but for Our Lord who is gradually knocking 'the props' out from a nation that has been self-sufficient and reliant for so long that, like Solomon, we start to believe our abundance is self-created. On an individual level, I believe that the one sinful behavior that connects good faithful Christians and the unsaved world is mounting debt through living a lie that we somehow deserve more than our God given means and that we deserve it NOW (I have been just as guilty of this myself). Living beyond our means has been so accepted and engrained into our culture that many of us don't even think of repenting of our indulgent ways and live more simply within our means. There is an enemy out there that wants us to be yoked to our debtor and is willing to give us more loans if we'll keep compromising. Like Solomon, Our Lord has truly blessed our nation but sometimes that blessing can be a curse. What will it be for America?

In his youth Solomon was close to Our Lord and knew that he was dependant on Him as the source of his physical, financial and spiritual well-being. But after acquiring massive abundance and wealth through The Lord, Solomon got a little to fat and happy and started to believe that he no longer needed God since he had practically anything a flesh happy person would desire. He lost his gratitude. America started out as a frontier nation with much potential but little in the way of luxury or wealth. Up until the Industrial Revolution, and even some time after, most people relied on hard work and faith in God to get them through the tough times. Our holiday "Thanksgiving" was an event that our forefathers originated to honor and thank God for what little they had. It was a symbol of humility and gratitude. Today for most American's "Thanksgiving" symbolizes a bird, family, and football. Like Solomon we have lost our gratitude because we have lost our need for Our Lord.

Parallel Between the Physical and Spiritual

Our Lord has impressed upon me the importance of seeing the physical circumstances in our world as a manifestation of the spiritual realm. As mentioned before, the removal of the Ten Commandments from the Supreme Court of Alabama was symbolic of a call for separation from this world and how the world is, and will be, involved in this separation process by rejecting us. Throughout the Bible we see the physical manifestation of the spiritual state of God's people. In the Bible we see how spiritual compromise and depravity manifested itself in the physical through plagues, pestilence, famine, disaster, and the rising up of enemies to humble a nation. We still serve the same God that brought these situations to other unrepentant nations throughout the history of the Bible. It's basic reaping and sowing and I believe right now in America our physical battles with nations, court systems, secular organizations, and Government bodies are all symbolic of the spiritual battle we are all facing in these times. I also believe that we cannot win these battles with the secular world if we are playing its game of compromise to reach a moral end. If we choose to sow through battling in the flesh of compromise we will most likely reap whatever end that will bring.

The Tower of Babel in the Old Testament symbolized the might, power, and stability of man. Although the Bible doesn't say much about the tower it is clear that the tower was for self glorification as we see that the builders referred to 'themselves' by building 'ourselves a city with a tower that reaches the heavens so we can make a name for ourselves' (Gen 11:4). And Babel as we know was in or around the land of Babylon. I believe that there is symbolism between the Babel Tower and the Twin Towers or 'The World Trade Center'. It was impressed upon me by Our Lord about a year and a half ago that the Twin Towers was symbolic of the Tower of Babel, and that the fall of our Twin Towers symbolized God's call for America to 'come out of her' meaning Babylon (which is also a call for separation). Although there is debate about what 'Babylon' symbolizes, I believe it is fairly clear that it symbolizes, at least in part, the system of world trade and mercantilism that has helped many a king and empire conquer, rule, and oppress, which consequently lead to sinful and depraved lifestyles and ultimately a downfall. I do not believe that it is coincidence that the result of the 9/11 and the fall of the World Trade Center has put The United States in a physical military battle in modern day Babylon or modern day Nineveh. The spiritual is being manifested in the physical in that America is in a spiritual battle to come out of 'Babylon'.

For all the many reason mentioned above concerning compromise and corruption in our Government, Church and Ministry leadership, and in our everyday lives, America is in a war alright, on two fronts. I believe that God is showing us through our leadership, past and present, the declining moral and ethical state of America spiritually as it symbolizes a growing trend of compromise and an outright disregard for moral decency. Therefore, I do not think our military success in Iraq depends at all on troop numbers, military strategy, or logistics but on the winning the 'spiritual war' here at home. Again, that spiritual war begins with US individually and corporately NOT with the unsaved or the wicked. What has God entrusted them with? They can't do God's work, so the responsibility God gives is squarely on our shoulders, it's OUR cross. If we are blaming the wicked for all of our woes then we are failing to see, and live up to, our own responsibility and we also fail to trust God. If we are living as we should and are working hard to do God's will the best we can and with a pure heart, we shouldn't have time to blame anyone else and should have plenty of time trusting that God will take care of the issues that mean so much to our nation. I believe that if we do this, we will see God's work start shifting things in our favor because it is lined up with His Will on His terms. We all have testimony as to how God has worked in our individual lives this way with a difficult situation such as a problem at work, with our children, an illness, financial stress, or whatever the case may be. How many times have we heard a story of Our Lord pulling through for us after we came to terms with the fact that we cannot control the situation, then decided to stop trying to fight and control the problem through our flesh and just let go? And how many times after we repented, prayed, and proclaimed Our Lord's promises in faith, did Our Lord forsake us? I believe God works the same way on a corporate level. This doesn't mean we stop fighting, it means we stop compromising to what we know violates Our Lord's commands and start trusting Him implicitly.

I believe God's hand is writing on the proverbial wall in these end times through manifestations in the physical realm and the only way we can get any revelation to read His writing is to separate, repent, pray and obey just as Daniel did. Daniel was obedient right down to his veggie diet, and as a result God blessed Daniel with health, understanding and divine revelation.

I believe God is looking for these people today. God is looking for the Jonah's who will call on all people to repent, starting with themselves; He's looking for one's like John the Baptist who called on repentance and ushered Jesus into His first coming through His ministry that overcame the world and died for our sins; He's looking for the Joseph's who, through separation and obedience, was so blessed by Our Lord he climbed the political ladder and influenced AN ENEMY GOVERNMENT; and last but not least, He's looking for the spiritual Joshua's who, by completely trusting God through obedience and separation, sounded a trumpet that brought down the mighty walls of Jericho and easily defeated the enemy. These faithful servants of God knew that power and influence came THROUGH obedience NOT in spite of it. However it should be noted that their powerful anointing was based on obedience that was faithful through their love for God, NOT out of obligation. If we obey out of obligation, we are not serving God, rather we are serving the command to obey and fall into legalism.

I believe that Our Lord's eyes are searching for those individuals and leaders who will be truly set free through a loving and obedient relationship with Him. These people will not be concerned with ideological or denominational issues that might keep them from seeing the truth of our times and will have the courage to boldly speak the truth even if it may offend one of their own. These anointed ones will always be concerned with their own repentance first and will include themselves as 'sinners who need Our Lord's mercy'. They will echo the words of Peter shortly after The Pentecost in Acts 3:19 "Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, [20] and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, [21] whom heaven must receive until the time for establishing all that God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old. They will speak the truth through the love of Our Father despite a possible backlash or repercussion because they see that a time of 'refreshing' is needed for individuals and nations. I believe that Our Lord is getting ready to exalt a new generation of faithful and obedient servants and will humble those who have gained their influence through compromising ways. However I believe all who repent will still have a part in God's plan for these end times.

The Good News of God's Love

I believe that America has received many blessings from God because we made Him a part of our nation from the very beginning. Not that He thinks more highly of America for if Our Lord is no respecter of persons, He no respecter of nations. Our Lord loves all nations equally. However, not all nations equally love Him. So we must repent ourselves out of our continual love and devotion for Him and pray for those nations who do not know The Lord through His Son Jesus, not mock or label them. We must let Our Lord continue to use America in blessing Him through blessing other nations, not just with food or money, not just with military protection, but with sincere and spirit-filled prayer and intercession. In order to effectively engage in this battle we must humble ourselves and call on repentance.

As Our Lord impressed upon me much of this, He also enlightened me as to how much America means to Him. The Lord told me that His love was so vast, that it went beyond the depth and the width of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans that He put on each side of America to protect its borders and its people from harm. God foreknew that Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin would be rising up in Europe bent on destruction, so He put America on the other side of the Atlantic. Our Lord knew what Emperor Hirohito's decision would be before he decided to bomb Pearle Harbor which is why the Japanese had to fly all the way across the Pacific that God put between us and them to make it difficult for them to carry out a mission inland. Our Lord knew that Russian and China would hold communist regimes that would have liked nothing more than to take America out of the global equation to further their agenda. God has given us peace loving and non threatening neighbors to the north and south of our country because He loves us and because He had work to do in America. For as much as the Pacific and Atlantic served as obstacles to our enemies, Our Lord allowed us to take the fight to the enemy which, given the grand complexity and the magnitude of the endeavor, and with the help of our allies, America did with relative ease. While God has blessed us with protection, He has allowed America to take the fight to enemy soil, which is what we are doing now in Iraq. But in order for that battle in Iraq to have happened, Our Lord had to allow His hand of protection to be pulled for a moment and allow an enemy to reek havoc on us by conveniently crossing that vast protection of the Atlantic on a 'friendly flight' only to turn around sometime later and use our own commercial planes to take down the symbols of our might and global dominance. Any God fearing nation should have been somewhat humbled by this. But instead I see all kinds of bumper stickers declaring 'The Power of Pride'. (I find this amusingly ironic given that it was pride that kept our Intelligence and Investigative branches of government from sharing information on terrorists. It was pride that kept information from trickling up and out from analysts to their superiors because of the competition for the glory that comes with making a big breakthrough in intelligence and information gathering. It was pride that led to 'bureaucratic complacency' that thought it impossible for planes to be used as self-guided missiles to take down large buildings in metropolitan areas. And it was pride that gave America a false sense of security that assumed our government would not let pride get in the way of our security). Yet it was pride that Our Lord said would goeth before the fall and it should have no place in any God fearing nation.

But as much as we have been victorious throughout our history in defeating the enemy overseas, we fail to see our battle right in front of us on our own soil. This is not a battle that can be won through our military, nor can the Atlantic or Pacific protect us from this enemy. This battle is for the soul of our country and it requires our full attention to the only One that can win the battle for us; the same One whose love runs beyond the width, and deeper than the depth, of both ocean's that has protected us from our enemies all these years. God has a plan of spiritual protection available to us if we want it. It is through His limitless oceans of mercy and love and it can only be acquired if we repent of our sins and call on Him for forgiveness. Without this, our physical protection will mean little to us in these times. I believe key the question that remains isn't; 'Is God is willing to protect us?' the question is; 'Are we willing to be protected by Him?' Regardless, nothing will be able to separate us, His children, from His love [38] For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, [39] nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord (Rom 8:38). But we do have a say as to what form of His love we will receive, mercy or discipline. What will we, Our Lord's people, choose?

A Sign of Jonah or Nahum?
Richard Copeland

7-18-05

Repent America!!

A message from The Lord for those who choose to hear:

"Wake up My Dear America, wake up My Anointed Children!! You pray for your leaders that I give them My discernment, wisdom, and guidance while your leaders ignore My commands and compromise the truth of My word. Your leaders belong to a system of corruption yet you look away. Yes you look away from their sins yet boldly ask for My blessing upon them. Now you too, My Children, sin by ignoring their corruption and not praying for their repentance, not telling them the truth of their shame. Some leaders are taking the name of My Beloved Son as their guide then shamelessly ignore His truth. They honor Me with their lips then they lie, manipulate, deceive, and slander. They receive through ill-gotten means and compromise My truth for power. To whom are you bowing before America? I the Lord Your God will never ask you to compromise My truth to reach My end for I DO NOT CHANGE.

I tell you America that you are under a curse and it begins with the system that raises your leaders. It has become a prideful system born of the enemy and bent on destruction. A system of corruption that craves money and demands compromise of My truth for power, and practices willful deception. Tell Me, where should I, the Lord God Almighty, begin blessing this? How should I reconcile what my eyes see to what your eyes ignore? I DO NOT CHANGE!! My eyes see you too, My anointed ones. You are not blind, I have given you eyes to see all of the corruption before you. Your sin is not a matter of blindness but choosing to look away from a system of paganism that compromises My ways and betrays My honor and the honor of your country. No compromise, however big or small, escapes My sight. Therefore I will turn a deaf ear to your prayers until you call for repentance and earnestly pray for change. My hand of protection is still on America as a matter of My Will but my ears are deaf to your prayers for your leaders until you recognize that I will no longer tolerate a system of corruption born of deceit, malice, strife, pride and arrogance. For years I have uncovered the sin and corruption of the system that raises up the leaders of your country and have exposed its corrupted fruits. Yet America and My Anointed continue to look away. Although you, My Faithful, know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, you continue to approve of those who practice them by turning your head (Romans 1:32). I will continue to expose more of this corrupted fruit in your system of government for My tolerance for such contempt of Me is waning. I am a patient God but My Justice is eager to do its work '[3] The LORD is slow to anger and of great might, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty' (Nahum 1:3). Repent My People of America then call all of your leaders to repentance. Repentance must come before I open My ears to your prayers. Obedience and truth receive My Blessing. Yes, My word says to pray for your leaders and rulers. So pray indeed, PRAY FOR REPENTANCE.

A Sign of Jonah or Nahum?

Our Lord revealed to me that the 'Sign of Jonah' is also a message of repentance.

"An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign; but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. [40] For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. [41] The men of Nin'eveh will arise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here." (Matt 12: 39-41).

A message from The Lord for those who choose to hear:

"Oh My Children of America shall you be the 'Nineveh of Jonah' where its government and people received My instruction and repented of their wickedness and corruption? Will you be the Nineveh that received My great love and compassion? The compassion that extended even to their cattle?

OR will you be the 'Nineveh of Nahum'? The Nineveh that received My judgment 'all because of the wanton lust of a harlot' (Nah 3:4). The Nineveh who 'increased its merchants till they are more than the stars of the sky, but like locusts they strip the land and then fly away.' (Nah 3:16). The Nineveh whose 'gates of land are wide open to your enemies; fire has devoured your bars.' (Nah 3:13). Oh America will your 'shepherds slumber' (Nah 3:18) as Nineveh's? I tell you that power, corruption, deceit and pride left unchecked and unrepentant will leave your shepherd's to a 'spirit of slumber' (Rom 8:11). Your shepherd's do not slumber to what's around them but to what is inside of them; which is the power and corruption of the system that raised them up. They will continue to slumber until they come to an awakening and repent of their corruption. What will it take to awaken you? Look to My word, has any unrepentant kingdom or nation escaped My judgment? Were they not warned of their impending doom? Pray earnestly that your people will be awakened to repentance.

Many may say: 'America is not like a wretched Nineveh, besides we bless Israel'. To this I say 'Amen'. But where in My Word does it say that I will bless a nation that blesses Israel AND continues to walk in the lust of a harlot? And where in My word do I speak of a nation and its people needing only to abide in half of My commands and needing to recognize only half of My truth? Can I, your just and holy Lord Almighty, suspend part of Myself for your sinfulness? And who among you are bold enough to determine degrees of wickedness between nations? My ways are just and I DO NOT CHANGE!!

To My anointed ones of America, those who teach My word and preach My truth. Which Jonah shall you be?

Will you be like the cowardly Jonah who did not want to hear Me? The Jonah who turned away because he thought he could not make a difference? The Jonah who lacked faith in My transforming power and was frightened of the possible repercussions of speaking truth to the corruption of nation and its government? I tell you that someone greater than Jonah is with you now. Too many of you say: 'I have my salvation so let them have their way'. But where does My Word say that salvation includes freedom of duty? You have grown complacent in your responsibility for a call to repentance. Who among you wants to receive the reward of My salvation then forsake the burden of My cross? Those who do, let them state so and remove themselves from My will that is to be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Have I not used My anointed ones to speak the full truth to rulers and leaders of nations? How long will you look away from the corruption within your government? Your pulpit has become like an old shoe snug on your foot as you preach to My people about sin, salvation, ministry service, mission work, prophecy, hope, love, and truth. To this I say 'Amen' and love you dearly. But that same pulpit becomes like hot coals under a bare foot when you take thought of preaching against the sin and corruption of the wicked system that raises up your leaders, some of whom take My name.

OR will you, My anointed, become like the Jonah who received my rebuke and called My name in repentance 'I called to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me.' (Jonah 2:2). The Jonah who heeded My rebuke and proclaimed My truth, to the highest form of government and its system of corruption. The Jonah who, through his rebuke and witness, brought a whole kingdom to repentance. Which Jonah shall you be?

'The time has come for judgment to begin in the house of your God'. (1 Peter 4:17)

There are those among you in anointed leadership who are hiding your misdeeds. You honor Me with your lips yet your hands are unclean by what you have touched. Your fruit has gone afoul and is distasteful to Me. To whom do you serve? To what do you bow? Have I said that you can serve two masters? Repent of your hypocrisy for I see your every deed. If you do not I will surely allow you to fall on the same sword of truth that you claim to wield. Shall I accuse you now for your repentance or shall I expose you later and let your enemies accuse and humiliate you? Those of you who I expose I shall no longer be able to use for leadership and you will live the rest of you days in humiliation until you repent. For those whom are given much, much is required of them and you will never gain back the influence that came from compromising My commands. Those whom I can trust shall be exalted to do My work and those who have sown into the world will fall back. Therefore, separate yourselves and come out from those who yoke you, repent and touch no unclean thing and I will receive you back (2Cor 6:17).

Arise My anointed ones, all My faithful ones!! Gather in unity and repent of YOUR tolerance to a compromising system of Government then call your nation and its leaders to awakening and repentance. ONE GREATER THAN JONAH IS WITH YOU!! Be faithful and obedient to Me, honor My truth, and I will be faithful to you. If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from your compromising ways, then I will hear from Heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. Now My eyes will be open and my ears attentive to your prayers offered for your country. (2Chron 7:14-15).

Who among My faithful will say: 'Here am I Lord, send Me'?

Who will usher Me in?

Look around you!!! This wicked and unrepentant world is ushering in its own. Who among you, then, will usher Me in? Who will call for repentance? Who will humble and separate themselves like the one before you who paved the way for My Son to enter into baptism? The one who baptized My Son is no longer with you and so My eyes search the landscape for those who can boldly call for ALL to repent, from the least to the highest among you. You pray for another great baptism and a revival of My spirit, yet you do not sound a trumpet of repentance like My faithful one John did to pave the way for My Son. Who among you will honor My truth and obey My word to bring in a glorious baptism that will bring unity through the fire of My Spirit?

A Changing Of The Guard

Heidi Cummins

Oct 31, 2005

"I am doing a changing of the guard," says the Lord.

"I have thrown down the gauntlet. No more will those who stand in my pulpits, offer up strange fire unto Me. No longer will they speak with polluted lips, representing Me, speaking My Holy words any longer, as I am removing them. I am cutting them down, and replacing them with a new generation.

These are My people who I am putting into positions of authority. MY AUTHORITY.

My servants have been prepared in the dark and lonely places. They have been thru the refining and purging fire of My dealings. They serve Me with their whole heart. These are My Davids. Their only desire is to serve Me alone. These are the ones I am placing into My positions of authority. I have spoken says the Lord.

These are the ones who stand and say "who will defy the armies of the LIVING GOD?" these are MY representatives. Their lives are not their own. The others are play actors who pretend to be My servants, but are not. These I will remove. Many will not make it thru my purging fire. They will be cut down, and their disciples also, who follow after them. Consider carefully, the word of the Lord.

No longer will a man stand in MY HOUSE and speak MY HOLY WORDS and say thus and thus, and it not be from MY lips. I will cut them down. You will see with your eyes and know that I AM is among you in your midst. Then My church WILL KNOW that I mean business. That I AM who I say I AM. I have withheld MY patience, but Now is the time for My sword to be wielded thru out the land. I have put the two edged sword in My servants hands, and they will wield it with great accuracy, as I AM in them, and they shall do exploits. Because they KNOW ME. They that KNOW their God, they shall do exploits. And so they shall.

For him who has ears to hear, hear the word of the Lord.

MY servants hear, and they do obey."

A Company of Horses I,II,III

Robin Paisley

This is a thank you letter/part vision to all who have spoken into my life in one way or another; I am the voice crying in the wilderness, a voice crying outside the walls of the church, a voice untrained by man; 'Make way for the King.' We have been prophesied about at large but when seen the church does run away; we have been wondering in the desert for many, many years, broken and misunderstood but oh fed by the hand of God. I am she, I am many, we are ONE. We are no longer hidden in the desert but have been brought into sight but the desert jewels still remain in our womb and we are ready to fight; not by power, nor by might but by His Spirit, saith the Lord!

thank you,
Robin Lynne

Eagles Of Reformation
http://eaglesofreformation.injesus.com

A Company of Horses I,II,III
Robin Paisley

July 29th, 2005

I awoke today with the sound of thunder coming from a stampede of horses marching through out the nations and the roar of the Lion of Judah and I know I am not alone in the hearing, we are not alone in the sound that is breaking the silence of the dawn, reformation is here!

A Company Of Horses
Jun 10, 2004

I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots. Sgs. 1:9

I can hear the breath of the Almighty cry out in victory,

'A Company Of Horses'

'A Company Of Horses'

'A Company of Horses'

Make way for the King is coming!

Can you see them, can you hear the resounding echo in the hills as their hooves dig deep into the earth's atmosphere, they are ready my friends, they have gathered and they are here! I have never seen horses such as these, their muscles carved out like a fine tuned instrument and their manes as long as the days they have been waiting to ride in such passion. Upon their backs the riders the same as they can only hear one voice, they can only see one face and they together ride in the same rhythm, the beat of the Master's heart.

Leading this great company of horses are riders with gold trumpets in their hands and they are blowing heaven's sound through out the land. It is a dire warning to not retreat, to not give into man's thinking and man's ways but to only heed the voice of the King and ride, ride hard into the night. I see Gideon upon his horse, an ancient horse and he is leading this holy army with the deep passion of Christ and yea though a few, it is an army not to be reckoned with. They will not bend to the right nor to the left for they hear and obey only the Master's voice as they raise their torches of fire towards heaven.

Of whom the world was not worthy they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.
Hebrews 11:38-40

Do you hear the deep groaning in this verse; that they without us should not be made perfect, oh my friends, the deep calleth unto the deep and the Ancient of Days is upon us as He rides in a Holy Fire that will shake, tear down and consume all that is of man. Yes, the earth will cry out in agony as she is awakened by the King, walls will come down, kings will fall but those who have perfected the ways of the King of Kings by resting at His feet, will not only stand in the face of the enemy but they will ride hard past the forces of darkness and into His Holy Chambers. Oh such love and adoration of the Father is before us, upon us and through us,

Make Way For The King!

Part II

Jun 14, 2004

A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; Psalms 133:1,2

I saw in the spirit two armies, one was the company of horses that I saw several days ago, this time the Lion of Judah was accompanying them and He had fire coming forth from His mouth. He was running along side this great big and beautiful army of horses and their riders in agreement with their mission.

I then saw another army and this too was a company of horses but they were from the hordes of hell. They looked Exactly like the good army right down to the blood, but it was not the blood of Jesus that they were saturated in but the blood of death and destruction. I then heard the Father say: "Terrorism From Within."

I then saw the first army of horses, the good and pure army and in their hands were long arrows, there were swirls of gold and silver running through them, full of life, full of God's power. The tips of the arrows was the Word of God, alive, breathing Word of God and all His promises to keep, ready to be delivered to the United States. As soon as the arrows hit their targets the people would fall down in the spirit of the Lord and be healed, some from years of sickness both mentally and physically. They then were given nations by name to cry out for, specific details and plans of the enemy exposed and Nations delivered by the Word of the Lord!

Soon both armies were side by side and running hard against the wind, I could see that the company of horses straight from the Throne room of God not once be affected by this wind but they remained still upon their horses and they rode hard to deliver these arrows. Both armies rode through state after state, through many cities, those of great darkness and those of His light.

The company of horses from the pit of the enemy were having a hard time against the company of the Lord but they remained steadfast and too continued to ride. All of a sudden I saw a horse and its rider catch an arrow and ride forth through out the city looking for his target. This arrow was now in the hands of the enemy, still words of God but not the Word of God. As the enemy found his target I saw that it was the Statue of Liberty, she not only represented New York but the entire United States, she represented our freedom. As the arrow went forth a rider too came forth from the army of the Lord, dressed in pure and holy armor and along side the rider the Lion of Judah. No longer earth bound but by the Spirit of the Lord the rider took the arrow straight in his chest and fell to the ground beside his horse. I then saw the Lion of Judah lay down beside the rider and He looked as if He was crying as a Holy roar went forth right into the heavens. Many angels descended from Heaven and they began to surround New York continuing through the U.S.

One angel began to slowly lift the helmet off of the rider who was down, as long, beautiful golden curls emerged from beneath, it was a young girl no older than 14. Oh my friends she was absolutely stunning in appearance for she bore the heart of the King. The Lion of Judah began to lick her face as a mother lion would her cub and He breathed life back into this young body. As she stood she immediately bowed before the Lion of Judah and thanked Him for sparing her life and got back on her horse to join the others in mission. Oh the army of youth that is arising with the heart of the King, nothing but nothing will be able to stop them.

The Lion of Judah began to roar as fire came forth from His mouth, a sound of fear, a holy fear to beware the false words of those masquerading in prophet attire. I saw the arrows that were sabotaged by the enemy run forth through out the U.S. being delivered as the word of the Lord to many places high in authority, governmental authority and they came forth in fire but not His fire but the fire of the enemy. Again I heard the Lord speak but this time it was a shout as thunder shook the earth and lightning hit many cities, it was His cry to awaken the sleeping, a time to pray!

"Terrorism From Within" again resounded as I saw some of the arrows in the hands of the enemy no longer containing the anointing from the King but words spoken in false array that when hit there designated target the people would instantly fall to sleep. There were many arrows hitting churches where those in authority were not pure of heart and they would deliver fear of the enemy causing many people to remain focused on the enemy and not on the Lord, for there is no fear in perfect love. (1John 4:18)

Tell My children that it is not My will for death and destruction upon the earth but everything on earth is not under My will. Tell My children to pray, to humble themselves and pray for their cities, their nations and to pray for President Bush, that he would instantly in his spirit discern when the True Word of the Lord comes before him.

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. (2Ch 7:14)

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. Psalms 93:1-5

A Company Of Horses III

Aug 21, 2004

But those who wait for the Lord shall change and renew their strength and power; they shall lift their wings and mount up as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint or become tired.

Isaiah 40:31 (amp)

And by the Spirit of the Lord the company of horses who were reigning with Him in heaven yet were on earth began to be lifted high up into the heavens and were brought before the Throne of God. One by one the riders dismounted their horses with armor and all and knelt before the King.

Through blood, sweat and tears they humbly wept, they humbly cried and rested at the feet of the King, the feet of the Almighty God and waited for further enlightenment. As the King arose from His throne water began to pour out from His heart, the purest of waters I have ever beheld, it was thick like honey but white as snow. The water began to fill the mouths of each and every rider and their horse until they were now standing looking as if they had never been touched by battle, but were alive and renewed with the Holy Presence of God.

To each rider was given a scroll and etched deep within the scroll were the names and addresses of those waiting for its arrival. Then the Lord in the power of holiness, in the power of love began to kiss each and every rider directly upon the lips. As the mouth of the Almighty touched the lips of the riders, His tears mixed with their tears became a message of power, a message of strength and a divine message of love for the battle ahead.

Then to my surprise but yet so like the Father, He then began to touch each and every horse upon the face, right in the soft part of their noses, and He began to whisper love notes in their ears as He kissed each and every horse, a holy impartation for the coming days.

"Awake the sleeping"

"Awake the dreaming"

"For I coming to awake even the dead!"

There was such love expressed in the Lord's words that I began to hear a groaning, a deep awakening happening in the earth as two great golden wings of an eagle began to grow out from the sides of every horse to equip them for there next assignment.

The riders then mounted their horses and returned to earth, in love, in power and with a holy fire to deliver the messages of God.

I awoke with the taste of Divine Love upon my lips.

Revelation 22:7
And behold, I am coming speedily. Blessed is he who observes and lays to heart and keeps the truths of the prophecy contained in this book. (Amp)

A Company of Horses Revisited (PART 4)

7-30-05

During an intense time of resting before our Lord I was brought back to 'A Company of Horses' to many things I had missed before and was now ready and able to 'see.' This is an excerpt from a book that I have just finished writing (Coat of Arms) and so I feel a bit vulnerable in sharing but oh how that is a good thing, ha!

(Coat of Arms, pg. 126)

Again roaring could be heard but this time it was not coming from the river before me but beside me. Surrounding me on all sides were four ferocious looking lions; totally staking out their territory and I was their claim. Thundering hooves began to echo as a company of horses and their riders could be seen making their way up from the canyon below. Very similar looking to the army of the Lord both in dress and stature; but the army of the Lord they were not for they were the hordes of hell. Each rider and their horse were dripping in blood of the martyrs but it was not worn in righteousness but worn for the kill.

I was shown this army before in another vision but this time I was directly involved like having before watched a movie when suddenly you find yourself in it. Words before spoken and their meanings hidden were now brought to life. There were eagles flying high above this army of horses that Martin Luther King Jr. had warned me about; they were golden Egos.

This company of riders will look much like the army of the Lord right down to his word they will preach but it will be all in the name of pride and of the flesh and not in the love of the Lord. They will speak to feed themselves full, to set themselves high up on a mountain but only to be brought down low by the hand of the Lord.

As the hordes of hell came closer into view the lions let out their thundering roars and the company of horses and their riders suddenly stopped directly in front of me.

So close was this army that I could feel the very breath of the horses as they snorted in retort and I knew that one sudden move on their part would send the lions into battle as their claws were drawn like swords.

Written on the left thighs of the horses were the words, 'self will' and upon the right, 'self love.' Stamped upon the foreheads of the riders for all to see was 'self mind' for they were lovers of themselves and not of God. Although they talked a good talk and walked a good walk, they however did not truly walk with God; they walked to please self and man.

I could feel the cold, hard bite of death upon my lips as the words "Terrorism from Within" tangibly hit my spirit and my soul quaked in response as I realized I was staring into the heart of the religious spirit reining in man. However bold they did look, courageous they were not for the roar of the lions stopped them dead in their tracks. The lions surrounding me was the courage of the saints from the four corners of the earth; the remnant of Jacob. The souls who are no longer ruled by self but are surrendered to the King of Kings, they look not to man but only to God.

"And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many nations like the dew from the Lord, like the showers upon the grass, which tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men.

And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many nations as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who, when he selects his prey, cuts and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver." Micah 5:7, 8

Oh the precious remnant of God as they tour the world in his perfect love and unity bringing forth the Kingdom of God, no one can stand in their way. But woe to those whose hearts are not strengthened in the Lord; whose ways have been by the feeding of the flesh and not in intimacy with the King. For the darkness that is coming who can but discern the children of God from those whose hearts are ruled by man; only those who truly know the heart of the King, beyond the walls of religion and man, beyond the veil that separates the holy from the unholy; even so Lord Jesus come.

As I surveyed the massive army before me tears of shock and disbelief burned not only my eyes but also my heart. There were many saints I recognized, some of great honor unto the church.

Peace descended from heaven; shalom peace of Christ that covered me like unto a warm blanket; in the shadow of a dove it fell on my shoulders and into my spirit. The Father's voice quietly thundered; it reached into the very depth of my soul and whispered:

"He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water! They speak not from my womb but from their head; their words come with condemnation and mine come with life.

My daughter, it is not sin that keeps man from coming into my presence but the refusal of its exposure, the unrepentive heart. As each layer of the soul is stripped away there does lay much darkness; now revealed and brought to my light. As more and more sin is unmasked so too is more of my heart and more of my love; the unveiling of the hidden jewels that have been waiting for their release from the deep. The soul that refuses this unveiling will remain at the level of just reading my word and not in the hearing, only in the doing. Like a moth that eateth away the garment so too is my word in them; it is quickly eaten up by pride.

You will see man fall in these days exposed and brought low, but it is in this deep awareness of their weakness that they will seek me, their Creator with all their hearts. The army before you lives and breathes on pride; pride of self and all that they have accomplished in my name and it is in my sight like maggots that eat the dead. My invitation has gone out and it comes by way of the broken, the poor and the weak; an invitation to dine with me in the deep, the wedding feast!"

"The kingdom of heaven is like a king who gave a marriage feast for his son. And he sent his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. Matthew 22:2, 3

The marriage feast of the King has come, the invitations have gone out; but few are they who will allow their souls to taste of the valley of the shadow of death. Oh but what joy awaits the soul who takes heed to his voice; the divine arrangement of the King, the surrender to his call.

Through the highways and the byways, whether rich or poor, young or old; his voice echoes down the stairway and into the heart. Come eat of the supper prepared by the King; come eat of the manna thereof.

(8-9)"Then he said to his servants, Now the marriage feast is ready, and those who were invited were unworthy. Go, therefore to the main roads, and whomever you may find, invite them to the marriage feast. "

The Father's love then came in waves that caught my heart up in its embrace and I began to see more clearly the army before me; I began to see my own self, my pride and false humility. Tears of repentance poured from my soul, a total drenching of his divine love for all. The army that stood before me was not on horses as I had seen before but on large ostriches and not looking at all like the army of the Lord, but it wasn't until my own true heart was laid bare again could I truly see. Oh the greed of the ostrich,

"She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand, Unmindful that a foot may crush them, that some wild animal may trample them. She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she cares not that her labor was in vain, for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of good sense. Yet when she spreads her feathers to run, she laughs at horse and rider. Job 39:14-18 (NIV)

The eagles flying above were none other than vultures feeding on the egos of man. When soul is fed only on flesh she becomes like the ostrich, no wisdom in her ways and her labor is in vain as she laughs and tramples on the word of the Lord. They are not dressed in the apparel of the King but of self as the invitation of deep surrender has been denied.

(11-14) "But when the king came in to view the guests, he looked intently at a man there who had on no wedding garment.

And he said, Friend, how did you come in here without putting on the appropriate wedding garment? And he was speechless.

Then the king said to the attendants, Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the darkness outside; there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

"For many are called but few are chosen."

The refusal of the invitation was to my own soul its denial to see her fabricated ways; the contradiction of wretched self to her inner spirit man. Many are called echoes through the darkened night, many are called thunders through the soul to arouse the sleeping, awaken the dead; but few are chosen. Only when the soul surrenders to the Lover of her soul in total abandonment; the death to self, can one truly live. "And he said 'You cannot see my face: for no man can see me and live." Exodus 33:20

Many a times the soul doth long to stay in the comfort of the morning dew, never venturing further into the night; "but weary from a day in the vineyards, I had already sought my rest I had put off my garment how could I again put it on? I had washed my feet how could I again soil them? Song of Solomon 5:3 (AMP)

Oh but it is in the depth of the garden, deeper into her enclosure where one will find yet another gate; another door to be opened; a hidden jewel beneath the rubble of self. New hunger arises within her bosom, a longing for more of the King's wine for she has already tasted of his divine truth that flesh can no longer satisfy for there is no life, no depth or wealth! It hits the belly like a dead rock which no manna can pass through unless self again is forsaken and the King is allowed to come in; turn the knob and open the door to behold the lover of our souls.

This recognition of my own self in the army before me came to my spirit in liquid form and I slowly began to melt into the heart of the Father. Again, a nothingness of self that intensifies the longing to behold the One True Love; the Maker of our soul.

(4, 5)"My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my heart was moved for him.

I rose up to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers with liquid sweet-scented myrrh, which he had left upon the handles of the bolt."

No longer standing before the army but now moving through the army by the Spirit of the Lord, like a cool drink in the hot dry desert; a drink offering unto the King and an invitation to his garden.

Many is the heart of pride and unto themselves their own delight to refuse such wealth from the vineyard of the King is to their soul yet another passage bolted by self will and self might.

There were many scattered among this army who were so tired and weary of self that instantly upon receiving the gift, the divine decree of love from the Father, they came down from their 'horse' and knelt low at the feet of Jesus, crying in repentance and a longing to enter deeper into heart of the Lord.

"My vineyard which is mine is before me; a thousand pieces of silver are yours, O Solomon, and two hundred for the keepers of the fruit.

Those who sit in the gardens and listen to your voice, have reported your words to me.

Make haste, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young hart upon the mountains of spices." SgS 8:12-14

There were however many who upon receiving the call of courtship became so full of spite from whence came the message instead of from Whom that they swelled up even more so with pride in grotesque form and continued on their own path. "A great many will say to me in that day, My Lord, my Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name cast out devils and in your name do many wonders? Then I will declare to them, I have never known you; keep away from me, O you that work iniquity. Matthew 7:22-23 My heart began to grieve for the lost and the words of the Lord came to my spirit as I was again transported by the Spirit of the Lord by the heaviness thereof and onto the Island of Patmos.

A Crown Of Rejoicing

Bill Burns

August 9, 2005: I put a crown of rejoicing on your heads. Anoint the shield and go forth in great faith over all of the work of the enemy, and carry the flaming sword that burns up everything that defiles. I give to you the sword that burns with zeal and the glory of My power; it is most certainly a weapon against the enemy, an effective weapon that will destroy all of his work. Take up the sword, launch out in faith, and run with haste to the battle. Surely the enemy shall be turned back at the gate. I have prepared those who will bring forth My voice in the land that will declare the work that I am doing in this Day, says the Lord. This is a Day of victory! Can you hear the sound of victory? Run in faith, knowing that you indeed shall be victorious in all that you set your hand to. Rise up in the understanding of your authority this day, and be renewed. You are warriors of the morning, men of renown. Come forth! I call you forth into kingdom position. Live in victory.

Marsha Burns

August 8, 2005: The work of the enemy against you is to make you feel disconnected and to make you question where you belong. You feel like you have been let go of by others in the body of Christ. Beloved, you are not disconnected from Me or My body. This is a tactic of the enemy is against your mind and emotions to bring discouragement and defeat. The devil will do all he can to make you quit. Stand against this seducing spirit, the spirit of heaviness, and the spirit of death. You are not rejected, nor are you a victim of life's challenges. I have caused you to be victorious in all things, says the Lord.

August 9, 2005: Take an even strain; you will have a tendency to get ahead of yourself at this time or move too quickly without giving enough thought to what is required of you. It is not that what you have scheduled to do is bad, but that you are likely to overlook details, which will cause you to have to retrace your steps. Otherwise, know that I am with you to enable you to accomplish all that is required at this time and in this season. Go forth with confidence and boldness, says the Lord, knowing that I am indeed directing your steps and giving wisdom as necessary.

August 10, 2005: This time is a turning point in your life. What you do now is pivotal to the next leg of your journey. Carefully consider your options and use My word as your signpost, says the Lord, for the decisions that you make in these days will carry long-term consequences. Your associates and the people you encounter are likely to be unusual and quite different than what you are accustomed to, but they will add spice to your life and cause you to stretch. Do not be afraid. I am with you.

August 11, 2005: Beloved, deal with old places of rejection. You will have subtle but powerful insights into insecurities that still provide grounds for fear and self-hatred. Don't let these opportunities pass you by, but rather take the time to evaluate, root out and tear down old strongholds. You will be able to see them from a fresh and clearer perspective than ever before. Apply the truth of My love and acceptance of you, and be free! Rise up in My authority and command that the enemy flee, says the Lord.

August 12, 2005: You have just moved to a new plateau, which will feel strange and unfamiliar. Be still and test this new territory before making any major decisions. Now is the time to establish yourself on this new spiritual ground until you become comfortable and confident with where you are. Your tendency is to become afraid of all that seems foreign to you and to try to turn back, but that is neither possible nor profitable. Just be patient and wait until you can see more clearly where you stand.

A Cry of the Spirit For Serious Men of God

Clo DiPilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

Below in blue is the direct word of the Lord I had for a man of God today.

All my previous comments are the pleadings of His Spirit through me that you would have "ears to hear".

The Spirit spoke to me that there are others in a place of needing this very same word, and that I am to send it forth as a general word, and those in need of the message would have "ears to hear" because of the anointing and spirit of conviction upon it.

This is a word for the remnant, for those who are called to fullness, and for those who are called to come forth into the complete measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, bearing His image, and His image alone.

This is the Word of the Lord for those who are willing to DECREASE that He might INCREASE!!

Some just don't care where they spiritually hang their hat as long as they don't end up burning in hell.

This word is not for you.

This word is for those who cannot bear missing God in His very best for their lives!!!

I know as the Lord gave it to me, I was shaken in my spirit not only for the man of God but for myself, as I also need this word to have my foundations right to move into what God has for me personally and in His purposes, also!!

If we do not have this necessary breakthrough, there are too many soulish counterfeits out there that are ready to move onto our turf, ready to mess us up spiritually for literally YEARS to come. Ready to cause us to miss God's very best.

You've had too many furnaces of affliction to miss God.

You've had too many times when you gave up the desires of your flesh to do the RIGHT THING to miss God now!!

You've had too many nights of agony, and tears, and pacing the floor, and laying on your face, and wrenching in agony in His presence to obey the hard word of the Lord to your soul to miss God now!!

Get before God, get before God, get before God, and incline your ear to hear what the Spirit of the Lord is saying through this Word.

Brother, I submit the following to you as the Word of the Lord for you:

If you do not break through to a spirit of strong willingness to move into a new level of dividing between soul and spirit in your own life as well as in the life of your ministry, you are going to miss the Lord in what He has for you. You will have something, but it will not be God's best.

If you miss God's best, you are going to be in an agony in your soul because no matter what others are thinking, nor what words of praise or flattery may come to you, you will know you've missed His best, and it will be unbearable for you to go through such a thing.

Others may be fooled into thinking it is all so wonderfully blessed and anointed, but you will KNOW it's below what the Lord has purposed for your life in all the years He has been speaking to you, and dealing with you.

If you are not willing to move into true wisdom and discernment, God is going to give it to someone else who is willing.

How can you be sure it will not be placed in the hands of someone with a harsh and vindictive spirit who wrongly uses the gifts of God rather than one such as yourself who moves in mercy and grace towards God's people? Haven't you seen many who are were anointed with gifts and callings, and yet corrupt and bankrupt in character?

Some who prevail in faith to receive the gifts of God never prevail in submitting to the dealings of God whereby the vessel is truly purged and made a vessel unto honor! Do you desire that the gift I've intend for your life to make you pure and clean and white and transparent and prepared for the fullness of My purposes in you and through you for the praise of My glory and the edification of My people fall to another?
Don't let it happen!!

So many years you have been submitting to My dealings in your life!! But there is yet a work to be done. Just a little more. Be encouraged in the Lord by the progress made, but there is just a little more!! Be willing now to step up to a new level in your wisdom and discernment so you can get past this period of transition and INTO the reality of My purposes in and through you for these end-times!!

Know that in the present hour of lying signs and wonders, you will need to first discern honestly and without giving into the cries of your flesh what's in your own spirit so you can be pure in order to uncover these things to My body! I am not a God who delights in embarrassing people because of their weaknesses and faults, or even their moral failures. But if My servants are not willing to honestly see and discern the content of their own souls, how will they ever have the wisdom to discern those things sent out of hell to fool the very elect of God? How can they ever lead My people in a plain path of righteousness?

Don't you realize that there are soulish counterfeits hatched in hell to fool the very elect of God? Don't you know that there are soul-ties being vomited by the buckets out of hell right into the hearts of men and women of God to cause them to succumb NOT to a foolish moral indiscretion, but simply to cause them to live in a lesser place than a pure sobriety before God?

The serious times are literally wailing into the heavenlies in an intercessory travail for the serious men of God to come forth who can lay judgment to the line, and righteousness to the plummet, and sweep away every lie wherein My people have sought a refuge for a soulish manifestation because the work of the true Spirit of God would demand a surrender that will bring them face to face with the Cross where they must make a decision to pick it up and carry it, or turn their face from it back to pretending they don't know how I am dealing with them, or what I am saying to them!

Don't let your portion fall to another because you have not gotten your breakthrough into a greater realm of understanding of what it means to truly flow in pure stream in a pure river void of all contaminants of the flesh and the soul that would muddy the waters of life!!

You absolutely MUST have a "breakthrough" about these matters. No excuses. No excuses. No excuses. I feel terrible to say "No excuses" to you as the Lord's servant, as if I think such a man of God as yourself would make up excuses!!

But the Spirit is telling me I must say that, and it may be because the enemy will try to set you up to miss God by GIVING you lots of excuses!! NO excuses, dearest servant of the Lord!!

It is time.

Love in Jesus,

Clo

A Covenant With Death

Bill Somers

> Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.
> Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: (Isaiah 28:14-15)

My earliest understanding of this passage was to relate it to the teaching on the Pre-Trib Rapture. This was based on the phrase: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us. The interpretation is that the overflowing scourge speaks of the tribulation judgments, and the speakers confidence that it shall not come unto us is based on the idea that we will be 'raptured' out, and thus escape these judgments. The people Jerusalem, speaks of the church, and the scornful men are the leadership. The four elements given as reasons are parallel expressions that speak of false teachings.

1. A covenant with death
2. An agreement with hell
3. A refuge of lies, and
4. A hiding place under falsehood.

Now no one actually says that they have made a covenant with death, etc., this is God's way of describing their teachings.

So it is because of the false teaching of the pre-trib rapture that the scornful men have confidence in escaping judgment. Even though Peter writes:

> For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (1 Peter 4:17)

Are we seeking to escape the judgments that must come on the house of God and also to escape the end time judgments that must come on the world?

My current understanding of this passage is that it has a much wider application. First it can apply just as well to those who do not teach the pre-trib rapture. Those who say in effect, that when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us because we are God's end time people and we will be protected through all this. This is also seeking to escape the judgments that must come on the house of God.
Second, this passage applies to the religious system in general. That is: the scornful men who rule by means of false teachings is a depiction of the religious system and a religious spirit in action.

And that the Religious system itself is a covenant with death.

Who are the scornful? Those who find fault with other ministries and denominations. That operate in a religious spirit thinking that they are right and that everyone else is wrong. Those who have no thought to maintain unity of the spirit, as Ephesians instructs us.

> Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. (Ephesians 4:3)

What about the scornful? In proverbs we read:

> A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth. (Proverbs 14:6)

This tells me that the scornful attitude is most likely to produce false teaching, being unable to find wisdom. Psalms tells us:

> Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. Psalm 1:1

Sitting in the seat speaks of passing judgment on others. This is the scornful man, always critical of others. The verse here tells us that this man is going to miss a blessing. What blessing? The blessing is mentioned in Psalm 133

> A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. (Psalms 133:1-3)

Now how can we characterize false teachings as a covenant with death?

If you claim to follow the guidance of the scriptures in all things, and your teaching 'lines up with the word', then you have made a covenant with death.

Does this sound pretty radical? Well the clue to this is right in the scriptures themselves. For the scriptures, that is, the law, is the instrument of death.

> Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
> But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: (2 Corinthians 3:6-7)

The letter killeth. It is the ministration of death. Depending strictly on the letter of the law then becomes your covenant with death.
If you are under the law, you are in a covenant with death.

> But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. (Galatians 5:18)
>
> Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. (John 16:13)

Without the spirit of truth to give you understanding of the word, then your own interpretations will be full of errors. The lies, errors and falsehoods are no less than doctrines of demons. That's why they are described as an agreement with hell.

Now do we find ourselves agreeing here, saying, that's right. That's what those religious types are like?

Or are we applying this to ourselves. Saying oh my, that's what we are like.

Romans warns us of this:

> Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
> And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
> And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
> An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
> Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? (Romans 2:17-21)

Are we the scornful ones, doing exactly what we accuse others of?

Luke warns us of this also:

> Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. (Luke 6:42)

It's the easiest thing of all for a Christian to see the speck in his brothers eye, but to pull it out is another matter.

Revelation warns us as well:

> Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked
> I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.
> As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. (Revelation 3:17-19)

How are we going to repent if we are unwilling to admit that we are the Laodiceans? Without faith, it is impossible to please God. Let's judge ourselves for all we like sheep have gone astray.

A City Under Siege And A Nation In The Balance

Chad Taylor

New Orleans is a hinge to the rest of America and our re-action to her will be a determining factor of our social and religious futures. It will also be a dividing line between who is sincerely standing in the gap and who is not. New Orleans will sift this nation like wheat and the judgment of it will begin in the House of God.

It will divide those who have a true prophetic heart and those who do not; the sheep will cry for compassion and begin to seek God for their own cities and streets, the goats will continue with business as usual fueling the machine of false hope and misled manifestations. Wooing the army into a slumber while the Captain of the Host is calling to the humble and courageous to engage the enemy and arrest our cities with His presence.

Many will be sifted in this time of unrest and unsettling and their motive will be laid bare. This current crisis will catapult the true church into the harvest fields with vengeance. A light will be seen over New Orleans in the coming days and kings will come to the brightness of its rising. A glory will be birthed from the chaos and on the anvil of tragedy a two-edges sword will be forged. On this sword is written: JUDGMENT AND JUSTICE.

A wave of judgment will begin to visit this nation vindicating the unborn and the murdered. Those that have prophesied "Peace, Peace" when there was no peace shall be found wanting and their cisterns broken. They will be bankrupt but spared. Many terrorist cells imbedded in America will be uncovered and to our dismay so will their connections to religious institutions and church bodies. I am taking the wool off the eyes of this nation and exposing the wolves in sheep's clothing says the Lord. Watch this and be amazed.

I am removing the tables of the money changers and the robbers that have paraded as prophets but are not. Apostles falsely so called that have bred a movement out of false pretense and pride will be uncovered and undone. The shepherds that have abandoned my flock and left them lying in the streets un-fed and un-covered will pass under my Shepherd's rod this year and I will prove their hearts if they are for Me or against Me. I will leave them to their own devices and it will be to their demise.

The heart of Jeremiah will be released and My prophets will speak the true word of the Lord. They will not continue to succumb to the will of man and the desire of the people. They will stand in the gates of the city with a two-edged sword discerning the intents of the heart. They will cry "GRACE GRACE" to this mountain of injustice that faces us. Woe be to them if they preach not my word for necessity has been laid upon them in this hour.

I am sounding the alarm in My holy mountain and I am calling a solemn assembly. Take away from Me the sound of your songs and the sounds that you have invented, but let judgment run down as waters and righteousness as a mighty stream. Plead the cause of the fatherless and judge the case for the widow and orphan in affliction. Open up your storehouses and release that which is mine that you have re-possessed. I will account for every jot and tittle in this time of sifting and require it at your hand. For this is a nation in the balances and the hour of judgment in My house has begun.

Now watch and wonder at what is about to happen says the Lord. This place that you call New Orleans will be made NEW and I will restore what has been devoured. From this city under siege will come forth an army from the North, South, East and West that will be moved by compassion to heal the leper. I will remove the political obstacles that are a stumbling block to My will and set on course a revival. It will shake the foundation of what is called church and the foundations will be discovered. Stand your ground O ye saints for the bell of justice will now toll.

Two principalities have fallen and the heavens are in the throes of violence. My people will occupy and I will come to judge and make war. I am usurping a ancient spirit that has abided in the South and the gates of justice are swinging wide. I am breaking the "Bible Belt" and replacing it with the Belt of Truth equipping the saints for ministry. This city under siege will see a great light the glory of the Lord will arise.

PRAY FOR CONSUMING FIRE AND OUR ENDEAVOR TO GO

I have received a mandate from the Lord to travel the gulf coast into and as far as we can go into Biloxi, MS and New Orleans, LA. You have to see this from our view, we are only 5 hours from Biloxi and 6 hours from New Orleans where I sit and type this tonight. This is no coincidence that we have dug the trenches and held our ground for such a time as this. We need your agreement and prayers for this right now.

Our most urgent need is a very reliable vehicle to make this journey. Our current vehicles are not equipped for this challenge. I am not sure how we are going to do this but we are open to whatever avenue the Lord provides a rental car may even be an alternative. If you have a vehicle you could donate for this even temporarily please make contact with us right away. It would have to be a SUV and able to accommodate at least 5 people. If you have any specific message or prayers to be prayed as we go to the very borders of this disaster please send them to us now. We simply desire to cry "GRACE GRACE" to this mountain...

If you can help us in any way go to the link provided below and act now and/or email me at chadtaylor@consumingfire.com . Many of you have asked yourself what you could possibly do, send us! We will be your ambassadors of prayer and go prophecy His heart of restoration to this rended land. Best case scenario would be to pull a small trailer as well with water and some basic supplies to those that we may meet on the way. Please agree with us as we begin to prepare today.

Current Link for New Orleans/Biloxi trip: www.consumingfire.com/operationrescue.htm
Please visit now and help us make this critical trip. We expect many people on this list from other nations that have a urgent desire to help, please don't hesitate we will take your love personally to this region. Visit the link now: www.consumingfire.com/operationrescue.htm

A Crucial Word for California

Patricia King

On the issue of California, when I was at the National Religious Broadcasters convention this February, we stayed in Anaheim and I ministered in L.A. For days I was vexed in my spirit. I kept thinking of Lot and how the Bible said his righteous heart was daily vexed because of living in the midst of unprincipled men.
Everywhere I looked, I saw gross immorality, lust, and greed. I was filled with remorse and even felt sick to my stomach.

One night, I woke up in the middle of the night and I felt that judgment was about to come to southern California.
I had thoughts like, "If God doesn't settle the issues here, He will need to apologize to Sodom and Gomorrah." I received a word from the Lord regarding some coming judgments on the land -- devastations.

I began to think about the judgments of God and how they are so loving and full of mercy.
If He shows kindness, blessing, and goodness to His people or a region and there is no turning from wicked ways, then He must judge (in order to keep us safe). David said, before I was afflicted, I went astray. If judgment does not come, then we are left to exponential levels of evil -- the little leaven, leavens the lump.

The State has promoted immorality, perversion, lust, idol worship, and greed. The masses are being poisoned through what has been inspired and birthed in Hollywood and exported to the nations of the world.

I saw weight scales. California was being weighed in the balance and was found wanting. More prayer is needed . . . but not just ordinary prayer . . . the kind of prayer found in II Chronicles 7:14:
"If My people, who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sins and will heal their land."
There is a great potential for California to lead in a moral revival, but this needs to be birthed. Many are saying, "As California goes, so goes the nation." At this point, my prayer would be, "Lord, let not this be at this time." I would not want to see the USA go as California goes.

There is a remnant -- only the Lord knows, of course, just how large this "remnant is" -- of His faithful followers in the state of California -- those who have not bowed their knee to Baal, those who have not compromised or sold out on moral values and godly principles, those who have stood in the gap faithfully. These ones are standing on the wall and will not keep silent until righteousness is established. God is wanting more faithful believers to stand for His purposes and to birth revival. He is wanting His church to rise with one voice to rightly represent His heart.

A Prophetic Word For California

"O California, you who I created to manifest the glory of My Son, have I not blessed and endowed you with great resource and wealth? Have I not filled you with gold and oil and wine? Have I not been good to you? Have I not given you a godly spiritual heritage? Look to the days gone by and see the foundations that were laid by Seymour, Semple McPherson and others.

"Why then have you turned from Me and followed your own ways -- ways of perversion, lust, and greed? Why have you become a voice for evil devices and desires? Why are you contending for perverted ways? Why have you embraced influences from the East, birthing and glorifying moves of demonic worship?

"Why have you brought the mixtures of these things into My church? Why, in your pride, are you standing as one who thinks your ways have been found pleasant in My sight? Why do you think you will stand forever as one who will continue to set ungodly trends? Why do you say all is well when all is not well with you? Why do you say there is peace when there is no peace?

"Turn from your wicked ways, California. I have sent watchmen on your walls who cry out to Me day and night. I have a people who have not bowed their knees to Baal, who have embraced My righteous ways. I have raised up a people who are standing in the gap for you . . . a people of true passion for true holiness. These are My righteous ones in the land.

"You, California, are being weighed in the balance and are found wanting at this time. I am going to give you a little more time to repent. I will strengthen those who are standing on the wall; I will send you warnings from many prophets and in diverse ways. I will give you signs of My love and faithfulness. I will also give you signs of my impending judgment. Take heed to these things. If you do not repent as a result of My kindness, then repent as a result of My warnings.

"If you do not repent, I must bring judgment in order to save you and in order to save the land and the nations. Your sins have influenced the masses and have destroyed families, marriages, and lives. You have promoted wickedness and resisted righteousness. My judgments will be an act of kindness, you will understand this.

"A choice is before you -- blessing or curse. A great moral revival is knocking at your door. Will you open that door? A door of judgment also awaits you. If you will turn, then judgment will not come -- it will not need to.

"The time is critical. Choose this day whom you will serve, California. Weep and wail in My presence. Cleanse your hands and purify your hearts. Return to Me and see if I will not pour out a blessing upon you -- a blessing that will influence the nations -- a greater blessing than any other you have experienced in all your history.

"I have sent those who have prophesied your potential. Rise up to it. Rise up to it."
"If My people, who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sins and will heal their land (II Chronicles 7:14)."

Patricia King
Extreme Prophetic
www.extremeprophetic.com
patricia@extremeprophetic.com

A Decree For The Gulf Coast And Beyond!

Undrai & Bridget Fizer

September 11, 2005

The storm-ravaged regions of the Gulf Coast are without form and void, but the Spirit of God is moving upon the face of the waters, hovering above the face of the Deep. He is positioning Himself to open His mouth and decree, "Let there be...."

A new creation is being prepared before our very eyes. It is a significance from God, that is causing many to fear, as well as, stand in awe. Something is being done in a time in which many are not prepared to see. At times, the prophetic decree, when fully manifested, will cause the hearts of even the prophets who declared it to become in awe.

Manifestation from the Spirit, which is seen from one's own natural eyes, looks totally different from manifestation that is seen from the eyes of the Spirit. Your Spirit has seen things that your natural eyes have yet to see. Your Spirit is progressing in a rapid pace--a pace that your natural composition has yet to match. You are seeing with your eyes, things that your Spirit has already been privy too.

It is now time to refocus our attention to the manifestation of the plans of God. We must not allow our attention and energy to be pulled into the slow pace of the natural senses and the cultural. What our natural eyes are witnessing pales in comparison to what our Spiritual eyes are discerning. Truths that are being decreed from the belly of the Spirit, looks like lies through the eyes of the natural.

The Father is seeking vessels, as well as, stirring the Inner Man, to see through the eyes of the Kingdom. It is time to position ourselves to speak to the deep and decree to the waste places of the South: LET THERE BE LIGHT! LET THERE BE LIFE!

NOTE: Indeed, the Father of Life has used an awesome, purifying wind to release waters that were already present, to initiate a total cleansing of a city. A presence that was already residing in the city is the reason for the flooding and cleansing of the city. The already present waters were the catalyst that began the beginning of a new process!

The Time is Upon Us

We must discern and guard ourselves against the pull of political and cultural distraction. We must focus our Kingdom energy to the regions, cities, and lives that need to be re-made, re-named, and re-stored! The time is upon us when we must discover the courage to speak forth the new name of the South that was hidden in Christ, even before the foundations of the world.

This name will not be found in the history books of the natural minded, and neither will it be found in the government of the earth. But this name is hidden within the confines of the Spirit. The Spirit is seeking out those who will have the courage to articulate the law from the high places, into a relevant language and decree, one that will be given to the waste places.

Those who are seeing with the eyes of God, must become intimate with the barrenness of these newly formed waste lands and release within it a prophetic seed; one that will revitalize the land, giving it power to house the Spirit of God and a new Kingdom Atmosphere. Those with the eyes of God will be empowered to make this south region pregnant with the pre-ordained purposes of God. It is not impossible. The regions simply await the vessels that possess the mouth and voice of God.

This sudden shifting that has come to the nation, clothed with garments that appeared catastrophic, is also emulating the shifting that is now occurring within the hearts of many who have the eyes of God. This very shaking that is seen by many on the news everyday represents the very shaking that is presently going on within the hearts of the decreers who reside in the earth.

Decreers do not have time to be distracted by race, culture, or battles between ethnic groups within the country or out of this country. Jesus has already said that nations would rise against nations, that a subtle wedge would create a schism within the natural parameters of culture and social groups. However, this would only thrive in the hearts of those who have yet to see, with full maturity, through the eyes of God.' God's optical awareness is very much different than the optical awareness of the natural mind.

NOTE: We will not prophesy from the motivations of ethnic conflict, but will prophesy from the intentions and purposes of God, which in turn, will crush the influence that results from ethnic conflict.

Lives Have Been Simply and Tragically Displaced

Decreers of the Spirit of God are being empowered to give Rhema in the form of tangible bread, which will be able to empower lives which are caught in the midst of this Incredible transition. It will give them the ability and capacity to see what God is seeing, as well as, the strength to endure the process that will reveal the new transformation.

Many who are affected by this shift have no way of seeing or discerning the reconstruction of the atmosphere of God in the region. For many, their lives have been simply and tragically displaced, without their permission. Hearts are broken, and minds are confused. Many are in a place of extreme doubt, fear, and discouragement. Others, who were affected, had nothing to begin with. So, this sudden movement is a new thing for them. They had nothing, even before they lost everything!

So, now we see the Spirit raising Himself over the land and searching the unlimited wells of the prophetic heart. He is digging for a word that's been kept hidden, destined to be revealed for this time and this place. And from this word that's been set aside, it will soon serve as the catalyst that will stir the very winds of a tangible manifestation of the South regions.

And beyond...

by Undrai & Bridget Fizer Undrai & Bridget Fizer International www.fizer.org
undraifizer@sbcglobal.net

The Writings of DOMINION are an Internet Resource of Undrai & Bridget Fizer International.

Carriers of the Unusual and the Extraordinary!"
Undrai Fizer

Unusual processes are prescribed by God 'for unusual anointings, callings, and purposes. The 'unusual is the creator of the unusual.' It is impossible for 'the normal' to produce the Significant0 and the Unusual in God.
For some, you are facing transitions, situations, and circumstances, that cannot be fathomed by the human mind. The twists and turns of life that you are facing, would probably cause another's head to spin in unbelief. But for what you were born to accomplish in this generation, the 'unusual, as well as the unexplainable, is the necessary ingredient from God that will cause you to do the unexplainable.'

Truth from God, should 'own you.' When you are 'owned by Truth, it reserves the right to place you, position you, and mature you, to Itself.' The Truth uses your life 'to pleasure Himself with.' God finds pleasure in you 'as a result of His pleasure with you.'

When you are owned by the Owner, you no longer 'own' your situations. Your Owner does. My children have never had a situation. Bridget and I 'own their situations.' This is why the children can play 'when the parents are figuring out where to get the money to pay the mortgage.' The children open no letters to pay anything. They simply enjoy life. They may despise discipline, but life, they enjoy.

When you are Owned by God, you are to enjoy the Life He has given. When you face the unexplainable, you must realize that you are possessing the Unexplainable. Your assignment in life cannot be developed by any other person. Incredible Burden is the driving force behind Incredible Glory.

Paul carried an 'unusual anointing as well as possessed an unusual life.' Unusual miracles were wrought from his hands, Acts 19:11-12. Peter even had to explain to the church 'that Paul would say things that were hard to understand!' He spoke of Paul writing from 'the wisdom that God gave, or assigned, to him, II Peter 3:15-16. Possessors of extraordinary Assignments 'will naturally do unusual things that may be hard to understand.' But just because it's hard to 'comprehend, does not mean that it is not the Now Word and Wisdom of God!' Unusual, to God, does not carry the same humanistic perspective of the world.

Unusual, in God's Mind, is the significantly extra-ordinary. It is an ability, insight, and creative wisdom of the Eternal, activated by 'unusual process, defining moments, and divine encounters.' Every ear is marked for a Divine Encounter. It's just that everyone 'may choose not to discern that Moment.'

God will use the unusual 'to birth the unusual from within you.' He will use the unexplainable to birth the unexplainable from within you.' God is a God of Purpose. He never does anything without a Purpose for it. The Father does not waste any moments, or any people. God truly knows the value of Time, Process, and Change.

When there is no understanding of the processes of Purpose, one will simply call these unexplainable 'events' that befall them, life. Many will also say, 'that these things happen for a reason' without even searching to see what 'the Reason' actually is. Many 'teeter' on the brink of Divine Discovery 'without Maximizing the Moments that are truly leading them to an Incredible Life with God!'

When Destiny becomes confined 'to the religious perspective,' the Hunger to move beyond the norm, becomes an irrelevant thing. Living beyond the common becomes considered 'surreal, far fetched, and out there!' This is because religious thinking has 'quenched the Hunger for Kingdomic Discoveries in God.'

Those who possess 'an unusual, but Divine Impartation of God, are never satisfied with the norm, the mundane, or the Same.' They hear 'what others are not looking to hear.' They see 'what others didn't know was there for the Seeing.'

But the Unusual isn't about anybody else, nor does it concern another's belief in you. The Unusual is about the one 'who is the beneficiary of these unexplainable events of God, and the significance of their response concerning them.;

A Donkey Like Ministry

Cheree Bartlett

When one thinks of a donkey glamorous images of strength and beauty hardly comes to mind. In fact donkey or asses as they were commonly known live in the shadow of their more heralded kin horses. They are not prized like Arabians for their beauty, strength and selective breeding. They are not bred for races or typically depicted in ancient battles. It is interesting to note that the ancient Egyptians who were known for portraying all sorts of animals in their religious iconography virtually ignore the donkey as “they are not symbols of high status and therefore not so often depicted in art.” www.digitalegypt.ucl.ac.uk

Yet the donkey is mentioned numerous times in the bible some just as listings and others as parts of memorable stories. For example, the story of Balaam and his talking ass is pretty well known for most bible acolytes and then there is the account of Samson taking the fresh jawbone of a donkey and performing the superman like act of killing a thousand philistine men. The genius of God is that there are no accidental usages of people, places or things. In essence God used the body party of a most common and disregarded animal to slay the enemies of Israel. How much more can there be said about an animal whose primary function for men has been as beast of burden. In the beast of burden category, it’s not a stretch to say the donkey is the true plebian of the group.

However, there is another well known account in which a donkey makes an appearance in the bible. Matthew 21:1-10 is titled the triumphal entry. It is the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. He tells two of his disciples “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me.” This brings me to my point on the discussion of donkeys. I had the occasion to fellowship with an extremely small ministry in Staten Island New York. It was unlike any ministry I had been in not due only to its small size, but the nature of the fellowship. It sits on a non-descript street and is housed in a basically unattractive façade. If you looked at it walking along you would think nothing of significance went on there. But if you had the occasion to really fellowship and listen to the story of their existence you would find a jewel in a donkey of a ministry. I come from Houston, Texas where at least several well known huge ministries are located and where you can find huge churches in every part of the city and where nice buildings abound. One church I know has fountains in front and a beautiful aquarium on the inside another has a gym cafeteria, bookstore etc. and the contrast was never more apparent than when I came home from New York. I had left these people who were to me spiritually rich if not materially so and I never failed to be amazed by this paradox. If one is going to make a triumphal entry it seems that one would do it on a beautiful stallion outfitted with all the kingly regalia not on a common beast of burden. Yet riding a donkey is how the Lord Jesus chose to make his entry. The Staten Island church reminded me of a donkey and once again the genius of God. As burden bearers the donkey and colt carried the most precious burden of all-that of the Lord himself. The little fellowship that anyone with a glance could disregard sought to be donkeys and carry the burden of the Lord himself and not conform themselves to a traditional and organized church standard which could have put them in the company of stallion ministries with all the glitz and shine. It is said of the donkey, “the donkey is more intelligent than the horse, but its instincts give it a different behavior pattern that is often mistaken for stubbornness. A frightened donkey won’t, for example, bolt in panic like a horse will. The donkey is instead more likely to stop and carefully study the situation before determining the best course of action.” www.Ruralheritage.com. In these times which are in church vernacular described as end-time or end of age, could it be that the Lord will again be looking for a church who will carry his burden as opposed to their own. Will bigness, glamour and glitz be automatically assumed as the vehicle in which the Lord is riding upon to once again make his entrance? I believe that being a donkey ministry is not a function of size, but of heart. It’s about being receptive to the Lord’s heart and perhaps taking actions that will require a ministry to be donkey like-that is possibly unheralded and common looking but still somehow reflecting the genius and glory of God.

Cheree Bartlett
Cnbartlett11@yahoo.com

A Dream Of America

James Robey

June 13, 2005

Last night I had a powerful dream about America. I dreamed that I saw all of the real estate of the United States. I was hovering above the landscape of this nation. I saw the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean. However, everywhere I looked from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts of the United States, the land was black and charred and smoke was rising up in the air.

All I remember saying was, "Oh No," But it was strange, because I knew in my dream that it was a dream, and that the Lord was showing me something.

And the Lord said to me specifically, "What you see will happen in October."

That was it, and the dream ended. The frustrating thing for me was, what year was He talking about? And was the Lord saying that He would destroy the whole country by fire? I don't know!

I speak the whole truth by the great Name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May the Holy Spirit bear you witness of this.

To God be all the Glory, Power & Dominion forever & ever, Amen.

All day I've been reflecting on the dream that I had last night. I'm convinced more than ever that the Lord has determined something very destructive against this nation, for this coming October. I just know that I know, that I know, that I know. Perhaps it could be Seattle, Washington, I'm not sure. I can only speak what the Lord says. One thing I know for sure, "This October, the Lord God Almighty has determined destruction against the United States. He is warning us so that we will be prepared for it."

God clearly spoke to me in my dream, that what I saw in my dream would occur in October. I don't believe that the Lord plays games with us.

Brother Jim in Baltimore, MD.

A Divine Shift In The Spiritual Realm

Chuck Smith

(chuckandtrista@email.com)

One evening during a recent service I saw a picture that I believe is applicable to the entire body of Christ.

The Lord showed me a vision of the earth, and on the North, East, South, West regions I saw four angels posted. Each angel was holding a corner of a quilt that covered the entire earth.

Suddenly the angels all changed places, they changed assignments and moved from the spot they were to take on a new watch. The angel assigned to the North moved to East, the East to the South and so on. The Lord made me to know that there is coming a shifting of the celestial guard that would effect the entire world and church as we know it.

I was made aware that just as these were governing angels set over the earth, when they shifted position, it would affect earthly Government, specifically Church government. This is going to have its greatest impact on the Apostolic and Prophetic ministries of the body of Christ. I saw that this would effect these ministries in 4 specific ways.

1. Apostles and Prophets would relocate.

I believe we are coming on an hour of re-location and re-assignment. God is going to shake things up in the body of Christ for a number of diverse reasons, and even change location for many Apostolic and Prophetic ministries.

We mustn’t become alarmed. God has a specific reason if He is choosing to move you. It will have little to do with you, and everything to do with Gods desire to penetrate the World with the Gospel of Christ.

This will be an exciting time, but a time where the people of God must become increasing assured of the details and location of their calling.

2. Ministries that are to remain where they are at, will have a misguided desire to move.

With this picture I also knew that there would be well-meaning Apostles and Prophets who would sense this supernatural shift and become misguided, having a sense that they were being moved by the Lord when really it was His specific will for them to stay. There will be a greater need for a personal discernment of ones individual spiritual assignment than ever before.

I saw many governmental gifts who were called to stay in a region tempted to move and relocate because of this shift, desiring to respond to the changing spiritual atmosphere. For the first group this will feel like a freeing, liberating move, for others it may even seem restricting, but we must be faithful to the Lord and to the territory He has assigned us to.

3. Ministries will find themselves moving into new realms.

This is just going to be great. There is a newness coming to God's ministries that will add a fresh fire to His people. Ministries that have functioned in a certain dimension or purpose for years or even decades will suddenly be visited with new grace, with a new enablement.

Just as some Apostles and Prophets will relocate physically, others will relocate into new spiritual territories, functioning in graces that may have been up to this time somewhat foreign to them. God is going to breathe a fresh wind into ministries.

There is going to be a restoration of aged ministers. God is showing me that 5 fold ministers that have gotten ready to "retire" are going to catch a "second wind" with this shift. They are going to find their destiny even late in life. And the Lord is telling me that He is going to cause aged ministries to "go out with a bang", touching many more lives in the last years of there ministry than they ever have before.

It is due to this second wind, new grace that is given to restore the ministries of Christ to Himself and His purposes. I see older women, some never in their lives thinking of entering the ministry, answering a call to ministry during the second wind that accompanies the spiritual shifting.

4. A Greater need for Horizontal Apostolic Ministry.

In the vision the Lord pointed out to me that the different segments of the quilt were the various streams and networks of the Church, and He showed me the importance of the thread holding those segments of the quilt together. He made me aware that the thread was what has been referred to by Peter Wagner as horizontal Apostolic ministry.

Just as the Apostle James was graced to bring other Apostles together to make a major decision for the Church, there will be special grace on the lives of many Apostolic ministries to bring a strong unity to major networks and Apostolic groups.

This will be needed to a greater degree with shifting. If the quilt is not strong and it comes under the heavy spiritual pressure that this change will bring there is a danger of it not holding, and it will lack the unity Christ desires.

There is a call to pray for this type of Apostolic ministry to find its place, and if you are called to this realm of the Apostolic, this is a season to operate in this capacity with a boldness like never before.

The governmental shift in the heavenlies that is about to take place is for the purpose of giving acceleration to Apostolic/Prophetic establishing. It is timely and will produce a great amount of spiritual activity. There is going to be increase in every possible way, and the increase is going to be triggered by an increase in Apostolic grace.

God does what He does always for a purpose, and His purpose here is for global harvest. Prepare for change!! Change represents life and growth. And as we individually embrace change in our own lives and ministries, we will see momentum given to the Church so that it may impact the earth mightily in this generation

Advance Take Possession

Brenda Dowdin

Dec 6, 2005

Beloveds:

Its time to ADVANCE! Take POSSESSION! CONTEND VIOLENTLY! Watch GOD BREAKTHROUGH!

It time to contend violently, for surely we can take the land! We are not of the spies who went in with Joshua and saw the giants, but we are of those who saw the "promise", who heard the Father say, YOU CAN DO THIS with MY leading! WE are of those who serve the God of the "Breakthrough Anointing". We are to dis-possess the enemy through violent prayer and fasting, so that the Lord can possess the global territory. We are the air-force in prayer. Your words are weighty in the spirit....they move things about in the spirit! They dis-possess so HE can possess. Of course He can do this on His own, He chooses to use us and be apart of the joy of seeing HIS answered prayers!

Strongholds are coming down. For many have been captured in these strongholds, "mindsets" that I am breaking with my spirit. For a season I've allowed this to forge in you the precious gems and treasures of my making. What has been forged in darkness will be reviled very soon in my brilliant light. I am about to display my best jewels in this season! They will shine with my brilliance and glory. They are the hidden ones, the ones that have been over looked. I have allowed this, and now I uncover that which has been hidden in me. Watch my glory shine!

My scepter is extended to you. If you will take to the air-ways I will give you the land! Its time to step up your prayers. This is the time of the horse and the rider. It is a time of war...you are on the offensive because you are with me! We will possess together. I am on the horse with you and we will move together in unity. This is a time to war in great joy and deliverance for the things of God! This next year will be a year of great abundance and joy for you!

I would have given up hope if I had not believed I would see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! Look for the good Beloveds you will find it in the hidden treasures I am about to give you in abundance....

Father, we contend violently for the air-ways over our land. We advance into the new levels you desire for us, we take possession of the unseen....the promises you have given each of us. We declare and decree that we will possess breakthrough in the next 12 months. That we are a promise possessing, God advancing, beach head breaking army, who hears you, obeys you, and sees one awesome breakthrough after another! Lord let us advance in you and advance for your Kingdom purposes!

Lovingly in Him,
Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

Discouragement
Brenda Dowdin

Oct 20, 2005

My Beloveds:

Each of you have had seasons in life where you've felt these things: Discouragement, Rejection, Disappointments and Desertion! They have been tools of the evil one, but this day I am bringing my strategies to you. Jere 33:3. You will overcome each one....I am going to partner with you. I've allowed these things for a short season just to bring you in to this new place. I am going to partner with you like you've never seen before. I am going to work so miraculously in your lives as we partner together. I want you to totally trust in me (believing with faith) with all your heart and understanding. Man will always let you down, but I will not. As you look to me for every situation that arises you will see my hand and feel my heart in all I am about to do through you and in you.

You've been in the desert a long time, and now I lead you out and in to the times of refreshing for a long cool drink of my sweet presence.

As I do this new thing in you all the outward hindrances will melt away like wax. This season will be full of joy and my Shalom will be upon you and your family...

"Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength:" Isa 26:4

Lovingly in Him, Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

An End To An Era

Stephen Hanson

(This is a word that is rather difficult to send out. Please note that a time frame is not mentioned here. I leave these things in God's hands. While I do believe that prophecy is "conditional", I also know that some things are inevitable and that they will come to pass.)

June 29, 2005

"Four things on earth are small, yet they are extremely wise: Ants are creatures of little strength, yet they store up their food in the summer; coneys are creatures of little power, yet they make their home in the crags; locusts have no king, yet they advance together in ranks; a lizard can be caught with the hand, yet it is found in kings' palaces." Prov. 30:24-28

"Go to the ant, you sluggard; consider its ways and be wise! It has no commander, no overseer or ruler, yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest." Prov. 6: 6-7

"I tell you that the time is coming very soon where I am calling my people into the hidden chambers of intimacy with Me. For dangerous days are ahead. Some are called to prepare for these days in many different ways. I have called some to set aside provisions for that day. Others have been called to warn the people about these things. The task at hand will be to be made ready for the onslaught that comes. These things are not said to create fear in your hearts, but they are spoken so that you would be made ready for them. I will take care of my own, but in nature you even see how squirrels prepare for Winter. They collect food for the cold months that lie ahead. If nature knows these things then why shouldn't man? "

"I tell you that the era of the Bush campaign will be coming to an end. There are difficult days ahead for the White House. There are plans and strategies being made that would attempt to get him out of office. Who is it that wars against each other? I tell you that there are nations that are strategizing about these things. But I tell you that there are also people in high places that want him out. These things will be unveiled and these things will soon come to the forefront. "

Stephen Hanson

http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth
tseyigai@yahoo.com
HCR 79 3081
Cuba, NM 87013
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth/PayPalform.html (for donations)

The Battle Rages On For The World And Its Dominion

Stephen Hanson

July 2, 2005

10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. 11 Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. 12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Eph. 6

“My warriors wait for the battle; they wait for what the war will bring. I have trained each and every one of you for a specific battle that you are to face. Know that the circumstances that you have been going through have been preparing you for future things. Many of the battles that you have already faced, while they have been difficult, are making you stronger and more war-ready for what lies ahead. For there are battles both in the spiritual plane and the physical as well. You don’t see all the battles that I have been fighting for you. You don’t see how my warring angels are holding back the dark angels around you. For the battle rages on for the world and those who live in it. But the time will come when that ancient serpent will be thrown down forever. I tell you that there have been certain warring angels who have been amidst the battles in other lands throughout the world in which you live. For dark forces have been at work. “

The Lord showed me a globe of our world spinning around and as it spun, then one side of the globe was darkened. It seemed to be shrouded in darkness, and then I saw the moon pass as if the night was causing this section of the globe to be darkened. Then in darkness around me, I saw links of chains that were weaving back and forth, almost like a snake in the midst of the darkness.

“I tell you that dark forces have been at work in parts of China and North Korea and Russia. They have been working their schemes to cause those in high places to build up their arsenals. For there is a league and an underground effort that is going on. The battle rages on for the world and its dominion. “

Stephen Hanson
tseyigai@yahoo.com
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth

An (((Earthquake))) in Heaven

Roy Resh

For thus says the LORD of hosts; Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea, and dry lands… The glory of this latter Temple shall be greater than the former;… [Hag 2:6, 9; See also Heb 12:25-29]

What is the purpose of shaking heaven and earth? To set things in order so that a Holy Temple more glorious than Solomon's could be built. We know that the second physical Temple was not more glorious than Solomon's in truth, much of it was built with pagan funding and efforts. So the latter Temple must still remain to be built. Does this mean that a more glorious physical Temple has yet to be constructed on the mount in Jerusalem? No, for the Holy Temple is built of living stones.

When the latter Holy Temple, with no stone upon another [no leadership standing atop a human pyramid] is completed on earth, it will be an image of the Temple that Jesus has already prepared in Heaven. Heaven was already shaken and the devil and his cohorts were defeated, so that God's will is now done in the Heavenly Temple [home for the elect].
The earthly Holy Temple is under construction. Its living stones are being hewn according to their places, and are being fitted together by the Master Builder. The earthly Temple work is accompanied by much shaking, the spiritual works needed to set all things in order. As the finishing touches are put on, the shaking gets increasingly violent and pronounced precursors of these effects are now seen throughout the natural earth and among the spiritual people.

Is it time for you, yourselves, to dwell in paneled houses, and this Temple to lie in ruins? [Hag1:4 See complete text of Hag:1:1-11]
For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me the fountain of living waters, and hewn themselves cisterns broken cisterns that can hold no water. [Jer 2:13; See complete text of Jer 2:9-13]

As in Haggai's day, today God's people are busy building their own paneled Temples [church buildings and congregations]. Many work very hard at constructing new bodies of Christ, but the eternal results are often very meager or even non-existent. That's because they have forsaken the fountain of living waters and have hewn out their own institutions which operate in the power of the soul. Because they have built according to their own desires, the true Holy Temple, built from human spirits, lies in ruins.

Come, and let us return to the LORD: for He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up. After two days He will revive us: On the third day He will raise us up. That we may live in his sight. Let us know. Let us pursue the knowledge of the Lord. His going forth is established as the morning. He will come unto us like the rain. Like the latter and the former rain to the earth. [Hosea 6:1-3]

Yes, the two days (2000 years) when all believers have been torn and stricken are past. Jesus will now bind us up. He will heal us. Jesus will make us suitable to live with Him as His Holy Bride, as His Holy Temple. All that we have to do is “Return to the Lord” and seek His face, seek His knowledge with loving, pure hearts. Truth will come to us like rain. He will bring floods of living water as if the spring planting and fall harvest rains came at the same time.

Do not be moved by human sympathy or by the good desires of your flesh. These are sin, and they will bring you to disaster. Find the places where there are open heavens, and move within them. Move in Holy Spirit power and you will experience the miracles that bring about healing and deliverance wherever God has torn and stricken with the earthquakes of life. Enter divine Grace and leave the comforts of the Law behind.

Today is the day of salvation. As He calls you, band together and work with those who have a heart to serve Him. Be led by Holy Spirit guidance, not by humans. Leave old things behind as you move forward in Him. Truth is Jesus Christ, and only Truth builds the Holy Temple. Seek Truth while He may be found… There is no more time left to build according to man’s desires, for all human works are about to be destroyed in the great ((earthquake)).

We are called to build according to {God’s] plan, according to divine order, a Temple which will last forever. God’s plan is a new thing, something never before heard of in the annals of man. Each part of the latter Temple will be built according to His will for the specific locality. God’s glory will surely soon fill the whole earth!! [Num 14:21]

Daniel Chapter 7

Brother Teddy Lishan Desta performed an astute analysis of this chapter, as published on www.etpv.org Jan 3, 05. This perceptive study suggests that the four beasts that Daniel describes are contemporaneous, not merely sequential as is commonly accepted. I am suggesting that the beasts are actually ideologies, as follows in order of the beast’s description: 1) Christian dominated Free Western World; 2) The Communist-dominated Orient/Russia Slave States; 3) Islam-dominated man-centered Value Systems; and 4) The Anti-Christ Religious/Economic Devil-Riding Prostitute with the Vatican as her Head (Mystery Babylon).

A Fresh Breath From Heaven
Mary Lindow

A Prophetic Insight For 2005
“A Fresh Breath From Heaven -The Kneeling, Dealing, Healing, Zone”

As I was preparing my notes and was in prayer getting ready to minister at a gathering out of town, the Lord impressed me that He is wanting us to designate a place of immunity or a place of Divine safety in our places of prayer and worship called; “THE KNEELING, DEALING, HEALING ZONE.”

This is going to be a place where as the Lord speaks or sings anything that impacts your spirit man and feels as if it was directly the Lord speaking or “breathing new life into you”, you are to feel free to enter this Zone.

THIS IS A PLACE WHERE THERE WILL BE NO JUDGMENT, NO PRESSURE, AND NO FEAR. It is a place where you can do business with the Spirit of God as He reveals His heart in certain matters to you.

AS HE DRAWS YOU IN HUMILITY (kneeling or bowing low in your flesh) and as He deals with you or instructs you or confirms to you things He needs to. which leads to healing in much needed areas of our lives. This is a place of being hidden under the Shadow of the Lord’s wing...a place of immunity for us. Use it freely.

Once you become aware that the main purpose that you are here for is... to know God, most of life's problems fall into place of their own accord.~ J.I. Packer

Let’s read Deuteronomy 11 vs11-13

> The land that you are to take possession of, is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks rain from heaven.
>
> It is a land the lord your god cares for. The eyes of the lord your god are continually on it from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.
>
> So if you faithfully obey the commands i am instructed to give you today-to love the lord your god and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul then he will send rain on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains, so that you may gather in your new grain, your new wine and your new oil.

I CANNOT GET AWAY FROM THE A PROPHETIC WORD A FEW MONTHS BACK THAT THE LORD MINISTERED TO ME.
The Lord had said, “I am brooding over a New Place in the Spirit...much like in Genesis. A New Beginning of something. I am separating land mass and water, in a spiritual sense and I am creating a place where my Hidden Ones will emerge and begin to re establish my Glory in the Earth.”

MY SPIRIT SENSES DEEPLY THAT THE VOID IS STILL THERE AND GOD IS STILL FORMING SOMETHING. I would never want to preempt or attempt to speed up the process by moving into something that God is still forming.

PERSONALLY...I SENSE A BUILDING EXCITEMENT AS THIS NEW YEAR BEGINS. There will be doors opened that have seemed to be cemented shut for decades. As they open...the way to use what is behind them will have been well prepared for in the prayer closets and brokenness of the faithful.

I KNOW PROPHETICALLY, THAT THESE DOORS ARE THE ONES WE HAVE BEEN WAITING TO HAVE OPEN. The timing of God has established a Divine Unlocking System for the doors of this new season, to open only when He is pleased with what He sees in the hearts of His Servants. It is like a Security bank door locking system that we are in right now. Until the first door closes and is secure...shut the next one can not open. It feels a bit claustrophobic waiting for the door in front of us to Open to let us into the place where we can access the things the Lord has told us would occur and would be distributed. There is only room for one person at a time in this small "vacuum locked security passage. It is the "Kneeling, Dealing, Healing Zone of God"..bringing a Fresh breath...from heaven.

ANY MALICE, EGOTISM, OR IMPATIENCE WITH HIS PLAN IS GOING TO SHORT CIRCUIT AND DISQUALIFY MANY WHO THOUGHT THEY WERE IN POSITION FOR USE IN THIS NEW SEASON. That is why we must walk so very, very, carefully as we seek Him about the place He would have us to operate.

I CAN SENSE GOD IS SPEAKING A WORD TO HIS PEOPLE TO PREPARE HIS BRIDE. He is not interested in telling you about ways you can escape impending doom. He is not interested in explaining how all the events of Revelation will manifest themselves. Instead, He wants to speak a word that causes you to go to God's next level for your life—in maturity.

THIS WORD IS A WORD SOUNDING A TRUMPET. IT SOUNDS AN ALARM TO GET READY, BUT ALSO SOUNDS THE TRUMPET FOR GOD'S FUTURE PROPHETIC CELEBRATIONS. Though I see many people making loud sounds of prophetic utterance, I sense God's true prophetic utterance is much quieter in the earth.

THIS UTTERANCE IS HEARD BY THOSE THAT DESIRE HIM, AND HIM ALONE. To find God's prophetic sound (the word prophet is also translated as God's mouthpiece) so we can say that in order find or hear God's Trumpet blowing or sound from His mouthpieces, You must want to know Him more than anything that can overshadow His voice. It is then that God's thunderous voice is clearly heard.

BUT BE SURE OF THIS, GOD'S HIDDEN ONES ARE NOT AWARE THAT THEY ARE "SPECIAL." They "fear the LORD" so much, that if such a thought comes to their mind they ask the Lord to purify their hearts from all such disgrace, because they want to walk close by His side. They know their God will not walk with the proud or the arrogant! They know that unless they take their place as the servants of all, and the least of all, they are not true followers.

IT IS THE DAWN OF A NEW DAY
A new Day is dawning upon God's people. Already some are beginning to sense this new thing rising in their hearts...
Many are aware that a change is taking place in their lives, "from glory unto glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

GOD IS SAYING TO HIS PEOPLE, "YOU MUST SEEK MY FACE," AND WITH DAVID THEY RESPOND, "YOUR FACE, O LORD, WILL I SEEK." They do not argue about this discipline with the Lord by saying, "But Lord, You know I can't see Your face until You come again, and I am waiting for that." They want to see His face before that day, and walk in the light of His countenance today like David.

PURSUE ONLY ONE THING
"One thing have I desired of the LORD, and only that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to talk to Him in his Holy Place where He Lives"

(Ps 27:4).

THIS WAS THE TOTAL FOCUS OF DAVID’S DESIRE. HE WANTED TO DWELL IN GOD’S HOUSE, but his purpose was not to see the beauty of the house, but "to behold the beauty of the LORD"... and then in seeing Him, to "inquire" of Him.

IS YOUR HEART DETERMINED and FOCUSED?
Are you really confident you are looking for "one thing?” Our Lord gives us many good and precious gifts and blessings. And we thank Him for all of that. But what are we really looking for? God forbid that we should be searching for any treasure, any blessing, other than the blessing of clear eyes to see Him, hearing ears to hear Him, and a good heart to bring forth good fruit.

IS HE NOT ENOUGH? LET’S NOT GO LOOKING FOR MORE BLESSING, OR MORE OF HIS GIFTS, BUT FOR MORE OF HIM. We thank Him for His gifts, but let us keep seeking the Giver, the One who is the Source of every good and flawless gift. Let us not go around seeking more power... except that Divine God-given impartation of power that will overrun our life with the character and beauty of the Lord Jesus Himself.

Deuteronomy 5:32-33
So be very careful to act exactly as GOD commands you. Don't veer off to the right or the left. Walk straight down the road GOD commands so that you'll have a good life and live a long time in the land that you're about to possess.
(Msg)

WE ARE ALL BECOMING A LIVING EXPRESSION OF THE KING! A prophetic utterance is part of the infilling of the Spirit, and it flows like a river. It is a Divine invasion, helping to grow the Body up into all the fullness of God.

IT IS LIKE A FLASH OF LIGHTNING, OPENING UP DIVINE REVELATION. By this happening, we realize we can dance and sing in the Spirit. We can enjoy sweeter music and rarity of character (the character of Christ in us). We see a vision of the glory of God in looking at the face of Jesus Christ.

THIS IS HOW THE FRESH BREATH OF LIFE COMES, BURNING WITH INTENSITY UNTIL THE WORLD FEELS THE WARMTH AND CRIES OUT FOR GOD! We can develop our spirituality by reading deep books and applying what we learn to our inner lives, or we can simply step out into each day consciously inhaling a deep breath of Spirit, God's gift, to help us on our way.

OH, THE JOY OF BEING FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT AND HAVING THE DIVINE PURPOSE OF TAKING HIS FIRE TO THE WORLD! As the apostles were in their day, we are to be in our day: filled with all the fullness of God, with the same Holy Spirit, the same warmth, the same life ... the same Heaven in the soul.

THE WORD SAYS: THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME ... LUKE 4:18We have the Spirit of the Lord! We have the ability to sense of the Holy Spirit, to gain the knowledge of His power, to taste the sweetness of His experience, the wonder of His Breath! He is lifting up right now before our eyes the Word, making all things new, meeting the present need in our lives as we run to HIM!.

THESE ARE VERY POWERFUL DAYS WE ARE HEADING INTO! They are very wonderful and blessed with signs. The Breath of the Spirit is unfolding God's truth's and is helping humans to know Jesus.

OH, THE JOY OF BEING READY FOR GOD TO USE US! GOD MUST SET US ALL ON FIRE! There is much land to be possessed, and we must possess it! The fields are white, ready for harvest! Oh, the cry of the people that will be heard on that soon coming day.

THE BREATH OF HEAVEN IS FILLING YOU EVEN NOW AS YOU READ AND TAKE IN A FRESH BREATH FOR HEAVEN! Many of you feel a need to fall down, weeping and repenting. Oh, the Breath of the Spirit! There is something WONDERFUL in this Breath! The Fresh Breath of the Spirit Is Upon us!

Jesus said, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me ...
Luke 4:18"And it is upon me, upon ME," we can say!
May God move in our hearts to act on this truth.

DO YOU WANT GOD TO HAVE YOU IN HIS MAGNIFICENT PLACE OF THE MOVING OF HIS SPIRIT? IS IT THE CRY AND LONGING OF YOUR HEART TO COME TO THIS PLACE?
God can and will only, choose those filled to the uttermost to the brim of almost overflowing to be there.

DO YOU LONG TO BE FILLED TO THE UTTERMOST?
ARE YOU HUNGERING AND THIRSTING AFTER GOD'S FULLNESS? Then Stand in a living experience as Jesus did. Say, out loud! "The Spirit of the Lord is upon ME!" and what you desire will happen.

LET US STAND ...IN A PLACE OF IMMUNITY, OF SAFETY AND A PLACE OF PROTECTION!
And Let us say together. “Lord! I Need A Breath Of Fresh Air! I Want To Be A Fresh Breath Of Air In A Stagnate World and In Stagnate Religious Settings! We Declare That You Are In Filling Our Spirit With Fresh Breath! The Fresh Breath Of Heaven!

AND WE NOW SPEAK OUT IN THE VOICE OF THE SPIRIT IN A PROPHETIC SOUND;
“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
He has put His hand on Me to preach the Good News to poor people.
He has sent Me to heal those with a BROKEN heart.
He has sent Me to tell those who are being held IN DECEPTION that they can go free.
He has sent Me to make the blind to see and to free those who are imprisoned because of having been beaten down.” ~Luke 4:18 (New Life Version)

Duplication and sharing of this writing is welcomed provided that complete source and website information for Mary Lindow is included. Thank You Copyright © 2005 " THE MESSENGER " ~ Mary Lindow www.marylindow.homestead.com

A Few Looks At Pentecost

Bill Somers

Lately I have been writing about Passover, now it's time to take a look at Pentecost. And I mean to take several looks here to bring out several meanings and to illustrate a point.

The single most important thing the Lord has taught me about bible interpretation is that there is often more than one correct interpretation of a bible topic or passage.

So we're going to give you several views of Pentecost here. We're not going into great depth, these will just be sketches of possible teachings. They will all be diverse and all correct. And some are more correct that others, whatever that might mean.

Bible Texts on Pentecost

Exodus 19 - 20

Exodus 23 - 24

Exodus 32

Exodus 34

Leviticus 23

Acts 2

Pentecost Basics

The basic ordinance of Pentecost is found in Leviticus 23:15-21. Starting the day after the Feast Of First Fruits, which is the 16th Aviv a.k.a. Nisan, 50 days are counted off. The 50th day is the day of the feast. Since 7 weeks must pass it is also called Feast of Weeks, and Shavuot in Hebrew.

Historically this is the day that Israel received the Law from God on Mt. Sinai. They traveled 47 days from the Red Sea crossing and camped at Sinai. On the third day after this, The Lord came down on the mountain as recorded in Exodus 19.

On the feast of Pentecost as recorded in Acts 2, the Holy Spirit descended upon the gathered disciples as Jesus foretold. This is considered the beginning of the church and the church age.

Now here are some of the interpretations.

1. The Law and the Lawyer

This one is from Ralph Mahoney who notes that the Law was given at the first Pentecost and the Lawyer at the time of Acts 2. The Holy Spirit being the paraclete, advisor, lawyer, teacher etc. So that before under the law we had only the strictness of the law. But now under the New Testament we have a lawyer to help us.

2. Betrothal of the Bride

This view sees the first Pentecost as one where the law was given to serve as a marriage contract, and that it represents the betrothal of Israel as the bride of the Lord. The giving of the Holy Spirit in acts 2 must therefore represent the betrothal of the church as the bride of Christ. There are several directions you can take it from here, some pointing to a future fulfillment at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

3. Rejection of God's Voice

Here we note that when Israel first arrived at Mt. Sinai God gave them the ten commandments by speaking to them. But they couldn't stand to hear his voice and begged Moses to hear from God for them.

> Ex 20:19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

So God then gave them the Law written in stone. In doing this they rejected the path of direct communication with God and chose to use an intermediary. In other words they chose to be under the law rather than hear from God for themselves.

4. The Law, the Spirit and the Covenant

This view sees the Law as the covenant with the Old Testament saints, and the Spirit as the covenant with the New Testament saints. But it does not consider or discuss the question of the bride.

5. The Covenant, the Promise and the Payoff

This view sees that the Law is a sign of the Old Testament or Old Covenant, and the Spirit is a sign of the New Testament or New Covenant. And further since that Spirit is called the 'earnest of the spirit' there must be a future fulfillment of the giving of the Spirit. The word used for earnest is also translated 'pledge'. In other words it is a token of good faith or a down payment. This then must to point to a time when there is a full payment or a completion of the Promise of the Father.

> 2 Co 1:22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

> 2 Co 5:5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6. Death under the Law, Life under the Spirit

This approach takes the approach of #4 and adds depth to it. It notes that at the giving of the Law, it was immediately broken by Israel and consequently 3 thousand of them died. [You can also see an illustration of how it's impossible to keep the law, as it was broken as soon as it was received.]

> Ex 32:25 And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies:)
> 26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD'S side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.
> 27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.
> 28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

And this is the exact number that are saved in Acts 2.

> Ac 2:41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

So this entire story is an illustration of another scripture.

> 2 Co 3:6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7. God Coming Down with Great Noise and Fire

This view looks at how the Lord came down on Sinai with smoke and fire at the first Pentecost. This is the initial instance.

> Ex 19:16 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding > loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

> 17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.
> 18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

Secondly we compare that to the mighty rushing wind and tongues of fire in Acts 2.

> Ac 2:2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
> 3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

8. From First Fruits to End Time Harvest

Here we note that the counting of the homer begins at the feast of first fruits. At that time a sheaf of the first ripe grain is waved before the Lord. 50 days later two loaves of bread made from the first fruit grain are waved before the Lord. The first sheaf of grain speaks of the souls saved in the New Testament Church. The loaves prophesy of the multitudes saved in the End Time Harvest.

9. Prophecy of Judgment and Harvest

This view looks only at acts 2. Here we note Peter quotes Joel and the two main topics are the outpouring of the spirit and the day of wrath.

> Ac 2:16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
> 19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
> 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
> 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

His preaching produces great repentance and many are saved. So this entire story is a partial fulfillment of Joel 2:28 and also a prophecy of End Time Events involving the same elements on a global scale.

10. What it takes for effective preaching.

Here we look strictly at Peter's sermon for a lesson in what kind of preaching is needed for effective soul winning.

> Ac 2:37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?
> 38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

11. The two sets of Stone Tables.

In this one we point out that there was a second set of stone tablets that The Lord gave Moses to replace the first ones that were broken. These were kept in the ark.

> Ex 34:28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten > commandments.

So we can say that the new tablets prophesy of a New Covenant to come. The first tablets were broken as soon as Moses come down from the Mountain the first time.

12. The Fire of God

This approach concentrates on God's manifesting as fire. At Mt. Sinai we see the Lord coming as Fire.

> Ex. 19:18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire

In Acts 2 we see him coming upon the saints as tongues of fire.

> Ac 2:3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

The giving of the Spirit in the form of tongues of fire can be seen as giving each one a measure or portion of the Spirit. Thus it's a partial fulfillment of Joel.

> Joe 2:28 ¶ And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

The complete fulfillment of Joel will involve giving the Spirit without measure. John the Baptist, mentions this notion of 'Spirit without measure' when speaking of Jesus' anointing in John 3

> John 3:34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

For another picture of the End Time Revival and fulfillment of Pentecost we can look to 1 Kings. The fire falling on Mt. Carmel for Elijah's sacrifice to the Lord.

> 1Ki 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
> 39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

Malachi describes it thusly.

> Mal 3:1 ¶ Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.
> 2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:
> 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

It's also mentioned in Isaiah.

> Isa 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?
> 15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

Luke speaks of the baptism of Fire in Luke 3.

> Lu 3:16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

And in Hebrews there is a long passage that alludes to the first Pentecost at Sinai, and the old covenant. And then leads right into a discussion of the new covenant, ending with mention of the all consuming fire like that of Elijah, Isaiah and Malachi.

> Heb 12:18 ¶ For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
> 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
> 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
> 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.
> 25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:
> 26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
> 27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
> 28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
> 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

A Fresh Word For Australia

Kathie Walters

GOD LOVES AUSTRALIA!

God loves Australia! We love Australia! All those precious, hungry, Aussie "duckies" (duckies always go after the water -- the Spirit -- because they were created for the water).

We were in NSW -- Sydney area, Blue Mountains, and Coffs Harbour. Pastor Steve and Pastor Martin Beckett (church on the Rock) hosted the Mighty Young Warriors conference. It was amazing the spirit of worship and anointing that was on the kids. When they prayed for people in the miracle service, lots of people were healed. This always happens with the children we train. They don't know any better so God simply operates through them.
In Coffs Harbour we had another Mighty Young Warriors conference, which was great. This one hosted by the Coffs Harbour Baptist Church; Pastor Colin Phillips and his crew were awesome. Pastors Phil and Maria Mason from Byron Bay came and did wonderful music.

I can't wait to go back -- it's exciting what God is doing! We had a great time with Dayspring church and S.H.O.W.

God showed up! Lots of people were set free from heavy religious stuff -- and people got their joy back. God sent us honey, oil, gold dust, so many perfumes over everyone, and lots of deliverance! I love it when God's people are delirious and don't know what to do with themselves because Jesus is so incredible!
Here's the word I had for Australia while I was there:

CHRIST: THE SERVANT KING

I was sitting up in bed early in the morning and just thinking about Jesus and how much He loves all the different nations. I thought about how He made all of them unique, and each nation has a unique part of God to make known. Just because the devil has a go at his stuff doesn't mean the call of God is null and void. Of course, the fullness of that demonstration is in the Church, but you can see these different God-traits on the nations themselves.
Well, God began to talk to me about His call on Australia. He said, "Kathie, Australia will rise up and declare and demonstrate to the nations, 'CHRIST: THE SERVANT KING.'"

THE MOVE OF GOD COMING OUT OF AUSTRALIA WILL BE CALLED, "NEW LIFE"

Then tears started to flow down my face (if you know me, you know that I am not a "crying" type of person). I saw a servant's heart -- full of life and joy and serving. Then I saw a crown descend from heaven and it rested upon the servant's heart. Then I saw a mantle which looked like purple and red, deep velvet, and the words "Dignity and Power" were written above the mantle. Then people were running and there was so much joy and POWER.
They ran across Australia and they ran to other nations -- many had green flags which they carried over their shoulders on light poles: NEW LIFE -- a move of God coming out of Australia

It's interesting that when Australia hosted the Olympics, people came from all over Australia to help and serve those visitors from all over the world. Other nations asked them afterwards to show them how to serve and host in the same way.

THE HEAVINESS IS BEING PEELED BACK

I saw New South Wales, and it was covered by a brown blanket. I know that blanket; I've seen it before. It's a spirit of "False Responsibility" -- a religious spirit that makes people try and do what only God can do. Striving and "trying" takes you out of the Spirit realm and into the flesh-- He is a spirit of rest. (If you want to understand more on that, get a copy of my CD or book below.)
But I saw angels lifting the corners of the blanket to peel it back. When the heavy religious spirits go, then the LIGHT SHINES AND THE JOY COMES BACK.

North of Coffs Harbor I saw a white mist over the towns. It was a spirit of False Light (New Age, mostly), but I saw three arrows come from the Sydney area and pierce it (Spirit-led intercession).

Tons of blessings,
Kathie Walters
Good News Ministries www.goodnews.netministries.org kathiewalters@mindspring.com

A Glimpse Ahead
Timothy Snodgrass

The Impossible Will Come Alive In 2005
01/28/05

In January of 2004, as we began to intercede for the New Year the Holy Spirit gave us the prophetic slogan, "The Seas will Roar in 2004". This year we were given a new slogan, "The Impossible will come Alive in 2005". As the veil of darkness begins to come down over nations and regions, along with great shakings will come great breakthroughs; signs, wonders, healings and a spectacular release of miracles in impossible circumstances. This year, although we are ultimately poised to gain much ground, there is a risk of losing much ground if we are not sensitive to the Holy Spirit on a day to day basis. We must journey through 2005 with alertness, seasons of prayer and fasting, and divine actions less many regions fall into devastating cataclysms. Some areas are at higher risk than others, and it is important that we send prophetic and apostolic teams to plant their feet on the soil of these regions, interceding for the land and seas at the right place, right time. Among these areas of concern in 2005 are Alaska, the Canadian and U.S. West Coast, and the South Pacific. Several days ago while visiting the state of Alaska, we issued a call to prayer and fasting from Anchorage to the Aleutian Islands, and commissioned prophetic teams to walk around the 'walls' and intercede for the lands of the far north. I am now in California, preparing to return to Asia in a matter of days. Of greatest concern this year is the South Pacific, where there is an immediate risk of a great quake which would dwarf the Sumatra quake in size, sending destructive tsunami across the Pacific as far away as Argentina and North America. This event can, and must, be averted for the sake of the islands of the sea, for they would be the hardest hit; the Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia and Polynesia would be utterly devastated. The true purpose of the prophetic is not to foretell of disaster, but to blow the trumpet of warning so the events can be averted, or lessened in size, magnitude and impact. My apologies this report is so brief, whereas I am now traveling along the U.S. West Coast and have very limited time. Our next report will be posted from the Philippine Islands. Thanks so much for your prayers, and please let us know if we can serve you in any way in the months ahead; blessings,

Timothy Snodgrass

Note: Our upcoming missions trip to New Zealand and the South Pacific is being met with many challenges, and the costs involved in this type of journey is very prohibitive, making the trip almost impossible in the natural realm, but we sense a great urgency to intercede and ACT on behalf of the harvest in the South Pacific. Only God can calm the seas, and release waves of revival instead of waves of destruction. Intercede with us for waves of repentance, awakening and mercy to ripple across Australia, New Zealand, Polynesia and the islands of the sea in 2005.

Please send all gifts and correspondence to: Timothy Snodgrass – P.O. Box 463, Kimberly, Oregon 97848 USA – web: Elijah1.com

A Great Birthing

Lanna Perry

2nd August, 2005
Sydney Australia

A great birthing is occurring in My church, a birthing of life or a birthing of death. I am bringing forth-new things in My church. I am bringing forth life out of those whose hearts are totally committed to Me. I am doing away with insecurities within your lives and bringing about complete and powerful truth, My truth.

What you are sowing into is what you are birthing. If you are sowing life, you will reap life, if you are sowing death into your life, you will continue to reap death in your lives.

I am pouring out My anointing in great ways. Pastors, apostles, prophets, evangelists, teachers, are rising up in Me. I am bringing forth this release. I am now bringing forth this great uprising. Uprising of great and mighty leaders for Me.

Leaders who follow after My heart. Like David, followers who are committed to seeking Me wholeheartedly. Those of you who are seeking Me with all that you are and hearts are right and pure before Me, I am rising you up to what you have desired for so long. To serve Me, and to step forth for Me.

I have been teaching many of you humility, and in the wilderness have I been speaking to each of you.

You are now coming out of the wilderness EMPOWERED by My Spirit. You are now at the gate of My Kingdom, and waiting for commands to be sent forth. It is about to come. You are about to hear My voice say "now". The releasing is upon you My church.

The anointing I have placed over the fivefold ministry is increasing in greater ways as the fivefold ministry unites together for My name. I have called each and every one of you to serve Me and to bear My name. I have called each of you to be radical seekers of My heart.

Leaders for Me are being trained. You will always be trained in Me, there will never be a time My church where you will know enough to move forward without Me, for what good is that? Your efforts are like rags compared to My power, but your offerings I will not despise with the right heart.
The enemy is attempting to take out the fivefold ministry, hitting hard, for once he can tear down the leaders I have called to lead My sheep, My church would fall. I will not allow this, for I am victorious and I have won the battle. The enemy is defeated.

The shaking has come, I am sifting through My church. The birthing is taking place. My church will shine. My church will reign. I reign.

I the Lord your God am now bringing about a great networking. I will begin to unite many of you, to work together for My Kingdom. I am weaving together a web of My Spirit, to bring about a great movement in many of your lives and churches.

Allow this great networking to come to your lives. Do not stand-alone but embrace the great networking coming to each of you. Embrace what I am placing before you.

Allow the great birthing to come forth.

You are coming out of the wilderness, EMPOWERED by My Spirit!!!!!
chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

Come Out!!!
Lanna Perry

6th August, 2005
Sydney, Australia
But in that coming day, no weapon turned against you will succeed. ~ Isaiah 54:17
My beautiful church, how I treasure and adore you. How I long for you to shine so brightly with My love. How I long to see you grow and flourish in greater ways than you ever have by the empowerment of My Spirit.

My church is being attacked. Many of you have noticed the increase in the opposition coming against you, for Jezebel is coming against many churches to bring death, and shut down.

The Jezebelic spirit is coming against many at this time to bring about shut down. This spirit is coming against churches and individuals who are rising up in Me and who I am training to speak out for Me.

She comes to destroy. She has come against many of you, and has brought with her much depression, oppression and a sense of being crippled.

Come out from under the oppression. Do not sit inactively under this attack My church. She is coming against many of you and churches in great ways as she longs to control and bring about destruction. Come out from under this attack and stand firm using My Word as your sword and do not stop praising My name.

Do not be dismayed, or allow confusion or despair to come upon you, but know that I have overcome all. That nothing can touch you, and I will not allow anything to destroy you.

For I am a loving Father and I will always protect My children. Come out from under this attack through worship. Keep your hearts pure before Me and continue to allow Me to pour My Spirit over each of you and break off anything in your lives that are not of Me.

Beware of control. Beware of the Jezebelic spirit. Beware of the manipulation and the seduction that comes from her very heart. Stand in the victory that I have purchased for each of you.

Be released into the fullness of what I have for each of you. Do not remain under this attack and control by being inactive. Do not allow this crippling to smother you any longer, but break free, and stand confidently in My presence knowing that NO weapon formed against any of you or My church will prosper.

Do not entertain control. Do not entertain power to control. Entertain My Spirit in your lives alone. Continue to seek Me and spend time before Me, surrendering all to Me. As you remain inactive under this spirit, she will take a hold of you more and more, do not allow this. For this is not My heart for any of you.

Keep your ears close to My heart to listen to My voice, so you may discern the spirits. Stand against the Jezebelic spirit and know that as you continue to come into the light of My presence I will bring to light all that is not of Me.

Where this spirit has taken control, I will shine My light on these people and places so that she may be seen and repentance and breakthrough may come.

Stand against this, stand against the spirits that are coming at many of you now to cripple.

The oppression and attack has increased for many of you because I am about to do a new thing in your churches and your lives. My Spirit is going deep and I am bringing forth more and more of My Glory.

Continue to stand. Come out from under the attacks through worship and using My Sword, the Sword of My Spirit. Do not be inactive but come out, and be active knowing that in Me, each of you have overcome.

Continue to be covered in My blood. Continue to walk in My covering, the covering of My precious blood that was shed for each of you. Nothing overcomes or penetrates the power of My blood.

Be ready, for a mighty move of My Spirit is coming to those who choose to follow Me wholeheartedly and seek My face.
chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

Voices Of Hope
Lanna Perry

1st August, 2005
Sydney Australia

My precious children, I have called you as My church to reach out and to minister to those around you. I have called you to be My heart in this world, and to be My reflection and allow My Spirit to flow through each of you. My heart is to touch and minister to others through each of you.

I love to bless each of you, and I continue to bless each of you because it is My heart, but with the blessings that I give you, you must bless others.

Many of you within My church are sitting under discouragement, depression, discontentment and doubt. Many of you are allowing these things to find a room in your life, and are beginning to fester.

Many of you are calling out to Me, "Lord why have you not delivered me?". My church I tell you, as you take your eyes off yourself and put others before yourselves, and bless others, you will see healing and release come to you.

My church has it's eyes on itself way too much. I have not called My church to be navel gazers, but to be outward gazers. To always be adding value to those around them, to be listening to My Spirit at all times, to bring blessing to those in your circle of influence.

You will not move forward My church if you continue to be inward focused, and focused on what you can receive from Me, and what I can do for you. My church, step out, reach out.

You are the voice of hope to this world My church. You are the one true voice that will shatter strongholds and bring hope to the brokenhearted.

Many of you are choosing to keep your mouths shut, and stay in your own safety zones and I am calling each of you to step out. Step out, reach out to others and allow Me to love others through you.

Many of you are remaining bound and weighed down by things that are not of Me. Take courage and stand in My strength, and allow Me to use each of you to bless others.

Step out of being self-focused and allow Me to direct your eyes to those around you that I can use you to minister too. As you do this, you will see a great release in each of your lives.

I am now releasing many of My children into what I have called them too, and bringing great breakthroughs. I will bring great healing and restoration to those of you who feel you are caught under depression, discouragement, discontentment and doubt. I will bring healing and restoration as you serve others.

The enemy wants My church to be self-focused. Repent My church of being self-focused. Repent of the heart attitude of 'what can I receive?' and allow My Spirit to bring to you a deeper revelation of the joy of serving others.

You are the voice of hope My church. No longer be navel gazers, and self-focused but reach out. Reach out in your workplace, in your schools, in your churches, in your circle of influence. Allow Me to use you greatly to impact the lives of others.

Take your eyes off yourself My church, and reach out, step out of your safe zone, and allow Me to use you to bless others. As you place others before yourselves you will see Me do great things. Not only in your lives, but in the lives of those that you are ministering too.

chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

A Generation Ends

Timothy Snodgrass

Jan 5, 2005

A GENERATION ENDS

01/01/05

On March 28, 1964, the largest quake ever recorded in US history occurred in Prince William Sound, Alaska. This 9.2 quake started a 40-year countdown to the next great 9.0 quake which would occur in Sumatra on December 26, 2004. Had the epicenter of the 1964 quake been in the open ocean instead of being shielded within the sound, tsunami would have devastated not only America, but Asia and the entire Pacific Rim. Tidal waves in Alaska were recorded as high as 67 meters (over 200 feet), in comparison to South Asia's recent 33 foot tsunami. If this Alaskan quake had occurred just a few miles to the west, outside the sound, most of the coastline of the United States would have suffered catastrophic flooding as massive tidal waves beat against the shores; but instead of hundreds of thousands of casualties, only 125 people lost their lives in 1964. It was only through God's grace that America was shielded during the beginning of this generation of seismic restraint and intervention from major judgments. The timing of the Prince William Sound quake was a prophetic parable, not meant to be understood until the closing of Christmas, 2004, when the second 9.0 quake in 40 years would shake the globe.

Now let's look ahead to 1999, and hear the sound of accelerated warnings, echoes of storm clouds gathering on the horizon. In September, 1999, we published a vision of a great seismic judgment in California, an earthquake so large that new bodies of water were created inland from tsunami, causing freeways to end abruptly into newborn lakes. After publishing the vision in September, and publicly announcing that I would be arriving in Los Angeles from the Philippines on October 16, 1999 to intercede with other Christians in the area for California, a large 7.2 quake shook Southern California only seven hours after my plane arrived at the LAX, the strongest quake I have ever personally experienced. I could literally see waves rippling across the earth in the middle of the desert, as if I was standing in the sea. Little damage was done by the 7.2 quake; there were no new lakes, no collapsed buildings, and only limited structural damage near the epicenter in Joshua Tree, California. As in 1964, God intervened in the magnitude and epicenter of this quake.

Now let's take a look at 2002, as waves of warning ripple to Alaska. At the beginning of 2002, we began to receive a series of visions and prophetic words concerning an approaching great quake in Alaska, a quake exceeding 9.0 which would cause massive damage along the US West Coast. We issued a warning that a great Alaskan quake would occur prior to the end of 2002. As the end of 2002 approached, on November 2 a large 7.4 quake shook Northern Sumatra, followed within less than 24 hours by a great 7.9 Alaskan quake along the Denali Fault Line on November 3. The epicenter was an isolated national park north of Prince Edward Sound, thus, the quake did very little damage. As in 1964 and 1999, God intervened and angelically shielded the nation.

Now let's move forward to 2004, and look at the great Sumatran quake, also known as the "Christmas quake". Just as Christmas symbolizes Christ's first coming, so this 9.0 quake symbolizes his second coming. On 11/11/04, shortly after Arafat was pronounced dead in France, I received a vision of a great earthquake and tsunami in Indonesia (full account published in our 11/11/04 report, prior to the Sumatra quake). Summary of vision: I was taken in the Spirit to a high mountain in Indonesia, and began to prophecy to a predominately Christian village that God's judgment was about to fall on their nation. But instead of heeding the prophetic word and preparing, they began to mock the word of the Lord, just as many US Christians mocked the word in 1999 and 2002. But as they were mocking, the ground began to shake and a small ripple in the ocean appeared, creating a small wave. They jeeringly said, "Is this all?!" But because they mocked God's grace in lessening the magnitude of the first quake, a larger quake shook the island, and a tidal wave appeared so big that as it struck the hills a thunderous splash rose into the air, perhaps a thousand feet high (this would take approximately a 200 foot wave, whereas during storms in the Philippines I have witnessed 10 foot waves striking concrete breakers, resulting in 50 foot splashes, or roughly 5-times the height of the wave). Within less than 24-hours after the tsunami vision, a 7.5 quake shook Indonesia, and tsunami warnings began to laxly circulate like rumors along the Sumatran coast. Then, within less than an hour a 6-inch tsunami gently lapped against the shore. It is reported that among the handful of people who actually heard the tsunami warning, many of them were angry with officials for releasing the advisory because they had to 'inconveniently' leave their homes and shops.

On December 26, no viable tsunami warnings were issued in Asia after a 9.0 quake sent a three-story wall of water rippling across the Indian Ocean. Although God in his mercy decreased the size of the tsunami from 200 feet (such as Alaska 1964) to 33 feet, we were warned that greater waves are still coming unless there is repentance. We have been prophetically warned that some of the future quakes could reach as high as 9.7 in Indonesia, Polynesia, New Zealand and the South Pacific. A great area of concern is the Pacific between New Zealand, Polynesia and the Antarctic, where I recently had a vision of a great tsunami which dwarfed anything mankind has ever seen, outside of the great flood. It is not a coincidence that an 8.1 quake shook Macquarie Island three days prior to the 9.0 Sumatra quake. Mark this area, for it needs much prayer. As a matter of fact, I feel strongly directed to take an intercessory team from New Zealand in the Spring to pray for this part of the world, it is really that urgent. If you are an intercessor and feel like you are supposed to be a part of this prayer team, or would to support this intercessory mission to the South Pacific, please contact me as soon as possible. Do not underestimate the power of prayer, which can calm the seas and turn 500 foot tsunami into gentle 5 inch waves.

From 1999 to 2004, if you closely examine the progression and pattern of the above earthquakes, you will notice a sobering warning to the United States. Note that in 2002, the large 7.4 Northern Sumatra quake was almost immediately followed by a great Alaska quake. These quakes during 1964, 1999 and 2002 were only types and shadows of greater events yet to come. Although everything prophesied shall come to pass, nations can still be shielded, magnitudes and epicenters can be altered, and lives can be saved if we examine the fabric of what is actually being said by heaven, and act upon the directives of the Holy Spirit in humility, repentance and lightning obedience. Across the globe on New Year's Eve, it is reported that most celebrations were replaced with prayer vigils following the great Asian quake, and even the secular media reported the quake as being an event of "biblical proportions". On the first day of 2005, President Bush ordered flags to be lowered at half mass across the United States. As eyes around the world are lifted up towards heaven in search of assistance and answers, we pray that this will be the beginning of repentance and revival in many nations.

There are many types of 'generations', and within this report we have dealt chiefly with one of them: a generation of seismic warnings and restraint from 1964 to 2004. But there is another type of generation; a generation which will end 40 years after Jerusalem and the Temple Mount were restored to Israel in 1967. Between now and 2007, many changes are going to take place across the earth; internationally, politically, geologically; entire maps are going to change in some parts of the world, unless there is repentance and orchestrated prayer for some of these geological hot spots which are simmering and ready to erupt. Just as the great Alaskan quake in 2002 was preceded by a large Sumatran quake, we have been forewarned that another great Alaska quake is approaching. The 2002 quake along the Denali Fault was only a foreshadow of a larger one to come, and the 1999 Joshua Tree quake was just a fire-drill of something greater ahead. Yet, within all of these warnings is hope; faith can move mountains, turn the floods into dry land and turn rivers of lava into fountains of life. The hand of God can turn back the tide of approaching judgment, calm the waves, and shield entire nations if we honor him, humble ourselves, repent, seek his face, and turn from our wicked ways while there is yet still time (II Chronicles 7:14).

Have a blessed New Year,

Timothy Snodgrass
Philippine Islands

Note: Timothy will be arriving in the United States just prior to Inauguration Day on January 19, and will be holding several strategic intercessory meetings along the US West Coast, sensing an urgency to intercede for the United States during this specific time. This week we discovered that tickets between Asia and the US have almost doubled in price, possibly because of the tsunami cataclysm. Please agree with us in prayer for a release of finances this month to cover all expenses.

Send All Donations And Corespondence To:

Timothy Snodgrass - PO Box 463, Kimberly OR 97848 USA

2005 Copyright Timothy Snodgrass - In order to prevent abuse or words from being pulled out of context, permission granted to republish or print FULL article only, including name and contact address (or website address if republished online: Elijah1.com). Copyright is biblical: Revelation 22:18-19

A Great Earthquake

Marsha Burns

May 18, 2005:

> Acts 16:26 "Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were loosed."

Beloved, I declare to you that the foundations of your prison are being shaken, and your chains are being loosed, and the doors are opening for you to enter into great privilege. The past has had its hold on your life, but today is a new day. It is time for you to be set free from every bondage and fly like a bird that has escaped from the snare of a fowler. Rise up and rejoice in your new place of liberty!

A Garden in the Midst of Stone
Sylvia Jackson

Mar 26, 2005

In Jerusalem, tradition has it that Jesus was buried in a tomb that is now enshrined deep inside a basement of a Catholic church that was built around the sacred spot. There are dozens, even perhaps hundreds of candles and incense burners draped in deep colors of velvet lining the entrance that prevent one entirely from thinking of stooping low and daring to walk inside.

Some years ago, Christians discovered another site which is now more commonly thought by some to be the correct site of His burial. This large garden of perhaps a few acres, sitting just outside of the rocky hill where the Cross once stood, faces the side of a large stone wall which has the impression of a skull naturally and permanently imbedded in it's facade. A garden in the midst of stone is the prevailing thought as one takes in the whole scene, since the entire city of Jerusalem gives an overall impression of white-washed stones. The garden is home to a few permanent, and I believe one temporary, burial tomb of the friends and family of a man who was apparently wealthy in his time.

In 1998, along with a couple of dozen other Christians from the deep South, I sat that day half-listening, at best, to the scriptures being read that pertained to His burial site. It was a spectacular day, the sun shining brightly enough to create a warm early Spring desert day in the high 80's. I was chattering along with my friends on one of the last days of an exhausting trip, but my eye couldn't help but focus on the face of the Skull staring at me from across the street, nor could my ear help but hear the microphone only feet away from us blaring out it's Muslim prayers as it desperately attempted to take the focus.

The scriptures read and the talk given, we began walking - who knew where or cared - it was a fine day and it felt incredible to be out in it rather than sitting in the tour bus as it droned around yet another large curve belching out it's days supply of diesel fuel.

Suddenly, Something stopped me in my tracks. I began to cry, quickly and almost uncontrollably. There was no reasoning it, I knew it was the Lord and I knew it was an anointing of intercession. But what, why and why now? Doubled over in burden and pain, the tears flowed and others from not only my group, but also other tour groups stopped and stared. My former Pastor and tour guide, Pastor Paul, came and put his arms around me. "You have to go in," he said.

"In?" I thought, "into what?" For the first time, I looked up. Only five feet away was a giant flat circle made of rock that had been rolled away to the side in its tracks to reveal an opening of maybe three feet high. Instantly I knew where I was and why this anointing was so strong.

"I can't go in, I can't handle it," I cried to him as the group parted that I might do exactly what I didn't think emotionally possible for me to handle. With his arms around me, gently prodding me on, I bent low and commanded my heart and mind to enlarge themselves to take in more pain.

Now inside the tomb, bars were before me and I grabbed them through tears to steady myself. The bars were there to guard the integrity of the bed hewn into the rock where His body had been, thousands of years before, but for me they were there to keep me from falling into a heap on the rock floor. Three or four minutes passed and I shook and cried as intense heat from that Anointing passed right through me, coming from what was in front of me and off my back to those standing behind me.

Finally forcing open my eyes, I was face to face - only three feet or so - from not only where His body had been, but from the supernatural residual effects left in one particular spot in the Earth of a Power so strong that had raised Jesus, my Savior, from the dead that resurrection morning a couple of thousand years before.

The dynamic Power of the One who with a word had created the Earth, parted the sea, separated the waters from the waters, had so electrically charged the lifeless body of His Son that He had brought Him not back to human life as we would think of it, but to eternal and glorified life.

Today, tomorrow and forever, He is alive! The Holy Spirit left a memorial in the Earth for all to know that He is risen - the residual Power imbedded in the rocks, which cry out their song of the Savior's resurrection.

"I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out." - Luke 19:40

Blessings and love to you on Easter - Sylvia

A Great Nation
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, July 29, 2005

Why was the prophet Ezekiel asked by YHVH to hold up the two olive branches of Israel (Judah and Joseph/Ephraim) before the eyes of the people? So that the people would ask "what are these?" YHVH would then answer that these are two "goyim" -nations - that He would bring together and make into one.

What kind of a nation would this nation be? Moses was making the following observation of the one nation Israel, before they entered the land:

"Therefore be careful to observe them [statutes and ordinances]; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'" (Deut 4:6). Please note that it does not say that this nation was to be one with the wisest of religions, or with customs that would lead them to great understanding; but rather the people, the nation itself, was to be wise and understanding.

When we examine the history of our nation, or even the two nations of Judah and Ephraim, we find that there is no record indicating that the other nations ever said this about them/us. Could it be that we are now in a generation in which the two branches are being held up before the peoples? Will it be at this time that the nations will say that this is a wise and understanding people?

What were YHVH's instructions to our forefathers that would have caused them to be a witness of wisdom and understanding? "Now, O Israel, listen [sh'ma] to the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which YHVH Elohim of your fathers is giving you. You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of YHVH your Elohim which I command you" (Deuteronomy 4:1-2). "For what great nation is there that has an Elohim so near to it, as YHVH our Elohim is to us, for whatever reason we may call upon Him? And what great nation is there that has such statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this Torah which I set before you this day?" (verses 7-8).

If we look at the first nation/branch that the prophet "picked up", and which is being held before the eyes of the nations today - Judah - we see a nation that lacks wisdom and understanding, as through the generations the members of this nation have changed and added to the instructions that YHVH had given them for wisdom and understanding. As a matter of fact, the nation of Judah in the Land of Israel is now replete with corruption, promiscuity, homosexuality, abortion, violence and much more. But what about the so-called Christian- Ephraimite people groups? They do not have to worry about adding or taking away from the Torah, as to all intents and purposes they have all but discarded that portion of YHVH's instructions. Consequently it is not written on their hearts. Therefore, they too are in the same boat of iniquity and sin. This unfortunate condition was prophesied of YHVH's nation Israel before they returned to the land the first time. YHVH knew their hearts were evil and thus their witness became one that caused YHVH to say the following: "I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed. And YHVH will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where YHVH will drive you. "And there you will serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell" (Deuteronomy 4:26:26-28).

So where and when will there be a nation that fits this description of a wise and understanding people?

Certainly the "New Covenant", with the promise of the Torah being inscribed on the heart, as well as the rule of the resident Spirit of Holiness should produce the witness in a people who are called and chosen for such an eventual national testimony. But who are they? Are they the same ones to whom YHVH spoke the following words: "And because He loved your fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them"? Are we the chosen ones from the seed of Abraham in this generation to become a nation that will be His witness people of His righteousness, His wisdom and understanding?

Moses seems to indicate that there will come a time when YHVH will again take out of the nations a nation. When and how?

"But from there [the nations] you will seek YHVH your Elohim, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, when you turn to the YHVH your Elohim and obey His voice" (Deuteronomy 4:29-30). To obey His voice is "sh'mah". Will He again take us out of the nations as He did the first time?

"Did Elohim ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that YHVH your Elohim did for you in Egypt before your eyes?" (Deuteronomy 4:34). And if I might add, did not YHVH do it the same way when He took the first branch/nation Judah out of the nations. Were there not a Holocaust, great trials, signs and wars? I wonder if His plan is to take the second branch, Joseph in the hand of Ephraim, the second nation, out of the nations in the same way that He had taken Judah out?

Through Messiah Yeshua, the Father has given to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, wisdom and understanding. So what is the problem? Is it the same one that our forefathers had? Do we have a hard time with the "sh'mah"?

"My sheep hear (sh'mah) My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me" (John 10:27). "And other sheep I have [the lost ones of Israel/Ephraim] which are not of this fold [Judah]; them also I must bring, and they will hear [sh'ma] My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd" (verse 16).

The two branches, two nations, two flocks are destined to become one and they will also be that wise and understanding people.

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim

A Haphazard Fashion

Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net
October 17, 2005

In a vision, I saw a limb of a tree. Someone was doing a pitiful job of wiring a broken limb to the tree. The side that had been broken off was facing away from the tree. I thought that the person should turn the broken limb toward the area from which it was broken. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My beloved to see something clearly. I want you to look on My work and know that I do all things well – not in a haphazard fashion – but extremely well. Be on your guard, beloved. The enemy would have you going headlong into something that may look good, but can be detrimental to your growth – to your well-being. Don't try to patch things up yourself, but come to Me in agreement with My word, and let Me deal with those things that have you perplexed.

I tell you truly that the enemy will never be of any assistance to you, My beloved. He will always try to mess up your progress. Trust Me to set all to right. Trust Me to prepare and fix those things in your life that have not grown in proper alignment to My truth.

The enemy would have you trying to fix things according to his most disastrous process, but I, beloved, will under gird you and enable you to prosper in your walk – in every area – if you will turn things over to Me.

This is My request to you, dear child. Let Me work on your behalf. Let Me set those things to right that have come apart in your walk. You will see, beloved, that if you will but come to Me, telling Me the truth about that situation, that I will go to work on your behalf, correcting those things that are a detriment to your walk. This I declare. This you will see shining forth. Pay the devil no mind. He wants to mess you up. But I, beloved, want to step in and take that thing away that has not been beneficial, and graft on My perfect will for you.

This is My declaration of truth to you: I am your Creator – your God. I know how to "fix" those things that are causing you to stumble. Come to Me. Trust Me and see My will manifest in your life. Don't listen to the enemy and his instructions. He will complicate matters, making them worse. But I, beloved, will see to it that you will grow stronger in Me than you ever dreamed. Don't listen to his harebrained schemes. He is out to trip you. He wants to see that ministry in which I have placed you shrivel and die. I, on the other hand, want to see you blossom forth in your calling, providing a sweet, fragrant shade for those who draw near, learning about the One Who is life everlasting. Don't fall into his trap. Let Me make those necessary corrections. Listen NOT to what he has to say about a situation. But seek My council. There you will find new hope, new life in Me, and a fragrance that will attract others to the mercies of the living God, receiving from My hand.

Remember: This is the way I do things ALWAYS! This is the way I bring new hope and happiness to any heart. I am able, by the power of My Spirit, to set all to right. Whereas the devil wants to see all hope vanish, leaving you in a perpetual state of doubt – doubt in My truth, and in My ability to move you forward. This is his goal. Follow My path. Be fulfilled by My redeeming methods, and count on Me to shine forth My glory in your midst, enabling you to rebound and make something of that ministry to which you have been called – in which I have placed you!!!

The Dial of Ahaz

Bill Somers

> And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? 2 Kings 20:9

Question:
What is the significance of having the shadow go back 10 degrees on the dial of Ahaz?

Simple answer: Hezekiah is looking for a sign, a miracle. Having the shadow go forward or down 10 degrees wouldn't be a miracle. It would be natural. Having it go back would be a miracle!

But still, what is the Spiritual Significance of having it go back 10 degrees.

If you read carefully in II Kings you'll find that it says it went back 10 degrees from which it had gone down.

> And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz. 2 Kings 20:11

Now the shadow on a sundial goes up for a while and then it begins to go down. This tracks the activity of the sun. First it comes up and then it begins to go down. OK When exactly does it begin to go down? When it passes high noon! Obvious?

So Hezekiah's sign is that the shadow goes back to high noon. So the sun goes back to high noon. At that point, directly overhead, the shadow disappears!

So putting on our spiritual ears to hear with we see that the sign speaks of a restoration of the light. Since Jesus Christ is the Light, and the light is at it maximum or its fullness at high noon, what does this mean? It means the fullness of the Revelation of Jesus Christ, in whom there is no shadow [of turning.]! Does that idea have any impact on you?

Also consider this. 10 is the number of the Law. That is, the word of God. Now we know Jesus is the Word of God, So this mention of 10 degrees speaks of restoring the rule of God's Law. Or it speaks of Revealing the Word as Contained in the Law. In the book of Revelation we see God reveals himself. No man is worthy but Jesus is shown opening the scroll which represents the Word of God. So we see that Jesus reveals Himself, the Word of God. That's The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Next, what is this sign a sign of? What is the purpose of having this sign, what does it point to?

It is a sign that the Lord will do the thing that he has spoken. I. E. fulfill his word.

Well Old King Hezekiah asked for a sign that he would be healed. The prophet Isaiah could have said something cute like "You'll feel better when the pain goes away!" But instead He asked the King to make a choice. Should the shadow go down or back up? It would have been enough of a sign to have the pain go away and feel better. But the rest of the story is the second part of the Kings question. What shall be the sign that I'll be healed and Go up into the House of the Lord on the Third day.?

What does the healing mean?

And more importantly what does going up to the House of the Lord mean?,
And what does on the third day mean?

The answers are interrelated and hard to separate. The healing and the third day are mentioned in Hosea 6.

> Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.*
> After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. Hosea 6:1-3*

The latter rain is what brings the harvest!

Here Hosea speaks of healing and revival. And it all happens on the third day. The Harvest comes on the Third Day.

The Third Day is the Millenium.

It is a common mistake to assume that the millenium begins after Jesus returns and brings peace.. It begins just before. One parallel to the millenium in scripture is the reign of King Solomon. His kingdom was established during a time of Civil War in Israel, peace came later. Likewise Jesus' Kingdom is going to be established during a time of Civil War in the Church, and peace will come at his return. In 2 Kings 11 read the story of queen Athaliah. a clear type of Satan. She ruled the land for 6 years and in the 7th year the true heir was crowned king in the temple while she still ruled in the city outside. Then she was overthrown. The seventh year speaks of the Millenium. Likewise Jesus will build and occupy his temple at the beginning of the millenium and then return physically to overthrow Satan. See The Third Day in Prophecy

House of the Lord is His Church.

> And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.
> And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. Isaiah 2:2-3

In this case Isaiah is saying the temple or church will be built in the last days.

The House is not yet built.

Next realize that the House is not yet built. But the Lord will give us a sign that we can go up on the third day. And that’s because He will build it at that time.

There is a certain sense in which it is impossible to go up to the House of the Lord. That is you can't go there till the place gets built. Just as we cannot say we rejoice in the unity of the brethren. There is no unity of the brethren. Not today, not yet.

In the figurative terms God uses in the bible, the unity of the brethren, the church is the same as the assembling of the Body of Christ and the same as the building of the temple. All the many, many passages that talk about building the tabernacle or the temple are speaking about the Church.

Now the church is not in unity because it's members are not in submission to the Lordship of Jesus. Speaking of the Body, we can say that the members are not rightly connected, not in their proper place and not holding fast to the head. So the parts of the body do not respond instantly to the commands that come from the head. Speaking of the temple, we can say it is not yet built because the foundation is not yet laid. The foundation is the Lordship of Jesus who is the head stone. The head of many living stones. The temple is not built because the son of man has not a place where to lay his head, the head stone.

But God gave Hezekiah a sign that he would do what he promised.

The meaning of that sign points to a sign that God will give us in these later days.

And that is The Revelation of Jesus Christ!

The sign is a sign that God will confirm his Covenant. That he will do what he said he would do.

This sign that God will fulfill his word, the prophetic scriptures is connected with the healing and the restoration of the church. This happens on the third day. This must take place during the millenium. After two days he will heal us, on the third day he will raise us up.

Hezekiah's illness parallels the tearing and the smiting of Hosea 6:1-3.

It is the judgment on the church that comes first. Then we will have redemption and restoration. This is the healing.

The Illness Hezekiah comes right after the Assyrian invasion of Judah and siege of Jerusalem. When the Lord hears Judah's cries for help and comes and devastates the Assyrian host. This is also an allegory of the judgment and redemption process. The Assyrian Host is like the Hordes of Hell!

> " … When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him. Isaiah 59:19

An almost parallel passage is found in Matthew 16, here the Rock is Jesus the Headstone of the Church.

> And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Matt 16:18

The judgment and redemption process is a common theme all through the book of Isaiah. You can find it beginning with Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. And it is especially in Chap 28 & 29. See Lessons from The Duck Yard

Is it any wonder that He begins Chapter 40 with the words Comfort Ye My People? And end it with the famous passage - But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31! This is what it means to be healed and to be able to go up unto the house of the Lord.

Surely this is a description of the Church Redeemed and flowing in Full Revival!

To sum up what we've said so far, the Revelation of Jesus Christ will be a sign that God is about to Build his temple and bring in the great end time harvest of souls.

So now what is the sign of the Revelation of Jesus Christ? Or what are the signs? How will we know that this is happening?

Look back in the book of Revelation. We said that Jesus opening the scroll is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. What happens after each seal is broken, one by one? Great Judgments come forth.

Look in Psalm 9

> The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. …. Ps 9:16

It says the Lord is known by the judgments. That is one of the ways He reveals Himself, through judgments. And these judgments are redemptive. They will bring the Latter Rain, and The Great Harvest. Isaiah 29 says:

> With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. Isaiah 26:9

So God's Judgments in the Earth are a sign of the Revelation of Jesus Christ. And a sign He is confirming His Covenant and fulfilling scriptures. A sign that He is about to keep his promises.

> And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. Luke 21:28

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of

Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

A Home In You

Judy Bauman

Jesus said, "If you love Me, you will obey My teachings." If you do this, He pledges, "My Father will love you and We will come and make Our home [abode, special dwelling place] in you." If the God who created the heavens and the earth has made a home in you, then you will not be left alone to face life's daily trials and tests. Jesus promises in His Word that He will not leave you as an orphan, but will send to you a Comforter. The Comforter is His Holy Spirit. Is there an empty spot in your heart? Then invite Him to abide in you now. If you have already accepted Jesus as your Lord but you still feel empty or unsure about your salvation, it could be the result of the way you treat the One with Whom you share living quarters.

How do you treat the Father, Jesus, and His Holy Spirit? Are you respectful of your Companion's likes and dislikes? Have you made a point to learn what those things are? Do you treat Him like a friend or like a visitor? Are you trying to make it look as if things are better than they really are in your home? Don't fool yourself. God sees what is hidden in your closets, crammed into your garage, swept under your rug, stashed in your attic, veiled in your files, and concealed in your basement. He knows what you have and what you continue to reap from your reading materials. He sees the TV shows and the movies you watch, and knows why you laugh at the jokes you hear. Jesus knows everything going on in your house. He sees what you see and even what you don't. God sees your heart. You can hide nothing from Him. Nothing. A day will come when you will stand before the Father, with or without Jesus' help, and give an account for your life. Are you ready for that day? If not, then today is the day to clean house!!!

Jesus is not like anyone else you have ever had in your home. He comes to help, not to ridicule, judge or torment you. He wants to encourage you from the inside out. If you give Him access to every area of your home, He will help you clean it by casting His soft, loving Light on those hard-to-reach places. His long arm will tenderly clean out the vilest places in your heart that have kept you living in shame. Christ wants to say to you, "Come and take my hand. I won't abandon you, so don't be overwhelmed or afraid. We will work together to get your house clean. You will rejoice and so will I." Then you will be able to walk in His righteousness, and be clothed in His love.

Because God lived as a man in Jesus, He knows the things you go through. He understands why you fall, and He understands why you have a difficult time getting up. For you and all of mankind, Jesus came to earth and took our eternal beating, our eternal ridicule, our eternal torment, and our eternal death. He came to set the captives free. Why? So that we can boldly go to the Father, through Jesus, and be one with Him. Jesus came to spare you from everlasting separation from God caused by the sin in your life. Do not be fooled. "All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God." Christ bought and paid for your freedom with His own innocent blood. Now His desire is for you to live your life abundantly, through, and in Him.

Christ loves you and wants to help you, but you have to admit that you need His help. Trust Jesus. You can attempt to build your home without the Lord, but it will be in vain. However, when the Creator of the universe lives on the inside of you, the Master of reconstruction will be at work for your benefit. He will remodel, rebuild, add-on, refurbish, and redeem all you want or need done to your house. All you have to do is ask. God promises that you will receive, and He keeps His promises. To get started on an exciting and wonderful journey with the Father, simply and honestly say*, "GOD! HELP ME!"*
~Like the prodigal son's father, the Lord will come running to greet you.~

To confirm this message, please refer to these Scriptures in the Bible:
John 14:15-27, John 1:1-5, John 12:47, Mark 7:21-23, Mark 15:10-39, Heb 4:15, 16, Heb 9:14-15, Gal 3:3, 13,
Gal 6:7, Luke 15:20-24, Ro 3:23, Eph 4:30-32 1Thes 5:8-11, Ps 1:1-3, Ps 127:1, Proverbs 3:5-8, Job 16:19-21
Is 41:10, Hag 1:2-8, Matt 7:24-27, Is 61:1, Ro 8:34-39, Ro 10:13, Ro 14:10-12, 2 Cor 5:17-21, 1 Peter 2:5, Rev 1:5

RivermistLighthouse1@comcast.net

A Hole In The Wall, An Appointed Time

Marc A Dupont

www.mantleofpraise.com

Part 1

November 2, 2004

In March of this year, after ministering in Melbourne, Australia I took a day off to visit some friends in Sydney. On the ride to Manly Beach, from the airport, the Holy Spirit begin to speak a word to me concerning integrity for those in church leadership around the globe. Some eight months later I am sensing it is time to release it. One of the lessons I have learned the hard way over the years is to not give a word prematurely. Often, the Lord will give a word well before the appointed time of release. This may be because intercessory prayer is necessary as part of the preparation, or it may be that it will take the hearer of the word a bit of time to get the whole word. And on occasion it is because the Lord wants to the messenger of that word to grow into the reality of the word before it's released to others. For whatever reason, I have not sensed the timing of the Lord to release this until now.

Usually when we think of an appointed time we think of a long awaited breakthrough of blessings. An example would be the Lord telling Abraham, that at the "appointed time" He would return and the long awaited child of promise would be born to Sarah. Psalm 102. 13 tells us that at God's appointed time, He arises and has compassion on His people. Habakkuk, the prophet, encourages us to hang on to the visions God gives us, because they will come to pass at the appointed time! Obviously God is good to His people all the time, but there are certain appointed times of significant breakthrough. Certainly Jesus, the Messiah came at an appointed time. The basic understanding of an appointed time is very simple. It is a time that God has fixed, or determined to release, or impart, something at a very particular date, or season, according to His sovereignty. Whether we are prepared, or not, if we are the intended recipients of that impartation we either experience it, or as with Jerusalem, we can miss the time of visitation, or blessing. However, not only are there appointed times of blessings, but on occasion those appointed times are seasons of judgment. Psalm 75, verse 2 reads: ""When I select an appointed time, It is I who judge with equity."

Often, when the body of Christ considers judgment and repentance we make two crucial errors. First, we think that His judgment is only reserved for the lost, or those outside of the church. 1 Peter tells us, however, that judgment does not start first with the lost, or nonbelievers, rather it starts first with the church, (1 Peter 4.17). Secondly, we often misunderstand God's intentions when He does release judgment on His sons and daughters. The Father's heart for us is always one of restoration, rather than destruction. Sometimes He wants to break us down, so that He can build us up! We fall into this second misperception because we really don't understand God's heart is so very much for us. When God revealed a bit of His glory to Moses, in Exodus 34, He stated that He was "slow to anger". Hebrews 12.11 reads: "All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness".

God is patient and long suffering. But there comes a time when not out of anger, but out of deep love and concern for us He will release judgment for the sake of correction and healing. Usually, at that point, we (the sinner) are standing at a dangerous precipice. We can think of an extreme case of sin in the life of a Christian such as the man in the church in Corinth who was actually having sex with his own stepmother. Paul stated that he had "decided to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh". But it is critical that we realize Paul's motivation. He continued on in 1 Cor. 5.5 "so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus". In such cases, God's judgment is not eternal damnation, but rather to bring our hearts to repentance to come back to a place of wholeness in Christ. There is a certain sin Jesus spoke of that is onto eternal judgment- speaking evil of the Holy Spirit, but generally speaking, this is a sin only a non Christian would commit.

The Responsibility of Gatekeepers

Additionally, God will release judgment not only for the sake of the saint who's given them self over to a sin, but, also, for the sake of the church. Jesus told us that to whom much is given, much is required (Luke 12.48). This is, very true for leaders in the body of Christ because in the place of their authority they become a filter, or grid, by which blessings and/or curses are released to the Church. Because of their authority, they are, in effect, gatekeepers to the church. And when they are practicing hidden sin an open door for sin and/or the demonic is opened up. A little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough!

When leadership is right with God, living in love, grace, and humility they are an open door for the body of Christ to experience more and more of the fullness of Christ. As leaders we can be either vessels of purity by which pure water can flow out of, or vessels with mud and debris within them, which in turn release polluted water. No matter how pure the incoming water, if the vessel is polluted, mixed water flows out. The messenger is the message, the teacher is the teaching, and the prophet is the prophecy. It's not so much merely the words we speak to the church, it's who we are that mostly impacts people.

The Lord spoke that He is going to begin to release judgment and exposure to leaders in the body of Christ who are practicing sin. This release of judgment onto restoration will be on a broad level. This is not to say God is requiring leaders to be perfect, because only Jesus is perfect. The apostle Paul differentiated between those who occasionally commit sin, and those who practice sin (Romans 2.1, Galatians 5.21, & Eph. 4.19), When someone practices something they do it over and over again to the point of getting good at it. Because of their position and ministry leaders in the church, who live in sin, out of necessity, keep their sin hidden.

God did not say He was demanding sinless perfection from His leaders, but rather men and women who are true examples of humility (dependence on God), grace, mercy, and love. They are free to abound in receiving God's love because they are free to be transparent due to lack of hidden sin and the ensuing lack of hidden shame.

When David rhetorically asked "who will ascend the hill of the Lord", he answered "those with pure hearts and clean hands". Purity and cleanliness are prerequisites for deep intimacy with God. The apostle Paul stated that many suffered needlessly due to hidden sin. He stated than many are sick, and have fallen asleep (died prematurely) because of hidden sin and not judging themselves correctly, 1 Cor 11.30.

Due to a lack of truly seeking the Face of God and experiencing much of His glory in the contemporary Western World church there has been a corresponding lack of a fear of God. Paul wrote to the church of Philippi to work out their salvation in "fear and trembling" because it is the living God within them who wants to work out His will and good pleasure. This lack of intimacy with the person of God has resulted in a low regard for holiness, which combined with the lack of intimacy creates an impotency in regards to the power of God being manifested through the church!

God wants to pour out His Spirit in an ever-increasing way. But, just as the devil found it was very dangerous to stand in the midst of the mountain of the Lord with sin in his heart, so it is true for the saints today, especially leadership. Because if it is true that judgment starts first with the household of God, than it is more than likely that judgment starts first with leaders. After all, the hardest words Jesus spoke to the people of Israel were for the leaders, not to the prostitutes, or thieves. Among the 7 woes Jesus spoke of to the religious leaders of His day, was the admonishment that they were like cups cleansed on the outside, but filthy on the inside. This is a picture of leaders in the church who look the part of a good leader, but their hearts and secret lifestyles are unclean.

A Hole In The Wall, An Appointed Time (Part 2)

Ezekiel, chapter 8. relates several powerful visions the prophet experienced. One of the most poignant is of God directing Ezekiel to dig through the wall of the temple only to find the elders in deep hidden sin. Verse 10 reads: "So I entered and looked, and behold, every form of creeping things and beasts and detestable things, with all the idols of the house of Israel, were carved on the wall all around." It goes on to say in front were the elders who were burning incense unto the Lord in the midst of their sin. The passage is compelling in that it relates God's intense disgust and hatred of the hypocrisy and impurity. If that was how strongly God felt about sin in the temple prior to men and women living with the Holy Spirit within themselves, how much more should there be a priority of personal holiness today!

There are going to be some who read this and react with a concern that I am promoting a return to legalism, or a performance oriented relationship with God. Quite the contrary, I believe God is calling us to embrace holiness, and to hate sin, out of a relationship of grace, mercy and intimacy with Him that only the cross could achieve. One of the classic definitions of Biblical grace is that grace does not give us the freedom to do what we want and get away with it. Rather, true grace gives us the freedom to be the person God wants us to be. The cross has given us access to God, but it is up to us to choose to walk in the freedom of the cross and the Holy Spirit! We are not trying to earn anything from God here, but out of love wanting to be imitators of our Lord Jesus. At the very least we need a revelation today that the Holy Spirit is the "Holy" Spirit of God!.

I do not know how long this appointed season of cleansing and pruning will be. I do sense it will go more towards the deep part of the pool, rather than the shallow end. Already just in the 8 months since the Lord began to give this word 3 major leaders of international ministries I know personally, who live in 3 different continents have had sexual sin exposed in their lives greatly to the surprise of those close to them. I am not saying this season is unto the immediate return or the Lord, although only the Father knows the time of Christ's return. Rather, I believe this is a John 15 time of pruning because God wants to bring about greater fruitfulness for the Kingdom of God and greater purity in the Bride of Christ.

Davids & Sauls

After Psalm 75 speaks of an appointed time for judgment (verse 2) it goes on to speak of the Lord promoting people (verses 6 & 7). This, as well, has to do with the greater fruitfulness the Lord wants to bring about through this pruning. Normally when a Christian leader has hidden sin in their life the accompanying guilt, shame, and insecurity render them very controlling. Controlling to the point of keeping the younger Davids that God is raising up from entering into their potential. There are many, many Davids right now serving under Sauls. These Davids are being kept back and often times attacked as David was due to King Saul's deep insecurity. It can be hard to read these present day Sauls because like the Saul of old they have an anointing in their life and know how to do the outward stuff. But when the Holy Spirit opens a hole in the wall of their soul there can be detestable things of every sort made visible. Often everyone knows, or suspects, the problems with a Saul, but it is not until the Holy Spirit reveals it that action can be taken.

The sins God is especially wanting to deal with are the big three. Just as in Africa they have the "big five" game animals people on safari watch out for- the lion, elephant, rhinoceros, leopard, and buffalo, there are also the "big three G" sins ministry leaders much especially watch out for. They are "girls, gold, and glory".

Stealing God's glory by constantly drawing attention to self, and building one's own empire, or ministry, may be even a more serious sin to God than sexual, or financial sin. God wants to share His glory with us, but He will not allow us to steal it! Taking glory to oneself, rather than giving it to God can be a much more subtle sin than the other two. As others before have pointed out spiritual pride is only revealed (by the Holy Spirit) it is not usually detected (except by others around you). One of the boldest prayers in the Bible is David's in Psalm 139: "Search my heart, O God, and see if there be in hurtful ways with me". God is faithful. Just as He is quick to forgive when we are honest with Him (1 John 1.9) He is also quick to give us insight regarding sin in our hearts if we choose to truly be vulnerable with Him. The problem, however, is that when one is practicing sin, shame causes one to "cover up", much like Adam and Eve in the Garden.

In closing allow me to reiterate the fact that God is not bringing judgment, or chastisement, out of wrath but rather out of love. Again to quote the writer of Hebrews: "God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness", Heb. 12.7-10. In a nutshell, God calls us, provokes us, and chastises us to holiness out of His great love for us. But on the flip side, to pass off the warning signs could be costly. It could cost one's marriage, family, ministry, and even one's health- emotionally, spiritually, and physically. As 1 Peter 1.16 reads: "you shall be holy, for I am holy"! Holiness must be more than a mere confession of heaven to come!

Below I have listed a few simple steps that may be appropriate for those leaders who are in bondage and truly desire to get free. Sometimes when we, as leaders, are going through things we need the simple reminders of what we already know so well.

1. Find someone who is a peer with whom you can be vulnerable and truthful with. When Jesus instructed the disciples to wash one another's feet He was speaking to a group of peers in relationship, rather than the masses. Sometimes you need a peer to understand the unique battles you are facing. This may end up being someone who is outside of your church. It does need to be someone, however, to whom you can be accountable. They need to be someone who will blow the whistle on you if you do not truly proceed with steps of restoration. David said: "When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away", Psalm 32.2. It may, or may not be, your body which wastes away, but it will be your identity, balance, and emotional health that fall apart due to the ravages of guilt and shame.

2. If your sin is "hands on" sin, such as sexual sin, or financial impropriety, it needs to be brought out to the leadership team of your ministry. And almost always, you will need to step down from ministry for a time of restoration. Do not allow pride, or fear of loosing your calling, to get in the way. God's primary will for you is to become Christ like, rather than to simply use you in ministry. He loves you for who you are, not merely for what you do!

3. If you are a married leader who has committed adultery you need to confess this to your spouse. The damage is already being done. Even though they may be ignorant of the actual sin, they are already being hurt. It is only through the process of confession, repentance, and forgiveness that true restoration to a loving relationship of trust can be restored. It would be wise to first get good counsel as to how to confess this to family members and the church, for that matter. And don't be surprised if the forgiveness is preceded by anger over the betrayal. But, do realize the long-term goal of wholeness is worth the cost of bringing the darkness into the light.

4. Even if you are in a good state work hard at building real relationships of heart to heart communication. Both with your spouse and with a few people in you leadership team, or church. One of the easiest ways for the enemy to set us up is through isolation. Build relationships so that we can easily take care of the "little foxes in the garden" before they turn into raging lions let loose in our souls. Building equity in relationships is like building equity in a home mortgage. It takes time and work. But once you have a lot of equity built up in a relationship, it's just as with your house. In a time of difficulty, it's money in the bank and you can borrow on it if need be!

5. Lastly, and most importantly, learn, or perhaps relearn, the art of waiting on God. Many leaders are to be commended for their time spent in intercessorary prayer. But to spend time simply gazing upon God, communing with Him, and waiting upon His good pleasure is vital to fully walk in the Spirit of the Lord. Without this type of "watching" prayer, as Habakkuk practiced, it is easy to fail to see and hear the warning signs the Holy Spirit would give to us from the quietness of God's heart. It is in this place where we can receive from the Father those minor easy to fix corrections, rather than heedlessly heading towards the big judgments that bring everything to a painful halts.

Marc A. Dupont Mantle of Praise Ministries, Inc. November 2, 2004

America Hear My Words
Marsha Allred

April 6, 2005

"I have much to say to this nation. Hear My Words.

America, you began well - the men who formed your foundation called on Me to make their way clear - those who believed in Me - interceded with great power in My strength to bring forth this land of promise.

You have done well in much - and well you know those things for you recite them daily to remind Me - it is good.

Body of Christ - you are to be the soul of this nation of promise - but instead you have sold much of yourself to gain the comforts of the flesh forgetting how My Son lived on the earth - owning nothing He wouldn't give. I test you daily - Body of Christ, and you do not even notice. You are too busy striving for a tomorrow that may never come. Your life and who you are is not found in what you will accomplish tomorrow - your life is who you are right now in this moment.

Who are you in the face of the hungry? Where is the fount of your love in the face of divisiveness? When others express My Truth in another way - why do you insist it be your way alone? KNOW THE TRUTH FOR YOURSELF - LOOK INTO MY WORD AND KNOW THE TRUTH FOR YOURSELVES AND THERE WILL BE NO DIVISIVENESS OR RANCOR IN MY BODY ON THE EARTH. Do not argue man's rules and divide the Body of Christ. Have I not said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand?"

Do you dare to call yourself a Christ follower and still hold bitterness in your heart against your brother? Do you dare to call yourself a Christ follower and out of your mouth damn the lost to eternal damnation? How dare you damn what I weep over? Have you known the sinner for generations before he was born? Do you know and have you seen the strategies and tactics of the enemy that has distorted his vision and twisted his soul into painful contortions? So you dare sit in your earthly throne of judgment, little king, and display your pompous benevolence on those you wish and damn the soul I love? I will take you from your throne and crush it into dust. I will show you the torment of those you condemn until you cry out for mercy for your soul - cry out for mercy for your own soul - as you should NOW be crying out for mercy on the souls tortured in bondage.

If America be your throne - My determination will not falter. I will throw out the whole basket of fruit for the rotted has destroyed the good.

Hear Me now and hear Me well Body of Christ.

You have one season to tend your tree. Begin now asking Me what remedy you might use to bring life to what remains. I will look for My Love to spread abroad to the right and to the left. I will look to see if forgiveness is flowing in your midst - I will look into YOUR heart of hearts - INDIVIDUALLY - even as every branch and leaf is inspected for insects and decay.

If I do not see the Body of Christ reflect the Glory of My Son in this nation in one season - I will begin to destruct your false throne and raise My throne in a land you never expected.

Do not say - "What of him - what is he doing?" - for you will raise My anger. Look to your own heart and be fearfully careful to follow the instruction I give you in the days of your life. I look for a humble and willing heart that continues even when it stumbles - that one who is ever walking towards My Son until that life disappears into His Own. I will not handle the hard heart - the stiff neck, for it will destroy itself.

If your heart is good you have much to rejoice in and many blessings of surprise and fulfillment await you. If your heart is bad - rejoice in your darkness quickly for your time is short.

Come - Come - Come - My Heart yearns to give you all things that we might rejoice together - Come into the flow of My Love and be swept up in it's Powerful current - You will be filled with life and deposit life every place you touch with your hands and every step you take with your foot.

This can be a glorious day - it is for you to choose - hold that future before you and walk your life into Mine. Know My Word - Know My Word. Your very life and the lives of your children depend upon My Word. Know My Word FOR YOURSELVES-and do not only listen to man." ------------- Note: This is not a word of ruin and devastation but one of hopeful promise. God is Love - all He is asking is that His Body on earth reflect that Love by loving each other and loving the unloved. He is not asking for perfection - only that when we stumble we do not give up but GET UP and KEEP GOING FORWARD INTO HIM. He asks that our hearts be humble and that we give an accurate accounting of ourselves to be what He asks of us to be - His Hands and Feet on the earth. In Joel 2:12-14 directly after the description of the destroying army sent to envelope God's people due to their sins he says, "Yet even now," declares the Lord, "Return to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, weeping, and mourning; and rend your heart and not your garments." Now return to the Lord Your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger abounding in lovingkindness, and relenting of evil. Who knows whether He will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him, even a grain offering and a libation for the Lord your God?"

Luke 20:9-16,NAS "And He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard (a vine and vineyard is a scriptural picture of Christ and believers) and rented it out to vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time. And at the harvest time he sent a slave (a slave is someone who does not have freedom over his own destiny - he is forced labor to another - much as a sinner who does not know the freedom in Christ is a slave to sin) to the vine-growers that they might give him some of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed." (Much the way false Christians beat the sinners among them with words of judgment and condemnation. Christ on the earth - never condemned a sinner who came - only the hypocritical believers in religion. Have we sent any sinners away empty-handed?) "And he proceeded to send another slave; and they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. And he proceeded to send a third; and this one also they wounded and cast out. And the owner of the vineyard said, "What shall I do: I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him. But when the vine-growers saw him, they reasoned with one another, saying, "This is the heir; let us kill him that the inheritance may be ours." And they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him." ("And the King will answer and say to them, "Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these, even the least of them, you did it to me." Matt. 25:40) "What, therefore, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and destroy these vine-growers and will give the vineyard to others." And when they heard it, they said, "May it never be!" Isn't this what the Lord just said concerning America - that He would tear down our self-righteous throne and set His Throne in another nation we would never expect?

Luke 13:6-9 NAS "And He began telling this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it, and did not find any. And he said to the vineyard-keeper, "Behold, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree without finding any. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground? And he answered and said to him, "Let it alone, sir, for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer; and if it bears fruit next year, fine; but if not, cut it down."

Matthew 7: 1-5 NAS "Do not judge lest you be judged yourselves. For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it shall be measured to you. And why do you look at the speck in your own brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, "Let me take the speck out of your eye," and behold, the log is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly enough to take the speck out of your brother's eye." What would you think if you saw a man walking down the street - poking himself in the eye - beating himself with his fist-slapping himself in the face or cutting his fingers to the bone? I'm sure it wouldn't be "Well that's the life for me!" Yet the body of Christ walks through the earth doing just that - just how attractive is that for unbelievers? Some of us express our praise with instruments - some of us do not - some of us are more comforted by one truth than another - the only and most important line of demarcation is the Blood of Christ. It is the one undeniable, uncompromised truth - when He appears in the clouds we will remember nothing but that.

John 21:15-17 NAS "So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, Son of John, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Tend My lambs." He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me:" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Shepherd My sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Tend My sheep."

According to The Hebrew-Greek Key Study Bible - the word "lambs" in verse 15 has its root in the phrase "to ramble freely". The word "feed" in verse 16 has its root in the phrase "revolve around".

Wasn't the Lord instructing Peter to allow his life to "revolve around" those who tend to ramble and might very well stray and be lost - much as in the parable of the lost sheep? Living in this way puts the life of the Christian at His Master's direction and not his own.

The Lord provided me with a living example of what He wants from us as His people just a few hours before He spoke this word. A couple days before, my husband suffered several strokes and was in the hospital. At the age of 56 after being a homeschool mom with not many "saleable" talents I am faced with the need to go to work. After leaving the hospital on this day I stopped for gas on my way home. Not having the slightest idea of how I will meet the financial needs growing by the minute - my mind was spinning with questions of the Lord, my soul felt numb and my body VERY tired. As I pumped the gas into the car I noticed a man who appeared to be homeless speak to a woman at a nearby pump. I sighed to the Lord, "Please don't let him come to me - I can't deal with this right now." Just as quickly - the man turned and came straight to me. "Ma'am, do you have any spare change? I'd like to buy a hotdog inside." My first thought was to dismiss him gently but the Lord seriously checked my heart. Instead I found myself saying I would buy him supper when I finished pumping my gas. Together we went inside as the Lord instructed me to buy for him exactly what I would want to buy for myself. I told him to choose a sandwich and I handed him a bag of chips. I knew I'd want a cold drink-he chose a Coke. As I went to pay, the Lord reminded me that each night after supper I like a small piece of chocolate. "What would you like for dessert?" I asked, "Cake, or candy?" "Oh ma'am," he exclaimed, "This is a lot." By then we were standing at the candy and he said, "Oh I love candy. This is my all time favorite." Before I could pay, the Lord reminded me of what a cold and blustery day it was and the sun was going down. "Would you like a hot cup of coffee after that?" I found myself asking. "Oh, that's okay ma'am, I've had coffee today." I paid for his meal including a large cup of coffee when he was finished - as the clerk asked if I also wanted a lotto ticket. "Jesus takes good care of me-no thanks." I heard myself say. and He does. The experience was real - but it was one of those times that seemed so automatic and yet not - it was purely a gift from the Holy Spirit who led me through in spite of my own reticence. I am not sharing it now to proclaim my purity - Lord knows that would be a lie - but to encourage myself and you to live your life "revolving around" the lambs that "ramble freely" and could be killed.

I truly believe the Lord has given the Body of Christ in America - one season - one season to "get it right" or we WILL LOSE THIS NATION. I do not know what is meant by "season" - if it be our natural season of a few months or a spiritual season. I DO know this: the picture of a teen being asked to do a chore came to mind. If he goes as soon as he is told and does the work with a willing heart-even if there are mistakes made in ignorance-grace is given with further instruction. However, if he or she sits at the TV. ten minutes longer - and finally, reluctantly goes to his work - judgment will reflect that. Excuses and buck passing are not acceptable. WE ARE TO BE THE LOVE OF CHRIST MADE MANIFEST IN A DARKENED WORLD - we MUST keep encouraging each other to listen to the Holy Spirit and do His Will - not our own will, but His. We NEED to ask the Holy Spirit to overshadow each one of us with the instructions for each day that we might make His Praise Glorious!!! Please - let's love each other and look at those enslaved around us through His Eyes - as we would want Him to look at us.

A Heart Of Faith And Thanksgiving

Yolanda Ballard

Jul 18, 2005

I draw you near, and I give to you a heart of faith and thanksgiving, for faith comes by hearing and believing My words to you. Reach out and know that I AM God and that I AM faithful to manifest to you the many promises I have made to you. For I AM not a man who can lie or even a son of man who can change My mind. If I said it, I will bring forth all that I have promised to you.

Reach out to Me, and rest in My faithfulness to heal your heart and set you free from all bondage. For I see your heart of faithfulness to Me. Don't let the enemy lie to you saying that you don't have what it takes to get to the other side to see the promises come to pass for you.

I say to rest in My faithfulness for I AM stretching you at present to become a true son of God and not just a child. I AM stretching you that you will look past the natural and reach into the realm of what is natural to Me. I want you to believe that you have the faith to move the mountains and to raise the dead.

How do you know, unless your faith has been tried and tested in the fire, like gold purified in the furnace seven times, like My word? I have passed the test, and My words are true. Many have stood on My promises and seen My deliverance come. Yes, I have set the captives free from the hands of the task masters.

I have set those free from the fiery furnace and the lion's den. Yes, Hebrews Chapter 11 is full of those testimonies of those who trusted Me and loved not their lives unto death and some believing, not yet seeing the promises brought forth as yet.

Yes, reach out and know that you can trust your lives in My hands. No matter what you see, know that all things work together for your good. No weapon formed against you will prosper, and what the enemy has meant for your harm, I turn for your good.

So rejoice in the fire of My love, for I AM getting you ready to bring forth a harvest through you. I will move in greater works for I have made you a vessel that I can freely flow through. For only when you are weak, can I be truly strong through you.

This is the day I AM bringing you higher. I AM burning off the dross, and bringing you forth like pure gold. Do not fret at what you see. Do not trust in the report of man or even go by the ways of the world. I have made you a peculiar people. Your ways are not that easily accepted by others in the world and even most of the church.

You are My beloved. You are the remnant. You know who you are. Just rest this day and know that you are mighty in Me.

A Highway Shall Be There
Cyndee Pillow

12/1/05
iclight@sstelco.com

My husband and I were traveling to a destination. I was in my silver car driving ahead of him. He was working and had to drive a truck from his job. It went slow so I was ahead of him leading the way to our destination. This is typical of the believers today. Some having to work as in Egypt...toil and this has been a hindrance in more ways than one. The world would desire to slow down those on the path. We are to be concerned for them but not hindered. They are still on the right path, but not going as quickly as some think they should as they need to provide for families etc. Our part is to pray they catch up.

The road was a two lane that was straight. As I came up to get on the freeway that the road just turned into suddenly ...(no turns to get on this as the 2 lane just turned into the freeway).....I am looking at all the signs posted along the way, wondering where I was actually going or what signs to follow. The prophetic always seeking direction from signs and trying to see where they are headed instead of by faith. I continue forward and start onto the normal part of the freeway I should be on, and notice all the signs are covered...or backwards, as if it is the WRONG WAY.

This was not the case, but it was blocked off, as it was under construction. I could see men working diligently on this part that was closed down. So, I had to make a quick turn to stay on the road that now was a detour around the construction by these men working on the regular road. The church today is so wrapped up in works. Many have tried to go down this road, but the Lord is saying WRONG WAY! No direction there & no avenue to ME. He says, "See it is a road that is under construction, and is not ready yet for mainstream traffic to come back to the church.

You that are on this path, must go around now. BYPASS "This way". "I make a way where there seems to be no way for you."

The detour made a big half circle first veering a bit left circling back to the right around the construction on the regular freeway path. There were two lanes of traffic going the same direction. I was in the right lane. I suddenly realized I didn't know where exactly we were to go and with all the signs before me, I didn't know where I was to head. This is also typical of the feelings we have as we seem to be going wrong, when really the end result is of the Lord as the road's end is really right and not leftwinged and off as it appears in the natural. We must trust even when we don't know where were we are headed, '= because the USUAL road, USUAL path we were told to take is one closed because of WORK, labors and toil within the church. "Not by works, lest any man should boast."

I call my husband behind me, on the cell and ask him directions. He didn't answer me. This is also typical of us who in times of "not knowing " in the natural where we are headed, we seek others that might have the way, answer for us. Many of us have slowed down as we see those we love seeming to lug behind, and we have looked back a few times. We want to go make sure that we are headed right. They don't know...and there is no help, but God at this point.

I slow down to wait for him to catch up and take the lead, but I can't slow very much, cause I am on this freeway and there's no place to pull over as I would cause an accident if I stopped in the road because there were no sides.

I keep going hoping he will hurry up and catch up. We've come to a place we know we can not wait anymore for others to catch up, get it, or take the lead. It is up to us to trust the Lord as individuals and go forth in blind faith. If we were to stop, it would cause others to be spiritually wrecked because of our hesitation.

I start spiraling up up up on this road, like high as an airplane would go and this is taking a big spiral turn around the construction, and starts going back to the right. My husband is still not visible to me in the rearview mirror. We MUST NOT LOOK BACK. We are to keep our faces like flint and eyes focused on the Lord! This will carry us on the right path. No looking back. No cares of the world holding us down.

I look around as I drive, and it is dangerous, and so I need to be cautious not to fall off the sides as there is a huge drop off now with no sides and below is vast water. This is similar to being carried high above the troubled waters, cares of the world and the trials, fires and situations at hand. The drop off is the wayside. We must not venture near it or fall like the unprofitable seed falls to the wayside and is taken by the cares of the world.

Beautiful blue water every place I look and I notice, Grace is there and blue symbolizes even in these vast troubled waters, GOD reveals Himself through revelation.

"Thou hast caused me to ride over our heads: we went through fire and through water: but thou brought us out into a wealthy place."

as I glance at the scenery that there were powerlines on huge pilings spaced evenly across this vast water that had been blown so hard in wind that the powerline towers were all bent over double as if bowing down. These structures were white. The wires are still in place and connected to them, even though the towers are bent over. The bent powerlines, are the humbled apostolic Fathers that have cleared the way and gone before us, carried by words & teachings, line upon line, precept upon precept - pioneers that have made a way over the waters, as they are founded on the solid rock!

Words and Spirit......cutting a path across troubled waters. The "white" represents the holiness, priest garments as servants of the Holy One & bearing examples of that holiness we are to follow. They are bent in Humility...as they have LEARNED that God is Lord over all.

This is all I see as I need to keep my mind on driving, and.....now, as dream often do, I am still driving, but in the dream now I am walking. I am in my right lane, and now "right" appointed path to walk in with the Lord. A young girl is in the left lane going the same way as me and she appears to be in her late teens or early twenty's. This represents the young in the Lord and not matured.

Those not skilled in ministry but still on the path soaring high like the eagles. Young prophets and filled with the Holy Spirit, as represented by the gentle gender....female.

She gets too near the edge and I am concerned for her so I keep watching her and then she suddenly slips over the edge. she holds on for a second, but there was no way for me to catch her and she loses grip and falls. I hear her hit the water. We will see those along our appointed path that we are near danger. We watch them as they fall and land in "trouble" as the waters below engulf them. (all trouble we fall in--- an opportunity to gain knowledge not to do certain things a second time) God's Grace is found for this one in these waters.

I immediately stop in the middle of the road but it seems not be wrong to do this at this time, because this one is in trouble. Like it is acceptable to stop for such things. We must know the timing and know when it is God to stop. Compassion, Love, Concern, etc., Fruit of the Spirit will let us know that this is acceptable to stop for the ones falling into the ditch.

Remember the Holy man on his way to the temple when he saw the man in the ditch that had been beaten and robbed? It was God's opportunity to extend love and put the usual "rituals" on hold for the one in trouble. We must ALWAYS be moved by the fruits of the Spirit towards those around us, and ready at any time to change the agenda. We should know the "ACCEPTABLE TIME OF THE LORD!!!!!!" What is acceptable by Him? We must KNOW this to do HIS will.

I start yelling, "Help! Help! Man overboard! Man overboard!"

Intercession. Crying out for those that are unable to do so now. She is submerged in the troubled waters now. Prayer is essential for those on this road. Notice I didn't cry out woman overboard. She houses the Lord, Christ Jesus! What is important here, is her spiritual MAN. We must protect those younger than we so as not to allow them to drown in world's troubles loosing their place in the Spirit.

Out of no where comes 3 men to the rescue. Two are white and one is a Mexican or perhaps he is Jewish. I don't know, but dark skinned. I am not sure what this means.

The two white ones jump in to save her. One dives deep to find her underneath the water. The Holy Spirit speaks to the heart and dives deep within to bring us out of trouble, (comforter/teacher/guide). He hands her to.....the second...the Lord Jesus. Holy Spirit ALWAYS points to JESUS! Hallelujah!

The second one swims in circles on top of the water waiting for the other to surface with her so he can take her to hand her over to the other man that is kneeling beside the road, waiting so he can put her safely on solid ground again.

They do just this and she is saved. The third is the Father. Maybe this is why he seems different as there is nothing like the Father!!!! Then I woke up.

Scriptures for this:
Isaiah 35: 6-7
"Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing; for in the wilderness shall water break out, and streams in the desert and the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of the dragons where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes: And a highway shall be there, and a way and it shall be called THE WAY of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those (redeemed)....".

A Husband's Love
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, June 3, 2005

I don't know about you, but it is hard to believe that another month has just given way to a new one. Time seems to be flying by and every day brings fresh tests, as well as repeated ones to walk through. In last week's letter I wrote about the wonderful revelation of the Father's love. In the course of this week a number of challenges (experiences) in maintaining that awareness have emerged. Normally a day is spent going up and down the emotional barometer of feelings; from peace or joy and love all the way up and down the scale to turmoil, fear, frustration, worry, anxiety and more. However, since coming into a greater revelation of the Father's love and the sanctifying work of the Spirit, I have noticed that peace and contentment are gaining a greater hold on my daily experiences.

One of the most beautiful things that has arisen out of these past couple of weeks, is a new 'quality' of love that I now have toward my wife. The addition of the Father's love for me is spilling over into my relationship with her. I have often read, meditated, memorized and lauded the Ephesians scripture that says, " Husbands, love your wives, even as Messiah also loved the assembly of the called out [ekklesia], and gave himself for it [her]" (Eph 5:25). I'm sure that many of you wives are still dreaming (or may be now have even lost all hope) that that would ever be the case in your marriage. Husbands, if you were like me, you sent that scripture to paradise. I always thought that before I could love my wife in accordance with the Word, she had to submit to me (again, as the Word says). However, I had not paid attention to the fact that the love mentioned in that scripture is of the agape variety. I must admit, her submission and love for me did and could help in maintaining a semblance of togetherness, but certainly it did not result in the testimony that YHVH had intended for it to be.

If you have read my personal testimony, whether through these letters or in the book "Return to the Land", you may remember the section where the Spirit first touched my heart with His love for Rimona. That insight came after over a year and half of not feeling one inclination that she was the one that He had chosen for me, although the Father had shown and confirmed it to her in many ways. But when I eventually did have that revelation, it was truly His agape, holy love that I felt. Yet to my chagrin, that was the first and last time of experiencing that kind of pure love. until this past week. After wallowing in misery and being at the brink of giving up this relationship just a couple of weeks ago, the Father's heart of love was ministered to me as His little boy. The healing came with such power that I have not been the same since. I then began to prayerful wonder about this love in its application in the husband and wife relationship. YHVH's answer came in a very simple way: "It is the same agape love. You just have to express it toward and release it upon your wife". Instantly I began to feel the same love of which He gave me a taste so many years ago. Now it is here and available to her at all times. It flows out just as easily as a spring comes up out of the ground. Nevertheless, I do have to guard this nature of love against every thought that exalts its self against the knowledge of YHVH Elohim (see 2 Cor 10:5). In other words, He loves, accepts and cherishes her just the way she is.

The other morning, with tears in her eyes, Rimona expressed how wonderful it was to be affirmed as a woman. His love ministered to a very deep need in her, and it was done by an embrace, without as much as saying a word, not that there should not be words, those also are of utmost importance if led by the Ruach.

As husbands we must guard the ramparts and the gateways of our soul from spiritual defilement (unloving thoughts), as well as to respond in repentance when we do entertain anything that is not of His life within. We are the administrators of this new creation man to the soul of our wives and families. If our spouse is also a believer, then she gets a double portion, as she is also a new creation being in Messiah. The challenge for both is to maintain the relationship with our Heavenly Father experientially, knowing Him as agape personified, just as Yeshua did and manifested the Father's heart of love at all times. He knew who He was and where He had come from. We may think that this is impossible, but don't underestimate the power of His Spirit that is working in us.

I was greatly blessed by a letter and then further correspondence that I had received from a brother. Here are excerpts of his and my letters.

Shalom Ephraim We also have walked a road of lessons and repentance, and Father has been Faithful and True.

Just wanted to say I was touched by your candor and sensed your walk thru the furnace. My heart and compassion went out to you earlier today, having read the first email. and then I read this one just now. Wow. What a testimony both to the Father and also to His son, whom He loves and corrects, and how His son received the Father's reproof and Instructions.

We need Godly examples of how a man is to walk before the LORD. I have returned from a 2 week period of being apart with God, where I knew He led me, to reason with Him, learn His lessons, His new insights... all after a longer period of sufferings and repentance...and He showed His love, faithfulness and restoration in these past 2 weeks in a mighty way! It has left me in a new, like you said, higher but lower place in Him, which is exactly as it should be. I very much identify with your recent experiences...

While my wife and I still have much to learn and grow from each other, he has done an amazing work, and "turning" sure was anything but joy, but was not only unavoidable, but beneficial and served to bring awesome refreshing and restoration. and as you said, we both now stand and praise Him for it!

Thanks to you and Tim for sharing that we men are not alone in this type of process with Him and that "every child of Yah goes through this furnace". I feel like I am in good company, in the company of the true sons of the Holy One of Israel, whom he loves, corrects...and restores and refreshes...

M.

Shalom M

Thank you for this encouraging letter. It is always good to hear how others are making it through the fires of His loving discipline. When Abba puts us men together with a woman, it becomes our administrative responsibility to love her unconditionally. But you know - we don't have to try when He fills us with His love for her. To have the warmth of that love flowing through us is one of the most rewarding experiences a man can have. Ask Him to let you taste a little of His love for your wife. Now I know what the Scripture means when it says a man will cling to his wife. That clinging is like an injection tube through which His love is flowing. Have a great Shabbat enjoying each other in His love, Ephraim

Hi Ephraim, I'm glad my letter was of encouragement for you. you are right about our responsibility...and how He is able to flow through us with His love for them...I have tasted it...but did not sustain it/maintain that posture...so your exhortation is right on! I will ask Him starting tonight!

Indeed, He's caused me to cling to her like never before, and sometimes He knows exactly how to bring that about in each of us. We are in a new place with Him, both of us, together, echad, and it is marvelous in our sight!, as we walk together in love, mercy, respect and repentance.. Shabbat Shalom !! M.

And with that I want to say also Shabbat Shalom to all of you who are seeking first the Kingdom and His righteousness, which is demonstrated in His nature of love/agape. Ephraim

An Important 911 Call

Diane Bahler

An important 911 call that the whole world needs to be making continuously in this Day:

> "But I will call on God, and the Lord will rescue me. Morning, noon and night I plead aloud in my distress, and the Lord hears my voice. He rescues me and keeps me safe from the battle waged against me, even though many still oppose me. God, who is King forever, will hear me and will humble them." Psalm 55: 16-19

Thought this was interesting from my daily history email. It is time to turn back the enemy at the gates:

On This Day: Sunday September 11, 2005
This is the 254th day of the year, with 111 days remaining in 2005.

Events
1297 - Scottish patriot Sir William Wallace defeated the army of Edward I at Stirling Bridge.

An Investigation

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite Sept. 30, 2005

If there is one word that characterizes the house, stick, or tree of Joseph (Ezekiel 37) it is 'mystery'. So if you do not mind putting on a Sherlock Holms' hat, or an Inspector Clouseau cloak, let us begin our investigation by rendering all the glory unto the One to whom glory is due, and by acknowledging the fact that Joseph is a product of the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. YHVH calls himself the "Elohim of Israel" therefore, if we were to come to know Him, we would of necessity need to know whom this 'Israel' is. Conversely, to know who Israel is today would help us know and understand her Elohim. If YHVH hides His face, He would have to hide Israel as well. Thus there is a double mystery to uncover here.

As we set out on our journey of following Joseph's life experiences, let us consider his biography as a prophetic parallel to the destiny of those who would eventually comprise the 'House of Joseph'. We will begin our expedition starting with Joseph's ancestry and with events that marked his early years. Remember, when it comes to prophetic revelation-understanding, what we see in the microcosm of the life of the Patriarchs, may well be indicative of what is to take place in the historical macrocosm of their descendants!

Joseph's great-grandmother had been barren all her childbearing years. After she was too old to have children, she became doubly barren, if you will, since her womb and ovaries were totally non-functional by then. Notwithstanding, the Creator, for His purposes and namesake, intervened into the affairs of this family of faith. "Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to mercy, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the Torah (Judah), but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, 'I have made you a father of many nations' [gentiles] in the presence of Him whom he believed----Elohim, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did; who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, 'So shall your descendants be'" (Genesis 17:5; Romans 4:16-18 emphasis added). Later on in Israel's history, Isaiah the Prophet echoes this mysterious connection between the past and future. "Remember the former things of old, for I am Elohim, and there is no other; I am Elohim, and there is none like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet, saying, `My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure'" (Isaiah 46:9-10). Thus we see that the history of Israel is a continuum of YHVH's word, counsel and pleasure.

What are we to remember from "the former things of old" and from "the ancient times", and why? The Creator Elohim, in establishing His name, did so by making a covenant with Joseph's great grandfather Abram. YHVH sent messengers to him to tell him that his wife would conceive and bear a son. This was a cause of great laughter in the tents of this family, seeing that Abram was almost 100 years old and Sarah 90. These messengers certainly knew how to tell a good joke! But lo and behold, within that year she conceived and gave birth to the only begotten son of promise! When the birth pangs rocked Sarah's body and when Joseph's grandfather had actually emerged from the womb, making his debut in this world, it was no longer a joke. He was named Yitzchak, after the laughter that they had entertained in response to what seemed to them a humorous message. Since Divine intervention was the order of the day and the main testimony of the matriarchs, like Joseph's grandmother, Rebecca followed suit and was also barren for almost twenty years before she conceived the "two nations". The blessing she had received upon her departure from her family: "Our sister, may you become the mother of thousands of ten thousands; and may your descendants possess the gates of those who hate them" (Genesis 24:60), seemed almost irrelevant and hopeless after so many years of waiting. And as quoted above, "Elohim, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did", intervened in the family situation once again. Now, if you will, please switch your magnifying glass over to a statement made in the blessing to Joseph: "His glory is like a firstborn bull, and his horns like the horns of the wild ox; together with them He shall push the peoples to the ends of the earth; they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh" (Deuteronomy 33:17).

The Creator seemed to have had multiplicity on His agenda, just as He did when He addressed Adam, Noah and Abram, telling them to be "fruitful (which is also the root of "Ephraim") and to "fill." (found also in Israel's blessing to Joseph and Ephraim concerning their seed which was to become the "fullness of the Gentiles" ref Gen. 48:19). Is there any wonder, then, that the Apostles addressed the House of Ephraim as "Gentiles"? Take note of the difference between the Creator's words to Abram and what He said to Adam and Noah. To the former He says: "I will multiply your seed". It is He who takes Divine responsibility, as the husbandman, over the seed of the Patriarchs. Abram, being promised in the covenant by his Creator that he would become a nation, a chosen nation and a company of nations, was as assured of the fulfillment of that covenant as he was of YHVH's very existence: "For when Elohim made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, saying,' Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you'.. Thus He, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath. for it is impossible for Elohim to lie. (Hebrews 6:13-14, 17-18; Genesis 22:16). To be continued

I certainly hope that the testimony of both houses of Israel today is one that is not making out their righteous, faithful and holy Elohim to be a liar. Replacement theology is one of Satan's most priced gifts to the religious institutions and is a very dangerous road to walk on, whether one replaces the house of Judah or the house of Joseph/Ephraim, or both. We should examine ourselves very carefully to make sure that we are not bearing a false witness against the covenant keeping Elohim of Israel.

Those of you who are celebrating the feasts with our Jewish brothers, we want to wish you a blessed and rewarding experience as you walk through these days, not in the shadows, but in the Light of our Messiah Yeshua.

Shabbat Shalom and Hag Sa'me'ach Ephraim

As In The Days Of Noah
Nita Johnson

Israel on Center Stage

12-31-04

Something happened while I was in Israel for the last few weeks. Upon first glance it may not seem so imperative, however as we look at it again through the eyes of the Spirit of our most holy and just God we will be amazed. I am going to talk to you about Reformation, Israel, and the Asian Crises. I hope to show you that events in Israel will be the governor of world changes.

> As were the days of Noah so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For just as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, [men] marrying and [women] being given in marriage, until the very day when Noah went into the Ark. Matthew 24:37 & 38
>
> In the year 600 of Noah's life, in the seventeenth day of the of the second month, that same day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up and burst forth and the flood gates of the heavens were opened. Genesis 7:11
>
> Ask for yourself a sign (a token or proof) of the Lord your God. Isaiah 7:11

The Lord began to speak to me through the signs of the elements of nature about three and a half years ago when He endowed us with the Spirit of Reformation. Since that time He has brought an end to droughts, sent sudden and impressive wind storms that last for days, sent rain in the most unlikely places at the most unlikely time at the precise moment of prayer; He has responded in the midst of fire; stopped the tempest of destruction, including hurricanes, and earthquakes; and He responded by sending an earthquake in Alaska.

Two Princes downed.

This December I spent weeks in Israel in prayer for the Nation during which time I was openly confronted by the Spirit of Slumber. This evil prince has ruled over the ancient people of God since the Lord decreed that they be given over to it back in the days of Isaiah. (Is 29:10) When I saw him face to face I was astounded. I suppose that given my calling I shouldn't have been surprised that 'Slumber' was an evil prince, but I was. I asked the Lord why I was standing face to face with Slumber, and He responded immediately with: It is time to bring him to ruin. The mantle is now upon you so take authority over him and tell him to release the Nation and her sons and daughters all over the world. Then strip him of his authority over the Jewish people. I was so happy to obey Him in this command.

* S/B

As I obeyed, Slumber was immediately gone and it began to rain with heavy torrents in Israel. These rains continued for 2 days. This was followed by many notable signs which further attested the removal of "Slumber's" government.

A few days later I saw "Rothshawn". I was given special authority over this spirit by an angel several years ago. His name means: Head of the Goats. He is the evil prince who ruled over Sodom and Gomorrah before their destruction. He is one of Satan's three top rulers. His nature is spelled out clearly in Ezekiel 16: 49 & 50. He now rules over many nations in the earth. Israel has long been one of his favorite places of dominion. I proceeded to take authority over him as I had done Slumber a few days before, after which all remained quiet.

I was surprised by the quietness as it is never quiet when such an important prince is overruled. But, I waited and watched to see what would come of it all.

The next day I learned of the terrible earthquake and resulting tidal waves in Asia. Incidentally, Rothshawn rules over every Nation that was touched by the earthquake and rolling Tsunami. When I heard the news and that it occurred just hours after I annulled the authority of Rothshawn over Israel, I was shocked. I asked the Lord what if any, significance this had to Rothshawn's loss of power in Israel. He immediately spoke to me: Isaiah 7:11. I open the Bible and read it. "Ask for yourself a sign from the Lord!" I began to shake. I thought: the last time He gave me that Scripture it concerned our Prayer Summit in Portland. That Summit focused on President Bush, and Israel. The moment we broke through, and the Lord connected the President with Israel in a Spirit of faithfulness, we all knew it. The sign we were given as to the validity of the breakthrough was one of the worst earthquakes ever to hit Alaska. The Lord gave further clarification to me Himself by speaking to me in the trumpeting voice of the sounds of many waters. He told me at that time that every serious matter concerning Israel in this hour will be the opening of great fountains of the deep as in the days of Noah. (He spoke many other things to me as well which I won't go into here.)

Now, once again the same Scripture is given concerning a crucial event in Israel. The event was threefold; the dismantling of these monarch's of antiquity, Slumber and Rothshawn over His ancient people and the occurrence of two other equally important events that I shall discuss in a moment. These two Principalities were two of the key Princes over slumbering Israel. For their removal to occur at this time tells us how close we are to seeing the awakening of the nation of Israel to the Lord.

There is yet more work to do, but a huge work was accomplished on this last trip, a work that was testified to by a horrible earthquake and Tsunami. The fountains of the deep were broken open in the natural and in the spiritual. The Lord is using the Asian Crises to speak to us in a serious way about the days in which we are living. One of the things we will see is the Lord undertaking to bring down longstanding strongholds over nations just as He is doing in Israel. This will temporarily arrest the increasing darkness that is encroaching upon the world, the victories of which will pave the way for a brief global awakening and prepare the way for the battle of the ages; Satan vs. the King of Kings.

I shall now share the second critical event that occurred on this trip to Israel. But let me first lay a little ground work.

House of David

A couple of years ago I had a remarkable prophetic experience. I don't remember ever sharing it publicly as I do not have full understanding of it. I will share part of it now as the world is taking part in this drama at this very moment.

I saw the government of Israel fall. When it did, a tidal wave began to form in the Mediterranean and roll over a multitude of nations before it was finished. (The temporal Government of Israel is still in tact and the Mediterranean is untouched by the recent Tsunami as we can well see.)

However, while I was in Israel, something else happened in conjunction with the removal of the two Princes. The house of Saul was transferred to the house of David. In one sense, the true ruling authority over Israel has never left David's line. It is still in the bosom of Messiah therefore ever active over Israel. On the other hand, it is clear that the current natural government over Israel is not Davidic.

At this time, I cannot further elaborate on this, as it must remain a hidden mystery for yet a season. But, I will say that the Lord made a governmental decision that will have a global effect. The collapse of the house of Saul has set off a shock wave in the spirit equal to the Tsunami in Asia and is further attested to by the same. Just as the earthquake ignited a tidal wave that swept over many nations in Asia, the earthquake of the governmental action taken by the Lord sent out a spiritual tidal wave over the nations of the earth. We will soon begin to see the effects of it.

Days of Noah

In a second experience, which further alerted me to the seriousness of the things that I am sharing, I was taken up into the Lord Himself. I would not say I was taken into the heavens, or His Heaven, but into God. In this experience I was transported back into the Days of Noah where I found myself deep in the heart of the earth. I was in the middle of the earthquakes as they were taking place. I heard, saw and felt the great plates of the earth move all around me. I saw the pressurized fountains break open under the earth. During this experience I heard His voice trumpet down through the millenniums saying: "As in the days of Noah so shall it be!" As this experience came to an end, I was again told that Israel would be the vortex from which these things would occur. Israel would be the trigger that would charge the natural and supernatural forces of the earth in these last days.

Since 1948, Israel has been back on the front burner as the trigger for global events. Moreover, this reality will be highly escalated from this point on. The Church does not yet realize the importance of what the Lord has assigned to Israel. In her awakening, it will be as if the world has received life back from the dead. Every time the Lord so much as breathes on anything concerning Israel, it will somehow shake the world and the Church. Like a sleeping giant rising from centuries of slumber the Jewish people will prove to be a Nation to be reckoned with; for, God has His eyes and His heart set upon them to do them good in the end. The world is now in the throes of birth-pains as we enter into the time of birthing the new millennium. God's dealings with Israel are the barometer meant to keep us alert as to the progress the Kingdom of God is making. Critical forces were altered in Israel in December, and we saw the effects of it in the natural in Asia.

God is calling His Church to grieve with Him over the loss of so many lives in Asia. For His Word says He does not willingly afflict the children of men. Also, He does not delight in the death of the wicked, and further, that the children of the world are in His hands and in His heart. If He hurts we must hurt with Him for the suffering souls of Asia. In our grief, we are called to pray for them and help financially where we can. This is the act of aligning yourself with His mercy.

However, we must also take a good look at the severity of God. God has decreed the birth-pains of judgment upon the unrighteous governmental deadlock over the earth. Nations must be shaken, as the Lord reawakens Israel and leads the world into the birth of the reign of the King of kings which will be established right in Jerusalem. Peoples from every Nation on the earth will find their joy in His Lordship. Until then the world is in travail, the Asian devastation is part of it.

(Mathew 24: 6-8)

I add one final note before leaving this subject. I was awakened to pray for the survival of two babies. I knew these two actually represented many babies. When my intercessions were complete I went back to sleep. This morning I learned what my intercessions were over. Two children that represented many were being discussed in a news release. Both babies survived miraculously. One was the child of a man who is a Christian. The man's name is Jeremiah, whose name means God comes forth. In this case, out of troubled waters. The article told how the baby was carried away by the killer waves. Suddenly the father saw his little toe emerge out of the water and lunged for his son. This desperate act saved the baby's life.

Out of these troubled waters the Lord will come forth to the nations much more ready for Him than before. All across the media we hear the praise of His name amidst the horror of catastrophe. This is the way it will be in the years ahead as we move forward in the birthing of the Kingdom of God in the earth.

The Spirit of Reformation and Revival

We can have a certain joy knowing that a third consequential event has also taken place. This occurrence is the release of "Reformation" into Israel. Yes, the Lord is awakening Israel in the Spirit Reformation for Revival. While I was there the Lord told me to release Reformation into the Nation, which I did. We will see the effects of this Divine decision soon enough. In the experience I mentioned wherein I saw the Days of Noah, the Lord told me directly that what I was given to see was an image of the "Days and power of Reformation which is now upon us." How much more earth shaking will it prove to be when Reformation and Israel are met in union?

In conclusion: The Reformation, The dethroning of ancient demonic monarchs, and the transfer of the government to the house of David, will ignite cataclysmic events world-wide. Keep your eyes and prayers steadfastly on Israel, for "the days of Noah" hence the days of Elijah are here. In addition pray for the world as the Lord's judgments and grace continue to flow preparing the way for His glory. When you see the war between Ishmael and Israel you will know that the time of reconciling all things is near.

Shalom,

Nita (LaFond) Johnson

*(I want to warn the reader that a commission to deal with these high ranking spirits is something the Lord has given only a very small handful of believers who have been trained and equipped to do such a work. It is not for just anyone to attempt to do.)

Anguish in the Heart of God
Francis Frangipane

While the tragedy of the Asian tsunami has drawn our hearts to its widespread death and apocalyptic devastation, there has been another tragedy repeatedly striking this same region for decades. Yet this ongoing disaster has been almost completely ignored. What is the horror of which I write? This part of the world is infamous because of the trafficking of slavery, especially women and children.

The Polaris Project explains: "Trafficking in persons, also known as human trafficking, is the modern practice of slavery. It is the third largest criminal industry in the world today, after arms and drug dealing, and is the fastest growing."

Quoting information from the Salvation Army: "Almost 200,000 Nepali girls, many under 14, are sexual slaves in India. Experts estimate that 10,000 children aged between six and 14 are virtually enslaved in brothels in Sri Lanka. Around 15,000 children were sold into sexual slavery in Cambodia between 1991-97. Asian women are sold to North American brothels for $16,000 each. The Thai Government reports that 60,000 Thai children are sold into prostitution -- independent non-governmental organization (NGO) experts estimate the figure to be closer to 800,000." See Sexual Trafficking: Fighting the New Slave Trade

In his swearing-in speech in March, 2003, John R. Miller, Senior Advisor to the Secretary of State and Director of the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons, said: "The dimensions of the modern day slavery challenge that we face are vast. There are not thousands or hundreds of thousands but over a million people who are trafficked and enslaved every single year. That's right -- over a million every single year."

I could go on. Picture your child kidnapped and sold into a sex ring. This is the evil of this horror. Multiply your outrage by a million women and children a year and we can get a glimpse of the anguish in the heart of God.

There is some effort to counter this wickedness on an international scale. The United States, in its implementation of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000, has become increasingly more vigorous in its strategies to protect and assist victims, prosecute traffickers, educate travelers, and prevent trafficking (See Article). Still, a great many of those kidnapped and sold into slavery come from the nations hit by the tsunami.

I believe the Holy Spirit is using the tsunami, not only to stir compassion in the world, but also to spotlight the sickness and horror of the slave trade. Now is the time we must mobilize spiritually. What can we do? First, let us pray with fervor and give with generosity to help the regions stricken by the tsunami. Yet, as the Holy Spirit exposes this deep wickedness upon a worldwide stage, let us prevail in prayer for a worldwide response to crush the slave trade.

- Pray for all those Christian aid workers who have been welcomed into these non-Christian nations. Pray that God will use them to truly represent His heart. Pray for their protection and strength. This is an unprecedented opportunity, especially in reaching the lost.
- Pray that nations will stop tolerating the sexual exploitation of women and children, that they will enact and enforce strict punishment of slave traders and pimps.
- Pray for the local pastors and Christians who are already living in this region of the world. They are the ones who must deal personally with this great tragedy while also rendering themselves servants of God to help others. They need our prayers to stand in this hour of testing and find ways to transform their culture.
- Pray that the markets for slaves will also come under international pressure and that those who carry out these wicked crimes will be incarcerated.
- Finally, support with your prayers and funds those organizations that are currently involved in rescuing and rehabilitating the victims of slavery. One place to start is with the Salvation Army, which not only has people on the ground in these areas, but also knows which ministries have been effective in rescuing people from slavery.

Just as the tragedy of 9/11 focused the world on the horrors of Islamic extremism, so this tragedy is turning our eyes, resources and resolve toward ending modern slavery. Where is God in the tsunami tragedy? He is in our hearts to remedy this horrible injustice.

America In The Last Days My Dreams
David Kocurek

I feel led of the lord to tell you what the lord has shown me, in my dreams. perhaps you will be further enlightened of what the lord has planed for America. I hope this warning will help Gods children and help people turn to Jesus. feel free to post it on your sight with my name and e-mail address if you'd like. and please write me back and tell me what you think? my dreams seem to coincide with Dumitru Duduman's prophecies

While praying in earnest one day in my chicken coop, I was asking the lord why was I so poor? because with God all things are possible. lord you can make me rich. you can turn rocks to gold and dirt to diamonds why not me? then the lord interrupted me, Dave, Dave what would you do (if) I told you I was going to change the world as you know it in the next 5 - 7 years? well that god my Attention. the lord is right, for what does it prophet a man if he should gain the whole world and loose his soul?

America is going to pay a heavy price for her sins, Babylon. beware of Russia and China!!! Jeremiah 50-n-51 and revelation 18.

(US Air Force destroyed)
I'll start with this dream, I dreamed I was in Klamath Falls ore, the season was fall. we just apparently just bought a piece of property. then wile looking toward the "north" sky I saw a strange sign in the sky. I saw two lightning bolts one on top of the other only without the clouds. then I saw 3 all white military jets fly over slowly. then a lighting bolt struck near by, followed by another only this one was real close. Some how I knew or heard that the US Air Forces were destroyed by a "new tactic" I turned to run but saw three all white makeshift shelters that looked like big dome tents, so I ran with my two littlest children in one of them for protection.

It was a powerful dream. I thought wow America Attacked? the US Air Force destroyed? A surprise Attack From the north? but what of the Sings of the two lightning bolts and what did those mean? About two weeks latter, I was caring in groceries in to the house then saw to my surprise that there on TV was a military man in uniform being interviewed and there on his shoulder patch was one lightning bolt. one identical of the two I saw in the sky in my dreams. so I turned up the TV in time to hear them say, what is it you do in the military ? what is your specialty, he pointed at patch and said "Tactical Nuclear Weapons"

Now this made sense, Because in Klamath Falls Ore, there is a Fighter base with about 4 fighter wings and the only ICBM missile silo in Oregon. they will use Tactical nuclear weapons. or "small nukes"

(US Navy destroyed)
Then I was given this dream. I dreamed I was in a all blue room there was a high ranking military man sitting at a table. Around him were many press corp. people who were interviewing him on the latest sex scandal to hit his branch of service. they were mean and cruel. they even went as far as to insinuate even this top officer. but in my heart I knew they were wrong so I felt sorry for him. I walked around the table and put my hand on his Shoulder and said it'll be OK General. he then looked at me with a dirty look? it was my mistake, Because he wasn't a US general for the Army but a US Admiral for the Navy. they hate that sort of thing.

Next, I found my self with this same Admiral on some US Navy dock. every one was running around and in a Hurry. So I ask the US Admiral what's going on and why is every one in a hurry? he said that all our navy was destroyed at sea. by surprise attack and so they were trying to get what they had in reserve ready to go out to sea and fight. so I volunteered to help. we went Aboard an old Air craft carrier, and down below. were the Boiler was. it was badly rusted. I opened it up and saw cold ashes in there so I took a shovel and started stirring the ashes but to my surprise, I saw some large whole cooked eggs in under the ashes? as I was wondering what this was and why? the Admiral came over to me and put his hand on my shoulder and said son its no use all that we have in reserve is "hard boiled"

Wow another powerful dream! us Navy destroyed two, by a Surprise Attack. but I wonder about the phrase the Admiral used. "Hard boiled" could it mean that they were nukes two or what?

(Nuclear Tipped Torpedoes)
I dreamed I was on a Russian naval dock. I could see many Russian sailors going to and from. I saw many War ships. then I notice a Russian sailor waving at me to come over. he was standing on a Russian Diesel sub, that was being loaded with several things. I met him on the dock. he then looked around to see if any one was watching. then lifted up this old tarp. under it was two nuclear tipped torpedoes. they looked old but in my heart I knew them to be very much alive.

After this dream I wonder about this Surprise Attack that Comes from the (north) on America. is this possible? in Jeremiah 50 and 51 this Attack comes from the (north) so I prayed and asked the lord

(Americas weakness)
I dreamed I was some were back east. at some military collage. were they teach military doctrine and tactics and the ways of war. I saw a young officer student sitting on a curb. so I went over to him and sat down next to him. so I asked him and told him. about this surprise Attack on America from the "north" and if it were possible??? he turned and looked at me and said. OH yes. he said. in fact an Admiral had written on this very same subject. and warned of this possibility to his superiors. and was no secret. and this student was able to look it up in his library.

This was a lot to fathom, but I couldn't help but wonder? what About an invasion that would have to fallow. Because you just don’t Attack America like that and not do nothing. surely something would have to happen. so not long after and much prayer, the lord gave me a new series of dreams.

(Ferrying Front Line Troops)
In this dream, I was a bus driver. I was in Montana. it was my job to ferry US troops from the front lines west of Missoula to Helena. for rest and relaxation. the troops all wore civilian clothes? on the bus ride no one said a word. there were no smiles, no chit chat, no playing around nothing. the looks on their faces were one of hardship and toil. I couldn't help but think, things must be really bad on the front lines? then we got to Helena we stopped at some school or something for the men to get a shower. but still no one said a word. the looks on their faces showed no hope. but grief that they would have to return to the front lines. a man whispered something to me but I couldn't remember. I just kept thinking on how bad the war really was.

(The Draft)
In this dream, I was drafted in to the US Army. I was at some military base standing in a long line of men. and I was just waiting my turn to get checked in and get my gear. now this line went all the way out side and down the sidewalk were I stood at the end. wile waiting, I noticed another line going into another door. only this line had 12-13 year old boys in it. I thought to my self wow! this war must be bad if the US Army is drafting little boys? so I wondered were I was and what was this place? so I asked the guy in front of me. were are we? what is this place. then he said, Fort Hood Texas.

When I woke up, I look it up on the net and sure enough, there it was Fort Hood Texas. it is a very large military base. I think this is the way the lord confirms these things to me. to remove my own doubts. on what he is showing me. in my dreams. Also, In a dream I was told that Australia and England will be on our side in this war. and that US special forces will be allowed to train in these two country to help repel the enemy invaders in America.

(Stopping the Russian advance)

In this dream I was in central Nevada. I was in the desert with about 20 other soldiers. we all wore civilian Clothes but had m-16 rifles. we were walking spread out in a line going north up this valley. it was our job to stop the Russian advance in this area. I was noticing how small and short all the plants and brush and cactus was in the desert. the gun fire erupted. I hit the dirt. I saw in front of me the enemy. they were in fox holes about a hundred meters apart. with two enemy per fox hole. I returned fire and emptied my clip. I went to change clips, when I noticed those of my unit was moving to the right for higher ground. to a small hill for cover. so I fallowed. by the time I got there with them the gun fire had stopped, then Cheers went up among our troops. because we had met and stopped the Russian advance. in fact some were so happy they even mooned the Russians below. this made me laugh.

Now I don’t know why we wore civilian clothes but it is my guess is that in this war, on American soil WW 3 is going to so bad that millions will be fighting. And the army just can’t clothe that many at this time?

(No Stopping Them Here)

In this dream I was in my home town of Klamath falls Oregon. I was out side by Klamath lake. with the towns people who were trying to set up a possible ambush to stop the Russian Armored advance into Klamath falls from Medford Oregon. but just then a man came running to us and said its to late, the Russians took a different root than expected.

Now this bothers me seeing how I live in Klamath. so I prayed over it in Ernest. I asked the lord is there something I can do? like set up an ambush? or what? then I heard these words. "no Dave, you cant stop them." the lord is right. because the lord is the one sending this Army upon America for her many sins. and if he is the one sending them to take this town or that town, who can stop them?

(Behind enemy lines)

In this dream, I was behind enemy lines. I was in the mountains and forests south of Medford Oregon. I was a US guerilla fighter. as I was walking slowly thru the forest with my rifle, I came across a strange thing to see in the middle of the forest. I saw a small round steel man hole cover in the middle of the forest. I walked up to it. it had these words on it. "OIL Eugene Oregon" I opened it up and saw that it was used for oil. the oil blackened tube went straight down into the darkness.

Next I found my self even further behind enemy lines still a Guerilla fighter. I was in Eugene Oregon. I was out side in a suburb there. the houses were all looted. the people gone. windows broke out. all the homes were thrashed to say the least. I grew scared Because its not safe to run around outside in an enemy occupied city during daylight hours. so I ran in to one of the looted houses. the place was thrashed. all the widows were broke out. but I saw on the floor among the junk strong all over the place was about 20-30 of those leather belts with shoulder straps. the same as the ones the Russian And Chinese military wear with their coats. I got the feeling that a big battle took place here. a costly one. not just for Americans but Also for the Enemy who paid a heavy cost in war material, men, blood.

Then I looked thru one of the broken windows. and saw a lone Russian soldier, he was in some ones back yard going thru some tool shed. he was rummaging thru stuff. I grew scared and wanted to run but for some reason I just seem to keep getting closer and closer. so close that I could even see his face. I was then that I realized he couldn't see me? so I watched him a wile. he seemed to be looking for something. I could tell from his facial expressions that he was worried. I got the feeling this lone soldier was short of supply. I got the feeling that the Russian war machine was winding down and in short supply. because it left this lone soldier here to fend for him self for food and supplies.

Note, Eugene Oregon is were most of the Pacific north west gets its gas-oil. Eugene has a large oil and gas tank farm there. perhaps this is why the Russians wanted this City so bad. for its Oil and gas, to keep the Russian war Machine going? Also late in this war it appears that the Russian War machine will start to falter.

(Hunting Chinese.)
In this dream I was a US soldier. I was in Sacramento California. I was with a unit of about 20 men. it was our job at this point to patrol the city to keep it safe from the enemy from coming in. we wore civilian clothes we had M-16s rifles. as we were patrolling , we heard a gun shot up ahead at some Apartment buildings and saw some commotion ahead. so I called in an air strike. but just as the old war jet was about to drop its bombs, it pulled up with out dropping its bombs. it was a good thing too because it turned out not to be the enemy but some drunk man in a domestic dispute.

Latter we were out in the hills Around Sacramento hunting Chinese. because some US officer told us that the Chinese had captured one of the Hawaiian islands and had gotten into Northern California some how by a very small Coastal town there. and had gotten as far as the hills somewhere around Sacramento. so we were in the hills on the dirt back roads in the woods. we were driving an old Sherman WW 2 type tank. we came across some Chinese military vehicles parked and hidden in the brush. but no Chinese. we took advantage of the situation and opened fire on the vehicles. the man to my right said he got five in one shot? Armor piercing round?

Latter we found some Chinese on another ridge from ours. but by the time we went Around, another US military unit was Already engaging the Enemy. I saw an older man who fought in WW 2, an Officer who was drafted. we were both watching the battle unfold from another ridge. he said to me "it may be old WW 2 stuff but at least it worked good, referring to some of the military equipment many Americans will be left with to fight in this war. then he smiled real big. he was a short heavy and half bold but a funny man. then we both turned to watched the battle unfold on the other ridge. I could see the Chinese held the top. the US troops were trying to get to the top. but it was steep and the troops were pulling on the grass and pulling out clumps of it on their way to the top. but just as the Americans were just about to reach the top, the Chinese opened fire on them. shooting and killing them all. I watched as the dead US soldiers Rolled back to the bottom of the hill.

War is hell. many of us will have to resort to old WW 2 equipment to get thru this war. old tanks old artillery old plains etc...the Chinese will capture one of the Hawaiian islands. and get into northern California. US civilians will be a problem, by being caught in between two fighting Army's on US soil. Also the Americans will send wave after wave of US soldiers against enemy lines. After all, it is our home land. but millions of American Soldiers and civilians will die in this war right along with the enemy. Americans from the young to the old All will fight in WW 3.

(US general, the map, US counter attack.)
In this dream, I was some were back east. some were around the Mississippi River. some place hidden. I was in a war room. there was a table with a map of north America on it. at the table standing, looking down upon the map, was one US Army General. around the room were many military staff busy working. I went over to the table were the General was and looked at the map of most of north America. with the exception of the most eastern Coastal States.??? that part of the map was dark??? but the rest I could see I could see all the Mississippi River states. all the great plain states all the Rocky mountain States all the West coastal states and the south. I could see most all of Canada and all Alaska two. and parts of Mexico.

For the first time I could see the Battle lines marked on the map in "RED" I was surprised on just how much the enemy had captured. the Russian and Chinese held every thing west of this line. it started in the most upper north corner of Alaska Canadian Boarder at the Arctic Ocean. then south across the Yukon territory. to the Rocky Mountains then south Along the mountains to British Columbia. then further south along the rocky mountains. making a couple turns west but then went back to the Rocky Mountains. then all the way south along the Rocky mountains to Montana Canadian Border About to were Glacier national park is. then the line went straight south to the central mountains of Idaho thru the bitter root range. then straight south to the valley of southern central Idaho. then south thru the Idaho valley to the boarder with Nevada, Cutting Idaho in Half. then south into Nevada about 100 miles. then made a turn toward the east, 50 miles then turned back westward in a south western swoop going about half way into Nevada. about 300 miles then north 50 miles then east 50 miles then north 100 miles to the Oregon Nevada Boarder. it looked like an Giant up side button mushroom. then at the Oregon Nevada boarder it went west along the border to the California, Oregon Boarder straight west along the boarder west to the mountains and forests. All the way to the Pacific Ocean.

Then I watched as this US General come up with a plan. to counter attack. his plan was ingenious. but for the sake of this future battle and the millions of life's involved, I wont go into detail. but I watched the general launch his Attack from the great plains. catching the enemy by surprise. and with devastating fire power. this plan worked and pushed the enemy out of American home land. how ever the world war would continue.

Now According Dumitru Duduman, Civil war is the start of things. but mine seems to end with one.

(Civil War)
In this dream, I was on a mountain top in California. looking east across the Nevada Boarder across the desert as far as I could see east. in front of me was a man I knew an old friend. well trusted. beloved of the lord. then he did a strange thing. he put a shoulder fired Cruise missile to his shoulder pointing east he fired it. then said. that'll reach Chicago in About 5-6 hours. I was shocked. I said why did you do that? he said to take out a key communication place there. but again I said but why fire on your own people. he then turned and said "because if we are going to die fighting, we might as well die fighting here in America.

Civil war Wow over the fact that after the long bloody war in the west those in the west will have had enough of war with Russia and China and Occupation. but those in Washington DC? will want to continue the war. the world war Abroad saying it is better to die here in America. than to die in some foreign country because millions and millions of Americans will already of been killed.

God Bless David W Kocurek Sr in4jesusnow2008@msn.com

As I Was With Moses

Paul Keith Davis

December 16, 2005

The Welsh revival was a profound spiritual awakening. From late 1904 until early 1905, the Holy Spirit's outpouring in Wales directly impacted 100,000 souls for the Kingdom of Heaven and yielded inspiration for countless millions.

Few revivals have been so well documented and thoroughly considered as the Welsh Revival. Evan Roberts, a young ministry student, is principally credited with launching this wonderful expression of God's heart. An entire region came under the influence of God's Spirit, transforming it virtually overnight.

Even so, the wonderful fruit generated from this revival is only a token of what is to be demonstrated in the coming days. Something of great spiritual significance is imminently poised to be released in the earth. Nevertheless, significant preparation is essential to favorably steward the coming grace for revelation and power.

Frank Bartleman was one of the earliest influences in the 20th century Pentecostal outpouring. He knew something about discerning times and seasons and spiritual transition and wrote of it in "Azusa Street: The Roots of Modern-day Pentecostalism," saying,

"The present Pentecostal manifestation did not break out in a moment, like a huge prairie fire, and set the world on fire. In fact, no work of God ever appears that way. There is a necessary time for preparation. . . men may wonder where it came from, not being conscious of the preparation, but there is always such."

There have been incredible preparatory advances made in recent years. Many believers have devoted themselves to the lessons learned from the Welsh revival and others like it. These are transitional days and a heavenly door is about to be opened wide for those positioned to apprehend it.

Visiting Wales

The last week of August 2005, Wanda and I were conducting a conference in Bridgend, Wales. It was genuinely invigorating holding meetings in this historically significant region.

A big portion of our ministry has been devoted to understanding prior expressions of spiritual outpouring and its contemporary relevance. I had already shared in the meetings our message of modern church history and the seeds of revival that were sown for the present Pentecostal movement.

Part of the time-line that I shared is as follows:

1885-

Bethshan Conference on Holiness and Healing, in London England was under the leadership of William Boardman and A. B. Simpson.

Many historians acknowledge that the present Pentecostal movement was first initiated in this June, 1885 meeting. Alexander Dowie and others pointed to the London conference as the seed-bed for the healing movement they enjoyed. This conference laid the foundation for the corporate restoration of the Spirit's in-filling and the activation of spiritual gifts.

Some reports acknowledge that as many as 2,000 leaders converged on London to discover that divine healing is the "children's bread." A. B. Simpson first visited William Boardman's healing houses in London and brought the concept back to the United States. It was popularized by Alexander

Dowie in Zion, IL.

1896 -

Dowie commissioned His Apostolic Church in 1896 and founded the city of Zion, Illinois, a few years later. His entire ministry was built upon great demonstrations of healing and deliverance. He was a prolific author and steward of spiritual truth that was circulated internationally through his publication, Leaves of Healing . It is unfortunate that his later years were obscured in controversy and deception. Even so, he was a great pioneer of the faith.

Gordon Lindsay honored Alexander Dowie in his periodical, Voice of Healing , acknowledging that Dowie was a "stalwart preacher who proclaimed Jesus Christ both Savior and Healer." Lindsay states that, "In a single-handed crusade in Chicago, and against great odds, Dr. Dowie established the right to pray for the sick without interference from civil authorities. Tens of thousands testified of healing under this man's ministry, and his work was without a parallel in his day."

1904/05-

A few years later, Evan Roberts launched the 1904/05 Welsh revival, setting the stage for the Azusa Street revival under the leadership of William J. Seymour.

Although the Welsh outpouring most likely did not accomplish the fullness of its mandate, it left an indelible mark on this generation's perception of community transformation.

Visiting Moriah Chapel

Naturally while in Wales, Wanda and I looked forward to visiting Moriah Chapel and the site of this landmark event. On Saturday, August 27, our friends in Bridgend arranged for a tour with the local custodian. The Saturday evening service was to be our last session because of an early return we had in order to arrive home before Hurricane Katrina made landfall.

The visit was inspiring. The elderly gentleman lived his entire life directly across the street from Moriah Chapel. He warmly and enthusiastically shared incredible testimonies and first-hand knowledge of friends and families influenced by this revival.

He related how taverns and pubs were shut down because there were no customers spending their hard-earned money on alcohol and promiscuity. He remembered how jails were no longer filled with criminals but transformed into community centers serving the revival. The entire region was transfigured under the spirit of conviction. Many of the local families continue to serve God as second and third generation legacies of this revival.

I stood behind the pulpit for an extended period of time and imagined how it appeared in 1904, as the building filled with the cloud of God's presence and the altar flooded with tears of repentance. My only thought was, "Lord, do it again, and more." With that, we returned to Bridgend for our last service.

Moses My Servant is Dead

That evening during worship, I was contemplating the message that I was going to share. This was now going to be the culmination of the conference, and I wanted to leave the people with a spiritual deposit for hope and restoration related to their heritage.

As my mind was focused on this objective, I heard the Lord's voice speak to me saying, "Moses, my servant, is dead." As soon as that statement was made, I was immediately reminded of Deuteronomy 31:2-3 , declaring,

"And he [Moses] said to them, 'I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I am no longer able to come and go, and the LORD has said to me, "You shall not cross this Jordan." It is the LORD your God who will cross ahead of you; He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, just as the LORD has spoken.'"

With that realization, I then heard the Lord ask the question, "How long it has been since the seeds for the modern Pentecostal movement were sown?" As often as I had preached the historical account of the last century's spiritual heritage, I had never actually done the math. As I calculated in my mind that this was the year 2005 and the beginning was 1885, I then realized it had been 120 years. I knew that the Moses Era was over. We have been called out, but we have not yet crossed over.

The Lord is saying to this generation,

"Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them-- the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. . . No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you." -Joshua 1:2-5

The season of transition is upon us and a new commissioning is about to be announced in the order of Joshua.

The Moses Generation

This last 120 years of spiritual activity has functioned in the order of Moses. Clearly, Moses was one of the greatest men of God who ever lived. His intimate friendship with the Lord set a standard we aspire to today. Even so, the totality of his original mandate was not fully achieved in his lifetime.

Moses brought the people out of Egypt under God's mighty hand of power through miracles, signs, and wonders, but that generation did not cross over into their destiny. According to Deuteronomy 29:4 , they did not possess the revelatory anointing essential to cooperate with God.

Their eyes and ears were not opened and their hearts were not devoted to the revelation of Heaven's plan. As a result, they were disqualified, and a season of discipline ensued.

Nevertheless, the next generation emerged with spiritual hunger and desperation that captured Heaven's attention and positioned them for their inheritance. That is the same model we have followed over the last century.

Naturally, that is not to point a condemning finger at the saints of the prior generation. Clearly, there was a remnant of very godly people who openly embraced the fullness of God's desire. Even so, a prudent analysis of history reveals that the corporate church as a whole did not embrace the open-door opportunities set before them to cross the spiritual Jordan.

According to John G. Lake's analysis in 1925, "The people were more captured by the phenomena of God than the Person." That mistake was made during the early 20th century and repeated in the 1950s. For the 21st century generation to cross over in a Joshua anointing, it will likewise require God's great grace for walking intimately with Him, along with a thorough understanding of the lessons learned from past achievements and failures.

Hebrews 13:7-8 declares,

"Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

This Biblical admonition requires that we remember and be constantly mindful of those who have gone before us. Furthermore, we are to consider well and observe accurately the end of their lives. This examination positions us to imitate their faith. In so doing, the Lord will do through us what He did through them by mighty expressions of His power and authority because He is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

The Lord promised Joshua that He would walk with him as He did with Moses. Our assurance is the same. As the Lord accompanied the mighty champions of the last century, so also will He be with us. Even so, what we do may appear totally different. Joshua's accomplishments were distinctly different from those of Moses.

In the Order of Moses

Following the Holy Spirit's outpouring at Azusa Street, our nation witnessed one of the greatest spiritual awakenings since the day of Pentecost. The 1946-56 "Latter Rain" revival was unprecedented on multiple levels. We have written on this subject in various articles and will not take the space here to enumerate the many wonderful things God did.

The important aspect for this text is the original commissioning that is credited with launching this revival. All historians agree that William Branham was the predominant figure responsible for initiating this national and international healing revival.

On May 7, 1946, after a night of agonizing prayer and travail, William Branham received a visitation from an angel who delivered a divine commissioning directly from God's throne. This account has been well documented, and the fruit of the revival itself testifies of its validity.

Gordon Lindsay, founder of Christ for the Nations, wrote of this spiritual experience saying, "The results of the angelic visitation to William Branham has been a steadily rising tide of revival that has sounded out throughout the world, and the end is not yet."

The Book of Acts plainly substantiates the labor of angels working closely with the early saints. God's ways have not changed.

The angel said to Branham, "Fear not. I am sent from the Presence of Almighty God to tell you that your peculiar life and your misunderstood ways have been to indicate that God has sent you to take a gift of divine healing to the peoples of the world. If you will be sincere and get the people to believe you, nothing shall stand before your prayer. . . not even cancer!"

The angel went on to tell William Branham that he would take the ministry of healing around the world and eventually pray for kings, princes, and monarchs. Brother Branham responded by saying, "How can this be since I am a poor man, and I live among poor people and have no education?" The angel then continued the commission saying, "As the prophet Moses was given two signs to prove that he was sent from God, so will you be given two signs."

For approximately 30 minutes, the angel stood before Bro. Branham explaining the commission and the way the ministry would operate in the supernatural arena. The important point of this teaching is Brahnam's role as the principal figure launching the "Latter Rain" revival; his commission came in the order of Moses.

His commission and healing ministry began in 1946, and by 1948, the world was aflame with revival fire. Millions of people were saved, healed, and delivered of severe oppression by God's sovereign touch in the years following the visitation.

This exceptional demonstration of God's power was launched in the order of Moses. This past generation has been a Moses Generation. We have now come to the end of this phase of God's plan and are about to shift into the Joshua commissioning.

In the Order of Joshua

Much has been spoken and written in recent years about the emerging Joshua Generation. Many people have prophetically foreseen this transition. The Church has now crossed a threshold in Heaven's time-line for the apprehension of this promise.

One of the difficult things for the modern church has been to adequately understand spiritual transitions and timeliness. It has been our observation that most shifts of this nature develop slowly, with one season overlapping into the next.

Although 2005 ended a 120-year cycle, it may take some time for this new manifestation of God's attributes to be fully revealed. Even so, it will transpire.

Joshua was promised the same manifestation of God's Spirit that rested upon Moses. Like Moses, Joshua had his "burning bush" experience. However, the Lord did not appear as a pillar of fire in a bush that was not consumed but as "Captain of the Lord's Host." He said,

"'No; rather I indeed come now as captain of the host of the LORD.' And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and bowed down and said to him, 'What has my lord to say to his servant?'" -Joshua 5:14

The Lord was with Joshua as He was with Moses but in a different manifestation of His nature. He came NOW as the mighty warrior God. So shall it be in this day.

A holy militancy is about to emerge in the Bride of Christ. Many leaders will begin to surface with a Joshua anointing. Joshua means "Jehovah Savior." This form of leadership will function in the Church with concise direction and profound anointing for salvation and deliverance.

These leaders will also do in the last days what Paul did in the beginning. Paul brought to the Church the message of God's Kingdom by a revelation of Jesus Christ. He wrote in Galatians 1:12 ,

"For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ."

Great and profound mysteries of the Kingdom are about to be unfolded that will begin to displace the giants that inhabit our inheritance. These will not be the precepts of man but the manifestation of Jesus Christ. This will be a wonderful and rewarding season of church history.

Paul Keith Davis
White Dove Ministries www.whitedoveministries.org

A Kiss From Heaven

Danny Korakas

Feb 12, 2005

I realize that this word may not resonate with revelation knowledge nor reveal anything that we like to classify as "new" or "fresh." However, I do believe that it is the heart of the Father and His word to the corporate church as we move toward Passover. This year, a supernatural passion will be released in our love and IDENTITY in Christ's suffering for others. Pentecost this year will mark a line in the sands of God's timing in our life. The Bible tells us that over 500 people saw Jesus after the resurrection at one time. Yet, only 120 or so showed up and came together to seek after the promises and glory of God. I find it interesting that 380 people found something of greater value than the busyness the world had to offer. Many have prophesied concerning a "third day" church and a correlation with the feast of Tabernacles as we move through these last days. Personally, I do not believe that we are the "third day" church. I believe that we still have not received the benefits of Pentecost, nor have we been willing to exercise the discipline and willingness to come together in "one accord." As the church, we may disagree on many doctrinal points, but our unwillingness to seek the glory and presence of God in one accord has placed us in the camp of the 380. I hope you will take the time to read following word that Father gave me this week and that it would encourage and even provoke you to seek and Tabernacle with the Lord. dk

Not only is the world reeling toward a collision course with the Lord, so is the church — the people of God. Those who are called by the Lord are, more sooner than later, going to be impacted by manifestations and encounters of His presence and glory. An explosion of the glory of God is going to cover the face of the earth and the vehicle called to fulfill this reality is the church — you and I. God's plan has always been that His glory and presence would be carried upon the shoulders of man himself rather than man-made vehicles and designs to reach others with the good news of His love and salvation. Tragedy and death was the result when man attempted to transport the glory of God upon the creation of man's hands rather than the creation of God's hands.

Many have spanned the globe looking for a man or woman to impart the supernatural power of God into their lives. The problem is that this is a sign of our "personal" bankruptcy of seeking intimacy with the Lord. Mankind can only give what it truly has, but the Lord is about to visit His people and deposit a gift far more precious than what man could give. These encounters with the Lord will be the receiving of His essence — the glory and empowerment of HOLINESS. The end time harvest and revival that many have foretold and foreseen has not come because the revival of holiness and the essence of Christ in the life of the church must first come. The power of God's attribute (His holiness) radiating through His people will be the power evangelism that dead works have failed to produce.

"Be holy, for I am holy" (1 Peter 1:16)

This is not an option that was inspired and spoken forth by the Spirit of God. It was a directive of what is truly possible in the life of individuals as the church. The glorifying essence that will cover the face of the earth will be a people that have made it their mandate to walk in holiness and purity in Christ-likeness. (This is what brings our Lord Jesus Christ glory and is the complexion and beauty of the Bride He is coming back for.) I find it awe inspiring that this will in fact be our spiritual and emotional make-up as He returns for us. I write this prophetic word in the fear of the Lord as He is speaking this word to me. At the same time, I am excited with the possibilities of what the Lord is about to do in the church and in our hearts as His people. Imagine, the bride of Christ, once again bringing to her Bridegroom the glory and honor that He so richly deserves by our love for Him and for one another. Imagine, her radiance shining as a city set upon a hill for all to see and those in darkness will finally be drawn to her warmth and love. The world will no longer find spots and blemish in her and she will reflect the beauty and grace of her Bridegroom.

For this prophecy to unfold and to be a part of the church that Christ is coming back for; we will need to shaken to the core of our selfish, back-bitting and arrogant treatment of one another. We have become a chain-smoking bride, set aflame with ungodly addictions and habits that hurt and wound others. Our garment is soiled and unwashed by our lack of relationship and knowledge of whom our Bridegroom truly is. The washing of His Word has been twisted out of context to justify lustful desires and for others it becomes casual and common. We fail to listen and have become hard of hearing – only concerned with what we are going to say and ask for next. We find it in our selfish interest to "date" rather than "court" the One who loves us. We "use" the man of wealth to meet our needs rather than caring for His needs. We are drunk with the praise and adoration of man and have found little time to invest in our engagement. We still have an attraction and play the harlot with the things and ways of the world. Our complexion is scarred by anger, bitterness, unforgiveness, and prejudice. Yet, He still unconditionally and passionately love us. Our Bridegroom truly loves us because He sees the beauty and grace that we will soon become. He sees the days quickly approaching when we will be everything that He longs for in a bride.

The collision that is soon to come in the spirit realm will shake the foundations of the earth and will be unlike anything that we have spiritually experienced before. Heaven and earth are moving toward each other with rapidity and those who know Him will reflect more of His ever increasing presence and fragrance as He draws closer. These words should give a greater understanding to "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." The earthy realm is about to witness the invasion of heaven's glory – the presence of Jesus Christ and a release of His power and anointing within the saints walking upon the earth. Manifestations of the glory and presence of God will bring heavenly glimpses of third heaven revelations once again to the church. Many have failed to run the race and finish strong because they have not had a vision of "home" as they journey as pilgrims upon the earth. Glimpses of heaven and "supernatural" activity will become "natural" among those who seek after the Lord's presence with all of their heart, soul, and strength. I am sure that some reading this are pondering ... "is this really possible?" "Is this really Biblical?" "Can we really experience the reality of heaven on earth?"

Well, why would Jesus Himself teach us to pray and desire that His kingdom would come "on earth as it is in heaven" if it were not possible and His passion? It would be ridiculous to think that God would save this tremendous prayer and directive of Christ for a single generation at His return. His heart is that the church would earnestly seek after heaven's reality and presence on the earth. As the church, we are an empty vehicle without the presence and glory of God in our lives. The Lord would have us understand that we can deliver or transport what we truly have. It is the Lord's desire to impart into you the attribute of His image and nature — HOLINESS. However, you must desire His presence (The essence of holiness) more than your desire for the things of this world. Simply put, we have not been holy nor been the reflection of God's image, because we have failed to repent and cease from our lukewarm, comfortable, and casual approach to our own sinful nature.

It is time that we call it like it is and look at our self as the corporate church for whom we truly are. We have continued to produce many "instructors" but few spiritual mothers and fathers. Those who have their names in "lights" and are nationally recognized are unapproachable and have little time to invest in the greatest spiritual gift given by God — "People." We are eaten up with spiritual pride and our member's-only country club institutions have little to no application to the common man. Those who classify themselves as the "remnant" church are just as eaten-up with spiritual pride in their self-righteousness as the institutional churches are eaten-up with luke-warmness. Please understand that this word is for the corporate church and is not an indictment against any particular individual. It is, however, an individual wake-up call as a "part" of the body of Christ to understand the fire is soon to come at the Feast of Pentecost. It will be your willing availability and the receiving of this outpouring of God's presence that will bring forth the true revelation and communion of TABERNACLES — "God coming and dwelling among men." Churches that are in communion with the Lord and "in one accord" at Pentecost will receive an outpouring of God's presence and fire that will purify and refine vessels which will manifest in the holiness required to Tabernacle with God. On the other hand, if we continue in spiritual laziness and lack relationship with the Father, we will miss and be passed by in God's appointed time of one of the greatest outpourings of His presence on earth as it is in heaven. Will you be one of the120 or one of the 380?

"He purposed in Himself, that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in HEAVEN and which are on EARTH – in Him. (Ephesians 1:9-10)

This is the reward of our most precious salvation that Paul saw in revelation that he received from Christ. As we draw near to the Lord and as He draws near to us, we are going to tangibly and powerfully feel the effects of this scripture. Sadly, a large degree or most of the church knows little to nothing concerning the glory and presence of God. This naturally equates to a church that is spiritually apathetic and one that lacks holiness — the impartation and essence of God's presence.

"I am the Lord; that is My name; and My glory I will not give to another..." (Isaiah 42:8)

It would seem on the surface and according to the natural man that we are not to touch the glory of God. Many in the institutional church have taught this and it has been a detriment to the body of Christ. The Lord desires that we know and come into the presence of His glory. The Lord would say, "Surely, I will not "give" my glory and the richness of My praise to another, but I will "share" the glory and essence of My presence with those who draw near to Me." It has always been the Lord's presence and glory that brought holiness in the lives of filthy rags and unclean lips.

God has created you to know the glory of His presence. The heart of Moses was one that longed and desired for the glory of God ... and God honored his request. So much more does the Lord long to reveal Himself to us under a better covenant. Psalm 8:4-5 says, "What is a man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You visit him? For you have made him a little lower than the angels, and You have crowned him with glory and honor." When God created man in His image, the glory and presence of God encompassed mankind like a heavenly aura or crown. The glory was the manifest reality of God's presence. It was at the time of man's fall (SIN) that the glory of the Lord lifted from mankind. The "void" that many have felt and attempted to explain in their season of sin away from the Lord is the absence of God's glory upon and in their lives.

"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

It is just that simple. Unrepentant sin has been the hindrance to the church experiencing the manifest presence and glory of God. This is a vicious cycle that perpetuates itself in continual luke-warmness and godless spiritual pride, hiding behind a mask of guilt. Sin and spiritual pride within the church has caused us to fall and miss the mark of God's best for us — His presence. The good news is that Christ has bridged the gap between God and man that we have created and has enabled us to regain His glory and a life of holiness through intimacy and relationship with Him and each other. Why do I say "each other?" Because our relationships with one another are a reflection of our relationship with God.

"To which He called you by our gospel, for the obtaining of the GLORY of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 Thessalonians 2:14) Jesus Himself states, "And the glory which You have given Me, I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one." (John 17:22)

As the awesome days ahead move closer toward our Lord's return, we are going to need each other as brothers and sisters in Christ more than we care to think about or want to admit in our place of lethargy and comfort. We have desired the glory of God for many personal and even selfish reasons in the church's attempt to build its own kingdoms. Jesus states clearly in John 17 that it was His desire to impart His glory and presence to you and me that we would be one in our love for Him, one another, and the lost. Of all that God could have chosen to call Himself, He simply stated, "I am LOVE." Our love for God's presence and His love radiating through us as His people will bring holiness, a beautiful complexion, and a wedding garment as white as snow to a bride eagerly awaiting her Bridgroom.

All articles by WaterMark Ministry may be reprinted in their entirety.
www.watermarkministry.injesus.com
www.watermarkministry.org

Alas Poor Ahab

by Bill Somers

September 13, 1998
I usually go out each morning to pick up a newspaper and coffee. This morning's headline told of continued defiance on the part of the White House. As soon as I saw it, I began to tremble in my spirit. I was reminded of another case where a ruler had expressed some remorse, but did make a true or lasting repentance.

The story of King Ahab and all that went on during his reign takes up quite a few chapters in the bible. More space is devoted to him, because of end time significance, than to any of the other kings that followed after the death of Solomon. One thing often overlooked is that the Lord spent a great deal of time and effort in dealing with Ahab. At one point, Ahab is even brought to humble himself in repentance!

> I Kings 21:
> 20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.
> 21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, …."

Here the prophet Elijah has brought a word of judgment against Ahab and his kingdom.

> 27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.
> 28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
> 29 Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.1 Kings 21: 20 -29

And here we see that the Lord has delayed the judgment somewhat because of Ahab's humbling himself. Note that the scripture does not say that he repented or that he called upon the Lord for mercy. In fact he went right back to his old ways shortly thereafter. Because of this the Lord brought personal judgment on Ahab and when he was out of the way brought further judgment on Israel.

> 1 Kings 22:
> 1 And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
> 2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

Here Ahab is about to go to war against Syria, whom the Lord has allowed him to beat in the past. But this time it is to be his undoing.

> 5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.
> 6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

> 7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

The reason Jehoshaphat has to ask twice for a word from a prophet of the Lord, is that Ahab is calling on his prophets, the prophets of Baal. So now we hear from a true prophet, Micaiah.

> 14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.
> 15 So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.
> 16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

Here Ahab rebukes Micaiah even though he has spoken exactly what the others have said! And then Micaiah drops the sarcasm and tells what is really about to happen.

> 17 And he said, upon the hills, I saw all Israel scattered as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.
> 18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?
> 19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
> 20. And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? …. "

That is the Lord has set up king Ahab to take a fall when he foolishly goes to war against Syria. And then to bring chaos and confusion to Israel afterward, for it says I saw all Israel scattered …."

Our Syria may well be Iraq. A recent news item stated that the United States has informed it's major allies that it will expect their support in case it decides to launch an attack against Iraq this coming October.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

Alaska

Karen Velez

(DelightInTheLord@AOL.com

Prophetic Word from the Lord for Alaska received on May 3, 2005

When I saw your name I saw a field of snow...I saw a large bundle of dynamite (Dunamis power of the Holy Spirit of God) and I saw the cracks begin to form and an avalanche happen it swept along so fast that nothing could resist it's and I felt the Lord saying not to worry when the pressure begins to build for it is a sign of what is about to happen for hearts that have grown hard and cold attitudes that have been among the people of Alaska first nations people and the others who have settled there
I shall reconcile hearts among the first nations people and forgiveness shall flow like a mighty rushing river and I shall bring reconciliation and forgiveness to the other people in Alaska and between them and the first nations people for it is MY WILL to bring revival to this land it is MY WILL to make it verdant and green with blessings you will begin to see the pressure build and even in JUNE of this year you will begin to see those cracks occur and know this the avalanche will soon come and I will cause thousands to come to this nation to one spot where I will light the fire, light the torches of my fire and all nations shall see it and come to see what I am doing there and I shall raise Alaska up as a state that is blessed whose people are blessed coming and going and the first nations people shall no longer be seen as less than no longer shall they struggle but they shall be seen as a nation who is blessed of the Lord and I shall cause people to come to you to see and to study how you do business because I shall make you an example among the peoples of success and blessings!

Yes financial blessings shall flow and you will be known as a people truly blessed in body, mind, spirit, soul and in every area
I hear drumbeats and I see dancing and as that drum is beating...the snow is beginning to crack...as they praise and worship me says the Lord
and know this
I will raise YOU up
among my people and give you great favor and influence even as I did Joseph to Pharaoh so shall I raise you up amongst the peoples so I say to you kneel humble yourself before me and I shall raise YOU and My people up!

A Loving Christmas Gathering Together

Sandy Warner

A LOVING CHRISTMAS, GATHERING TOGETHER
12/25/05

Family and loved ones, My gifts to you
Into their lives I send you too.
Treasured moments in precious time
With your loved ones, faces shine.

Focusing on all that is good
Forgiving always as you should.
Keeping a record of no wrongs
My love will reign and be your song.

Leave behind the old offenses
Please embrace, repair your fences.
Forgetting pain, forgetting past
Savoring moments that will last.

Remember joy when together.
Not hard times of colder weather.
Come or go which would you rather?
Settle it now, leave or gather.

Independence is not My will.
Giving, receiving is there still.
Sup together at the table
And your life will be more stable.

Merry Christmas with all My love
Recall My message from above.
Hark the herald angels singing
Chatter, laughter, cell phones ringing.

I AM with you every moment
Don't forget Me in all you've spent.
What's eternal are matters of love
Embrace broken lives with My dove.

I came to earth to set men free.
You are there now to follow Me.
Hug and kiss and open your gifts.
Visit together, your hearts will lift.

Eph 4:29-32 NLT
Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them. And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he is the one who has identified you as his own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of malicious behavior. Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted , forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you

Reinforcements Provided
Sandy Warner

Dec 21, 2005

REINFORCEMENTS PROVIDED
I give good gifts to My children. One of those gifts is like a spare tire, a back up. When one stumbles, woe to him who has no backup. You all need reinforcements, and it is in the joining of a team that I give these gifts. Rejoice in the joining of such gifts in your midst. One reason for joining a team is to help separate mixture. By way of My Spirit within them, each member has been given the supernatural ability to filter what they hear and see. These reinforcements will be needed by all of you in the days to come. You needn't concern yourself over small issues. The bigger issues will need My team. Rejoice in these good gifts I plant among you.

"A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken." (Eccl 4:12 NLT)

"And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage and warn each other, especially now that the day of his coming back again is drawing near. (Heb10:25 NLT)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

The Day Of Your Departure
Sandy Warner

Dec 23, 2005

THE DAY OF YOUR DEPARTURE
Dear one, in the midst of serving in bondage to the taskmaster, I have planned your deliverance. Do not become discouraged when you see the days of your life ticking away and you seemingly serve as a slave for another's gain. My people lived in Egypt for 430 years, and upon the very last day of that year, I brought them out. Let this be a sign and a token to you, that My plans for your life are exact, with purpose and meaning and intention. When you are delivered, I shall cause you to leave with favor and you shall be given whatever you ask. You shall plunder the camp of the enemy as you walk away from the slavery of your past.

AH: Ex 12:40-42 NLT
The people of Israel had lived in Egypt for 430 years . In fact, it was on the last day of the 430th year that all the LORD's forces left the land. This night had been reserved by the LORD to bring his people out from the land of Egypt, so this same night now belongs to him.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post.

You Are Insured
Sandy Warner

Dec 19, 2005

YOU ARE INSURED
Beloved you have been faithful to stand in the heat of many battles and I know you have grown weary. I have good news coming your way. No matter why you think you received your wounds, you have always been insured. You have more than enough backing to fully supply all that you need for your healing, for restoration of what you have lost, and even ample reward. I have raised you to stand for a purpose, and you shall live to see all My purposes in your life come to pass.

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." (Rom 8:28 KJV)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post.

Abundant Life Isaiah 55
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Nov 9, 2005
Isa 55:1-8 NKJV An Invitation to Abundant Life

"Ho! Everyone who thirsts, Come to the waters; and you who have no money, Come, buy and eat. Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Why do you spend money for what is not bread, and your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, and let your soul delight itself in abundance.
3 Incline your ear, and come to Me. Hear, and your soul shall live; And I will make an everlasting covenant with you — The sure mercies of David.

4 Indeed I have given him as a witness to the people, a leader and commander for the people. 5 Surely you shall call a nation you do not know, And nations who do not know you shall run to you, Because of the LORD your God, and the Holy One of Israel; For He has glorified you."
6 Seek the LORD while He may be found, Call upon Him while He is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; Let him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
8 "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways," says the LORD.
9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

10 "For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
11 So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.
12 "For you shall go out with joy, and be led out with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing before you, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree; and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off."

Mire and Gall
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Nov 8th, 2005
The Lord spoke "Mire and Gall"…

Isa 57:20-21 NKJV But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. 21 "There is no peace," Says my God, "for the wicked."

Speaking of Leviathan…sp of pride:
Job 41:30 NKJV His undersides are like sharp potsherds; He spreads pointed marks in the mire .

Zech 10:5 NKJV They shall be like mighty men, who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle. They shall fight because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

Mire: OT:2916 tiyt (teet); from an unused root meaning apparently to be sticky [rath. perb. a demon. from OT:2894, through the idea of dirt to be swept away]; mud or clay; figuratively, calamity: KJV - clay, dirt, mire.
OT:2894 tuw' (too); a primitive root; to sweep away: KJV - sweep.

Gall: OT:4846 merorah (mer-o-raw'); or merowrah (mer-o-raw'); from OT:4843; properly, bitterness; concretely, a bitter thing; specifically bile; also venom (of a serpent): KJV - bitter (thing), gall.

Jer 23:15 NKJV "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: 'Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, And make them drink the water of gall ; For from the prophets of Jerusalem profaneness has gone out into all the land.'"

From the song of Moses:
Deut 32:30-43 NKJV
30 How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, Unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had surrendered them?
31 For their rock is not like our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.
32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom and of the fields of Gomorrah; Their grapes are grapes of gall , Their clusters are bitter.
33 Their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of cobras.
34 'Is this not laid up in store with Me, sealed up among My treasures? 35 Vengeance is Mine, and recompense; Their foot shall slip in due time; For the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things to come hasten upon them.'
36 "For the LORD will judge His people And have compassion on His servants, when He sees that their power is gone, and there is no one remaining, bond or free.
37 He will say: 'Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge? 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise and help you, and be your refuge.
39 'Now see that I, even I, am He, and there is no God besides Me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; Nor is there any who can deliver from My hand. 40 For I raise My hand to heaven, and say, "As I live forever,
41 If I whet My glittering sword, and My hand takes hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to My enemies, and repay those who hate Me.
42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh, with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the heads of the leaders of the enemy."'
43 "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people; For He will avenge the blood of His servants, and render vengeance to His adversaries; He will provide atonement for His land and His people."

" I am grieved in My Spirit over the condition of man. I have waited a long time for this hour, and the saints have longed to see what you are going to see. Many from the past thought they were living in this era of time. The hours will roll by much faster as all unfolds as foreseen. Get ready for the ride of your life! Get ready My sons and daughters, for there is much harvesting that is coming. Stay in the WORD, so that it fills you up and I will bring it to mind as you walk in the marketplace and the grocery stores, and wherever you go. I will have you speak it to people and suddenly they will be gripped in their hearts and never be the same.

The suddenlies are now coming upon you. I have told you for some time, to get you ready in your minds and hearts. I've asked you to come to ME to lay with me, so I can do emotional and spiritual surgery on your hearts and souls, so that you would be ready for this hour. I am going to do a NEW THING.
STARTLING things will happen spontaneously. Like spontaneous combustion will I ignite fires all over the land. There is much mire in the church, and in the streets. My heart is grieved over the wickedness in the land and full of gall at the exceeding wickedness of the wicked. I will not wait any longer to bring consequences to actions.

I will bring faster answers to prayers. I will bring faster judgments to the wicked and to those who pierce the hearts of their own brothers and sisters. Guard your hearts from jealousy and envy. The spirit of SELF is rampant in the world, and witchcraft fills the hearts of many as it has grown and grown, and the overgrowth in the world has reached a new level of stench, yet it will grow more. But at the same time, I am increasing MY GLORY in the earth as you come to ME and WORSHIP ME, I am pouring and pouring and pouring out more. I want you FULL of MY GLORY. I will do a mighty work in you AS YOU LAY DOWN YOUR AGENDA and take up MINE.

ASK and you shall receive, KNOCK and the door will be opened. Do not give in to the taunts of the enemy. Guard your hearts also from selfish ambition and pride. Arrogance has filled the hearts of wicked men, and they will grow more wicked day after day. The wicked wax greater and greater in evil, but My people who are called by MY name will also wax greater and greater in goodness and holiness, as I pour out My honey, and there will be greater and greater JOY at all I do in the earth. Hush , be silent, for your Lord steps down to CAPTIVATE HIS PEOPLE! Do you hear the sound of the Wind?

Can you hear the ROAR of the Waters of LIFE??? They are coming…they are coming. Are you ready to ride the wave? Will you go with the flow of MY heart's desire? For many times I have come and people who call themselves by MY name have mocked what My HOLY SPIRIT has done. Instead of valuing ME and the way I want to move, they have mocked and ridiculed those who loved My appearing!

I tell you that this will be dangerous ground if you walk in this manner as I come again. DO NOT WALK IN PRESUMPTION. If you want to know what I am doing, COME TO ME AND ASK! For I am pouring out My Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will PROPHESY! Do not ignore them when they surprise you with words and wisdom beyond their ages!
Do NOT silence My prophets any more in this wave of living waters…for you will find yourself unable to speak if you move in doubt and unbelief. There will be quick consequence when people act in opposition to My Spirit. Cleanse your hearts from all pride and presumption, judgment and criticism. Who knows if you will not be entertaining angels. For I am sending many angels to the earth in this hour to test the sons of men!

Remember that My love is the GREATEST weapon on earth! Remember that I did not ask you to fight all the battles, but to rest in ME, and know that I also will fight for you at times. WAIT on ME for directions and I will show you when the fighting is for you to do, or for ME. Lay down all STRIVING. Lay down all the trying harder to please ME! I am not a harsh taskmaster.
I am the loving FATHER who gives good gifts to My children. Not the gifts the world expects, but greater things I have given you, greater riches. I give these to you out of MY LOVE for you, not out of your attainment and strivings. Just come to My side and allow me to complete My final touches to your healing and death to self. For I am FAITHFUL Who have called you to repentance and new life in ME. I will finish all that I have started. And you will go forth like stall fed calves. You will shine like the stars in the heavens.
Walk in the light as I am in the light. Worship ME in the beauty of holiness."

Luke 12:32-34 NKJV "Do not fear , little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Ps 69:14 NKJV Deliver me out of the mire ,And let me not sink; Let me be delivered from those who hate me, And out of the deep waters.

Isa 10:5-6 NKJV Arrogant Assyria Also Judged
"Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.
6 I will send him against an ungodly nation, And against the people of My wrath
I will give him charge, To seize the spoil, to take the prey, And to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

2 Peter 2:21-22 NKJV But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: "A dog returns to his own vomit," and, " a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire ."

Ps 69:20-21 NKJV Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness; I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none; And for comforters, but I found none. 21 They also gave me gall for my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Jer 8:14 NKJV "Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, And let us enter the fortified cities, And let us be silent there. For the LORD our God has put us to silence
And given us water of gall to drink, Because we have sinned against the LORD.

Jer 9:15 NKJV therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will feed them, this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

Lam 3:18-23 NKJV And I said, "My strength and my hope have perished from the LORD." 19 Remember my affliction and roaming, the wormwood and the gall . 20 My soul still remembers and sinks within me. 21 This I recall to my mind, Therefore I have hope. 22 Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. 23 They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness.

Amos 6:12 NKJV Do horses run on rocks? Does one plow there with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into gall ,and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood, Matt 27:34 NKJV they gave Him sour wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He had tasted it, He would not drink.

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net
Upstream Ministries, 15660 Tustin Village Way #27, Tustin, Ca 92780

Oh Ethiopia
Priscilla Van Sutphin

November 13th, 2005

Oh Ethiopia, My daughter, how I have mourned for you. How I have wanted to comfort you in your affliction and in your blight and famine. Come to me and drink My daughter! For I am the answer to your struggles. I am not wise as men are wise. I am the ALMIGHTY, and as I once called Sheba to Solomon, so I am calling YOU to come to ME. Come to ME, the Fountain of Living Waters! I am here for you and I love you and long for you to have peace.

Wars and rumors of wars increase, but MY KINGDOM endures forever. I am not weak and powerless. I will SHINE through My children, like light through a prism, scattering abroad the goodness of their Father. Come to Me, and let me hold you in My arms and love you to restoration. Forsake despair and desperation, and TRUST in ME to do many mighty miracles. I am not slack with My promises. My attention is on you, and though the earth groans and sputters, and the lawless one is arising, I will overturn the evil plans of men, and those who TRUST in ME, will not be left aside in My day of power!

I will shine like a mighty star in all I do in and through those who love my rising. I will pour out My glory and all flesh will see that I ALONE am Lord. You are not a stepchild. You are NOT forgotten. Though I caste you aside for a time, I will NOW ARISE and shine forth in the midst of turmoil and peril! Believe for miracles of provision, saves from death, and startling signs and wonders, for I will make a display of the enemy in your midst.
The KINGDOM COMES!

Zeph 3:10-12 NKJV
10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, the daughter of My dispersed ones, shall bring My offering. 11 In that day you shall not be shamed for any of your deeds in which you transgress against Me; For then I will take away from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you shall no longer be haughty in My holy mountain. 12 I will leave in your midst A meek and humble people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

Acts 8:27-31 NKJV So he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia , a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."
30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?" 31 And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Residential Advisory
Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 16th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Matt 7:24-27 NKJV Build on the Rock (Luke 6:47-49)

"Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

"I am the Living Testament and the Ruler over all things. I am not made in the image and likeness of man! He is made in the image and likeness of Us. However it seems that even in My church some persist in building a god who is like they want him to look. I AM that I AM! I AM Elohim, Creator God, and all that is made is made by My hands.

Who created the heavens and the earth? Who threw the stars into the heavens? Who knows all things? Surely, the God of the Universe is not too small to handle the children in His camp that are out of order! I know what is needed to restore My bride and My church. I know ALL things. I know the very hairs on your head. So how could it be impossible for ME to do anything?

I have said it, and I WILL ESTABLISH IT! I will have a church without spot or blemish. And though many will not listen when I come with power, many will be restored and change.

So be careful who you write off of your sisters and brothers. Take heed that the fear of the Lord fills YOUR HEART!

I've told you that the form is not the problem. The lack of LOVE is the problem. I AM LOVE. So am I not able to restore?

Did I not harden pharaoh's heart? If I can harden a heart, can I soften a heart? Can I change a heart? Much of what has happened to many is the result of a faulty foundation. But I AM RESTORING the ancient foundations with what I am doing. And I will have a united church! I will have also an apostate church that is not really a church, but those who speak of Me, but with no power thereof! But it is My angels who will weed My garden at the end of the age.

So be careful My children to PRAY and to forgive and not to judge! You too could fall prey to mammon, and flesh without My GRACE! You too, could get prideful and stingy, and self seeking were it not for My love and grace towards you!

Weep tears My children for those who have gone astray. Listen to My heart that is weeping. Are you willing to lay down your life as I did? Are you willing to be a bearer of My love and grace rather than harsh judgment alone? There is always HOPE when there is REPENTANCE. And though many will not repent with the move that is coming, many will. How do you know who will and who won't? Only I KNOW! So be not like Jonah! Do not give up, even if you have had to leave and have been free to leave those who call themselves shepherds, but who are hirelings. Remember that it is LOVE that leads to repentance. Not cringing fear, or unforgiveness and a desire for vengeance! I never give up on people, although many of you give up.

I don't cast them aside like flotsam and jetsam! MY LOVE NEVER FAILS. So even if you are hurt, please come to ME, and let me soothe your wounds, and let Me handle the JUSTICE.

I am the source of all wisdom and understanding and knowledge. So come to My feet and learn of Me, that you can be changed into MY image more and more. When great anger and violence has ruled the life of another, they only know that format of living! It is what they are used to, and what they expect! But I am greater My beloveds! MY BLOOD can heal the most destitute of souls! MY BLOOD is greater than anything that has come against them in their lives. I am the CREATOR. Satan is merely the creature! So have greater TRUST in My ability to heal the hearts of the wicked and violent, the broken and insane! I am coming to pour out My love in greater measure than what you have known. Will you be found WANTING, My beloveds? Or will you build your house, your temple on the ROCK that is higher?

To Overcome Fear
Priscilla van Sutphin

Pris / Immanuels.org
Nov 11, 2005

FEAR is a major root of many other things in our lives…

Prayers to OVERCOME FEAR
3/2/04

Job 37:24 AMP Men therefore [reverently] fear Him; He regards and respects not any who are wise in heart [in their own understanding and conceit]. [Matt 10:28.]

Ps 84:12 AMP O Lord of hosts, blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the man who trusts in You [leaning and believing on You, committing all and confidently looking to You, and that without fear or misgiving]!

Father, help me not to walk in arrogance and self sufficiency, but to put the whole of my trust in you, in everything I say, in everything I do, that I would look to YOU for how to do it, and what to do, and what to say. Help me to depend on YOU, and not on my own wisdom. Bind my mind to Your mind, My will to Your will,and my heart to Your heart.

Ps 56:4-5 AMP By [the help of] God I will praise His word; on God I lean, rely, and confidently put my trust; I will not fear. What can man, who is flesh, do to me? 5 All day long they twist my words and trouble my affairs; all their thoughts are against me for evil and my hurt.

By God's help I will praise His name and praise His Word! I will lean and rely on God and put all my trust in HIM. I REFUSE TO FEAR! What can man do to me if God is for me? I will not give in to the fear of man. I will take up my cross and follow YOU Lord!

Ps 49:5 AMP Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of those who would supplant me surrounds me on every side,

Ps 46:2 AMP Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change and though the mountains be shaken into the midst of the seas,

Father, the days are getting darker and there is evil all around us. Men's hearts are growing colder and we see the signs of the end. Give us GRACE Lord to walk in courage and give us the Spirit of Might to confront the darkness and not faint in doing good. We choose to follow YOU and to obey what You want us to do and to say what You want us to say Lord! We will trust in Your preserving GRACE.

Ps 40:3-4 AMP And He has put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many shall see and fear (revere and worship) and put their trust and confident reliance in the Lord. [Ps 5:11.] 4 Blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the man who makes the Lord his refuge and trust, and turns not to the proud or to followers of false gods.

Father, there is power in praise, so fill my mouth with praise by Your GRACE Lord. Give me a thankful heart and the grace to not walk in pride and unthankfulness. Keep me from presumptive sins. Make Your face to shine upon me and grant me the courage, grace, and LOVE it takes to love others unconditionally and to love my enemies in spite of their hatred. Lord help me to walk in GLORY. Help me to walk in HOLINESS. GRANT me GRACE to be and do all YOU want me to be and do.

Ps 36:1 AMP [A Psalm] of David the servant of the Lord. TRANSGRESSION [like an oracle] speaks to the wicked deep in his heart. There is no fear or dread of God before his eyes. [Rom 3:18.] Ps 34:11 AMP Come, you children, listen to me; I will teach you to revere and worshipfully fear the Lord. Ps 34:9 AMP O fear the Lord, you His saints [revere and worship Him]! For there is no want to those who truly revere and worship Him with godly fear.

Father, Give me more of the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord! You are my M'Gee' nee – my Protector and my Shield. Fill my home with the fear of the Lord. Fill Your church with the fear of the Lord. Let the fear of the LORD be in me and around me wherever I go. I pray it will convict the hearts of the lost and the carnal Christians I run into. I pray You will fill my mouth with Your Word as I go about my daily tasks, and in the marketplace. Bring my attention to those that need to hear the truth. And give me the courage to speak Your TRUTH, no matter what the cost. Do not let fear of rejection find anything in me! RELEASE ME FATHER from any fear that would hinder YOU using me in any situation You want!

Ps 34:7 AMP The Angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear Him [who revere and worship Him with awe] and each of them He delivers. [Ps 18:1; 145:20.]

Ps 23:4 AMP Yes, though I walk through the [deep, sunless] valley of the shadow of death, I will fear or dread no evil, for You are with me; Your rod [to protect] and Your staff [to guide], they comfort me.

Thank You Lord , that Your word says the Angel of the Lord encamps around me and that YOU bring deliverance to those who fear YOU! Father I want freedom from all that so easily besets me! FILL ME with Your HOLY Spirit! Fill me with Your FEAR OF THE LORD, that I might walk in TRUTH and obey all Your commands. I want the ANGEL of the LORD to encamp in MY HOME. I know that even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, that YOU will give me Your direction and guidance, and Your HOLY SPIRIT will be with me, no matter what I have to endure for the sake of YOUR Kingdom! You comfort me, because You are the Comforter! Thank You Lord that You are El Ra'chum, the Compassionate God, and Your mercy endures forever!

Ps 2:11-12 AMP Serve the Lord with reverent awe and worshipful fear; rejoice and be in high spirits with trembling [lest you displease Him]. 12 Kiss the Son [pay homage to Him in purity], lest He be angry and you perish in the way, for soon shall His wrath be kindled. O blessed (happy, fortunate, and to be envied) are all those who seek refuge and put their trust in Him! To kiss You Lord, is to obey You, for You said that He who loves Me, obeys Me. So grant me the GRACE Lord to obey everything You tell me to do. Grant me grace to overcome all the weaknesses in my character, all the sin in my life. Give me overcoming GRACE Lord and help me to rest in You. I put all my trust and hope in You!

Ps 9:20 AMP Put them in fear [make them realize their frail nature], O Lord, that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah [pause, and calmly think of that]! Father, bring the fear of the Lord upon the nations, that they may know that YOU alone are GOD! For Your Word says that when Your judgments are in the earth, the people will learn knowledge.

Ps 85:9-13 AMP
9 Surely His salvation is near to those who reverently and worshipfully fear Him, [and is ready to be appropriated] that [the manifest presence of God, His] glory may tabernacle and abide in our land. 10 Mercy and loving-kindness and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven. 12 Yes, the Lord will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase. 13 Righteousness shall go before

Him and shall make His footsteps a way in which to walk.

Ps 86:11-12 AMP Teach me Your way, O Lord, that I may walk and live in Your truth; direct and unite my heart [solely, reverently] to fear and honor Your name. [Ps 5:11; 69:36.] 12 I will confess and praise You, O Lord my God, with my whole (united) heart; and I will glorify Your name forevermore.

Thank You Lord for Your grace ~ help me to live and walk in Your truth Father. Direct my heart into the love of God and the patience of Christ. Unite my heart to Your heart. Fill me with more of Your love, that all fear will be cast down. Grant me GRACE to worship You and to believe all that you've written in Your Word, that I would not give in to fears. RELEASE me Father from all fear of man, fear of failure, fear of loss, and fear of death. Give me more wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Your love Lord, that I may know the length, depth, breadth and width of the love You have for me, so I can be filled with the fullness of GOD { Eph 3}. I love You Lord, but I want to love You MORE. Fill me Lord with thankfulness for the cross and all You have done for me. Fill me LORD with YOUR GOODNESS and Mercy and lovingkindness that I may walk as YOUR SON walked.

1 Chron 28:20 AMP Also David told Solomon his son, Be strong and courageous, and do it. Fear not, be not dismayed, for the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will not fail or forsake you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

Est 2:20 AMP Now Esther had not yet revealed her nationality or her people, for she obeyed Mordecai's command to her [to fear God and execute His commands] just as when she was being brought up by him.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~
Job 3:25-26 AMP For the thing which I greatly fear comes upon me, and that of which I am afraid befalls me. 26 I was not or am not at ease, nor had I or have I rest, nor was I or am I quiet, yet trouble came and still comes [upon me].

Father, there is nothing I have to fear. And You said that fear only causes torment. I pray for a release from all fear in My life and in the lives of my family / loved ones! I pray for YOU to pour out YOUR LOVE Father, that fear will be driven out. Make us fearless warriors Father and grant us the grace to walk according to the Spirit and not according to the flesh, in the name and the Blood of Jesus!

Job 4:13-17 AMP In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, 14 Fear came upon me and trembling, which made all my bones shake. 15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up! 16 [The spirit] stood still, but I could not discern the appearance of it. A form was before my eyes; there was silence, and then I heard a voice, saying, 17 Can mortal man be just before God, or be more right than He is? Can a man be pure before his Maker, or be more cleansed than He is? [1 John 1:7; Rev 1:5.]

Ps 90:11-12 AMP Who knows the power of Your anger? [Who worthily connects this brevity of life with Your recognition of sin?] And Your wrath, who connects it with the reverent and worshipful fear that is due You? 12 So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Father, I know that your heart is wounded when you see the cowering in fear of your servants. Father , please pour out Your GRACE and LOVE, in greater measure than what we have received, that we might be empowered to let go of all the fear and obey you perfectly at all times. Let us NOT be afraid of the terror that flies by night or the arrow that lays waste at noonday! Remind us to put on our armor daily and grant us the grace to RESIST all the taunts of the enemy, in the name and the BLOOD of JESUS!

Ps 103:13-14 AMP As a father loves and pities his children, so the Lord loves and pities those who fear Him [with reverence, worship, and awe]. 14 For He knows our frame, He [earnestly] remembers and imprints [on His heart] that we are dust.

Ps 115:11 AMP You who [reverently] fear the Lord, trust in and lean on the Lord! He is their Help and their Shield.

Ps 119:120-122 AMP My flesh trembles and shudders for fear and reverential, worshipful awe of You, and I am afraid and in dread of Your judgments. 121 I have done justice and righteousness; leave me not to those who would oppress me. 122 Be surety for Your servant for good [as Judah was surety for the safety of Benjamin]; let not the proud oppress me. [Gen 43:9.]
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Father, grant us the GRACE to come into Your presence with thankfulness and gratefulness, and a heart filled with worship and praise! And as we lay ourselves before YOU, I pray You will fill us up to the full with Your love and heal us completely of all fears, panic, anxieties and worries. Help us to TRUST You more, by healing our hearts and delivering us from the lies of the enemy that we don't even know we have believed Lord! In the name and the Blood of Jesus!

Prov 9:10-11 AMP The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord is the beginning (the chief and choice part) of Wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy one is insight and understanding. 11 For by me [Wisdom from God] your days shall be multiplied, and the years of your life shall be increased.

Prov 14:26 AMP In the reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and His children shall always have a place of refuge.

Prov 14:27 AMP Reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, that one may avoid the snares of death. [John 4:10,14.]

Prov 16:6-7 AMP By mercy and love, truth and fidelity [to God and man--not by sacrificial offerings], iniquity is purged out of the heart, and by the reverent, worshipful fear of the Lord men depart from and avoid evil. 7 When a man's ways please the Lord, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Prov 19:23 AMP The reverent, worshipful fear of the Lord leads to life, and he who has it rests satisfied; he cannot be visited with [actual] evil. [Job 5:19; Ps 91:3; Prov 12:13; Isa 46:4; Jer 1:8; Dan 6:27; 2 Tim 4:8.]

Prov 29:25 AMP The fear of man brings a snare, but whoever leans on, trusts in, and puts his confidence in the Lord is safe and set on high.

Father, FILL ME UP with the Spirit of the FEAR of the LORD that my person, my home, my family will be filled with Your Most Holy Spirit and not give in to the fear of man over the fear of the Lord. Fill me with Your Spirit of Might that I may be bold in the face of opposition and speak Your Words with confidence. Destroy any idolatry to man in my heart Father and help me to lay at Your feet and just soak in Your love and kindness. Empower me to speak the truth no matter what the cost when You tell me to.

Prov 31:18 AMP She tastes and sees that her gain from work [with and for God] is good; her lamp goes not out, but it burns on continually through the night [of trouble, privation, or sorrow, warning away fear, doubt, and distrust].

Eccl 7:24 AMP That which is is far off, and that which is deep is very deep--who can find it out [true wisdom independent of the fear of God]? [Job 28:12-28; 1 Cor 2:9-16.]

Eccl 8:12 AMP Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and his days [seemingly] are prolonged [in his wickedness], yet surely I know that it will be well with those who [reverently] fear God, who revere and worship Him, realizing His continual presence. [Ps 37:11,18,19; Isa 3:10,11; Matt 25:34.]

Oh Lord, continue to give me the discernment to realize Your continual presence in and around me, that I would not fear man. Help me to see You as great and powerful as You really are.

Eccl 12:13 AMP All has been heard; the end of the matter is: Fear God [revere and worship Him, knowing that He is] and keep His commandments, for this is the whole of man [the full, original purpose of his creation, the object of God's providence, the root of character, the foundation of all happiness, the adjustment to all inharmonious circumstances and conditions under the sun] and the whole [duty] for every man.

Isa 8:12-14 AMP Do not call conspiracy [or hard, or holy] all that this people will call conspiracy [or hard, or holy]; neither be in fear of what they fear, nor [make others afraid and] in dread. 13 The Lord of hosts--regard Him as holy and honor His holy name [by regarding Him as your only hope of safety], and let Him be your fear and let Him be your dread [lest you offend Him by your fear of man and distrust of Him]. 14 And He shall be a sanctuary [a sacred and indestructible asylum to those who reverently fear and trust in Him]; but He shall be a Stone of stumbling and a Rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [Isa 28:6; Rom 9:33; 1 Peter 2:6-8.]

Father God, let me not displease you by ungodly fear. Help me to trust in YOU more and more. Grant me GRACE to not shrink back in the face of fear and enlarge My heart to receive all the love You want to pour into me…for I am Your beloved and You are mine! Keep me as the apple of Your eye and help me to see My reflection in Your eyes. Help me to see myself as YOU see me. Hold not truth from me oh Lord!

Isa 29:13-14 AMP And the Lord said, For as much as this people draw near Me with their mouth and honor Me with their lips but remove their hearts and minds far from Me, and their fear and reverence for Me are a commandment of men that is learned by repetition [without any thought as to the meaning], 14 Therefore, behold! I will again do marvelous things with this people, marvelous and astonishing things; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their discerning men will vanish or be hidden.

Father, come and do marvelous things in our midst! We are all bearing the brunt of a world on the precipice of eternity and many foes surround us Oh Lord! Do astonishing things that surprise us and those we pray for! Dimay the pride of man in the earth! Use the weak to confound the mighty! Break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron. Give us the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, Fill us with Your love that casts down all fear that we may extract the precious from the vile in the earth and proclaim Your Kingdom with boldness! In Jesus' name!

Isa 33:6 NKJV Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times, And the strength of salvation; The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

Isa 35:4-7 NKJV Say to those who are fearful-hearted, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; He will come and save you." 5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. 6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing. For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. 7 The parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water;

Oh Lord THIS is the time that this will be fulfilled. Grant us to be filled with the Spirit of MIGHT, that we might rise to the occasion and destroy the pride of the wicked and make a display of Your LOVE and POWER in the earth. Lord, even Elijah ran dismayed from jezebel, so give us the MIGHT and boldness and courage to confront that spirit in the earth now! FILL us with the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord and with YOUR LOVE that NOTHING will shake us from fulfilling YOUR call on our lives!

Isa 41:10-13 NKJV Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.' 11 "Behold, all those who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; They shall be as nothing, and those who strive with you shall perish. 12 You shall seek them and not find them — Those who contended with you. Those who war against you shall be as nothing, as a nonexistent thing. 13 For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.'

Thank you Lord that YOU are EL GIBOR, the MIGHTY ONE OF JACOB and nothing is impossible with YOU! You are our Strength and our High Tower! You will confound our enemies and make a display of those who are Your own! You will defend us in the day of famine and in the face of persecution, YOU will give us strength to love even our enemies! FATHER, fill us with YOUR LOVE that we can love others as YOU love them, thereby testifying to Your might and power in us!

Isa 43:1-3a NKJV But now, thus says the LORD, who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; You are Mine. 2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, Nor shall the flame scorch you. 3 For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;

Thank You Lord , that Your promise is to be with us, Emmanuel, God with us, and that YOU will never, never leave us. Thank You that You will perfect Your love in us, to realize we will never be alone, no matter what happens around us, You are with us. Even if we can't feel You, You are there! Praise You Lord for Your love to us, how precious it is oh Lord!

Jer 5:22-23 NKJV Do you not fear Me?' says the LORD. 'Will you not tremble at My presence, Who have placed the sand as the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it? And though its waves toss to and fro, Yet they cannot prevail; Though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it. 23 But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart; They have revolted and departed.

When fear comes near me Lord, remind me of Your greatness. Help me to see You as big as you really are. Heaven is Your throne and earth is Your footstool. Help me to always be aware of Your sovereignty and power, and how it is so much greater than anything the enemy can throw at us Oh Lord! Thank You for Your presence Father! Thank You Most Holy Spirit! Thank You Jesus for your many interventions in my life that have kept me from harm and death. Your word says that to God alone belong escapes from death, and You are a faithful, Faithful Father! Thank You for Your love for me Lord!

Jer 10:7 NKJV Who would not fear You, O King of the nations? For this is Your rightful due. For among all the wise men of the nations, And in all their kingdoms, There is none like You.

Jer 20:10 NKJV For I heard many mocking: "Fear on every side!" "Report," they say, "and we will report it!" All my acquaintances watched for my stumbling, saying, "Perhaps he can be induced; Then we will prevail against him, And we will take our revenge on him."

2 Tim 1:7 NKJV For God has not given us a spirit of fear , but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

When fear surrounds me because of betrayal and the wickedness of others, hold me in Your arms Lord. Remind me of the comfort of Your arms around me, and how much You love me. Thank You that I'm Your favorite because I said yes to you…and that was not even of my own Lord, for all I do is by Your grace! Help me to be quick to forgive and quick to lay the pain at the cross Father. Heal my heart of any times I have not laid it ALL at the cross. Heal me of any little hidden pains of the past. Fill me with Your love that I can fully forgive from the heart and not just a mental forgiveness.

Hab 3:17-19 AMP
17 Though the fig tree does not blossom and there is no fruit on the vines, [though] the product of the olive fails and the fields yield no food, though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls, 18 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord; I will exult in the [victorious] God of my salvation! [Rom 8:37.] 19 The Lord God is my Strength, my personal bravery, and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]!

Mic 7:7-10 AMP But as for me, I will look to the Lord and confident in Him I will keep watch; I will wait with hope and expectancy for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me. 8 Rejoice not against me, O my enemy! When I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light to me. 9 I will bear the indignation of the Lord because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold His righteous deliverance. [Rom 10:1-4; 11:23-27.] 10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, Where is the Lord your God? My eyes will see my desire upon her; now she will be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

Jer 30:10-11 NKJV 'Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob,' says the LORD, 'Nor be dismayed, O Israel; For behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet, and no one shall make him afraid. 11 For I am with you,' says the LORD, 'to save you; Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you, Yet I will not make a complete end of you. But I will correct you in justice, and will not let you go altogether unpunished.'

Jer 32:39-41 NKJV …then I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for the good of them and their children after them.

Jer 33:7-11 NKJV And I will cause the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel to return, and will rebuild those places as at the first. 8 I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against Me. 9 Then it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise, and an honor before all nations of the earth, who shall hear all the good that I do to them; they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and all the prosperity that I provide for it.'

Jer 46:27-28 NKJV God Will Preserve Israel (cf. Jer 30:10,11) 'But do not fear , O My servant Jacob, And do not be dismayed, O Israel! For behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity; Jacob shall return, have rest and be at ease; No one shall make him afraid. 28 Do not fear , O Jacob My servant," says the LORD, "For I am with you; For I will make a complete end of all the nations

Lam 3:46-48 NKJV All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. 47 Fear and a snare have come upon us, desolation and destruction. 48 My eyes overflow with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Lam 3:56-58 NKJV You have heard my voice: "Do not hide Your ear from my sighing, from my cry for help." 57 You drew near on the day I called on You, And said, "Do not fear!" 58 O Lord, You have pleaded the case for my soul; You have redeemed my life.

Dan 6:26-27 NKJV I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, and steadfast forever; His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall endure to the end. 27 He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, Dan 10:12-13 NKJV Then he said to me, "Do not fear , Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia.

Dan 10:19 NKJV And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!"

Hos 3:4-5 NKJV For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim. 5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days.

Joel 2:21-23 NKJV Fear not, O land; Be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done marvelous things! 22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field; For the open pastures are springing up, and the tree bears its fruit; The fig tree and the vine yield their strength. 23 Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God; For He has given you the former rain faithfully, and He will cause the rain to come down for you

Joel 2:23 NKJV The former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

Amos 3:8 NKJV A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken! Who can but prophesy?

Jonah 1:9 NKJV So he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

Mic 7:16-19 NKJV The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; They shall put their hand over their mouth; Their ears shall be deaf. 17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent; They shall crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth. They shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of You. 18 Who is a God like You, pardoning iniquity And passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy. 19 He will again have compassion on us, and will subdue our iniquities. You will cast all our sins Into the depths of the sea.

Zeph 3:16-17 NKJV In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: "Do not fear ; Zion, let not your hands be weak. 17 The LORD your God in your midst, the Mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing."

Hag 2:4-5 NKJV' According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you; do not fear!'

Zech 8:13 NKJV And it shall come to pass That just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, So I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear , let your hands be strong.'

Mal 3:5 NKJV And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness Against sorcerers, Against adulterers, Against perjurers, Against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, And against those who turn away an alien — Because they do not fear Me," Says the LORD of hosts.

Mal 3:16-18 NKJV A Book of Remembrance Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD listened and heard them; So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who meditate on His name. 17 "They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "On the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him." 18 Then you shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

Mal 4:2-3 NKJV But to you who fear My name the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings; And you shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves. 3 You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this," Says the LORD of hosts.

Matt 10:24-26 NKJV "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. 25 It is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of his household! 26 Therefore do not fear them. For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

Matt 10:28-31 NKJV And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will. 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Matt 14:26-27 NKJV And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear . 27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."

Luke 1:11-13 NKJV Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.

Luke 1:50 NKJV And His mercy is on those who fear Him from generation to generation.

Luke 1:64-65 NKJV Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God. 65 Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea

Luke 1:74-75 NKJV To grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear , 75 In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

Luke 8:37 NKJV Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear . And He got into the boat and returned.

Luke 12:5 NKJV But I will show you whom you should fear : Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, fear Him!

Luke 12:7 NKJV But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luke 12:32-34 NKJV "Do not fear , little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Luke 18:2-8 NKJV saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. 3 Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' 4 And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man, 5 yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'" 6 Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said. 7 And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? 8 I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

Luke 21:25-28 NKJV The Coming of the Son of Man (Matt 24:29-31; Mark 13:24-27) "And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; 26 men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

Acts 2:42-45 NKJV And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 Then fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44 Now all who believed were together, and had all things in common, 45 and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need.

Acts 5:5-6 NKJV Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. 6 And the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

Acts 9:31 NKJV The Church Prospers Then the churches throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were edified. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

Rom 8:15-17 NKJV For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear , but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father." 16 The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, 17 and if children, then heirs — heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

Rom 11:20-23 NKJV Well said. Because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear . 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either. 22 Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you also will be cut off.

1 Cor 2:5 NKJV For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 3 I was with you in weakness, in fear , and in much trembling. 4 And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

1 Cor 16:10-11 NKJV And if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear ; for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

2 Cor 7:1 NKJV The Corinthians' Repentance Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Eph 5:19-21 NKJV speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, 20 giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 submitting to one another in the fear of God.

Eph 6:5 NKJV Bondservants and Masters Bondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ;

Phil 2:12-13 NKJV Light Bearers Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure.

1 Tim 5:20 NKJV Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear .

Heb 2:14-16 NKJV Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham.

Heb 5:7 AMP In the days of His flesh [Jesus] offered up definite, special petitions [for that which He not only wanted but needed] and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him Who was [always] able to save Him [out] from death, and He was heard because of His reverence toward God [His godly fear, His piety, in that He shrank from the horrors of separation from the bright presence of the Father].

Heb 12:28-29 NKJV Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Heb 13:6 NKJV So we may boldly say: "The LORD is my helper; I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

1 Peter 1:17-19 NKJV And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear; 18 knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

1 Peter 2:16-17 NKJV Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

1 Peter 2:18-21 NKJV Submission to Masters (Isa 53:7-9) Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. 19 For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. 20 For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. 21 For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:

1 Peter 3:1-2 NKJV Submission to Husbands Wives, likewise, be submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives, 2 when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear.

1 Peter 3:15-17 NKJV But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

1 John 4:18-19 AMP There is no fear in love [dread does not exist], but full-grown (complete, perfect) love turns fear out of doors and expels every trace of terror! For fear brings with it the thought of punishment, and [so] he who is afraid has not reached the full maturity of love [is not yet grown into love's complete perfection]. 19 We love Him, because He first loved us.

Jude 20-23 NKJV Maintain Your Life with God But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 22 And on some have compassion, making a distinction; 23 but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Rev 2:10 AMP Fear nothing that you are about to suffer. [Dismiss your dread and your fears!] Behold, the devil is indeed about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested and proved and critically appraised, and for ten days you will have affliction. Be loyally faithful unto death [even if you must die for it], and I will give you the crown of life. [Rev 3:10,11.]

Rev 11:18 NKJV The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints, and those who fear Your name, small and great, and should destroy those who destroy the earth."

Rev 14:7 AMP And he cried with a mighty voice, Revere God and give Him glory (honor and praise in worship), for the hour of His judgment has arrived. Fall down before Him; pay Him homage and adoration and worship Him Who created heaven and earth, the sea and the springs (fountains) of water. In NKJV it is FEAR GOD

Rev 15:4 NKJV Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested."

Rev 19:4-5 NKJV Then a voice came from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both small and great!"

---

www.immanuels.org

Overcoming Fear

Origins of Fear

Perspective:
Gen. 1:26-28 ; Ps. 111:10 ; Gen. 3:10 -Mankind was created to know God, the Almighty, infinitely wise, all-knowing, and unconditionally loving One, and man was to live all of his life in the consciousness of His presence. Man was to be in awe of the magnificence of the Lord and to be the container and revealor of God on earth. In our everyday lives, we were to be constantly a visible manifestation of the invisible God, the purpose for our existence on the planet, the meaning of life.

After man decided to be his own god, the center and the source of his own life, sin entered and fear followed and becomes the driving energy of man' s life:anxiety, worry, fret, dread and panic become part of man's vocabulary.

Man who was created to fear One who unconditionally loves him, now potentially fears all persons, spirits, and created things-except the God who alone gjves him life.

Hope:
Matt. 22:37-39 ; John 14:21 , 27 ; I John 4:18 -To return from a self-loving-self to self-loving-others, one must resume the dependent attitude, to 'stand under' God in obedient faith, to again actually partake of Him , to be a participator in His love, His very life. Man was created capable of receiving and becoming the dwelling place of divine love, and revealing that love in his behaviour within creation which leaves no room for fear.

Isa. 42:7 ;61:1 ; Lu. 2:10 ; I Jn. 4:18 ; Rom. 8:15 , 16 -The Gospel is the message of what God has done in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ, His death, His resurrection, the Conqueror of death, and the power of the lie; and in His exaltation He sends the Holy Spirit to come and dwell within us, returning us to the original design, by which He wills to bring us all out of the dungeon of fear where we are tormented by worry and anxiety.

Change:
Phil. 4:6 ; John 14:1 , 27 ; Isa. 8:12-14 ;26:3 -Worry centers on present and future problems as if there is no God; it gives honor , respect and reverence to the power of evil, standing in terror and awe of them.

However, the fear of God centers on the character of God, His unchanging presence within us, and His promises. Deliberately taking and acting on His promises by obedient faith, we demonstrate His love and express His peace. In this mode, we confront, work through, and rise above all of life's adversities. Thus, fear is primarily in the mind and behaviour which we can change. You cannot command your emotions.

Regardless of your feelings, you act by the word in your mind, and your behaviour will follow suit, and victory awaits.

Eph. 4:18 ; 2 Cor. 4:4 -Fear and worry describes us totally absorbed in ourselves , in self-preservation, self-interest, and self-pity, so that we see neither God nor man except as they can be used to further 'our' meaning of life. We either fear God as He designed us to do, resulting in our living in His love, OR we fear the forces that we perceive as hostile to us, taking away the illusion of our meaning of life.

Matt. 6:32-33 ; John 16:33 ; 2 Tim. 1:7 -We must accept responsibility for our fears. God command us to 'Fear Not"366 times in Scriptures. Jesus commands us to 'Be anxious for nothing', and He placed the responsibility in our hands when He said, 'Let not your heart be troubled'.

Christians feel fear, but they make it the springboard for faith to fear God. The answer to fear is the greater fear of God. Believers feel fear but know it is a lie , and replaces it with the truth of his relationship to God and the presence of God within him.

http://www.immanuels.org/bc/orfear2.htm

Presence of Fear or Faith
Perspective:

Gen. 1:26 -28Isa. 8:12-14;1; Rom. 1:16 ; Rom. 5:17 ; Eph. 4:1 -The only answer Scriptures gives to fear is the greater fear of the Lord. Isaiah describes how the believer transfers his fear of people and situations to the Lord who is always with him. As believers we are to 'walk worthy 'of our calling, i. e. , to walk in harmony with what we believe. The Gospel is good news of our restored relationship with God , and a return to live in God's presence. According to God's original design, we are to rule in love and in righteousness.

Hope:
Josh. 1:6-9 ; 1 Pet. 3:13-15 ; Heb. 13:5-6 -In Scripture , the presence of God is equated with the fear of God, and this is always expressed in our behaviour. A person living in the fear of God demonstrates a lifestyle of love, joy and peace-and above all, freedom from fear.

Isa. 41:10 ; Ps. 23:4 ;3:18 , 27 -The presence of God is the logic behind a life, a life without fear. God's command to change our anxious behaviour is based on the reality of His presence. Freedom from worry, fretting, and anxiety is not a miracle in our emotions but is a result of the conclusions of a Holy Spirit enlightened mind.

Ps. 62:1 , 2 , 5 , 6 ; 2 Cor. 13:14 -Living in the fear of God means not only that Christ has died and is risen from the dead, but also that He is exalted and has sent the Spirit who indwells our heart, and is the center of our true self. Thus, our biblical hope is born of a living relationship with God, and we know we are in covenant with God who is love, and Who is active on our behalf.

Change:

Lu. 9:23-24 ; Rom. 8:5-9 -We have practiced the presence of our flesh so long that we are on 'automatic' in the presence of a hostile situation. We react rather than act. We either deny there is a reason to fear, or we are immobilized and paralyzed, or we lash out in anger, afraid of our helplessness.

To counteract this tendency , we have to understand that we must act in faith , and practice the consciousness of God's presence within and with us . This does not just 'happen' to us! Notice Ps. 23:4 -it is David's determined faith and determined response to God's announcement that He is with us!

Rom. 8:26 ; Phil. 4:6-7 ; Isa. 26:3 , 4 ;40:31 -The Holy Spirit is our prayer partner, and we share every detail with God in prayer, and leave it with Him. We praise and give thanks, knowing it is the way faith anticipates His actions in our unknown future. This leads us to wait upon God which results in supernatural strength. We take time to simply sit in His presence and confess that "Thou art with me" and share the things that are the object of our worry and anxiety. When we do so, He promises that we will know the peace of God that is beyond all human comprehension.

2 Cor. 10:5 ; Prov. 16:25 ;18:21 -Every thought that comes to mind, give immediately to the Holy Spirit Who will return the right word to your mind to digest, to understand and to apply through your tongue which addresses life and rejects death.

http://www.immanuels.org/bc/orfear3.htm

LEARNING TRUTH TALK
Perspective:

Phil. 2:5 ; Eph. 4:23 ; Col. 1:8-10 ; Phil. 4:8 ; 2 Cor. 10:5 -The New Testament teaches that the source of our behaviour is the mind. The salvation we have received though Christ begins to be established and worked out in our thoughts before it becomes our lifestyle. It is in the mind that we look at ourselves and form a perception of who we are. We have a mental mirror that images to us who we believe ourselves to be. Accordingly, before Christ, the false images we had of ourselves, patterns of anxiety, feelings and behaviour are to be changed to new patterns that reveal the love, hope and peace of God. , i. e. , learning to think with the mind of Christ.

Hope:
Matt. 13:1-9 , 8-23 ; Jere. 31:33 ; Eze. 36:26 , 27 -We now have a new center, a new magnetic north. Christ has put His life into us, we have a new heart, and His law written on that new heart, a heart of flesh, not stone. We have new soil to receive the word of God in order to conform to his image.

Matt. 18:3 -To hear the Gospel is usually a passive act. At the surface level, it may make sense to us so that we accept it. At the same time, we may still believe in our deepest being the prompting of the Lie, and we self-talk ourselves and fail to translate the Gospel into behaviour. Having a new heart means to turn around and go in the other direction, facing the fact that we now have to build our lives on a totally new foundation. Like children, we have to relearn the meaning of our lives and how to live it. A question of choice, choosing to change, to repent which opens the door to being Christlike.

Eph. 1:18 ; Eph. 4:23 ; Col. 1:9-10 -The 'heart' in Scripture is never the seat of emotions, but the center of a man's person. The heart of a man is his mind, the way he thinks and believes about life, from his beliefs he makes his decisions. The spirit of the mind speaks to the direction the mind thinks in. As we study the word of God, we progress being filled with godly knowledge. This wisdom and understanding originates in the spirit, and this becomes the source of our behaviour which pleases God.

Change:
2 Cor. 4:3-4 ; Rom. 12:1-2 -Our genealogy, life's experiences and encounters formed us to a self-focus, and a self-defensive posture to guard us against the fears of living . From this we established a belief bank which fashioned and determined the course of life. The basic cause of all our fears is not how other people view us and how we measure up in their eyes, but how we view ourselves and measure up to our own standards.

We talk to ourselves from our source, and by it we judge ourselves and everyone else. It is by this self-talk with its endless commands, requirements, and patterns of fear, it is this thinking that we base our actions or inactions. This belief bank and resultant self-talk is to be renewed.

Gen. 3:5 ; Rom. 8:6-7 ; Eph. 4:17 ; Rom. 1:18-27 -The Satanic lie of Eden "You shall be as God' was first injected into the mind and introduced a new and totally false belief system. It reflected to man through the inner mirror that he was to find the meaning to life in his created flesh. By this lie Satan gained legal access to the mind. Thus, man outside of Christ has a mind that is blinded by flesh feelings, he is led by passion, not logic, believing man is the center and the meaning of life. 2 Cor. 10:4 -The foundational belief system and the image of our self that arose from it were fashioned and given definition in our childhood. They were laid down and built up by our forefathers and parents, and were passed into our hands to build upon and updated to pass on to our children.

2 Cor. 10:5 ; Rom. 12:1-2 ; Rom. 8:29 ; Rom. 10:9 ; 1 Cor. 2 -

Daily we replenish the mind to eventually realize that we were created capable and responsible to receive a revelation of who God is, who we are, and the meaning of our existence. We are responsible to look to the "One" who made us and ask , "Who am I?" He tells us . We are dependent upon the creator God Who is unconditional love, deriving our life from Him. In the ability of the Holy Spirit, we are to express that life, His love in our behaviour, glorifying Him in creation. This is the belief bank we are to live from , the truth of God's word embedded in our human spirit which directs our life being a blessing on earth as Jesus was, is, and in us. By this we subdue the world's influences and the devil.

http://www.immanuels.org/bc/orfear4.htm

Applying the Truth

Perspective:
2 Cor. 6:16-18 ; Eph. 4:20-21 ; Phil. 3:12-14 :Understanding the true foundational beliefs, the inner image of ourselves arising from these beliefs, and the inner talk that continually directs our lives, will help us to attack and destroy the lies that are behind all of our fears. The new birth does not neutralize the effect of what we tell ourselves. If we think with only the flesh-feeling input-we return, in fact, to life under the flesh, directed by the Lie We effectively silence the mind and the revelation of the truth as it is in Jesus.

Unless we understand what is going on, we will continue to live by leftover feelings and a view of life-a way of thinking-rooted in the Lie. These old lies are the factory where new lies and distortions to fit the new situation are manufactured. They are the landing strips for Satan's flying missiles to land on.

Hope:
Eph. 4:20-21 ; 2 Cor. 10:3-5 :It is the Holy Spirit Who renews the mind. We learn by Jesus, hear of Jesus, and be taught of Him, as we study the Scriptures. The Spirit would totally renew our mind and outmoded way of thinking, and would establish in us the mind of Christ-a new way of thinking.

Rom. 5:5 ; Phil. 4:6-7 ; Heb. 13:5-6 :When we take a stand of faith with the truth, the Holy Spirit then works in us mightily, pouring out and communicating the love of God to us. The love of God reaches into our fears, and surrounds and engulfs us. He enters our soul, where our emotions and thoughts are in turmoil, and speaks His peace-giving presence. We hear Him affirm us in the stand we take. He tells us He will never leave us, and we realize that He is our strength to face all our tomorrows.

John 14:6 ; 1Pet. 1:22 ; 2 John 2 ; 2 John 4 ; 3 John 4 ; 3 John 8 :We are those who have become confronted by the Truth, the Lord Jesus Himself and have renounced the Lie and obeyed the Truth. The Truth has come to take residence within us by the entrance of the Spirit of Truth. We now walk in the Truth. We are actively participating in the Truth and aggressively promoting the Truth.

Change:

Phil. 4:6-8 ; Matt. 6:25-32 :Because I am a child of the Father, I do not have to be anxious over anything; whatever is beginning to bother me, I choose with prayer and supplication with thanksgiving to make my requests known to my Father. I do now and in all hours of the day and night, choose to direct my mind to dwell on whatever is honorable, right, pure, lovely, of good repute, of excellence and of praise.

Col. 3:1-3 ; Matt. 5:14 :I have been raised up with Christ, and I choose to keep seeking the things that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. I choose to set my mind on the things that are above, not on things that are on the earth, because I have died and my life is hidden with Christ in God. Christ is my life and in Him I am the light of the world. I am a city set on a hill that cannot be hidden.

John 1:12 ; Rom. 8:16 ; Gal. 4:6-7 :I have received Jesus Christ and , therefore, have been given the right to become a child of God. The Spirit Himself bears witness with my spirit that I have been born of God. And because I am His son, the Father has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into my heart. I am no longer a slave, but a son and an heir-an heir of God, a fellow-heir with Christ.

Read and dwell on the following Scriptures to reinforce who and what you are in Christ:

John 15:1 , 5 , 15-16 ; Phil. 1:2 1; Pet. 2:5 Rom. 6:18 ; Eph. 3:4-10 ; 1 Pet. 2:9 1 Cor. 6:15-20 ; Eph. 4:21-24 ; 1 Jhn. 3:1-2 2 Cor. 5:17 ; Col. 1:12-14 ; 1 Jhn. 5:18 Gal. 6:18 ; 1 Thess. 5:5 ; Matt. 5:13

Out of Control (World of Non-Existence)

Perspective:
Matt. 6:34 ; Isa. 33:2 ; Ps. 90:4 ; Lam. 3:21-24 :Sin is man choosing to be independent of God's love. It is taking sides with Satan in defiance of God, turning to one's own way. When man came out from under God to live in the Lie of " I can be independent and alongside of God, "he walked out of God's shalom. The first words of man were "I was afraid". When we seek to be in control of our lives, independent of God , we create a world of fear and anxiety. Believing the Lie that he is the source and master of his own life, his world and all his futures, man seeks to create shalom independently of God. To do this he must have control over all that happens in life, today and in all tomorrows, in his own life and in the lives of those who affect his happiness.

This leads to compulsion to control every detail of his existence and that of everyone around him. If he is a god, then he must be in control. This is the world of non-existence, the territory of the Lie, that exists only in our darkened imagination and in the minds of demons.

Hope:
Matt. 6:34 ; Isa. 33:2 ; Ps. 90:14 ; Lam. 3:21-24 : Jesus commands believers to live life in increments of one day at a time, and within that, one hour at a time. We have grace for today to be used entirely on today's quota of problems and challenges. The only action we can take today is to use that grace to do what must be done today in preparation for tomorrow . We then place all the problems of tomorrow in God's hands. Scripture advises us to receive from God in the morning the grace that is needed for that day.

Ps. 23 ; Heb. 13:8 ; Isa. 26:3 ; Deut. 33:25 :David spoke of God in the present tense, giving him the strength and enablement he needs in the present moment. Resting in the fact that God is now his Shepherd gives him the wisdom to handle the problem when he actually faces it. We don't try to imagine the changing future or what we will do with it;we focus our attention on the unchanging Christ, the Ruler of history. Instead of imagining a tomorrow without God, we concentrate our picture-forming ability on who God is to us, and in us now. As he is, so are we.

Change:

Lu. 22:31-34 ; John 15:10-11 ;16:33 ; Phil. 4:7 ; Ps. 91:11-13 :We not only want to control tomorrow, but all the people who are part of our lives, who fill our todays and tomorrows. We believe it is our responsibility to heal all the wounds and hurts of our family and associates; we must have the answers to all their problems, we are responsible to provide for family and to counsel and discipline children. God commands us never to manipulate others or try to live life for them. We must repent of our sinful attempts to control the lives of others, and release them to God Who is responsible for them.

Num. 13:25-14 :35; Phil. 4:6-7 ; James 4:6-8 ; I Pet. 5:5-6 :We are afraid of change, the fear of the unknown that causes anxiety. We procrastinate learning a new skill, driving a car, fear changing jobs, meeting new people, moving to a new area, afraid of success and new challenges, fear of being found wanting. We worry over things we have no control over: the life or death of loved ones, their joy and their sadness, and the choices they make. We worry because the Lie has taught us we should control them. The fear of death is the ultimate fear of the unknown and uncontrollable.

These types of fear lead to murmuring and complaining and often directed at God. We must do as Joshua and Caleb in not fearing the unknown: they self-talked the truth, confronting themselves and their fears in the presence of God. They knew God's presence with them, and they knew God's track record.

Rom. 6:3-6 ; 2 Cor. 5:17 , 21 ; Rom. 8:1-2 ; Heb. 11:1 :The only way to be free from all fear, especially the anxiety arising from the compulsion to control, is to pass through the ultimate fear, fear of death. We must become new persons, no longer dominated and controlled by the Lie and the liar. The only way that can happen is for that lie-controlled self to die! Jesus took our place in death and resurrection. Our response to that announcement is to repent and renounce the Lie, specifically in the area of control. Faith means death to the controlling self because the act of faith in the Gospel is admitting we can do nothing to save ourselves from ourselves and our sin. Faith abandons all efforts to make self right with God and rests with thanks in what God has done in Christ.

Act, don't wait on fear

John 14:21 -God's command is not only to love Him but to love one another. Jesus never referred to His loving God, but always mentioned loving your neighbor. By loving your neighbor, this was proof you were loving God. Jesus prayed all night so that He could talk to people lovingly in the day.

Compassion - pity, sympathy, anger at suffering of others, that I must do something about it.

I John 3:17 -God's love is never a feeling, God's love is action. Compassion arises and this leads to action.

Feelings are not sin but only become sin when feelings become the motive for which you act. Love is a choice I make over against other possibilities.

Obedience is acting in response to God but reacting is a response to a situation. First rule of love is 'FEAR NOT'. I meet objection, I meet abuse, I meet hatred, with forgiveness in the name of Jesus.

The Samaritan is a story that Jesus tells to warn us to do those things we have not been doing. To begin to do them now. The Holy Spirit is already in us, we ask for His directions, and GRACE to do what He shows us to do. Our choice to do in obedience what He says, allows his love to be manifested.

Illustration

Wife complaining her unsaved husband or casual Christian prevents her from doing her best at church, at bible study when she should be attending to her husband's wounded needs. Her husband is in the ditch. She has to get down into it and begin the healing process rather than spending her time worshipping the worship.

[The author who wrote this, may not be implying this is true in all situations, just that often it can be lack of death to self in the marriage - There are plenty of situations where the male is also doing this and also situations that seem never to be resolved no matter how much love you try to show - Pris]

FEAR – FAR ENOUGH

We are God's invention and our job is to ask God why He invented us. As I study and increase in my knowledge of God, I will become what God intended me to be from the beginning. When I do what God's word says to do then I become what God says I am. Until I become a communicator with God, and I do as He says I am to do, I become a blessing otherwise I am a danger on this earth.

Unless I know who I am in God's chart and scheme of things, then I will relate horizontally and become what others want to condition me to be or the conditions of life influence me to be according to the circumstances of life. The key to existence is to be in awe and reverence of the Lord. Satan in the garden tells man he is to be the meaning of life. Man chose not to be present with God but to be present within himself.

As soon as the independent spirit came in, man became fractured from one another. No longer communicated with each other, each conscious of his own needs rather than the other. Instead of sharing, they began to covet and protect themselves; thus, being alone they became desolate and fear entered in. Man became John Wayne types, solitary, no need of others but sufficient unto themselves.

We all have masks on and will be what others want us to be in order to be acceptable.

Isa. 61:4 -Desolations of many generations, Adam's sinned passed on to us manifold. Jesus had 'mature faith'. Called the Father "Abba". Looked at Himself as a 'little child', did not assume an adult way of thinking.

Shalom means I am at peace in the midst of chaos because I am resting in the arms of My Father. Jesus did not see danger as the final reality because the 'final reality' is "Abba". He is beyond the storms of life.

Jesus never looked at circumstances but through them and saw the "Father". Jesus did not fear the storm because He had authority over it.

Little faith is insufficient, undeveloped, timid. It is faith for salvation only. Does not deal with protecting and providing for you every day of your life.

Little faith lives in the realm of common sense. Chaos is all around us, we are perishing, that is the reality. Little faith never thinks beyond what the preacher says, their minds are not saved. Go beyond and see the Father made all things, feeds all the animals, etc. He Who made heaven and earth loves me uniquely as an individual. Thus, whatever comes to me in life, comes into God's realm as well, I am not alone in anything.

God is the only glory and the power, no other power but His prevails. What you fear has power over you. To fear God is to have no fear of anything else. Same relationship Jesus had with the Father , we have with Jesus.

Gal. 2:20 -Faith is not a struggle for it is Jesus' faith that is in me. Faith comes from Jesus Who lives inside of me. He is the author and finisher of my faith. It is not me struggling to have faith, but to allow Jesus be Himself as I confront life.

The Holy Spirit inside of me makes it all come alive. Rest in Him go thru life in complete rest in Him. Read Psalms every day of your life until it becomes real to you in every imaginable way. The Psalms tells me who my Father is "ABBA".

FEAR is a Part of Living

Fear always there:

Fear is part of living. We will always face new situations, new changes, and a sense of fear will always surround all situations, and a sense of inadequacy will surround me. All this does is reveal the creatureness of my being, and reminds me that I can't handle anything in my own strength and wisdom. Creature stuff, humanness, the flesh, that use to be god, independent of God, can't handle life. Rejoice that you cannot handle it, religion tells you can, but believe it not.

·2 Cor. 12 -When I realize I am weak then I am strong in Him.

·Phil. 4:13 -I can do all things thru Jesus Who strengthens me, Who is in me.

The secret therefore is that I can do all things because Christ is my life. By faith, not feelings, I call upon the Lord Jesus "Let your thoughts be my thoughts, , Your strength my strength, Jesus You are my adequacy. That is the normal Christian life. 1 Cor. 1:30 .

Jesus is my living map, I can face and be victorious no matter where I go. I can face all the uncertain functions of life. As a believer, I will always feel fear, God made me that way, to be inadequate and helpless so that I learn to solely depend upon Him for all that I need.

Therefore, all of life's challenges and problems are really opportunities for Christ to reveal Himself to me and thru me.

Changes in life are really great opportunities to reveal our true potential which is Christ living in me and thru me. Thru experiences, I begin to realize from one incident to another I grow in faith as I see Jesus's adequacy take over and swallow the fear.

2 Cor. 3:3-5 -God wants to work miracles thru my life every day I face new situations, something new. Every challenge that causes me to fear and revert back to the familiar is really a great opportunity for Christ's miracle to be mamifested in my life. Christ in me , the hope of glory, His life is the life I draw upon, treasures in earthen vessels, Christ in me.

John 14:26 , 16:13 -He will guide into the unknown, new territories, new ideas, new situations, thus, look forward to great opportunities to reveal our potential. Our potential always exist just ahead, new ventures, new victories, new revelations of Jesus within me.

Heb. 4:3 -Fear is really living in unbelief that Christ is not living within me. Areas which gives us fear, God has already given that area to us in Christ. Just get up and go with whatever you have in hand (as Moses with his staff) move forward and allow God fulfill that beyond the staff. Christ within me is enough to handle any tragedy, any addiction, any vacuum that exist Christ will fill it and keep out all others. My potential is always there to meet that which I have never done, where I have never been. Thus, the Holy Spirit has a lot of living in me to do, lot of dimensions of Jesus to accomplish. You can go back to Egypt, arise and be what I am, laugh at fear, and say "In Christ I can do all things!"

AFRAID OF GOD

Ps. 49 - Fear, awe, reverence, giving honor, measure and respect, in the Presence of that Person or thing-the all-powerful God. Unhealthy fear is a fear created by a distorted image of God, and giving honor to this distortion.

For 'Thy Name sake" describes the inward character, who He really is His track-record. He knows everything, my very thoughts, all-wise. Some see God as the 'judge' ready to punish. 10 commandments never given as a means for us to be accepted by God. Law is a plumbline, as a guide to tell me what crooked is and what straight is. Law reveals who God is and how to love God.

Law tells us we are helpless and cannot keep it but to drive us to God and He gives us our salvation. Most of us still trying to please God, to do works to be accepted. To please others and be accepted by them. We keep trying until we give up in hopelessness.

Feelings we express when not accepted:

'I am no good', I always feel guilty because I was compelled to be perfect', whatever I am doing I feel I should be doing something else, I hate this body because this body never does what it suppose to do, it is never perfect, God can't put up with me, no one can, I must please someone, I have to be accepted by somebody, somewhere is our constant theme.

We cannot live up to the god we created in our minds a judgmental god who is never satisfied with my performance. Thus, we are appealing to our own name for our salvation-by making my behaviour perfect, I will make myself acceptable. This leads to despair because we are never satisfied in ourselves, it is never enough. It is the name of Jesus which saves me, not my name or my efforts. God accepts me by the name of Jesus Christ, not by name or efforts. Jesus is 100% God and 100% man Who lived a perfect life. First man Who overcame satan in the wilderness. He is my brother human, One who never sinned, the really genuine human.

Jesus stood in for everyone and took all human sins and paid the full penalty. When He was buried, I was buried with Him. When He arose I arose with Him.

We were completely useless, no hope whatsoever in ourselves. Our only hope is to die and start all over again. When He died, I died, when He was buried, I was buried with Him, when He arose, so did I. Now 'in Him', I respond biblically to life. Now I start new again, born-again to start a new life, a new creation without a past, a virgin set free from the world , the flesh and the devil.

[We must get free of the demons and get healed in our inner man to walk this out according to the Word. Yet the Word is something that has to be read, and absorbed and walked in to also get the healing. - Pris]

FEAR OF CHANGE

Exodus 16 - Israel leaving Egypt, going into wilderness.

Gen. 2:3 -God would have us dependent upon Him, He is our blueprint. Not only dependent but united with Him, His Spirit living within us, joined with Him, He lives in us and we live from Him. He is our fuel, if you like; we can't live without Him.

He is our Lord, Our Creator, our inventor, we do as He says. As we obey Him, we love Him and reveal Him to the world as He would be seen in our behaviour. We are creatures who image God, revelators of Him, that is our destiny, our blueprint from the very beginning. The potential of any human being is God Himself. God is our potential, to reveal Him in all His love, all His strength, all His wisdom in life.

How does this work?

It works by faith. When I am faced with any situation, being united with God I am adequate for any situation. Do I need wisdom, love, strength, then God thru me manifests Himself thru me to others.

[Pris: Whatever we lack, we can call upon God at the moment for grace we need to help – that manifestation is not automatic without relying on GOD's Spirit]

Gen. 2:8 -World when created was a kingdom of peace, peace with and by God, peace within myself and with others. That peace makes me prosperous in all areas of life.

·The Lie: Be independent and become your source, within self find wisdom, light, strength, do what you like or want, no longer dependent upon God, don't need Him.

Source of fear:

Fear came in when man declared himself independent from God, to declare his own kingdom of peace. Therefore , Adam had to get everything under control thru his own power. He had to know what others do, think and speak, he had to be controlling all things else he would be terribly upset. He must know and have all things in order, what must be, or if it was not, what he had to be, what was harmonious or not, have all things in balance, to change if not, etc. Able also to predict all things, the present and the future. Wisdom comes from familiarity, that is security, that which is predictable.

Change: unfamiliar situations, new happenings, throws my world out of control, things become unpredictable, I am no longer in control;thus, fear comes in and challenges my ability to handle it. Now, I realize I am no longer a god.

Imperative of change:

Change is the dynamic of life. We put things off, hoping things will be back to normal if we do nothing. Familiar things make me complacent. If my schedule changes, I have a heart attack. Hate to meet new people, fear comes in, they don't fit into my idea of those people I already know, I don't know if they will like me or not.

Become afraid of people who don't speak my language, they throw us off balance. Why do you put off learning new things, ignorance of them will show me up, and I don't want others to know I am ignorant of anything, upsets my position of being in control of my life. I might reveal to others or to myself , I am not as strong as I thought nor as wise as I imagined I was.

Loss of job, moving to another city, fear of success, all of these might reveal your weakness, that you cannot handle it: new job, promotion, being single, etc.

Addicts are familiar with and use to their addictions,gives comfort, reluctant to give it up. No real fear of God because we neglected the Holy Spirit. We majored on doctrine, and not on the Presence of the Holy Spirit within us, the Spirit daily revealing to our human spirit the spirit of Christ within us, a living, vital reality. Not just a doctrine but a living Spirit.

We normally look at God as Someone Who gives us something, and He will if we behave ourselves, being nice and all, then God will give. If He doesn't then we get mad, and sulk. We are to see God as He really is. God in us, a concrete reality. God is, and from Him I live, I exist, I live from Him and in Him, in love God is love, so am I, in Him.

He came in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ, and I am to confess Him as Lord. He, above all, I am from Him, He is not someone I get things [from only - Pris], He is above all of that, He is my God.

[Pris - He is my SOURCE of all I need-material and spiritual] God is God and will remain God, nothing can stop Him, He goes for eternities. Thus, be in awe of Him, and His magnificence. He made the world, and all in it. Are we to fear anything in the world when God made it?

Stop talking like the world talks, full of fears, replace the fears of this world by the fear of God .

Instead of seeking God for things, seek Him for Who He is. See Malachi, the Sun of Righteousness, sit in the realm of this truth, let His rays penetrate into your inner being, that you may be full of God, being full of God, You have God Himself, and from Him, flows all things. Sit under His rays, let God be God, God is, God of the "I AM", be part of this, flow from this great truth. Know that God loves me just as I am, I don't have to perform. Let God be all that He is, let Him flow thru me, and all else descends into secondary levels.

Read Psalms, Epistles, be astounded at Who God is, He is worthy of our praise, be astounded at our salvation, what God has done and will do, God is worthy, He is central to the universe, Lamb of God slained before the world.

Overcome fear by a greater fear -- the fear of God!

FEAR OF DEATH

Joshua 14 -Caleb's 85th birthday. Caleb's constant cry "The Lord is with us". Hope is that God is unchanging.

Heb. 13 -always with us, never leave or forsake you no matter what. Hope is in God, not in desires or my emotions. Faith is that now I have the present possession of God's grace. Hope is always future tense, i.e., hope is faith that extends into the future. 12 spies, ten said no, 2 said yes.

Caleb suffered the fate of the naysayers, a victim of their sins, Caleb did not follow the crowd's sins, he forgave them, those who thwarted his dreams of entering the promised land. Caleb's hope was not in people but in God. He was not cynical of people, saw their failures but his faith and hope was in God , not people. Hope in God and God is in you now, that is all that matters. Neither was Caleb jealous of Joshua. Being victims of the past is having hope in self but not in God. Hoping in others, you will be disappointed, another snare . Our hope is to be in God or we will be disappointed, and cynicism will become a pattern. Then our bodies will yield to this despair and we become sicker and sicker.

[Pris – and more bitter and bitter]

Time heals nothing, it just buries it, hides it, only the Spirit of Christ heals a broken heart. Our full potential always remains, growing and developing until the image of Christ is revealed, the potential of Christ in us. Don't put hope in people or self but only in God.

Key is to forgive the past completely, all the hurts caused by others or by self. Ask God to put His love in me in order for me to deal with the past.

Ps. 42:11 -Hope in God is a command, not what others have done or not done to us. Self-pity comes when I think there is no God, leaving God out of the equation.

FEAR OF PEOPLE

Fear is a feeling, I work thru it by an act of my will because God is with me. I replace fear by an act of the will to love and not be envious, jealous, fear of being challenged by stronger people or those who threaten my sense of well-being by their sense of superiority. I practice the Presence of the Holy Spirit within me and allow Him thru me to love those who I would normally be in fear of.

Heb. 13:20-21 -The realization of God being within me from Genesis onward. God is with me, and by this I reject the fear thought. Attack fear thought with the truth. God loves me and accepts me and approves of me regardless of what others think or say. Fear is misplaced faith, putting my faith in people to approve of me, and accept me. Be always in a state of forgiving all offenses, a permanent state of reconciliation. Choose to love, develop this disposition to love regardless, it takes time for this idea to grow and develop into the image of Christ because this is what Jesus did. Commands us to 'Fear Not" this addresses our will, not our emotions.

Love God's way and feelings will follow.

God created man for man to reveal Him to others on this earth, to show and reveal God's love. A human bears the divine image of God, to reveal the divine character on earth. The true meaning of life is just this: to reveal the love of God to others by my behaviour. Man was enabled by his choice to exercise faith to receive this love and to love by my behaviour. That is our blueprint, our destiny to be this love. Sin states that meaning of life is that I should love myself first then I can love others, the alternative plan to life's meaning. Our blueprint is to love otherwise life does not work. God's idea is that man is to be "the being of God"to manifest the Spirit of God.

In sin , man tries to get others to love him by performing for man. If I do great deeds, or do for people they will accept and approve me. Sin looks for a substitute for the infinite , unconditional love of God. Rejecting God is rejecting love, and love is the very essence of being. Not loving brings a vacuum, brings an emptiness, which must he filled. This emptiness we try to fulfill by performance, to get people to love and accept me. Therefore, we will do anything for this acceptance.

Fear comes in when I think my audience is watching my life, and I become afraid that they may not like what they see, and give me what I need. Not being accepted, I lash out in anger. I love those who love me , and I hate those who don't. Good Samaritan meaning is that religion will worship the worship in lieu of being of service.

Today, we are told to go to our unconverted friends, but we decline saying they are drunks, evil, tell dirty jokes, the same as the passerby's of the good samaritan story. We worship the ritual, the songs, the praise time, etc. Result is we don't do anything that comes in between.

---

www.upstreamca.org/recovery.html

A Living Sacrifice

Milt Rodriguez

"I exhort you therefore, brothers, through the compassions of God to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well pleasing to God, which is your reasonable service." Romans 12:1

Present your bodies a living sacrifice

Please notice with me that in the above quote there are many bodies yet only one sacrifice. Have you ever seen this before? How many times have you read this and yet never noticed this? Funny how our minds work. We read and comprehend things according to a predetermined set of criteria that automatically feeds us the meaning. Our minds want to tell us that this verse is all about the "individual" Christian life. But that is not the case at all.

In the Greek, the word 'bodies' is plural and 'sacrifice' is singular. This indicates that, although many bodies are presented, they become one sacrifice. Therefore, this whole passage here in Romans 12, taken in its proper context, is not about the individual Christian life, but rather, is about God's will and purpose, the Body of Christ!

There we see one sacrifice being presented to God. This sacrifice requires our entire being which includes body (v.1), soul (v.2), and spirit (v.11)

This Sacrifice is Living

This sacrifice is alive through resurrection life. This is the divine life that has passed through and overcome death and therefore, can never die again. This is not like the sacrifices of the Old Testament that were all slain when they were presented. This sacrifice is always living to God.

This Sacrifice is Holy

This sacrifice is holy because it has been separated unto God by the blood of Christ from the world for the purpose of proving God's perfect will. This sacrifice has been completely consecrated (dedicated) to God in order that He may have His visible expression here on the earth. Therefore, this sacrifice is well pleasing to God.

One Sacrifice, One Service

Not only is this a single sacrifice, but it is also a single service. Our service to God should not be one that is individual, separated, and unrelated. All our service should constitute one whole service to God, not many individuals who are all doing their own things. There is no such thing as "my" ministry or "your" ministry. It is all the ministry of Christ that we all share in. It is the ministry of the Body and to the Body. It is Body ministry that flows out of Body life. This is the life of Christ flowing through the members to one another and to the world. This is not detached individuals performing their own separated "ministries."

Transformation

Change can only come from the inside out. Once the sacrifice is presented to God and given to Him as a continual dedication then He begins the transformation process. This begins with a compete renewing of the mind. His goal is the building up of the Body of Christ so that He might have an expression of His fullness. He accomplishes this goal is by conforming each member into the image of His dear Son.

It begins with the turning of the mind to the spirit so that the mind can be renewed and set free from the mold of the this age and begin thinking along the lines of God's purpose and plan which is to have His own visible expression that Paul called the Body of Christ.

First, there must be a separation from the world. The external environment can no longer be the sphere of primary influence. The inner temple of God within the Body must now become the center of influence. The members must learn to turn inward to find their Lord, and to there, be fed by Him. The age of this world can no longer dictate the life of these chosen ones. This Sacrifice has been "set apart" for the unique purpose of expressing her Lord. Things of the world (external things) no longer hold any attraction for her because now she is being drawn to hide away with Him who lives within her.

As this living sacrifice beholds her Lord she is being changed from glory to glory (II Cor. 3:18). As she decreases, He increases and more and more of His life is expressed through her. She only has to set her mind on the spirit (Ro. 8:6) and her mind will be renewed. The more she turns to Him (inwardly), in her spirit, the more her mind is focused on eternal things and away from things of this present age.

The present age is one of self-centered individualism which comes from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. This sacrifice only has one hope of being saved from such a perverse generation, she must discover her Lord contained within her own members and then draw from His life found within each one. She can no longer find her satisfaction within her own self absorbed, separated, independent lifestyle. Isolation cannot be her refuge any longer. He only alternative to the world is the Body. She must learn to function and live out from the life of the Body. Her own life can no longer sustain her, in fact, it never really did.

This living sacrifice is a sweet smelling fragrance to our God. This sacrifice produces the purpose of His heart; to have a living, breathing image of His Son. To have a visible expression of His own glory on the earth. To have a Body that will truly express His life so that the world will know that the Father has sent Him.

written by Milt Rodriguez

A Living Sermon

Sandy Warner

Oct 13, 2005

A LIVING SERMON, YOUR PERSONAL STORY
I send you forth as My living sermon, as people would rather see one than hear one. In the mean time, your life stories of how I speak to you shall become prophetic living legends for the generations following in your footsteps.

"Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart." (2 Cor 3:2-3 KJV)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post.

Strings

Sandy Warner

Oct 16, 2005

STRINGS
I see a balloon high in the sky
Having traveled miles gone by.
I once held on and grasped it tight
Against tug and pull to take flight.

The wrestling of strings are now released.
In surrender there is always peace.
Remember well to give back to God.
And all of heaven will applaud.

It hurts a mother to cut her strings.
But such delight when she see their wings.
Flying on prayers so lovingly given,
They'll find their way for which they've striven.

Now they soar and fly in the wind.
Where they go, we see no end.
Roots and wings we give our kids.
To seek God's best, not what's forbid.

Always take time to say a prayer.
The wind will carry your heart that's there.
A mother's prayers will never cease.
On through history past deceased.

1 Sam 1:22-8 NKJV
But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will take him, that he may appear before the LORD and remain there forever." So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD establish His word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him. Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young. Then they slaughtered a bull, and brought the child to Eli. And she said, "O my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him. Therefore I also have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives he shall be lent to the LORD." So they worshiped the LORD there.

~ Poetry2Ponder is birthed from yearnings of intercession.
~ Poems are posted once a week.
~ Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net
~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com
~ Permission given to forward or post.

In Search Of The Reluctant Ones
Sandy Warner

Oct 10, 2005

IN SEARCH OF THE RELUCTANT ONES
I AM working on secret missions right now. I AM going fishing to find, identify and commission leaders into their places. These dear ones have been tried in the fire, and many are reluctant and hiding, having already gone through more than enough. Many do not know their identities and some are not even interested. I may turn their faces towards My truth of their calling, but they bounce right back again as though not even noticing.

They do not understand, that for the span of their entire lives, all they have gone through has prepared them for this hour. I have suffered and cried along with them, and have never left their side. Little do they know that their training has been almost completed. A few finishing strokes, along with the full understanding of their calling and identity, and they shall be prepared in no time at all. I will hug and hold them tight as they turn their faces towards Me and I turn My face towards them. I will cling to them and hold them snugly until they stand and are able accept the revelation of their callings.

Mark 1:16-20 NKJV
And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him. When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

The Lord is hunting and fishing and coming another circle to find those who feel disqualified from their callings. For further rhema, click here:

http://QWC.url123.com/fish1

http://QWC.url123.com/fish2

Altar of Sacrifice
Arlette Pollard and Bill Somers

Altar of Sacrifice
Arlette Pollard

> "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind; that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God." Romans 12:1-2

Several days ago the Lord woke me up several times during the same evening, starting around one o'clock until early into the morning. Each time He would wake me up I was shown the same vision. What I was shown was an altar that was made of stone. It was located out in a remote countryside, on a hill, surrounded by various sized bushes, and trees.

Each time I was awakened I was shown another detail of the altar scenario. The first time I was awakened what I was shown was an altar that sat on a level section at the top of a hill. Though I saw an entire mountain scene, it was the altar that was the predominate object of focus. The first time I woke up I was aware that this was the location where altar sacrifices were performed. So I looked around to see what was to be sacrificed, nothing appeared.

The next time I was awakened, even though I never saw any people, it seemed that I was looking through the eyes of someone as they made the climb up the hillside to the altar. I saw the ground they walked on; I saw the path they followed. I knew they had a definite purpose in climbing the mountain. The person whose eyes I seemed to be looking through, I was made to understand, that he knew the altar awaited him at the top of the mountain. There was some anxiety that I felt as I knew he was questioning, wondering what was to happen at the altar. When he made it to the altar, I found that I was looking through his eyes as he searched the area for a sacrifice. He knew there was to be a sacrifice, but couldn't seem to locate it. He looked in the bushes, everywhere, but there was no sacrifice.

The next time I woke up, the people, where at the top of the hill looking upon the altar, they were still looking around, searching for something. It seemed to me that they were becoming anxious as they looked for the sacrifice. Not that they doubted there was a sacrifice, just that they were anxious to find the sacrifice. I seemed to move with them as they continued the search through the bushes, and remembered how they kept looking to the altar itself, as if they expected a sacrifice to be laid out upon the altar.

I would be awakened two more times that night, and the vision was the same. Except the last two times, were just glimpses of the altar. I knew the altar was ready, the people were ready, but that there was no sacrifice. No one seemed to doubt that there was to be a sacrifice, just that it hadn't appeared yet.

The next morning as I was getting ready to meet two fellow intercessors for a day of worship and intercession I was shown the same vision. The altar, the people waiting for the sacrifice to appear.

Later that day as I met with two other intercessors, one of the intercessors, who also moves into visions, without my telling her anything about the altar vision, started to describe the vision I had been given the night before. She described it in perfect detail, we both seemed to sense it was representative of Abraham and Isaac. Father and son. I said something about how we were to wait for understanding, to wait before we moved into prayer, because what was supposed to be laid on the altar hadn't appeared yet. But she immediately said, no, the word from God was that it was all about obedience. She said this three times, that it was all about obedience. She said that she saw that there was the older man, who was the Father, and she saw that he was carrying a lamb that had been slain in his arms. The lamb had been sacrificed. His obedience had been the sacrifice.

Earlier that morning while getting dressed, when I had seen the altar, the Lord had spoken these words to me, that it was about obedience, and sacrifice. I hadn't really thought these words applied to the vision, until the other intercessor spoke out the word that she had received from the Lord.

A few days ago, I was shown the altar again, along with the rest of the mountaintop background scenery. Except this time I knew that what was supposed to be placed upon the altar, had already been placed there, and the sacrifice had been completed. In this vision I was now seeing the light of God's presence shining upon and within the altar. The urgency, the expectation was gone. I felt a peace, freedom, joy and hope. I was shown the altar where a sacrifice had been laid out and performed, but what was a new addition to the vision, was that I sensed that there had been a fire that surrounded the altar that had burnt up and consumed the sacrifice. A fire of purification had burned with so much heat that not even the ashes from the sacrifice remained. All that remained was the glory of God's presence shining within and upon the altar.

I would see this vision several times that evening. This time I was with another intercessor and we both began to experience the presence of the Lord strongly, flowing throughout our bodies. His presence seemed to be moving us past seeing in the natural, to seeing, or sensing another depth of spiritual reality. We saw the world around us, the buildings, the people, but they seemed to disappear in importance, the world seemed to be more of a backdrop to the presence of God who was moving us into visions.

Each time that I would see the altar, the altar where God's presence seemed shining upon it, within, a great joy welled up within me. I couldn't seem to suppress the joy and so I laughed. When I laughed it felt as if joy was an emotion that moved through every vein within my body, from my toes to the top of my head. Each time I laughed the joy was released so that it made it impossible for me to not continue laughing. God would keep showing me the altar, the altar where the sacrifice had been consumed, where His presence was the fulfillment of the burnt sacrifice and my joy would be increased. The joy that led to laughing increased in power and flowed steadily through my body each time I was shown the altar. This continued for over an hour.

Later my friend and I would pray that the fire of God's purification would come down from heaven. We prayed for the fire to burn off the dross within His children's lives. That the fire would consume anything, any thoughts, actions that would take them from Jesus. We prayed for the baptism of fire to fall upon the church. We prayed that God's children would be released from anything that kept them in bondage to the world. Freedom, the joy of the Lord, and the Baptism of Fire so that God's Bride stood reflecting the glory of His presence to the world.

> "For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous." Romans 5:19
>
> "And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Philippians 2:8-11
>
> "John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water: but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire." Luke 3:16

Altar of Sacrifice Pt. 2
Bill Somers

> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. (1 John 3:16 KJV)

In the account of the vision of the altar, Arlette says "when I had seen the altar, the Lord had spoken these words to me, that it was about obedience, and sacrifice". Farther down she has this to say:

> Later my friend and I would pray that the fire of God's purification would come down from heaven. We prayed for the fire to burn off the dross within His children's lives. That the fire would consume anything, any thoughts, actions that would take them from Jesus. We prayed for the baptism of fire to fall upon the church. We prayed that God's children would be released from anything that kept them in bondage to the world. Freedom, the joy of the Lord, and the Baptism of Fire so that God's Bride stood reflecting the glory of His presence to the world.

With that in mind I offer these comments on another Altar of Sacrifice that we find in scripture, that of Elijah.

Here is the text from first Kings telling the story of Elijah's Altar of Sacrifice and what followed.

> 1 Kings 18:
> 30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.
> 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:
> 32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.
> 33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.
> 34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.
> 35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.
> 36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.
> 37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.
> 38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
> 39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.
> 40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.
> 41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.
> 42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,
> 43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.
> 44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.
> 45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.
> 46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Now we're going to point out some things about this passage starting at the end and proceeding to the beginning.

The two key points here are that Elijah outran Ahab's chariot [v46] and that there was a great rainfall [v45].

The significance of Elijah outrunning the chariot can be seen by stringing together a couple verses relating to it.

> Joshua 3:15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,)

And:

> Jeremiah 12:5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

You can see in the verse from Jeremiah 12 that what Elijah has done here is contend with the horses. The horses of Ahab's chariot. Not only did he contend or compete with them, he outran them even after they had a tremendous head start.

In the structure of the quote from Jeremiah, the Lord is making an analogy. Here is how it boils down. Running with footmen compares to competing against horses as a time of peace [land of peace means peace in the land] compares to the swelling of Jordan. You would think he would compare it to a time of war. But he compares it to the swelling of Jordan. In the quote from Joshua, we see that the swelling [flooding] of Jordan comes at harvest time. So this is telling us two things. First, Elijah's supernatural empowerment to out run horses is connected with the idea of Harvest Time, and the Harvest Time may be a time of war. Notice he says peace, wherein thou trustedst. In harvest time you can't trust in peace, or horses and chariots, only in the LORD.

And of course, you can figure that all this is pointing to the End Time Harvest.

> (Matthew 13:39) …the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

In verse 45, there is mention of great rain. The background to the whole story of Elijah's sacrifice is found one chapter back in 1 Kings 17.

> (1 Kings 17:1)And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

Elijah had declared that there would be no rain in Israel. [The drought lasted 3 and a half years.] No rain means no crops, no food or water and famine in the land; no harvest. Rain coming will reverse all that. So rain itself speaks of Harvest time. In the context of End Time Harvest, it speaks of a special type of coming of the Lord or presence of the Lord, known in prophetic jargon as The Latter Rain. The term comes from Hosea 6, where two days signify the so called church, and the third day refers to the Millennium or Kingdom Age. The key phrase is in verse 3: he shall come unto us as the rain.

> Hosea 6:
> 1-Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> 3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

If you look closely at Hosea 6: 1-3 here, you can see a pattern or sequence set out.

A. Return to the Lord.
B. He will revive us.
C. He will bring Harvest.

A similar pattern, but much more elaborate, can be seen in the passage telling of Elijah's sacrifice.

1. Elijah calls the people back to the Lord, [repentance]

2. Elijah calls down fire, [revival]
3. Elijah announces the coming of rain [harvest].

What's interesting are the details of how Elijah prepares the altar and the effects of the fire.

In those days the people of Israel had been led into worship of Baal. Elijah's sacrifice was a contest between The Lord and Baal. 'Baal' is a word that means "lord" but it does not refer to the True Lord, Jehovah or JHWH. It's like the word 'Allah' which means 'God' but does not refer to the Real God but a false or substitute God. [An anti-christ as it were.]

Since we're looking at this from an End Time Prophetic viewpoint, let's look at Who Is Israel. There is a great deal of squabbling and disputing going on today over this question, with various factions of the church staking claim to one viewpoint or another.

If you consult a dictionary, you almost always find multiple definitions with multiple meanings under each one. Shouldn't we be mature enough to allow the possibility that God can use multiple meanings in his word?

> Is·ra·el
>
> 1. Bible. a. In the Old Testament, Jacob. b. The descendants of Jacob.
>
> 2. Judaism. The Hebrew people, past, present, and future, regarded as the chosen people of God by virtue of the covenant of Jacob.
>
> Is·ra·el
>
> 1. An ancient kingdom of Palestine founded by Saul c. 1025 B.C. After 933 it split into the Northern Kingdom, or kingdom of Israel, and the kingdom of Judah to the south. Israel was overthrown by the Assyrians in 721.
>
> 2. Abbr. Isr. A country of southwest Asia on the eastern Mediterranean Sea.

Here we see two bible definitions, a religious definition, and two political/historic definitions. There are also prophetic or typological definitions. In Romans 9-11 the bible goes into great detail on this subject. Let me offer several simple definitions, any or all of which can fit how "Israel" is used prophetically in the Bible.

Israel is:
1. God's people in general, for all time.
2. God's people in the church of today.
3. God's people in the country of Israel today.
4. God's people, who have been called out from other nations to be separated to him. Regardless of race or national origin.

And from this definition, it therefore also means:

5. The United States of America.

For this discussion, our primary application is #2 the church of today. Now just as Israel in the days of Elijah worshipped Baal, The church of today is caught up in the worship of Mammon, i.e. material success or the world's system. And we find this reflected in the 'church' system.

We all claim to be looking for Harvest, sinners getting saved, but if we look at the patterns outlined above, we see that repentance and revival must come first.

So what did Elijah do?

> 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:

The 12 stones stand for the 12 tribes that Israel was divided into. For us they stand for the far greater number of denominations, movements and camps the church is divided into. What does the bible have to say about that?

> 1 Corinthians 1:
> 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
> 11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

Note also this phrase in verse 31: Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name. The change of Jacob's name to Israel is a prophetic type of the transition that will come upon 'today's church' changing it from a worldly 'Jacob' mentality to a Godly 'Israel' mentality befitting those who are really God's people. And it is the "Word of the Lord" that came to him and declared that. So who is the "Word of the Lord" but Jesus, who's coming as the refiners fire and then the latter rain will bring this about.

Next, Elijah puts on wood and cuts up the sacrifice and puts the pieces on the wood. What is this flesh put on the altar? Here's a clue.

> Romans 12:
> 1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
> 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

The flesh on the altar has to be our flesh.

Then Elijah pours on 12 barrels of water, scarce in times of drought. This speaks of a very thorough repentance, accompanied by many tears. Here's an example of a woman, a type of the church or bride, offering tears of repentance.

> Luke 7:
> 37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,
> 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

Then Elijah calls on the Lord to come.

> 38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

The fire of God has burnt it all up!

> Deuteronomy 4:24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

> Hebrews 12:
> 28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
> 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

He is an all consuming fire, and a refiners fire.

> Malachi 3:3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

Conclusions

Now let's make some conclusions. When the fire falls, means His coming as the purifier and refiner of his people. Then the flesh on the altar which represents our selves, will be gone [i.e. death to self]. The water, which represents our tears of repentance will be gone [i.e. the joy of the Lord]. The stones of the altar which represent the church as we know it today with all its divisions and strife will be gone. All that will be left will be the Glory of God.

> 39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces ….

Death to self allows us to put on righteousness and walk in the peace that passes all understanding, add in the Joy of the Lord and you have Righteousness, Peace and the Joy of the Holy Ghost, that's the Kingdom of God. Then will come the harvest. And the anointing or supernatural empowerment to 'content with horses.'

> (Matthew 13:39) … the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

> Mark 4:
> 28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.
> 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

> Revelation 14:
> 14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
> 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

A Land Of Fountains And Depths

Clo Dipilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

The Lord promised that the "good land" spoken of in Deuteronomy 8:7, would also be a "land of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills."

I'm reminded of several passages of scriptures when I read about "fountains and depths", and the different things a "fountain" can portray in the scriptures.

For the prophet Zechariah, it spoke of the cleansing blood of Jesus as he prophetically saw a day when there would be a ""fountain open in the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness". (Zechariah 13:1)

The prophet Jeremiah recognized the Lord as the "fountain of living waters", and lamented that the people of God had forsaken Him to hew out broken cisterns which could hold no water. (Jeremiah 2;13, 17:13)

King Solomon, the man who chose wisdom above riches and wealth, depicts the law of the wise a fountain of life which would cause one to escape the snares of death. (Proverbs 14:27)

The Psalmist David called that place of abiding under the shadow of His wing a "fountain of life" in Psalm 36:7- 9.

And then John the "revelator" declared a promise from God that the thirsty would be given freely to drink at that fountain of the "water of life". Revelation 21:16.

All these scriptures somehow relate to how we draw forth living waters through our relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, and how Jesus truly IS that fountain.

But I was so blessed and humbled to discover something upon the reading of the Word:

Even as we see our beloved Saviour as the fulfillment of all our needs and desires, from the simplicity of our initial salvation experience to the fullness of the true satisfaction to every heart's desire, every thirst being quenched, so WE are to be the Lord that fountain from which HE draws in order that His thirst be satisfied!!

He is God, and the Bible very boldly declares that if He were hungry, He doesn't need to bother to tell us. (Psalm 50:12)

Nevertheless, through the scriptures the Lord uncovers His heart for those who go seeking Him, and looking for Him that they might come to an understanding of what would please Him. And even as Jesus is MY spring, MY source of all life, MY fountain of living waters, even so He calls His people and His desired abode in their midst, the place of HIS springs, HIS fountain!!

God would be blessed out of the congregation, and the source of HIS blessing would be a fountain of praise and worship flowing from His people!!

> 23.They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.
> 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.
> 26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel. Psalm

> 68:23-26

God has chosen Zion (His people) as the dwelling place for all HIS springs. Notice again, the pleasure of the Lord in mentioning the praisers with their musical instruments in assocation with His springs!!

> 5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.
> 6 The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.
> 7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee. Psalm 87:5-7.

Praise and worship pleases the heart of God, and He delights in it. And yet, King Solomon touched on something beyond the gates and courts of the Lord approached by way of praise and worship. In the Canticles, Solomon refers to the Bride as a "spring shut up" and as a "fountain sealed". What is it that is "shut up" and "sealed"??

> 12 A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
> 13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,
> 14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:
> 15 ¶A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.
> 16 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits. Solomon 4:12-16.

It is fruitfulness!! The Lord is waiting for fountains of fruitfulness to spring forth from His people. The release of fruitfulness comes by way of the wind! God is calling for the North wind and the South wind to blow upon His people that the fragrance of their fruitfulness might come forth.

Fruitfulness is a high form of worship as it represents relationship with Him. Fruitfulness, especially the kind that "remains", says "Lord, I love you, and I'm staying close to you no matter what. Even as you choose to abide with me, so I choose to abide with you, no matter what!!"

Read of the perils of David in the 44th Psalm, and then see his testimony in adversity:

> 17 ¶All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant. Psalm 44:17.

One can have gifts in abundance, and yet have no relationship with Him because gifts are promised and given "without repentance". We all have heard how that when God gives a gift, He doesn't take it back. However, to have "fruit", one must ABIDE in the vine. One must be faithful in ALL seasons in order that fruit might come forth. (Read John 15)

Beloved, we truly don't know what a great work has been wrought within until adversity blows upon our lives and that which the Lord has done within is released, and revealed for all to see. It is then that the Lord, ourselves, and others can take great pleasure in that which He has done within us. So much can be occurring because of the rich and deep inward dealings of the Lord within our hearts, but it's not apparent until the winds blow to bring forth a revelation of what God has done!

Others may not truly know you "by the spirit". They might not perceive the deep works of God in your life, and what He has done to change you and transform and make you a new vessel. You may become discouraged when you feel like you are not truly counting for much when you know your own heart before your Maker, and how you have yielded yourself to Him, and allowed Him to place you on the potter's wheel, smashing the vessel again and again to make it anew because you are determined to submit your life unto Him until you know that the outward vessel is worthy of the inner treasure.

We know that Paul declared to the Corinthians that the "treasure is in an earthen vessel that the excellency of the power might be of God, and not of us" (2 Cor 4:7.) But to his son in the faith, Timothy, he talked about the process whereby the vessel is purged, made a vessel unto honor. (2 Timothy 2:20-22)

You can feel like your "vessel" has been "shut up" just like the "fountain sealed" in Solomon's Song. That doesn't mean there is not a treasure in your vessel. That doesn't mean there is not waters of life that are gurgling beneath the surface, and maybe even a pounding force trying to push it's way up through the flesh to be manifested that others might be blessed, and that the Lord might come into His garden (YOU as an individual in relationship and communion with Him) and "eat the pleasant fruits thereof."

It is a season of winds. For the world and the "carnal Christian", the winds can represent destruction and devastation. But for that one who has been "abiding in the vine", the winds represent the openings of the fountains of the deep!! David said, "Out of the depths" have I cried unto thee." (Psalm 130:1). The prophet Jeremiah said, "Oh that my head were a fountain of tears". When you cry out to God because of those winds of adversity and trouble that blow upon you, those fountains are opened. God gets a sense of the very fragrance of your soul, and He LOVES it.

As you delight yourself in HIM, and He is YOUR fountain of "living water", even so you are HIS "fountain of living water" . Why would the Lord condescend to such a place of intimacy and oneness with us that He comes seeking from us the very same things we are seeking from Him? It's because God knows where the treasures have been placed. He knows there is pearl of GREAT price hidden in a field!! He knows there is mystery,

> 9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:
> 10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:
> Ephesians 1: 9,10

What is the "mystery"? The Bible plainly tells us: It's that ALL THINGS are going to be gathered together IN ONE.

God is the one who ordained that we be so much LIKE Jesus that when the Father comes seeking fellowship with His only begotten Son, He will not feel shortchanged when He comes into the company of the MANY sons whom He has brought to glory with Him!! (Hebrews 2:10)

When God desires to take a stroll in the cool of the day, His people will be His garden!! When God gets hungry, His people will be the fruit that draws Him. When God gets thirsty, His people will be His fountain!!

God has called us, His people, to be A GOOD LAND, a land of fountains and depths.......

Always in the Love of Jesus,

Clo DiPilato
Herald of His Kingdom

A Present Purpose in Redemption
Clo DiPilato

> 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
> 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

> Titus 2:13,14

Dearest Friends in Jesus:

This world is full of ample opportunity to excel in good works. However, the Bible tells us about a "peculiar people" who would be "zealous of good works". What sets this people apart from others who are doing "good works"? It's the fact that they are a purified people, a people who have been purchased by God, and then placed into the refining and purging processes where they might truly be His very own instrument of good works.

His "present purpose" within the lives of such ones is a redemption and purification to the end that He might make them "zealous of good works".

If ever the world was crying out for the people of God to come forth who are "zealous of good works", it is even now. With recent disasters that have occurred in our country, the evident need is the clarion call to step up to the plate, roll up the sleeves, and get to the work of the harvest.

However, not everyone is in the same time and season, and it's important to know your season, or you will launch out before your preparation is completed. Not everyone is called to work in the harvest at the same hour of the day. Notice some were called early in the morning, some were called around noon, some were called late in the afternoon, some were called not until the midnight hour!

Notice that those who were called at the later hours of the day were rebuked for being idle. Had they been waiting on the Lord and sitting at His feet until the call came to go into the harvest fields, they would have been commended, instead of rebuked. When you are truly waiting on the Lord, it is never idleness, and it is never laziness. Consider how Jesus said that Mary had chosen the ""good part", when she decided to sit at His feet, and listen to Him. (Luke 10:42)

> Matthew 20:1 ¶For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire > labourers into his vineyard.
> 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
> 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
> 4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
> 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
> 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
> 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

If you know your calling at this time is to sit at the feet of Jesus, and lavish your disciplines upon Him with both your substance, and your attention don't be distracted the purposes of God, and don't become discouraged when the world and the church passes judgment on you because you understand the hour you are in, and have a determination to keep your gaze fixed upon Him .

If you are called to a very set time in the kingdom to manifest His power and His glory even to those who have been ravaged by the enemy, downtrodden, oppressed and harrassed by the adversary, as well as the cares of this world, you will not be equipped in the fullness, if you have spent your spiritual substance based on human sympathy and emotion rather than the true release of the Spirit of God through your life. Some still need to be "patient unto the coming of the Lord". Read James 5:7

Now, I would like you to notice the portion of scripture I've highlighted:

> ¶After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.
> 2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

> 3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.
> 4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?
> 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.
> 6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
> 7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.
> 8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.
> 9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
> Luke 14:1-9

Whenever someone chooses to wait on God rather than reacting out of human propensity towards being works-oriented, there will be reaction from an indignant and murmuring crowd that doesn't have a true sense of the value of waiting on the Lord, or waiting FOR the Lord.

The context of these scriptures show clearly that all that was happening at Simon, the leper's house (a leper is the natural picture of one who has lost spiritual sensitivity) was happening in an atmosphere of great concern for outward appearance and vain religious show. They wanted to kill Jesus, but didn't want the people to "catch on" by doing it at the wrong time in a way that would cause a reaction from the people.

Isn't it something that Jesus probably was putting His finger right on the central issue in their murderous hearts when He declared that she was actually "anointing His body for burial". The Psalmist prophesied that very event when he wrote the words, "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies." (23rd Psalm)

Now, I caught something that I hope I can convey to you with the unction I perceive it in my own spirit. Only God can judge what the level of genuine concern was for the poor in those that gathered there in the home of Simon, the leper. Had they just witnessed a "Katrina" maybe the Lord's reaction might have been totally different toward them.

The bottom line is that though things like a Katrina can bring the poor front and center to attention, they are always among us, and why did such a catastrophe have to happen for there to be a "wake up" call to good works? (My prayer now is that we might STAY AWAKE, and not fall back into the slumber of selfishness or mindless obliviousness to the world about us. Lord, deliver me from the attitude that MY world is THE world!)

What would have been the word of the Lord to the woman with the alabastor box if such had happened in Biloxi, Mississippi, or New Orleans, or any one of the little coastal towns and villages so devastated? I believe she would have received the very same word of the Lord without compromise, and without deviation!!

Why? Because the Lord not only commended her to those in that gathering, but He prophesied of a day that would come that this very thing would be a testimony and a witness throughout all of the earth where ever the gospel would be preached!!

When Jesus declared that she "is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying", and it was done with such a highly valued substance released from a precious container that had to literally be "smashed to smithereens" (check out the meaning of this word "brake" in your Strong's) so the substance could be poured out, it was not only a sign of the present worth of that Holy One among them, but I believe it was truly prophetic of an end-time people who will be poured out for one another, covering one another as His body in the earth, always being 'anointed for burial' in anticipation of the resurrection life that would come forth when there is that "death to self".

And beloved, we NEED "resurrection life" to truly affect the nations of this world in their darkness and "the shadow of death".

Jesus summed up the outworking of the "gospel of the kingdom" when He stood in the temple and read in the hearing of maybe some of the very same ones who gathered at the home of Simon the Leper.

> 17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
> 18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
> 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
> 20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
> 21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. Luke 4:17-21.

(Beloved, the true gospel is one that is preached to the poor! This may be a surprise to some who think it's the one where you get to go the lots of conferences, buy tapes, videos, cd' and books, and stay in the same cushy hotel as the speaker who gets some exorbitant honorarium because he has "name recognition". I am NOT saying truth is not being preached in those conferences. I am NOT saying they cannot be mightily anointed and blessed of God. But could the poor have much hope of getting into such a conference to even hear the gospel??? Freely ye have received, freely give.

You may have a very unique and special calling to preach to the rich and powerful, but Jesus, the firstborn among many brethren, the Captain of Our Salvation, made perfect through Sufferings, the One who so poured out His life, and became obedient to death, even the death of the Cross, so that He was given a Name higher than any other Name, that Jesus was anointed to preach the gospel to the poor. And if you do have a calling to preach to the "rich and powerful", then may an anointing of boldness come upon you to charge them in the Holy Ghost to break their alabaster boxes, and pour out their precious ointments on Jesus. What is truly given to Jesus, flows down to, and blesses the Body. There is no escaping the principle!)

When the gospel is preached in all the world "for a witness" before the end comes, it will be preached to the poverty-stricken nations of the world in the power and fullness of it's miracle provision. I believe what is being ignited in the hearts of God's people toward evangelism is only the "the blade" (as opposed to the ear, or the 'full corn in the ear') of the burden for souls. The "blade" of spiritual enthusiasm is all some will need to plunge into the harvest fields, and in this gospel-saturated country it may be all that is necessary to reap the harvest. But to reap the world harvest, one is going to have to be operating in the power of the fullness of the gospel of the kingdom. Healing power, miracle power, delivering power. Miracles of multiplication power. (See Mark 4:27-29)

I realize the scripture is speaking of the harvest itself when referring to the "blade, the ear, and the full corn in the ear.) But in that same passage, the Bible says that the "earth brings forth fruit of herself". Could this mean there is possibly a connection between the burden of the Lord within a yielded vessel, and the actual stages of the harvest? Something to think about!

Now, back to the woman with the alabaster box, whom Jesus declared would be memorialized throughout the earth because of what she had done in pouring out of a priceless substance upon Him. This woman does not represent "the blade" or the "corn in the ear", but she represents the "full corn in the ear". She represents not the 30 fold, or the 60 fold, but rather the 100-fold sold out Christian who has a life totally dedicated to the Lord, and His purposes so that NOTHING is more valuable or precious than Him!

It is this kind of vessel that is going to be used to effect the nations of the earth, and reverse the curse of poverty throughout the world. She is one of those "peculiar people zealous of good works, He has redeemed from all iniquity and purified unto Himself! What did Jesus say? He said "Let her alone....she hath wrought a GOOD WORK on me"

Beloved friends, it's hard to figure out how it will happen, but the day is upon us when the release of "good works" is going to be far more connected to worship and adoration of our wonderful Lord Jesus Christ than upon our programs and knee-jerk reactions to sudden calamities that quickly fade away. Those are the good works that are going to last because they are going to be rooted and grounded in the burden of the Lord rather than in fleeting human sympathy.

Do you honestly believe that at the house of Simon the Leper there was one there who had more of a genuine burden for the poor than the Lord Jesus Christ Himself? Run your references on the word, "Poor", and just see how Jesus Christ, God manifested in the flesh, feels about the poor.

When Almighty God doesn't constrain Himself to an immediate problem, it's because He is seeing a far bigger picture, and for those who have "ears to hear", there is something to be perceived in the Spirit that will bring blessings not only to a select few contained in time in one house in some little village, but to generations the whole wide world over!!

Giving the benefit of the doubt to those who were concerned with the poor, and accepting that at least some there might have had an indignation out of a pure heart, they were seeing the very immediate need. Jesus was not dismissing the validity of their concerns. Rather, He was prophesying of a bigger picture, and even the ANSWER to the problem of the poor.

He was prophesying of a day when that which anoints the Head will flow down the whole body, to the feet. That which is truly poured out to Him of both substance and service will NOT be "wasted or lost", but it will impact the world.

Beloved, if anything, I believe the opportunities that are arising now for kingdom evangelism are merely for training purposes for the world-wide end-time harvest. Those who are being called for God's purposes in the end-times need to know how to function on two levels. We need to know how to be instant "in season and out of season." For some called to be very presently concerned about current events, it truly is their season of ministry. Thank God, it is their season!! But for some to respond, it will be as if being "instant OUT of season", and that is because you are called primarily to the day of fullness of your own spiritual capacity (the full corn in the ear), as well as the day when IMMEDIACY is required in thrusting in the sickle into the harvest. Again, the "full corn in the ear."

What do you need to do besides being "instant" in an "out of season" way for yourself?? You need to NOT neglect sitting at His feet, and pouring your substance out upon Him. You need to NOT neglect your time on the "potter's wheel". You need to NOT neglect the deeper works happening in those fiery furnaces of affliction where you are being prepared to be HIS very own special vessel that He is preparing FOR HIMSELF to be zealous of good works in the very same way He was zealous!!

How was Jesus "zealous"? He was zealous to having such an obedient heart, and such a hearing ear to the voice of His Heavenly Father that NO opportunity to minister the gospel of the kingdom was EVER lost because He always knew in advance where the results would be because of obedience! (Read John 5).
Jesus didn't move from human sympathy, but rather from obedience. We can trust the Lord to impart the true burden of the Lord for those who are suffering and in need.

And when we trust Him, no precious substance will suffer any waste!!

All glory to the Name of Jesus!!

Review:
1. Jesus has a purpose in redemption: It's to prepare us for good works!
2 Don't move out of human sympathy, but rather react to the true leading of the Spirit. That is where you will see greatest results.
3. Recognize that not all are called to work in the harvest at the same hour of the day.

4. Don't criticize those who are called to wait on the Lord, despite demands of present circumstances. If you are critical, then you have the same spirit as those who criticized the woman with the alabaster box!
5. See the prophetic picture of the woman with the alabaster box, and what it means both to the effectiveness of the Body of Christ, as well as miracles of provision in an end-time, world wide harvest.
6. Take inventory of your own level of burden and equipping (blade, corn, or full corn in the ear), and respond at the level where you can truly be used of the Lord to meet the need according to what your own true spiritual substance is.
7. Recognize the opportunities to be trained for the bigger picture through present events.
8. Do not neglect the deeper work of the Spirit of God that is preparing you for the day of fullness.
9. Study to be zealous in the same way that JESUS was zealous of good works!!
10. There is no waste when we give toward the true burden of the Lord.

Always in the Love of Jesus,

Clo DiPilato
Herald of His Kingdom

A Life Worth Living

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:4

A life worth living
What a perfect sound
To a man whose heart has been broken
Crushed to the ground.
A life worth living
Who has found the way
Is it the rich man, the poor man
The beggar man or slave?

What truth can give meaning
To a soul unsatisfied
Whose thirst has not been quenched
Though he has returned many times
To drink deeply from rivers
That flow from the highest heights
Down the side of steep mountains
Of man's self-exaltation, reason and pride.

A life worth living
Which rock needs to be overturned
So that men of all understanding
Find revelation to discern
Truth of such great value
They would sell all that they own
For the sake of obtaining a prize
That makes life worth living known.

What message can be spoken
What truth can be shared
That would give man sense of worth
To rise up from out of despair.
What wells of worldly wisdom
Dug deep into earths inner core
Can satisfy a man's thirst for purpose
So with strength he walks healed of discord.

Which man will flow with others
To the sea where all souls die
And which one will find a truth
That will help him make the climb
Up the mountain of Gods mercy
Where from the heights of righteousness and joy
He finds escape from worldly tribulation
As he hears the Fathers voice
Saying today I have loved you
With a perfect love
Come away my precious child

Find rest in My arms of love.

> "And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood." Revelation 16:4
>
> "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? Romans 6:16
>
> "Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light." Ephesians 5:6-8

In nature, water is what gives life to man. Men cannot survive without water. If all sources of water should become polluted, contaminated to such an extent that, instead of nourishing a body, it brought death, then mankind would cease to exist. Upon the earth, within certain areas, there have always been abundant sources of water to supply men's needs. Yet when Jesus Christ, God's beloved Son, appeared before men, He proclaimed to men, who had access to water that met their physical needs, that He would give unto them, "living water." He also proclaimed that "whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (John 4:14).

What was this water that Jesus Christ proclaimed He could give unto men that not only would cause men to never thirst again, but would also rise up within a person's life, as a spring unto everlasting life? All mankind knew of their need for water. Water not only kept them alive, but it kept animals and plants alive as well. Men knew that all living things depended upon water for survival, so what was this water that Jesus Christ professed to have, that would forever quench their thirst? How could Jesus Christ promise that whosoever partook would never thirst again, and also that whoever believed in Him, that from "out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." (John 7:38) Where would this water come from, and how did it differ from the water men already had access too.

> "But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified." John 7:39

Jesus Christ spoke of living water. God would make clear the meaning of this message. He revealed to the listeners then, as He reveals to the listeners now, that partaking of the water that keeps the natural man alive is not the same thing as partaking of the water Jesus Christ has to offer mankind. Through partaking of the living waters, which is the Holy Spirit released from God's throne room on high, a man's thirst for righteousness will be quenched. It is the Spirit that gives life, spiritual, eternal life, to mortal men. To partake of living waters will open the eyes of a man's understanding to the goodness, mercy, longsuffering and love that God has toward him.

Without partaking of the living waters, a man will continue in his life devoid of the knowledge of God's love and goodness toward him, so that he does not experience any change of heart and mind toward God, others, and life in general. He will not find comfort, edification, and guidance in God's Holy Word. He will continue to be held captive to worldly thoughts that exalt self above God. His knee will not bow, and his voice will not profess that Jesus Christ is the Savior, and so in his sins, which have caused mankind much grief and tribulation, he will remain.

When a man does partake of God's Spirit, the Spirit will move like a river over a dry and thirsty land, which are his thoughts and desires that had laid barren to the purposes of God. Where once a man's soul was like a dead sea, having no source of water to soften the hardened ground caused by rebellion, so that the Word of God was not received nor understood, when the living water is partaken of, through faith in Jesus Christ, the ground will be broken up, and nurtured, so that the Word will spring up within his life, producing fruit unto eternal life. An abundance of new life aligned with the purposes of God will be produced within the man's life. His thoughts, once under the influence of unbelief, will now begin to hear God's voice speak to him of understandings unknown.

The Spirit, which will illuminate the message of God's Word to the man's heart and mind, will now flow from out of his life, his "belly", to others. The living waters received of the man, will open the eyes of his understanding of the Word so that in spirit and in truth, he will share with others that which he has received. The rivers of eternal life, which he has partaken of, will now be shared with others, so that the message of God's love and mercy toward them is made known. The words of a man filled with the Spirit, who has found truth and edification in the Word, will be used of God to bring forth life within the lives of others.

> "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death." Proverbs 14:12

Men who are filled with God's Holy Spirit, so that out of their bellies flow living waters, will be used of God to speak forth the promises of God to others. Just as men who are not filled with God's Holy Spirit will speak, by releasing from out of their bellies, words that deny the power and authority of God, so that men are encouraged to turn away from the promises of God. Men, who are not filled with the Spirit, will speak words that promise hope in this life; but according to God, their words will lead to death, spiritual death. The words that will flow out of their bellies will deny the purposes of Jesus Christ.

God explains in Revelation 17:15 that "peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues" make up the sea where every living soul died (Rev. 16:3). Collectively, united by unbelief, people are referred to as a sea. And in this sea of unbelief, it is said that every soul died. This group of people, united in their denial of the power and authority of God, though they are alive in the natural sense, are dead in the spiritual sense, having not received the Holy Spirit, so that they do not perceive the things of God. There is no divine influence upon their thoughts. They have not partaken of the living waters of eternal life, so death still has dominion over their souls. Without the Holy Spirit, these people who make up the sea will not ascend to Paradise, so that they will not reside eternally with God, upon physical death.

Men who make up the sea are united in their unbelief, and have all drunk from streams or wells of self-righteousness, men's thoughts and opinions that deny God, that have been condemned by God. Individually, each man who makes up the sea has listened and believed words that have denied the power and authority of God. Within each man's heart and mind, who makes up the sea where every soul has died, is found agreement with thoughts and ideas that deny what God has purposed through Jesus Christ. God has pronounced His judgment of death over the streams and wells made up of self-focused thoughts and opinions that fill men's lives yet men continue to drink in abundance.

A man, who has not received the living waters into his life, has no spiritual discernment, so that he cannot hear nor follow the voice of the Lord. He lives his life in agreement with men who are compared to "wells without water," in that no spiritual life sustaining words of truth (living water) fills their lives, and no life transforming words are spoken. Words that deny the power and authority of God continue to rise up from the depths of their souls. To drink in the words that are spoken from a man who denies the power and authority of God, is to partake of words that will fail to bring eternity's touch of healing, and purpose within a man's life.

People, who have no knowledge of the holiness of God, will naturally partake of beliefs that cater to the lusts of the flesh, and will continue to exalt man's thoughts and opinions above God. The words they speak will express their own heartfelt, earthly opinions. In their own eyes, they are following a way which seems right to them, but God proclaims that to deny the purposes found in Jesus Christ, is to follow the ways of death. To listen and follow after a man who speaks great swelling words of vanity, that exalt self above God, is to follow after the voice of death.

> "Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats: for as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with > thee. The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words." Proverbs 23:6-8

In the natural, to sit at the table and eat with a man who has an evil eye, is to sit at the table with a man who looks upon the world seeking his own comfort, having no concern or compassion for the spiritual welfare of others. To sit down and eat with a man who seeks his own welfare, is to sit comfortably and listen to words that may seem right at the time, but because there is no spiritual truth, the words will eventually bring forth only mental misery, and grief, in a man's life. And because a man's heart is now joined in union to thoughts that cause destruction, if he should not turn and listen to the voice of God it could be that death will forever guide his steps.

But to dig even deeper into understandings that express the heart of the Spirit, it could be said that to eat and drink with a man with an "evil eye" is not limited to the physical act of eating and drinking with another at a table, but is also any action taken where a man listens to the words spoken by men, who speak against the goodness of the Lord. To listen to words of condemnation against the power and might of God, could cause a listener's soul to be filled with unrighteous thoughts toward God, so that out of his belly would also flow words of death, and not of life. To "drink" could mean to partake of any ideas that deny God, to the point where one is in agreement with the words spoken against God. When a man's heart and mind drinks in and partakes of thoughts, to the point where he is influenced by the understandings of those whose eyes are focused on worldly things and not of God, then what God calls evil, the man may soon call good. To drink, meaning to partake of ideas and opinions of one whose eye is evil toward God is to partake of understandings that will bring about spiritual death in the life of the listener.

> "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Philippians 4:8

The words of the Lord will prosper a man's soul, so that in sorrow he is comforted, and in misery or grief he will find consolation and hope. To trust in God's Word is to understand how in this life, though trouble runs rampant across the earth, if a man looks to Christ, then peace will be found to help him walk, confident that God is for him. Yet, if a man has drunk deeply of the words of another whose eyes are evil toward God, whose desire is focused on satisfying his own carnal desires, with no concern for the things of the Spirit, then instead of being comforted, the listener will spew (vomit) out of his belly that which he has partaken of. To consume and vomit out words that deny the goodness of God will cause God's Word to be discounted, and therefore to lose importance in a man's life.

The Word of the Lord is as "honey out of the rock" in the mouth of one who loves the Lord. A man, who loves God's Word, will not look upon the Word as bitter waters meant to drown him in condemnation. Instead, he will look upon the Word for life and truth, for sound instruction, edification, wisdom, guidance and a message that proclaims God's great love toward him, so that his desire will be to turn away from sin, which brings great misery into men's lives. But, to drink in by partaking of words that deny God's power and authority, will be to partake of understandings that will kill off the good purposes of God's Word within a man's life. To drink in, to partake of thoughts that deny who a man was created to be in Christ, is as destructive to a man's soul, as someone taking a long bladed knife and cutting deep into the man's body, so that his necessary life supporting blood flows in abundance to the ground.

> "And Moses and Aaron did so, as the Lord commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood." Exodus 7:20

It was God's will that the children of Israel be released from their captivity, but it was Pharaoh's will that they were not released, God performed miracles in the sight of Pharaoh so that his will would be broken, and God's will would be done. In turning the waters to blood, men in the natural had no water to drink and could die. And though they knew this truth, Pharaoh's heart and mind was so opposed to the message of the living God that he continued to refuse the Lord's messengers' requests.

Even today, the Spirit says, it is still God's will that men be released from their captivity to thoughts and opinions formed by those men who deny the message and the messengers of the living God. It is God's will that men walk in the land of promise, God's kingdom of righteousness, where milk and honey is found in the message of God's Word, and where men are led of the Spirit of God unto all truth and understanding.

Today, the rivers and streams of blood, understandings that deny the purposes of Jesus Christ, reach great multitudes. Today, such thoughts and opinions flow across the earth in great torrents, bringing death, spiritual death into men's lives. Yet, unlike the Egyptians who knew that to continue to partake of a river of blood would bring about death, many men today continue, day in and day out, to drink deeply of condemned, polluted rivers. They continue to drink in deeply of the thoughts and opinions that exalt self above God, without understanding what they are doing. They die spiritually; they die to the things of God, the promises and the knowledge of God's great love toward them, without seeming to have any concern for the spiritual state of their souls.

Set free by the will of God. God's will was done in the days of the children of Israel's captivity in Egypt, just as God's will is done in setting captives free today. Though many are still held captive to thoughts that are spewed out of the bellies of men who exalt their own selfish desires above God, God continues to send out his messengers to speak His Word of truth so that men are released from their captivity. Many today are being lead into the land of promise, the kingdom of righteousness found in the Holy Spirit as God's Holy Word goes forth. Many are being washed clean, healed and renewed in the river of life, where, because of the Word, Jesus Christ, the pure waters of God's Spirit run in abundance from high atop the mountain of God's holiness.

> "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." John 4:23-24

Ask Me For Good Gifts
Sandy Warner

Nov 7, 2005

ASK ME FOR GOOD GIFTS

My dear ones, I want you to think seriously about the true desires of your hearts. Then be brave and ask Me for them. When I answer them, then you will be fully aware that I have not only heard you, but also answered your requests. I am your loving Father and how I delight in giving you good gifts.

I am delighting in the rekindling of My people's prayers. As I breathe upon them to pray and give Me their requests, they are springing to life in hope. I am listening, My dear ones. Keep on praying, keep on asking.

Your prayers are the seed stock for a great harvest. It is My joy to give good gifts and it is My joy to give you the desires of your heart. You shall have the answer to your prayers through eternity. Forever is a long, long time. I am so blessed to have you with Me forever.

"Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" (Matt 7:9-11 KJV)

"Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them." (Mark 11:24 NKJ)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Encrypted
Sandy Warner

Nov 12, 2005

ENCRYPTED
When you become frustrated, beloved, I realize you do not understand what I AM saying to you. Trust Me, that the ways I speak, whether clearly or coded, are for a specific purpose. Part of this is My strategy to keep My purposes hidden until the right time. A portion of this is to keep the enemy from understanding, but part of it is also to keep My intent veiled from you as well. If you knew the full picture you would fail to lean on Me and try to make it happen in your own way and in your own time. I have a strategy to work in and through you. So simply let Me be God and follow the road signs that I have placed in your life. I will keep you well posted. Hey! relax and let Me do the driving! Smile precious one, you are in good hands.

1 Cor 2:7-8 NKJV
But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

Click here for rhema:
http://thequickenedwordcommunity.com/cgi-bin/members/cforums.cgi?
forumid=112369243118040&postid=9990208933906&action=messages&threadid=9990208933906&start=&

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

I Will Turn Your Frowns Up
Sandy Warner

Nov 11, 2005

I WILL TURN YOUR FROWNS UP

I AM going to turn you right side up. One day, those frownie faces that do not become you shall turn into delighted smiles!

NKJ Mark 11:24
"The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet." (Prov 27:7 KJV)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Persistence Recovers All
Sandy Warner

Nov 9, 2005

PERSISTENCE RECOVERS ALL

Beloved ones, I know you are weary and frustrated with your losses. I AM drawing you to get your focus off your misery and begin to exercise the rights I have given you through prayer. It is time to learn how to recover what has been stolen.

Ask Me for help to restore your losses. I seek and find that which is lost. Join Me! Be persistent in your faith until you get your rewards. Do not stop short of your goal, do not settle for less. Begin to put your foot down and command that what the enemy has stolen be returned.

Dear ones, I know you are weary, hurting and discouraged. Let go of the outdated tapes that repeat in your mind. Put the past behind you and don't give up. Be persistent. With one foot in front of the other, overcome one step at a time. Keep going, you are almost there. As you trust Me to answer your prayers, I will draw you along the right path in spite of yourself. If you do not give up, you shall recover all.

1 Sam 30:3-4,8 NLT
When David and his men saw the ruins and realized what had happened to their families, they wept until they could weep no more….Then David asked the LORD, "Should I chase them? Will I catch them?" And the LORD told him, "Yes, go after them. You will surely recover everything that was taken from you!"

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

Sundown Yom Kipper
Sandy Warner

Nov 13, 2005

YOUR FOUNDATIONS

SUNDOWN YOM KIPPER
10/12/05

This is the night where the line is drawn.
Separating the year of rights and wrong.
Their hearts and deeds went through the maze.
My sheep pass before Me now as I gaze.

Exposed, uncovered and cameras on them.
Walking before Me having pulled up their hems.
Now they pass under My rod.
I look at their feet, are they well shod?

The foundations of their walk are inspected so close.
Arches strengthened, clean between toes?
Ankles turned in, ankles turned out?
Level and secure, holy devout?

I see their feet and how they walk,
I check their pace and match their talk.
This year what matters is to be shod with peace.
There's only one way to walk in My grace:

Repentance, confession, humility.
Apologize quick for tranquility.
Mend your fences, and secure your doors.
Walk a straight path on hardwood floors.

Don't let the enemy steal your peace.
Keep your shoes on and keep them laced.
Receive correction if you need new shoes.
Hold onto what works, or you will lose.

I speak through men, but listen to Me.
And you will walk into your destiny.
Men will nurture and men will teach.
Men will betray and men will breach.

Hold onto the good and release the bad.
Keep your focus on Me, not the sad.
Some are ready and some are not.
Another year's wait for what's been sought.

Those who are shod with peace in their walk.
Are ready to move and ready to talk.
Move on to the right and walk on through.
Hearing My Word and then promptly DO.

I will set up your places with divine appointments.
Tabernacle's covering you just like a tent.
Hidden and secure and warm inside.

I surround My sent ones and walk by their side.

Prov 4:10-15 NKJV
Hear, my son, and receive my sayings, and the years of your life will be many. I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths. When you walk , your steps will not be hindered, and when you run, you will not stumble. Take firm hold of instruction, do not let go; Keep her, for she is your life. Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of evil. Avoid it, do not travel on it; Turn away from it and pass on.

Poetry2Ponder are poems birthed out of intimacy with the Holy Spirit through yearnings of intercession. They are posted once a week..
[Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

The Children Will Usher You In
Sandy Warner

Nov 13, 2005

THE CHILDREN WILL USHER YOU IN
How greatly those of unbelief have buffeted you. The tide is turning, little one, I tell you now that I AM raising up believers, ones whose hearts are trusting and tender like children. I have given them ears to hear My Words through you. Moreover, whether you know how to build or not, it is simply not up to you to establish your place. The children shall plant you as you bring them into their own places. Place your priorities in line with Mine. As you raise them up, I shall grant you the plan for your boundaries in which to build.

Isa 54:11-13 NKJV
Behold, I will lay your stones with colorful gems, and lay your foundations with sapphires. I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of crystal, and all your walls of precious stones. All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the peace of your children.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

A Major Shift Has Occurred In The Spiritual Realm

Ron McGatlin

Suddenly in one day, in one hour the lives of millions in Pakistan have changed forever.

In their nice homes mothers get their children ready for school, seeing that they are dressed in a fresh clean uniform, making sure they have a good breakfast and brush their teeth and hair. With a hug and a kiss they remind the happy child to be careful and to watch for traffic. Only about an hour later the earth violently heaves and the child with hundreds of other children are crushed to death by the collapsing school buildings as the entire city crumbles. Nothing is as it was only an hour before. Life as it has been no longer exists. Death and misery are everywhere. Multitudes are dead and injured. Many are trapped in the debris of the fallen city. Millions are left homeless and there is no one in sight to help. In one day, life as it was is no more. The things that seemed so stable and so dependable, the sense of security and all that was familiar are gone.

On the gulf coast of the USA they know Katrina is coming and hundreds of thousands flee the area. Thousands of others stay because they made it through storms before. In one day their homes and all of the buildings of some towns are reduced to scattered rubble. Many of those who stay drown and many of those who flee the storm have no place to return to. In one day the lives of hundreds of thousands are forever changed.

A group of men gather to sign up for work as policemen in Iraq. As they wait in the morning sun and pass the time talking with one another suddenly a bomb explodes in their midst and men are blown to bits and many are severely injured. In one day their lives and their families lives are forever changed.

Devastation has suddenly ended the lives of hundreds of thousands in numerous events around the world in the past year. Multitudes have had there lives forever severely changed in one day. Many survivors have lost everything including parts of their families, their homes, their jobs, businesses, and schools. Entire communities have been destroyed.

The stories of the many events in which multitudes of lives were snuffed out or forever changed in one day would fill many pages. The scope of human suffering is unimaginable.

What is going on?

Our human compassion begs that we not investigate this question but that we rather focus on helping to save those who are perishing both naturally and spiritually. The extraordinary events of devastation are being used to awaken the sleeping church with shouts of a clear call to repentance from pleasure seeking lifestyles to setting their affection on things above and not things on this earth.

My heart is burdened with the word of God weighing heavily within my spirit. Please bear with me and seek to hear the depth of what God is speaking in this moment. Please give serious consideration to the following frail attempt to express the gravity of this moment in God.

A major shift has occurred.

In this moment in time we have come to a door in the spiritual realm. The door has been opened in the past and even opened wider for the past few weeks but it closing in the next few days. This door is an opening for repentance for the large, broad but shallow major portion of the Israel of God. The "Sunday only" religious lukewarm "socially correct" church that is rich in worldliness and traditions of men but is weak, poor, and wretched in the Spirit. Institutions filled with good people who have been baptized, who are on the church roll, and attend church and give offerings, but have turned away the fire of God and do not focus on things above but on things of this worldly life. Those who have lived in comfort and who love their lives.

The door has been wide open for the lukewarm church to find reformation through revival and renewal bringing repentance and change. As this door closes, it will become impossible for the broad-shallow institutional church to experience reformation across the board. The institution will not be transformed. A way will no longer be found for the religious church to repent from dead works and be changed. A fresh living expression of the body of Christ is arising like fresh spring grass in a field. Individuals will be drawn to the sacrificial life of seeking God and things above with their whole hearts. They will move from dead religious structures to living relational experience with God. The closing of the door marks the end of a season and the beginning of another.

A door is opening wide

A door is being opened wide unto a remnant people. These have little or no religious or earthly reputation, and are often without much of this world's goods. They do not fit into the religious social structure. They are despised by the politically correct high church society. They are the outcasts of the Israel of God, who have endured much pain and suffering and who have no life apart from God. These called out ones are often seen as the dregs of church society, however they have anchored their lives in the heart of Jesus and set their affection on things above.

They are destined to become "New Jerusalem" people of God - the heart of the true spiritual Israel of God - the "Christ in you" people - the "Joel's army" who will become the defenders of the faith - the warriors of God, the intercessors that will claim the kingdoms of this world for the kingdom of our God. These are the ones in whom Christ dwells and to whom a door into heavenly oneness with God is opening wide. These are those who will do mighty exploits and proclaim the glory of God to the ends of the earth.

The rapid succession of cataclysmic events

The rapid succession of cataclysmic events are being used as warnings to turn people from a life of sorcery and idolatry worshiping gods of pleasure. The broad religious church of the past has failed to release the love and power of God into the world to protect the world from the take over of evil. The bold remnant church is being raised up to release the purity, love, and power of God into the world. To do the job that the religious church failed to do. To subdue the world gone astray and destroy the works of the devil. Christ is being raised up outside religion in His purified Body.

Jesus called together fishermen, tax collectors and untaught people who would follow Him as His disciples and released them to do exploits in the world. The religious institutions had no part in the new thing Jesus was doing. Only a few who came out of the religious system and followed Jesus were part of the new church He was calling forth.

Paul went first to the religious institutions that he had come out of and delivered the gospel of Christ to them. But when they would not repent and change he went to others outside the camp and the first century church became a powerful reality in the world outside the religious institutions of the day, Acts 13:46: Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

God was not well pleased with many of His people in that day. They were the broad major religious part of natural Israel. Today God is not well pleased with much of the Israel of God. They may be in church on Sunday, been baptized, made a profession of faith, and even tithed but with much of the "church" God is not well pleased. God IS well pleased with His Son Jesus. Only the manifestation of sons in whom Christ dwells and who are anchored in the heart of Jesus are well pleasing to God.

1 Cor 10:1-6: Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, all passed through the sea, all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. But with MOST of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness. Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted.

Like the religious church of today, they had all done all the stuff and even drank from the spiritual rock that followed them and that rock was Christ. Why then was God not well pleased with them? They mixed lust and idolatry into their lives along with their religion in spite of having experienced the works of God.

What was the idol that brought them down? According to this passage, it was the same god of pleasure that affects the world and much of the religious "church" today. They sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play and committed sexual immorality. There idol was fleshly pleasure or pleasing self above pleasing and obeying God.

*1 Cor 10:7-13: And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell; nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. Therefore let him who THINKS he stands take heed lest he fall.

Isa 47:8-11: Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures, Who dwell securely, Who say in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, Nor shall I know the loss of children'; But these two things shall come to you In a moment, in one day: The loss of children, and widowhood. They shall come upon you in their fullness Because of the multitude of your sorceries, For the great abundance of your enchantments. "For you have trusted in your wickedness; You have said, 'No one sees me'; Your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you; And you have said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one else besides me.' Therefore evil shall come upon you; You shall not know from where it arises. And trouble shall fall upon you; You will not be able to put it off. And desolation shall come upon you suddenly, Which you shall not know.

A door is opening wide for the humble.

A door for repentance and intimate oneness with God is opening wide for the outcast, the lower caste, the third world, the native people, the foreigner, the broken, the halt and the lame, the blind and the oppressed, the foolish of this world who will humble themselves before God.

Not many mighty, not many noble, not many with big names are chosen to become part of the "New Jerusalem" people. It is time to preach the gospel of the kingdom to the poor and the poor in spirit. Time to proclaim liberty to the captives and sight to the blind and set the oppressed free.

*Mat 5:3 Blessed are the poor in spirit, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Luke 4:18 The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me To preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim liberty to the captives And recovery of sight to the blind, To set at liberty those who are oppressed

1 Cor 1:26-28: For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty; and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,

Just as Paul & Barnabas came to a point in time when God instructed them to no longer seek to reform the religious system of their day but sent them to those outside, the time has also come in this day that the shift be made from seeking to reform the religious systems of today who will not hear the gospel of the kingdom. The shift is now being made to proclaim the gospel of the kingdom to those who are outside the religious systems and those who will come out of the Babylonian institutions of religious "church" - those who will hear, repent and change and become the purified holy city of New Jerusalem, the true Bride of Christ.

A part of this shift is setting our affection on things above not on earthly things. Only as we draw near to Him and become consumed in His love can we remove our affection for the traditions of religious trappings and the idolatry of seeking fleshly pleasure. As we become anchored in the heart of Jesus we will no longer be anchored in our doctrines, creeds, and religious practices and we will no longer need to seek self pleasure.

Our hearts are longing for Him, for His kingdom and His righteousness. In these things is the fullness of joy that wipes away our need for the gods of earthly pleasures. The door is wide open enter into the heart of God and be consumed in His love. You will become a world changer.

Mat 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Pursue Love, It Never Fails,

Lots of Love,

Ron McGatlin
www.openheaven.com
ronmcgatlin@earthlink.net

A Message From My Heartbeat

Dee Hoetmer

deeconsultancy@absamail.co.za
South Africa

Beloveds,

I have been off line for a few weeks and this is due to two reasons, first of all the Lord has told me it is a new season and I am not to spend as much time on the Internet, after four years of Internet ministry (and He has allowed even my web site to go down; those that had to learn from it have done so), it is time to go out, time for destiny!

We have to fight giants before we enter our promised land and I am fighting health issues and finances, so secondly finances don't allow me to even download too often. I haven't paid my phone for a couple of months and it has been cut and I haven't even had the funds to download at Internet cafe too often. I am having to stand, trusting the Lord with little or no food, gas or phone and also threatening judgments left right and center, but He knows and I trust Him to deliver me just in time for He said I will not be ashamed nor disgraced! THE WONDERFUL NEWS IS THAT THE LORD IS BUSY HEALING ME FROM MY TERRIBLE AFFLICTION. EVERY DAY I WAKE UP STRONGER AND IN LESS PHYSICAL DISTRESS! PRAISE YOU JESUS! NO-ONE, TO MY KNOWLEDGE, HAS BEEN HEALED FROM THIS PARTICULAR AFFLICTION EVER BEFORE!

I KNOW THAT I KNOW THAT I AM AT THE BRINK OF BREAKTHROUGH TO THE PROMISED LAND (after 34 years of preparation, refining, and wilderness). The House Of Refuge the Lord has given me a vision of for the last 12 years or so is about to come to pass BUT I AM FIGHTING MANY GIANTS RIGHT NOW AND THERE ARE MANY HINDRANCES TO THE FINANCES BEING RELEASED!!!! A FRIEND WAS GIVEN THE SAME VISION RECENTLY AND NOW SHE IS TRYING TO SELL HER LARGE PLOT OF LAND FOR DEVELOPMENT AND EVERY OFFER TO PURCHASE HITS A HITCH!! SHE HAS BEEN GIVEN THE GIFT OF ADMINISTRATIONS AND IS TO INVEST FUNDS AFTER PURCHASING THE HOUSE TO PROVIDE FOR IT.. AND THE DELAYS ARE DRIVING US TO DESPAIR (that is the truth although not the right thing to confess). PLEASE LIFT MYSELF AND LEE UP IN PRAYER AS THE LORD GIVES YOU THE UNCTION AND COMPASSION!

Also I am so broken right now that I am beyond caring of who I might offend, to come right out and ask that those of you who the Lord may prompt, to bless me even with a little to keep me going till all comes to fruition. I confess that I am battle weary and this warrior needs some relief!

I may still send out a word as the Lord leads Beloveds, but I am very aware that we are on the brink of all that we have been prepared for, and a part of that is to open the blind eyes and to open the doors of the prison houses and let the captives free, HALLELUJAH! We will have great joy in finally fulfilling His commission BY THE POWER OF HIS MIGHT!

For those I have offended with this personal mail, I apologize before hand, unless one has walked this path it cannot be understood! Beloveds I truly love each and every one of you with the love of the Lord and perhaps some of us will meet as we are released to our destinies!

LOVE IN CHRIST
DEE
HEART BEAT OF THE FATHER (now down)

For those who can, and are prompted to, I include this info (can be used to transfer funds within SA too) iKobo Money Transfer Account:. (iKobo is the revolutionary service that allows you to send money reliably, conveniently, and affordably. iKobo can be up to 60% less expensive than traditional money-transfer methods!) Anyone can login at www.ikobo.com or http://www.ikobo.com/country/south-africa/and instantly send money using a credit card or debit card (it has to be Visa unfortunately)

My iKobo account number: HD688712ZA.
My full names: Dieuwertje Patronella Hoetmer
Country: South Africa

iKobo International Headquarters:
iKobo, Inc. 1355 Terrell Mill Rd SE Building 1466 Marietta, GA 30067 USA

Phone:
1-678-483-4562
Fax:
General Inquiries: 267-295-1153
Customer Inquiries: 267-295-2868

Support Hours:
Monday-Friday: 8:00 AM to 9:00 PM
Saturday & Sunday: 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM

A Month Of Divine Order

Brenda Dowdin

Oct 1, 2005

Beloved:

You have stepped over the thresh hold in to a new dimension of my spirit. Break through has occurred and you are free. You are free to come up higher. The battle has been intense, but you have successfully worn down your enemy and victory after victory will come before you. As I gave David success over his enemies, so shall I be with you and give you success. You shall possess the land. You have fought well, and now seasons of peace and joy are before you. This is a month of Divine Order says your God! Things are lined up in heaven and now earth will begin to reflect this and prophecy that which is in my heart!

Lovingly in Him, Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

A Healthy Birth

Brenda Dowdin

September 25, 2005

Oh My Beloved Ones:

Don't get distracted with what you see around you. Intercede where I show you. Hold on tight to the faith I've given you. As the whirlwinds come, and they will - trust in me, for truly this is a time and season which you will see my glory fall upon you. You shall see the answers to many prayers you have been praying for, for years. You shall see the birth, the fruit of your womb of prayers. You shall see birth and it will bring you exceedingly great joy as you see what I've in store for those who have been faithful.

I know about your hope deferred making your heart sick. I've seen you come before me each and every morning to worship me. Oh, how you please me my Beloved Ones. Oh, I want you to know just how much you please me. I am going to show up in ways you haven't dreamed. Have an expectant heart, as a mother who is giving birth to her precious baby. You shall soon see the fruit of your prayers. It brings me such joy that we've shared this union of "intimacy and prayer" together, and now these "seeds of faith and prayer", have grown in to the birth of that which is in my heart. Now we shall see the birth of the new together, and we shall rejoice together for ever! For there is no sorrow with the blessings of the Lord!

September has been the month of laboring, now watch and see the baby come forth! This baby shall be healthy, not to early and not to late. But right on time! I have purposed and planned this time, and now we shall see it together.....

"Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery? says the Lord. Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb? says your God." Isa 66:9

Lovingly in Him:

Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Arise and Shine
Brenda Dowdin

September 29, 2005

Beloved:

Don't focus on what's right in front of you, but look to the horizon. Look the sun/son is rising up, its a new day. There are new things beginning to spring forth. Focus on those things. Focus on the things I've promised you that are coming in your life. Push past depression, apathy and that sluggishness that is trying to envelop you. You are my over comers, you are my worshipers, you are my victorious ones! Again I tell you of a thing before it springs forth. New things are coming up on the horizon. Your eyes will swell with tears of joy as you begin to see the unfolding of what I have for you! Just as the sun comes up and you know it will pass over you in a day, I will bring my glory upon your life, and in a day you will know I've passed over you. You will be forever changed by my precious oil and wine I have for you.

Isa 42:9 "Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; Before they spring forth I tell you of them."

Psalm: 84:11-12 "For the Lord God is a sun and shield; The Lord ill give grace and glory: No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly. O Lord of Hosts, Blessed is the man who trusts in You!"

Much love to you all! Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Miracles Are Coming
Brenda Dowdin

September 28, 2005

Beloved:

Miracles are coming down. I see them beginning to come on down. We will see them in our own lives very soon. But God will use them not just to be a blessing in our lives, but more importantly to show the world the hand of Jesus working in our lives. It is truly all about Him and His purposes.

As I awoke the last three mornings I was aroused by a scripture from the Holy Spirit. Something deep in my spirit began to be stirred. It's in Psalm 27:13 and 14. It goes like this: NKJV...."I would have lost heart, unless I had believed That I would see the goodness of the Lord In the land of the living. Wait on the Lord: Be of good courage. And He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the Lord!"

Many of us have waited a long time for our hopes and dreams, and it has felt as though our dreams were crushed so small, even like the sand in the sea, but I want to encourage you...just to wait a wee longer!!! I know, "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life!" Proverbs 13:12. As God brings the pieces of our hopes and dreams back together they will form a beautiful reflective mosaic vase that shines brilliantly with His glory and presence!

OH Lord! Your kingdom come, your will be done in our lives as it is in heaven! Lord, have your way in us, we are your holy people. We are your royal priesthood, break in to our lives as you want to and bring that which pleases you to bring. We want to be surrendered to you, surrounded by you, we want what you want for us our precious Lord!

I am believing with you, and contending for His best in all of our lives! Lovingly in Him, Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

The Gate Beautiful
Brenda Dowdin

September 3, 2005

Beloved,

You stand at the gate. This gate is beautiful, it is ornate in its decor. It has been formed through the fiery trials of life. It is of precious metals and inlayed with fine precious stones. But you see this gate doesn't swing from side to side, for this gate is formed by no mans hands, but by the hand of my spirit. It is a spiritual gate. It is a gate that lifts up, and only high enough for those who will humble themselves and fall on their faces. For this gate is a gate of humility and grace, and in order to pass through this gate one has to crawl under the gate as it lifts. I established my kingdom through grace and humility. I want you to follow me in character and to the same. As opportunities arise - fall on your face, as you pass under the gate I will mantel you with my grace and humility and I will lift you up in my perfect time and in my perfect way.

Ps 24:7 "Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in. Who is the King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah..."

As you pass through the gates I will meet you and come in to sup with you...you shall be mantled anew! The first miracle the disciples did was at the gate beautiful. They prayed for the lame man and I healed him. Acts 3. Surly what I've promised you is coming very soon. Truly you are in a new day and you must walk circumspectly before me.... Be my witness in word and deed.

Lovingly in Him,
Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

A Matter Of The Heart

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:5-7

Will there come a day
When the girl with downcast faith
Turns toward the Lord
Understanding His heart of grace?
Will she receive revelation
Much brighter than the summer sun
That will open her eyes
To see the goodness of the Father's love?

Will there come a day
When she hears Him call her by name
So she awakens to the truth:
It is foolish to run a race
Which moves in the direction
Of those who have loved and lost before
Whose hearts have come undone
Refusing the mercy of the Lord.

Will she realize there is no need to walk alone
There is someone who cares
About the troubles that fill her soul.
There is someone who loves her
Far beyond what her desires hold
Who will in holiness and truth
Ignite love's fire that has gone cold.

Will she realize the justice that she seeks
To explain why free men perish
In their pursuit of peace
Will not be found by demanding answers,
As she wields a too heavy sword
That has been forged in vengeful fires
Meant to destroy and not reward.

Will she bow down
Before God's holy throne of grace
And find that justice has a voice
That speaks of mercy, speaks of faith
Speaks of forgiveness and longsuffering
Which will help her keep pace
With the rhythm of creation
As she runs a finished race.

> "And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments."
> Revelation 16:5-7

> "Woe unto you! For ye build the sepulchers of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchers. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zechariah, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation." Luke 11:47-51

"Behold, the kingdom of God is within you." (Luke 17:21) For the person who has received the heavenly deposit of God's Holy Spirit within their life, this word will take on greater depths and heights of revelation as they walk out their life with God. As the Holy Spirit, establishes greater understanding of God's Word upon their heart and mind, they will be able to look back upon their life and understand how past doubt and unbelief in a holy God who cares for them, has lost the power it once had to influence their decisions and opinions. The words spoken by Jesus Christ will become the voice of truth that impacts the way they relate to the world around them.

The person who has received God's heavenly deposit (Holy Spirit) within his life, so that God's divine nature now impacts their lives, will personally have had the veil that separated them from the knowledge of God's great love toward them, torn in two. They are encouraged to come with confidence unto God, with thanksgiving and appreciation of His love toward them, believing that God rewards those who call upon His name. They will have found there is comfort in being able to come before God in seeking His counsel, trusting that His love toward them knows no bounds.

> "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Matthew 6:19-21

Men whose spirits have responded to the Word of God, so that God's Holy Spirit now influences their lives, know the importance of not looking to a realm of existence where men deny the power and authority of God in seeking wisdom and knowledge. Through trusting in the Lord for guidance and instruction, they have come to realize that the wisdom of the world that denies the power and might of God will, in one degree or another, cater to the lusts of the flesh, so that men rebel against God, and exalt their own opinions above His. They will have eyes to see that when man's reasoning is exalted above God's, then it will be natural for men to use words meant to silence the voice of God, which promises men they shall be partakers of, "the riches of the glory of his inheritance."

A man, who has found a valuable inheritance in Christ, has partaken of the abundant treasures released from heaven, found in the Holy Spirit, so that God's love toward him influences his heart and mind. The abundant riches found in the Spirit have prospered the man's soul, so that the good fruit of, "love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance" (Galatians 5:22-23), is produced within his life. It was through faith in Jesus Christ that God sent His Holy Spirit into the man's life, causing him to appreciate the value of living unto God. To appreciate living unto God will help the man understand why God desires to circumcise his heart, so that sin, which brought suffering into the man's life, is severed and cast down. The man, who is influenced by the power of God's love upon his life, comes to understand God's Word that proclaims, "For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh." (Philippians 3:3)

> "And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul." Acts 16:14

Men will attend unto the things of God, when through the hearing of the Word an understanding is realized, which causes God to open their hearts so they are influenced by the message that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, who came to set the captives free. When a man hears the report that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, sent to the earth to redeem man from the punishment of sin and death, and understands that in the Word is a message for him personally, then God, who stands watch over all of creation, will be faithful to reveal to the man's heart, His message of love, grace, and mercy. When a man gives heed unto the Word of God, so that his faith is turned toward Jesus Christ, believing that He died and rose again, then the Lord of all creation will establish His eternal kingdom rule and reign upon this man's heart, through the infilling of the Holy Spirit. A man filled with the Spirit, is said to be adorned in the righteousness of Christ. God looks upon the heart in determining judgment unto righteousness.

> "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Hebrews 4:12-13

The thoughts and opinions of a man cannot be hidden from the Lord of all creation. There is nothing, seen nor unseen that is hidden from the eyes of God. A man, no matter how he is adorned externally, no matter his address or reputation, cannot hide his true spiritual condition from the Lord. God cannot be deceived nor mocked. It is God who is able to look upon the heart of a man who is attending - which is to pay attention, devote and apply oneself unto the Word - in determining the hour of the man's spiritual birth. It is God alone who is able to clothe a man with the righteousness of heaven, which is found in the Holy Spirit, so that a man's eyes begin to see and realize the riches that are his in Christ.

God has given all authority to Jesus Christ so that Jesus is able to proclaim, "For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind." (John 9:39) God is able to look upon a man's heart and determine if a man is to continue to walk as the first Adam, bearing the punishment of sin, which is death, or if he is to walk as the second Adam, Jesus Christ, a partaker of eternal life, filled with resurrection power found in the Holy Spirit.

Those who have heard the Word, and whose spirits have been stirred to seek after God in sincerity, are those who will "see" that the Lord is good. They will be given spiritual sight to see and understand that Jesus is the Son of God, whose blood made atonement for their sins. God has looked upon their hearts and judged them worthy to receive His Spirit of holiness. Through the Spirit they shall live unto God eternally. The grave shall not be able to constrain a man's soul who has been redeemed by the blood of Christ.

Originally, God's judgment of condemnation came upon all men because of Adam, declaring that all men should bear the punishment of Adam's sin, which is death. The punishment of death would be passed upon all men because of Adam's transgression against God. (Romans 5:12-18). A man whose heart is far from God, having no sincere love toward God, will be fairly judged of God, so that he remains under condemnation. He will not partake of God's kingdom of righteousness, found in the Holy Spirit, unless he should repent and seek the Lord in sincerity. Unless the man seeks the Lord in sincerity, he will remain as a man blind to the mercy, love and longsuffering of the Lord. He will not see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. He will not understand nor believe that men can be filled with God's Spirit, so that men live eternally unto God.

> "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." (John 3:16-18)

Because of Adam's transgression in the garden, the punishment of sin and condemnation has been passed upon all men. Jesus Christ came to deliver men from condemnation. He came to set the captives free. He came to open the eyes of the blind, so they could see the glory of the Lord, and experience His love moving in power and authority upon their hearts, bringing hope where there once was no hope. He came to save those who were perishing under the unbearable weight of condemnation and hopelessness.

If a man should profess with his lips that Jesus is the Christ, but in truth his heart is far from trusting and loving God, then he stands under the same condemnation as those who outright deny that Jesus is the Son of God. Both stand under the condemnation of sin. Both have not experienced the love of God moving upon their lives. And both will discount what Jesus Christ has accomplished for mankind, either through their outward actions or with their thoughts. Both will hold Jesus as merely a man who died on the cross, discounting the power and purpose of His resurrection. Their hearts will deny that men are filled with the Spirit. They will not understand that the Spirit is able to transform, teach, comfort and guide a man whose heart is toward the Lord.

God is a righteous judge, and cannot err in determining those whose hearts are toward or against Him. Those who in their hearts do not sincerely seek after Jesus Christ, will be held accountable of God. They will be held accountable of God for the words they think and speak in seeking to silence and condemn the words of God's holy prophets and saints. They shall be judged accurately of God, and when found wanting they will remain standing under condemnation.

A man, who denies in his heart what Jesus Christ accomplished, will have his heart and mind aligned with death. Not having the influence of the Holy Spirit of resurrection life, he will naturally speak words that reflect his heart's condition. The words he speaks will turn others away from God, so that spiritually they too are blind to the goodness of God. They will naturally speak words against the holy saints and prophets of God. The man, who denies in his heart what Jesus Christ has accomplished, will be held accountable for his actions before God. To deny the power of the Holy Spirit is to remain under the condemnation of sin, which is death, and his life will be a reflection of his spiritual condition.

God, who looks upon the heart in determining judgment, has proclaimed that the blood of the saints and prophets "shall be required of this generation." (Luke 11:47-51) The words spoken by Jesus Christ were pronounced upon the generation of men who walked the earth during His lifetime. And these same words are applicable today. The spilt blood of the prophets and saints, who gave testimony of what God would and did accomplish through Jesus Christ, is precious in the sight of the Lord. Those who deny or discount the words they spoke will receive a judgment that is aligned with the righteousness of Christ. The judgment upon those who physically put to death the saints and prophets, hoping to silence the words they spoke, is the same judgment that is placed upon men today who silence and therefore cast the words of the saints and prophets to the earth. No Spirit of eternal life will fill and inspire their lives.

Those who deny in their hearts what God has accomplished through Jesus Christ, will bear the same punishment as those who physically put to death the saints and prophets of God. Those who collectively make up the sea where every soul dies (Rev. 17:15), have all drunk from polluted wells and streams, which are thoughts and opinions that deny the power and authority of Christ, so that death and not eternal life impacts their lives. Men of days long ago, men of today, and those of tomorrow, who speak against God's saints and prophets so that the prophets words are cast to the earth and trampled on by them and by others, are collectively, before God, a generation of people whom God declares must bear His righteous punishment. Unless they repent and turn toward Jesus Christ in sincerity, they shall not partake of the pure, healing waters released from God's throne room on high, found in the Holy Spirit.

God's pronouncement that, "the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation" (Luke 11:50) proclaimed that God held those to whom Jesus Christ spoke accountability for their actions. The same holds true today. Those whose hearts and minds are joined, through their agreement with those who physically put to death the saints and prophets of God, are worthy of judgment. Their hearts are held accountable before God and judged according to the decisions they make.

Those who hear the Word, yet do not attend unto the Word, not wanting to have any association with the message, shall not partake of eternal life, found in the Holy Spirit while alive. And because their spirits are not joined in holy union with God's Spirit, they shall not ascend on high to "paradise" upon their physical death. Their own hearts have condemned them. They are aligned with death. Their thoughts have crucified the messengers, through their denial and hatred of the words they speak, which prevents resurrection life from flowing through their lives. Because their thoughts silence, and therefore cast to the grave, the words spoken by God's holy saints and prophets, they shall not partake of that which they deny, which is resurrection life, found in the Holy Spirit.

The heart and purpose of Jesus Christ is the same today as it was yesterday. The words He spoke, which proclaimed He came not to condemn the world, but to save it, remain a truth for today. Salvation from the punishment of sin is a solid truth that men can stand upon in obtaining hope for their souls. Today, if any man should hear His voice, and turn from his unbelief, turn from denying that Jesus is the Son of God, whose blood made restitution for his sins, then the King of glory will come and establish His kingdom reign upon the man's life. May men turn toward the Lord and obtain understanding as they hear God's Word proclaim:

> "Wherefore as the Holy Ghost saith, Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end; while it is said, Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation." Hebrews 3:7-15

A Most Solemn Call

Christine Darg

Dear friends,

The following call is a very serious one and right on, I want to add again the call to pray for New York as this City represents by my understanding the main target of the next attack in the US, also as until recently it had the largest concentration of Jewish People in the world.

They call it the "Big Apple" and the Jewish people are the "Apple of God's Eye". I really felt that was a lot of the reason that it became already the target on 9/11, and it will be the again the next one also, it has been prophetically said many times, specially during the past 12 months.....!

Shalom Ueli Surbeck

Message: 1 A MOST SOLEMN CALL by Christine Darg

Message: 2 USA: Al-Qaida's US Nuclear Targets by "Katrina Parnell" <katrinaparnell@yahoo.com>

Message: 3 Global: Can Terrorists Build A Nuclear Bomb? by "Katrina Parnell" <katrinaparnell@yahoo.com>

Message: 1 A MOST SOLEMN CALL TO BELIEVERS WORLDWIDE TO FAST ON EVERY FRIDAY TO CONTAIN ISLAMIC TERRORISM by Christine Darg <christine.darg@btinternet.com> Tue, 26 Jul 2005

Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? (Isaiah 58: 6)

Early in the morning before the July 7 bombings in London, sleep eluded me. The Lord said solemnly, ‘I am calling you to call my people to fast and pray every Friday to contain Islamic terrorism.’ The same morning, a brother in Baghdad who is translating into Arabic my book, ‘The Jesus Visions: Signs and Wonders in the Muslim World,’ emailed me concerning Islamic terrorism. He quoted Jesus in Matthew 17:21: ‘This kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting.’ We covenanted to obey the heavenly call and to add regular fasting to our prayers on Fridays. Within a few hours the call to fast was confirmed by the coordinated attacks on London transport; the subsequent failed attempts of similar coordinated attacks in London encourages us that disasters can be diverted through prayer and fasting.

For many years many of us have been praying and fasting individually for the Moslem people, but the Islamic world is no longer a ‘special interest group’ of concern to just some believers in the Church. The threat of Islamic terrorism has now become the concern of every true worshipper of the God of Israel. In Derek Prince’s book, Shaping History Through Prayer and Fasting, he stated that there are some answers we never obtain until we add fasting to our prayers.

Friday is the day that much hatred, violence and blood-thirsty rhetoric is fomented in fundamentalist mosques around the world. The Lord’s solemn call to fast and pray is not intended to extend into the Sabbath day of rest, which begins Friday evening at mealtime, but is intended to consist of afflicting our souls with fasting during breakfast and/or lunch on Fridays as a way of humbling ourselves and to entreat His mercy corporately. Islamic terrorists crave an ‘Hiroshima’ upon their enemies. In Israel, a fence can deter some terrorism, but in most nations we cannot build a wall to protect ourselves from sleeper cells. Nevertheless ‘The weapons of our warfare are not physical but are mighty through God for the pulling down of strongholds.’ The weapons of corporate prayer and fasting can bring victory and delay divine judgments in this time of great peril. Corporate fasting is part of the process of humbling ourselves that is being required by Heaven.

‘If My people who are called by My name [YHVH, not Allah] shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.’ (2 Chronicles 7: 14)

As we gave this solemn call first in England at an ‘Open Heaven’ conference July 9 and also in churches in Virginia and in the Washington, D.C. area this past weekend, many have responded to the Spirit’s call and have asked what is involved in this fast. Some say they are not able to fast because of sicknesses. (Be healed!) But this call is not intended to be a ‘religious’ fast. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you how to participate in this Prophetic Summons during these strategic hours on Fridays: perhaps forfeit one meal, two meals, perhaps a partial fast. But do something by faith to be a part of this corporate response to Heaven.

For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. (2 Chronicles 16:9)

Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. (Amos 3: 7)

We humbly implore you not to disregard this call. Many of us for many years in Jerusalem have faithfully banded together to pray specifically for the irreversible overthrow of the Anti- Christ Pharaoh-like principality of Islam that is holding a billion souls captive. Therefore this call from Heaven was not given to us by chance but because in some measure we have gained a place in intercession concerning this grave issue. Therefore the Lord says, ‘Be not distracted nor indulgent but put your hand to this plough of fasting and prayer and you will be numbered among those who stand in the gap and build up My hedge to avert many calamities and disasters.’

As you fast, pray: --that we will be forgiven for our gross national sins (bullying Israel, abortion, same sex marriages, euthanasia, pornography, sexual predators on children, playing God in laboratories yet denying God and his commandments in schools, courthouses). As we humble ourselves Heaven may decide not to allow the Islamic terrorists to scourge us with weapons of mass destruction. God who is plenteous in mercy may leave behind a blessing and stay his Hand on ripe judgments. --that the hatred and curses hurled from fundamentalist mosques will be bound and nullified --that sleeper cells will be exposed and all military intelligence will be accurate to avert many national disasters --that our political and religious leaders will cease being politically correct and will deal decisively with Islamic terror in a bold, courageous manner --that the terrorists will be miraculously converted for ‘they know not what they do’ and in their misguided zeal believe they are doing their god a service --pray for many of the terrorists to have dreams and visions and to repent --that misguided suicide bombers and all terrorists will receive a vision and understanding that they are indeed dupes, pawns, murderers and not martyrs and that the reality of their destiny is eternal damnation unless they repent

Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast. . . . Let the priests, the ministers of YHVH, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O YHVH. . . . (Joel 2:15-17)

Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? (Isaiah 58: 6)

(Christine Darg, an author and broadcaster who ministers in Israel and the nations, received this call. Her contact is info@exploits.tv)

Message: 2 Date: Wed, 27 Jul 2005 18:54:06 -0000 From: "Katrina Parnell" <katrinaparnell@yahoo.com> Subject: USA: Al-Qaida's US Nuclear Targets

UNITED STATES

Al-Qaida's U.S. nuclear targets Captured documents, terrorists reveal bin Laden's preferred dates, places for 'American Hiroshima'

Al-Qaida's prime targets for launching nuclear terrorist attacks are the nine U.S. cities with the highest Jewish populations, according to captured leaders and documents.

As first revealed last week in Joseph Farah's G2 Bulletin, the premium, online intelligence newsletter published by the founder of WND, Osama bin Laden is planning what he calls an "American Hiroshima," the ultimate terrorist attack on U.S. cities, using nuclear weapons already smuggled into the country across the Mexican border along with thousands of sleeper agents.

The series of attacks is designed to kill 4 million, destroy the economy and fundamentally alter the course of history.

At least two fully assembled and operational nuclear weapons are believed to be hidden in the United States already, according to G2 Bulletin intelligence sources and an upcoming book, "The al-Qaida Connection: International Terrorism, Organized Crime and the Coming Apocalypse," by former FBI consultant Paul L. Williams.

The cities chosen as optimal targets are New York, Miami, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco, Las Vegas, Boston and Washington, D.C. New York and Washington top the preferred target list for al-Qaida leadership.

Bin Laden's goal, according to G2 Bulletin sources, is to launch one initial attack, followed by a second on another city to simulate the U.S. bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The optimal dates for the attacks are Aug. 6, the anniversary of the Hiroshima bombing, Sept. 11 and May 14, the anniversary of the re-creation of the state of Israel in 1948. No specific year has been suggested, however, this Aug. 6 represents the 60th anniversary of the Hiroshima attack.

http://www.worldnetdaily.com/news/printer-friendly.asp‘ ARTICLE_ID=45313

Message: 3 Date: Wed, 27 Jul 2005 19:01:53 -0000 From: "Katrina Parnell" <katrinaparnell@yahoo.com> Subject: Global: Can Terrorists Build A Nuclear Bomb?

GLOBAL

Popular Science Article by Michael Crowley 07/27/05

Amid the conflict in Iraq and the hunt for Osama bin Laden, this is a side of the war on terrorism you rarely hear about: the drive to prevent terrorists from acquiring the ingredients for a nuclear bomb. In recent years, operations similar to the one in Uzbekistan have been conducted in Libya, Serbia, Romania and Bulgaria. These efforts reflect an intense and growing concern within the U.S. government about the specter of nuclear terrorism. It is one of the few issues on which President George W. Bush agreed with his former rival, John Kerry, who called nuclear terrorism the greatest threat that we face in the world today.

That threat comes not just from suspected weapons programs in Iran and North Korea, but also from Al Qaeda and other terrorist groups. Last year Michael Scheuer, who ran the CIA's Osama bin Laden unit for several years in the late 1990s, wrote a letter to the Senate Intelligence Committee warning of the "careful, professional manner in which al-Qaeda was seeking nuclear weapons . . . in deadly earnest." More than a decade ago, bin Laden allegedly tried to buy a canister of uranium in Sudan for $1.5 million. (He appears to have been scammed.) In August 2001, he met with two Pakistani nuclear scientists. And later that year, crude sketches of nuclear weapons were found in Al Qaeda training camps in Afghanistan. Scheuer told CBS's 60 Minutes last year that bin Laden even sought a religious edict from a Saudi cleric on whether he could use a nuclear weapon against America. The cleric's answer: Go for it.

Intent isn't the same as capability, of course. But of more than a dozen nuclear-arms experts I interviewed, almost all agreed that assembling a crude nuclear bomb, though extremely difficult, is by no means impossible.

Just ask Graham Allison. In his recent book Nuclear Terrorism: The Ultimate Preventable Catastrophe, he concludes that a terrorist nuke attack is "inevitable" unless the U.S. works much harder and faster to safeguard nuclear material. A former assistant secretary of defense who served under President Bill Clinton and now teaches government at Harvard University, Allison is actually taking small bets from colleagues that terrorists will detonate a crude nuclear bomb in a U.S. city within a decade. "If this happened tomorrow," he says, "I could almost explain it more easily than I could explain why it hasn't happened."

http://www.popsci.com/popsci/generaltech/article/0,20967,1017201,00.ht ml

Anchors Away
Bill Yount

"Anchors Away!"
November 9, 2005

I heard the Father say, "I will begin to shake the news media through the perilous events coming upon the earth!["] As news anchors are sent to certain locations where devastations and dangerous conditions emerge, there will be those news stations whose anchors will not be able to withstand the stress and pressure of reporting horrendous news, day after day.

The word anchor means something that provides stability or security, like an anchor of a ship in the midst of a raging storm. The calmness and stability we have seen, up until now, in our news anchors is about to be highly tested. I sense that what is about to be reported in the very near future will make the bad news of yesterday seem as nothing compared to what is about to follow.

"I WILL BEGIN TO PROMOTE UNKNOWN ANCHORMEN AND ANCHORWOMEN INTO NATIONAL MEDIA WHO HAVE AN 'ANCHOR' THAT HOLDS AND GRIPS THE SOLID ROCK!"

I saw several known anchormen and anchorwomen shaken to the core of their being as they became weary and unable to cope with the stress of their jobs, day after day. I heard the Spirit say, "Anchors Away!" The Lord took me to the book of Acts 27:22-24 to a life-threatening storm where an "anchorman" named Apostle Paul had received a late "breaking news" report from the angel of God saying (paraphrased), "Fear not, I have good news in the midst of the bad news." The good news is that the bad news was wrong! I am with you in the midst of the raging storm! Because of you, I will spare the lives of others on your ship!"

"NEWS BROADCASTING STATIONS WILL GIVE WAY TO NEW ANCHORS WHO ARE BEING HOISTED UP FROM DEEP WATERS BY THE HAND OF THE LORD TO BE BROUGHT ON BOARD THE BATTERED SHIPS ON THE SEA OF LIFE!"

"And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure." -- Isaiah 33:6

These anchormen and anchorwomen will come forth from deep waters of the unknown. They will not only report the perilous news but will have the treasures and the riches of Christ inside of them, so that the anointing of God will come right through the radio and television screens as people become convicted by their radiant countenance and peace in the midst of chaos. These anointed news anchors will become spectacles to the world as they are given favor to report of the hope within them.

"SOME UPCOMING ANOINTED NEWS ANCHORS WILL BE GIVEN WORDS OF KNOWLEDGE ON WHAT TO DO TO AVOID DANGER AND DISEASE, AND THEY REPORT THE NEWS BEFORE THE NEWS ACTUALLY TAKES PLACE!"

The favor of the Lord will increase upon these handpicked vessels, as their accuracy in reporting the news before the news actually spreads throughout broadcasting stations, bringing the fear of the Lord and salvation into many lives. Many will kneel before their televisions receiving Jesus Christ into their lives, with healings and miracles following. Some news anchors will be tagged with Bible names, such as anchorman Daniel or Elijah and anchorwoman Deborah, who speak with such authority that they will predict weather patterns, and at times, change them.

We must pray for those who are now connected in the news media. A great shaking is coming upon them. Let's pray they will be shaken into the Kingdom through what is happening on the earth. And pray for the promotion of those whom God is bringing in to report His perspective upon these world events.

When it isn't making any sense down here. . . it is up there!

Bill Yount
Blowing the Shofar Ministries
www.billyount.com
theshofarhasblown@juno.com

New Orleans
Bill Yount

Breaking News: "Jewish Carpenter Claims He Can Rebuild The City Of New Orleans...With Three Nails And Two Pieces Of Wood!"

The question now is.. Will New Orleans ever be rebuilt again? Will it ever be a safe place for people to call home with the risk of toxic water and possible future storms?

I sensed I heard Jesus saying to the Father concerning New Orleans. "I believe I heard the name of Israel mentioned in prayers from that location in times past. Can We go there?"

WHEN MAN'S REPORT SAYS "WHAT A MESS!" HEAVEN IS ALREADY PROCLAIMING..."WHAT A MESSAGE!"

It takes a 'mess' to make a message! I saw great messages coming forth out of New Orleans. Many Jonahs spewed out of the belly of Katrina and Rita will be found strewn upon the shores of Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas. As the water floods begin to recede these Jonahs will be hitting the ground running with a fresh message to the ends of the earth... "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!"

NEW ORLEANS (THE 'BIG EASY') - "THAT WOULD BE 'EASY' FOR ME!"

In Exodus 15:23-25. "And when they (the Israelites) came to Marah, just three days after they came through the waters of the Red Sea, they could not drink of the waters of Marah for they were bitter. 24. And the people murmured against Moses saying. "What shall we drink?" 25. And Moses cried to the Lord and the Lord showed him a tree, which when he cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He made them a statute and an ordinance and there he proved them."

"WHEN HE WAS ON THE CROSS... NEW ORLEANS WAS ON HIS MIND AND STILL IS!"

I saw the tree of Calvary being cast into the waters that had flooded and devastated New Orleans, Louisiana and surrounding states. The cross was becoming a bridge over troubled waters for many.

The flooded ground became all level at the foot of the Cross!

I SAW NEW ORLEANS BEGINNING TO LEAN.. UPON THE EVERLASTING ARMS! "SHE WAS BORN TO LEAN!"

As a cry of repentance rose up out of all of us through this adversity, I had to question what I was seeing next. "Who is this that I see coming up out of the wilderness leaning on her beloved!"

ANGELS WERE RANSACKING WHAT WAS LEFT OF NEW ORLEAN'S GAMBLING CASINOS

Did you know that people don't gamble to win? If they did they would stop gambling when they won. People gamble because of the thrill of the risk of winning. That thrill of taking a risk is what becomes the addiction. They will even risk their winnings to keep playing.

I asked the Father. "What are your angels doing inside these gambling casinos? I sense His response will shock many as it did me as I saw these angels taking the dice and rolling them into His Kingdom!

I sensed the Father saying. "A 'risk taking spirit' was originally intended for My people. I created man with a risk taking spirit. It was when My people began to refuse taking risks for Me to advance My Kingdom, My dice was stolen out of My House and the world started using them!

It's time for My people to roll the dice and take back the thrill of risky living to obey Me and further My Kingdom. Peter never forgot that eternal thrill of taking that risk of walking on water as long as he lived, despite his falling in it! I believe he still feels that thrill in heaven.

If what we have really belongs to God and He speaks to us to give it away or invest it for His glory, how can we lose if it's His money? Perhaps God Himself was the greatest gambler ever... risking His only Son and losing Him to win us back! He is still taking great risks with us today!

"ROLL THE DICE!"

Prisons About To Be Shaken
Bill Yount

The Foundations Of Many Prisons Are About To Be Shaken. . . The Groaning And Praises Of The Prisoners Have Come Up Before Me!"

A Prelude to the Word on the Prisons

I sense strongly that the prisoners behind walls and razor wire have been hidden and, perhaps, forgotten by man, but are now being summoned and brought forth to be included in this end-time intercession. They have a significant part to fulfill. I pray this word goes through the prison walls and doors and awakens the prisoners to the fact that they are vital and will be used greatly in intercession and ministry in this hour. They will begin to have visitations from angels and Jesus, Himself! Their jailhouse could rock!

Apostle Paul wrote from a prison cell, to Timothy, "Be not ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, 'His' prisoner," (2 Timothy 1:8). Paul was God's prisoner in prison, for a purpose. He goes on to say, "The word of God is not bound by these prisons walls!" (2 Timothy 2: 9)

A Possible Major Earthquake In The Prisons May Be God's Response Again! -- Acts 16:25,26.

Acts 16:25,26 "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises to God and the prisoners heard them. 26, And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed!"
Prison Alert: The gross midnight darkness in prisons is now creating the perfect spiritual atmosphere, for a season of possible major earthquakes that could equal Acts 16:26.
"He looked down from heaven to hear the groaning of the prisoner." -- Psalm 102:20
In the Spirit, I saw the ear of God opening up to the cries of the prisoners, who no one else seemed to want to hear. The Father spoke, "The groaning of the prisoners is now coming up before Me. I am coming to answer them!"
I was surprised to discover that many of these groanings and cries were, not only for themselves, but for the Body of Christ outside of the prison. It was as though there were prison-postal-angels working to deliver special assignments of prayer to them that needed divine intervention on our behalf, and the outside world!

These prisons were turning into mission control centers, where their groanings of intercession were creating the atmosphere from which answers to prayer with miracles, signs, and wonders would be launched into the outside world! The Holy Spirit was giving to many of these prisoners, unknown names for them to pray for; these names included yours and mine!
The Body of Christ, outside, was discovering that prisons were their greatest hidden resource of intercession power for their lives, families, and ministries! I saw angels visiting unaware inmates, giving them messages and revelation that would go outside the walls and into the nations!

Heavenly Wisdom Was Pouring Over the Prison Walls. . .
Heavenly wisdom was pouring over the prison walls and through the razor wire into these hellish places of the earth, where these prisoners were already surpassing the knowledge of many of the great men of God today. The darkness was forging the image of Christ, into many of these lives. "They who (that) sat in darkness were seeing a great light!"

The hidden church in the prisons was now emerging with seasoned apostles, prophets, evangelists, teachers and pastors, who would begin to feed the Body of Christ outside, with hidden manna found in the deepest, darkest, secret places of the earth!
"Moreover the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the prison, saying. . . 'Call unto Me and I will answer thee and show you great and mighty things which you know not of!'" -- Jeremiah 33:1,3
This was happening in the prisons. Apostle Paul wrote much of the epistles from a prison cell. More revelation will once again, come forth from that dark, lonely place with God!

This caused an awakening, within the Body of Christ, igniting the scripture in Mathew 25: "I was in prison and you visited Me not!" A Godly desire to visit the prisons was coming into God's people. Not only realizing that what we do to the least of these, we do to Him, but that we would receive an impartation from Jesus Christ personally.
A Changing of the Guards -- in the Prisons!

Just like Paul and Silas in their prison (notice the prison became theirs, not the devil's), the guards of these prisons would experience the joy of violent worship permeating from these inmates, who had nothing to lose and everything to gain.

The guards themselves were being arrested by the Holy Ghost and found themselves asking for prayer and, "What must I do to be saved?" Free people were freeing other people.

The Spirit of Jailhouse Religion Will be Broken!

Many prisoners, who seem to live only for God when in prison, will now discover God's power on the outside; the Body of Christ will receive them, as they would receive treasures coming out of darkness. Those who think they cannot make it on their own will qualify, as God's strength is made perfect in their weakness.

Prisons Becoming Powerhouses in Communities!

People who had regretted the prisons and jails being built in their neighborhoods were discovering atmospheric changes of peace and divine influence over their communities. Strongholds and principalities were being destroyed over these regions, as countless prison cells were turning into prayer cells. The prisons were becoming powerhouses, forming walls of protection around communities, as crime rates were coming down.

In the past, I have personally spent 23 years going into the prisons full time. I believe the ministry I have now was born during those years of going in to see Jesus!

 When going into visit prisoners, always go in under a seasoned ministry. Some prison ministries would not agree, but I think that men should visit only men and women should only visit women.
Bill Yount
Blowing the Shofar Ministries
www.billyount.com

An Ephraimite’s Testimony
Cindy Fitchlee

From: Cindy Fitchlee
To: Ephraim & Rimona Frank

Re: Letter 293 (faith and identity)

November 18, 2005 As I was reading your email I was brought to tears as I felt His Ruach and was considering the awesomeness of his mercies and lovingkindness that He would call us from our own graves and open our eyes to receive His Truth and an understanding of who, in His mercy, He has called us to be.

I felt that as you send your emails out to so many people, I would assume most of whom are like my family, fellow Israelites who until recently had no idea who they were, you might enjoy reading of how He spoke to our little family.

There is far more to our story than I could write here but in a nutshell we were "regular" non-denominational Christians. Happy to be very involved in Sunday worships, I enjoyed being part of a small worship team, we loved the weekly bible studies with fellow believers in our home and, of course, celebrated the traditional pagan holidays - though we had long since thrown out santa and the bunny business. We thought we were doing well. Our faith was real within the limits of our understanding and our continual prayer, especially mine, was asking Jesus to draw us closer to Him. Night after night after all of my family had gone to bed I would lay on my face before Him, crying out to Him. But I felt like a moth beating itself against the light until it finally falls, dead, into the drift of other dead moths beneath the light.

Awesome things had happened in our lives, even the Father returning to us our baby son who died while still in the womb. A year or so before, our child before him also died in the womb. But this child, after being dead for over a week, on the day he was to be removed from my body, was restored to life. The warfare and YHVH's indescribable awesomeness surrounding those events is a story in itself that I won't go into now. But He gave us back our son, born left-handed and red-headed. His Hand had clearly been upon us and we knew we were His, but we had come into such a wilderness time...... He had put a hunger and thirst into me ... and as the church we attended dethroned Jesus, neglected prayer and enthroned the programs and "wisdom" of man I tried to be faithful to speak out the words He put on my heart and to share the vision He gave me even though they were not received. In time He made it clear that we no longer belonged there and were to "come out".

Missing fellowship we soon began to attend another church and within perhaps little more than a year or so He again "called us out". We wanted to worship but had no idea how we could be part of any church as we knew them. During these years a couple who were friends lovingly, patiently and with great gentleness continued to share with us about keeping Shabbat. Sometimes we would hear a little, other times we were unable to hear, and had no understanding. We weren't sure we could change our lives that dramatically or even if we should and didn't want to be jumping on somebody's bandwagon if that was what it was.

Then one evening, almost 3 years ago, a couple who were dear friends still attending the second church we had been called out of, spent the evening with us in just worshiping and prayer together. As we were ending the evening the husband was praying and he thanked the Lord that we could "gather together". Immediately the Ruach haKodesh spoke to me and said "That's what I call you, The Gathering". I was awed and excited but had no understanding what He meant. I could only think that He must be speaking of the Remnant of Joel 2, and that we were blessed to be part of His Remnant. But I didn't yet understand who the Remnant is. I just thought it meant those Christians who are not lukewarm.

Months passed and we continued to search Him about whether we should keep His Shabbat. I didn't want to be persuaded by any man as I'd heard every well-spoken argument both ways. I wanted to know His will for us. As a "Spirit-filled Christian" I feared it might mean turning from the fullness of Him into a legalism. Eventually He put it upon our hearts so heavily that we decided to celebrate Shabbat for the first time. I called our patient friends and asked "How? What do we do?" And she asked me, "Do you realize that this Shabbat is Shavuot?" I didn't even know what that was and she explained it was both the giving of the Torah on Mt. Horeb - AND the day of the outpouring of His Spirit, or Pentecost as I knew it. How awesome of YHVH that in His amazing timing He called us to His Shabbat on the very day that answered the fears in my heart. And His Presence over our family with our 3 little children was so powerful that Shabbat that it felt like a huge glove had been laid over us. We had no doubt then what His will was for us. Immediately after that Shabbat the warfare began and all hell literally broke loose in our lives for the next almost-year but that's another story.

But, this part is so exciting to me... a few months later we were with friends celebrating Yom Teruah for the first time, just learning what it was, what it means, what it is all about. (We were still very fuzzy on all the feasts). Part of the reading for that day was Devarim 30:1-5 "And it shall come to pass, when all these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among the nations, where YHVH your Elohim has driven you, 2 And shall teshuvah [return] to YHVH your Elohim, and shall obey His voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your lev [heart], and with all your being; 3 That then YHVH your Elohim will turn your captivity and have compassion upon you, and will return and gather you from all the nations, where YHVH your Elohim has scattered you. 4 If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts of the shamayim [heaven], from there will YHVH your Elohim gather you, and from there will He fetch you: 5 And YHVH your Elohim will bring you into the land that your ahvot possessed, and you shall possess it; and He will do you tov, and multiply you above your ahvot [fathers]." (It wasn't until later that I began to see vs. 6 "And YHVH will perform brit-milah [cirumcision] upon your lev [heart], and the lev of your zera [seed, offspring], to love YHVH your Elohim with all your lev, and with all your being, that you may live.") As we were reading that passage together YHVH spoke to me again, as clearly as the first time and said, "THAT'S THE GATHERING I AM TALKING ABOUT."

In these few years that have passed He has been circumcising our hearts, revealing the idols and paganism and rebellion in our own lives and the lives of the generations before us and revealing His plan of gathering Israel back to Him. It has been an ongoing process of His revealing, our repentance and being delivered and healed. We have grown and are no longer the same people we were and by His mercy we won't remain as we are but continue to be changed. And we've learned we aren't even the people we thought we were. But through these times of searching and testings and the stripping away of the realms of death as we come into His Life, when we have questioned so much, we have had the assurance that came directly from Him. He is gathering us and we are in awe that He has included us in this awesome move of His Ruach, prophesied of throughout His Word. We have learned so much and have so much to learn. But we know, not from the mouth of any man but spoken directly by His Ruach to my spirit, twice, and before I'd ever heard of any such thing, and confirmed in His Word, that He IS Gathering His people. We are thankful beyond any words to be a part of His Remnant.

Many months before, just after we kept our first Shabbat, that dear patient friend told me that the reason He put it upon our hearts to do so is that we are a part of Israel. In my profound ignorance I laughed at her and said, "I don't THINK so.... we're Irish!" The thought of it makes me smile now. Oh the unfathomable mercies and lovingkindness of our Abba!

That is just a nutshell story of part of what our Kinsman Redeemer Yeshua haMoshiach has done to lift the dry, dead bones of just one tiny part of Israel from the grave, and breathe Life into us. And I am sure the story is similar for so many others. It is completely His work. I hope sharing our story is a blessing to you.

Shalom,

Cindy

An Everlasting Covenant

Bill Somers

The Bible commonly uses differing language at various points to explain or emphasize recurring themes. For example a great gathering in of souls is spoken of in one place as a catch of fish, and in another place as a harvest of wheat. Both of these are just different figures of speech or metaphors for the same thing.

The many names of God are used in different contexts to bring out aspects of his nature. He is the Lord our righteousness, he is our healer, the lord of hosts, our provider and so on. Still all these names refer to the same God. And again the church is looked at as the body of Christ, the bride of Christ, a vineyard, a tree etc.

In this article, we will look at the differing ways the bible talks about the Promise. What exactly is the promise; how is the promise related to the gospel; what differing aspects of the promise are brought out in the way the Bible describes it, and when will be promise be fulfilled?

The Promise

In Genesis 12 the Lord makes a multi part promise to Abraham.

> Gen 12:1 Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
> 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
> 3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

We’re going to focus on the final part of that promise, the blessing to all the earth. Galatians 3 makes reference to it as follows.

> Ga 3:6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
> 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
> 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
> 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
> 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

Here the meaning of the blessing is spelled out. That God would justify the heathen by faith. Also in verse 8, this promise is described as the gospel! [In old testament texts you will find the phrase glad tidings.]

The gospel, then is a promise to the nations that they would be justified and receive this blessing, if they have faith like Abraham. For Abraham believed God and this was accounted as his righteousness, verse 6.

The Kingdom

In Mathew 24, this promise is clearly linked with the end times.

> Mt 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

The promise that the nations would be justified is called the gospel of the kingdom. The terms ‘nations,’ ‘heathen,’ ‘Gentiles,’ and ‘families or tribes of the earth’ all mean the same. In Revelations they are spoken of as of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Today missionaries speak of them as people groups or ethnic groups. And they keep close track of the numbers of people groups that have not yet heard the gospel preached. There are some who will tell you that the gospel has already been preached throughout the world even as far back as the time of Paul, but the missionaries will tell you quite different. And after all that's their business, they're in a position to know.

The Rest

In Hebrews 4 there is another passage relating to the promise that also speaks of the gospel.

> Heb 4:1
> Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
> 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
> 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
> 4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
> 5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.
> 6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

Here the gospel is explained as a promise to enter into his rest. 'Them' in verse 2 refers to those 'that came out of Egypt by Moses' [Heb. 3:16]. And in their case the gospel was not received with faith. Also the rest is connected to the Sabbath as it mentions the seventh day, when God rested. The seventh day, of course, can also refer to the seventh day of God's week, the millennium or end times, as the following scriptures suggest.

> Ps 90:4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

> 2Pe 3:8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

So we see the Gospel can be characterized in several ways.
The Gospel message is a promise of a kingdom to come.
The Gospel message is a promise of entering into His Rest.

This promise of entering into His Rest, still waits fulfillment, on the seventh day, the day of rest.

> Heb 4:8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
> 9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

Now let's take a closer look at the idea of rest.

> Ps 132:8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.

There is a popular worship chorus that makes use of the above scripture. It goes like this:

> Oh the glory of your presence
> We your people give you reverence
> Now arise to your rest and be blessed
> By our praise as we glory in your embrace
> As your presence now fills this place.

Another worship song, Baruch Haba, also draws upon Psalm 132 in its verse:

> Now arise Oh Lord, come to your resting place

> You and the ark of your might > and we will rejoice > as we're clothed with your righteousness
> And celebrate the light.

The same music company also released a worship music session later which used the same first chorus, but for some reason they changed the wording from "Now arise to your rest" to "Now arise from your rest." Perhaps someone thought that it didn't make any sense to say 'arise to your rest' because naturally people get up from resting. This comes from a failure to understand that here 'rest' speaks of a place of rest, not being at rest. So to say arise to your rest means to get up from some place or other and go to, or into a place of rest. For example, someone would arise from their sofa and go into their bedroom, a place of rest.

Psalm 132:8 is a prayer to the Lord to rise up from where ever he is and come to his place of rest. If you look further down, the Lord clearly says his rest is Zion, a place he will dwell forever.

> Ps 132:8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
> 9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.
> 10 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.
> 11 The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
> 12 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.
> 13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.
> 14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

In Ezekiel's descriptions of the temple, the house of the Lord, there is another mention of God's dwelling or resting place. Here the figure of the temple is used interchangeably with Zion.

> Eze 43:4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.
> 5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.
> 6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.
> 7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

In the Revelation of Jesus Christ, there is a scene that depicts the Lord [as a lamb] coming to Zion.

> Re 14:1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

Now let's go back and look at the opening parts of Psalm 132.

> Ps 132: A Song of degrees.
> 1 LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions:
> 2 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;
> 3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;
> 4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,
> 5 Until I find out a place for the LORD, an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.
> 6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.
> 7 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.
> 8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
> 9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

Here we see David, who is a type of Jesus, in verses 3 and 4 saying he will not sleep or get any rest till he finds a resting place for God. In the original historical sense, this is about David's desire to build the temple. In the spiritual sense, it speaks of Jesus' desire to build his church, a temple made of living stones. This is to be an eternal dwelling place for the Lord, based on an eternal covenant. This again is Mt. Zion, the place where he is worshipped.

In Matthew 8, Jesus is involved in a discussion with a scribe. The issue at hand is that of following Jesus. He gives the scribe a cryptic answer indicating that he has no particular resting place. Jesus seems to be changing the subject from following him to finding a resting place.

> Mt 8:19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
> 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
> 21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.
> 22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.
> 23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.
> 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

Then just 4 verses later, we find that he has found a place to rest and was sound asleep. The key to this apparent contradiction is in verse 23. When he enters the ship, two things happen. First, his disciples follow him. This deals with the issue of following Jesus. The second thing is that he finds a place of rest. Entering into the ship and winding up sound asleep is an illustration of arising to his rest. The fact that the disciples follow him illustrates the next verse of Psalm 132. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness. [Here we must be clear that following him means obeying him, not just tagging along after.]

Now look back at Revelation 14.

> Re 14:1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion*, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.*
> 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:
> 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.
> 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth*. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.*

Here the same two issues are dealt with, Mt. Zion is the resting place, and when the Lamb appears atop Mt. Zion, he has with him a group who will follow him. The ship in Mathew is typical of Mt. Zion, the same two issues are dealt with and the results are the same.

So who is it that comes to rest? Is it God who comes to his place of rest, or is it his people who enter into his rest? As we saw above, there are two issues involved and that provides our answer. It's both! God comes into his temple, the place of rest, and his people follow. As it says in Isaiah 6, his train filled the temple. His train is whoever is following behind him. You can also think of it as the body of Christ coming together with Jesus, the head.

The Spirit

Galatians 3 speaks of the blessing of Abraham as The Promise Of The Spirit in verse 14, a very interesting connection. In verse 17, the Lord refers to the law as the covenant that came 430 years later, saying it could not cancel out the promise.

> Ga 3:14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
> 15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be > confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

> Ga 3:16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
> Ga 3:17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

We can conclude here that the gospel promise of a kingdom to come, is also the promise of the spirit. So lets add that to our list of meanings for the gospel.

The Gospel message is a promise of a kingdom to come.
The Gospel message is a promise of entering into His Rest [Mt. Zion].
The Gospel message is a promise of the Spirit.

The New and Everlasting Covenant

Galatians goes on to talk of the promise and relate it to the two covenants.

> Ga 4:21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
> 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
> 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
> 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
> 25 For this Agar is, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
> 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

As a side note, check the language in verse 21. It asks, do you not hear the law. It doesn’t ask if you have read the law or know the law, it asks if you hear the law. Then in verse 24 he explains that it is an allegory. In other words, if you do not pick up on the idea that the story of Abrahams 2 sons is an allegory, you are not hearing the law. He that hath an ear, let him hear.

Now verse 24 gives us the idea that the promise to Abraham is also related to the new covenant or new testament. The two mountains, correspond to the bond woman and the free woman; the old covenant and the new covenant. You can see this contrast spelled out in Hebrews 12.

> Heb 12:18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
> 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
> 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
> 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Note that here the mountain that burnt with fire is the Mt. Sinai; and Mount Zion is the heavenly Jerusalem, Jerusalem which is above as mentioned in Galatians 4.

This tells us the Gospel message is a promise of a new covenant. What exactly is the new covenant? Hebrews mentions it twice.

> Heb 8:8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I > will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

> 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
> 10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
>
> Heb 10:16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;
> 17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

Here is another description from Jeremiah 32.

> Jer 32:40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Here we see that this new covenant will make it so that his people will not depart from him. Ezekiel explains it this way:

> Eze 36:26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
> 27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

The Lord is promising that he will cause us to obey him! Note especially verse 27. This is telling us that he will cause us to obey by putting his Spirit in us. On other words, God says I will put my spirit in you that you might not sin against me. So the promise of a new covenant is also the promise of the Spirit.

So we can add another line to our list
The Gospel message is a promise of a kingdom to come.
The Gospel message is a promise of entering into His Rest [Mt. Zion].
The Gospel message is a promise of a New Covenant
The Gospel message is a promise of the Spirit.

There are many other aspects of this, Hebrews 3 mentions one of them.

> Heb 3:14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

The Gospel of the Kingdom is expressed in Heb 3:14 as a promise to be made 'partakers of Christ'

Unity of the Brethren

This promise is also a promise of unity. Psalm 133 tells us that Mt. Zion is to be a place of unity.

> Ps 133: <<A Song of degrees of David.>>
> 1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

Fulfilling the Promise

The promise was expressed in many ways and one of the most significant of these is this. The promise of entering into his rest is seen to be a promise of a new covenant in the latter days. For on the seventh day, God rested; and we can also say from this that in the seventh millennium God came to rest.

God keeps his promises and confirms his covenant. One of the ways he does this is by fulfilling the scriptures. Often this is done in stages, so a scripture can have multiple fulfillments. Sometimes there is a partial fulfillment followed later by another fulfillment, and finally by a much later fulfillment in the end times.

The promise to Abraham was of a future time; an end time fulfillment. Later is could be spoken of as a ‘new’ covenant’. This is because another covenant would come first, the mosaic law.

Melchizedek or Melchisedec, is a priest of the eternal covenant. As such he ‘continues forever’. He blessed Abraham, who received this promise, with bread and wine. Jesus used bread and wine as a sign of the new covenant, speaking of his body, about to be broken, and his blood about to be shed. This is his priestly offering as he offered up himself. Both of these cases are partial fulfillments.

So while the promise came first, it’s completion, or fulfillment can come much later. Whereas when the law was given the old covenant was established right then at the first Pentecost on Mt. Sinai.

Another example if this is the partial fulfillment of Joel 2 in Acts 2.

> Ac 2:14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
> 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
> 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

Here it began with the ‘earnest’ of the Spirit.

> 2Co 5:5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit*.*

An earnest is a token of something to come, an assurance. It is like a pledge or down payment. So in Acts 2 the promise of the Spirit was confirmed by an earnest or partial payment. This was the measure of anointing that came upon the gathered disciples that day. And not only is this a foretaste of the Spirit, it is a foreshadowing of the end times.

Fulfilling the promise will finish with the latter day/latter rain blessing of the Spirit, given without measure, the final fulfillment of The promise of the Spirit mentioned in Joel and other places.

Salvation

It is commonly taught that the church began at Pentecost in Acts 2 with the giving of the spirit. But that the kingdom is for a future time, after Jesus returns. We have looked at various aspects of the Covenant and seen that this is only partly correct. The church, as we know it, is not a company newly formed in Acts 2. It is a continuation of the congregation of Israel, the assembly or called out ones, which existed all along. It will become the Kingdom of God as it gets right with God. Then the promise will be fulfilled as God grants repentance with the full pouring out of His Spirit. This will bring us into the end time harvest before the return of the Lord Jesus Christ at the second advent.

Salvation became available through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus. But this is not to say it was unavailable before Calvary because He is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. It is his sacrifice that pays the price for all saints of all times to be reconciled to God.

Abraham, the father of faith, was not saved [or justified] by the old testament Law, but because he believed God.

> Ga 3:6 Even as Abraham believed God*, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.*
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
> 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
> 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
> 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
> 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

Salvation comes to us today no differently than it did to the old testament saints. It can come, by having faith in the promises; by calling on the name of the Lord; by coming to know the Lord through meditating on his word, and by God directly revealing himself to those who seek him.

Let’s conclude by taking a look at one last reference to the everlasting covenant from Hebrews 13.

> Heb 13:20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, > 21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

A New Move

Lanna Perry

17th July, 2005
Sydney, Australia

Prophets! Evangelists! Teachers! Apostles! Pastors! Children Of Mine! Rise Up!

The time has come! The time has come where I am stationing My five-fold ministry in greater ways than ever before. Many of you are in the marketplace, many of you have been placed in places that you would not choose. Remain there until I say, for in this place, I am bringing forth My Kingdom. It may not be visible to your eyes, but know that I am performing the supernatural in these places. I am doing a new work through the five-fold ministry, a greater unity is taking place.

I am releasing forth My Spirit in greater ways to those who are willing to receive. I am calling My church to rise up and receive. I am longing to perform signs and wonders so many may see My Glory. For many say that signs and wonders are not for today, I am the God of miracles, and where My Spirit resides there will the impossible become possible.

America, Australia, Asia you will see an outpouring of My Spirit through the five fold ministry that are willing to receive it. Many are not willing. For this anointing and outpouring comes with a cost. I am asking each of you to count the cost. No more game playing, but be serious for the Kingdom, for My Kingdom, for time to waste, I have not!

I see many of you look with unbelief at signs and wonders in your lives. Raising the dead, healing the sick, casting out demons, miracles come from My heart. It is MY HEART to perform the miraculous in everyone's life, to bring about MY Glory. Rid your hearts of unbelief and be prepared to receive the outpouring.

For those with a humble spirit, a contrite heart, and walk in holiness, you will inherit the Kingdom. You will see Me move in great and mighty ways. I am the God of grace, no greater grace exists but that which comes from My heart. I am not calling you to perfection, for in your own strength you cannot attain this. I am calling for obedience. I am calling My prophets, My teachers, My pastors, My evangelists, My apostles, My children to Obedience like never before.

Be willing to see miracles in your workplace. Be willing to see the Lord your God invade your ministry, your work. Put aside your selfish nature, of being ashamed or legalistic mindsets and allow Me to do the work I am longing to do.

My heart is grieved, for I have a great outpouring of My Spirit waiting to be released but FEW are willing to pay the price and receive.

Many of you are holding to fear of being too heavenly minded to be earthly good. My precious children, I tell you, as you listen to My Spirit, I will bring balance to your life.

I am going to pour out My Spirit in greater ways, and I will pour it out on individuals who are hungry and desperate for Me, and on churches who are willing to receive. The cost is high, but I give you the grace to receive.

Examine your hearts. What do you truly want My children? For I am willing, and ready to pour out greater measures of My Spirit and perform great miracles, but you must be willing.

My Spirit is wanting to minister in all places. The marketplace. Your work, your home, your schools. The time has come for a greater supernatural outpouring of My Spirit, which will break strongholds, and tear down legalism, I am going to break that which man thinks they have established in the physical and in their minds.

I the Lord your God, am doing a new work. Cast out all unbelief, and allow Me to perform greater things than you have ever dreamed.

Rid your lives of disobedience, rid your lives of indulgences not of Me, and commit to seeking Me in ways you never have. For I am looking for those who will truly follow Me, and truly want to carry My anointing. I am willing, but are you My children?
chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

Tongues and Heart Entwined
Lanna Perry

16th July, 2005
Sydney Australia
Chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990
Let your yes, be yes, and your no, be no. Do not speak forth words that you know I have called you to speak, but yet leave your hearts far from Me.

Many of you speak, but your words are empty because your hearts have remained at a distance from Me. Why is this? Are you afraid to relinquish all control to allow your God to take hold?

Let your yes, be yes, and your no, be no.

My beautiful children, I have called each of you to come to Me, come with your hearts as your sacrifice and allow Me to touch each of you, and bring you closer to Myself. Many of you are speaking of things that are of My Kingdom, but are keeping your hearts so far from Me.

Deceit has entered my house, and I am not pleased. I have called each of you to be speakers of truth. Speakers of love and encouragement. The words that you speak, to overflow out of your hearts of thankfulness and worship of Me. Many of you are lying. Many of you are hiding behind cliché words and phrases, and not allowing My Spirit of truth to speak through you.

I am the God of the Impossible. I am making the Impossible, Possible.

Do not ‘play’ church any longer My children. Do not speak empty words, and keep your hearts far from Me.

Examine your hearts, and your words. Where your heart lies, so does your treasure, but many of you are speaking forth words of Mine, but are not allowing your hearts to rest in Me. You are allowing your hearts to rest in your own desires and lusts of the flesh.

I long to draw each of you closer to Me than you ever have been. Draw you to that secret place of speaking so deeply and intimately to you, and strengthening you for the task ahead.

Let the words that you speak, reflect the heart that is within you. Do not allow deceit to come from your mouth. Do not deceive others by your empty words of praise to Me, and keeping your hearts far from Me.

My church, the time is drawing near for My return, and many games and manipulation and deceit is being entertained in My church. Repent, and allow My Spirit to clean your hearts, your tongues and My church.

Allow My fire to fall on your tongues and hearts, so that the joining of your heart and your tongue may manifest. That truly My children will walk in a deeper empowerment of My Spirit.
Allow Me to break down the parts of you have kept your hearts far from Me.

For the power of My Spirit that shall flow through My church when hearts and tongues are combined shall be incredible.

Many are walking within My house, that are not following Me, and are deceiving many. Stay alert. Keep watch, and listen to My Spirit.

I the Lord your God, will not accept those who come to Me with words, but hearts are far from Me. Check your hearts My children, and allow Me to show you anything within you that may not bring about Glory to My name.

Let the revival of My church begin within you. Let your words reflect your heart. Repent of deceit, and come walk in truth.

For the truth, will set you free, and will set the world free of it’s bondage. You cannot hide anything from Me, I see all, and I long to restore that which is hidden in darkness.

So come, My church, let your tongues and heart unite. Be carriers of TRUTH, carriers of My Word and hearts that are clean and pure. Let Me prepare you for what is to come. To walk in greater holiness and purity of heart. No more deceit.

A New Level Of Faith

Musa Opiyo

Mar 9, 2005
musaopiyo@btinternet.com

God is seeking to move His Church from a victim mentality to a victor mentality. There is a shift occurring in the heavenlies and My people shall receive a fresh revelation of who they are in Me. You eyes shall be opened to the fulness of what My work on the cross accomplished. You shall no longer walk as a victim of your circumstances but you shall look your adversary straight in the face and speak My Word over that situation.

Many of My own at this present time have been faced with different trials and afflictions that have left you battle scared and weary. Just when you think the storm is over, the enemy floods in to overwhelm My people. Yet within My crucibles I am fashioning My dread warriors in the midst of the fire. I have taken you through situations where you have been stripped of your own knowledge and understanding and leaning supports where you had to literally walk by faith. These have become so regular for My own that they have acquired a victim mindset of accepting defeat.

Yet I call you to rise above these mindsets and to look higher.

In order to be overcomers I have to introduce something to overcome.

You may be going through a testing period, but know that I AM in total control over your situation. In order for David to be victorious he had to meet his Goliath. As he set his sights on Me, he knew he could not overcome through his own strength, yet he knew I would back him up. As he picked up the stone and slung it in faith, My power met him halfway and slew the giant.

I am calling My people to release the stone and let it fly. Truly your giants shall be overcome as you step out in faith.

Yet My children, victory does not come without a fight. My servant Joshua had to walk round the walls seven times before the walls crumbled. So I am calling you to press in for breakthrough until it comes. I am calling you to look past the horizon of your limitations and see the cloud the size of a mans fist arise and grow into a rain cloud.

My people you are entering a time of war. The enemy will be fighting harder and pulling out the last stops. I am calling those that will believe to contend by faith to take back ground. I am calling even those of mustard seed faith to indeed sow that faith and reap a moved mountain. Like a seed that takes time and persistence, so you will need to be persistent with prayer.

There is a change in the heavenlies. I am moving in a new way and I am calling those of the house of faith to walk in the fulness of who I am and to win the battle that is waged against My people. The mute cries of My church shall be turned into a roar of war. No longer shall they see themselves in their own strength but they shall see Holy Spirit Apostolic to take authority over that which opposes Me.

I am he who trains your hands for war and your fingers for battle. I am breaking the barriers of your limitations and causing you to walk in a new anointing. I am expanding your borders and making room for you to contain more. Now is the time to meet Me at the cross and die of all that would be a hindrance so that My Holy Spirit power shall flow through you in its fulness. For you are those I am calling to advance the Kingdom. You are those who will cause the enemy to flee because you walk under My anointing and the fulness of who I AM. These are indeed the days to walk by faith, for I am moving the faith of My people to a new level.

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

Strike The Arrows!
Musa Opiyo

The Lord has been calling the Body of Christ for some time to warfare and to contend not only for personal victories but for breakthroughs that affect the Body. We have responded to this with much faith, taking God at His Word and going and taking back stolen ground.

However for some, the enemy has retaliated a lot harder than many would have anticipated and because of this I sense that many of God people have grown weary in the battle

Some have almost given up and there is a sense of "throwing in the towel", a what’s-the-use sort of attitude. Being made aware of this, the Lord said to me, "Its time for My people to strike the arrows upon the ground again and again." He then led me to 2 Kings 13: 17-19:

2 Kings 13:17-19 (Amp)
17 And he said, Open the window to the east. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The Lord's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Syria. For you shall smite the Syrians in Aphek till you have destroyed them.
18 Then he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike on the ground. And he struck three times and stopped.
19And the man of God was angry with him and said, You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had destroyed it. But now you shall strike Syria down only three times.

Many of Gods people are in this position now, where in the midst of your trial, they have struck their arrows only three times. In other words, they have by faith laid hold of their promise of victory and breakthrough and their hase been a temporary breakthrough, but only to find satan knocking at their door again.

The Lord is calling us to be persistent people of faith. Persistent in our prayers, persistent in our stand for God. This calls for endurance on our part because in this day and age, we are those who tend to look for quick fixes, quick deliverances, quick breakthroughs. I am not against that; God does in fact move in this way on many occasions, but it takes a lot more of our faith and endurance on our part to press in and press on.

God is looking to stretch our faith in this season in order to take us to the next level of faith operating situations. It is a continuous journey from faith to faith. Like the bending of the bow, so he is bending some of us now, taking us beyond our limitations or what we conceive in the natural to be what we can handle in order to accomplish the impossible in and through us.

Press in and press on. God is for you and not against you. He is looking for us to simply yield to him; to be those of persistent faith that reach forth for what he has set for us. It is like the high jump sport. Every time the athlete jumps over the bar, it is set higher each time.

Do not be surprised if you find yourself in a situation that in the natural seems worse off than before. God is stretching you to a new level. From Glory to greater Glory so that HE may receive the glory when your life becomes a living testimony to others.

Truly it is time to strike the arrows again and again.

Philippians 3:14 (Amp) 14 I press on toward the goal to win the [supreme and heavenly] prize to which God in Christ Jesus is calling us upward.

God bless you,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

A New Season
Judy Curmi

9-12-2005

Joel 3:13-14 Put in the sickles, for the harvest is ripe; go in, tread down; for the wheat pits are full, and the wine presses overflow; for their wickedness is great. An uproar and tumult in the valley of decision; for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.

You have entered a new season. This is the season of the bride. This is the season for great and mighty works to manifest. Don’t look back but go forward diligently into your destiny.

I have opened a door that no man can shut. [Rev. 3:7] At the same time I have firmly shut the door to the past and the way things "used to be". You can not go back to the way things used to be! The past is finished, washed up. It is to be cast aside for the new.

I am looking for those who are willing to run with me all the way to the finish line. It is not a time for side trips, being casual or sitting down to rest. If you want to run with me, your eyes must remain fixed on me. You must give your heart to me totally without mixture or double-mindedness.

Calling me "Lord", but serving another will not work. It is time to cast all constraints aside and set your face like flint. Don’t bow to the allures of the world anymore. Don’t think I will bless what I have said I will not bless!

There were seven churches I spoke of in the visions of John. [Rev. 2-3] You need to consider these carefully, for these were MY churches, yet many [individuals] among them were disqualified.

Money, fame or position will not save you in the days ahead. It is your knowledge of ME and ability to be hidden in ME that will protect you and lift you up above the storms that are approaching and even now have begun to beat on your door. [Ps. 91, Luke 6:43-49]

Few are prepared even though ample time has been given. Each individual is responsible for themselves. You can not speak or "stand in" for someone else, nor can they do so for you. Each will give an accounting to me. Each one will stand before me.

I have given many warnings of these events, such as the ten virgins [Matt. 25:1-13], the wheat and the tares [Matt. 13:24-30] and the separation of the sheep and the goats. [Matt. 25:31-46] Many of the goats thought they were sheep, but the criteria were clearly spelled out in my Word and they did not meet the criteria. They wanted another gospel or another religion that pleased them more.

Matt. 25:41-46 Then he will say to those at his left, Go away from me, you cursed, to the everlasting fire which is prepared for the adversary and his angels.

For I was hungry and you did not give me food; I was thirsty and you did not give me drink; I was a stranger and you did not take me in; I was naked and you did not clothe me: I was sick and in prison and you did not visit me.

Then they will answer and say, Our lord, when did we see thee hungry or thirsty or a stranger or in prison, and did not minister to thee?

Then he will answer and say to them, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did not do it to one of these least ones, you also did not do it to me. And these shall go into everlasting torment, and the righteous into everlasting life.

I will have much to say in the days ahead for I AM on the move. I will begin to move thorough my chosen people in a manner that will leave the world breathless and in awe.

Put on your running shoes and get ready to run for the hour is at hand and I AM beginning to open the door now. This will be a race like no other. Who will stand with me and lay down their self-life to run this race? A great destiny is awaiting those who will.

Your Jesus

Another Surprise
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, May 6, 2005

Over the years you have heard us talk about a young Orthodox family that lives in a settlement on the Mount of Blessing. Nir, his wife Shira, and now four children have weathered, by the grace of YHVH, terrorist attacks and sometimes very difficult living conditions. In spite of the hardships Nir's vision of a vineyard of grapes, groves of olive trees and a small dinning facility have been realized through the joint effort of Ephraimites who have come to work alongside of him (view his website www.grizimtour.com). We have been privileged to know and have a close relationship with them.

Two days ago, while in Jerusalem, we received a phone call from a very excited Nir and wife. They shared with us about three Ephraimite men, two from Texas and one from Oregon, who had arrived at their house earlier in the day to help him with the vineyard. They had been sitting around the table talking, and in the course of conversation were surprised to discover that the visitors did not know us, or any of the other Ephraimites that we are all in touch with. It was with the thought of "helping them get more connected to the land, as Nir put it, that he called us. The following day we arranged to come up in the late afternoon. We left our settlement around 4:00 PM and headed east toward Shechem /Nablus. If you remember, a few months ago we wrote that Israel built the security fence around Alfe Menashe and then moved the checkpoint further into Samaria, to a location which is about a half mile from our settlement. At that time we had quite a surprise, as the checkpoint looked more like a border crossing. Even though we also live in the disputed territories, crossing through that checkpoint was like journeying into another spiritual atmosphere. In spite of this we arrived on the Mount of Blessing (Mt. Grizim, where Har Bracha settlement is located) and had a wonderful time of fellowship with these new Ephraimite acquaintances and shared a lot about our mutual beliefs in Messiah Yeshua, the Torah, the two houses, the land, our relationship with Judah and the restoration of all Israel.

A few months ago we happen to see on a government site on the Internet, a map of the re-positioning of the security fence and also of the settlements that may be incorporated in the future into Israel. As we suspected, to our dismay, the fence, according to this map, does indeed appear to be the borderline. But what was more disconcerting was that there were only a very few settlements left on that map. Could it be that the move to rid Judea and Samaria of its Jewish population has already been decided upon, and that the process has begun unbeknown to the residents?

We knew that the Gaza and Northern Samaria settlements were going to be disbanded, but there still seemed to be hope for the others to remain under some future negotiations. A call last week from some friends (believers), from a settlement in the north (slated for abandonment), confirmed the reality of this as they told us of the hardships that they were experiencing. They have had to find alternate housing prior to receiving any compensation from the government (the amount of which has still not been disclosed to them). But in spite of this seeming reality, Nir and others, in the remaining settlements, are trusting that the Almighty will preserve them and that something will happen to change the course of the Arab world's passion to rid the Middle East of the presence of this Jewish/Israeli state.

In today's results of the local elections in the Palestinian Authority, although over 50% of the localities were won by Fatah, Hamas managed to secure over 30% of the localities, and that in the more largely populated towns (including in our neighboring Kalkilya). This means that in terms of numbers, Hamas had actually had more support than the more "moderate" Fatah. This is really a slap in the face of President Bush and the PA leadership, but it was to be expected, as the Islamic world sees that their Alla and the "Shaheed martyrs" (homicide bombers) are their greatest weapon against a muscle-bound US and the Israeli military forces. Israel's retreat from Lebanon, and now the impending one from Gaza and Samaria, are perceived as a victory and were celebrated by voting for this terrorist organization, proving to the world that terror will ultimately cause superpowers to bow to its demands. Gunshots of joy (a common form of jubilation among the Arabs) could be heard in our vicinity till late last night. Certainly the Palestinians view their success as a direct result of the terror.

Yesterday was the annual Holocaust Day in Israel. The letter posted below is a response to international anti Jewish and anti Israel sentiments. An Orthodox Rabbi and leader of a far rightwing political group, which was banned by the Israeli government, wrote this "letter". Rabbi Meir Kahanna was assassinated while visiting New York City 1991. He wrote the letter in the late 1980's.

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim

Dear World,

It appears that you are hard to please. I understand that you are upset over us here in Israel. Indeed, it appears that you are quite upset, even angry and outraged. Indeed, every few years you seem to become upset over us. Today, it is the brutal repression of the Palestinians; yesterday, it was Lebanon; before that it was the bombing of the nuclear reactor in Baghdad and the Yom Kippur War campaign. It appears that Jews who triumph, and who therefore, live, upset you most extraordinarily.

Of course, dear world, long before there was an Israel, we the Jewish people upset you. We upset a German people, who elected a Hitler and we upset an Austrian people, who cheered his entry into Vienna and we upset a whole slew of Slavic nations - Poles, Slovaks, Lithuanians, Ukrainians, Russians, Hungarians, Romanians.

And we go back a long, long way in history of world upset. We upset the Cossacks of Chmielnicki, who massacred tens of thousands of us in 1648-49; we upset the Crusaders, who on their way to liberate the Holy Land, were so upset at Jews that they slaughtered untold numbers of us. We upset, for centuries, a Roman Catholic Church that did its best to define our relationship through Inquisitions. And we upset the arch-enemy of the church, Martin Luther, who in his call to burn the synagogues and the Jews within them, showed an admirable Christian ecumenical spirit.

It is because we became so upset over upsetting you, dear world, that we decided to leave you - in a manner of speaking - and establish a Jewish State. The reasoning was that living in close contact with you, as resident-strangers in the various countries that comprise you, we upset you, irritate you, and disturb you. What better notion, then, than to leave you and thus love you - and have you love us? And so we decided to come home, to the same homeland from which we were driven out 1,900 years earlier by a Roman world that, apparently, we also upset.

Alas, dear world, it appears that you are hard to please. Having left you and your Pogroms and Inquisitions and Crusades and Holocausts, having taken our leave of the general world to live alone in our own little state, we continue to upset you.

You are upset that we repress the Palestinians. You are deeply angered over the fact that we do not give up the lands of 1967, which are clearly the obstacle to peace in the Middle East. Moscow is upset and Washington is upset. The Arabs are upset and the gentle Egyptian moderates are upset.

Well, dear world, consider the reaction of a normal Jew from Israel. In 1920, 1921 and 1929, there were no territories of 1967 to impede peace between Jews and Arabs. Indeed, there was no Jewish State to upset anybody. Nevertheless, the same oppressed and repressed Palestinians slaughtered hundreds of Jews in Jerusalem, Jaffa, Safed and Hebron. Indeed, 67 Jews were slaughtered one day in Hebron in1929.

Dear world, why did the Arabs - the Palestinians - massacre 67 Jews in one day in 1929? Could it have been their anger over Israeli aggression in 1967? And why were 510 Jewish men, women and children slaughtered in Arab riots in 1936-39? Was it because of Arab upset over 1967? And when you, World, proposed a U.N. Partition Plan in 1947 that would have created a Palestinian State alongside a tiny Israel and the Arabs cried and went to war and killed 6,000 Jews - was that upset stomach caused by the aggression of 1967? And, by the way, dear world, why did we not hear your cry of upset then?

The Palestinians who today kill Jews with explosives and firebombs and stones are part of the same people who - when they had all the territories they now demand be given them for their state - attempted to drive the Jewish State into the sea. The same twisted faces, the same hate, the same cry of "idbah-al-yahud" - "Slaughter the Jews!" that we hear and see today, were seen and heard then. The same people, the same dream - destroy Israel.

What they failed to do yesterday, they dream of today - but we should not "repress" them. Dear world, you stood by the Holocaust and you stood by in 1948 as seven states launched a war that the Arab League proudly compared to the Mongol massacres. You stood by in 1967 as Nasser, wildly cheered by wild mobs in every Arab capital in the world, vowed to drive the Jews into the sea. And you would stand by tomorrow if Israel were facing extinction.

And since we know that the Arabs-Palestinians daily dream of that extinction, we will do everything possible to remain alive in our own land. If that bothers you, dear world, well - think of how many times in the past you bothered us.

In any event, dear world, if you are bothered by us, here is one Jew in Israel who could not care less.

A New Order of Things
Roy Resh

> For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what He has prepared for him that waits for Him. Is 64:4

I the Lord have spoken to you many times. I speak to you in your heart of hearts if you have received My Son. Behold, then your eyes observe My works, you see them in your natural world as I blend My Justice with My mercy and My faith. Do you know my gentle voice in your heart? Do you see My works in your midst?

If you have an ear to hear, you hear My voice calling you to Me, to keep your eyes on Me as I lead you through the time of judgment which has come upon My house. My judgment is not to punish, but to bring mercy to the wavering and to bring faith to the obedient when they see My uncompromising righteousness. I am establishing a new order of things, a way that you have not known. New men and women are being raised up who will hear My voice and see My hand. You leaders who established the old order need to be especially attentive to My voice at this time, for your anointing has been lifted. A new mantle is being given to those who are building in My new order. Those of the old order may receive this new mantle if they forsake their works and walk in accordance to My guidance.

Long in preparation, many of My people who have wandered in the wilderness of My new order of things. They have moved when I called them to move, and waited when I called them to wait. It has seemed endless to some, and much of their fruit has withered on the vine of men’s institutions. Now, I am moving among those who have come through the wilderness, who have learned My voice. My mantle is upon them to enter and possess the Promised Land. This Land is not a place in your earth, it is a place in My Kingdom that covers the whole of My Chosen ones, My glorious Bride. It has not entered into the heart of man what I have prepared for the faithful, yet their faith is but a gift to them and to the others that their mantles touch. Don not be proud of the faith that I have given you, and do not gather with new groups who have this unlimited faith, but gather only as I call you to do My works. Hear My voice in your spirit, and gather in a sacred and solemn assembly with thankfulness that you have become My Chosen, My Bride. I will instruct you as you assemble in this new order of things, but only if you forsake your old orders and let Me bring you together in the one-accord spirit that I gave to your fathers.

This is the time that I am healing the families, bringing husband and wife together in love to be helpmeets and to guide their children in the way that they ought to go. Pray that broken families will be healed, that love will flow among the mixed families, and that My government will again be seen upon the earth. It will not look like any of the legal governments, for it will be invisible to both the political and religious systems of man. Yes, there will be persecutions, but these are to purify and perfect, and to bring My truth to a world lost in its selfish pursuits.

Do not remember the things of the past, for they are passing away to make way for My future, My government upon the earth. The power of My new order of things will astonish all. No one has yet seen such a government, where from the least to greater things than He did when He walked among you, because He has come to sit on My throne, to rule in My stead.

Come to Me. Keep your eyes fixed on Me. Hear My voice. I am your Source and deliverer. Give Me an ear. Let no man take your crown, but let Me love through you to build up My body and reach a lost world that I ache to redeem. Now it has begun, and I call you to remain meek and lowly, as He was in your midst. Let all things be to My glory! All things!

Aug 5, 2005

A New Paradigm Emerges

Bill Somers

So what is a paradigm, you ask? My dictionary tells me this:

Paradigm: pattern or model

For some years now, in the articles posted here and there on various prophetic web sites, and elsewhere, we have heard talk of a new paradigm or a *paradigm shif*t, that is to come with the end time move of God. In the last half year, and especially just recently the material we have seen makes it clear that the new paradigm is now here. The outlines can be found in it bits and pieces in many articles by many different writers. But the conclusion is becoming more and more obvious. And the way it fulfills scripture is more and more apparent. It is the third day church.

The new paradigm has emerged for the end time church.

It is already starting to overthrow the old one.
We present here, some points that it contains; in no particular order and in the form of slogans.

Fellowship, not membership.

Sonship and brotherhood for women equally with men, not servanthood.

Provision and finances from the Lord not man.

Ministers are servants, not clergy.

We decrease, He increases and fills all.

Death to self and all anxiety.

Doing what and only what we see the Father doing.

Resting in the Lord, not working for his approval.

Communion, not compliance.

Small groups, not megachurches.

Flowing, not striving.

Following the Lamb where ever he leads, even unto death.
It's the 'Day of His Power', we shall be willing.

Submitting to one another, not to man's or an institutions authority, covering or headship.

Giving cheerfully, not tithing.

Unity through harmony, not hierarchy.

Organism, not organization.

Relationship, not religion.

Living word, not dead letter.

Eating from the Tree of Life, not the Tree of Knowledge.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, in his people.

And what we have known as the church is being refined and purged to become the Kingdom of God.

A New Revelation of Jesus

Chris Poole

A New Revelation of Jesus Coming to the Body of Christ

(June 2002).

The following account spans a time period from last November 2001 to this past June 2002. It began during a time period when I was contemplating some really pronounced changes in the normal pattern of events in both the ministry I was engaged in and my "tent-making" endeavors.

Last November, I was sitting in my blue office recliner behind the desk when suddenly, I heard the voice of the Lord begin to speak to me in a very pronounced fashion. He said, "Chris, would you be OK if I told you that we are going to take a trip to the backside of the desert and in that place, all of what you have come to think of and know as normal will cease. There will be no meetings, no activity, no visibility. It will seem as if everything has come to a stop - but - what you will have is my manifest Presence." There was a brief moment of silence at this point and then He came back to me and said, Chris, if all you have is Me and Me alone, would I be enough for you?"

As soon as Jesus finished asking this question, I immediately knew that the right answer was "Yes" but something in me prompted me to stop and think about the question and not answer hastily. It was as if what I said was going to prophesy what would happen - and it would be set in motion immediately after I spoke it. For a brief moment, I contemplated what a "No" answer would be saying ("No, Jesus, You would not be enough. We desire the ministry more than we desire You") but this was so ludicrous that I was ready to answer His question even though there might have been an twist to it that I had not thought about. I knew that any ministry worth engaging in MUST always begin with and end with Jesus. So, I said "Yes Lord, You alone would be enough". There was another moment of silence and then He simply said, "OK". The intensity of His Presence left and I did not experience another visitation like this again until the end of June 2002.

One morning near the end of June 2002, I was sitting in exactly the same chair in my office working and the Lord again came to me as He had last November. Although it had been several months since the last "meeting", He spoke to me as if we were still engaged in our last conversation. He said, "Chris, if I had given you the things you thought you wanted in ministry, you would have come to despise them even more than you despised the aspects of business that you felt were competing for your time and hindering My call on your life - making it difficult for you to walk out what I had called you to do."

As He was speaking this to me, suddenly - I was no longer in my office but found myself in an outdoor setting looking straight ahead. It was obvious that I was outside but yet, I could not see past about 20 feet in any direction and it was clear that there was nothing important to be noticed beyond that distance. As I looked straight ahead, I saw the "body" of a person standing on two stones facing me about 15 feet in front of me.

As I looked at this person's body, there were several things that immediately stood out to me. First, the stones were separated enough such that the person's legs were at a 45 degree angle to each other. Next, the person had on generic clothing such that it was not clearly either male or female. This is because I believe it represented both male and female. Also, I could not see above the person's neck but yet, I knew it was not a headless body. It was very much alive and able to think, see, speak, and hear.

As I was contemplating this body standing spread-legged on these two large stones, I also was aware that Jesus was standing about 10 feet from me about 30 degrees to my left and He was looking at this person standing on these rocks also.

I again looked at the person in front of me and my attention was drawn to the rock under the right foot. Immediately, I knew this rock represented Jesus, the true foundation. Even as I thought this, Jesus knowing my thoughts said, "Yes, I Am the true foundation. What does the other rock represent?" As I looked at it, I felt as if I was "impacted" with revelation and I suddenly knew that it represented all the other things that were about Him - but they were not Him.

Again knowing my thoughts, Jesus looked straight at me with a rather piercing look and said, "Yes, you are right. Chris, this rock represents THE PROPHETIC. (I was almost pushed backwards by the forcefulness and volume of His voice and I felt for a moment that He was angry with me. Then, He lowered the tone of his voice and continued.), it represents "full time" ministry, it represents "call to the nations", it represents the callings and destinies of My people., it represents all the things other than Me over which My people have become so passionate and consumed." Then, lowering His voice even more, He said, "Unfortunately, all these things represent the good things about Me which have replaced Me."

I saw Jesus lower His head and there was a moment of silence. Then, He looked at me again and said, "Now that you understand this, you will understand what I must now do." Having said that, He walked across in front of me and stopped in front of the rock under the left foot of the "body". What happened next took place so quickly that I was not able to see all that happened, but Jesus suddenly kicked the rock out from under the left foot of the body of the person and it was gone. Almost immediately, the body fell to it's left and did a perfect belly-flop and impacted the ground hard - hard enough to produce a loud grunt - as the wind was knocked out of it. Then, it just lay there motionless.

(Let's stop for just a moment and think about the scene presented. If a person is standing three feet up in the air because of the size of these rocks and they are spread- legged with their body above and between the rocks, they will have equal weight on each foot. Try this and you will see that it is impossible for this not to be so. If one of the rocks suddenly comes out from under one foot, it will be impossible to regain stability and a bad fall will result.)

I was really concerned for the "body" because of the fall and Jesus simply looked at me and said, "Just observe." So I just stood still and watched. As I looked, the body slowly began to stir and to regain its breath. It slowly stood to its feet and looked at its condition. I saw it hold out its arms and hands and examine the dirt on them and then I saw it look at its soiled clothes, all covered with dirt and debris. As it stood there realizing its condition, it slowly walked over to Jesus and held out its hands and arms to Him, allowing Him to see all the dirt and debris on its clothes and said, "Jesus, we are so sorry we have done this to You. We are so sorry.

At this point, the body was weeping and quivering before the Lord having realized its condition. Then I heard it say, "Lord, please cleanse us of what we have done and heal us of our condition. We are so sorry."

Suddenly, I am back in my office and no longer in the outdoor scene. Again, I hear the Lord's voice but no longer see anything. He said, "In the coming days, My people's greatest desire will be just to sit at My feet and enjoy sweet fellowship with Me. No longer will they have their passions wrapped around the things they do for Me. I will be their greatest passion. Then, I will say to this one, will you go and deliver this message to this group, and I will say to that one, will you go and help this one on the street who is in great need, and I will say to another, will you go and encourage this one who is My sheep. Because of their passion for Me, they will have no desire to leave their place at My feet but they will do as I ask out of their great love for me. They will all go and complete their assignments exactly as I instructed, but when they have completed what I told them to do, their only desire will be to quickly return to their place, sitting at My feet. Never again will they displace their passion for Me to those things that they do for Me. I alone will be their passion."

Then the Lord said, "I am about to give My Body a new revelation of Me". With that, the vision ended.

Note 1: You may wonder about the part where the Lord spoke to me so sternly regarding the prophetic. I am pretty sure that the prophetic was one area where at some point over the last 10 years, I was personally guilty of the very things the Lord was after in this vision. Please do not interpret that part as the Lord not being in favor of the prophetic ministry since that would not be consistent with the written Word.

Note 2: After having the vision, the Lord said later that the reason I could not see the head on the Body was that He was the Head. The Body was not taking its direction from its Head and so it was disconnected from the Head - doing things apart from the Lord's direction. This new revelation of Jesus would re-connect the Body to its real Head.

A New Season of Vindication Begins Now

Dennis Cramer

The Sons of Issachar Have Been Re-Activated!

The Bible tells us little about these prophetic "sons of Issachar" (I Chron.12:32) except that they apparently possessed an incredible prophetic sensitivity to discern, to distinguish, and to truly know the spiritual "now" seasons of God as He moved upon the earth. They were especially adept at knowing what God's people should do, that is, how God's people should respond to the particular season of God they were in at the moment.

"And of the children of Issachar, which had understanding of the times to know what God's people should do…"

As a prophetic "son of Issachar" I declare by the Spirit of God that a wonderful new seven-year season, a "now" season, a "Jubilee" season is upon you right now. It is time "now" to rejoice, for God has made your enemies His footstool! (Ps.110:1) Just think of that: He has made YOUR enemies, HIS footstool. Frightening isn't it?

Today, Today, Today…

Although true prophetic skills must include the ability to know beforehand what God is doing (prophetic foreknowledge), a true son of Issachar will know TODAY what God is doing right here, right now. I have been impressed of the Lord with just such a "now" word for you, a "word in season," a powerful and liberating prophetic word for you TODAY! With this "now" prophetic word there is no waiting required, there will be no delays, and no futuristic application will be necessary. In this case, today means today! Now means now!

Literally, right now, as you read this prophetic declaration God is at work in your life vindicating you. He is busy "behind the scenes" working on your behalf. A new seven-year period of great spiritual release is upon you! Your years of persecution and suffering "for His name's sake"are about to pay off.

The Past Seven Years!

The year 2004 marked the end of a brutal spiritual season for many. At first I did not discern this or the magnitude of this new 2005 supernatural season we are now experiencing. But I now believe it was and is a truly awesome, Church-wide, go-to-the-next-level unprecedented supernatural shift. One supernatural season has ended and a distinctly new and better supernatural season in God has begun!

"One supernatural season has ended and a distinctly new and better supernatural season in God has begun, says the Lord!"

Wounded Soldiers

Unnoticed by most, the Holy Spirit began to move around mid-January, setting off a chain reaction of spiritual events for all who have "endured hardship as a soldier of Jesus Christ." If you've been enduring hardship, if you've been wounded, especially by "friendly fire" this new season is just for you! You're about to be healed.

In a word, this new season is all about vindication. It's not about you exacting vengeance or "getting even." Not at all. Instead, it's about vindication from God for the past seven years as you have endured suffering as His faithful soldier.

Not Guilty!

Yes, you are about to be rewarded. The truth is about to come out, you are about to be freed from alleged charges against you. You are about to be absolved and acquitted. The Lord is about to announce over you, "Not guilty!" Victims are about to rejoice and your accusers are about to be silenced!

You're not being paroled, you're being acquitted!

Back To The Sons of Issachar

This truly invaluable supernatural ability that these prophetic servants possessed to know what God was doing at that precise moment in time in the spirit realm certainly served these "sons" well. This precise prophetic ability is what put them on the prophetic map so to speak. It's what got them noticed, it's what they built their reputation on. They earned the trust of those who listened to them for one simple reason: what they said prophetically was accurate, applicable, beneficial, and most of all very, very timely.

Like a "son of Isacharr" I often find myself writing to the church when I discern a new season is upon Her. I believe we have just entered such a season-a very, very exciting season indeed! I also believe I have a very, very timely word of encouragement for the church. And this includes you!

Your Day Is At Hand!

I believe that countless believers just like you have lived through a seven-year period of great personal hardship, especially in the area of damaged or even severed personal and ministry relationships. All this is going to change rapidly. If you've been victimized by sinners or saints, get ready. Your day is at hand!

Specifically, you have been waiting for vindication from past injustices, betrayals, and abandonments and the subsequent disillusionment it has created.

"Ding-Dong The Witch Is Dead!"

Frankly, the root problem has been about witchcraft in the church. The spirit of witchcraft that has decimated and dissected you is finally being exposed. You paid a great price for your integrity, your character, and your honesty. Yes, it cost you a great deal to be a true follower of Jesus Christ. You may have even appeared to many to be the "bad guy' when in fact you were actually the victim of a spiritual crime. Again, all that is going to change. The Lord would say to you today,

"The days of your morning are over, your Jubilee year is now upon you. I have begun your vindication. It will come swiftly."

Ezekiel said it this way,
"None of my words will be prolonged any more, but the word which I the Lord have spoken to you shall be done now." (Eze.12:28)

A Word For Leaders

I declare prophetically that a season of great vindication and long overdue justice for you, especially if you are one of His leaders, is upon you right now. God has already begun the necessary process of vindicating you. You have suffered betrayal, false accusation, broken promises, and abandonment long enough.

As a result you've been disillusioned about the call of God upon your life far too long. Be encouraged: The Lord is delivering you from the results of past problems, situations, and circumstances that delayed, or in some extreme cases, actually robbed you of your destiny in God. I hear the Lord saying to you,

"All will be as it was suppose to be, says the Lord. There will be no part of your destiny delayed, and no part of your destiny denied. Is there anything too hard for me?"

Vindication, Vindication, Vindication

Indeed, vindication is the key word, the "now" word of the Lord. I hear it in my spirit loud and clear for you. To all His wonderful and wounded warriors, to all who have suffered abuse at the hands of others, the Lord would comfort you with these words in season.

"I am vindicating you now. You are being exonerated now, you are about to experience true justice now."

Power, Gifting and Authority

You are now about to experience the promotion in God you have waited patiently for. The seven years of explosive increase of power, gifting, and authority is yours for the taking. Indeed, you are going to the next level. The promises of God in your life are about to be wonderfully and powerfully fulfilled very quickly.

Your Response?

Now here's the hard part of this prophetic promise, the part you will really need "ears to hear." Often a prophecy's impact is only as good as the response to it. Whether or not this prophecy for the church impacts you personally, depends entirely on your proper and biblical response.

A prophecy's impact is only as good as your response to it.

No doubt you will be asked by God to participate in the healing and restoration of formerly broken relationships, especially with Christians. Please do so graciously and humbly, just as Christ would. Say yes to any and all whom are looking to be reconciled with you.

Olive Branches

I predict that people, saved and unsaved, from your past will soon visit you. They will come with olive branches in their hands looking to establish peace with you. I urge you to accept their offering and participate enthusiastically in the peace process.

God's part during this new seven year season will be to vindicate you in incredible ways. Like Joseph you are coming out of your dungeon and are about to experience God's great favor upon your life, a true season of amazing promotion awaits you.

However, your part, and this is critical, is to "…not rejoice when your enemies fall." (Pro.24:17)

So, welcome to your seven-year Jubilee season!

Blessings,
Denny Cramer
Dennis Cramer Ministries www.denniscramer.net

A New Time Begins

Mary Ellen Gilliland

Wake Up! A New Time Begins!

(Have you been hearing this for a long time...) Keep on going on. Keep on keeping on. This is faithfulness. This is commitment and loyalty....

However, that time has come to an end and a new spurt has begun. Things and seasons change, and when it is time to no longer "keep on," one must wake up and be alert to it in the Spirit. Such a time has come, a time for change in direction. The low time of faithfulness in the wilderness is now over, and the new time has begun and is beginning.

Know and be aware totally that things will change and you must change with them. Familiarity breeds lethargy and restraint.

Do not despise the old period. It was a time of testing of your commitment in bleak circumstances, without full light. But now the picture will brighten. You will have keen understanding--if you shake off your lethargy and be alert, watching. New light will dawn on you and you will see! and be energized by this light. Go forward knowing that this is a time of transition, but quick transition, and you must be ready.

Mary Ellen Gilliland
www.zoebooks.com author@zoebooks.com
Silverthorne, Colorado

A New Way To Pray On Tisha B'Av

Terri Derocher

Saturday August 13, 2005

Dear body of Christ: I sent this out last night and am not sure it has even went out as I sent a copy to myself and haven't received it. I've found a few errors in it this morning plus some went out cc instead of blind carbon copy so I apologize. I still have an urgency about this and feel there is a strategy for victory here, so I am sending it out again. I sent it out last night without even the Love Letters heading. Ha! God is so good and full of grace. So if you got last nights please go through this again—hopefully it's clearer. Love in Jesus Christ- Terri Derocher

Well it is about four hours after sunset and we are in Tisha B'AV which began today, Saturday, at sundown. It ends tomorrow, Sunday, at sundown. For those who don't know the Jewish and therefore biblical significance of this day, this day finishes a season of mourning called the three weeks, which ends tomorrow night. This is a period when many tragedies happened to the Jewish people.

The Three Weeks are considered to be such a terrible (terrifying) time period that marriages aren't allowed. From the 1st of Av (August 6), one is even advised to push off court cases until after the 10th of Av (after August 15th). Jews refrain from hair-cutting, purchasing or wearing new clothing, listening to music and pleasure trips. It is a time for self-reflection and improvement.

Please just go type in Tisha B'Av in your search engine as it is not the point of this word to educate you but I am speaking this forth to you as if you know what I am referring too.

During worship tonight I had decided I was going to begin a fast but was corrected by the Holy Spirit and I wanted share this with you as I believe this is a new strategy for warfare.

Tomorrow it is expected that thousands of Arabs & Jews are to have a showdown on the temple mount. The pull-out from the Gaza is to occur later this week. Concern and I must admit fear over these predicted events was part of the desire for me to fast. But then…..

…I listened to a speaker tonight (who didn't know it was the Ninth of Av) who finished, after a wonderfully encouraging message to intercessors in particular, with a prophetic act. She wanted us to eat apples dipped in honey. I was so grieved as I believed I was called to a fast but then she shared this scripture and revelation came…..as she read from 1 Samuel 14; Saul has just given the warning to his army not to taste food that day until he'd finished taking vengeance on his enemy. Jonathan found honey and ate it (not hearing his father's orders). He remarked that even his eyes lit up and how much greater would the victory had been if ALL had eaten. He felt it had been a foolish declaration as the famished army was exhausted and sinned because of it…go read it all… Well as I said I was in turmoil until these words and then I knew that Saul's way is the old way…..I needed to CELEBRATE what Jesus had done for this Tisha B'AV, for this day, for these times, for these people. He's done a new thing. I needed to feast with the bridegroom and my eyes were brightened and revelation for victory did come. PLEASE celebrate your way through tomorrow. There are terrible things on the horizon…including the pull-out from the Gaza, which I disagree with ..(My opinion) … BUT GOD's got an army marching through this land, they're singing and they're dancing with His victory in their hands. Who is OUR GOD? IS HIS arm to short to SAVE? HE is Victorious. He is our defender! It's a new day, we pray a new way…not in fear…yes we remember the loss… but we have HOPE and His name is Jesus! He IS the WAY. Pray for Israel with this knowledge.

Well it is late and I want to get this out so I will release the double word part tomorrow as it is about you tumble weeds and tomorrow still is Tisha B'AV. THIS is strategy for tomorrow. I trust the Holy Spirit with your response. That's not my business. I've been obedient to share.

I love you body of Christ---Terri Derocher www.LovelettersfromHeaven.com
Remember to Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem!
www.daytopray.com

Generational Rendezvous

Terri Derocher

June 14, 2005

Prayer warriors, mighty men and women of God, you hidden jewels of the Lord, I am here now to speak LIFE into you & hope as I have just made it through another dark place that I had mistakenly believed was a dead end. It was another tunnel, Praise God, and I can now see light up ahead! Like a scout I say to you…..Your moving forward, Your taking ground!

Many, if not most of you, who are reading this now have been on extended assignments (months, years, decades) for the Lord. Some have being praying for right to life issues, some for particular political situations, many for corporate breakthroughs in family and marriage situations, others for a mighty shift – a revelation and revolution of God - to occur in your countries and governments. You have been sliced and diced and in the natural have seen what you perceived as great defeats and dead ends. I am here to say IT ISN"T SO!!!!!!!!!

In isolation you, like Elijah, have believed you are alone in your grief, alone in your seeming defeat, ALONE. Elijah was wrong and so are you!!!!! God's got an army that's marching through the land, God's got an army that's marching through this land (I'm singing and praising the King now) God's got an army that's marching through this land and victory is in HIS hand!

I'm calling forth now ---in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth- a generational RENDEZVOUS (Webster's: 1. betake or present yourselves, a place designated of meeting or assembling, as of troops, ships, airplanes, space vehicles – 3.assemble the troops--!)

You elders in Christ speak it forth, speak it forth, your encouragement is needed now!!! The young ones need your encouragement NOW! However and whatever means God gives you to do it with –DO IT! Tell what it used to be like in the dry bones days…..because the climate is changing, we are making progress. We praise God together that grief over the things that have Long grieved God is now being felt corporately!

We Praise God for the repentance and sorrow that is pouring forth like honey, like oil, like wax, in the Lord's hands. Hard hearts are good for nothing but building a rubble pile, but hearts made of honey can feed the multitudes, hearts like oil can lubricate and move the unmovable, they can soften hard leather and be a provision for the widow and orphan, hearts like wax can be poured out for the Lord's glory. PRAISE HIS HOLY NAME!!!! He is on the throne. When we move as ONE –echad, we are powerful, like a horse powered engine, our increase in strength is phenomenal (2. extremely unusual: extraordinary: highly remarkable, apparent to or perceptible to the senses.)

I hear a train a coming, it's coming round the bend, the forces of hell and darkness are coming to their end. With shrieks of fear and loathing they see your glory shine and know that Christ Lord Jesus, holds in His hands their time! (another song)

DO NOT ABANDON YOUR POSTS!!!!!!!!!! You are accomplishing what the Lord has appointed you to do.

Jesus loves you, I LOVE YOU, the body of Christ loves you. Thank you, thank you, thank you for your faithfulness!
Terri Derocher
http://www.LovelettersfromHeaven.com
Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

A Christmas Prophecy

Bill Somers

Revised 12/06/98

This article is a look at the first coming of Jesus as described and Matthew and Luke, also Isaiah. We need to see how it is a type or prophecy of his Second Coming. That is to say things that happened at his first coming are foreshadows of what will happen at his second coming. Let me make it clear that most of these points refer to Jesus coming spiritually to his Church in the form of a great outpouring leading to a great harvest. This takes place during and after a time of judgment on the Church. In other words the first coming of Jesus speaks of End Time Revival coming to the Church. You may want to go over the passages in Matthew and Luke and Isaiah since we did not include them, to keep this article short. As you do, think of the coming of Jesus as the coming of Revival.

The Christmas Story is a Prophecy!

1. His first coming was foretold by the prophets. His Second Coming is also being foretold by the prophets.
2. Wise men knew when and where to look for him then, Wise men will know when and where to look today.
3. In the fulness of time God sent forth his son. This applies to both the first and second comings. He will come at the appointed time.
4. He was born in a manger. Consider that a manger can mean a crib, or it can mean a stall. A stall can be a booth, as the children of Israel dwelt in booths during the Feast of Tabernacles. A booth is a temporary dwelling like a tent which is another word for tabernacle. But the tabernacle also speaks of God's dwelling place, also his temple or his Church. When he comes again, he will be born into His Church.
5. His coming was with tidings of great comfort and joy. Luke 2:10. This speaks of the comfort and Joy in the Holy Ghost that the church will have in the last days outpouring of the Spirit of God. These will be times of great judgments but those who abide in the Shadow of the Almighty will have a peace that passes all understanding.
6. He was born of a virgin. Matthew 1:23 The Church will be purged and purified in order to show forth his love. The Bride has played the harlot, but she will have to get back her virginity. So that she can become pregnant before the wedding.
7. Shepherds in the field were drawn to him. His Glory blazed about as angels visited them. Luke 2:7-8. This speaks of God's true shepherds, not the hirelings, being drawn into his presence. And coming manifestations of the Shekinah Glory on the Church. Plus angelic visitations and other supernatural happenings.
8. As Joseph was troubled by his wife's pregnancy, the Church world will be troubled by the revival that's coming. Yet the word of the Lord in this case is just as it was with Joseph. Fear not, this is of the Holy Ghost! Just as Mary was pregnant before her wedding, the church will have to be pregnant with Jesus before her wedding.
9. Unto us a child is born. This reference from Isaiah 9:6 takes a new meaning once you see that "US" is the end time Church. Us. And we are symbolized by the woman in Revelation 12 who brings forth a manchild. This is Christ being formed in us and shown forth by us.
10. "She shall bring forth a son [unto us a son is given] who shall save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:21. The coming of the manchild is also the coming of the great end time harvest.
11. "Thou shalt call his name Emmanuel, that is God with us." When Jesus comes to dwell in His Church, he will truly be God with us.
12. Wise men came to Jerusalem from the east. Matthew 2:1. When revival and harvest come there will be many conversions in eastern countries, especially the middle east. Muslims will come to worship him. See Isaiah 60:6-7
13. "When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him." Matthew 2:3 Herod here is a type of Satan, and this speaks of Satan's kingdom being troubled by these events.
14. " and all Jerusalem with him." Matthew 2:3, This also speaks of the established religions being troubled as well.
15. The wise men worshipped with exceeding great joy, Matthew 2:10-11. This will also take place in this revival.

16. When they were come, they opened their treasures. Matthew 2:11. This coming influx of Muslims will greatly enrich the Church.
17. "And being warned of God …." Matthew 2:12. This speaks again of the Muslims receiving a genuine fear of the Lord in their conversion. They do not return to serving satan [Herod] but instead begin to follow a new path and to minister the gospel in their own countries.
18. Matthew 2:13-18 tells of Herod's persecution and attempt to kill the new born messiah. This is a direct parallel to the persecution to come upon the end time Church. See Revelation 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.
19. Matthew 2:19-20 tell of how Jesus comes back to Israel after Herod is dead. When Satan and his kingdom are under his feet, Jesus will return to earth with all the saints and holy angels with him.
20. Mary, the mother of Jesus, is a type of the Church. In Luke 1:35 we read " The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God." This is a description of what is coming upon the Church.
21. "For with God nothing shall be impossible." Luke 1:37 Compare this to Revelation 12:10 " And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, …." 2 Chronicles 6:41 "Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness." To be Clothed with Salvation and to operate in His strength, that is Revival. Then the church will be able to do all that the Lord asks, with God nothing shall be impossible.
22. Luke 1:25 says "Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men." This though spoken by Elizabeth and referring to her pregnancy, also applies to the Church. The reproach on the Church is the exposure of her sin and its judgment. The Lord will remove this reproach by redeeming his people and by bringing in a great harvest.
23. Luke 1:38 says "Behold the handmaid of the lord, be it unto me according to thy word …" Mary says this as a type of the Church! When the Church makes this her confession she will be submitting to the Lordship of Jesus. Some commentators have said that when Mary spoke these words is when she became pregnant. Christ was formed in her. When the Church "speaks" these words Christ will be formed in his people.
24. Luke 1:45 says "And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord." The words 'there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord' when applied to the Church speak of the fulfillment of the prophetic scriptures. This is the Lord keeping his promises and confirming his covenant. See also Luke 1:72.
25. Luke 1:46-55 is Mary's prophetic prayer, [my soul doth magnify the Lord]. It speaks of God's redemption of his people the Church in the end times and the great rejoicing that will go along with that.
26. Luke 1:65-66 speaks of a Fear that came upon all those that dwelt there and how the news spread. This speaks of a Fear of the Lord that comes with revival and spreads wherever revival goes..
27. In Luke 1:67-79 Zacharias gives a long prophecy, [he hath visited and redeemed his people]. What he says here also applies to us. It is a depiction of the End Time work of the Lord in His Church.

Doubtless there are many other points that could be made and comparisons taken. We could go on at great length but would rather not. So you have a lot of pearls in a small package.

I hope these points have provided some insights into the true meaning of Christmas and how it points to the end times.

Arise Oh Judge of the Earth!
Priscilla Van Sutphin

August 3rd, 2005

Ps 94:2-11 NIV Rise up, O Judge of the earth; pay back to the proud what they deserve. 3 How long will the wicked, O LORD, how long will the wicked be jubilant? 4 They pour out arrogant words; all the evildoers are full of boasting. 5 They crush your people, O LORD; they oppress your inheritance. 6 They slay the widow and the alien; they murder the fatherless. 7 They say, "The LORD does not see; the God of Jacob pays no heed." 8 Take heed, you senseless ones among the people; you fools, when will you become wise? 9 Does he who implanted the ear not hear? Does he who formed the eye not see? 10 Does he who disciplines nations not punish? Does he who teaches man lack knowledge? 11 The LORD knows the thoughts of man; he knows that they are futile.

Ps 82:8 AMP Arise, O God, judge the earth! For to You belong all the nations. [Rev 11:15.]
Rev 11:5-6 NIV If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die.

Isa 64:1-6 NKJV A Prayer for Help
Oh, that You would rend the heavens! That You would come down! That the mountains might shake at Your presence — 2 As fire burns brushwood, As fire causes water to boil — To make Your name known to Your adversaries, That the nations may tremble at Your presence! 3 When You did awesome things for which we did not look, You came down, The mountains shook at Your presence. 4 For since the beginning of the world Men have not heard nor perceived by the ear, Nor has the eye seen any God besides You, Who acts for the one who waits for Him. 5 You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness, Who remembers You in Your ways. You are indeed angry, for we have sinned — In these ways we continue; And we need to be saved.
6 But we are all like an unclean thing, And all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags; We all fade as a leaf, And our iniquities, like the wind, Have taken us away. 7 And there is no one who calls on Your name, Who stirs himself up to take hold of You; For You have hidden Your face from us, And have consumed us because of our iniquities. 8 But now, O LORD, You are our Father; We are the clay, and You our potter; And all we are the work of Your hand. 9 Do not be furious, O LORD,

“ You know oh Beloveds that it is I Who spreads out the heavens and treads the waves of the sea ! There is no other like ME. I AM the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End and nothing is there that is hid from MY EYES.
My eyes roam to and fro throughout the earth seeking the one who will stir themselves up and ask for the grace to take hold of all My promises ! I have laid out a map. The Word is your compass – The living Word, and the Written Word are both important to walk according to the Spirit in you and not according to the flesh.

I have given you My grace. My grace is sufficient for you, when You cannot seemingly do anything about your circumstances. I am only doing what you have asked. You have asked to be more like Me. I am with you. I have not left you. I am here and listening to your every thought and cry of your heart, and even to the silence, when you cannot imagine what to say ! I AM CHRIST in you , the hope of glory. Speak forth My scriptures ! Use them to war with. SPEAK THEM FORTH into the heavens. PROPHESY My sons and daughters ! It is time to sound TRUMPETS – In the natural and in the spiritual ! Speak forth also to the world the truth of what I have told you.

Do not fear their faces ! Realize that I am is with you. EMMANUEL…GOD WITH YOU ! Change will suddenly be upon you ! And as you daily do what I’ve given you to do, I will SUDDENLY BREAK FORTH ! I will suddenly lay hold of My bride and astound the wisdom of the haughty and arrogant ! Ask for the Spirit of MIGHT ! Ask for the Spirit of the Fear of the LORD ! Ask for Wisdom. I AM

WISDOM. Anything you need is found in ME. Abide in ME, and I will abide in you ! PROCLAIM the acceptable year of the LORD !

Call out for MY JUSTICE ! I will answer. I will take you to the end of YOURSELF so that only what I want in you is fully realized. Don't listen to the voices of skepticism and doubt and unbelief that pervade the world and try to discourage you in this hour. KNOW THE WORD. KNOW the TRUTH and it will set you free. It will also KEEP you free. Keep your hearts pure from the love of money. For the root of all evil is the love of money. Know that MY PROVISION is ENOUGH ! I don't ask you to do anything that I don't provide for.

ARISE TO NEW HOPE MY BELOVEDS ! You are in an incredible time of history. Soon the trumpet will sound in the heavens ! Come unto me and bring into ME, all those who are wounded, all those who are broken and I will give them rest for their souls. REACH OUT and do not be afraid of what is coming. Only keep your head on My chest that I may tell you of things you do not know ! I will show you great and mighty things ! I will sustain you though the earth around you languishes and reels to and fro ! I will keep you as the apple of My eye. ARISE and show them who I AM ! Let your prayers and praise arise !!! The earth will open and salvation will spring forth !"

Isa 45:8-11 NKJV "Rain down, you heavens, from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness;
Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.
9 "Woe to him who strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'? 10 Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you begetting?' Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?'" 11 Thus says the LORD, The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: "Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons; And concerning the work of My hands, you command Me.

Ps 9:19-10:1 NKJV Arise, O LORD, Do not let man prevail; Let the nations be judged in Your sight. 20 Put them in fear, O LORD, That the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah

Ps 10:12-14 NKJV Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand! Do not forget the humble. 13 Why do the wicked renounce God? He has said in his heart, "You will not require an account." 14 But You have seen, for You observe trouble and grief, To repay it by Your hand. The helpless commits himself to You; You are the helper of the fatherless.

Ps 74:22-23 NKJV Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; Remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily. 23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies; The tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

Upstream Ministries
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Abundance of Me

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Feb 23rd, 2005 1:53 am
www.upstreamca.org

Just before I sat down with the Lord, I went outside to stick an envelope in the mailboxes and forgot to take my keys, but locked the door. It took till now to get someone to let me in.

The Lord spoke, "abundance of ME"….then, "I have an abundance of Me to give to you. I am not slack concerning My promises. Awakening is near and he who has ears hear - for I am coming like a MIGHTY RUSHING WIND once again. I will shake the heavens and the earth, and I will turn all who will to the Desire of All Nations! Do you hear the sound of the abundance of rain?

Havoc is coming upon the earth. His horse thunders across the earth to cause confusion and to distract you away from what is most important. Remember when this awakening begins to keep your thoughts on ME. For great turmoil, confusion, and insanity will be with him to stupefy and try to paralyze those who come to ME. Even as I loose My glory will another rise to try to take away the focus to himself, mimicking and causing signs and wonders as well.

But know this, that those who are truly IN ME, will be safe from all that confusion and insanity. Stay close My beloveds to Your King during these times so that what is in the world will not overcome you. Come to me now while I may be found. Come and commune with ME. REST in ME so that when all these things come about, you will be grounded firmly in My love.

As I loose My Spirit in awakening world wide, you will be catapulted into what I've planned for you since the beginning of time. Each has his own role to play in what is coming about. Do not look at how important someone else is. Do not be given to comparison with others. EACH PERSON is needed and valuable to the Kingdom. Just ask ME what is your role, and do that to the best of your ability.

Again, I tell you, refrain from looking at what is on another's plate. Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. Ask to be filled with My love and to be one with MY HEART, so that you may walk in the fullness of what I have for you. I am blowing on My garden and I will blow away all the clutter, all the strongholds, so that My bride is arrayed in the fullness of My love and all that I desire for her to have in Me.

Startling miracles are coming as you reach out and help others who are confused by the circumstances of life. Healing anointing will flow even in the children to such a degree as to amaze those who are outside of My love! I will use whomever I will to bring many to ME in this hour. Do not be afraid My beloveds. I AM WITH YOU. And I will be with you until the end. Grow in dependence on ME. Keep in close communion with ME. Submit your lives to ME so that I can be glorified in all you say and do. Step by step, you will See amazing things in this hour! Keep your eyes fixed on ME. I will take my stand on the earth!"

153 – fruit bearing, the sons of God, number of revival

Briss

Priscilla Van Sutphin

November 24th, 2005

Rom 2:29 AMP But he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and [true] circumcision is of the heart, a spiritual and not a literal [matter]. His praise is not from men but from God.

Gal 2:14-16 NKJV But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, why do you compel Gentiles to live as Jews? 15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

I am the Father of all flesh. I AM the One and only True God. I sent My Son to die and in that death, there was a rending of the old, and an establishment of a new foundation, a new and better covenant. Man is not justified by the law, but by FAITH in CHRIST. I am in process of cutting out the dependency on religion in My church. It is full of witchcraft that is related to accusing others, judging others, and full of hypocrisy, focusing on law instead of FAITH and TRUTH. There is mixture and compromise, because men have strayed from the truth seeking to please men instead of Me. I do not dominate and control. I do not judge, but have given all judgment to My Son. I am circumcising HEARTS that you might be restored to TRUTH. For the law came through Moses, but truth and grace came through My Son.

My grace has been trampled long enough. My grace has been even denied and obliterated in some churches, and in others it has been trampled on, with Nicolaitan values being taught, as if holiness was a small thing. I said that without holiness, no man would see Me. I said to be HOLY as I am holy; to walk in the light as I am in the light! I have poured out measures of glory as you worship, and you have wondered because what has come in measure is revealing the hardness of your hearts, and the pollution that is still there.
I am not doing this to make you depressed or overcome with sorrow, but to expose what is not in the light. By exposing, you can take it to the Cross and be healed. By acknowledging your lack, you can be circumcised in heart and restored to right relationship. There can be CELEBRATION as at a Briss!
Celebrate that your sins are being uncovered and brought to the light! For I am sanctifying you with My glory!

I am making a more perfect vessel with which I can subdue My enemies!
My LOVE endures forever, and I will continue to pour out My glory, and continue to sanctify My BRIDE till she shines with My radiance and glory!
I am committed to it, and I will not stop till your heart's desire to be ONE with ME is fulfilled. My heart's desire is even greater than your own. Will you come INTO MY HEART? Will you desire what I desire? Will you come with thankfulness for all I am doing? For I am desirous for intimacy with you. I long for Union and I know what it takes to make you into the Bride My Son has longed for!

He is standing up. He is standing up, readying Himself to walk with you. He is anxious to fulfill the desire of Our hearts to be one with you. I am GRACIOUS, and slow to anger. I am filled with longing for My BRIDE. I am wanting many more to be part of this great ceremony. I have NATIONS to give you! I have NATIONS I want to subdue. I have many treasures in dark places I want to restore to My HEART! Will you lay down your life to bring Me these treasures? Will you GO for Us to demonstrate My love to the NATIONS of the earth? I am standing at the door, and I am knocking, for I have a HARVEST of souls to bring into My HEART! THEY ARE HUNGRY and have been imprisoned by the enemy. They are longing for FREEDOM. They do not know LOVE. They have only known oppression and injustice, and control and domination. But I have FREEDOM and LOVE for them. My heart is longing to show them MY MERCY!

Will you pray? Will you GO? WILL YOU LOVE those whom I love? Will you give up the things you are holding onto so hard, and let me show you greater things? Will you stop being so busy, that you block out My voice?
Will you come aside to MY inner chamber and rest with ME, and listen to the still small voice? I have many secrets to tell you My Bride! I have much wisdom to share with you, much understanding! Will you lay down all the busyness, and fray? Will you ALLOW ME to orchestrate your time, your ways, your life? Am I really Your Adonai? Will you let me lead in this DANCE of life? Or will you take control again? Remember, that life does not consist in the abundance of THINGS you have. LIFE that is abundant, is life IN ME. I AM Your Resource for all you need.

1 Peter 2:9-10 NKJV But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood , a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; 10 who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Ezek 44:28 NKJV "It shall be, in regard to their inheritance, that I am their inheritance. You shall give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

Thru Priscilla Van Sutphin
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Lionhearted Lovers
Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 25th, 2004
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Isa 1:4-31 AMP

The Lord said to me "Lionhearted lovers ", and asking Him what He wanted to say about this, this is what He said :

"I am drawing to Myself those who will love me with their whole heart, and whole soul, and whole mind and whole body! I am wanting lionhearted lovers who will be passionate in their pursuit of Me, and passionate in their obedience to My will."

Then this song came to mind, " When somebody loves you, it's no good unless they love you, ALLLLL the time!"

"The whole body of My church as well as the nation, are sick from the head to the feet. And the fear of me is not in you. (Jer 2:19) I am visiting My church who is called by My name and I will restore to her all the locusts have eaten. I will restore to those who are willing to BEND to My will, in their hearts, all the ground the enemy has taken in their hearts and souls. I will have a spotless bride! I love you My sons and daughters and I will not allow this lack to go on! I am for you and not against you, but the threshing floors must be purged so that TRUE Shepherds will come forth to minister to My flocks.

I am not slack as some count slack concerning My promises. But the wealth you have been used to in this nation is speedily coming to an end. Be wise in your dealings and understand MY WORD! If you want love, you give love. If you want mercy, then give mercy. Whatever you want men to do to you, then treat them the same. If you were homeless, would you want a can of food, or a warm dinner? If you had no clothes, would you like torn, worn, clothing, or would you like something new for your child, for example? Give as you would like to be given to yourself!

Do not forget the poor, the widow, the fatherless, I've said, yet for years and years you have forgotten them and built your own kingdoms. You have not taken in the poor to your homes, nor have many of you bandaged the wounds of the broken hearted. So I am coming to pour out MY LOVE that you would learn to love the way I have loved you! And to those who have taken time to bandage the wounds of the poor and lowly, the discarded and rejected, and tried to love them, I will give you MORE of all you've received, that you may steward the resources of heaven in the days ahead. For the needs will be great in this nation.

Changes are coming in the nations, and your hearts will be tested beyond anything you have imagined. So I am calling to you, wooing you, I have asked you to draw near, that you might be filled with MY strength and grace to endure what lies ahead. Do not hesitate any longer. Do not be too busy to take time with ME. Any time you spend with ME is NOT WASTED! Believe me when I say that you will be most thankful that you did as the time draws nearer to My coming!

Learn to live simply. Do not think I will not be watching who is generous and who is stingy with the things they have. It is not wrong to have nice things My children, but when the things have you, there is a problem. Lay down your life and pick up MINE! Foxes have holes and birds have nests, but the Son of man had no place to lay his head. Be aware that you may be entertaining angels in the days ahead.

Zech 11:3-6 NKJV

I will take those who are lionhearted lovers of the Most High and will keep them and place them in positions to feed My flocks and will provide all that is needed to do the work in this hour. But know that what is required more than money is a heart like MINE.

People can get through ANYTHING if they know they are loved and truly cared for! The days of giving 5 minutes here and there are gone. FEED MY SHEEP. SEARCH OUT THOSE THAT ARE LOST and scattered on every high hill and mountain, for I am RESTORING the ancient foundations. I will establish MY WILL and I will establish TRUTH again in those who are really Mine. Do not think I desire unity at all costs. TRUTH is the dividing line My beloveds. You must love the truth, and embrace the truth and live the truth! Do not call good evil and evil good any longer.

For now I am coming with My terrible swift sword, and I will level the mountains of opposition to My will and TRUTH will prevail in the hearts of those who truly love Me.

Ex 18:20-22 NKJV
Ps 85:10-12 NKJV
Ps 86:11 NKJV

Healing will flow like Niagara falls in the day ahead and you will see all your hearts have longed for. Be careful not to take the glory for yourself. You will see astounding miracles and righteousness will be restored to My temples. You will be trees of righteousness and bring much healing to the nations of this earth. It is a time to WORSHIP ME in the beauty of HOLINESS. Proclaim My Word with confidence for it to bring signs and wonders!

Ps 111:1 NKJV Praise the LORD! I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

Ps 119:2 NKJV
Ps 9:1-5 NKJV
Ps 119:58-64 NKJV
Ps 119:69 NKJV
Ps 119:145-150 NKJV
Ps 138:1-2 NKJV
Jer 3:10 AMP Jer 3:12 AMP Jer 24:7 AMP

APATHY, COMPLACENCY and SOMNOLENCE

Definitions:

APATHY: Etymology: Greek apatheia, from apathEs without feeling, from a- + pathos emotion -- more at PATHOS

1 : lack of feeling or emotion : IMPASSIVENESS 2 : lack of interest or concern : INDIFFERENCE

Main Entry: in·dif·fer·ence Function: noun 1 : the quality, state, or fact of being indifferent

INDIFFERENT - regarded as neither good nor bad

1 : marked by impartiality : UNBIASED 2 a : that does not matter one way or the other b : of no importance or value one way or the other

3 a : marked by no special liking for or dislike of something b : marked by a lack of interest, enthusiasm, or concern for something : APATHETIC

4 : being neither excessive nor inadequate : MODERATE

5 a : being neither good nor bad : MEDIOCRE
b : being neither right nor wrong

6 : characterized by lack of active quality : NEUTRAL

7 a : not differentiated b : capable of development in more than one direction; especially : not yet embryologically determined - in·dif·fer·ent·ly adverb synonyms INDIFFERENT, UNCONCERNED, INCURIOUS, ALOOF, DETACHED, DISINTERESTED mean not showing or feeling interest. INDIFFERENT implies neutrality of attitude from lack of inclination, preference, or prejudice . UNCONCERNED suggests a lack of sensitivity or regard for others' needs or troubles . INCURIOUS implies an inability to take a normal interest due to dullness of mind or to self-centeredness . ALOOF suggests a cool reserve arising from a sense of superiority or disdain for inferiors or from shyness

DETACHED implies an objective attitude achieved through absence of prejudice or selfishness

DISINTERESTED implies a circumstantial freedom from concern for personal or especially financial advantage that enables one to judge or advise without bias

Main Entry: im·pas·sive

1 a archaic : unsusceptible to pain b : unsusceptible to physical feeling : INSENSIBLE c : unsusceptible to or destitute of emotion : APATHETIC 2 : giving no sign of feeling or emotion : EXPRESSIONLESS synonyms IMPASSIVE, STOIC, PHLEGMATIC, APATHETIC, STOLID mean unresponsive to something that might normally excite interest or emotion. IMPASSIVE stresses the absence of any external sign of emotion in action or facial expression .

STOIC implies an apparent indifference to pleasure or especially to pain often as a matter of principle or self-discipline .

PHLEGMATIC implies a temperament or constitution hard to arouse .

APATHETIC may imply a puzzling or deplorable indifference or inertness . STOLID implies an habitual absence of interest, responsiveness, or curiosity

Complacent

1 : SELF-SATISFIED feeling or showing self-satisfaction

2 : COMPLAISANT 1 : marked by an inclination to please or oblige
2 : tending to consent to others' wishes

3 : UNCONCERNED 1 : not involved : not having any part or interest
2 : not anxious or upset : free of worry

Distemper
Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 29th, 2004
tearsofthefather@comcast.net www.upstreamca.org

Prov 16:32 KJV He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

Temper/anger
OT:639 'aph (af); from OT:599; properly, the nose or nostril; hence, the face, and occasionally a person; also (from the rapid breathing in passion) ire: KJV - anger (-gry), before, countenance, face, forebearing, forehead, [long-] suffering, nose, nostril, snout, worthy, wrath.

OT:599 'anaph (aw-naf'); a primitive root; to breathe hard, i.e. be enraged: KJV - be angry (displeased).

Prov 19:11 NKJV

In asking the Lord if He had something to say, He spoke "distemper".

"Recently it is believed to be the culprit in the death of a number of African lions". See:
http://www.vetinfo.com/dencyclopedia/dedistemper.html

Also this article has all the details about the RNA virus that causes it and other information that may be helpful for other than spiritual reasons.
http://www.animalhealthchannel.com/distemper/index.shtml#transmission

The Lion is a symbol of the apostolic ministry. And I felt when I read about the lions suffering from this, that the Lord was impressing upon me, that the true apostles in the land that he is raising up across the world, have had a certain frustration going on in them about the conditions of the church and the world. But that letting that frustration develop into anger, other than righteous anger is a bit like Jonah when he didn't want to go to Ninevah. He knew the kindness of the Lord, but his heart was not one with God's heart towards the PEOPLE of Ninevah. For the Lord is not willing that any should perish.

"So what do you want to say Father?" I asked. And I heard…

"Many of you now are going through treatment for distemper. Your anger has infected you and turned to pride and resentment, and unless you get some "shots" of My love to your heart and soul, you will not fulfill the call on your life. I am not frustrated easily by your own weaknesses or sin. Yet many of you have judged others unjustly without recognition of your own sin and weaknesses. I am SLOW to anger and full of kindness and I am not given to wrath easily. Though there is plenty to be angry about in the world today. Things are proceeding as expected and foreseen."

Joel 2:13 NKJV
Nah 1:3 NKJV
Ps 145:8-9 NKJV
Ps 103:8-10 NKJV
Prov 15:18 NKJV

"Many of you, I have intention of using to correct the problems in the church, but if you are sent to correct you must do it with no selfish ambition or vengeance in your hearts. You must go in LOVE and obedience, and not because you have "an axe to grind". You cannot have resentment in your heart for what has been done to you, or what I HAVE ALLOWED to soften you and break your pride. Oh yes, some of you are still mad at ME for allowing things in your life that made you the person you are!!! But you are not seeing the whole picture that I see.

Many have rejected you because I was making you more and more like ME.

Many have rejected you because of the calling on your life, out of jealousy and their own selfish ambition. Many have been slain in the sanctuaries, and bludgeoned by the greed of those building their own kingdoms. But I have a miraculous plan. For I have said that if you share in My SUFFERING, that you will also share in My GLORY!

So cast aside all your anger and all your bitterness My sons and daughters, for nothing that has happened to you will be for nought in the days ensuing. If you will repent of your bitterness and anger, and resentment towards ME, and others, I will use you mightily to bring down the plans of the enemy and to reap the great harvest of the centuries. But if you continue in anger and ill speaking and bitterness of heart. You will be PASSED OVER. ASK and it shall be given you! Knock and the door will be opened! Just ask Me, and I will heal the brokenness of your heart. Come away with Me and LET ME touch you! And all that has happened will be reversed and you will see Divine reversals in your life and circumstances. Inquire of Me, and I will show you all you need to do."

Lamentations 3:1-42 NKJV

"REALIZE My sons and daughters, that I love you immeasurably, and beyond anything you can imagine. There is no one that loves you as I do. I was not wanting pain or discomfort and oppression in your life. Yet many of you in your bitterness of heart have come to expect pain and lack of comfort because of the things you have suffered. I AM WANTING TO RESTORE all things. I have said that the knowledge of ME will cover the earth. I want you to change your expectations to fit with MINE for you. I want you to believe how much I love you and am for you!"

Isa 11:9-12 NIV
Ps 106:32-33 NKJV
Ps 55:11-13 NKJV
Ps 55:9-10 NKJV
Ps 31:20 NKJV

Prognostication
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Nov 27th, 2005
Isa 47:12-14 NKJV "Stand now with your enchantments and the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth — Perhaps you will be able to profit, perhaps you will prevail. 13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels; Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, and the monthly prognosticators stand up and save you from what shall come upon you. 14 Behold, they shall be as stubble, The fire shall burn them; They shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; It shall not be a coal to be warmed by, Nor a fire to sit before!

The Lord said "prognostication" and I asked what He wanted to say about that…

have some of My own prognostication to reveal. You already have the whole story, but you don't have details. I have some things to share with you so that you can be encouraged in getting through the times ahead. I want you to know that I am a good Husbandman, and I never neglect My bride.
I wouldn't abandon you in the midst of trials and pain. I wouldn't neglect you, nor deceive you, nor trick you. Just as a good husband doesn't ignore his wife, neither do I neglect My own. I am close to those who desire to be close to Me. I'm as close as anyone can get, because you are the temple of the Holy Spirit. And Holy Spirit and I are ONE. So I feel what you feel. I know your going out and coming in. I know everything you think and do and will do.

My beloveds will volunteer in the day of My power I've said. You will be willing volunteers because you will perceive, and see the direction that I am taking you, and the signs of the times. You know that there is little time left, and I need everyone who is willing to go for Us. For there is harvesting to do. There is much teaching and cleaning of fish to do! I have called to My army and I am about to bring in a flood of NEW RECRUITS. These new recruits will need wisdom and understanding and knowledge that I have trained you with. You will need much patience and love and to be filled with My Spirit to be able to handle all that will come. You need to be filled with My WORD, to discern who is sent by ME, and who is a plant of the enemy.

I don't want you to be overwhelmed by all that I will do, so I'm telling you now, that it will be a FLOOD, a FLOOD of souls, such as has never been seen.
Denominational barriers will be destroyed in this flood, even as the levees collapsed in New Orleans, there will be a collapse of all walls that are NOT of ME. I told you the form is not important, because what is important is love, and relationship with ME. If your relationship with ME is in order, then your outreach to others will be in righteousness, peace and joy. But if you neglect your time with ME, you will be confused, distracted easily and get off base with what I WANT you to do! You need to keep CHRIST MINDED.
You need to keep your mind STAYED on ME. In this way you will keep in perfect peace, when the rest of the world is in dismay and despair, and in panic, and insanity from all that is coming on the world.

I tell you that you MUST keep your mind on ME. You must keep up daily disciplines to not get distracted. Worship is KEY to breaking down the witchcraft that is growing in the earth. WATCH WHAT YOU SAY. Watch what you speak with your mouth! Ask for grace to keep free from double-mindedness. For the enemy is busy trying to sow seeds of doubt everywhere he can to try to destroy FAITH. Lies and lying spirits are everywhere, trying to destroy all they can. You must stay in my word. EAT the WORD.
Meditate on the Word. Speak MY WORD out loud, and pray it. Get it into you that you may use it in POWER to destroy every rampart of the enemy!

Do not push against each other. Be willing to yield to those who are humble, and willing to work together. Do not give in to competitions and jealousies.
There will be more than enough work to do. REMEMBER THAT LOVE IS THE GREATEST! It is the greatest weapon against all the strategies of the enemy. So love one another as I have loved you and been patient with you! Stand against all defensive pride and do not give in to arrogance and strife. Impatience has grown and frustration abounds. But I have called you to patience and forbearance. So ask for MY GRACE daily, hourly, and however often you need it. I've given you an open door to ask for it whenever you need it. GRACE is always available to you! Quickly forgive, and let no root of bitterness fester. Keep forbearing with those who are weaker and in need of much grace. Remember you once were also new in ME, and knew very little yourself. Ask ME for how to help one another. Ask ME for all you need, for I AM HERE FOR YOU! Ask and you shall receive for I love you and My love endures FOREVER!

tearsofthefather@comcast.net
www.upstreamca.org

Liberty Is Coming!
Priscilla Van Sutphin

www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net
July 2nd, 2005

I heard " Liberty is coming" and then thoughts went back to reading Patrick Henry today on a site and the phrase, "Give me liberty or give me death!" came to mind.

Then the Lord spoke:

I am coming to give you the ultimate FREEDOM from all the devices of the enemy. I will remove the things that hinder you, and I want you to cry out for that liberty! I want you to know that I'm listening for such cries of desperation in My beloveds! I am not far off. I am a GOD close at hand.

I see the pain and torment of My people. I have the perfect timing arranged for this act of LIBERTY! Know that I am NOT negligent in My duties as many of you are. I am FAITHFUL, even when you are not able to be as faithful as you would like. I know that there are strongholds over your soul that limit your ability to be as fruitful and obedient as you would like!

Do not give rest till it is established in your heart! Keep on crying out! Keep on asking and rest in your spirit to know that I have heard and am already working on the answers and I will do all that your heart desires in wanting freedom from the enemy. CLING TO ME My beloveds! CLING TO the ONE WHO LOVES YOU AS NO OTHER LOVES YOU! Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. Worship ME and come into My courts with PRAISE and thanksgiving and I will restore all the enemy has stolen.

Cry out for hearts that are still ASLEEP in this nation! CRY OUT for those who are numbed by all that is happening! SPEAK THE WORD and storm the gates of the enemy! GATHER TOGETHER and PRAY and WEEP for the daughter of your people! This nation will celebrate Independence Day, but the judgment for choosing to be independent from ME will surely come and people will be shattered for the way that it comes!

CRY OUT FOR HUMILITY!
CRY OUT FOR REPENTANCE!
CRY OUT FOR CONVICTION!
CRY OUT FOR SOULS!
CRY OUT FOR GRACE TO OVERCOME ALL THAT IS COMING UPON YOU!
CRY OUT FOR THE YOUTH OF THIS NATION!

There are evil plans already in play to indoctrinate them in evil. And the enemy has already stolen the majority of them into the world and the lusts of the flesh. He has indoctrinated them into humanism through the schools and television. Pray that the eyes would be opened and their ears would be opened. Pray that GLORY WILL FALL in AWAKENING on this nation as the next swift blow comes. OPEN YOUR MOUTHS and TESTIFY of ME in this season whenever you are in the marketplace!

But it is a time of coming aside to ME for healing and restoration. It is a time of introspection and quietness and rest, and of seeking MY FACE that

You may be filled to the full with ME. I WILL RESTORE MY BRIDE and you will go forth singing and with GREAT JOY as I release the chains that have bound you. A NEW WIND IS BLOWING. The hot summer winds have come and the SON is shining on AMERICA. I have listened to the watchmen on the walls and I am bringing a wind of CHANGE. THOUGH there will be destruction from the enemy, there will be a RESTORATION in this nation of godliness amidst the turmoil and sadness, there will come a wave of HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD in those called to MY KINGDOM! The kingdoms of this world will become the Kingdoms of Christ. Nations will be saved in one day! WATCH, for the season of escalation has come! The LION of JUDAH ROARS out of HIS abode! He will ROAR over His people and HE WILL BRING LIBERTY! NO MORE SILENCING OF THE LAMBS!

HE WILL ROAR OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF HIS PEOPLE! HE WILL ROAR OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF THE YOUTH OF THE NATIONS! HE WILL GIVE VOICE to silence the enemy's reign in the lives of others. He will show great and marvelous works to the children of men! Signs and wonders and miraculous displays of His power will astound the masses. Hold on, HOLD ON! BE STRONG in the power of HIS MIGHT! DEPEND ON THE LORD FOR HE IS YOUR STRONG TOWER, AND THE STRENGTH OF YOUR RIGHT ARM! HE WILL NOT LEAVE YOU COMFORTLESS! ARISE AND SHINE FOR BEHOLD THE BRIDEGROOMS STEPS DOWN FROM HIS THRONE. HE WILL SPEAK SWEET WORDS TO HIS BRIDE, BUT TO THE WICKED HE WILL BECOME A TERROR! TO THOSE CALLED TO BE HIS, HE WILL REVEAL HIMSELF. HE WILL SPEAK TO HIS OWN IN LOVINGKINDNESS AND TENDERNESS, BUT TO THE WICKED THEY WILL BE TORMENTED.

"Liars and Swindlers"

Priscilla Van Sutphin

June 25th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Mark 16:17-18 NKJV And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; 18 they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

2 Thess 2:8-12 NKJV The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The Lord said to me, "Liars and Swindlers" so I asked Him what He wanted to talk about regarding that and He had me look up some scriptures then said, "The work of the LIAR has increased in the earth, the rebellious one, who was from the beginning deceitful in his heart and desired to ascend to the heights and assume position and power and fame. I have spoken many times of a time coming of glory and power, but know My children that the abomination that deceives is already in My house. It has defiled My temples and continues to deceive and lie, and steal and swindle My sons and daughters. Many have hearts and consciences that are seared because they have loved the creature rather than the CREATOR! You cannot serve TWO MASTERS I've told you. But how easily My people are deceived!

I AM YOUR EXCEEDINGLY GREAT REWARD I'VE SAID. BUT FOR MANY, AFFIRMATION, POWER, POSITION AND POPULARITY, AND MAMMON ARE GOD. I gave to the priests of the temple an inheritance of ME. Yet many in My church have been lured by the world, and fame and power of this world and the desire for earthly possessions. They have forsaken the truth of My words which say to store up treasures in HEAVEN where moth and rust do not decay. I said that where your treasure is , there your heart is also. If money is your treasure, and the things of this earth which will decay and be destroyed, then you are not serving ME, but serving your own desires.

It is not that I don't wish to give lovely things to my children just as you do. But do you wish for yourself riches more than you wish to see the hunger of a starving child relieved? Do you arrogantly walk by the starving and homeless, without care or concern? Do the shepherds of MY PASTURES take care of the sheep who are weak and burdened down? Or do they make fat their own pockets without caring for the outcome of those who tithe and make great sacrifices to give to them? Will My hand be restrained forever? What is in the world is no different from what is in MY church!

It should not be so My beloveds. I have called you higher, to walk in a path that is narrow. I said that FEW find it! Can you see why? For the cares of this world have burdened down many, and they have strayed from true FAITH because of it. So I MUST make changes that will bring down the IDOLATRY in My church. I will replace the shepherds who only feed themselves and are not concerned for the flocks of the Lord! Cry out for their souls and be careful that you do not judge them, for those who judge will be judged. Weep for them and cry out for them. Lay all your opinions down and take up the cross. Speak My word and speak out restoration of the ancient paths. I will raise up repairers of the breech! I will raise up those who will hold up a higher standard – MY STANDARD!

It is not in the form, but in the TRUTH. For false prophets abound, and false teachers abound, mixing new age practices with the Word of God as if they had anything in common. My people PERISH for lack of vision and because they choose to believe what they want. The backslider is filled with HIS OWN ways. I WILL REMOVE THE PLAGUE FROM MY CHURCH AND I WILL RESTORE MY RULE AND REIGN FOR I AM DETERMINED TO HAVE A SPOTLESS BRIDE. And those who do not consider the things that are on MY heart will fade away from My favor. The very ones who are deluded will turn and persecute those that want to live from a PURE HEART!

Jealousy will rise up against you when I pour out My glory! Lying signs and wonders will try to draw people away from the truth even more. But the TRUTH will prevail! I AM THE WAY THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE. I WILL DRAW ALL MEN TO MYSELF. The tsunami of My love is coming and it will flow out to those who are humble in heart and to those who are broken and bruised and defiled with GREAT GRACE and amazing signs and miracles. To those who know the TRUTH of My word, there will be discernment to know.

I said IF IT WERE POSSIBLE, they would deceive the elect. But I will make clear to My own the TRUTH and release discernment. Love will conquer and I will release a GREAT HARVEST OF SOULS in the earth.

Arise from your hopelessness and worry and fear! Arise for the Lord will be SEEN upon you! You will go FORTH with great power and glory to harvest the nations, and the liars and deceivers will regret their folly and many will repent when I come. Do not hold back your hearts from mercy and remember to look to ME in all that you do. DEPEND ON MY thoughts and MY heart to show you what it is you are to do. Walk in union with ME, in intimacy with ME, and you will not be deceived, and you will lack no good thing!

Matt 24:24-25 NKJV For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. 25 See, I have told you beforehand.

2 Cor 12:11-12 NKJV Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds.

Rev 21:7-8 NKJV But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

Titus 1:10-16 NKJV The Elders' Task For there are many insubordinate, both idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn from the truth. 15 To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled. 16 They profess to know God, but in works they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, and disqualified for every good work.

Rev 2:2-4 NKJV "I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; 3 and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary.

1 Tim 4:2-5 NIV Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron. 3 They forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and who know the truth. 4 For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, 5 because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.

Mic 6:12-16 NIV Her rich men are violent; her people are liars and their tongues speak deceitfully. 13 Therefore, I have begun to destroy you, to ruin you because of your sins. 14 You will eat but not be satisfied; your stomach will still be empty. You will store up but save nothing, because what you save I will give to the sword. 15 You will plant but not harvest; you will press olives but not use the oil on yourselves, you will crush grapes but not drink the wine. 16 You have observed the statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house, and you have followed their traditions. Therefore I will give you over to ruin and your people to derision; you will bear the scorn of the nations."

Isa 57:4-5a NIV Whom are you mocking? At whom do you sneer and stick out your tongue? Are you not a brood of rebels, the offspring of liars? 5 You burn with lust among the oaks and under every spreading tree;

Ps 63:11 NIV But the king will rejoice in God; all who swear by God's name will praise him, while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

The Ministry of Death
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 24th, 2005 11:11 pm

All today the Lord has been confirming the call to death to self in what I've been reading. Then tonight He said " Ministry of death".

Ps 102:19-21 AMP For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary, from heaven did the Lord behold the earth, 20 To hear the sighing and groaning of the prisoner, to loose those who are appointed to death, 21 So that men may declare the name of the Lord in Zion and His praise in Jerusalem.

2 Cor 4:5-12 AMP
5 For what we preach is not ourselves but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves [merely] as your servants (slaves) for Jesus' sake. 6 For God Who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts so as [to beam forth] the Light for the illumination of the knowledge of the majesty and glory of God [as it is manifest in the Person and is revealed] in the face of Jesus Christ (the Messiah). [Gen 1:3.] 7 However, we possess this precious treasure [the divine Light of the Gospel] in [frail, human] vessels of earth, that the grandeur and exceeding greatness of the power may be shown to be from God and not from ourselves. 8 We are hedged in (pressed) on every side [troubled and oppressed in every way], but not cramped or crushed; we suffer embarrassments and are perplexed and unable to find a way out, but not driven to despair; 9 We are pursued (persecuted and hard driven), but not deserted [to stand alone]; we are struck down to the ground, but never struck out and destroyed; 10 Always carrying about in the body the liability and exposure to the same putting to death that the Lord Jesus suffered, so that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be shown forth by and in our bodies. 11For we who live are constantly [experiencing] being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, that the [resurrection] life of Jesus also may be evidenced through our flesh which is liable to death. 12 Thus death is actively at work in us, but [it is in order that our] life [may be actively at work] in you.

"Many of you have cried out to have the ability to do miracles and to raise the dead! And I am about to release those miracles more and more. The one who is willing to go all the way with Christ is the one to whom much is given. When much is given, much is required. Hence many have been going through the dying process. Dying to self that is! Dying to the OLD MAN. And learning to live with ME - Learning to trust in ME fully – learning to lay down your lives for the sake of others. This is a lost paradigm in some circles of My church. But it is about to be revived.

You need the wisdom to walk in MY WAYS. That means you MUST die…the grain that dies and falls to the ground will bear much seed for harvesting. I am separating I have said. I am separating you from everything that comes before ME. I am breaking down all idolatry to man and his ways. I am tearing away from you the fleshly nature. I am delivering you from ALL evil…if you are willing. I don't force anyone. I answer your prayers for release. I answer your heart that wants to be like ME.

If you want to bring life, then you must decrease to the point of death to self, so I can be brought forth in you, and in others. I will do it, if you are just willing. You can't DO it yourself anyway. Apart from ME, you can do nothing. Your will must be conformed to MY will. That means you must die to all you will, and live for what I WILL. Are you willing to pay the cost for apostleship? There are many who say they are, but in their hearts cannot."

1 John 3:20 AMP Whenever our hearts in [tormenting] self-accusation make us feel guilty and condemn us. [For we are in God's hands.] For He is above and greater than our consciences (our hearts), and He knows (perceives and understands) everything [nothing is hidden from Him].

"If you are just willing, then I will make your heart and will, and mind conform to MY heart, will and mind. But you must be willing of your own volition. The groaning of your heart is the dying that is within it. There is a dying I am bringing you to, so that you will LIVE abundantly and without perplexion, without striving and self centeredness. I have promised you abundant life and I am bringing it about as you yield yourselves to ME.

Don't grow weary in the lessons for I am here for you and desire that you live out the fullness of the call on your lives. And in this hour it is necessity to be content with the things that you have – earthly things, and the things of this world will die away, but the LIFE you have in ME will NEVER DIE. I AM perfect. And in ME, you are made perfect - ONLY in ME! You will NEVER reach perfection through striving. You will never reach perfection through others. It is only through communion and union with ME that all will be accomplished.

I AM everlasting love and kindness. I AM the Way the TRUTH and the LIFE. It is only through ME, that you can have all you need to get through this life. No amount of striving to please Me will do it. Without HOLINESS no one will see God says My Word. The way of holiness, the narrow path is through ME. I AM the WAY. Come away with ME and find your true life in ME."

Rom 8:13 NKJV For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Rom 8:37-39 NKJV For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Cor 1:9-11 NKJV Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us,

2 Cor 2:15-16 NKJV For we are to God the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. 16 To the one we are the aroma of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And who is sufficient for these things?

2 Cor 6:9-12 AMP [We are treated] as unknown and ignored [by the world], and [yet we are] well-known and recognized [by God and His people]; as dying, and yet here we are alive; as chastened by suffering and [yet] not killed; 10 As grieved and mourning, yet [we are] always rejoicing; as poor [ourselves, yet] bestowing riches on many; as having nothing, and [yet in reality] possessing all things. 11 Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians [we are hiding nothing, keeping nothing back], and our heart is expanded wide [for you]! [Isa 60:5; Ezek 33:22.] 12 There is no lack of room for you in [our hearts], but you lack room in your own affections [for us].

Zech 11:8-12 AMP
8 And I cut off the three shepherds [the civil authorities, the priests, and the prophets] in one month, for I was weary and impatient with them, and they also loathed me. [Jer 2:8,26; 18:18.] 9 So I [Zechariah] said, I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die, and what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let the survivors devour one another's flesh.

10 And I took my staff, Beauty or Grace, and broke it in pieces to show that I was annulling the covenant or agreement which I had made with all the peoples [not to molest them]. 11 So the covenant was annulled on that day, and thus the most wretched of the flock and the traffickers in the sheep who were watching me knew (recognized and understood) that it was truly the word of the Lord. 12 And I said to them, If it seems just and right to you, give me my wages; but if not, withhold them. So they weighed out for my price thirty pieces of silver.

Col 1:24-29 NKJV Sacrificial Service for Christ I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church, 25 of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,

Col 1:24 AMP [Even] now I rejoice in the midst of my sufferings on your behalf. And in my own person I am making up whatever is still lacking and remains to be completed [on our part] of Christ's afflictions, for the sake of His body, which is the church.

Col 1:24 Darby Now, I rejoice in sufferings for you, and I fill up that which is behind of the tribulations of Christ in my flesh, for his body, which is the assembly;

1 Peter 3:18-19 NKJV Christ's Suffering and Ours For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit, 19 by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison,

1 John 3:14-15 NKJV We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother abides in death. 15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

James 5:20 NKJV let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

Heb 9:15 NKJV And for this reason He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

Heb 9:16-17 NKJV The Mediator's Death Necessary For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. 17 For a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives.

2 Tim 1:10-11 NKJV but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,

Col 3:5-7 NKJV Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, 7 in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.

Phil 3:9-11 NKJV that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Abundance Of Rain
Kari Browning

"For I Hear the Sound of Abundance of Rain"
(I Kings 18:41)"

"Drought Washed Away by Rain"

The Bible tells us that the Lord "bears witness" to His word through various signs and spiritual wonders. This is done to mobilize our faith and position us for fruitfulness.

Many prophetic indications or signs presently affirm that we are entering a restoration season involving ministry gifts and commissions introduced in the Latter Rain healing revival of the 40s and 50s. One of those signs was a profound experience Paul Keith Davis had several years ago. In it the Lord revealed that the passing of Pope John Paul II would be a signpost of this restoration.

A few days prior to the Pope's death, there was another notable "sign" in the Spokane/Coeur d'Alene area. While in Spokane, Washington, seven years ago Bob Jones prophesied that the church would experience a seven year spiritual drought beginning the weekend of March 27-28, 1998. Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, borders Spokane.

On March 29, 2005, the front page of the Coeur d'Alene Press contained an article entitled "Drought washed away by the rain." Meteorologist Cliff Harris was quoted as saying, "It's one of the strangest years I've ever seen. We're in the midst of a major change here. North Idaho went from having the driest mid-January to mid-March period on record to the wettest two-day period ever in March last weekend."

Those "wettest" days were March 27 and 28 (Easter weekend), the exact days that Bob was in the area and prophesied the drought seven years prior!

God is Once Again Bringing Revelatory and Healing Gifts Together

On the weekend of April 15, 2005, our ministry hosted a "Takin' It to the Streets" Healing Conference with Bill and Carol Dew. We emphasized Bob Jones' word given seven years prior and prophetically declared that it is time for the abundance of rain. Some felt rain falling on them at different times during the meetings. There have been many testimonies of healings that took place during this conference.

We also received an amazing "token" that God was bringing the revelatory gifts together with the healing gifts. This combination was characterized in William Branham and Paul Cain's Latter Rain healing ministries. Throughout the 40s/50s the Lord used them powerfully to disclose individuals' secret information known only by God to elevate faith to receive from God their miraculous healing. The Lord Jesus demonstrated this model Himself in John 4 with the woman at the well.

In our meeting, Bill and Carol Dew directed us to spend time in prayer before going out on the streets. John Filler, a member of the apostolic team at The Gateway Christian Fellowship, was given a vision during this time. He saw a white-bearded man in a wheelchair. He also saw a picture of an American flag. The Lord gave him additional information about the man, including the fact that he was a military veteran and would be seated outside a specific store in the Spokane Valley Mall.

Upon arriving at the mall, the man in the vision was outside that store in a wheelchair. The man's wife was wearing a sweatshirt with an American flag. John's wife, Ruth, was with him. Upon engaging the couple in conversation, they discovered the man in the wheelchair and his wife were also named John and Ruth! John prayed for the man and, although he didn't get out of the wheelchair, he was visibly touched by the Lord.

"The Desert and the Parched Land Will Be Glad"

Bob Jones and Paul Keith Davis' Shepherd's Rod prophecy of 1998 stated there was a spiritual rain coming. Bob saw the Lord working on a large orange pickup truck from the 1950's that was disabled and unable to function since the Latter Rain revival. Though men had attempted to repair this vehicle, they were unable to do so.

The Lord indicated that only He was able to jump-start this truck and put it on the road again. The vehicle had broken down because of unbelief and fanaticism. The Lord wants to repair this vehicle and reinstitute the heavenly purposes that were begun in the 50s and "pick up" where they left off.

I believe NOW is the time for this revelation to be fulfilled. Isaiah 35 says that, "The desert and the parched land will be glad . . . then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then will the lame leap like a deer, and mute tongue shout for joy! Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert."

Kari Browning
Gateway Christian Fellowship & International Training Center http://www.elijahhouse.org/seminars/

A Prophetic Fear

Pam Clark

Feb 9, 2005
I woke up trembling this morning. I saw something in the Spirit that I almost could not believe.

The dishonesty of the prophets was being exposed. The width and depth and breadth of that is greater than many believe. It's been one reason why the young and weaker have not found a place in it, although they have struggled much to find their place - and they should have!

But arrogance and dishonesty have led, and then has bred, and the Lord is coming to judge it. In five years or less, the prophetic movement will look much different. It was as if I saw the hand of God come and level the ground. Those who have been poor won't feel that much change, just their view of things will be different, but for those who got great gain, much will change.

Like Jezebel sitting high on her mountain top palace, moving people around as pawns and knocking off those who got in her way, making the appearances seem as she chose, and claiming the Lord as her source and strength, filling the palaces with treachery and intrigue, one day there was a Jehu and the little people who had been belittled and abused, mutilated and taken advantage of helped push her over the balcony to her demise.

Not only will it happen, but it must happen. The Kingdom of God is not as many have presented it. The lies that have been told, the stories made up to gain advantage, the stealing of authorship (in bigger ways than just a word or two - for some will truly also hear what God is speaking), the sins and then pointing of the finger at another, fill the camp. These people will not bear the honor of the change that God is bringing, nor will they ride its coattails.

I woke up trembling this morning. The false fear that so many have carried will be replaced by a true fear! The King is telling his steward that he can no longer work for him. Make friends in the world so that you might have a place to live! But do not use the Name of the Lord, because for that, judgment is coming awesomely.

This Document last revised on November 4, 1996.

An Apology to the Jews

Intercessory Repentance in Action

by Bill Somers

The relationship of the Church and the Jews throughout history is treated in Michael Browns book 'Our Hands are stained with Blood!' This book touched me very deeply. Some time after reading it I was led by the Lord to put one of its recommendations into practice. That is one that deals with what Dr. Brown calls Intercessory Repentance. It entails repenting for the sins of an entire group of people, and perhaps to a group of people who were sinned against. The repentance is a form of intercession and can be for sins that were not necessarily committed by the one doing the repenting.

I am going to reprint here a set of messages that were circulated by Electronic Bulletin Board on a World Wide system called FIDONET. I believe the reader will be able to see not only an example and a discussion of intercessory repentance but also the results that it can bring.

I am changing the names of the participants, except myself, in this text out of concern for the individuals involved. (Please be in mind that it is the practice on these discussion groups to quote what the other person has written before responding to it.)

[This is the first message.]

To: ALL Date: 2/12/1994
From: BILL SOMERS Time: 9:18 am
Subj: APOLOGY TO THE JEWS
Back on 1-12-94, Lonnie Smith wrote to Moshe Steinberg on the subject of God's punishment...

-- Quoted passage
> Lonnie, I will ask a simple question. Why are the Jews in exile NOW. I > am not an idolater. I believe in the one true G-d. All those > statements about the idolatry of the first temple have NOTHING to do > with me and the state of the Jewish people at this time.

That is a good question. Why, for the last 2,000 years has Israel been a "castaway?" I think that would be a good topic of discussion for you to look into. Could it be you have rejected some item in God's law/plan?
LS> Do not blame Israel's sufferings on us. .... So let's not blame the Gentiles for every folly that Israel runs into. That's all I'm saying.
-- End quoted passage

The point I wish to comment on is this:
LS> Do not blame Israel's sufferings on us.

Speaking as a gentile Christian, I recognize that many Jews do blame their sufferings on us, the church. The slaughter of Jews during the crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, the persecution under Luther, the Pogroms in eastern Europe, the Nazi Holocaust; all these and much much more were carried out by those who called themselves Christian. The history of the church is a history of Jew hatred. Yet some of us wonder that they reject the claims of the Lord Jesus Christ!

OK. Most Christians today are not personally guilty of any of this. We often hear it said that those who did these things were not 'true' Christians. That it was not really our fault. "Don't blame us!" (Has anti-Semitism gone away, or is it on the increase?)

In Matthew 23, Jesus rebuked some hypocrites:

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchers of the righteous,
30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

Could He deliver the same rebuke to us today, who say in effect, "If we had been in those circumstances, we wouldn't have done those things."?
The things in scripture are given to us as examples, (1 Cor. 10:11). Let me present two examples of the correct attitude to take in this case.

Nehemiah 9 1. Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth's, and earth upon them.
2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.
3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God [one] fourth part of the day; and [another] fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

Daniel 9 3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:
4. And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;
5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:
6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.
7 O Lord, righteousness [belongeth] unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, ... (KJV - On Line Bible)

I note that in each case confession and repentance takes place for one's own sins and for those of the larger group, of which one may not be 'personally' guilty. And so, with these examples in mind....

I confess to the Lord and to the Jewish people that we, the church, have done wickedly, fomented hatred, committed murder and sinned against the Jewish people, 'beloved of the Father'. We have departed from your commandments and disobeyed your word. We have rebelled and left the straight and narrow path. We did not learn from the apostles and prophets but did what was right in our own eyes. And to us today belongs an infinitely greater 'confusion of face' than ever afflicted Israel of old.
I confess, apologize and repent for all the crimes committed against the Jews by church of Jesus Christ. And I humbly ask your forgiveness for all this.

Recommended reading:
Our Hands are stained with blood.
The tragic story of the "church" and the Jewish People
by Michael Brown
Destiny Image Publishers POB 310 Shippensburg, PA 17257

[After sending this out, I got the following response about a week later.
Second Message]
To: BILL SOMERS Date: 2/13/1994
From: John Prowse
Subj: Who shed the blood ?

From: Bill Somers
To: All
Subject: Apology To The Jews

BS/Speaking as a gentile Christian, I recognize that many Jews do blame their sufferings on us, the church. The slaughter of Jews during the crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, the persecution under Luther, the Pogroms in eastern Europe, the Nazi Holocaust; all these and much much more were carried out by those who called themselves Christian.
The history of the church is a history of Jew hatred.

You are blaming the "church" for the evil deeds of the "Great Whore" of Rome and her family.
The only question I have about you is whether you are merely incredibly ignorant re: who constitutes the NT described "church" or whether you are a deliberate servant of the "Great Whore" of Rome and her family.

BS/ Yet some of us wonder that they reject the claims of the Lord Jesus Christ!

The kind of deception you put out greatly contributes to the error. Which very well may be your intent.

BS/ I confess to the Lord and to the Jewish people that we, the church, have done wickedly, fomented hatred, committed murder and sinned against the Jewish people, 'beloved of the Father'. We have departed from your commandments and disobeyed your word. We have rebelled and left the straight and narrow path. We did not learn from the apostles and prophets but did what was right in our own eyes. And to us today belongs an infinitely greater 'confusion of face' than ever afflicted Israel of old.
I confess, apologize and repent for all the crimes committed against the Jews by church of Jesus Christ. And I humbly ask your forgiveness for all this.

You're deceived re: what the "church" is, and you have no authority to speak for it.

To ALL: Does or does not organized "Christian" religion constitute the NT described "Church". ??
Bill presents the "Church" as an evil institution. This reflects on the validity of the moral guidance of Jesus Christ the founder and Lord of His Church.
Is he right ? Is he accurate ? Who shed the blood ? (of Jews AND "heretics") The "Church" of Jesus Christ ? Or: "The Great Whore" ?

By the way Protestants were officially RC defined as "heretics" up until 1965.
By the way N.Ireland, Bosnia & more indicate this is not merely a historical question.
[At this point the writer proceeded to quote Rev. 17:1-6,9,15,18; Rev. 18:1-5,16-24; and Rev. 19:1-3]

IF you can't tell the difference between the NT Church of Jesus Christ, vice The "Great Whore" of His Revelation, THEN you have a SERIOUS CASE OF BLINDNESS and, you better beg Jesus Christ for some sight.

With best wishes, John

++++++ Read and Heed His Revelation ! ++++++++++

[At this point, I was unsure how to respond to such an attack! But I recalled a prophecy by Rick Joyner about those who have their brothers blood on sword, (that is to say, those who have used the Word of God as a weapon against their Christian brothers) not being allowed a part in building the Kingdom or the House of the Lord. So I made no reply whatever.
The payoff came after another week of waiting, in the following letter by and Orthodox Jew. It showed me, as I told some friends, "The Holy Ghost was right again!"]
[Third Message.]

To: Bill Somers Date: 2/15/1994
From: STEVE ZALMAN
Subj: Apology To The Jews

BS> I confess to the Lord and to the Jewish people that we, the church, have done wickedly, ..."

Bill, your confession for sins you never committed is a ray of hope from the abyss of hatred. The Jews greatest fear is that one day the church will return to murdering Jews and there will be no one to help, as in the past. The children of Israel are responsible for correcting the sins made in our past. Just as Germany's children are now responsible for correcting the sins of the prior generation. It is for the Christians to take control of their church and to stop the hatred and anti-Semitism towards Jews. I have heard that the Vatican will be removing anti-Semitic writings from the NT as soon as they can work out the details. This is certainly a step in the right direction. Jews fervently pray each Sabbath for the day to come when the whole world will be at peace with one another, when hatred will no longer blind the eyes. On that day, the world will be one, And His name will be One. Ba Ruch Ha Ba B'shem - Blessed is he who comes in the name of the L-rd.
Shalom

[Then I made the following reply.

Fourth Message]

To: STEVE ZALMAN Date: 2/27/1994
From: BILL SOMERS
Subj: Apology To The Jews
Steve,

Shalom from this Christian.
Thank you for your kind remarks in response to my post.
SZ>Bill, your confession for sins you never committed is a ray of hope
SZ>from the abyss of hatred.

My original posting, Apology to the Jews, began as a comment on someone's remark: "Do not blame Israel's sufferings on us."

Then I cited Matthew 23:29-31 as an example of Jesus rebuke to this attitude. I quoted Nehemiah 9:1-3, and Daniel 9:3-7 as examples from the bible of the proper attitude. Then I made the confession, which you quoted back to me:
I concluded with recommending a very good book on the subject:
Our Hands are stained with blood.
The tragic story of the "church" and the Jewish People
by Michael Brown
Destiny Image Publishers POB 310 Shippensburg, PA 17257

All of this is an example of what Michael Brown calls "intercessory repentance". Brown is a Messianic Jew with some hard sayings for the church which I believe I can share with you and some of my Christian brothers on this echo without getting too far off topic.
In Michael Brown's book _Our Hands are Stained with Blood_ he writes on page 82: ...If Jesus promised to fulfill the Law of God and then abolished it, he would be a liar and not the Son of God.
Do you know that this is one of the greatest objections to the Gospel that religious Jews have had? If Jesus was truly the Messiah, why did he do away with the Law? Historian Jules Isaac notes: "The Jewish rejection of Christ was triggered by the Christian rejection of the Law.... The rejection of the Law was enough: to ask of the Jewish people that they accept this religion...was like asking them to tear out their heart. History records no example of such a collective suicide."
On Page 89 he quotes Rav Shimon Walbah, a leading Orthodox Rabbi in Israel, "Instead of bringing redemption to the Jews, the false Christian Messiah has brought down on us base libels and expulsions, oppressive restrictions and burning of [our] holy books, devastations and destructions. Christianity, which professes to infuse the sick world with love and compassion, has fixed a course directly opposite to this lofty rhetoric. The voice of the blood of millions of our brothers cries out to us from the ground: No! Christianity is not a religion of love but a religion of unfathomable hate! All history, from ancient times to our own day, is one continual proof of the total bankruptcy of this religion in all its segments."
On Page 90 he quoted Professor Eugene Borowitz: "We might be more inclined to give Christian claims some credence had we seen Christians thru the ages behave as models of redeemed humanity. Looking thru the window of history we have found them as much in need of saving as the rest of humankind. If anything their social failings are especially discrediting of their doctrine for they claim to be uniquely free of human sinfulness and freshly inspired by their faith to bring the world to a realm of love and peace.... Until sinfulness ceases and well being prevails Jews know the Messiah has not come."
On page 91 he says: For hundreds of years the word 'Christ' has been a curse word in thousands of Jewish homes. This is largely the fault of "Christians". Millions of Jews have hated the name of Jesus. Alleged followers of Jesus are a primary cause. Could we possibly have produced anything worse?
On page 97 he declares: Let us hang our heads in shame. The "Church" has blood on her hands.
On page 99 he writes: A little more than 100 years ago, a Christian minister to the Jews "was asked what he thought was wanting on the part of the friends of Israel. He replied, 'More tears'."
Reading all this was quite an experience for me. I discovered that I had some unconscious anti-Semitism in myself, that I would not have otherwise admitted to.

SZ>It is for the Christians to take control of their church and to stop the hatred and anti-Semitism towards Jews.

From this comment, it seems you can give some credence to a distinction between 'Christians' and their church.

Unfortunately, anti-Semitism is on the rise in the church, even from sources that should know better. Michael Brown deals with some of it in his book. Especially the errors of "Replacement Theology". But few Christians recognize it or are prepared to do something about it.

SZ>The Jews greatest fear is that one day the church will return to murdering Jews and there will be no one to help, as in the past.
This fear is a very real possibility. Your comment reminds me of a passage in Job. (3:25) "For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me." KJV Another reading is: "For a fear I feared and it meeteth me, And what I was afraid of doth come to me." (Youngs translation)

One of the New Testament instructions to Christians is in 1 John 3:16
"Hereby perceive we the love [of God], because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down [our] lives for the brethren."

Regarding the Jews, it tells us in Romans 11:28
"As concerning the gospel, [they are] enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, [they are] beloved for the fathers' sakes."
That makes you one of the brethren, I may one day be required to lay down my life for. If and when the 'church' once again turns against the Jews, there will be some who will still stand with you.

SZ>Jews fervently pray each Sabbath for the day to come when the whole world will be at peace with one another, when hatred will no longer blind the eyes. On that day, the world will be one, And His name will be One. Ba Ruch Ha Ba B'shem - Blessed is he who comes in the name of the L-rd. Shalom
AMEN AND AMEN
Further recommended reading: (It sheds some light on the phrase 'for your sakes' in Rom. 11:28 above.

One New Man, by Reuven Doron
POB 10102, Cedar Rapids IA 52410
God Bless Y'all
Bill Somers

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

Apostasy

Celia Rose Okhuysen (USA)

Then HEAR NOW THE WORD OF THE LORD OF HOSTS, THE GOD OF ISRAEL: "If you wholly set your faces to enter [return to] Egypt [the world], and go to sojourn [settle and live] there, then it shall be that the sword [Word of God — judgment] which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine [spiritual poverty] of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die [eternal death]. So shall it be with* [everyone] who set their faces to go [return] to Egypt to sojourn there. They shall die by [through judgment of] the sword [Word of God], by famine, and by pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster [condemnation] that I will bring upon them." … So they went [returned] to the land of Egypt, for THEY DID NOT OBEY THE VOICE OF THE LORD (Jeremiah 42:15-17; 43:7 — NKJV).

**~~~~~~~~~~

APOSTASY: a renunciation or abandonment of a former loyalty (as to a religion); a total falling away or desertion of the faith and true religion.

APOSTATE: rebel — defector — renegade — fugitive — traitor

DISOBEDIENT: defiant — rebellious — insubordinate

UNFAITHFULNESS: infidelity — disloyalty — falseness — adultry— treachery — deceitfulness — betrayal

**~~~~~~~~~~

DREAM — October 6, 1989

A wedding was about to take place to which I had been invited. I did not want to attend. It was set for 12:30 midday. Before leaving for the wedding, however, I was called into another room by an elderly couple. They were both in bed together at the left side of the room. To the right of the room was an enormous wide window without a glass pane through which an extremely bright light shined. At the couple's request, I closed the window's drape in one sweep with my left hand from left to right because they said that the light was too bright for them. I then left the room, leaving them in total darkness.

A woman waited for me as I came out of the dark room. She seemed anxious, and kept reminding me that we were going to be late for the wedding ceremony, and insisted that I hurry up. I then searched my jewelry box for a piece of jewelry, deliberately taking my time. I came across an old-fashion, boldfaced man's gold pocket watch without chain. I picked it up, looked at its bold numbered face, but strangely could not tell what time it was — even as I looked at the time! I returned the gold pocket watch to the jewelry box. A few minutes later, we both left for the wedding ceremony.

It was a mild, sunny day, and we were now in the midst of a very large crowd that waited outdoors. We had missed the wedding ceremony. A bride and groom appeared, approaching slowly from the left. The bride wore a full-length white wedding gown with a wide hoop skirt that was elegantly fashionable in Western culture in the 1800's. She also wore a bridal headpiece with veil. The veil was now drawn away from her face. They had just been married, therefore her unveiling.

The bride had her right arm linked through the groom's left arm. She had dark hair, was fair complexioned, in her mid twenties, slender, about five feet, four inches in height, and wore a very pleasant smile. She was not beautiful — just nice looking in appearance.

The groom was black-black in complexion, had black hair, was approximately thirty years old, slender, and about five feet, ten inches in height. He wore an evil looking, smirking, toothy smile. He was beaming, as though he had just caught a "prize catch." His attitude was extremely cagey — guarded — cautious as expressed in his sneaky and sly suspicious eyes*. I did not like him*. He was not a good-looking man. He wore a black formal suit with white bow tie and tails.

The groom paraded the bride in front of everyone as they slowly walked by the large crowd. They stopped, and he waved to the crowd. She just smiled at the crowd. She did not carry a bridal bouquet. They continued walking away and then faded out of sight.

Next, I was now at the wedding reception, alone. An older handsome man, approximately sixty years old, smilingly approached me from the left. He made an effort to strike up a conversation several times. I politely avoided him. He wore an expensive tailored gray suit, was quite debonair — suave — elegant — refined — charming — well groomed and sophisticated. He really was quite handsome, and stood approximately five feet, ten inches tall. He had a full head of well-groomed gray hair, perfect teeth, good clear complexion with few wrinkles, and appeared to be in excellent health. His eyes were strongly focused on me, and deeply penetrating, making me feel uncomfortable. This man also wore a smirking, toothy smile. As he continued trying to get and hold my attention, I became extremely uncomfortable with him, and did not want his company. After a while, I finally just ignored him and walked away.

The wedding reception was large and formal, and everyone was dressed elegantly. I did not recognize anyone. Throughout all the time that I slowly circulated in the midst of the guests, I felt ill at ease about the wedding affair and about being at the wedding reception. I no longer wanted to be part of this wedding celebration and wanted to leave. The place was crowded, but the bride and groom were not at the reception. I did not see them again. END

[NOTE: I urge the reader to read this document with a Bible in hand for spiritual clarity, confirmation, revelation, and understanding through the Word of God. Bolded, capped, underlined and bracket emphases in the NKJV scriptures are mine.]

INTERPRETATION

I wanted no part of the wedding that was taking place. The elderly couple represents the old traditional type church that operates in the flesh and not under the anointing of Holy Spirit's control*.* The man symbolizes a pastor. In spiritual dreams, the woman symbolizes sin or a church. Here, this woman represents a dead — comatose — lifeless church. Their laying in bed together at the "left" symbolizes the position of goats — the unrighteous (Mat. 25:33). Their intimacy clearly reveals that this is a very, very old relationship spanning throughout the past Church age.

The bright light shining through the window at the "right" position of sheep; righteousness without a glass pane represents the Light of the world (Jn. 8:12), Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth. The couple's request that the room be darkened by drawing the drape over the window symbolizes that they wanted to continue dwelling and laying in darkness together without the true presence of the Light, the Word of God, in their midst. Darkening the room at the couple's request symbolizes that I was called by Lord Jesus to witness this dead church's apostasy in the dream through Holy Spirit's anointing. The couple rejected and denied the Light of the world because it was too bright—too revealing of their apostate evil deeds.

**~~~~~~~~~~
>> "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed" (Jn. 3:19, 20).
**~~~~~~~~~~

The woman waiting for me represents the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. She was anxious to witness the prophetic End Time scenario of some members of the Lord's Church who were in the midst of, or who had completely fallen away into total apostasy.

The jewelry box symbolizes the Word of God—my most prized Treasure of Gems. The man's old-fashion gold pocket watch symbolizes God's Timepiece. By taking the watch into my hands, I prophetically understand one of the End Time events of apostasy that will be taking place just before Lord Jesus' appearing (2Tim. 4:1 — Titus 2:13 — 1Pet. 1:7) in the clouds to rapture His Church. Although I clearly saw the face of the watch, the hour when Lord Jesus would appear (Mt. 24:44), after the falling away—apostasy,* was withheld from me as no one will know the hour of His appearing (Mt. 24:30). (All of today's End Time signs, especially about Israel, are clearly prophesied by Lord Jesus in Matthew Chapter 24 and Luke 21:22-36, thus keeping today's Church on "high alert.")

**~~~~~~~~~~

>> Now, brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering [rapture] together to Him, we ask you not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled… Let no man deceive you by any means; for that Day [the Rapture] will not come unless the FALLING AWAY [apostasy] comes first … And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness (2Thes. 2:1-3, 11, 12).

**~~~~~~~~~~

The large crowd waiting for the bride and groom's appearance are apostates—fallen members, "brethren" in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. They had assembled to celebrate the occasion of a "joined together" event that boastfully took place in broad daylight. This symbolizes the willingness of this bride to be rejoined to Satan, the groom, without shame or remorse for her betrayal of her Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ, Who died for her because He loves her. Thusly her content smile. Her old-fashion wedding dress represents a very old courtship that concluded an enduring desire to be yoked once again with her former suitor. (2Cor. 6:14, 15) Her unveiling represents pride, shamelessness, and apostasy.

**~~~~~~~~~~

>> Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in DEPARTING from the living God*. … And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest* [Eternal Life], but to those who did not obey? (Heb. 3:12, 18)

[Here, in vs. 12, Paul warns "brethren" (Christians) by the example of Israel's failures in the wilderness. They were brought out of Egypt with the fullest assurance of blessing, prosperity, and eternal rest. By their sin and unbelief, they came short of the promised blessings, fell in the wilderness, and were cut off from God. Paul states plainly that Christians, the born again or saved men, can also return to an evil heart of unbelief, depart from the living God, be hardened by deceitfulness of sin, be cut off by God, and be finally lost. — SOURCE: DAKE'S ANNOTATED REFERENCE BIBLE]

>> For it is impossible for those who WERE ONCE ENLIGHTENED [walked in the Light of the world — Jn. 8:12], and have tasted the heavenly gift, and HAVE BECOME PARTAKERS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, and have TASTED THE GOOD WORD OF GOD and the powers of the age to come, if they FALL AWAY, to renew them [walk in the Light — heavenly gift — Holy Spirit — Word of God — powers] again to repentance, SINCE THEY CRUCIFY AGAIN FOR THEMSELVES THE SON OF GOD and put Him to an open shame (Heb. 6:4-6).

[Heb. 6:6 — (a) If they shall fall away. How could they fall away from the experiences of vs. 4-5 if they never did have them? The language is past tense and factual so it cannot be denied that the ones referred to did at one time have these experiences. (b) Gr. "parapipto": to fall aside; apostatize; fall away. It means to throw overboard all faith in the experiences of the gospel and deny them. Men are here warned that such is possible. (c) To renew them again to repentance is impossible. The reason given is that they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put Him to open shame. This is the final act of apostasy. They publicly judge Him an imposter and worthy of death. That is, they do not believe in Him or His atonement any longer. Since such faith is the only thing that could renew them again to repentance, it then becomes impossible. How could they be renewed again to repentance if they had not experienced repentance before? The word "again" means once more; another time; anew. This requires repentance once before. — SOURCE: DAKE'S ANNOTATED REFERENCE BIBLE]

>> For if we sin WILLFULLY after we have received the knowledge of the truth, THERE NO LONGER REMAINS A SACRIFICE FOR SINS, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation [righteous anger] which will devour the adversaries [apostates]. … Of how much WORSE PUNISHMENT, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy WHO HAS TRAMPLED THE SON OF GOD UNDERFOOT, COUNTED THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT BY WHICH HE WAS SANCTIFIED A COMMON THING, AND INSULTED THE SPIRIT OF GRACE? For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord." And again, "The Lord will judge His people." IT IS A FEARFUL THING TO FALL INTO THE HANDS OF THE LIVING GOD (Heb. 10:26, 27, 29-31).

>> For our God is a CONSUMING FIRE (Heb. 12:29).
**~~~~~~~~~~

The groom's "black-black" complexion represents Satan. The color "black" is symbolic of sin. His description in the dream says it all, and needs no interpretation. His behavior and formal dress is a triumphant display of "I was at my best, and I WON!" Satan triumphed over the hearts, minds, spirits, and souls of all those lazy, prayerless, spiritually immature, weak and non vigilant Christians who did not work out their salvation with fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12 — Heb. 2:1-4). Through Satan's masterful lure, they returned to Egypt—the world. (Mt. 13:3-7, 18-22)

**~~~~~~~~~~
>> They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of [Satan, and] who LOVED the wages of unrighteousness. … These are wells without water, clouds carried by a tempest, to whom the gloom of darkness is reserved forever. … For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world THROUGH THE KNOWLEDGE of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, THEY ARE AGAIN ENTANGLED IN THEM [pollutions of the world] AND [ARE] OVERCOME, THE LATTER END IS WORSE FOR THEM THAN THE BEGINNING. For it would have been better for them NOT TO HAVE KNOWN THE WAY OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: "A dog returns to his own VOMIT," and "a sow [swine, pig, hog]*, having washed, [returns] to her wallowing in the mire [mud]" (2 Pet. 2:15, 17, 20-22).
**~~~~~~~~~~

There is a strong association between the elderly couple in bed and the bride and groom. What has been a very old practice in time past has been hidden in total darkness. However, the bride and groom's "open marriage" at last bring it out at midday as a confirmation of the prophetic Word of God on the apostasy — falling away — that would first take place (2Thes. 2:1-3) before Lord Jesus' appearing in the clouds to call HIS faithful Bride unto Himself.

**~~~~~~~~~~
>> For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be CAUGHT UP [raptured] together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord (1Thes. 4:16, 17).

~~~~~~~~~~

The older debonair, sophisticated, well-groomed, and well-tailored gray haired man was Satan in another disguise. He sought to attract, deceive, and ensnare me with his charm and prosperous appearance, but I rejected him and walked away.

~~~~~~~~~~

>> Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, BE SOBER*, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ* [in the Rapture]; as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; BUT AS HE WHO CALLED YOU IS HOLY, YOU ALSO BE HOLY IN ALL YOUR CONDUCT, because it is written, "BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY." And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your sojourning here in fear [reverence and obedience to God]; knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things*, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers,* but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but WAS MANIFEST IN THESE LAST TIMES FOR YOU who through Him believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God (1Pet. 1:13-21).

~~~~~~~~~~

My lone presence at the wedding reception is symbolic of the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth witnessing End Time prophecy of those falling away—APOSTASY. My feeling ill at ease by being at the wedding reception reveals my utter disgust at being in the midst of these apostates who had "trampled the Son of God underfoot, and counted the Blood of the Covenant by which He was sanctified a common thing." However, in the dream Holy Spirit's anointing positioned me at the apostates' ceremonial event to witness one of the most tragic End Time signs and events: the betrayal of God's love and mercy toward them through His sacrificial Lamb. The Son of God, our most precious, loving, and merciful Lord Jesus Christ, was slain on the Cross at Calvary for their sins. Yet there they were, handsomely dressed in their elegant costumes, and wearing their false masks while celebrating their betrayal as they "openly" trampled the Son of God underfoot. WOE, WOE, WOE!

~~~~~~~~~~

>> "FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE GA A-A-V-V-VE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, THAT WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHOULD NOT PERISH BUT HAVE EVERLASTING LIFE. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, BUT THAT THE WORLD THROUGH HIM MIGHT BE SAVED. He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God" (Jn. 3:16-21).

~~~~~~~~~~

All the people at the wedding reception were corporately apostate "church" members who symbolized the apostate bride as she celebrated her total surrender to her former suitor whom she had previously been in bondage to.

Satan, the older debonair man, who was symbolic of the groom, slithered around me like a charming snake, seeking to ensnare me. But my that is, the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth abiding in Lord Jesus, His words abiding in Her heart (Jn. 15:1-8), and God's Holy Spirit empowering Her (Acts 1:8), has sealed Her with the whole armor of God (Eph. 6:10-17) and with the authority to trample on serpents, scorpions and over all the power of the enemy (Lk. 10:19). She is empowered with a Divine faith and holy righteousness that is anchored in Her heart and spirit to resist the devil (Jas. 4:7) and his wiles (Eph. 6:11) because SHE ALWAYS HEARS THE VOICE OF HER SAVIOR AND LORD JESUS (Jn. 10:17, 18), AND SHE FOLLOWS HIM. He is the Good Shepherd and THE WORD OF GOD that gives His Church FAITH, peace, joy, hope, STRENGTH and victory, and He is God's Gift of Eternal Life (Jn. 6:54, 56). And yes, She is Divinely anointed with Holy Spirit's POWER, BOLDNESS, and FIRE with which to comfort Herself and do the works of Lord Jesus (Jn. 14:12), to help Her witness Lord Jesus to a dying world (Acts 1:8; 2:4, 17, 18 4:29 Jn. 14:16, 17; 15:26; 16:7-15), and to glorify God in all Her works. (Jn. 15:8) [Read all of Romans 8]
~~~~~~~~~~

**~~~~~~~~~~

>> There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, WHO DO NOT WALK ACCORDING TO THE FLESH, BUT ACCORDING TO THE SPIRIT. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. … FOR AS MANY AS ARE LED BY THE SPIRIT OF GOD, THESE ARE SONS OF GOD. … The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, IF INDEED WE SUFFER [persecution — 2Tim. 3:12] WITH HIM, that we may also be glorified together (Rom. 8:1, 2, 14, 16, 17).

>> We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; BUT HE WHO HAS BEEN BORN OF GOD KEEPS HIMSELF [spotless and blameless], AND THE WICKED ONE DOES NOT TOUCH HIM. We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is [faithful and] true [Rev. 3:14], in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life (1Jn. 5:18-20).

>> For the wages of sin is [eternal] death, but THE GIFT OF GOD IS ETERNAL LIFE [Jn. 3:16] in Jesus Christ our Lord (Rom. 6:23).

>> "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE [ETERNAL]. He who believes in Me, though he may die [physically], he shall live [eternally]" (Jn. 11:25).

>> Pursue peace with all men, and HOLINESS, without which no one will see the Lord (Heb. 12:14).

>> JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER (Heb. 13:8).
**~~~~~~~~~~

SCRIPTURES ON APOSTASY

Ex. 32:33 — 1Chr. 28:9 — Jer. 1:16; 2:13, 17-19; 17:5, 13; Chaps. 42-44 — Ezek. 18:24 — Mt. 24:10-12 — Mk. 4:4-7, 15-19 — Jn. 15:6 — Eph. 5:6 — 1Tim. 4:1 — 2Tim. 3:1-9; 4:1-4 — Heb. 4:11-13 — 2Pet. Chap. 2 — 2Jn. 9-11 — Jude 5-19

[NOTE: Of particular interest is Jeremiah Chapters 42-44. It should be noted that Ex. 12:31-51 records that God led Israel out of bondage from Egypt. Tragically, Jeremiah 42-44 reveals Judah's return to Egypt against God's command. [Judah symbolizes today's Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.] This is a classic and dramatic case of disobedience and apostasy before Almighty God by Judah, just like today's scenario of much apostasy taking place in Lord Jesus Christ's Church. Jeremiah was taken to Egypt against his will (Jer. 43:6). There, he continued to prophesy God's words of catastrophe and judgment to Judah for her disobedience in going to Egypt. Judah did not repent, and there they died.

“Legend” says that Jeremiah is buried in Devenish Island, Ireland. http://www.hooper-home.net/CHRONO/Daughters.html.

~~~~~~~~~~

COMMENTARY

This finalizes a series of End Time dreams that I began to receive on August 1, 1989. Forthcoming will be an END TIME DREAMS INDEX of twenty-three dreams and seven articles that I have posted since November 2, 1997.

**~~~~~~~~~~

My previous post:

FALSE PROPHETS
http://www.etpv.org/2005/fapro.html

**~~~~~~~~~~

POST DATE: March 20, 2005
~~~~~~~~~~

Apostolic Revival
Matt Sorger

November 20, 2005

The Lord is restoring true apostolic anointing and empowerment. This revival is apostolic in nature. It's a restoration of the fullness of the five-fold ministry and with that, a restoration of the fullness of God's presence and power in the earth.

These Are Several Characteristics Of This Apostolic Revival:

RELEASE OF GREAT POWER

There's a place where mass miracles break out. It's that mass breaker anointing that releases miracles on a mass scale, where all throughout the city, miracles will be happening. In all the churches seeking God, miracles will be happening -- out on the streets, in the homes, in the church services -- miracles will be happening. People will just get healed walking into the presence of the glory. People won't even necessarily have to pray for the sick. They will be healed just walking in. Homes will be so filled with the glory that people will be healed just walking into them. There will be such a weight of God's glory upon all of you.

There is a reason God releases this level of power. In Acts 3, Peter and John were walking to the temple, and God's power healed the lame man. As a result of this one miracle, many heard the word and believed -- this number of men came to 5,000. Instantly overnight, there was a supernatural multiplication because of the miracle power. The whole city was in an uproar because of this one miracle. Its mass miracles for mass harvest. That's the revival I'm talking about for mass harvest. In Acts 8:4, they preached the word with miracles. Multitudes were saved, and there was great joy in the city. When miracles happen, the city will be a happy place.

EVEN THE GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE NOTICE

Even the government and those in leadership will have to take notice. They will say, "What is happening in our city? What is happening with these Christians? We've never seen anything like this. There's no crime, no sickness in the city; there's just joy in the city." Even the government will have to take notice, whether they want to or not.

In Acts 9:32-35, there's a connection between apostolic power and mass salvation. Ananeas was bedridden 8 years because he was paralyzed. Peter prayed, and he was healed. And all who dwelt in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord. Two cities were saved -- great power, great miracles, mass salvation, and great joy in the city. It's all connected together.

YOU ARE IN A SPIRITUAL INCUBATOR

The waiting is part of the birthing. This place is an incubator in the Spirit. God is incubating you in the Spirit. Out of the incubator, new life comes forth. There is a place of waiting that will birth this thing into the earth. God has been speaking to me about waiting and tarrying in His presence because there is something released out of that place. It's connected to the latter-rain glory. There is a place of birthing that rains into the earth.

In I Kings 18:1, God spoke to Elijah. He said, "I am going to send rain on the earth, just like Joel prophesied the latter-rain is coming, and all of your sons and daughters will prophecy." God has been saying that the rain is coming. God spoke to Elijah, and he went up to the top of Mount Carmel. In verse 42, he bows down to ground and puts his face between his knees. In verses 43-46, Elijah is in this place of birthing and waiting on the promise of God. God said that the rain was coming.
There was no doubt in Elijah's heart that it was coming. Six times he sends his servant to see. On the seventh time, he sees a small cloud the size of a man's hand. I see the cloud. It's here. IT'S HERE! We are sitting in the cloud right now.

THE SIMPLE GOSPEL MESSAGE BEING RESTORED

There is simplicity of the gospel coming forth. It's the pure simplicity of the gospel message. The pure simple word of God that causes men to bow down before Jesus is, "Repent, for the Kingdom of God is at hand." The sinners repent because it's a simple, pure gospel message. Don't over complicate it. "Nor is there salvation in any other for there is no other name under heaven by which men must be saved." -- Acts 4:12
There is no other name that can save us. In Acts 8:4-5, Philip preached Christ to them. He preached the simple message of who Jesus was. He preached the word with power. There is a restoration coming of the pure gospel message. There is a new breed being raised up that will carry the pure gospel message like Billy Graham. They will proclaim, "There is no other name by which you can be saved." A pure gospel message will go forth.

SIMPLE CHILDLIKE FAITH

A new believer's faith is so simple and childlike. They just believe God's word. That's the key: just believe. They haven't been over-indoctrinated. They take the word for exactly what it says. It's simple, childlike faith -- only believe. Jesus knew we needed it to be easy. We get lost if it gets too complicated.

APOSTOLIC POWER TO GET WEALTH

In Acts 4:32, we see the apostolic power to get wealth. No one lacked. They sold lands and houses and laid the proceeds of what was sold at the apostles' feet. The apostles distributed wherever there was need. It's the power to get supernatural wealth, not to just get rich.

I'm not saying that God doesn't want us to be blessed, but when the Lord brought the finances to the apostles, they distributed as anyone had need. The power to get wealth was to meet the need of the people. There is a power to get wealth. There is an anointing to get wealth. The wealth of the gentiles is being stored up for us. The apostolic anointing actually draws supernatural finances to itself. It's part of the apostolic authority, so they can then give and distribute to meet the need of the people and see that the work of the kingdom goes forth.

I believe that in the process, God does want to bless us. Jesus never condemned anyone for being rich. If you're rich make sure that you're not worshipping money. Make sure that you are giving to the poor. Jesus never condemned the rich person for having money. He condemned the love of money and holding it more precious than your relationship with God.

We need some good Holy Ghost millionaires. The money was laid at the apostles' feet, and they gave it away. There has been an abuse of finances in the church. You can take anything to an extreme, but that doesn't negate the truth of God's word. God wants us to have lots of money so that we can feed the poor, evangelize to the lost, and see the gospel spread throughout the whole earth. Believe God for abundant blessing in your life!

By Matt Sorger
Igniting Revival Fire
www.mattsorger.com

Last Days Glory
Matt Sorger

"30 Characteristics of the Glory That Will Rest on the Last Day's Church" by Matt Sorger Web: http://www.mattsorger.com Email: info@mattsorger.com Friday, May 21, 2004

GREATER WORKS

Isaiah 60:2 "For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the Lord will arise over you. And His glory will be seen upon you."

Recently, during a time of prayer, the Lord began to speak to me about the many characteristics that will mark the Glory of God on the Last Day's Church. So many times we read the book of Acts and marvel at what the early church walked and lived in. The level of supernatural activity seems to far surpass what we see in the church today. As I was pondering this the Lord challenged my heart with the prophecy Jesus shared in John 14:12:

"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father."

Jesus prophesied that the church would not only do the works He did, which includes healing the sick, cleansing the lepers, casting our demons, and raising the dead, but even GREATER works. The works of the Holy Spirit through the early church are only the beginning of the wonders God wants to do in the earth. We are still writing the book of Acts today. The greatest signs and wonders are still to be seen!

Haggai 2:9 prophesies:

"The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former."

2 Corinthians 3:18 declares:

"But we all, with an unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord."

KEEP MOVING TO HIGHER REALMS OF HIS GLORY

Throughout the ages God has called the church to keep moving to higher realms of His glory. Not only does this scripture refer to our personal journeys in Christ of being continually more conformed to His image, but it also refers to the corporate Body being conformed to His image as a whole. With each passing generation the Church should be more closely conformed to the Lord in both character and power. Jesus is returning for a Church without spot or wrinkle (Eph. 5:27). With each generation the Holy Spirit is bringing us deeper into the fullness of the revelation of truth found in the Word, as well as experiencing and walking in that revelation. We can see this restoration of the fullness of Christ and His word throughout church history, from the Reformation under Luther with the 95 Thesis, to the faith movement with the truth of faith being brought forth in the church, to the prophetic movement with the restoration of the prophetic office, and now the apostolic movement. With each generation more of the fullness of Christ is restored to the church.

As we look at the world around us today we can become alarmed at the increasing darkness that is prevailing in society. But we must remember that when the darkness gets darker, the light and glory in the church will become more radiant!

Isaiah 60:2 "For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the Lord will arise over you. And His glory will be seen upon you."

The best way to expel the darkness is by turning on the light. We have Christians today trying to gain victory over spiritual darkness by expending energy fighting the darkness. Rather, they should focus on getting their spirits, souls, bodies and minds so filled with the light of God's glory and word that spiritual darkness wouldn't even have a place to hang around. The more we allow God's glory to consume our lives, the more radiant we will become and the less warfare we will have with spiritual darkness within our own minds and souls. Our light will so shine that, when we walk into an area that is dark, the light of the glory of God will cause demonic power to flee! We'll be like Peter whose very shadow healed the sick. That's the measure of the glory I want on my life and even more!

"IT'S FOR US TO EXPERIENCE AND WALK IN NOW"

Paul shared in Philippians 3:14, "I press toward the goal for the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." This is an upward call! That means more glory with each passing day we walk with God. We keep going higher and higher and higher in character, revelation, truth, and power.

There will be tremendous glory on the Last Day's Church. And WE are part of the Last Day's Church. The Last Days began when Jesus was taken off the earth. What the Lord showed me through His word was not something for 20, 50 or 100 years down the road. It's for us to experience and walk in NOW. "The just shall live by faith." By faith and walking with God in a lifestyle of intimacy, holiness, obedience, and truth we can access the fullness of all God has for us now.

As I waited on the Lord He brought me through the Book of Acts and gave me 30 characteristics of the Glory of God that will rest on the Church in these last days. As we meditate on these characteristics may your heart be filled with faith to experience the fullness of all God has for you!

1. THEY WERE IN ONE ACCORD IN ONE PLACE

Acts 2:1 "When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place."

We will see specific geographic locations visited and transformed by the Glory of God. This type of visitation will occur among believers who are unified in heart and mind.

2. EVERY NATION AND ALL FLESH

Acts 2:5, 17 "And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven...And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, that I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh."

Every nation will experience the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. I believe this even speaks of a worldwide awakening of the Holy Spirit that will sweep around the globe touching every nation, tribe, and tongue. No one will be left out. All flesh will encounter His glory, including every race, tribe, tongue, gender, and age group.

3. SONS AND DAUGHTERS, ENTIRE HOUSEHOLDS

Acts 2:17 "Your sons and your daughters..."

Acts 16:15 "And when she and her household were baptized..."

Acts 16:33-34 "Having believed in God with all his household..."

Entire households will be saved. Now is the time to aggressively pray for household salvation. The moving of the Lord upon unsaved family members will become so irresistible that, where they have been able to fight and push away the promptings of the Spirit before, they won't be able to escape.

4. DREAMS, VISIONS, AND TRANCES

Acts 2:17 "Your young men shall see visions, your old men shall dream dreams."

Acts 10:3 "He saw clearly in a vision an angel of God."

Acts 10:9-10 "He fell into a trance..."

Acts 16:9-10 "And a vision appeared to Paul in the night."

There will be an increase in the prophetic. Both the old and young will receive divine revelations from the Lord through prophecy, dreams, visions, and trances. We will walk and live in the revelation of the heart and mind of God.

5. SIGNS AND WONDERS IN THE HEAVENLIES AND ON THE EARTH

Acts 2:19-20 "I will show wonders in heaven above and signs in the earth beneath."

There will be physical signs in the heavenlies, not just miracles and healings, but in the very physical elements of nature.

6. MASS SALVATION AND HARVEST

Acts 2:21, 41 "That whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

There will be mass salvations as multitudes turn to the Lord and call upon Him for salvation, including the nation of Israel.

7, 8. WE WILL BE A CHURCH OF THE WORD AND PRAYER

Acts 2:42 "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers."

Acts 6:4 "But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

We will be a praying church who is solidly grounded in the Word of God, not easily moved by passing doctrines, fables and teachings. There will be a great balance between the life found in the Word and the life found in Prayer. They are like two wings of an airplane that will keep the church on course and in balance.

9. INCREASE OF CREATIVE MIRACLES

Acts 2:43 "And many wonders and signs were done through the apostles."

There will be an INCREASE OF CREATIVE MIRACLES as they church walks in power.

10. HOLY FEAR

Acts 2:43 "Then fear came upon every soul."

There will be a HOLY FEAR that rests on the Church, causing many to walk in holiness.

11. DIVINE FAVOR

Acts 2:47 "...praising God and having favor with all the people."

There will be a DIVINE FAVOR placed on the church, not only with God, but with man.

12. GIVING THAT RELEASES SUPERNATURAL PROVISION

Acts 2:45 "...and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need."

The church will walk in the truth and revelation of GENEROUS GIVING THAT RELEASES DIVINE, SUPERNATURAL PROVISION.

13. LIVING STONES BUILT TOGETHER

Acts 2:46 "So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house."

The move of God will be both in the TEMPLE (Church buildings) AND HOMES for we know that the true temple of God is wherever living stones are built together, including individual believers and groups of believers. God's glory won't be compartmentalized into "church life" and "regular home life." Even the homes will be filled with His presence and glory and will be places where Christians gather to share their faith with one another.

14. "CONTINUING" RELATIONSHIPS

Acts 2:42 "Continuing in fellowship..."

"CONTINUING" RELATIONSHIPS WILL BE THE STRUCTURE THAT HOLDS AND MAINTAINS THE MOVE OF GOD. God moves in the midst of community. We are a living temple built together stone upon stone, life upon life. There will be divine relationships established that will form a network that will be able to hold, maintain, and pour out the Glory of God into the earth.

15. OPERATE IN GOD-GIVEN AUTHORITY AND POWER

Acts 3:6 "What I do have I give you."

The Church will walk and operate in their God-given authority and power. We will know what we have and give it away.

16. THE CHURCH WILL BE A PLACE OF WONDER AND AMAZEMENT

Acts 3:10 "They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him."

God is restoring His wonder to the church.

17. PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL WITH SIGNS AND WONDERS

Acts 4:31, 33 "They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and they spoke the word of God with boldness. And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus."

The Church will walk in a supernatural boldness to proclaim the gospel with signs and wonders backing them up.

18. HEALING IN THE STREETS

Acts 5:14-16 "They brought the sick out in to the streets, and they were all healed."

There will be such a degree of power in the church that ALL WILL BE HEALED WITH SIGNS AND WONDERS BEING PERFORMED IN THE STREETS. God's glory will break outside the four walls of a church building and will be demonstrated in the streets where the lost, sick, and dying are.

19. ANGELIC ACTIVITY

Acts 5:17-19 "But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out."

ANGELIC ACTIVITY WILL BE COMMON FOR THE CHURCH. The realm of the Spirit and supernatural activity will be natural for the Last Day's Church. Visitations of angels will be understood and experienced in a biblical way.

20. GREAT JOY IN THE CHURCH

Acts 8:4-8 "And there was great joy in that city."

THERE WILL BE GREAT JOY IN THE CHURCH AS GOD'S POWER IS DISPLAYED, despite the increase of darkness in the world, along with possible persecution for our faith from those whose minds are blinded by the god of this age. Christians will live in a supernatural joy as they see the amazing miracles performed by the power of God.

21. SUPERNATURAL POWER AND ACTIVITY INCLUDING TRANSLATION

Acts 8:39 "The Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away."

Supernatural power and activity, including translation, being supernaturally taken from one location to another in bodily form by the power of the Spirit, will be experienced by the Church.

22. VISIONS OF THE LORD HIMSELF

Acts 9:3-4 "And suddenly a light shone around him from heaven."

These visions of Christ will even be given to those in the deepest darkness and will be a way the Lord reveals Himself. This will happen more and more in the Muslim world as well.

23. THE DEAD WILL BE RAISED

Acts 9:36-37, 40 "And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up."

The dead will be raised as a supernatural sign of the resurrection of Christ.

24. THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL BE POURED OUT ON ENTIRE GROUPS OF PEOPLE

Acts 10:44-46 "The Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word."

Including entire people groups, tribes, congregations, and denominations.

25. SUPERNATURAL DELIVERANCE WITH THE ACTIVITY OF ANGELS

Acts 12:5,7 "An angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison, and his chains fell off his hands."

There will be supernatural deliverance with the activity of angels.

26. ONLY GOD WILL GET THE GLORY

Acts 12:23 "An angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give the glory to God."

God is jealous for the glory. He wants ALL of it.

27. COMMISSIONED THROUGH FASTING AND PRAYER

Acts 13:2 "As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said 'Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.'"

People will be commissioned into their callings and destinies through fasting and prayer.

28. THERE WILL BE THE OPERATION OF GREAT AUTHORITY FOR DELIVERANCE

Acts 16:18 "'I command you in the name of Jesus to come out of her.' And he came out that very hour."

Not only will the Church heal the sick and see mighty miracles, but we will also move in deliverance seeing the oppressed set free from demonic power.

29. UNUSUAL MIRACLES

Acts 19:11-12 "Now God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul."

There will be UNUSUAL MIRACLES that God works through His servants. Even prayer clothes will carry the tangible anointing of the Holy Spirit.

30. HOLINESS AND PURITY WILL MARK THE CHURCH

Acts 5:4-5 "Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things."

Eph. 5:27 "That He might present her to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish."

There will be no inward toleration of sin or hypocrisy. Ananias and Sapphira were judged for their hypocrisy, setting a standard for God's holiness in the Church. Remember, with great power and authority comes great responsibility. The greater the glory and power God gives us, the purer we must be to hold that power.

God has given us the book of Acts as the standard for the operation of the supernatural in the Church. In a way, we are still writing the book of Acts as we move in the power of the Spirit and perform the works Christ has called us to do. The glory on the Last Day's Church will be even greater than that on the early church. There are still greater works God has called us to do to see all the nations brought into His Kingdom and come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Let's lay hold of the fullness of the Spirit by faith, step out and walk on the water! May God's glory fill your life with increasing power as you seek after Him.

Matt Sorger
Web: http://www.mattsorger.com Email: info@mattsorger.com

A Parable Of What Is To Come

Becky McLendon

In a dream I was put in charge of spraying the trees in this beautiful wilderness area to feed them. When I sprayed them they turned the most beautiful green. Hidden among the trees was a tall, blonde, blue-eyed man with a beautiful smile. He kissed me over and over and then went back into the trees. I kept doing my job and yearned for the young man to come back to me. Never could make out his face, but that he was so tall and his eyes were so blue (sapphires) and his kisses were so powerful. I woke up saying in my dream, I MUST get back to him. It has been so long since he has kissed me and held me.

Long ago there was a beautiful orchard. It wasn't time for leaves and the Lord said don't prune them or don't take any thing away from them, for it was not time for them yet. The trees are people, and the Lord is preaching through us to the people. We shall be called trees of righteousness. So what I was spraying on the leaves in the dream was righteousness through the revelation of Jesus in preaching that produced growth and life in the trees. As for the blue-eyed young man, the bride yearns for the husbandman of the orchard. The blue eyes are two sapphires glowing with the pure heavenly love of God to a people who love Him and completely give to Him. It is a love relation never known on this earth and can NEVER be explained or taught by human means. I think the “job” i was assigned has to do with my every day life and the job I have to do here until.... I am giving the leaves food and life and growth without knowing it. But the lord was showing me which trees to spray in the spirit. The lover of my soul remained hidden in the trees for the time being, but I was keenly aware of his presence there and I yearned for his kisses. I am sharing these things now with a people while He has to stay nearby, but hidden. But oh, how I searched for him and cried in my soul for him. It was just like a scene from Song of Solomon

Think of the symbols here:

1) leaves of the trees: are for the HEALING of the nations.

In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations REV. 22:2

2) Leaves of the fig tree: when you see them, it is SUMMER TIME.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: Matt 13:28

3) SAPPHIRES:

Job 28:!-13 Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it. Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone. He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death. The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men. As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire. The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold. There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen: The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it. He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots. He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing. He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light. But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding? Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

Rev. 21: 9-27 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

4) KISSES: to put together, kiss (Qal) to kiss (Piel) to kiss (Hiphil) to touch gently to handle, be equipped with (Qal) to be equipped armed, 2; armed men, 1; kiss, 29; kissed him, 1; ruled, 1; touched, 1; armed, 1; do homage, 2; equipped, 2; kiss, 8; kissed, 18; kisses, 2; threw a kiss, 1; touching, 1;

Song 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

It is amazing how the Lord provides the food for the nations. Amazing how the lord provides. He is reaching people, almost free with no bills to pay, so there is no need to beg for offerings. There is no tedious, tiresome study either. He feeds us in the night hours to give us words during the day to feed the nations. Bakeries say we bake while you sleep. So it is with God’s bakery!!! There is bread baking while we sleep and when we wake up there is breakfast and enough to feed the multitudes. Read job 28. He says as for the earth, out of it cometh bread

This is casting the net on the right side and catching the full to overflowing fish. This is casting your bread upon the waters and watching it return to you multiplied. This is giving out of your bosom and watching a fruitful harvest being returned to you, so that the Lord can say NOW my barns are full. This is spraying the leaves of the trees for the healing of the nations. It is done in quietness and confidence, not in frenzied religious activity. True faith has a quietness about it. There is no need to run about, toiling and spinning and fretting. There is no “my ministry” in true faith. It is all about Jesus, and when that is all there is to it, Jesus comes with his kisses and equips us, arms us and fills us to over flowing with the true bread of life. And that bread is not hoarded in our pantries. It is given to the nations for food.

Amen and Shalom,
Becky

Faith In The Fire
Becky McLendon

Romans 9:16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

Nancy Sinatra had a popular song in the 60’s “These Boots Were Made For Walkin’.” But we are shod with the gospel of peace, and these shoes were made to stand still in; not run in. So we stand still and see the salvation of God in our trials.

If we have a problem we let the Lord translate us. A friend said to me recently: “Once I wanted a divorce; I once wanted to quit my job; I once wanted to quit the church I was going to. But the Lord would not let me run.” The Lord said, “You stay until you have victory. You stay in that place until you have victory over that spirit that binds you.” He allows the trials then He preaches to us in the trials to bring us the victory.

Luke 13:19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

Every living thing towered over the mustard seed. But Jesus said faith could become the greatest; it didn't have to quit or move yonder. The faith of the election will outgrow every thing there is. Let the world tell you about how great this and that is how terrible, how powerful the enemy is, but faith will outgrow it.

Exodus 14:13 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

It’s the Lord's way of giving us power so we won't sit under a juniper tree and be a crybaby, “The devil is giving me a hard time.” Be quiet and give the devil a hard time. Let’s catch the little foxes and set their tails on fire. In the pathway of righteousness there are trials, and so it is the more the trials, more the power; more trials; more power. Things that should be bringing people closer to the Lord is killing them .he that believeth not shall be damned.

Romans 12:3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. But where is that faith?

Many believe in diseases, tornadoes, heart trouble, turmoil and problems more than they believe Jesus. Conversion believes in Jesus. We will bear in our bodies the marks of the Lord Jesus, so what He endured so shall we in His name. Instead of believing in the trial we believe in the anointing that takes the trial away. It’s a trying time. But his faith remains. By his faith we overcome. Its what he believes that gets us through. To keep his sayings, we keep what he believes. Conversion is living only by his saying. Jesus kept the Father’s sayings and ignored and deleted what others said.

LIFT UP YOUR HEAD AND REJOICE YOUR REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH!!

Blessings and shalom,
Becky

Plans
Becky McLendon

I dreamed recently that I told our son about getting into the oven of the stove and turning it on to 300 degrees for an hour. I told him that it would cleanse him. He and a young woman got in there, I saw them turn it on (their decision to follow through), and he said “It can get hot in here.” They both had large gold watches on, and he said let’s take these off they might burn our arms. The oven turned on, the door locked and I knew they would be in there for one hour. My husband and I left the house and my thoughts were on my son and the young lady in the oven, locked in there until the hour was up. I could not “rescue them” and I knew the heat of the oven would do what it was supposed to do. God is preparing for him a helpmeet and they BOTH have to go through this fire for a set time and a set heat to destroy all THEIR plans and line them up with HIS plans. “Our” plans do NOT coincide with God’s until “our plans” ARE God’s plans.

John 10:5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

We see man's plans as strangers; we know only the voice of the Lord's plan. From others we flee. From. We can pray for our government, but their plans are strangers to us. We look to His plan that will save to the uttermost. His plan will heal the land. If we are in His plan, we are 2 Chronicles 7:14 made flesh! We will not add, and we will not take away, and we shall see the land of quick healing.

The greater works anointing is waiting until just before he goes with us to do the preaching. It is a promise until then. To go any other way is like Little Jack Russell chasing the master down the road when he is supposed to remain at home. That is why He has us waiting!

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Do! Do! Do! ...A man with no vision of Jesus doing the preaching is driven by the devil: hurry go preach your time is short go preach. It’s the devil that hurries man out to do the preaching. That man is in the devil’s fire; not the Lord’s. It is wild fire that sets out with that kind of preaching. The lord wants us to get out of the devils fire and come into his fire of cleansing and perfecting. Wildfires do not have any purpose in the kingdom.

Foresters do "controlled" burns at the orders of someone over them saying go to this part of the forest and set fire to the undergrowth so the tress can grow. It is a controlled burn that we are in. God prescribes it...as in that dream: 300 degrees in a locked oven for one hour, but don’t look at your watch! Without such a fire, the undergrowth will choke out the tree of righteousness and the tree of life in us!

There is a the place that He goes to prepare for us. Anytime we see the Lord heading down the road ahead of us we know He goes to prepare that anointing for us to go to the next step. We will have a house from heaven for all that we do. As Jesus said, "The Lord has anointed me." That anointing is the house. We have a house for each thing before we do it. The one we are married to will do the preaching. Those that are not married to him have to do the preaching right now, and they are “on fire for Jesus” with the devil’s fire.

This is amazing when I said to myself the Lord was revealing so much this morning, i had no clue what he was revealing until I "opened my mouth" on this keyboard! That goes to show us the anointing to preach is on us even before the words are formed in our minds...so we are not to take care as to what we shall say in that day...for the Holy Spirit will give utterance. We don’t have to spend days on end “trying to study scripture to prepare a sermon.” If we abide in Jesus the word, he will give us the words that speak life to the nations when he sends us. So hang itineraries. Hang agendas and bulletins. Hang “my ministry” mentality. Come to His fire of burning until His plans become ours.
Blessings and Shalom,
Becky

Appointed Times

Carla Rickard

Stay Obedient and Operate in Season

September 17 2005

Exodus 13:10
Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.
Leviticus 23:4
These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.
Ecclesiastes 3:1
To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
Luke 1:20
And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
John 5:4
For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had
Acts 24:25
And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

Everything has a season. There is a time to every purpose. This is such a crucial statement of TRUTH in the word of God. So many of us receive from the Lord but go ahead or behind and are out of DIVINE beat. He is the LORD OF THE DANCE. When we dance out of time, we have lost our grace and flow. We have taken ashes instead of beauty. It is like one piston in an engine of a vehicle out of time and causing the engine to misfire and run rough.

The Lord instructs in Exodus 13:10 that he had given an ordinance in HIS season. The Lord chooses the season. For clarity, the word ordinance means: the act of ordaining; the act of conferring (or receiving) holy orders. Any WORD, instruction, or prompting of the Lord through the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, IS A HOLY ORDER of AUTHORITY from the Most High. The Lord also gives a season with an ordinance. This is why many feel as though the Lord is not moving on promises spoken years ago. We can not forget that there is a SEASON, for which the thing is to occur. There is a season for which to speak. Jesus knew the seasons of the Father. He never spoke before or after the Father. He spoke IN TIME.

In Luke we can see this again. There was a time to speak. It was spoken in its proper season. There is a season for those words to come to pass. To everything there is a season and a time to EVERY PURPOSE under the heaven. God is the God of Time. He isn’t constrained by time, but He expects US to obey HIS time calendar!

What we are NOT to do is pick a convenient season for to respond to the Lord in obedience. We must not do as Felix did.

How are you walking? Is Jesus close enough to you to whisper and you can hear Him plain? Are you dancing so close that you know His Timing and flow accordingly? Are you the clanging symbol throwing the orchestra into irritating tones? Consider these. This is the Word of the Lord.

RULES OF THUMB

1. If you feel pressured- its NOT God's timing
2. If you feel hurried-its NOT God's timing
3. If you lose peace considering moving into a choice- its Not God's timing

Reconsider not necessarily the Word you have received, but your perception of the timing. You may have heard right, but are off the timing for THE DANCE. Stay joyful. The Devil can't keep your goods if he can't STEAL your JOY.

Fire Released From The Bones
Carla Rickard

September 11 2005

EasternFire Ministries

The Lord gave me a vision while deep, so deep in the Spirit during worship. He showed me the people's veins in the congregation. Veins that had liquid fire flowing through them. The fire was a beautiful red and gold.

The Lord told me:

There is fire that has been shut up in the bones that is being released into those who are willing to be bold and fearless. There is a strong Prophetic Worship coming onto " ordinary" people. This anointing comes in an instant. There is no need to "work it up". It's walking always in glory. It is beginning first in those who have been last. It is in those who have nothing but total trust and faith and abandon to Me. Those who have been using their gift, where ever they can, this anointing will fall on them suddenly.

The requirements have already been fulfilled. The requirements are trial by fire, to enter into MASTERY IN FIRE. There are few, but they are planted in various spots, who are NOW walking in MASTERY IN FIRE. For once the Fire comes, and mastery occurs, then the manifestation of rain appears! Those who have ears to hear. LISTEN and REJOICE!

A Pain Reliever

Danny Korakas

Jul 17, 2005

"For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven. And although you were formally alienated and hostile in MIND, engaged in evil deeds, yet He has now reconciled you in His fleshly body through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach. (Colossians 1:19-22)

"But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that He, by the grace of God, might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through SUFFERINGS. (Hebrews 2:9-10)

The multitude of yellow ribbons we see today have become a familiar symbol of our thoughts and prayers concerning those who defend our country. The yellow ribbon is a symbol of a "welcome home" to those who have "suffered" and fought through the virtue of self-sacrifice. In the fallen world in which we live, wars and casualties of war have been necessary to defeat the sinful pride and greed of humanity that resides in the heathen soul. The Bible itself is filled with both the natural and spiritual aspects of warfare and the by-product of suffering, the agony of defeat, and the rewards of victory. Regardless of how we view "warfare" and even life; it will have woven within it the elements of "suffering."

The world yesterday and today, has and is laced with the battles of justice and injustice. The yellow, pink, and blue ribbons that are so visible today, are expressions of appreciation for the willingness of others to suffer for our well being and the hope of a safe return home. In essence, it is an acknowledgment of "we love you." I find it to be a paradox that we can so earnestly love those who are willing to suffer on our behalf but resist or even deny the thought and reality of suffering ourselves. It is my hope that this article will bring a greater understanding to the nature and place of suffering and its application in the life of a believer in Jesus Christ.

Now, I can imagine what the response would be in most churches if I took the pulpit and titled my message, "The benefits of suffering." I would assume that many would be uncomfortable, non-attentive in denial, and I probably would not be invited back. Our human or fleshly intellect reasons with a "selective" biblical approach that suffering is for those ("Christians") who are sinning and health, wealth, and prosperity are for the godly. However, this ideal or viewpoint does not line up with the fullness of God's Word. It is not the example that we see in scripture nor is it real life. As a matter of fact, we witness exactly the opposite for those who were most obedient in their calling. A good question is why?

In all honesty, I don't like suffering any more than most of you do. However, we desperately need the grace of truth to manifest and grant us understanding to the Lord's ways and purposes and not our own. After all, the rubber truly hits the road in our "readiness" not "willingness" to suffer or even die for the cause of Christ. It is our readiness within the plan and purposes of God that truly brings the anointing and fragrance of Christ into our lives and produces everlasting fruit for future generations.

Many of our addictive behaviors, defeats, and losses in life have been the result of a MIND without Christ rather than the "mind of Christ." All of us are a work in progress and process. For the perfecting work of Christ to bring us into maturity and victory, we need to arm ourselves with the "Sword of the Spirit" (the Word of God), but also the "mind" that Christ had toward suffering. Read closely the following verse and notice the missing WEAPON that many of us have neglected or have even rejected:

"Forasmuch then as Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, ARM YOURSELVES likewise with the same MIND: for he that has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin." (1 Peter 4:1)

Now, it is vital that we understand that suffering is not what we are to "arm" ourselves with – It is having the mind of Christ or the mind that Christ had toward suffering. In other words, the divine understanding of suffering and how it plays in the life of a believer is what empowers or arms us. The power of the resurrection and the tremendous strength and courage that it took to endure the cross was the clear understanding by Jesus of what His suffering would produce in God's plan and wisdom. Again, it would be this understanding that would give Christ and the saints of the scriptures and history the strength to face the trials that a fallen world would ultimately and certainly produce. Look, lets get our proverbial heads out of the sand and know that various trials and suffering WILL be a part of our lives. It is how we respond and view these trials that will make a world of difference and a difference in the world.

It is within this grace that we can move into trials and even suffering without fear and the knowledge that God is working all things together for our good and well-being. It allows us to look through spiritual eyes at our situations and even adversaries in new ways that draws us into "What does God desire to do in my life through this situation or person." Ultimately it produces the ripening and mature fruit of the Spirit. Both Peter and James would write and clearly speak by the leading of Holy Spirit to us today – "Count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete lacking nothing." You may ask, how? The answer is simple: When we "embrace" the fires of life rather than resist or run from them, we place ourselves in a position of faith to see the power of God's hand upon our life and circumstance in leading us to maturity and victory. Can we really assume that we can or will mature "perfectly" left to our own devices and love for what is easy?

Now, none of us should seek or feel that we need trials of suffering in our lives – If we are truly walking with Christ as His witness, we will not have to look for it! It is ridiculous to idolize the saints of old who became hermits and subjected "themselves" to various trials (Isolation, speechlessness, poverty, physical endurance to the elements of extreme weather, ect.) This has little to none in being a witness of Jesus Christ and changing the world around us. As a matter of fact, we become even more irrelevant or even "nutty" to a lost world than we already are. It also points to a work based "religion" that nullifies the rest and assurance of God's love and grace.

Now, I am not saying that trials and suffering are a joy or fun. (We count it all joy knowing the perfecting work it produces depending on our RESPONSE. But, it is not a joy in and of itself.) Even Jesus Himself asked that His "Father remove the cup that was set before Him" (paraphrased). However, we must stop at this point and look into the face of Truth and realize that it has been the trials and suffering in our lives that have produced the most lasting effects toward necessary change, maturity and transition. Why, because so few of us are willing to change on our own initiative. God, in His mercy and kindness, will oftentimes use trials and elements of suffering to promote sanctification, maturity, and compassionate identification in our lives. Come on, lets stop acting like Job never existed and that Abraham didn't terribly suffer in walking with His son Isaac. What about Joseph, who was unjustly imprisoned? Or, Moses, who had to walk in the desert, deprived of his inheritance with a complaining and unbelieving people. How can we truly and compassionately relate to another's trials and needs to bring genuine comfort if we have never experienced them ourselves? We can only give what we truly have. God is much more concerned with our character than He is our comfort. It when our character is Christ-like that we can offer "real" comfort and healing to another. The anointing and power of God rests upon the "character" of a man or women.

It seems that today's modern church moves in the exact opposite direction. We are appalled at suffering and have a genuine fear of it. The Bible says that God has not given us a spirit of fear but of a sound "MIND." Moving fearlessly through life as an ambassador of Christ is the character of a CHRISTIAN and one who has the right and the birthright to be called such. We are mocked today for our lukewarm and irrelevant lifestyle as a corporate body. The world clearly knows that we will never be a REVOLUTIONARY people as long as we are primarily a COMFORT seeking people. Humanity knows all to well from history that the only revolutions that have been successful were brought forth by people who truly BELIEVED in their cause and were willing to lay their life down for the sake of others for that cause. Radical? Absolutely! Wasn't Jesus?

It is important to understand that all suffering does not originate from the hand of God. Persecution and suffering can come from the devil and demonic activity. However, believers can suffer persecution and it is not because they have sinned or lived a life that was unworthy of Christ dying for. 1 Timothy 3:12 states, "Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution." 1 Peter 4:16 goes on to say, " Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in the matter." The Bible is clear in that suffering and the trials of life is something that everyone, including the righteous will experience. Again, the purpose of this article is not to glorify suffering. It is to equip and encourage the importance and spiritual significance to our "readiness" and the way we "RESPOND" to trials and suffering.

Beloved, our response to trials, persecution, and elements of suffering are the defining moments in our lives toward maturity and spiritual promotion. The stewardship of the anointing in the spiritual and the emotional peace and quality of life we live in natural, hinges upon our response to adversity. It is my hope and prayer that we will approach our places of employment, relationships, and view of life in a new and fresh way. Our acceptance and readiness to suffering will afford tremendous opportunities to truly minister the love of God and the fruit of His Spirit. Peter and James "counted the joy" of USING these times of adversity as a means of spiritual growth and ministry. To run, neglect, deny, complain, or hide, from adversity only paints a picture of faithlessness to the world that the Lord is not taking care of you and has failed in His promises. Again, no one should ask for or like suffering. However, nobody, and I mean nobody has ever escaped it. Moving through trials and adversity is a valuable part of the Christian life when approached with the mind of Christ as an opportunity for ministry, growth, maturity, and RECONCILIATION – for which we are called "ministers."

"For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which we see are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal." (2 Corinthians 4:17-18)

Remember, to "arm yourself" with suffering is the knowledge that we have ceased from sin and that the Lord's desire is to prove or set us before the world as an example of being perfected in faith. This is a prophetic clarion from the Lord to begin giving "perfecting" words and actions to adverse conversations and situations. We are being called to be a witness to the strength of Christ's anointing and not our constant whining and complaining. Our readiness and response to suffering and adversity is the most practical and applicable means of evangelism and revival. However, it is least exercised.

I began this article using the yellow ribbon as an analogy of our appreciation for those "soldiers" who have suffered in defending their homeland. I believe that it is time that we (the church) begin defending our "Homeland" by the life we live and portray. I know that there will be ribbons of gold and a incomparable "I love you and I have missed you" from heaven.

All articles by Watermark Ministry may be reprinted in their entirety.

www.watermarkministry.injesus.com

www.watermarkministry.org

A Prophetic Word For Our Season

Lance Lambert

Jun 2, 2005

I believe that we are at an unbelievably significant and dangerous juncture in world history, in Church history, and in Israel's history. We are witnessing the world, and especially the old so-called, "Christian world," sliding into the arms of the antichrist. The spirit of antichrist has always been in the world, making its first appearance in the Garden of Eden, and progressing until the present time. Shortly, however, the incarnation of that spirit will appear. He is called, in the word of God, in the second letter of the Apostle Paul to the Thessalonians, and chapter two, verses 3, 4, and 8, "the man of sin, the lawless one, the one who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God." These are very interesting titles. The "sinful man," that is the one who believes in sin and in self as the key to everything-the "lawless one" - not the gangster-but the one who does not accept the revealed law of God as the basis for life. The one who opposes all that is called God, and exalts himself against all that is called God-I find it very, very interesting, this description. Those nations that became great through embracing the word of God-the revealed law of God, who owned the Messiah as Savior, and the living Word of God, manifest in the flesh, have now rejected Him and God's word, reverting to pagan concepts. The very nations, who through a work of the Holy Spirit, resulting in multiple conversions and transformed lives-lives that were lived in following the Lord Jesus' disciples-those same nations were nationally transformed. It was the living and active power in God's word that changed such nations and made them great. Today, those nations are not only rejecting that heritage, but trampling it under foot. This can only lead to disillusion, terrible bondage and judgment. Some believers and Bible teachers speak of human conspiracies. I do not believe that is a right understanding of our present situation. It is true that there is the "Bilderberg connection." Now the Bilderberg circle, partly founded by Kissinger, is a very shadowy group of leaders, both cultural leaders, economic leaders, and political leaders-even religious leaders-who come together from time to time, in a very secretive type of gathering, to discuss the world problems, and particularly, globalization as the solution.

In my estimation, whilst there are human conspiracies, the real conspirator, the conspirator is Satan, with a conspiratorial hierarchy of evil. In the Apostle Paul's letter to the Ephesians, he speaks in chapter 6 and verse 12, of "not wrestling against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world rulers of this darkness, against hosts of wicked spirits in the heavenlies." It is Satan, himself, who is the one coordinating unsaved and fallen flesh and blood, using even so-called Christian leaders, to fall in line with his purpose, finally, to win the world.

Thus we see an incredible coordination of unbelieving men and women, on every level of world society, working towards the resurrection and revival of Babel, with the same character and the same pride and determination that energized Babel. These are not naïve and unsuspecting people, captured without knowing it by demonic means, but they are adult in every way-mature. They are what are described by the Apostle Paul, also in that Ephesian letter, chapter two, and verse two, as "sons of disobedience," energized by the spirit of evil. Interesting, it says "sons," not children, but "sons of disobedience." This will all end in terrible corruption and sin. It came from hell, and will return to it.

The United Nations, with its warped priorities, with its present scandals to do with money and sex, going up to the highest ranks in its leadership, accurately represents this Babel. Forget the highfaluting words and mottos, the reality is the glorification of fallen man. Behind the words lies the spirit of antichrist. Thank God that in every nation, every ethnic group, every race, God, by His Holy Spirit, and through the finished work of the Messiah, Jesus, is calling people to Himself, to be His own-to belong to, to represent, and manifest another kingdom. In some parts of the world, this work of His is so powerful, that it is impacting national life. For example, in Africa, in South America, in Mainland China, in Southeast Asia-only in the old "Christian heartlands," so-called, is there so meager a response. This is my burden.

Whilst the whole world slides into the arms of the antichrist, the Church, which should be the witness to the world, warning it, and by the very light of God within in, shining into the darkness-salt that checks the corruption-the Church in the Western nations, is dancing, clapping, and seemingly worshipping, whilst on the edge of a precipice, leading to destruction, and without any understanding of the danger that confronts the world society at present, and the Church.

Please do not misunderstand me-I believe in true worship-worship in spirit and in truth. I have no problem with clapping or dancing. I do have a problem with worship, which is totally orchestrated, with a kind of worship, which is a form of "entertainment"-worship which becomes a form of escapism, a means of escapism, which blinds believers to reality. Again, let me say that I am not speaking of those ancient, institutional churches, from which long ago spiritual life and fervor has gone, leaving behind only the form of godliness, but denying the power of God.

It is interesting to note that Pope John Paul II, since my last Update in January, has died. Whilst not in any way commending the Roman Catholic system, one can only record that if the Protestant leaders, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Moderator of the Methodist Church, or other Protestant leaders, had one-eighth of Pope John Paul's courage, to stand up and be counted, on a whole number of moral issues-unpopular as they are in contemporary thought and society-the Protestant denominations of all colors, would not be in the serious decay and deterioration they are. Instead, they try to be popular, contemporary and "with it." Their compromised appeasement policy does not win them any respect or support. If they were to die, very few would come out on the streets. Yet millions of young people turned out for the Pope's funeral. Thus it must have been a shock to many such churchmen. How could so many millions have respected a seemingly arch-conservative, with anti-views and concepts so contrary to modern society and philosophy? Yet, there must have been something, somehow, within so many that responded to the fact that there was truth in what he said about abortion, about euthanasia, about gay-rights, and about many other things. I have said I am not speaking about those ancient institutional churches, but I am speaking about evangelical and charismatic assemblies and churches. They are, in so many cases today, Laodecean. They have all the required forms, sound doctrine, biblical ritual, but the Lord is outside, and they are not aware of it. Without even recognizing it, they have become in many instances, the epitome of dead Phariseeism-the very group which they believe represents only Jews. They cannot hear His knocking, let alone His voice. They believe they are "it," they have arrived, they are rich, they have all knowledge, they are properly clothed spiritually, they have need of nothing. Yet, the Messiah Jesus says, "You are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked." What a catalog!

A Laodecean church is lukewarm, apathetic, unburdened, comfortable, undisturbed. The lukewarm never repent. Apathy immunizes people against repentance. As I have said before, a Laodecean church can consist of all born-again believers, and can have the Lord's table, Bible studies, evangelistic outreach and work, and yet, the Head of the Church is outside and unheard. Is it possible to have times with much excitement, movement, and all the trappings of a live church, and be deaf to the Lord and Savior? It is. When it has become routine, when flesh has taken over from the true leading and power of the Spirit, that is what it becomes. Deaf, blind, wretched, miserable and poor. These are not my words; these are the words of the Head of the Church.

And what about shepherds who have no understanding of the times, and therefore cannot warn the flock of what has happened? For this reason, I have such a deep burden for the European nations, particularly for the Anglo-Saxon nations of Britain and the United States. It seems to me an inescapable conclusion that in the fulfillment of the purpose of God for the Church and for the nations, He watched over the bringing and the success of the Gospel in the British Isles, from naked savages painted with woad [blue dye], and wearing leather and feathers, from pirates and buccaneers, God, through the section of the Gospel to change lives, watched over the development of one of the greatest empires in world history-and in spite of its many failings, one of the most just and civilizing empires. Whatever its dark side was, through it, the Gospel came to much of the world.

The British Empire governed one-quarter of the world's surface, and seven times the population of the Roman Empire. The British-Israel theory, in my estimation, is false, built on erroneous interpretations. Yet the many references in the prophetic word of God to "the isles," in Hebrew, coastlands, or we could understand it as "the West" that is, everything when you go west from the Promised Land, you come to the coastlands. But the coastlands of Greece are all islands-many, many islands, and so this word, "isles," or "coastlands," in Hebrew, is literally, what lies west of Israel. It's not wrong to understand this as the West. It seems as if it has found a wondrous fulfillment in the reception of the Gospel in the Western nations-the producing, particularly in Britain-of a nation founded on God's word, and His Gospel, to become a center of divine light, radiating into the whole world.

Consider for a moment, what did Isaiah-in particular Isaiah-see in this matter? Think. Isaiah 49:1,6: "Listen O isles, unto me, hearken ye people from far, the Lord has called me (this is the Lord Jesus) from the womb..." (it's the Messiah) "I (God) will give thee (it says in verse six) for a light to the Gentiles that thou mayest be my salvation to the ends of the earth." Or again, Isaiah 42:4: "He will not fail nor be discouraged till He accept justice in the earth and the isles shall wait for His law." Or again, Isaiah 50:9, "Surely the isles shall wait for me." Again, Isaiah 66:19: "And I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them, unto the nations, to the isles afar off, that have not heard of my fame, neither have seen my glory, and they shall declare my glory among the nations." Isn't that interesting? And they-that is these particular nations "shall declare my glory among the nations." And again in Isaiah 55:5: "Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and a nation that knew not thee will run unto thee, because of the Lord, thy God."

No wonder British and Irish soil was soaked with the blood of martyrs, as the powers of darkness sought to frustrate God's purpose. To me, the United States was the extension of this, founded on the same biblical principles-in many ways, the United States was even more faithful and devoted to the Gospel and to the word of God. After all, it was persecuted, and hated Christian believers, unyielding in their loyalty and obedience to Christ and to God's word, who were exiled to North America, to found, in the purpose of God, one of the greatest nations in history.

It is all of this that Britain is rejecting. Only God can save her from this folly. In a prophecy, which Mother Barbara heard when she was a young girl of 16 in 1911, in Russia, in a place north of Moscow, it was said, "And Britain will lose her empire and all her colonies, but will be saved by praying women." In two world wars, when all seemed lost, God saved Britain. Will He do it again? He used remarkable prayer warriors-nearly in all cases-women. Will He do it again? Unless the Lord dramatically intervenes, I see nothing but judgment for Britain. Yet, even in judgment, God could grant an awakening that could sweep millions into the Kingdom of God.

The Lord has given the United States a four-year window of opportunity. If the Church in the United States humbles itself and with many and genuine tears-and I mean it-with many, and genuine tears, such tears represent a heart burden that could hardly be held-only with such tears, the evidence of something so painful within the spirit, will God hear. But if the Church in the United States humbles itself and with many and genuine tears repents its Laodecean condition, its comfortable, undisturbed kind of state, the fact that it feels it's reached the zenith-that it's got everything-the Lord may well give to the United States one of the greatest awakenings in the history of the Church. Otherwise, she will fall from her Super-power status, and a flood of demonic darkness will submerge her.

Listen to me. It is no easy thing for me to say such words. I don't like confrontation, and I don't like having to say things like this, but as surely as I speak on this tape or CD, American will fall, and become like the British Isles-an offshore island of Europe, so America will fall back to become just nothing amongst the nations of the world, whilst other nations will begin to rise to their zenith.

What should be our response to all of this? It seems to be that there are seven imperatives.

(1) The first is absolute faithfulness to the word of God-to its authority, its inspiration, and its relevance in all its parts. We will not reinterpret God's word to make it contemporary. We will be faithful to His word, however much it costs us. We will let go of what is not in His word, and we will obey what is in His word. We must not only hear the word of God-vital as that is-we must do the word of God. The Scripture is very clear-"All scripture is inspired of God and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction, which is in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work."

(2) The second imperative is a full and complete devotion and allegiance to the Lord Jesus, to His person, and His work. The Apostle Paul, writing in the Ephesian letter, chapter 1:9,says, "Making known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in the Lord Jesus, unto a dispensation of the fullness of times to sum up all things in Christ." There is no substitute for devotion to the Lord Jesus. In the Colossian letters, in chapter one, verse 18: "He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things, He might have the preeminence." We must not countenance any move that devalues the Lord Jesus-making Him less than He is-giving Him a lesser place than the Father has given Him. We will not belittle His finished work on the cross-that so great and complete salvation, which He won for us in His substitutionary death.

(3) Thirdly, we must know the Holy Spirit, His person, and His work. There is no alternative to the work of the Holy Spirit, both His indwelling and His anointing. Without His ministry, we become merely religious. His power, His equipment and gifts, His instruction, are all essential. We must be filled with the Holy Spirit, and we must be anointed with the Holy Spirit.

(4) Fourthly, we must, with utmost devotion to the Lord, preach the Gospel. It has to be preached in the whole world, for a testimony to all nations, before the end comes, Jesus said in Matthew's Gospel, chapter 24, verse 14. Therefore, we must support fully and wholeheartedly even Gospel work and endeavor that is under the anointing of God. Nor is this "decision preaching"-some modern, contemporary preaching of the Gospel, emptied of its true content. It is our common salvation, the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints. We have absolutely no right or authority to reinterpret it, or rewrite it.

(5) Fifthly, we need a spirit of genuine repentance for ourselves, for our church and for our nation. We will seek such a spirit, only when there are many tears of repentance will God, perchance, have mercy upon us, and turn again to our nations in saving and transforming power.

(6) Sixthly, the sixth imperative is true and powerful intercession. We are watchmen on the walls of Jerusalem-whether it is to do with Israel, or whether it is to do with the Church, the Body of Messiah-only the Spirit of God can produce such intercession. We're not talking about prayer or petition, but the kind of burden that is on the heart of the Lord Jesus, communicated by the Spirit of God to us-in fact, burdens, conceived in us by the Spirit-producing travail, which in turn brings fulfillment of God's purpose.

(7) Seventhly, there is no substitute for the fire of God. I'm not speaking of strange, or foreign fire-something that is to do with emotional, something that is fleshly fire, or even demonic fire. I mean the genuine fire of God. God always answered by fire. It is the symbol of His presence. The fire that impacted the whole world in the early Church, and turned it upside down and inside out-that's the kind of fire we need. The fire that burned in John Huss, and led him to his death-in William Tyndale and his martyrdom, in Martin Luther, in Count Zinzendorf, and the Moravians that went to the farthermost and uttermost parts of the earth, with that fire burning in them-a hundred year prayer meeting, in which the fire was found. In George Fox and those early Quakers that transformed the face of Britain and the American colonies-in John and Charles Wesley, in George Whitefield, that at a point of terrible depravity and hopelessness in Britain, God, through the fire in these men, turned the whole situation, and produced one of the greatest awakenings in British history. John Nelson Darby, and the other early Brethren leaders, in Watchman Nee and those with him in China-also a martyr-many of them. Lukewarmness is the antithesis of fire. Fire is utter-100%, total in devotion, in endurance, in sacrifice, in fulfillment.

We have no other possibility. These are the seven imperatives that I believe that we need to take note of in a world that is sliding relentlessly, irreversibly into the arms of the antichrist. I hope that many of you will hear this voice of mine, and though I speak in weakness, in many ways, yet the power of God's word, as I see it, should be enough to impact every one of you, and somehow or other to challenge you to a new place, where you will stand before God.

Israel needs such prayer and such intercession. The true Church-if she is to make herself ready for the coming of the Lord needs such prayer. The nations, if they're amongst the young people in all the nations-the new generations, there are those, who at present are blinded by the god of this world-they need to see something of that fire of God, in those who know the Lord. That's the way things begin, and that's the way so many could be saved-like brands snatched out of the burning.

Well, dear people of God, hear this message today-this Update-hear it, and turn to the Lord, and ask Him to burden you in a deeper and fuller way, than ever before

Annual Prophetic Word
John Mark Pool

Calendar Year: 2005

As I draw into the Secret Place of God during the close of each year to hear the voice of God for each approaching year, I sensed the shifting in the heavenlies for 2005. The Lord allowed me to see many things in the Spiritual Realm for this New Year. As you know, the revelation begins in the spiritual realm first as the Lord then displays His physical occurrences with many ingredients involved to bring this to pass. Nonetheless, I felt the Lord impress on me during this time of writing that the catastrophic tsunami wave that flooded Southeast Asian countries including Sri Lanka, India, and Indonesia, was reversed as was manifested first in the physical is but an example of what God is about to do spiritually around the globe and in the USA. We have seen a major shifting! This is for sure one of the spiritual realms that is to certainly come full circle this year. I saw many things that involve Isaiah 40:22 that emphasized the "Circle of the Earth."

"CHUWG, chuwg, is Hebrew for circle. We are coming into full circle of the Earth! The Christian Voice will become a voice to be reckoned with this year and for sure in the next 4 years. Job 22:14 says, "He walketh in the circuit of heaven." Jehovah God is our Lord and He encircles the whole earth and now we must do the same.

We will begin to experience many blessings coming full circle this year! We have seen prior much seed planted in 2004 and the blessings will now come. Favor is upon all those who seek the Lord to get into His Circle of Completeness! I had an open vision in my secret place and saw the heavens open up and all the worshippers were around the throne room. The saints began to praise louder and the music brought the throngs into several circles. As the same praise and worship music played to the identical beat or rhythm the circles connected hand in hand and many arms overlapping arms as one circle danced one way the other immediately in front of those went to the worship music the opposite direction. It was constant circular motion of masses of worshippers praising the Lord in both dance and singing in rhythm in circular motions. It was spectacular and I felt the Lord say to me that we will connect here on this earth with that spirit of unity and move in a circular motion as we physically circle the earth. Also, God's blessings are coming home to connect many dots that make a huge net. This net of blessing is getting bigger and will soon circle the earth! I viewed what I feel was another rendition of more layers of praise leading to worship with the "wheels inside wheels" circling to the High Praise of Jehovah God. Ezekiel saw this in Chapter 10:9-13, "9 Each of the four cherubim had a wheel beside him, and the wheels sparkled like chrysolite.

10 All four wheels looked the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it.
11 The cherubim could move forward in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. They went straight in the direction in which their heads were turned, never turning aside.
12 Both the cherubim and the wheels were covered with eyes. The cherubim had eyes all over their bodies, including their hands, their backs, and their wings.
13 I heard someone refer to the wheels as "the whirling wheels."

On the other hand, I saw other circles that will cause much devastation. I saw many large hurricanes coming to the south central, and the extreme Eastern USA, especially the mid and upper Atlantic seaboard. The recent earthquakes, floods and hurricanes are only to increase upon the earth as this year will experience even more catastrophes both in the USA and countries that purposefully denounce and persecute citizens who believe that Jesus Christ is the Lord by whom all humans must believe in order to have access to the only one true Jehovah God.

We will see more of the merciful hand of God grab the attention of the earth's population as the major shaking that is about to happen takes place. These are birth pangs of a Major Move of God, as the world has never seen. This "child of God" has been awaiting His timing for years. Now in 2005, the year of Grace, God will begin such a major birthing of a Move of God as this country has yet to experience.

The breaking and shaking is the as in the natural birth process. The "water has broken" (especially in Sri Lanka, India, Indonesia, and that area) and now the breaking forth of the flow of God will move in. The shaking is the equivalent to the pushing and delivering forth anything that God wants to move out. God told me again as was emphasized last year that we must be willing as leaders of churches and ministries to lay aside every form of personal agendas. The Body of Christ will begin to reach across all man-made boundaries and denominational borders to grab each other linking arm in arm to fulfill this John 17 prayer of Jesus for unity in His Bride. A baby that will come is moving out, but just before the moving out, then the dragon that has been perched in the way, must also be shaken out. That old dragon has infected the Body of Christ long enough with the spirit of division.

Whatever is not of God must be shaken or broken off. God means anything that has taken the agenda upon it to stop God's prophetic destiny. (Prophetic destiny is destiny known because God chose to reveal His will and announced this destiny many times through the years). Yes the "breaker anointing" we had last year is still in effect. We will see the games of this "churchiosity age" broken off. We will begin to see further walls of manmade plans crumble before our eyes.

Denominations will begin to realize this and that will cause pure-hearted leaders to rejoice and begin walking in love of the Father and in holiness from Jehovah God. This will be a year to see "iniquitous patterns of old ways to do new things" broken down and shaken out of the way. (See The Best is Yet Ahead by Chuck Pierce and Rebecca Wagner Sytsema at www.Glory-of-Zion.com).

The enemy of God will become pulled into a circle he thinks he has developed, but it is instead a major plan of God to draw in some major Eastern and Mid-Eastern strongholds into a circle that is actually a noose to literally strap three major strongholds together. The enemy will see this a "Great Alliance of the East" and see it as control against Jehovah's plan, but will end up causing a latter day (Kingdom calendar day) demise. This will in turn give the nation of Israel peace they have not known before this year.

Their circle is being brought to a "Full Circle" as many more come to the homeland and Jerusalem is made again a prominent name in the household of the entire world. (This is actually not peace, yet it is a season of peace.). Israel has not been forgotten nor left to fend for herself. Jehovah is the defender of His chosen people. The new embracing of the anti-Semitism views is causing destruction to come upon those who embrace this view. The Word of the LORD is true and sharper than any two edged sword and those who choose to reduce the Jewish Nation as "not God's chosen" or minimize what God called His chosen people as now "common" is not good wisdom and will surely bring God's judgment upon whatever group embraces this teaching. Ezekiel 44:23 says it best, "They will teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is common, what is ceremonially clean and unclean." NLT.

Also read again now Hebrews 10:29-31, "29 Think how much more terrible the punishment will be for those who have trampled on the Son of God and have treated the blood of the covenant as if it were common and unholy*. Such people have insulted and enraged the Holy Spirit who brings God's mercy to his people.*

30 For we know the one who said, "I will take vengeance. I will repay those who deserve it." He also said, "The Lord will judge his own people."

31 It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

I saw world leaders coming and circling around the new Israeli/Palestinian Alliance, as this will open a venue for the Bride of Christ to make ready themselves for the Bridegroom who is preparing Himself even now! He is prepared and waiting on us even now! We are the ones that need to get ready for Him. That means we must have our oil filled in our lamps with plenty extra to spare. Prophetic synchronization time is coming into the circle of the earth. This is the day of salvation. The Harvest is ready and will be even more prepared to come in as more breaking and shaking increases this year and especially the next 3 years.

The enemy when he thinks he has outdone himself in the East, he will find out that he really has, for out of the East shall rise a three-fold cord that will not hang the church, but will literally see the three strongholds of the enemy hung! It will be a display of God's future Victory of the Church and the demise of satan.

When the saints enter into the unity of the Body of Christ, then we are complete in Him, when the enemy comes into that circle it then goes from the strap he thought was a binding agent for his false alliances becomes a snare that jerks him up by his feet and pulls him right out into view of all to see. The world will behold the demise of Osama Ben Laden. He is to be hung in the eyes of the world. The devil deceives them to think that as a martyr for his cause, many will fall for this, yet it will not work, as God reveals the motifs while exposing the enemy. This is the beginning of the false peace that the world feels is the ultimate peace. Be ready to see further major strongholds exposed. This is a reprieve, as there will not be real peace until our Messiah returns for His Bride!

This is the time for the Church to seize the moments of the "exhale of the world leaders" that causes them to relax with a newfound calm. We must now work diligently with the new connections that God has been giving us. Refuse to be concerned about the affiliations yet be affirmed in the Lord by the power of walking in new relationships with a common goal to become prepared for the "tsunami harvest" of souls that is coming! Now is the time to capitalize on the new connections and interactions with new contacts all over the world in the Body of Christ to join together in the "full circle that God has ordained for this year." This is the year of Great Grace. You can shout in the spirit of violent Praise and Worship, "Grace, Grace!" to any mountain that has loomed over you and your family and you will see it crumble this year! ("Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." Psalm 133:1 Bold emphasis added by author).

Look for Five Major Transformations within the Church in 2005

1) Breaking, 2) Shaking 3) Making 4) Baking 5) Taking

God wants the church to continue to go through these five changes as a metamorphous for purification to become the purifier.

1) Breaking. There is a breaking off anything in the Body of Christ that has begun attaching itself that is not of the Lord. (I saw barnacles attached to the legs of a tall tower deep in the ocean.) I also see many dry and brittle limbs breaking off that have almost become preserved by traditions of men. I see sacred cows in yesterday's victories and old stale manna being sacrificed to the bonfire of purification. They were not bringing forth new fruit, but held to the brittle branches and old dried withered fruit that was long gone and used to remember the past as if they had become "plaques of self-praise underscoring the existence of their traditions."

The "breaker anointing" that was prophesied by many last year is still into effect this year. Let the Lord break out of you anything that would prevent a blessing from coming toward the middle and the last quarter of this year. What you do in the first month will allow your blessing to be set up in advance for this year's end! His breaking is a very good thing. Let God break out all the past dead, destructive ways that will set you up for the victory around the corner. Also, I hear the Lord telling us that we must break out of old patterns that worked yesterday and let God remove those former monuments we try to erect for the "carnal" approach to prove we have the "goods" to produce the direction of our churches, ministries, etc.

However, God does not abolish all the history He gave us as tracks of where He has taken us, yet we do not stay at the area of those mighty victories to GO IN AND TAKE NEW GROUND! I see the Body of Christ being instructed by the Lord to let go of the former to embrace the new gates that He is opening. The Lord showed me that I must let go of the back door handle to go to the front door and open it up and go out the new door! Let the breaker-anointing take out the dead branches of the past to make room for the new. In the example of processing, the Lord showed me a threshing floor that was used to take the wheat in and separate the outer husks and get it down to the pure product. That crushing is the "breaker anointing" to take away the carnality and crust build-up around the people of God. He is doing this in the Body and now is a major time of breaking down the carnal that leads to a "religious look," but this left covered long enough around the kernel of wheat will cause decay.

Fulfillment of the purpose for the wheat starts when it is broken off the stalk and carried into the threshing floor. The wheat cannot bypass this processing or otherwise it would only become food for animals. If allowed to have God break our outer shell down and remove them, He can refine the product. Remember, you can make the choice to become pure refined flour and ultimately the Bread of Heaven or fodder to be eaten by animals.

2) Shaking. A shaking and sifting is in store for us in the Body and the world. What has been broken off will be removed and then the shaking is coming. We will begin to put everything upon His shaker screen and allow Jehovah God to shake us up. As the Hebrew writer tells us so clearly in Hebrews 12:25-29:

25 See to it that you obey God, the one who is speaking to you. For if the people of Israel did not escape when they refused to listen to Moses, the earthly messenger, how terrible our danger if we reject the One who speaks to us from heaven!
26 When God spoke from Mount Sinai his voice shook the earth, but now he makes another promise: "Once again I will shake not only the earth but the heavens also."
27 This means that the things on earth will be shaken, so that only eternal things will be left.
28 Since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be destroyed, let us be thankful and please God by worshiping him with holy fear and awe.
For our God is a consuming fire.

When the shaking is going on, there are lots of seemingly good ingredients that not only get sifted to be better in the "blending stage" but also a residue that will not blend into the other refined flour and is left on top of the screen. This is the former parts of the right ingredients, yet had become too hard to even sift. They cannot be blended and that is the results of the hardness that comes from not submitting to the Lord and His ever-changing directions from the throne room. One day the Body of Christ will understand that we must be able to adjust as He directs. If that cannot occur, the immovable will be left at the top of the screen and will be cast aside for the "new blend" that is ready for the blending of the Master's hands.

It is not easy to change once we get comfortable to our surroundings. Nevertheless this is truly a year to "move with the fire and the cloud." (Numbers14: 14 "They will tell this to the inhabitants of this land, who are well aware that you are with this people.") They know, LORD, that you have appeared in full view of your people in the pillar of cloud that hovers over them. They know that you go before them in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night*.).*

Thus He will sift His church this year as refined flour. When the Lord showed this vision to me at the end of 2004, I saw a huge sifter screen and it was not large lumps that remained at the top of the screen, rather it was small crumbs and flecks. They were enough, however, that if left together would require being removed at a later time. God is the "master chef" and will only have the pure and refined ingredients. I heard the Lord say this is the "premium refined flour that is cake and bread flour—only grade 'A' for My Making." My Church, My Bride, will be one without spot or blemish! We need to see that running from the threshing and further refining is to become presumptuous to God because we are in essence saying that we can do this without relying upon Jesus Christ.

I felt the Lord impressing upon me the size of a "grain of sand, and even many grains of sand are unnoticeable in the church, however they are very noticeable to the consumer! (The Lord took me back to my days as a missionary to East Africa. We would eat bread that looked award-winning and upon biting down, it would have particles of sand that could not be refined out with their crude equipment, so we bit carefully, and it became the talk of the table as even the tiniest grain could cause discomfort between the teeth!)

This is so with our Body of Christ today. God wants a purified Church. He wants us "spotless." He wants us daily covered under the Blood of Jesus and not the carnality of man's plans. We must allow the Lord to remove the "money changers" that have begun to usurp God's plan and His people! We must have the correct teachings on the "prosperity" of God and not "Man's Rich Plan for gain at the expense of the sheep!"

This is but one sifting that is happening this year and will continue to grow intensely for the next 4 years.

Notice how Jesus addressed the issue in Matthew 21:12-13,
12 Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the merchants and their customers. He knocked over the tables of the moneychangers and the stalls of those selling doves.
13 He said, "The Scriptures declare, 'My Temple will be called a place of prayer,' but you have turned it into a den of thieves!" (KJV, bold emphasis added by author.).

Shaking takes the person who feels comfortable in how they have always done things to be further broken down to the refined product. The Lord told me "lumps are bumps and refined is smooth." God is taking out the bumps in the Body of Christ that have again said they want to be there yet want to reach back to insulate their refining process with somewhat self-made coverings.

A lump became a lump with some form of moisture that was brought in and caused it to clot up and not get on through the process. The moisture is not supposed to be in the process yet and that is often an attempt to grab onto a way of the flesh to appropriate the will of God. The last word you got from the prophet didn't say to go ahead and add water! You are just an act of obedience to God away from your next miracle level. Our obedience to God's orders will be even more refined down to the very intents of our hearts. (12 "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do." Hebrews 4:12,13 KJV). God is trying to get us to be "broken and spilled out" and not contained in our own little agendas such as the way we see it, or how we always did it, or the "watered-down" truth of the Word, yet He wants us to get the truth that sets the lumps free!

We must decide to let go of our way and embrace the new sifting pattern to further refine our walk with Him or we will otherwise be left exactly where we chose. Ultimately that leads to the refuse bin. When the sifting is over, and the chef decides it is time to start mixing, the crumbs on top of the sifter are dumped into the trash container. God does not tolerate stubbornness because it is a product of the root of rebellion and that is as the sin of witchcraft. ("For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry." 1 Samuel 15:23 NKJV).

A further note to Shaking (sifting) is that any good cook does not just throw in the raw flour that is not sifted thoroughly because the lumps in that flour may seem insignificant, yet when the moisture and other products get added, it will take on more than its share and not blend in yet create larger lumps sure to become major bumps in the future. That is the sure way to create a loaf of good-looking bread yet in the middle it will have large cavities where a lump was burned up in the oven and left a great vacuum. This is where many are now and the Lord wants to make New Bread and get rid of the old.

The refinement process is so important because the rest of the product depends upon this process to remove any impurities. As this process takes place we can be sure that the "judgement has begun in the house of the Lord."

(17 For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God*; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?*
18 Now "If the righteous one is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"
19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.") 1 Peter 4:17 NKJV-bold emphasis added by author.

We as the Body of Christ must embrace the change that is inevitable from sifting. Our refinement may even cause some to be dislodged from some places they are fond of and need to see the "rasping" of removal of the comfort zone replaced by the blending into the Body where needed. This is the submitting of our will to God and to the leaders where God directs us to serve. This is true whether it is an apostolic leader in our larger scale of a ministry or the members submitting to the pastor God has called us to serve.

More shifting and sifting is coming!

There is even a further leadership sifting coming in that God's chosen leaders of His Church do not allow it to become "their" church and thus can genuinely let go of the "re-directing" that God is ultimately doing. In other words, Pastors and leaders must be ready to release with a blessing of grace to those whom God changes. You will know in your "heart-of-hearts" whether or not they need to stay or go, but God says if you hold them back and you know they should go, you will be in the sifter with them! Wow!

Once the baker has performed the sifting of the flour, it is now in a pure and refined state it is ready for the next phase the Lord revealed that will take place this year: making.

3) Making. Another good word that describes this process in baking is the blending of all the ingredients necessary for the creation of the product. You will see the flour, oil, salt, eggs, honey, and other flavoring spices go into this process. No matter what God does to make HIS CHURCH, we must embrace as a nation that it is God who is our MAKER!

Making is pouring all ingredients into the same container and then "stirring them up" as to blend them together. This is where all God's creation must embrace the necessary changes to become "one blended dough" ready for the baking. Without this blending we remain independent and keep our product from the mix. This is where the church must learn to embrace the change of letting those purified ingredients become what He planned for them to become. I feel some of this has already begun and the blending is taking place more in other areas of the world than even here, and those areas are now in the "setting and rising" place because they have chosen to become blended together to be seen as a "follower of Jesus Christ" rather than one ingredient of the mix.

As they rise more it may appear that they are sitting still now compared to the earlier shaking process, but remember "10 Be still, and know that I am God*: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth." Psalm 46:10*

Prophet Isaiah documented God's heart in Isaiah 45:6-12,

6 so all the world from east to west will know there is no other God. I am the LORD, and there is no other.
7 I am the one who creates the light and makes the darkness. I am the one who sends good times and bad times. I, the LORD, am the one who does these things.
8 Open up, O heavens, and pour out your righteousness. Let the earth open wide so salvation and righteousness can sprout up together. I, the LORD, created them.
9 "Destruction is certain for those who argue with their Creator. Does a clay pot ever argue with its maker? Does the clay dispute with the one who shapes it, saying, 'Stop, you are doing it wrong!' Does the pot exclaim, 'How clumsy can you be!'
10 How terrible it would be if a newborn baby said to its father and mother, 'Why was I born? Why did you make me this way?'"
11 This is what the LORD, the Creator and Holy One of Israel, says: "Do you question what I do? Do you give me orders about the work of my hands?
12 I am the one who made the earth and created people to live on it. With my hands I stretched out the heavens. All the millions of stars are at my command.

God is Maker of both heaven and earth and all the inhabitants on it!

The Lord gave this Bread recipe process so as to observe the five steps clearly and, of course, as in any creation; you may break these major steps into many more sub-heading operations. In this making process the Lord revealed that adding in this years ingredients would come the milk, the oil, and the honey. This is when He can now place the much-needed "yoke" of His Body (a play on words!) in the mixture. The egg actually acts in the ingredients as the "glue and substance" that assists in holding the mixture together. We must now allow ourselves to be "yoked up to the Lord and only His direction." Otherwise it could be a beautiful product but lack the substance that comes from being in the yoke with the LORD. "29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Matthew 11:29,30. KJV.

Remember that when you are yoked with the Lord and in His perfect will your trials and tests are not stressful. Flesh is the reason for stress.

Many will refuse to be blended thinking they have been given the "authorized version" on how to fulfill God's purpose. "Religious spirits" get caught up in legalistic ways that further restricts the purpose that Jesus brought to us with His message in John 17. We must embrace one another in the Body of Christ and not judge the "eggs value against the milk or the honey against the oil's." This is where the "rubber meets the road" as far as testing the level your church will advance in the future. If you believe you and your band of 25 people have the right answers and the others are just taking on the sinking ship of liberality you will miss the will of God to be in the blend of the Maker! This is the last chance for many to get on board. If you miss getting into the blend and are not mixed with the right ingredients, your gift will become your curse!

You think that because God called you and gave you special giftings such as prophesying, preaching, teaching, interpretation of dreams, singing, etc, then you will be plagued with the unfulfilled hollowness of polishing upon your gifts before a very limited crowd that seeks only the gift and not the giver of that gift. You will be known then by the fruit you produce—hay, wood and stubble. Therefore, jump gladly into the blender trusting God until He will smooth things out in His time. You cannot escape, no matter how much exemption you think your gift has provided, the blending is preparation for those gifts to absorb into one another. This is especially gained through time spent alone with God in true repentance and prayer. He is blending you and ultimately your gift will make room for itself. You are not the gift, but a carrier of God's gift to the Body of Christ. We must think again if we feel that what we have to offer the blend is from our own ability. We must think again! God allows no substitutes in His mix! Remember, nothing will be allowed—including attempts of flesh or of the enemy—to be "fake in the cake!" I heard the Lord say, only "pure ingredients will be allowed, and no impurities will be allowed to defile the Bread of Life!"

Also, another thing is because of this word and many others God has chosen to warn you with and you refused to listen, then you will be near and see the awesome presence of the new "bread of presence the world is now wanting that you cannot offer. Why? Because for you to offer it, you will have to go to the beginning and go back through the breaking and shaking to be allowed in the next mixture for the making!"

Let us return back to the good dough that is blended. What do we do now? Wait upon the timing of the Lord. That is the New Church God is bringing together time to rise upon the atmosphere of absorbing one another.

Absorbing is the necessary time that it takes others to incorporate that ingredient you brought into the mix and vice versa. The eggs are no longer on their own in a bowl; they are all over you! Likewise, you are perhaps the honey and you have been all over them. Soon the mixture will become one new product! This is where the Body of Christ must arrive before we see the lost and hurting world won for this last hour outpouring.

Any bread maker will attest that this "waiting on the dough to rise" process is one of the most critical in the entire baking process. If you wait too long it gets too big and becomes full of "air" and then bursts and falls flat. If not allowed to rise long enough, then the bread is not expanded enough and is baked as thick dough with not much texture. It must wait on the right timing and then it is ready for the next step of baking. ("17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work" Ecclesiastes 3:17).

I felt like the Lord impressed me to say that some are going to say that we eat dough all the time. Others can say that we eat the bread no matter what it turns out like. But that is because you have never had the "Bread of His Presence." Wait upon the Lord and allow that special gift you have been given to blend into the overall product. This will also allow you to be still and to receive what God has been trying to give you from other groups, yet you have not allowed yourself to receive because you were not in the mix. (3:1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." Ecclesiastes 3:1, KJV.) Now you are in the mix and do not leave it too early. The best is yet to come!

I saw the Lord as if His hand was on a large stopwatch and He was saying, "Yet a little while, my children." ("36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. 37 For yet a little while*, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.")* Hebrews 10:36,37. KJV. Bold added by author. When the right amount of waiting upon the Lord has caused us to learn how to blend into the right mix while we allow our faith to arise, then the heat is applied.

4. Baking. Once the dough has risen and the amount of rising has expanded the loaf to proper shape and size it must go into the oven. This is a process that transforms combined ingredients to become truly one totally different flavor than they were prior to the making. In other words, the eggs have lost their own flavor to add to the new product. The honey is no longer has a flavor to itself. The heat process is melting and processing to purify each ingredient into one whole loaf. The new product will be taking on an entire name to show off when finished! (Notice that God always renamed those He chose—like Jacob into Israel—to become transformed for His service.) You see the completion of this process is accomplished in the fire. Once you have allowed your gifts and calling to blend into the Body to be made in the image of the creator, then you are dying to your old ways and taking on an entire new name. You are no longer salt, oil or honey. You are now a tried product that came through the sacrifice with a cleansed and transformed nature. You now are offering yourself to the Body and worshipping the Giver and not the gift!

Ponder upon this for a moment, I heard the Lord impress upon me. As I did, I heard Him say to me, "When did you ever walk into a bakery and upon the baker offering you a fresh, hot slice of bread, say to him, "Wow, didn't that honey taste good in there. And the eggs are really great too!" No! You said that is awesome bread. You see the entire process had to have the right ingredients, process and master baker to know when to say it is bread.

If you bake your bread too long, it gets crusty and burned and leaves a bad taste in your mouth. If undercooked, then the middle is not finished and unfit to set before guests or serve to dignitaries. By the way, the latter is very nice looking on the outside but the inside is undone! We have many that come out of the fire too early! Even the fire has the issue of right timing! It is the overall process that counts and not simply the appearance. The melting is what takes place in the fire. All that individuality and feelings of acquisition as if you own a gift is presented to God in the fires of sacrifice. As that happens the fire of His altar and the fire of intensity of God's love for us genuinely transforms us.

As we go through the melting of the fire the other processes have prepared the Body of Christ for this heat transformation. Everything has been made ready but it will never go to the final taking to the world if the fire of the altar is not completed. However, when the world sees the well-blended Bread of Life having freshly emerged from the fire of sacrifice, then they will want it. They will see that this is not of flesh but from God. It does not try to display how great the gift is for their needs, but how the maker of all gifts meets their needs. ("17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." James 1:17 KJV).

Jesus used the Bread as an example as He taught on the earth recorded in John 6:32, "32 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven.
33 "For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."
34 Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."
And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst." NKJV.)

The world is ready for the real Bread of Life, but they will not storm your church doors looking for it because you placed a sign over your building that reads, "Bread Available, Inquire Inside!" That brings us up to the last step in this five-step process the Lord gave me in that vision. We come out of the oven with the fresh Bread of Life and then we must TAKE the Bread of Life to the hungry world!

5. TAKING.

The Lord showed me the last step as if bread trucks were hurriedly leaving a bakery with fresh bread loaded for their daily routes to destinations all over the city. The Lord let me know this is what will begin to take place in His Church. WE must take the bread to the hungry.

We may have all the wonderful events, revival services, dramas and constant flurries of activities happening around our beautiful buildings, but not accomplishing the TAKING process. Nothing takes the place of a dedicated follower of Jesus Christ delivering a loaf of fresh Bread of life to a hungry soul!

Thus, we are to see a major shift into further marketplace evangelism and ministry as never before. This is really the wave that is announcing the arrival of the major "spiritual tsunami" that is about to sweep over our country.

This one is now gaining momentum as national leaders of the church place emphasis on the marketplace evangelism. Evangelism is winning lost souls and the lost souls congregate in the commerce centers and the metropolitan areas. We will see the major cities become evangelism "hubs" as the "wheels within the wheel" of God’s plan. America offers the best free market enterprise opportunity in the world. We have always been the country with leadership in financial success for the world to come and participate daily. Many new books are on the scene addressing the marketplace evangelism. Last year I was able to meet Rich Marshall and highly recommend his book, God @ Work. Also, you must get a comprehensive overview of the New Church Rising to this arena in Dr. Bill Hamon’s book, The Day of the Saints. The literature from this last day movement is worth reading and highly beneficial in preparing your leadership for this growing evangelism paradigm.

Our Church is now being positioned to become the leaders we should be in the commerce, trade centers and governmental offices as well-blended loaves of greatly desired products with a "now-word" of love, acceptance and forgiveness that leads a questioning world to hope.

FAVOR

This is an exciting year for entrepreneurial, business-minded, and marketplace ministers. FAVOR will be in abundance from God for this year and for certain in the next three years. I remember that God used me to prophesy in September of 1999 that the now President George W. Bush would be not only elected as president in 2000, but would be elected for two (2) consecutive terms. In that prophecy, the Lord gave me the word that our "years of plenty" will be during those two terms. Do not hold back as we have three more years in that time frame. We have seen these prophecies come to pass so now is the time to be bold as a Lion in the marketplace and to use the wisdom of Joseph when gaining shares of harvest. Get your market share now, as I heard the Lord tell me that it does belong to His church. Now is the time! Invest, buy, expand, multiply, increase…this is the year of God’s grace for extreme Favor! Favor is awaiting one ingredient this year in your life—obedience. The obedient are the one’s who will eat the fat of the land! (19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land;" Isaiah 1:19 KJV.

Now you see the taking of the product God used in my vision is Bread. Yes, it is the Bread of Life! That does include "life more abundantly!"

Taking the bread to the hungry is the heart of God for His Church, or His People while here on this earth. We in the year of Grace and Favor will see much return on the investments made and the Kingdom investments are certainly going to bring a major return in "profits" and in "prophets" in the remainder of this year of Grace and Favor in 2005.

Warning: Do not allow the old houses of Saul to creep back into your lives! Remember the House of Saul is over. Saul is dead and the House of David is alive and open for business! King David established God’s Kingdom and built storehouses full of provision for His temple. We will be doing this even greater each year on.

Do not look to your past to predict your next three years God has declared as the Favor of the Lord upon His Church! This is where people make a major mistake looking into what is history to predict their future. This becomes more of a "calculated venture" rather than an act of blind faith to simply obey what God has already declared.

The only thing you can do for your future that deals with your past is to dig out the wells that God gave you that have become stopped up with the fall out from the shaking God did for your life as you submitted to the processing. Those wells are to be unplugged and allow the fresh, free-flowing springs of living water that will be the anointing you will need in your future. Yes, God is about to allow you to experience a "blow-out gusher" of living water!

Fresh oil is coming into the houses of the obedient! Oil is representing the wealth of the Church is about to abound! (3 "Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, 'There is not a vessel more.' And the oil stayed.")

2 Kings 4:3-6, KJV.

I see the tops of our oil bottles taken off and the Lord says throw them away, because it will not need to be covered as I will keep filling them regularly. The oil will flow if you do not become miserly. This is the season to allow the living waters, the new oil of his anointing and provision and the sweet honey of His presence to flow through each of us! Now is the time to see the major Tsunami of His Holy Spirit flow into the main streets, the marketplaces, the government sectors, the sanctuaries and the stadiums of the world. Yes, today is the season of God's grace for the overflow anointing! Even now, an incomparable size spiritual tsunami Move of God is poised to hit us very soon.

The prayers of His intercessors have gone up to His altar and He has taken a "scent check" over His altar and He told me that He likes the aroma of those prayers in His nostrils!

What I saw in this vision:

This morning I heard the abundance of a mighty earthquake having just occurred in the heavenlies. A major shift is taking place in God's realm of the spiritual and the supernatural. Yet again, I was overwhelmed that I felt He impressed during this time that our country will experience soon what I saw in the spiritual—major earthquakes and extreme flooding. Flooding was seen in the central and the Southern United States. I saw New Orleans literally 20 feet underwater across the main downtown area. At this time of flooding in New Orleans, I saw it as a sewer full of debris and every form of garbage floating around and swirling in the flood. The French Quarter will be wiped out in the flood. Bourbon Street will be abandoned. Alligators will be swimming where dens of iniquity once abounded.

Sin's investors will let go of the territory. They reside in other areas and will be seeing this as a place of unstable investment for future plans of sin. God's Kingdom investors will step in and be allowed to bid on properties abandoned by the sin investors. Then the superdome will be available to purchase for 1/10th of a cent on the dollar! This will one day be called the "Glory Dome" as a move of God will be based out of it and make it a "Healing and Restoration Center" grabbing worldwide attention. This Glory Dome will go on continually on a 24/7 basis. ("9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts." Haggai 2:9 KJV.)

New faces, new places, divine appointments and doors are swinging wide open!

This is a year I saw in a short vision of an open heaven with throngs of worshippers near the throne room, as the music began a specific melody continuously, then circles of worshippers began to form in large circles with one group right in front of another all dancing to the right and the next in the same rhythm to the left and so on. The idea for you to see is one circle going around one way and another just inside that circle with people going the opposite way. They are all moving in unison to the glorious music from the throne room and worshipping the Lord of Hosts!

Unity In The Body Of Christ:

> They all came together by connecting hand-in-hand and the Lord said that this is My pleasure for My Body to come together and become "connected" in unity as you learn to drop all self-made agendas for My Purpose!

Connections, connections, connections!

"God Appointments" will beat any "good appointments" as we walk in His directions. I heard the Lord say to connect first with HIM and then pay close attention to what He says and follow the details for your "Divine Connections!"

Again I heard the Lord use the word favor, as it will play a major role in your future as you move about in the family of God. Nurture the family He gives you. Divest yourself from the "Lots" of your life. Abraham had to separate himself from Lot before God completed his promise to give him the land. We have allowed many self-appointed connections to come into our lives. You as ministry leaders cannot allow flesh to masquerade as appointed upon your mantle from the Lord. It is time to be where you are supposed to be with whom God has appointed you doing what you are supposed to be doing. God wants nothing more, or nothing less. Refined obedience is the key for this hour.

INCREASE….The Kingdom of God is exploding!

This year is a year the Lord is going to put on your calendar as a "Banner Year of Increase!" America will move right on ahead to the demise of all hell's hosts of demons because of Major Breakthrough! There will also be a major breakthrough in the Middle East and the Eastern Countries. Even now there is evidence of breakthrough in the Middle East. (NOTE: this was written much before the history-making elections in Iraq.).

Even as I was writing, I saw the terrorist's regimes being "unplugged" from power.

This is happening because of God's leadership in office, President George W. Bush and his new cabinet and new appointments. He has made a cabinet appointment that will win a major Peace Award viewed by the world on TV.

Also, I sense the Lord saying you had stamina to get to this point and the Lord would say, "I like My people growing strong in mighty accomplishments and not giving up but gaining land that I promised you!"

Unholy Alliances Are Destroyed

Unholy alliances are the ones like Osama Ben Laden and the malicious terrorist network that is now being uprooted and destroyed. Even as this is written, he is closer than ever to a noose around his neck that he himself prepared. The enemy cannot stand the tightness he is now feeling "circling" around him ever so closely. He is about to be revealed, exposed and hung in the public square for the world to view. This will be the beginning of the remainder of the noose of God's grace to cinch two more up and the old strongholds will topple and they will be hung up to be viewed by the world. All of this will begin the seven-month trial for world exposure.

The New Courses will become the compass in God's hand to give new directions from a Mid-Eastern Peace Accord, binding 3 main countries to a unified force causing a "bear to lose its teeth and to stop the growl!" The bear is ready to become overfed and nourished as she prepares for a 3-year hibernation season. This will allow the work of God's people to swiftly position many ministry centers and locations in this once riddled country to begin open evangelism as the world would have never believed possible! Israel will be asking for this Christian outreach and the door is now opening.

New chartered courses are on the The Church's horizon and will begin to take front row seats in the world as a force- the Body of Christ-is to be reckoned with! Yes, love can be caring, fair and yet even firm to show its position created by God to possess the land, not co-exist and compromise!

Now is a banner year of growing, new birth, new alignments from God's Compass and new increase in every area. You should be excited to be a part of something so majestic as God's green light of growth and expansion preparing us for a Major Move of God as has never been experienced in America before!

We must be preparing for the deliverance of the destitute, the development of new recruits and deployment of the seasoned to go out and "bear much fruit." ("8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples." John 15:8 KJV). God's plan is in motion to exponentially grow far beyond human understanding. Most will be saying in the midst of the harvest, "This could only be a result of the Jehovah God. The God of "More-than-enough!"

This is the "Now Season"—the season of sowing and reaping that is coming together. ("11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt." Amos 9:11-14 KJV).

There is a season on its way, however that is a season that comes from destruction in our land. This is a setup for our country, America, to again become aware that God is Jehovah, and He alone is able to bring shaking, earthquakes, and thick clouds of smoke, lightening and leveling winds with accompanying torrential floods. Yet He is Jehovah God, and He can in the same instant, if the people repent, calm the raging sea, stay the wind and rain, stop the lightening in mid-strike and bring peace for His creation. They will again behold Him in all His glory as we become still and know that He is God!

This is the Rhema Word from the Lord for the year 2005. This is central in theme and idea as God placed them into my hands by many methods during the time awaiting His Word. However, many are a combination of composing as best as possible, dreams, visions, and words given in my heart during time in the secret place with Him. I ask that you pray for these words from God to bless you and to give you understanding of both the Creator and the creation. To God be all the glory forever and ever. Amen.

John Mark Pool
January 2005
Prophetic Evangelists
Word to the World Ministries
5758 Groom Road • LA 70714
Phone 225.771.1774
Email: Word2theWorldMin@aol.com
Web site: www.wordtotheworldministries.org
Hebrew Calendar Year: 5765

A Quantum Leap

Garth J Soso

A Quantum Leap (Forward)

Quantum leap*:* An abrupt change or step, especially in method, information, or knowledge quantum leap: a sudden large increase or advance

(1Co 1:27) But God chose the foolish things of the world that the wise might be put to shame, and God chose the weak things of the world so that He might put to shame the strong things.

A Quantum Leap Forward

This is certainly a time of new beginnings for My very own. Yes indeed. This is a time for My children to take giant leaps and bounds into the wonders I have for them. Oh yes. This is a joyous season for Me and for My very own children. This is a time of the quantum leap of faith for My children. Oh yes it is.

A quantum leap of faith, I hear my children asking. What is that my Father? It is My pleasure to disclose secrets of my heart to those of My own, who have been preparing and positioning themselves for the outpouring of My spirit; and pour out I shall do!

You have labored and toiled along much slower than you would have liked. But understand My children; it was a necessary process to burn off the dross, called the flesh. My children your labor has not been in vain. Your sufferings have not gone unnoticed from the ever seeing eye of your God. Thank you My children. I say again, thank you My children, with a great big smile for trusting and obeying Me throughout this most difficult time in your life. This was certainly a time of testing and separating those of whom would be My emissaries and those whom would be My enemies. Hard words but true words.

Many of My dear children, who I now call My enemies, have chosen to expediate My refining fire by going their own way. They have chosen to walk in a path unfamiliar to My way in order to avoid the pressure I was putting on them. You see My children I Am He who fans the coals of My refining fire to mold vessels into and for My purposes. I Am He who creates the spoiler, in whom I use to destroy your flesh. Do you not know that no weapon formed against you shall prosper? Those who have remained still in Me and My ways have now learned that invaluable lesson, which will keep them safe from what is to come upon the earth.

Now back to your question My child. What do you mean by quantum leap My father? My children you have stood by and in many cases have assisted your fellow brothers and sisters in moving forward in the direction I have for them. This process has been important in ridding you of your competitive nature; for as you know My child you do not wrestle against flesh and blood.

My children I am happy to announce that your time has come for advancement in Me. The time is here for you to take a quantum leap forward into the destiny I have been preparing for you. No longer will you be sitting along the sidelines, in a seemingly idle position, watching others move ahead in Me.

The quantum leap your are about to make will propel your far beyond anything you ever imagined or asked for. Like a quantum particle being very small, so are many of My children feeling small and insignificant within My Kingdom. Well, that is about to change because I am going to charge you up. I am going to fuse My power within you and this pressure that I am building up is going to explode with in your heart. Get ready for explosions My children. Get ready to meet your destiny with a full blast of energy that will give you My zeal, My joy and My focus to accomplish all that I have for you. Get ready My children for a quantum leap forward. Over.

Arab Bride Sentiments

Kathleen Pirl

5-14-05 I just returned from the Middle East. I visited Jericho, Palestinian refuge camps, Jordanian Bedouins, and an Arab village in the West Bank. I transcribed below the sentiments that were conveyed to me, some of my own brief impressions, and spiritual promptings.

We love Jesus. We are suffering. We want to stay here in this land (Palestinian/Israel) please tell the people. The relief monies are stolen by Palestinian leaders. There are good things about Jews and good things about Palestinians. Bad things about Palestinians and bad things about Jews. Please Tell. We want a person in Palestine that has mercy. We don't care who Jew, Arab, American we want mercy. We don't want these fences.

I want to work to take care of my family. We have no freedom. We have no democracy. We have no economy. We have no work. We have no money for the school bus. The man speaking has 9 children and several of his daughters attend Universities in Ramallah etc. He lives in an Arab Palestinian village outside of Bethlehem. Sometimes he sleeps in a cave. We love the American people. We want democracy. We are believers and the church is suffering here problems are big and not Jewish. It is Satan who kills and destroys. Tofik Saully and wife Anna and their nine children are new converts in the Lord.I went for dinner at their home with such honor. We fed and held the baby goats which are their micro industry but they need more.

"What is with the Christian "rich ministries" and "poor ministries" in Israel?" a young Arab pastor commented. It is about bringing souls into the kingdom not pontificating some ideological kingdom philosophies. How do I answer this question? I thought. Jesus said that when they ask for prayer pray don't send them away you feed and clothe them meet the needs help them meet their needs. They don't want handouts they want the dignity of earning bread for the table.

We would become so overwhelmed by the needs we would just cry out to the Lord HELP!! And then my friend and I would cry because we felt so helpless. We were trying to build bridges rather than fences in our small way. You see 85% of the people are not working in Palestinian areas. It is very similar in the Jordanian wilderness among the Bedouins we visited.
Meanwhile there was so much work to do I could have stayed working night and day for the harvest is very great and time to bring it in. The entire Middle East is in the throws of a huge harvest 45,000 new believers are in Algeria. In Mecca a prayer tent (Christian) has been put up near the Kaba ha-ha!!!!

The Arab bride is being made ready.
The Arab bride is coming in to the banquet table of the Lord.
It is her time now,
the time of love.
She is being saved by her lover.
In Yeshua's and Esau's love,
Kathleen Pirl www.kdpirlministries.org

A Reality Check For These Last Days

Heather Butler

December 17th 2005

Dear Brothers and sisters, I have struggled with sending out this word, this reality check pierced my own heart and made me look again. It wasn't an easy time but essential as I began to see how various things have crept into our ministries and sewn themselves within the fabric of our lives. You may well be as startled as I was to receive this, but none the less it's a word that needs to be looked at, chewed over and swallowed down by us all. I apologise for not sending this out sooner Every blessing Heather.

I was woken by the lord at 5.00am this morning, and believe I was given this word for the church.

This word also speaks to me, and I can see that I have a few things to deal with too, so lets have a look together shall we.

Proverbs 22-11/12 amp version. Proverbs 22 - 17.

Proverbs 22-11/12
He who loves purity and the pure in heart, and who is gracious in speech, will for the grace of his lips have the king for his friend. The eyes of the Lord keep guard over knowledge and him who has it, but He overthrows the words of the treacherous.

Proverbs 22 - 17
Listen, consent and submit to the words of the wise, and apply your mind to my knowledge.

As I sit hear this morning, I hear a cry from the depths of my heart, a voice that is shouting more clearly than I have heard before.

"Bring my people back, some are wandering away from the path that I have set before them, and are being drawn towards a false light".

As I sit and ponder what this could mean for us as a body of Christ and as individuals, I begin to see a picture unfold in front of my eyes. It's a tapestry, and woven within it are flaws of every kind. From a distance the tapestry looks beautiful, but take a closer look and you will see that there are a few stitches that have been caught and have snagged the material, distorting the other stitches around it.

What is this Lord?

There are many within the church today who are looking for the supernatural in all the wrong places. There is no revelation greater than what is written in my book. The church is being caught up into areas of new ageism, Celtic mythology, all tied up within the great deceit that was foretold would come upon the church. It is a lie that all roads lead to heaven, my people perish through lack of vision. Get back to my word, what do my proverbs say. There is wisdom greater in my word than in the ancient texts of many ancient tribes.

Get back to the word. Look at my Son, stop focusing on things that will distract you, look at Him. What did He say, where did He go, what did He do! The church is guilty of hiding my Son, they have covered Him in many fleshly garments that are not His that do not belong to Him. These garments are so heavy that they have hidden the truth that sets people free, and they have replaced that truth with every act of idolatry, and fanciful teaching that those who want their ears tickled with are looking for.

What is more supernatural than a man condemned to death rising from death after three days! What is more supernatural than the healing of the blind the deaf, every infirmity . What’s more supernatural than the rod of Moses, the pillar of fire, the parting of the sea. Church look again, see with my eyes focus.

What use is the Gospel if it is left unspoken, of what use is my word if you dress it up and its true meaning is lost. Can you not see, the blind are leading the blind into many forms of paganism and this is in my church!

The Church has lost the true meaning of signs and wonders, the reality of the cross, the reality of the word that brings forth the supernatural in everyway, its not disguised its there for all to see but you are guilty of misrepresenting it of hiding it.

Saints, if you are to stand with me until the end, you will need the truth of my word in its entirety within you. You will need to know what it says, and how you are able to wield it against the enemy in every area that raises itself up against the will and purposes of God.

There is a strong current within the body that is drawing them into the depths of every deceit, a rip tide of the enemy that is drawing my beloved away from the truth of who I am and they are drowning in the perilous seas of apostasy.

Raise up your voice, bring sound doctrine, turn away for a season from the books, the authors, the men and women of God that you admire. Start to focus on my Son. He is the one who gives revelation and illumination, He is the one who is the Holy Spirit within you that enables you to bring healing, insight, prophesy, wisdom, revelation, freedom.

This is the start of a new season of truth, truth to live by and to die for. A truth that sets men free, but also a truth that will accuse many who have wandered from its pathway. It will be life to some, but death to many.

I offer you my word as a standard today right now. Put down the books for a season, and get back to the reality of my word. Don't worry about the strategy, the plans, I have that all in hand everything is in place, everything is ready for that final thrust in these last days.

I know this is a hard word, I know that getting back to the basics, and the foundational truths is hard, but its what you build your life upon in Him, anything else is like building the house upon the sand.

Repentance is a beautiful thing, don't run from it, I draw you into that place of repentance, for allowing the allure of the world to affect you, don't fear repentance, welcome it, because it is in this place where we meet, where I wash you clean and you are set upon that road of victory in me once again.

DON'T LOOSE SIGHT OF ALL THAT I HAVE GIVEN YOU. GO BACK TO WHEN YOU FIRST BECAME A CHRISTIAN, LOOK AGAIN AT MY PROMISES OVER YOUR LIFE, LOOK AGAIN AT THE WORDS I SPOKE OVER YOU, THEY HAVE NEVER CHANGED.

Does this seem harsh, I know it does, but I see the other side of what this false doctrine and teaching is doing to you eternally, and to those around you.

Stop focusing upon what is my business, you don't need to know which angels to send where, you don't need to know how many for each task! So long as everything is in my hand all you have to ask for is the release, the breakthrough, the rest is up to me, stop trying to tell me how to do my job! I know how to do it. The responsibility is mine, the battle belongs to me, all I ask of you is that you stand with me.

Learn to be more simplistic in your approach to people who do not yet know me, you are speaking a foreign language to them. Many today are un-churched, they don’t understand what Salvation or redemption mean. They don’t understand what being saved is, or what repentance is.

My word is my word, it doesn’t say anything more than it says or any less. Everything you will ever need is written there. Books are plentiful and carry a revelation of my word within each one that is inspired by my Holy Spirit, but you have to learn to ensure that each book lines up with my word. There is much you can learn from the testimony of others, and there insights, but don’t loose sight of the one book that you need to be reading every day alongside all that you read, so that you can test for yourself the reality of the truth within it.

I am preparing you, calling you into that place of complete submission to my word.

You are the one that I love, the one that I died for, and nothing is more important to me than having you at my side, than having your attention, your focus, so that you will not fall away in these last hours.

You were created with great potential within you for the final glory to come. You were created to be carriers of the light, a vibrant bright light that reaches into the depths of the darkness exposing and rescuing the lost. Pulling them out of the pits of despair. There is a supernatural realm that is real, that is waiting for men and women of faith and the word to call down and bring into being on the earth. All that the Father has placed within His word is available for each of you to use. You have been given the keys to the kingdom of Heaven, to bind up on the earth whatever is in opposition to my will, and the permission to loose upon the earth all that is waiting for you to release in my name so that my perfect will is done.

There is much spoken about a shift that is coming, and there are many that have taken place already, this is a shift of the mindsets that have been placed within you because of the times that you are living in. Don’t be afraid, this is not going back, this is going forward and stepping out.

A Re-Minder

Steven Bliss

Apr 13, 2005

Therefore, gird your minds for action, keep sober in spirit, fix your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 1:13 (NAS)

Paul reminds us we are to have the mind of Christ (I Corinthians 2:16b). What are we doing with it? Do we serve God without taking the time to see what He wants us to be doing? Jesus was not so presumptuous. Jeremiah 17:10 tells us the Lord searches our mind. What is He going to find in this sowing and reaping?

In John's revelation of Jesus, he writes to the church at Thyatira (Remember that sensually minded group?) "And I will strike her children (her proper followers) dead [thoroughly exterminating them]. And all the assemblies (churches) shall recognize and understand that I am He who searches minds (the thoughts, feelings and purposes) and the [inmost] hearts, and I will give to each of you [the reward for what you have done] as your work deserves", Revelation 2:23, (Amp). We need to put our mind to proper and fitting work and not follow in folly or seduction.

We must weigh carefully every thought that comes into our mind; casting off that which comes from the evil one. Consider how King Nebuchadnezzar was judged (Daniel 4:16) as a depraved mind (Romans 11:28). Paul reminds us we are to have a humble mind, not a feeble one (Philippians 2:3).

We are told to take up the full, whole, complete armour of God. Yes, there are spiritual helmet laws. We need that constant renewing; a fresh refilling and manna each morning (Ephesians 4:23, 6:11, and 6:17).

Are you prepared for action? (Gird your minds for action). Do not allow your mind to be lulled into complacency. We are not to allow God to become familiar. We are to seek His face. He wishes to show Himself in ways that we can not always comprehend. Yet each day He will fill us and we will become more like Him, changing as we behold His glory, putting on the mind of Christ.

godsfire@msn.com

Responses to Visions of the Church

by Bill Somers

Here are some readers responses to Nita Johnson’s article, Visions of the Church, and my own comments.

From: Bob Neuman
To: Bill Somers

Dear Bill,
sometimes I got to wonder how much it would take to get even the ' very elect' to wake up and smell the "roses". it seems that the acceleration factor is not a figment of my imagination. for a long time I would hesitate posting to you or anyone else for that matter.

'lingering doubt' can be a weapon with two edges. "is it really you, GOD" is the first knock I give myself, and the last of course is " if I’m the only one" who is hearing this "stuff". doesn't sound religious at all but that's the point....GOD usually doesn't sound like how man says HE should sound. looking at how much I have sent your way in the last 3 months, if others are finding themselves on a new fast track you must be swamped.

a few days ago I 'had to' sit down and write "7 moves". you were the only one I intended to post it to...till it was done. still have lots of thinking to do on it but....

Visions of the Church basically confirmed it all .... every jot and tittle.... thanks, Bill, for posting it....but there was one point I want to add...there was a paragraph that said....

> Secondly, people will come to the Lord through the death of a martyr as would never enter into the Kingdom any other way. Third, because every drop of blood that spills from a martyr's veins paves the way for a soul to enter into the kingdom. I am not saying that their blood can pay for a Soul like the blood of Christ. However the martyr's blood provides a Peculiar intercession for a lost soul as nothing else does. Fourth, because through a unique time such as this, the Church is allowed to enter into the sufferings of Christ, which, by far is the greatest of all privileges. It is a privilege, which in turn paves the way for greater glory in the Kingdom or Heaven.

coming as a stranger from the proverbial pit, literally might be more accurate, the dynamics of the "peculiar intercession" is an interesting attempt at interpretation.

in the 'real' world the lost are living and thinking in "the flesh"....LORD I hate talkin' christianees ... because that is exactly all they got. the thing we call "spiritual void" is real and we fill it with whatever is available. alcoholism, drug addiction, promiscuity, occultism is the last thing to live for because the next step is usually suicide.

when you have nothing to live for the last straw you clutch at may be just a slower way to die. most 'church' people can not comprehend it....even with a suicide rate in "the church" on an equal % rate as the world...

when you run out of straws....death is the only answer when you decide there is nothing worth living for....

as 'dead' men, you and I Bill know the exact opposite....that there is SOMETHING WORTH DYING FOR.... and the blood of the martyrs gives the lost just that....the awareness that there is something more to the emptiness and the useless of this life....THAT THERE IS SOMEONE WORTH DYING FOR.

remember in the GREAT COMMISSION we are told to be witnesses 'unto' the world'. that Greek word is 'martus', to bear witness,....which our word martyr originates,....heavy stuff....

well, I think our ride is nearing an end....one way or the other...

PRAISE BE TO GOD...WHO HAS WON THE VICTORY be blessed bob in Miami

From Jim Rinker

Bill,

Good to hear from you. Those dreams about the Ezekiel Army I would like to confirm. My wife had this dream about a month ago I would like to share to confirm the Ezekiel Army in part.

In this dream a small company of people (seven of us including my wife and myself) went outside the city to a hill overlooking the city. It was a hilly grassy area and there were seven individual fires in front of us that we proceeded to step into. My wife said she stayed in a short time then came out and another woman who was with us ministered to her "burnt face". She said I stayed in a little longer.

Interpretation:

The hill overlooking the city is the "higher place" that God is taking us. It is outside the camp of current Christianity (outside the city) and is for the purpose of fire baptism, ministry, and purification. I was able to stay in longer because I have been dealing with issues of the flesh for a longer period of time that she has (by her admittance). The fire will be less painful and more bearable if we will deal with issues NOW. She had no further revelation in this dream but your Ezekiel Army vision post added more depth to her dream.

Jim Rinker

Comments by Bill Somers
The part of Nita's vision that got me the most was about the martyrs and purpose of martyrdom.

Nita wrote: "However the martyr's blood provides a Peculiar intercession for a lost soul as nothing else does."

This confirmed to me what the Lord showed me some years back, beginning in '91.

In short, Martyrdom has an effect in the spiritual realm. Every time the devil kills one of the saints, it cost's him something. In many cases that something is a soul that would otherwise be lost. I wrote about these issues in several articles on my WebSite, They are: The Precious, where I share what I learned about how martyrdom contributes to the harvest. The Precious part 2, where we go into the Lords purposes in large scale martyrdom. The Unthinkable, which discusses the ultimate purpose of martyrdom and The How and the Therefore, that also looks at the ultimate purpose of martyrdom from an other angle, and in greater depth. And relates it to the Return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Martyr Spirit
From: "Russell White"

Four missionaries who endured a night of beating and humiliation in their village in India are determined to stay until they plant a church. A crowd of 15 people burst into the hut of the Gospel for Asia native missionaries, bound them hand and foot, and beat them with iron rods and bamboo sticks, according to GFA. The men were stripped of their clothes, paraded through the village, and ordered to reject Christ. ...

When the men refused to renounce their faith, mob ringleaders accused them of trying to kidnap a child and exhorted the crowd to beat them. After the beating, the missionaries were told to leave the village and never return. They went to their local GFA supervisor, who took them to the police, who ordered members of the mob to apologize for the beating and return stolen possessions. ...

Police advised the missionaries to move to another village where they would be safer. "Here we were beaten, bruised, and bled. Until we see a living congregation for Jesus we will not move from here," the leader said. Since then, 14 villagers have become Christians through the men's testimony.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

Ark of The Covenant Comments

by Bill Somers

The following comments are in reference to the Ron Wyatt article The Ark of The Covenant

The Very Large Sword in the Chamber

> And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.
> And he enquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. 1 Samuel 22:9-10

The very large sword found in the chamber could very well turn out to be that of Goliath!

The Location of the Hill Outside the Camp

> Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.* Hebrews 13:12

The fact that the Hill of Crucifixion was part of Mt. Moriah, located outside the wall of the ancient city, shows how Jesus could be slain on Mt. Moriah, (the site of the temple, and of Abraham's attempted sacrifice of Isaac) and still suffer without the gate!

The Blood and Water

> And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; Mathew 27:51
> But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.* John 19:34

The earthquake that cracked the rock did not come till after Jesus had died. Could it be that the water that came out with the blood was to keep it from drying out before it had time to drip through 20 foot deep crack in the rock and fall upon the mercy seat below?

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

A Revelation Of Him

Tina Nicolo

About a month ago I set out for a long walk with a mission to lay hold of His heart. My heart had been so heavy. For weeks I would pray with a cry from deep within my heart ., "Lord I need to see you, but the response I received was a question; "Why do you want to see Me". I would cry out ., "Lord I need a revelation of you" and again I received just a question in return; "What will you do with more revelations?". That day on my walk out of complete desperation I began to pray once more. My prayer was., "Where are you Lord, I need to see you". With that prayer the Lord spoke to me and said "You are seeking revelations for the sake of having more revelations. You need a revelation of WHO I AM" When He spoke I had a vision. I saw KING JESUS in His kingdom. He was looking over a sea of people. The people wore drab, dirty rags. Their mind, hearts and bodies diseased. Jesus would look lovely night and day over these people. He looked for any who would come up to Him, but these people seemed too sick or too preoccupied with the others around to even notice Him. Only a very few would respond to His voice.

I saw that I came from this group of people. I saw the deep depravity of the condition I had been in. I suddenly was overcome with the reality that the King of kings not on looked my way, but He called me out from among the death and dying. The Creator of the universe laid down His life so that I may live. He shed His precious, precious blood for me!!! I needed to be reminded of WHO HE IS and who I am in the light of Him. I owe Him everything!! I am His bondservant because I was dead and He gave me His life. I did nothing to earn it...I only responded to the sound of His voice. I gave Him my diseased mind and He gave me discernment and Truth. I gave Him my wicked heart and He gave my His perfect love. I gave Him my rags and He clothed me in His righteousness!!!!!

A few weeks had passes and I still had the image of these people on my mind. In particular how these people were dressed. I kept thinking that if I was seeing people in the world, they wouldn’t have had any clothes at all and if they did they would be black...not the brown dingy color that I saw. With that thought the LORD spoke to me and said; YOU SAW MY CHURCH, THEY ONCE WORE GARMENTS THAT WERE WHITE AS SNOW BUT THEY PICK UP THE THINGS OF THIS WORLD. THEY WON'T COME UP TO ME AND ALLOW ME TO CLEANSE AND HEAL THEM. I AM COMING BACK AND MY BELOVED BRIDE IS NOT READY!!!!!!!!!!

IN HIS LOVE,

Tina Nicolo

Just a personal note. I know I was one of these people from the sick, dying church. I remember how easy it was to sin and ignore His precious voice. I don't know why He called me out or why I responded, other than the fact that I became fed up with being luke-ware and back-slidden. I know that it is only because of His Holy spirit that I realized my deep need for Him. It was only His Holy spirit that caused to despise my sin. I allowed Him to wash me and cleanse me, but with that He also required something of me. He required me to DIE and give everything to HIM. To give Him my ambitions, my goals, my dreams, my need for man's approval.....everything!! He wants to be our EVERYTHING! Please allow Him to be your everything. Stop trying and start dying!!! Give Him everything. He is coming back for His bride. You are not ready if you have a dirty gown. Please allow Him to cleanse you from the things of the world!!! CHURCH GET READY FOR HIS SOON RETURN!!!!!

A Revelation Of Hell

Heather Butler

Wales

December 24th 2005.

I was sat at my computer this morning looking at an email about hell. It quite took my attention for a while, I was intrigued to read of men who believed they had discovered hell. It was a chilling email to read, however the site was bogus, but, it stirred something within me and I began to think about the concept of Hell and what we as Christians and none Christians believe. We need to get into the word of God to see for ourselves what it teaches about hell, so that we can be sure that we are able to tell others just what to expect if they die without Jesus in their hearts.

The church is often guilty of hiding the reality of hell, and yet it is one place where each of us has to potential to be sent to one day unless the Son has set us free.

We live in a society where many people do not believe in Hell anymore, or even that the devil exists. Many others believe that when we die that its the end, that our bodies go back to the dust and that’s it.

There are also those who do believe that hell exists and that the devil is in charge, they don't realise that everyone there will be bound to it for eternity including him. that no one is in charge.

Can you image a place devoid of God, can you imagine the anguish and the suffering forever knowing that you could have made a choice in life that would have kept you out of this place but pride, and unbelief snatched it from your grasp. Many people have questioned me over the years about the existence of hell, and have said “if God is such a loving God why would he send people to hell” I simply say “He never chooses to send anyone, we each make that choice through free will in life”.

As I pondered these things suddenly the reality of the Heavenly host at the birth of Jesus made more sense to me. Not only were they announcing the birth of the saviour, but they were excited, they were beside themselves with love, compassion, joy, as they saw first hand the fullness of the Godhead come down to earth to save mankind from this picture of eternal torment. The heavenly host understood the implications of this event more than we can ever imagine.

HERE IS LOVE vast as the ocean, Dma Gariad fel y moraidd one of the most beautiful hymns, you have to hear it sung in Welsh its so wonderful, choristers shed tears of emotion as they sing it out with fervour and vigour, World HERE IS LOVE, are we truly hearing this.

The Angelic host proclaiming the birth of the Saviour, knowing that the event was of such importance to us, that death would be conquered forever, and that a new chance, a chance of life was being poured out upon us all.

We have forgotten that the reason Jesus came was to glorify the Father the one who sent Him, and to share with us His heart, that the Father doesn’t want to lose us to eternity, but wants us with Him, in a place He has prepared for those who love Him.

The Father, wants us He cannot bear to think of an eternity without us. Do we really understand the Fathers heart as He sent love personified in the human body of Christ, do we fully recognise the implications of the birth of one so innocent and who remained innocent, even though he lived in a sinful world alongside us, and it did not taint Him. How can that be, and yet its truth and life to us, because this spotless lamb was led to the cross, the key to unlock our future in eternity with Him.

We can celebrate the birth of Christ with great joy, knowing that the Father is doing everything possible to save the lost

What are we doing, are we being honest about what we know to be true, or are we papering over the Hell thing, led astray by the teachings that hell is not what its all made out to be.

I tell you this, if it is not, then why put your own son through such pain to redeem us. Hell has never changed, we have, our doctrine has to suit ourselves so that we can live more easily not having to think about it in the way its truly portrayed in the word. The word does not, and will not change, the meaning of the words in Hebrew Greek English, whatever will forever be etched on paper for all to see the reality of it. We must ensure that we teach this alongside the love, alongside the gifts, the miracles and the signs and wonders, because this is at the very heart of the Gospel, this is why Jesus came.. We must etch it upon our own hearts so that we can enable others to see more clearly the purpose of a saviour.

Let this coming year be a mixture, a serendipity of what we have been shown, the bitter mixed with the sweet, lets not forget the cost of the life laid down so that we could live, lets not forget the reality of hell, lets not forget that we are the ones raised up in these last days to point the way to salvation through Jesus. Lest we forget.

In the love of Jesus

Heather Butler.
Hidden Treasures Ministries International.

A Rhema Promise

Doug Patterson

May 24, 2005

Despair not, for the King has truly spoken a rhema promise to His children. Arise out of hopelessness, put on a praise mantle and exalt your King for what He has already done and will continue to do. His word shall burn a vision of hope, trust and joy within your heart and cause you to move forward in victory.

2 Corinthians 1:20
For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us.

A Refreshing Wind

Bill Burns

April 25, 2005: Don't give up too soon. This winds of change are blowing. I am blowing a refreshing wind upon My people, for you have been through hard times, tumultuous times when the enemy has tried to wear you out. But, I am seated upon My throne, and the court has been seated, and I have made a judgment in favor of the saints. No longer will the enemy be able to wear you down. Resurrection life will flow to bring restoration and healing. I will give supernatural virtue that will wipe away discouragement from past days.

Watch for a season of rainbows, for many do not yet believe that the Jubilee season is upon you. You will see the most magnificent rainbows in the spring and summer. Behold the rainbow, for indeed it is the season of the rain. And, with the rain comes the bow set in the sky as a reminder of My covenant promise to you. That which I have promised I shall surely bring, and I will give to you individually. Each one shall receive from My treasury, says the Lord, for I am opening the treasures of heaven to pour out a blessing that you cannot even contain. This is the day of My power, the day of My glory, the day of My revelation. I come to you now as the rain, the former and the latter rain together. Watch for the rainbow, for it shall speak to you of the blessings of this season. But, do not forget during this time to maintain a position of warfare. It will be a different position because it will be warfare that is birthed from joy.

A Reunion With People Of Color

Danny Korakas

May 7, 2005

"This I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, that you may approve the things that are excellent..." (Philippians 1: 9-10).

Paul prays for the Philippians to APPROVE with DISCERNMENT those things that are excellent. In other words, to test those things which differ from the world. Life is full of "GOOD" things. What has value in the statement Paul is praying is that we must discern that which is good, that which is better, and that which is BEST. Everyday we are bombarded with information. It comes through media outlets, e-mail, postal or snail mail, and personal conversations. We receive a myriad of information everyday and we must decide what we will respond to. This is what makes Paul's prayer so important and applicable to our lives today. We must PRIORITIZE and choose what we are going to respond to each day and seek the Lord to help us APPROVE and DISCERN those things which are excellent to HIM. Most of what will come into your life will be relatively good. Why? Because it has been such a great tactic of the enemy for so long. In our response to what is good, we will probably miss God's best. We can become so preoccupied with the insignificant that it can have disastrous effects on our lives and missing what is significant to God. Our response to what is significant to God is the highest form of worship that we can offer - OBEDIENCE.

Many reading this will remember the Eastern Airlines crash that happened during the holidays a few years back. The flight was from New York to Miami and upon approaching Miami the light for the landing gear did not come on. The flight engineer tried to remove the bulb so he could check it to see if the landing gear may have in fact been down. (In other words, something may have been wrong with the bulb.) However, the flight engineer could not remove the bulb so that he could check it. Soon, the co-pilot was working on the instrument panel trying to remove this 75 cent bulb. It wasn't long before the entire cockpit was involved in this issue and as they were consumed with the task at hand --- they were losing altitude. The jumbo jet crashed into the swamp area around Miami and killed hundreds of people. For only a BRIEF period, the flight crew forgot their PRIMARY MISSION and PURPOSE --- TO FLY THE PLANE! All of this over a 75 cent bulb.

Ephesians 4 is a reminder that the same thing can happen in our local churches. We can become so preoccupied with good things that we lose our primary PURPOSE and MISSION. Jesus made it abundantly clear that we were to GO out into the WORLD and make disciples. Disciple making has been so abused in the past (example -- the shepherding movement) that we have become almost hesitant to involve ourselves in this command of Jesus. First of all, 2005 will be a year of defining "Fatherhood and Son-ship." We will never be the natural nor the spiritual fathers/mothers that God would have us be until we learn to be a son/daughter. Godly discipleship needs to re-established in the church more than ever. However, the mistake we have made in the past is understanding that disciple making is a TEAM EFFORT. To be a disciple of Christ you need relationships and exposure to the DIFFERENT GIFTS that He places within His body. If not, we risk the chance of producing a "disciple of me" as Ephesians 4 so clearly points out.

"But to EACH one of us Grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift" (Ephesians 4: 7). What is so wonderful about this passage is that Christ has given a GIFT to ALL of His children! Each one of us has a gift of GRACE. You cannot see light in form because it is invisible. However, with a prism we can see that light is made up of a whole spectrum of COLORS. In a similar way, you cannot see God's grace in your life; but as it is poured into your life, it takes on a particular "COLOR." This unique color is your gifting that others can see and experience! Just as it takes all the many spectrums of color to manifest light, so it is with us in being a light to the world. It takes ALL of our gifts and colors working in harmony for those in darkness to see Christ manifest in our lives and in the world. If just one color is left out of the spectrum, light fails to manifest. Likewise, it is only when the present church leadership realizes that that all of the body has been called to be "kings and priests" will we become "invisible" and Christ shown through our lives to a dark world.

1 Peter 4:10 says, "As each one has received a GIFT, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the MANIFOLD grace of God." The word "Manifold" can be rendered "Multi-colored." God's grace is given in the color of God's choice --- everyone is different. Praise God! Why do so many leaders in the church try to conform people into their understanding of how THEY feel people should be gifted? The job of leadership is to EQUIP the gifts that God has given --- not control them. The passage continues in verse 11 saying, "If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God." So, why would prophetic ministry be relegated back to the 1st century and beyond? We need prophetic people and direction from God TODAY more than ever! I believe much of problem may rest in hearing a person say, "Thus saith the Lord" or "Says God." I personally am in agreement with those who are checked in their spirit by this, but I have not thrown out "the baby with the bath water!" God would speak through the prophets of old in wonderful ways. God is the same yesterday, today, and forever ... and He still enjoys speaking to His people and the lost about life and its issues at this time in history.

The name Lord or YWHW would need in times past to be attached to prophetic utterances to distinguish Himself from the myriad of other gods and false prophets that were worshiped in vain. A clear distinction would have to be made when the Creator of the universe and the One true God spoke. Today, we know Who is speaking to us in the church meetings if it truly is a word from the Lord. This is why it is dangerous in my opinion to "tag" God's name onto something when the GIFTING we have is to see and prophesy in "PART." Again, let's not throw out the entire gift to the body of Christ because of our traditions or lack of understanding. We need to hear what Father is speaking to us personally and corporately TODAY through prophetically gifted people. However, I would like you to consider the validity of prophesying in "part" and using "thus saith the Lord."

"When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, and gave GIFTS to men. Now this, "He ascended" - what does it mean but that He first DESCENDED into the lower parts of the earth" (Ephesians 4: 8-9). There are two prophetic points here. First, captivity (works of darkness) was made captive! Jesus achieved complete victory through the cross. In the time frame in which this was written, a victorious king or leader of an army would lead his troops through the main gate and parade the spoils of war. The soldiers of course would have already partaken of the "first fruits" of the battle, but what is really neat is that some of the spoils of war would be thrown out into the population as a gift of their conquest! God's gifts to us are given as SPOILS OF WAR. Jesus Christ won the battle over sin and death!

Secondly, the Bible says that Jesus FIRST "descended." We also must "descend" if we are to be a gift to others. Humility is the hallmark of the stewardship of God's gifts that we read in 1 Peter. Jesus as our model said, "I have not come to be served, but to SERVE." We must have an attraction for the "back seat" rather than the "front seat." Jesus said that the greatest of leaders would be the greatest of servants. Just consider this example: Why does an entire congregation sit on 100 year old hardback pews or fold out chairs while someone else sits on what looks like a padded THRONE on a PLATFORM? This just compounds the separation that already exists in the church. It's time for "leaders" to come DOWN from this form of exaltation.

The building block of all life is WATER. The church is not a building, but a living organism. Water never flows up. It always flows DOWN. The church needs the refreshment of humble and servant leadership! Out of these, "shall flow rivers of living water."

"And He HIMSELF gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry..." (Eph.4:11-12).

What is so exciting about this verse is we can see that God's gifts come WRAPPED IN HUMAN FLESH! What is discouraging is that many churches have discarded two of CHRIST'S GIFTS and kept three of them. Why? Many have discarded the ministry and gift of apostle and prophet in the life of the church. We read in the Revelation that it is a curse to add to God's Word. It also is dangerous to REMOVE things from God's Word --- especially in the New Covenant (due to our lack of understanding or our experience with the abuse of them). Let's look at the gifts of apostolic and prophetic ministry and see if they are still needed in the church today.

An "apostle" is simply an "ENTREPRENEUR" in the church. They have the gift to recognize and start new ministries and plant new churches through fresh ideas in reaching the lost for Christ. Apostolic people understand that the church is a living organism; if any living organism is to survive, it must reproduce itself; living organisms that fail to reproduce themselves become weak and vulnerable and finally extinct. Instead, we normally allow their gift to benefit the world as businesses profit from their gift --- instead of the church. They understand divine strategies and how to implement healthy CHANGE. They are gifted with fresh ideas, but unfortunately are underemployed in the church.

The prophetically gifted are visionaries with an understanding of what the Lord desires to do in the church RELATIONALLY. They hear the heartbeat and pulse of God and are compelled to share what they hear. (Of course, the Bible says we are to TEST prophetic words to the plumb line of God's Word!) True prophetic people see dangers and roadblocks ahead and express DIRECTIONAL movements for the body of Christ. They also bring words of edification and encouragement as well as biblical correction. It is all these gifts (apostolic, prophetic, evangelistic, pastoral, and teaching) working in harmony that the Bible says, "Brings growth to the body" (Ephesians 4: 16).

The word "Equip" means "to repair a bone broken or to restore it to its original function." The Lord desires to restore the gifts to the WHOLE body of Christ. The reason is so that we will be a gift not only to the world and unsaved, but to one another! The Greek word for "Equip" is the word "mend or mending" and is found in Matthew when the disciples were mending their nets (see Matthew 4: 18-22). Broken nets don't catch fish ... and broken bodies (people) don't catch people. Jesus said, "Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men" (see Matthew 4: 18-22). God desires to restore and equip US to be useful in our love for one another and the lost.

"From whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does it's share, causes growth to the body for the edifying of itself in LOVE" (Ephesians 4:16).

When we take away the modifiers, it says that the body causes the body to grow. The body causes the body to grow when people are using their gifts. The growth that the Lord is looking for is not only in numbers (width), but also in DEPTH. We must come to an understanding of our DEPENDANCE upon one another and the gifts to us in our spiritual growth. These gifts, wrapped in human flesh, are the only gifts given specifically by Christ. We are Christ's gift to one another! The greatest spiritual gifts you will ever have are the people Christ has brought into your life.

Churches that are stumbling in width (numbers) and depth (spiritual maturity or growth) suffer from three common traits.

There is little or no teaching on the spiritual gifts or the nurturing of them. Little to no help is given in seeing people's DESTINIES fulfilled.

Those in leadership are threatened -- to the false assumption that they will risk losing their "Spot." This is exactly the opposite of why you are called to leadership! You are called to be the "least of these." You are called to be a servant and to delight in seeing others move well beyond you in their spirituality. As a Father, don't you desire so much more for your children? So do TRUE spiritual mothers and fathers.

There is a high emphasis on COMMITMENT. Commitment is good, but if it's based on attendance and tithing as a barometer of a person's spiritual maturity, we have gone astray. We hear a lot of pulpit banging and commitment messages in churches today. When people are EQUIPPED and KNOW their gifts to others, you will not have to worry about commitment. You won't be able to get rid of them! You will have to tell them to go home because they will desire to be there and love what they are doing!

Remember beloved, you are the gift and the gift is given for SERVICE. We are never more like Christ than when we serve. He said, "I did not come to be served, but to serve..."

www.watermarkministry.org

www.watermarkministry.injesus.com

A Sword An Axe And An Olive Leaf Hollie Moody

(28 October 2005)

Isaiah 64: 11-12 ~~ "{11} Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. {12} Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O Lord? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?"

1 Corinthians 2:9 ~~ " But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."

In a vision, I was standing with the Lord.

I saw two people approach a large, beautiful tree. One of the people had an axe slung over their shoulder. This person was dressed as a warrior from ancient days, and was male. The other person wore a simple brown mantle, and was female. Both of these people also had a small bag tied around their waist. I sensed in my spirit that the gender of these two people represented a fathering/mothering function.

1 Corinthians 4:15 ~~ "For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel."

Galatians 4:26 ~~ "But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all."

As the man and woman approached the tree, to my surprise, the tree spoke. "Are you for me or against me?" the tree asked the two people.

"What is this tree, Lord?" I asked the Lord.

"This tree represents the Church," the Lord replied. "My Body. The Church, My Body, believes that anyone whom speaks against it is either for it or against it. This is not always so."

"We are for the Lord," the two people replied in unison to the tree's question. "We have come to accomplish His divine will and purpose."

"The Lord has sent me to bring a sword against your barrenness!" the person wearing the brown mantle cried against the tree. "He has sent me to destroy the works of the flesh manifested forth from within you."

The person wearing the brown mantle flung their arms out to their sides. I then saw a sword flash out from the mouth of the person wearing the brown mantle. With both hands, the person wearing the brown mantle took the sword from their mouth and began to slice through the boughs of the tree with the sword. Finally, the person wearing the brown mantle lifted the sword high above their head, and with both hands embedded the sword deep into the trunk of the tree. I was shocked to hear cries of anguish erupt from the tree.

"What is this person doing with the sword, Lord?" I asked the Lord.

"The sword is My Word," the Lord replied. "The sword of My Word is being spoken forth against the works of the flesh within My Body, the Church."

"The Lord has sent me to break down and to destroy strongholds," the warrior with the axe spoke against the tree. “I am sent to lay the axe to the root of every tree which is not fruitful.”

I watched in horror as the warrior with the axe began to chop at the roots of the tree with deep, sure, controlled swings of the axe. Finally, the warrior with the axe ceased his efforts. Holding the axe with both hands, he set it down carefully between his feet.

“What is this person with the axe doing to the tree, Lord?” I asked the Lord.

“The axe also represents My Word,” the Lord replied. “I am sending forth those whom will cut away non-truth from within My Body, the Church.

“The purpose of the sword and the axe will be greatly misunderstood and withstood,” the Lord continued. “Those wielding the sword and the axe will be greatly criticized and hated.”

I gazed in shocked dismay at the once beautiful tree. It now resembled nothing more than a marred trunk. The earth around the tree trunk had been stirred-up by the swings of the axe. The earth was a deep, moist brown. I could see that while much of the tree’s root system had been dug-up and destroyed, there still remained one strong, healthy appearing root.

Slowly, the two people approached the wounded tree. I saw the two people untie and then dip their hands into the bag around their waist. When they did so, a wonderful fragrance emerged from within the bags.

I saw that the hands of the two people were covered with a thick fragrant ointment. The two people began to gently smear the thick fragrant ointment over the trunk of the tree. When they were finished, they withdrew slightly from the tree and sat down on the ground. They fixed their eyes upon the tree and began to pray for the tree.

Jeremiah 31:28 ~~ “And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord.”

I also steadily gazed at the tree. To my delight and surprise, I saw small branches begin to grow from the trunk of the tree. Tiny buds began to bloom on the tree branches. They grew quickly into feathery shaped leaves. Small flowers appeared amongst the leaves of the tree. Finally, I saw small objects I somehow perceived to be olives growing on the tree boughs.

I saw a dove fly to the olive tree. The dove plucked a leaf from the tree and flew with it in her beak to the two people. The two people stood to their feet as the dove flew towards them. The two people cupped their hands gently together and the dove settled down into their cupped hands; the olive leaf still firmly held in her beak.

The two people gazed with excitement and awe at the dove with the olive leaf in its beak.

Zechariah 8:9 ~~ “Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.”

We began to hear the sound of running water. We looked towards the olive tree and saw a fountain of water gushing from out of the ground around the olive tree. The waters swept over the ground and formed a great river of water that continued on beyond our sight.

Ezekiel 47:6 and 9 ~~ “{6} And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. {9} And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh."

We then felt and heard a breeze beginning to blow loudly. We gazed around to see where the wind was coming from. A large company of men and women of every age and from every nation appeared. They were being driven forward by the strength of the wind. The wind was also squeezing them closer together. The people were confused and distressed at this squeezing together amongst themselves. Yet the force of the wind prevented them from distancing themselves from one another as they so clearly desired to do.

"Why is the wind forcing the people closer together?" I asked the Lord.

"This is of Me," the Lord replied. "I am using both natural and supernatural means to drive My children back into close proximity one with another. The times of being isolated and alienated one from another has ended. Through their unity, will be their strength."

I watched as this large company of people converged upon the olive tree. I saw that all of the people appeared frightened, were in distress, and were in need of some type of healing.

When this vast company of people reached the tree, they began to eat the fruit of the olive tree and to rub the leaves onto their bodies from the top of their heads to the soles of their feet. The fruit and the leaves of the olive tree appeared to bring healing, comfort and relief to the people.

Ezekiel 47:12 ~~ "{12} And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine."

I watched as the person dressed as a warrior and the person wearing the brown mantle approached the crowd of people gathered around the olive tree. To my surprise, the two people began to take each of the people gathered around the olive tree, and somehow, one by one, attach that person into the tree. This newly attached person then became an actual living, vital, part of the olive tree.

Romans 11:17 and 24 ~~ " {17} And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; {24} For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?"

This process continued over and over again. The olive tree grew greater and stronger with each person whom was attached into it.

Ephesians 4:16 ~~ "From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

I saw that some of the people resisted being grafted into the olive tree. These people were cast aside.

"Why do these people resist being grafted into the olive tree?" I asked the Lord.

"They have failed to discern and understand how I am working in the midst of My Body, My Church, at this time," the Lord replied.

"I am bringing My children back into fellowship and unity one with another. There are some who will resist this through fear: fear of being hurt by their brothers and sisters once again; fear and distrust of denominations and spiritual leadership. They have doubts and unbelief in their hearts. They have made themselves to be unprofitable; for their fears and their unbelief have hardened their hearts."

Romans 11:21 ~~ "For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee."

When the vision ended, there still remained an unending crowd of people being attached into the olive tree.

Romans 12: 4-5 ~~ "{4} For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: {5} So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another."

Revelation 22:16 ~~ "I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star."

Zechariah 6: 12-15 ~~ "{12} And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord: {13} Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. {14} And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the Lord. {15} And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord, and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God."

Haggai 2:9 ~~ "The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts."

In Him,
Hollie L. Moody

A Seerious Season

Robin Lynne

Sep 23, 2005
This is a follow-up to a word posted "The Voice of Thunder" http://eaglesofreformation.injesus.com

Urgent call for prayer for California
9-22-05

> "I will stand at my watch and station myself on the ramparts; I will look to see what he will say to me, and what answer I am to give to this complaint." Habakkuk 2:1

I humbly but boldly come before you tonight under the mantle of a prophet and I am sounding the horn of warning once again for intercession for California for God's judgment will not delay.

While seeking the Lord today I first heard the words from Holy Spirit that we are in a very 'SEERIOUS SEASON.' The word was shown to me with the emphasis on 'seer' and 'seas.' A great anointing already here, an awakening to the seer anointing like we have never seen before; the illumination of our eyes and ears to hear what the Spirit is saying to His church. It is also divine judgment upon His prophets who have polluted His Word; the word of the Lord came to me in a parable. "A sea of seers will be seared and washed away."

I was then ushered into heaven where I stood beside Jesus with the map of the U.S. at our feet; we were standing on the tip of Florida overlooking the entire map. All of a sudden the U.S. shifted violently forward, and from where we were standing it would be to the West and in the natural we here in California had the earth 'quake' 12 times in 12 seconds. Such mercy shown here by our Father as He sounds the warning, the earth is groaning but who will hear! The number 12 is perfection in government, it is a rule, much like an order like the sun which "rules" the day, and the moon and stars which "govern" the night. The total being 24 is a higher form of this and also the number of heavenly government and worship. Twenty-four is the number of the royal priesthood as given in 1Chr.24:1-19. The twenty-four courses of priests in the earthly Temple were formed on the "pattern of things in the heavens." The Lord than whispered that time was running out for California and just as fast as this vision was fulfilled in the natural so too would be His judgment.

> "Then the Lord replied: "Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it. For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay."
> Habakkuk 2:2, 3

I then had a vision within a vision where I saw a prophet kneeling low in prayer as he released a boomerang into the air, they were his words of prayer as they cut off the heads of many in a gruesome display of who he saw as obstacles in his way. They were also the sheep he slaughtered along the way through the feeding of manipulation and lies. The very boomerang that was sent out by the prophet that brought shame upon many now came straight back at the prophet and lobbed off his head.

This prophet was not only the prophet inside the church walls but outside; many also in Hollywood who have forsaken their calling of the prophet for material wealth and gain.

> "Woe to him who builds his realm by unjust gain to set his nest on high, to escape the clutches of ruin!
> You have plotted the ruin of many peoples, shaming your own house and forfeiting your life.
> The stones of the wall will cry out, and the beams of the woodwork will echo it.

> "Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by crime!
> Has not the LORD Almighty determined that the people's labor is only fuel for the fire, that the nations exhaust themselves for nothing?
> For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, > as the waters cover the sea. Habakkuk 2:9-14

There was a sign in the skies over California tonight followed by His word, a large arrow, the arrow of God's judgment has been released over California; we must humble ourselves and pray!
(2 Chronicles 7:14

The Voice Of Thunder
Robin Lynne

Sep 20, 2005
"The voice of the Lord is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the Lord thunders over the mighty waters. The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is majestic. The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars; the Lord breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon." - Psalm 29:3-5 (NIV)

Blessings my friends in the precious, precious Name of Jesus, the Name above all names, when spoken in His Spirit even in mere whisper; oh the mighty wind and thunder in the depths of His breath, many kings and many nations will bow low. But if they are stubborn and do not bend their faces to the ground and give back all to the King, they and their kingdoms will be brought low by the hand of the Lord, our God, and our Maker.

For those of you who know me personally, know that I have been resting in deep, quiet before the Lord since December of 99, called up briefly, only to be ushered back down again, awaiting His release. At this very moment there is a deep groaning in the heavens coming from our Father's bosom that time is accelerating and His judgment is upon the earth, for those who have eyes to see and ears to hear it is a call to spend even more time at the feet of our Lord, it is not a time to go chasing dragons but a time to wait upon the Lord, like a tortoise who steadily moves towards the finish line and even has his shell for protection, so too is our Lord our covering if we abide and rest in Him.

While in prayer on the morning of September 16th, I was taken by the Spirit of the Lord in His mighty wind over the state of California. Here the view from above was a land soaked by rain; it was not a flood but a good soaking where many puddles aligned the streets. Holy Spirit then whispered that when this rain came it would be a sign that destruction was near by; I then heard the words: "get in your bomb shelters, baton down the hatch." (A Skipper's term to secure hatches and loose objects both within the hull and on deck.) Speaks well of getting right before the Lord.

I was awakened this morning from a dream where the Lord's voice was thundering in my spirit that in the 'sound of the next thunder' California would be judged, no sooner had I awakened then did the sound of thunder in the natural break through the heavenliess, a sound my friends that when heard I felt the fear of the Lord as an aching in my bones and I hid beneath my pillow as resting in the bosom of our Lord in fear that in this very sound of thunder, God's voice, California would be ripped in half, this is how loud it was as it shook my house in the natural.

I went quickly back into the dream where I found myself in L.A.X, the Los Angeles Airport, overlooking the following scene of a mother running after her five year old little girl through the airport and her other twelve year old daughter following close behind. All of a sudden you could hear the whistle of a train coming, heading across and through the terminal at a very high rate of speed as the older sibling very alert to the fact that her little sister was running so fast that she wouldn't be able to stop and that she would be run over by the coming train.

The older sister than opened her mouth to scream and what came forth was the sound of a fog horn and it echoed the little girls name ‘Carlyle’………….As the train sped on by it soon came to a stop as the horrified mother began looking for her daughter beneath the train and upon the tracts but she was no where to be found, she had been supernaturally transported back home in ‘safety.’
I awoke to Isaiah 54:12 running through my spirit; “I will make your battlements of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones*.”

The name ‘Carlisle’ means ‘from the walled city.’ From a surname which was derived from a place name meaning "city belonging to Lugovalos." Lugovalos was a Celtic personal name meaning "strong as Lugus. (Shining one) As it is also a Castle.

I believe the older sister represents our spiritual mothers and fathers that carry much wisdom to sound the horn of warning from the Lord (Ezekiel 33) Being 12, symbolizes governmental order and the little sister who was 5 (grace) a merger of the two equals 17 which is perfection of spiritual order, His fullness made known that will endow His body with supernatural strength and covering through the darkness. John 17:17 “Sanctify them [purify, consecrate, separate them for Yourself, make them holy] by the Truth; Your Word is Truth.”

There is a divine warning to rest with our Father right now when one may feel like ‘running to and fro’ lifting up our ministries above the name of Jesus. On the other side of the name of Carlisle, if she did not heed the warning, her fortified wall would be one of pride.

Isaiah 2:12-17
“The Lord Almighty has a day in store for all the proud and lofty, for all that is exalted (and they will be humbled),
For all the cedars of Lebanon, tall and lofty, all the oaks of Bashan,
For all the towering mountains and all the high hills,
For every lofty tower and every fortified wall,
For every trading ship and every stately vessel.
The arrogance of man will be brought low and the pride of men humbled;
the Lord alone will be exalted in that day.”

In a recent vision I was taken up to the stars above, oh the joy and depth and pure love through this very real and tangible vision. The stars were of the colors, Red, yellow and blue, the three primary colors, they are the only colors that cannot be made by mixing two other colors. I was then taken into another portal and shown a color pallet with no color. The secondary colors (green, orange and violet) were missing along with many other colors, but the secondary colors were much needed to fulfill the entire color wheel, instead of colors there were bricks. Jesus began to speak to me that what He was showing me was the mindset of His people and their refusal to merge the old with the new as He began to tear away brick by brick and expose many beautiful colors beneath. Because Jesus had to remove the bricks/mindsets Himself, this caused great judgment to fall upon His people through much destruction.

Again I saw our Lord lift up the Gaza Strip like a grass strip and it went all along the coastal regions of the world in much exposing of sin, much like lifting up a band aid and exposing the wound and the church would be first. Through this exposure came much destruction and loss of life through hurricanes, earthquakes, massive change of weather patterns all over the world. California was at this very moment being judged and we must cry out for His mercy in deep repentance. I saw an earthquake hitting California on the Richter scale in the magnitude of 10 and so too hurricanes along the coastal regions of the earth on the same level. I heard the name “Philippe’ as being a hurricane we need to be watching and seeking the Lord about.

The blood of innocent babies aborted and the abuse of children on the land of California and through out the earth so grieved our Father’s heart, more so than I have ever seen before as His tears filled the earth in cleansing and repentance as His warning has been sounded and if we, His people will fall on our faces and repent, not just a quick drive by of prayer but a soaking and seeking

His face in deep intimacy, He will come and He will heal our land.

Whoredom in the church ranked high on the Father's list and He has been knocking on the doors of our hearts for many, many years that the selling of His anointing must cease, the leading of His sheep astray.

He then began to mix the color 'yellow' from the primary colors with the color 'green' from the secondary creating the color 'apple green.' He then began to teach me about this color and the importance of the mixture; it wasn't just green (cleansing and life) from the secondary colors but a merger with the yellow (healing and purity) and blue (heavenly revelation) from the primary. Jesus began to share the meaning of the color apple green in the book of Revelation 21:20:

"The foundation [stones] of the wall of the city were ornamented with all of the precious stones. The first foundation [stone] was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony (or white agate), the fourth emerald,
The fifth onyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst." (NIV)

Oh His blessed completeness found in the tenth stone, denoting His perfection of divine order coming to His body, a Holy priesthood made known through much purging and cleansing thus revealing His humility. Jesus then placed an apple green scarf around my neck, symbolizing His truth and mercy made known.

"Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart." Proverbs 3:3 (KJV)

"By wisdom the Lord laid the earth's foundations, by understanding he set the heavens in place;
By his knowledge the deeps were divided, and the clouds let drop the dew.
My son, preserve sound judgment and discernment, do not let them out of your sight;
They will be life for you, an ornament to grace your neck.
Then you will go on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble;
When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,
For the Lord will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared."
Proverbs 3: 19-26 (NIV)

A Sobering Thought

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

www.etpv.org
November 20, 2008

This past November 12 we posted a vision written by Steve Foss.
The End Time Battle   Steve Foss

This was received by him and posted May 15th, 2000, and can be found on his website.
http://stevefoss.com/endtimebattle.html

The vision shows the end time army of the Lord battling the enemy and freeing captives. Here is a quote of one of the paragraphs.

> As the army got to the front lines of the enemy it was a one sided slaughter. The enemy was literally over run by the overwhelming power of the Army of the Lord. As the army got to where the camps were, the brightness of their light caused all to see who they were. Everyone reached out a hand to them as they passed by. When they saw it was Christians all had a shocked look on their face. Many smiled a stretched their hand even more and were lifted up by one or more of the soldier and were placed into the army. They too became brilliantly white. Others when they saw it was the church and that Jesus lead the army, they got a repulsive look on their faces, pulled back their hands, and laid back down to the ground amongst the slaughter and the waste. They quickly became diseased and died. This was quite shocking to me as some of those who pulled back their hands said with great disgust when the saw Jesus and the Church, “Not YOU!!!” As disgusting as their camps were and as brilliant Jesus and the church was, they didn't want Him. They were offended at Jesus. They willfully rejected Him.

As I sought the Lord about this how this showed people rejecting him, I believe this is what he showed me. I’m working from the idea that Jesus does not always appear to people in his glory. Sometimes he appears as someone else, or as an angel. In this case, for those saying ‘Not You’ he is appearing as the one person they always hated and never could forgive. And with stubborn, prideful unforgiveness in our hearts, we cannot receive His mercy.

Now what could some possible examples of this be?
For those who railed against Catholicism and hated Catholics, he could appear as one of the Popes, Padre Pio, or even Bishop Sheen!
For those who loved their Jewish Brethren but despised the Arabs, he may look like Yasser Arafat.
To those who couldn’t’ stand Televangelists, he might appear as Benny Hinn!
For those who opposed pretribulationism, he might look like Tim LaHaye.
To those who cast scorn on the Holy Laughter, Toronto and Brownsville, he may appear to be Rodney Howard-Browne.
For those appalled by the Lakeland Revival, he might even look like Todd Bentley.
To those upset by the elections, he may look like Barak Obama!
He might even appear to you as your Ex!

I can think of quite a few of my Christian brothers and sisters who I am not exactly pleased with, and realize I must forgive them. If not I may be rejecting Jesus himself. What about you?

A Season Of Preparation And Devastation
Stephen Hanson

Sept. 24, 2004

[10]And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel. [11]These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come. [12]So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! I Co. 10:10-12

"I tell you that this is the season for preparation, and it is also the season for devastation. The signs have started that point to my return. These will be days that some will prepare and some will scoff at. Many will say that these things have always happened. But it is clear to those who have ears to hear that I am coming soon. Will these things be eased up on, some will ask? I tell you that my prophetic time clock is ticking, these things are written down and they will happen. The safety net has been taken away from the United States. There are things that will come that may not have come before. Some gather to pray about the things that are coming, and surely, I will listen to them, but I must tell you that these things are ordained. They are meant to happen because they are the events that are leading up to my soon return. "

Stephen Hanson
tseyigai@yahoo.com
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth/PayPalform.html (for donations)
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HansonArtGallery

The Bread Has Gone Bad
Stephen Hanson

Sept. 17, 2005

> [15] When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was.
> Moses said to them, "It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat. [16] This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Each one is to gather as much as he needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.' " [17] The Israelites did as they were told; some gathered much, some little. Exodus 16:15-17

This morning I was looking in our breadbox where we keep loaves of bread and I saw one loaf of bread that had become moldy. I immediately thought of the manna that was gathered in the wilderness and how Moses had instructed the people to gather the manna each and every day for their provision, or else it would gather mold and would then be useless.

When we have gathered God’s word to us, either in the form of a true prophetic word, or scripture, what do we do with it? Do we leave it on the shelf or in the breadbox to gather mold, or do we partake of it and eat it for our provision for that day? I find that this is a spiritual principle that we need to get a hold of. We don’t need to gather an entire field of bread for us each day, because it would then become rotten and useless to us. We need to gather “only” what would give us strength and guidance for that day. Remember that the children of Israel were given the bread in the morning and the quail at night. They were sustained by this food. When they gathered too much, it had then become rotten and moldy and was useless to them.

What is there that God has spoken to you in His word today? Has He given us bread for today that you can partake of? What is there that has been spoken by others that can be useful to you today? Have you left it to gather dust or mold, or have you partaken of it, and allowed it to strengthen and preserve you?

Jesus is called among other things, “The Bread of Life.” He gives us our daily bread if we will listen and then partake of it. He was broken and given as a ransom for many. We eat of this when we partake of communion, but also when we “commune” with Him.

Let us again, look at those things that have been spoken that can give us food. We need this bread, but we also need “strong meat” that would sustain us for the days ahead. The food of this world will not profit us; it is not ever lasting, nor is it good for our souls.

Stephen Hanson
seyigai@yahoo.com

(Consider making a monthy or one-time donation. It is needed at this time. Thank you.)
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth/PayPalform.html
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth
http://www.angelfire.com/in/HansonArtGallery

A Season of Separation
Julie Volby

October 1, 2005

It is apparent that things are changing in our world today. Change by its very nature can be exciting for some and foreboding for others. Change by its definition can mean a different position, course or direction, to shift, transition, transform, alter, switch, modify, exchange or substitute. It is not a profound statement to say that by outward appearances situations in the world are undergoing great changes. Since there is nothing new under the sun, this is just that, nothing new, at least to a God, who knows the end from the beginning. However, I believe prophetically we are standing in a season of GREAT CHANGE in the heavenlies once again. Just as Jesus Christ came to earth over 2000 years ago to catalyze the greatest change and life transforming act of love that any one human could offer the world, an appointed time has come for this to be displayed once again. However, this demonstration of God's love will be seen in a way that it has not been seen in recent history or even history itself.

Change is caused by a variety of circumstances. Just recently, parts of the United States have been undergoing great trials and tribulations in the form of powerful hurricanes, floods and wildfires. Many also prophesy of a great earthquake to come. Some call this the wrath of God, while others see it as a catalyst for change. Whatever the case, it is apparent that man is finding it necessary to shift his way of thinking in order to be prepared should this type of wide scale situation occur again. When one's perspective is altered, modified, or transitioned, a paradigm shift takes place. In this process of change a separation within inevitably occurs, whether or not it is reflected on the outside. There are those who willingly choose to go on with their lives as if nothing happened. In contrast, there are those who willingly choose to respond to the catalyst or outside force by literally changing the way they think, act, or behave. This change can be as simple as keeping a stock of basic necessities in preparation for future disasters, acquiring additional insurance, or even moving from one location to the next.

Is change a bad thing? All things considered, while change is many times very uncomfortable and even frightening, overall I don't believe change is bad. Change is simply a response to an altered circumstance or situation. Throughout history, God continues to extend His hand of mercy to mankind and allows various trials and tribulations to awaken people, giving them an opportunity to make a change in their way of thinking, thus affecting they way they live. To say that God is angry and these recent occurrences or any trials or tribulations are the retribution of God for man's sin is to say that He is casting judgment on sin all over again. Is God really mad at mankind and casting judgments upon him? If that were the case, would that not be saying that the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, was not enough? Following this realm of misunderstanding would line up with a mindset that does not fully embrace God's grace and has not been fully renewed. This would mean that Jesus did not completely fulfill His purpose when He came to earth over 2000 years ago in the form of sinful man, bore the full judgment of sin, died on the Cross and was resurrected from the dead on the third day.

What part of 'It is Finished' did God leave unfinished in His plan to redeem the world back to Himself through His own Son? According to the Word of God, the Almighty did not leave anything unfinished. Though the work is still being wrought out in mankind's heart, God does not desire to crucify Christ all over again. Consider the words of the Hebrew writer:

Hebrews 10:29 - Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified an uncommon thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?

It is clear in this Scripture that the sacrifice of Jesus Christ's own blood was full and complete. Yet, there are those who, despite their knowledge of the Word, long prayers and charitable deeds, willfully cling to their man-made self-righteous garments, destined to continue walking in the realm of unbelief, which can be likened to hell or a realm of intense suffering and condemnation, unless they truly repent. They may speak words that sound like words of faith, but inside the veil of carnality remains upon their hearts and minds as their unbelief causes them to wrongly perceive His sacrifice as an impure, unholy or unclean thing as the Greek word for ‘uncommon’, koinos, is defined in the above verse. These are they who have a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof.

So, what is this change that the earth is undergoing? If we can conclude by the Scriptures that God is not mad at the world and already poured out the full wrath of judgment for man’s sin upon His own Son, then what is all of this about? Surely the Lord must be saying something through the midst of it. As it was with Elijah, the Lord still speaks in a still small voice.

1 Kings 19:11-12
11 Then He said, “Go out, and stand on the mountain before the Lord.” And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; 12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

If we continue to look for the natural event itself to speak to us, we will completely miss what God is trying to say. It is awfully hard to hear someone talking to you in a still small voice, when you are listening through the disturbance of a wind, an earthquake or a fire or especially the combination of all three! As with any conversation, we must be wise and humble quieting our hearts so that we can correctly hear what the other Person, who just happens to be GOD, is saying to us! Contrary to how a chaotic world may behave and communicate, God still enjoys peaceful, quiet communion with His own in the cool of the day.

There is a great glory that is being revealed and unveiled in this hour across the earth. Hearts are pounding and minds are soaring in the heavenlies as all of creation continues to groan and labor with birth pangs together until now.

2 Corinthians 3:9-11
9 For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry of righteousness exceeds much more in glory 10 For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. 11 For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.

Oh the glory of what is being unveiled in this hour! There is a remnant who have endured throughout the ages that have been building, precept upon precept, this living, temple of God. This new wineskin, who is Christ within us, is capable of fully containing all of the new wine God is pouring out in this hour. This remnant is not interested in using the pattern of the Temples of yesteryear, nor are they building according to an exact blue print of the Church of Acts. They have encountered the glory of God personally and know the best template is the Son Himself! What better plan is there to follow to build up the Body of Christ, than Jesus Christ, who is the Head of this Body?

Hebrews 10:9-10
9 Then He said, “Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God.” He takes away the first that He may establish the second. 10 By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ ONCE FOR ALL.

Even in this one example of Scripture, it is clear that Jesus came to take away the Old or First Covenant (law or letter which kills – Adamic mindset), to establish the Second or New Covenant, who is Christ in us the Living Word (through the Spirit Who gives life – Mind of Christ). We are then able to worship in Holy Communion or Holy Matrimony with God in both Spirit and Truth. It is high time to pass from the Old, which is passing away, into the New!

2 Corinthians 3:12-16
12 Therefore, since we have such hope, we use great boldness of speech - 13 unlike Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the end of what was passing away. 14 But their MINDS WERE BLINDED. For UNTIL THIS DAY the SAME VEIL REMAINS UNLIFTED in the reading of the Old Testament, because THE VEIL IS TAKEN AWAY IN CHRIST. 15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16 Nevertheless when ONE TURNS TO THE LORD, the VEIL IS TAKEN AWAY.

The call for repentance is great upon the earth! Events are unfolding, giving way for those with a willing heart to REPENT or TURN TO THE LORD away from the self-life and unto a Spirit filled life in Christ! He who calls upon the Name of the Lord will be saved! Repent, repent, repent is the cry of the Prophets in this hour! Turn fully toward the Lord and your veil will be taken away so that you can see your Creator face to face! Just as the veil of the Temple was rent in two from top to bottom, through Jesus death on the Cross, the Lord continues to tear down and remove the veil of flesh which separates man from God within temples not made with human hands. There is a destiny to be fulfilled in Christ and the appointed time is now!

God is indeed calling for 'judgment' in this hour. However this is not anything like the judgment of man, in which one considers if something is inherently good or evil, resulting in condemnation. No, my friend, the judgment of God is much bigger than that. This call is the same as that of John the Baptist, "REPENT, FOR THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS AT HAND!" In other words, change your way of thinking. Do not conform to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind! Instead of running away from your Creator, you can find salvation, healing, restoration and resurrection if you TURN TO HIM! TODAY IS THE DAY OF ACCOUNTABILITY! NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION! This ongoing call to repentance will continue to bring about an even greater divide or separation. It is a separating of that which is of God and that which is not. His judgment is rooted in faith and based upon that which produces life or that which produces death!

Though the Gospel has been preached for centuries, there are still those who have yet to fully cross over from the Old Covenant into the New Covenant. This can only occur through the inner work of the Holy Spirit, who leads those of faith through an inward crucifixion of the self-life or being crucified with Christ. This crucifixion involves sharing in the sufferings of Christ, which consists of a unique and mysterious process designed by God to conform a man or woman into His own image and likeness. Though the outer work has been completed by Jesus' Finished work on the Cross, God will not stop until the inner work within those, who are called by His Name, is completed. The mind is renewed as the man of perdition or man of sin (Adamic nature) or carnal mindedness, which Paul says in Romans 8 IS DEATH, is separated from the spiritual man wedded to the Holy Spirit or spiritually minded (Christ within us), who is LIFE!

So, how will this greater dimension of God's glory be demonstrated throughout the earth? Because there is nothing new under the sun, it is safe to say that God will again use the same way to display His glory through His Son. What does this entail? IT IS ALL ABOUT THE TREES!!!

What are you talking about you may ask. What does great change and separation have to do with TREES? EVERYTHING! I have found that when you do not know where to start, the best place is to GO BACK TO THE BEGINNING! So, let's take a few steps back and wander about in the Garden. In Genesis 2 we find the creation of the flesh man, Adam, who God formed from the dust of the ground and breathed into him the breath of life.

Genesis 2:8-9
8 The Lord God planted a garden eastward of Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed. 9 And out of the ground the Lord God made every TREE TO GROW that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The TREE OF LIFE, was also in the midst of the garden, and the TREE OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL.

Genesis 2:15-17
15 Then the Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it. 16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; 17 but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."

We all know the rest of the story. God forms a woman from one of Adam's ribs to be his helper. She turns out to 'help' in an unfavorable way and they both end up wearing fig leaves, instead of experiencing the free, unhindered communion with God that they had been created to enjoy. God reveals the consequences of their act of unbelief in Genesis 3.

Genesis 3:22-24
22 Then the Lord God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever" – 23 therefore the Lord God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. 24 So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a FLAMING SWORD which turned every way, to GUARD THE WAY TO THE TREE OF LIFE.

I recently received a vision or spiritual picture from the Lord. In it the Lord depicted the earth as His garden. Contrary to what some profess, the Word still stands true that, “The earth is the Lord’s, and the fullness there of; the world, and they that dwell therein” (see Psalm 24:1). The thing that struck me was the trees that populated God’s garden in this vision were literally people. It became abundantly clear that the basic truths of the Garden had not changed since the beginning of Creation. In a sense the Garden still exists and men and women continue to have the freedom to partake of one tree or the other. What I hadn’t realized was that the TREES mankind continued to feed off of were one another!

Just as the Lord desired to reveal His glory and power through the Tree of Life in the garden of Eden, He still desires to reveal Himself in this same way today. Because of man’s unbelief he ate of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. This produced the fruit of sin in his life, which caused a paradigm shift or a major change in the Garden. Instead of being able to freely partake of the Tree of Life, the Lord God placed a flaming sword to guard the way to it. Here we see the use of TREES in God’s initial plan to prosper man and freely give him eternal life. Later we see this pattern repeated again, when a person, who was both God and man, by the name of Jesus Christ came to the earth and was crucified on a TREE, once again providing a way to partake of eternal life by means of a tree. This leads me to believe that things have not changed, but that God continues to desire to use TREES to fulfill His purposes on the earth!

Some questions then arise to each one of us regarding TREES. If I am a tree, what type of fruit am I producing? If others are trees, what type of fruit are they producing and what type of fruit am I partaking of from them? Well, the truth remains that there are still only two trees in the Garden to partake of. The Tree of Life and the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. One tree is rooted deeply in good soil that has been cultivated by sharing in the sufferings of Christ. This tree has grown and matured into Oneness with Christ, producing the fruit of righteousness that leads to eternal life, which is intimate communion with the Father. The other tree is rooted in unbelief, with fruit full of the vain philosophies, wisdom and foolish ideas of man, ultimately leading to death.

How can we discern what type of tree we are encountering? Jesus makes this quite clear in Matthew 12.

Matthew 12:33-37
33 “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for A TREE IS KNOWN BY ITS FRUIT. 35 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For OUT OF THE ABUNDANCE OF THE HEART THE MOUTH SPEAKS. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil things. 36 But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak; they will give account of it on the day of judgment, 37 For BY YOUR WORDS YOU ARE JUSTIFIED, and BY YOUR WORDS YOU ARE CONDEMNED.”

If we are able to know a tree by its fruit, how will we determine what type of fruit we are being offered or offering others? This too is clearly outlined in the Word.

Hebrews 13:15 – Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the FRUIT OF OUR LIPS, giving thanks to His name.

Scripture is more than clear to explain that fruit is revealed through the words that come out of our mouths. Spiritual fruit is not measured or weighed by the outward appearance as the carnal man measures ‘value’ such as how big a ministry is, how accurate a prophetic word is, how much money someone has given away to the poor, how many demons one has cast out of another, or even how long someone claims to have been a Christian. The fruit of the Spirit can only be discerned through the eyes of the Spirit and according to Galatians 5:22-24 consists of “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness and self-control. Against such there is no law. And those who are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.” The authentic fruit of the Spirit will always exhibit the character of Christ, which brings glory to God. These are not mere words that someone speaks to justify themselves in the sight of God and man as the religious Pharisees spoke.

These are words that contain the glory or weightiness of God. They contain the same Holy Spirit power that God used to speak the world into existence.

Now let’s take a look at the device that releases the fruit, revealing the true identity of the tree.

James 3:5-12
5 Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles! 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. 7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. 8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the similitude of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not be so. 11 Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening? 12 Can a fig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh.

It is evident that no man can tame the tongue. Therefore, it stands to reason that when a man or woman has become truly BORN AGAIN of God’s Spirit into His Kingdom, their lives are no longer their own and the Spirit will take full control of their life, including their tongues. The Spirit will do this by taking the seat of authority in their hearts which is the source from which the mouth speaks. Once the King has set up His Kingdom in their hearts, their tongue will not longer be set on fire by hell or the realm of unbelief that once ruled their carnal hearts and minds. They are given a new heart and a New King! The First Adam or their carnal nature is dethroned and cast out and the King of kings is given His rightful seat of authority in a man or woman’s life. These once ‘bad trees’ who have truly allowed the Seed, who is Christ, to be planted deeply in good soil, watered by the Holy Spirit, nurtured by the Father’s everlasting love, are transformed into ‘good trees’ or Trees of Life themselves.

Proverbs 15:4 – A wholesome tongue is a TREE OF LIFE, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit.

By faith, their words will gradually cease from speaking words of hatred and condemnation, which stem from fear and pride, both rooted in unbelief. Their words will instead be filled with life to bless men, rather than curse them. They will speak life, rather than death. It is these Trees of Life that creation has been groaning to be revealed once again! The Trees of Life continue to be guarded by the flaming sword in the garden as they have passed from death into eternal life through Jesus’ Completed work on the Cross! These Trees have become walking, talking messages of the Cross or the crucified life wherever they go. This is what it means to be a living epistle! Those who partake of their good fruit will be inspired to turn toward God in sincerity of heart. As He is lifted up in their lives, He will continue to draw all men to Himself.

As the birth pangs of the earth continue to gain momentum, growing in both frequency and size, I ask you to seriously consider the fruit you have been producing and partaking of. Again, the fruit is that of your lips, conveyed by your tongue. Is your tongue setting fires of destruction or fires of revival? Do you speak words of sincere faith or those of wavering unbelief? Do the words you receive from others and come into agreement with produce life or death? Do they inspire faith or stir up fear? In the days to come it will become abundantly clear to see those who have passed through the Door, who is Jesus, and those who have climbed up another way. We must be watchful and guard our hearts. We can no longer afford to remain yoked together with unbelievers. Can two walk together, unless they are agreed? What communion has light with darkness? Let us be wise and bear fruits worthy of repentance.

Just as the shofar was blown to commemorate the Feast of Trumpets, the same message is blowing loud and clear today! Repent! The day of accountability and separation is NOW! Just as God does not change, the consequences of unbelief, which is the root of all sin, have not changed. A great spiritual harvest is coming and swiftly.

Luke 3:9 - And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and throw into the fire.

Hebrews 6:7-8
7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, receives blessing from God; 8 but if it bears thorns and briers, it is rejected and near to being cursed whose end is to be burned.

Proverbs 13:2-3
2 A man shall eat well by the fruit of his mouth, but the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.
3 He who guards his mouth preserves his life, but he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.

Paul's words to the Corinthians also ring clear in this hour.

2 Corinthians 6:16-18
16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said, "I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people." 17 Therefore "Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you." 18 "I will be a father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

We are entering into a season of separation like no other. Many have endured the fires of affliction as the Lord has sifted, refined and purified them. These seasons have been for the testing and working out of their faith as the Lord has prepared them for such a time as this. At last, those systems that seem to be thriving, which are actually rooted in unbelief, will be revealed for what they truly are. Those things hidden darkness will be uncovered. That which is dead and dry will be cut down and thrown into the fire to be burned, not to return again. A spiritual revolution is once again taking shape and form. It is he who endures to the end that shall enjoy God's salvation to its full extent. This tried and true vessel shall enjoy the harvest promised to him in God's Word.

Psalm 1:3 – He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in due season, whose leaf shall not wither, and whatever he does shall prosper.

Revelation 22:1-2
1 And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb. 2 In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding it fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

Revelation 22:14 – Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city.

Releasing the Joseph Company – For Such a Time as This Julie Volby

October 5, 2005

Can you hear it? Can you hear the sound of the Shofar trumpeting the call for a New Day? Listen carefully with your spirit and you will hear the heavenly sound as it grows louder and louder with each passing moment. Just as the Feast of Trumpets signified a call to repentance, so this sound is echoing throughout all the earth calling for men and women, young and old to turn away from their own understanding, from the deception of this world, and turn to face the Living God!

What an exciting time to be alive in Christ! We stand on the verge of historic and monumental change. Not because of anything we have done, but because of what Jesus Christ has already accomplished for us and has been working out within His people's hearts for over 2000 years. This is about Christ within us the hope of glory!

There is a great paradigm shift taking place in the heavenlies. Those with eyes to see and ears to hear can sense it. Their spirits can taste, feel, touch and see it. In the natural there have been many outward signs, yet the clarity to see it in its entirety has yet to come. Many of you know in your hearts what I am referring to. However, up until this point, you have not been able to fully verbalize what it is you have perceived. There is good reason for this, because what you are sensing has not been seen in recent times or perhaps it has not yet been revealed in its fullness, which is soon coming. The words I share may strike a chord in your heart, but perhaps still do not provide enough revelation to see clearly. So, let us turn to the source of all truth, the Living Word of God, to get a picture of what is being revealed in this hour.

In Genesis 37-50 the story of Joseph's life is recorded. He is an ordinary man called by God to do great things. Yet, he is given his Father's favor from birth. He wears this coat of favor proudly, which seems like more of a curse than a blessing in his younger years. Through a series of God ordained trials and tribulations Joseph's character is built. It is in the depths of a remote prison in Egypt that Joseph's dreams die, along with all of his own understanding and strength. Yet in the midst of it all, God proves faithful and continues to teach and nurture Joseph through the best and worst of times.

Many have prophesied, taught and expounded on a coming "Joseph Company". There is a popular understanding that this is a company of people that are gifted in the marketplace arena. They have the ability to acquire large amounts of money and resources in order to distribute them to further the purposes of God on this earth. There is a layer of truth in this, but I believe this is not at all the full picture of God's purposes for this "Joseph Company".

What I am about to share has been wrought out in the depths of the Egyptian prison. Some will receive it with joy, while others may not. The purpose of this writing is not to empower those who want God's blessings, but are unwilling to pass through the fiery crucifixion of the self-life. Its intent is to call forth the true "Joseph Company" or those who have been strategically positioned in the prison of obscurity by God and have been weighed in the balance and are not found wanting. They have died to their own hopes and dreams, thoughts, ambitions and understandings. This long process was necessary to prepare them to receive what God had initially destined for them before the foundation of the world.

Like Joseph, this Company has come face to face with both the Baker and the Butler, who prophetically represent their Adamic Nature (Baker – First Adam) and Christ within them (Butler – Last Adam). They had correctly interpreted or understood that one prisoner must be broken and die, while the other would be fruitful and live. Yet, they have continued to sit in a place of suffering, seemingly forgotten by the Butler, whom they understood bore the cup of suffering, filled with crushed grapes or His own blood, for their sins. They had trusted Him to deliver them from this pit of misery.

It is in the prison of sharing in the sufferings of Christ that a great judgment has taken place. Fire and brimstone has not literally fallen upon them, but has instead occurred within them! The Babylonic system of man, built by the flesh, has been revealed and destroyed by the inner working of the two witnesses, the Spirit and the Truth. A great separation of the soul and spirit has taken place as the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, has been allowed to do its perfect and complete work of separating or judging, that which is of Christ and that which is not. This 'judgment' is not based on good or evil, but instead rooted in the Tree of Life, which instead discerns that which produces life or that which produces death. Those pet thoughts, words, ideas, and doctrines that do not line up with the Holy Word of God have been burned away in the fiery furnace of affliction, making way for the true purposes and will of God to be established in their hearts.

From the outside, this life of barrenness looks like total failure. It may appear that everything that once seemed to have life is now dead. Those who once loved and supported these Josephs have since turned away in frustration and unbelief. Misunderstandings abound in those who observe them and perhaps even in the prisoners themselves. Waiting on God has taken on a whole new meaning, but the glimmer of Hope continues to live on despite all outward signs of complete and utter failure.

I have good news for those of you who have yielded to the delicate and often painful work of the Spirit that has been wrought out inside your hearts! The DAY OF RELEASE is upon you! Only those who look through spiritual eyes of faith can see the miracle of RESURRECTION that is taking place! We stand on the threshold of something greater than even our dreaming hearts have imagined.

Genesis 41:8 – Now it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:14-15

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh. 15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it."

The thing we must understand is that it was not until the Pharaoh or KING HAD NEED of Joseph that he was RELEASED from the prison! It was at the APPOINTED TIME that God knew Joseph was fully prepared to fulfill His purposes to save a people, tribe and nation! It was at the appointed time that the King had a dream that could only be fulfilled by Joseph. Suddenly Joseph was remembered, as he was the only one that possessed inside of him what was needed to fulfill the King's need. Joseph's years in the prison were well spent as pride and fear were crushed and the root of unbelief was cut off. He had entered into the rest of God, ceasing from his own works, and learned to completely rely on God for everything. The Spirit had taught him many things, but the simplicity of Christ remained his plumb line. To walk in love, led by the Holy Spirit, enabled him to walk in obedience and humility to his God.

All of Joseph's life, God was preparing him for this APPOINTED TIME when Joseph was SUDDENLY called into the presence of the King! Get ready Joseph Company for the time is nigh for the King to call for you! The gifts God has placed within you that have lain dormant will suddenly be resurrected and bring you into the presence of your King! This will be no ordinary assignment. The reason you have not been able to give words to what it is God has called you to is because it has not yet been seen and because the need has not yet been revealed! Just as Joseph, you will be called to do a NEW THING!

Not only was Joseph able to specifically identify the trial that was to try men's souls, he also had the vision to see the solution as well! Many today in the Body of Christ can see the trials coming to the earth in this critical hour, but how many have been given the blueprints to God's plan to usher in salvation and restoration through it? It is only those who have the Master Plan within them that will see clearly what God's plan is. This Master Plan is none other than Christ in us the hope of glory. Just as Joseph was a fully mature man when released from the prison, so too is this Manchild or Anointed One who is Christ. One New Man shall be released from within these earthen vessels for such a time as this!

Just as Joseph, this Company will have the knowledge within them to save the nations. But they will also possess the wisdom necessary to carry it through to completion as the Author and Finished of their faith dwells WITHIN THEM! Joseph wisely told Pharaoh that he had need of someone to lead this large scale Salvation project.

Genesis 41:37-41
37 So the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. 38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man IN WHOM IS THE SPIRIT OF GOD?" 39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Inasmuch as GOD HAS SHOWN YOU ALL THIS, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. 40 You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled ACCORDING TO YOUR WORD; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you." 41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."

This Scripture tells us that Pharaoh recognized the Spirit of God within Joseph and responded by PROMOTING HIM! In ONE DAY Joseph went from a place of obscurity to a place of complete authority and power! This is because he had been patient and willing to wait on God for God's perfect time of release! Joseph went from the Prison to the Palace in ONE DAY!

This coming release of the Joseph Company will not look anything like man's system of promotion. It will not be a case in which someone recognizes the natural talents and abilities of these Josephs and lures them into their service for their own selfish gain. The Joseph Company has already been through the testing grounds of the world's Egyptian or religious Babylonic system of abuse and have learned to guard what they have been given. They keep their hearts safe by setting up God given boundaries to protect them from those who come seeking to kill, steal or destroy the hope, which dwells within them. This Joseph Company has been given a spirit of wisdom and discernment, which enables them to stay connected to the Vine, who supplies abundant life. They have been through the mill of invitations to become 'someone' in the world's eyes, perhaps in both the religious system and marketplace setting. They may have fallen many times, but the important thing is not their fall. It is instead that through these trials, they have learned the sufficiency of God's grace, which has always given them the strength to get up and move on. No, this time things are going to be different. A great paradigm shift has taken place in their hearts and they will not settle for good or even better. They are after God's best, which is the revelation of Christ Himself in and through their lives in fullness! Their life's purpose is to bring the Lord glory through the reproduction of His Son in people's lives!

Just as Joseph, this Remnant will not be called to fix a broken Manmade system founded in pride and fear, rooted in unbelief. They will no longer accept assignments that needed to be done yesterday, projects that need to be built without available resources, or tasks that have no true substance, purpose, beginning or end. The seasons of running endlessly on the hamster's wheel are over. The driving force behind the self serving rat race has been exposed! The days of sitting in Egypt's pits of miry clay, making bricks without straw, in the heat of the day have come to a close! They have come to the realization that Man's broken system cannot be fixed and that this was never God's intention or purpose for them from the Beginning.

These Overcomers have been set free, by the Spirit of God, from the recognition of man. They do not find their identity in the works that they do, the job title they possess or the ministry they lead. Their true identity has been solidified in their hearts as the now see that they are hidden in Christ and that His Name is the only identity that they need. Flattery, obligation, coercion, extortion, manipulation, and self-ambition that once kept them in bondage and controlled them, have been revealed for the fraudulent beast that it is and has lost its grip on them. The pride and fear of man that once inhabited them and responded to these seductions of the flesh have been put to death by a firm and solid belief and understanding in Jesus Completed work at the Cross. The Lord has taken them from the miry clay and founded them upon the Rock. This working out of their Salvation has come by grace alone, through the purifying work of the Word of God, brought to life by the Holy Spirit. This Company knows that they are justified by faith alone and their righteousness is of God.

Just as Joseph, this company has been given full access to the King's resources. While many prophesy or teach that this Company will be given the access and responsibility over great amounts of natural and physical resources, this Company knows that though these things are useful, they are not the means to their end. In contrast, these Josephs have the keys, giving them full access, to something much more valuable than anything this world could offer. Their time in the prison of maturity was not wasted as they came into an intimate face-to-face relationship with the Living God. They know that the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus far outweigh any natural resource known to man. The power to fuel eternal life by the Holy Spirit is priceless when compared to the black oil of the earth, which is being depleted daily. So it is that these Josephs rule and reign with the King and are given complete access to all that is needed to complete their mission. Like Joseph, they will walk in the full power, authority, favor, honor and respect of the King of kings and the Lord of lords. They will have continual access to the treasuries of heaven, giving them the prophetic knowledge, understanding and wisdom as they prepare the way for that which is to come.

A great earthquake is coming! Some say it is natural, while others say it is spiritual, yet others say it is both. Whatever the case, I believe that is just what we need as we approach the midnight hour. It is at MIDNIGHT that we transition from the old into the new! As the earth quakes and the ground shakes, just as it was in the lives Paul and Silas, we too shall see the fruit of this earthquake as the FOUNDATION of the prison is SHAKEN, ALL of the prison DOORS OPENED, and EVERYONE'S CHAINS are LOOSED! Only those WILLING to leave the familiarity and deceptive comfort of the prison shall be set free! The Joseph Company is about to be resurrected into a place of power and authority in order to prepare the world for things that must soon come to pass! Just as Joseph was used by God to save a Nation and surrounding peoples, this Company has the same mandate and will fulfill their purposes. This will happen not by might, nor by power, but by the Spirit of the Lord of Hosts! What has seemed like a life living as the tail will be suddenly flipped upside down and become the head! The last shall be first and the first last! The humble shall be exalted and the exalted humbled!

Do you hear the sound of the shofar? It is blowing loud and clear preparing us for something planted deep within us by the Spirit of God. Will you turn toward Him in sincerity of heart in this critical hour?

To those who bear witness to these words I say:

"ARISE, SHINE, FOR YOUR LIGHT HAS COME. IT IS TIME TO COME FORTH OUT OF THE PRISON FOR THE KING HAS NEED OF YOU! YOU HAVE BEEN FAITHFUL WITH LITTLE, YOU SHALL BE FAITHFUL WITH MUCH. THE TREASURES OF HEAVEN ARE AT YOUR DISPOSAL. USE THEM WISELY AND THEY WILL SERVE YOU WELL. PREPARE, PREPARE THE WAY, FOR THE GLORY IS COMING! IT IS COMING IN THE POWER AND MIGHT OF THE SPIRIT OF GOD! NOW, I SAY, ARISE!"

A Sword Over The Nations

Judith Grobelny

This day was spent aside with the Lord mostly because He specifically asked me if I was willing to do it. Needless to say I came to this place with some trembling, and completely in obedience rather than out of great desire. Ezekiel 20:37 applies "I will take note of you as you pass under my rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant". I have given scripture and comment as they came to me, and I pray that if the Holy Spirit wants to speak to anyone through this it will be His work and not mine.

If I were to make a personal summary of this time, it would be to say that I see and feel the sharp edge of His sword over the nation. It is both cold steel and burning fire and the sharp edge is just beginning to touch. I hear the call to the people of God to see and understand the time in which we live, and to continue to come before the Lord and cry out to Him that in judgment He will remember mercy, for that is His nature. The call is to run into Him, that we might live in the fullness of all that He died to give us, and let Him pour out through us to accomplish His purposes. Many of God's people are currently held back by things in their past, are in counseling for difficulties they have not managed to come to terms with, and are not living in the fullness of all that Jesus Christ died to give them. The minute we can see Him in the circumstance and let Him use it, it has been redeemed. We are not called to run from suffering, but to embrace it, and in so doing to know Him as the suffering, glorious servant that Isaiah speaks of in chapters 52, 53, 54. If we do not embrace all of Him, how can we say we know Him?

The first thing that came to mind was of running barefoot as a child. Growing up in a tropical country negated the need for footwear, but this reminded me of all the places and circumstances the Lord uses to form us. He forms us, He chooses the very circumstances and places, truly He is the potter and we are the clay – and in the light of that all of our lives become useful to Him.

He led me then to Ezekiel 21:8-13 the word of the Lord came to me: "Son of man, prophesy and say, "This is what the Lord says: "A sword, a sword, sharpened and polished – sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Shall we rejoice in the scepter of my son Judah? The sword despises every such stick.
The sword is appointed to be polished, to be grasped with the hand; it is sharpened and polished, made ready for the hand of the slayer.
Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against my people; it is against all the princes of Israel. They are thrown to the sword along with my people. Therefore beat your breast. Testing will surely come. And what if the scepter of Judah, which the sword despises, does not continue?" declares the Sovereign Lord.

The whole of Ezekiel 21 was speaking but the portion above and then v.30 "Return the sword to its scabbard. In the place where you were created, in the land of your ancestry, I will judge you … seemed particularly relevant.

We then come to Ezekiel 22:30 And I searched for a man among them who should build up the wall and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it, but I found no-one.

Again, there is a call to repentance and intercession for the land – let those who would cry out come before Him.

The over-riding sense in this is of the need to look again at what has formed us, redeem even the difficult times and places. EVERYTHING was part of our formation and shouldn't be dismissed because it is not attractive to us – it is still used by God if we bring it to the redeeming blood of Jesus.

The cross was far from attractive or pleasant, but it brought a great reward! If we discard parts we become incomplete as individuals, families, communities, or nations.

Col. 2:10 and you have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority.

We come just as we are, covered by His precious blood.

How do we pick up the rejected, neglected, even disliked, parts to bring together something that is whole and full again?

Isaiah 23:6 Cross over to Tarshish; wail you people of the island.
Isaiah 24:18(b) The floodgates of the heaven are opened, the foundations of the earth shake.

The Lord is going to move, and we need to be ready to change, adapt, move, whatever He requires of us in this time.

Isaiah 26 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah; we have a strong city, God makes salvation its walls and ramparts, open the gates that the righteous nation may enter.

His provision and care for us is constant.
Isaiah 26:20 Go my people, enter your rooms and shut the doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until His wrath has passed by. (21) See, the Lord is coming out of His dwelling to punish the people of the earth for their sins The earth will disclose the blood shed upon her, she will conceal her slain no longer.

GOLD - I saw gold, nuggets of gold, and felt they will be produced in the fire of His coming and will last for all eternity.

Our work is to pray and do whatever He directs to bring lives, families, communities, and nations back into fullness in Jesus Christ.

The challenge is will we live a life directed the Lord God Almighty, His Son and His Spirit? We need to ask the question of ourselves – What directs most of our life?
Col. 2 comes to mind as it contains many guidelines.

As I prayed for further confirmation from the Lord about the time and His actions in it, He gave me Romans 8:12-23 with emphasis on v.23
Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. (v24) For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has?

Judith Grobelny
jaygee@ihug.co.nz

A Season Of Transformation
Brenda Dowdin

Beloved:

You are entering a season of "Transformation". This season will be one of supernatural phenomenon. One in which I will break in and change hearts. I will break in and bring swift, quick change. Things that have been deep down inside of your emotions will begin to surface and be dealt with. I will gently deal with any buried bitterness and bring forth a sweet healing balm of my Spirit. There are many in my body I am desiring to use. I am dealing with all the old waste places, these are the ones that you could not get to. The ones that only I can see, oh but they have stunned the growth of my Beloveds. Pressure is coming to bring things to a head. I am "Baal Perazim", the God of the "break through".

This is a new season, many things are about to bud forth and break through. What you have been praying for and longing for is now within reach. Don't allow discouragement to dictate your future. Your destiny is in me, that is the victory! I overcame and now so can you!

2 Sam 5:19-20 "So David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand? And the Lord said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand." So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The Lord has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim."

Isa 55:12-13 "You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. Instead of the thorn bush will grow the pine tree, and instead of the briers the myrtle will grow. This will be for the Lord's renown, for an everlasting sign, which will not be destroyed."

Blessings Beloved One's, Lovingly In Him,
Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Command Authority
Brenda Dowdin

Beloved,

The enemy has used whips and chains on my people for far too long. I am releasing my people from their captivity, you are no longer slaves to those things that captured your flesh. I have set you free this day. Stop acting like a slave! You are Kings and Priests!

This day I am clothing you with righteousness and majesty...

I will bring tangible experiences so you will know you are royalty. You are clothed with my presence, with my righteousness. My mantel will cover you and when you come in to a room my presence will, "Command Authority! The enemy will flee, instead of you receiving the enemies lashing of the whip, he shall flee for fear as He sees my mantel of righteousness upon you. This is a new day. You shall see my glory upon my righteous ones...

I tell you the truth, my Bride is rising up in majesty and splendor!

This is her day to shine! Put on your garments of praise. They have been prepared by my hand of grace. I have sewn precious jewels upon your wedding garment as you have passed through the fires of perseverance and fiery trials. It has hurt me at times as I let you go through the trials, but I saw down the road, I saw my character being forged in you. I saw the beauty of the Father beginning to really shine brilliantly through you! Ah, you are beautiful my Bride! Each live you have touched has been a beautiful jewel in your crown of righteousness...I wish you could see yourself as I see you! Trust me, your Beautiful - my Bride! Continue to rise up in my presence. Shout my glorious praises, I am about to plunder the enemies camp in ways he's not encountered! SHOUT PLUNDER!, to the enemies camp! For my glorious works are about to be displayed for all to see!!!

Begin to Whistle with joy!

I have whistled and have sent the bees and the flies after the enemy...his judgment has begun! Whistle with me! Isa 7:18 "And it shall come to pass in that day that the Lord will whistle for the fly that is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt. And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. They will come, and all of them will rest In the desolate valleys and in the clefts of the rocks. And on all thorns and in all pastures." I have sent out judgment upon those who have brought oppression to my little ones! (I am talking about the enemy here, not people! The battle is not with flesh and blood, but spiritual wickedness in high places!)

Whistling confuses the enemy, he can't tell where the sound is coming from...It sounds the alarm, it calls him on the carpet for ill legal moves. It commands authority! It polices the airways! Whistle while you work, you are doing more then you realize!

Then call forth my angels, they are waiting on the mountain tops to assist you! I say call them down for help! They will enforce the whistling of the Lord! My honey comb is coming over the peoples of the earth. My sweet honey is coming. It is my anointing. It is pure and clean. It is full of my revelation, my new wine. It is the new thing I am doing upon the earth realm! Follow me in obedience, follow me in worship, follow me in strategic strategies to loose the enemies holds, and to set the captive free. You are moving in to a new level of intercession. You are moving up in to a new plateau with me. I will allow you too see the open heaven. I will allow you to see the supernatural. I will allow you to see that which will forever change your life. Follow me, I beacon you, follow me!

Isa 42:9-13, "Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; Before they spring forth I tell you of them. Sing to the Lord a new song, And His praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea and all that is in it, you coastlands and you inhabitants of them! Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory to the Lord. And declare His praise in the coastlands.

The Lord shall go forth like a mighty man ; He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war! He shall cry out, yes, shout aloud! He shall prevail against His enemies!"

Lovingly in Him,

Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

Punching Holes
Brenda Dowdin

Beloved,

Your praise is punching holes through the oppression that's trying to discourage you. Don't listen to the enemies lies any longer. Punch holes through with "Violent Praise". Allow my spirit to teach you and guide you in all truth. Trust me, your praise is pushing the enemy back. I flood in when praise arises from your mouth. I come near, and the enemy flees for fear of my presence. My strategies are going deeper in to your spirit in this new season. The reality of praise is going to forever change your spiritual sight. You will see a tangible change with "Violent Praise". Let your motive always be out of your love for me, but the byproduct of that praise is me pushing the enemy completely and entirely off your land!

This is the day of deliverance. The struggle has become more intense because victory is sure and coming quickly. Don't' let your emotions rule you. Look to my word and promises. It really is the "real", not what the enemy would try and tell you. Believe me, I am going to cause you to rise up and be a doer of my word. You will walk in truth, healing and deliverance and all of your family. It is time to rise up Beloved. Be my word! Speak my truth. Be my truth. You are putting me on as I garment, like a mantel. I have stripped your old garments off and replaced them with your wedding garments. I have dealt with old waste places and its time to begin to act like royalty! You are my Bride and I am the King!

Push with Violent Praise, Read my word out loud and declare it...it is your first line of defense! Ask me to bring my angels down in to every situation in your life and take over to build my kingdom. Call them down from the Mountain Tops! You will be incredibly delighted and surprised!

Sitting still is going backwards, push, push, push. Pursue me, while I am calling you! Push Beloved! New things are being birthed this month. Labor Day is before you!

Ps 22:3 "But you are holy, Enthroned in the praises of Israel." When you worship Me, it lavishes me with love and adoration, and I rise up in my Glorious Splendor and I draw near to you. When I see you praise me, in spite of your difficult circumstances ..you touch my heart! Believe me Beloved. I have seen each time you pressed in to me and praised me in spite of the circumstances....I have used this to increase your faith and build my character in you. You please me incredibly!

But, now I am going to "breakthrough" for you, it is coming very soon! Its Time! Praise Me like you've already seen the miracle you need! Praise like you are already in heaven! You are releasing a new level of faith, and I will surly come in like a flood of water and breakthrough for you......

I love you Beloved! Know that, and wear it as your mantel today! Raise up your chin, stand up straight and tall, put your shoulders back, take on my posture! I am humble, but I stand straight and tall because of my righteousness, you need to do the same! Remember I truly love you and I have clothed you! You are made in my image!

Lovingly in Him,
Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

Aug 7, 2005

Mending The Net

Brenda Dowdin

Beloved,

Don't be surprised when I begin to bring old relationships back in to your life. Some of these are for a time of building you up and others are in need of mending. Restoration of all sorts is about to take place. A brokenness of heart and humility will be the bond of honey that will break every dividing wall down and deeply penetrate the hearts. I am mending my "Net" of people. I am closing every back door and bringing in a very large catch.

Get ready to cast out your nets! Let me mend the weak places, let me use you as honey....let me breakthrough you in humility and cause unity to be spread abroad... Get ready for a large dose of my honey. It will be like liquid golden love when it hits you.. its my very presence, my anointing! Yield to it and spread my love abroad... I love using you Beloved. I love to flow through you. You please me so.... spread my love Beloved one!

Lovingly In Him,
Brenda Dowdin
firebrand007@hotmail.com

A Second Reconstruction Is Now In Order

Walter James Taylor

A Prophetic Utterance from the Lord (9/2/2005)

"Yes, my son, you have rightly discerned that now is the time, the hour, and the place for a second reconstruction, not only a reconstruction to reconstruct the victims of the Hurricane Katrina, but a reconstruction which of necessity must fix, replace, and restore all that was lacking in the first reconstruction of America, saith the Lord.

And, yes, this is why I have raised up my man, my son, and my servant, George W. Bush, and placed him in the White House; and led him in the national liberation and reconstruction of two nations, Afghanistan and Iraq, so that he may now lead this nation in the reconstruction of the lives and communities hit by Katrina, and at the same time fix the much that was lacking in the Reconstruction of 1865.

America knows how to be generous, because of me, and those who have gone before this day in the leadership of every facet of this nation who were of me, saith the Lord.

And now it is time; and I the Lord who founded this nation am calling it into a time of national reflection and repentance for the historical sins of greed and neglect, which are the root causes of these two national disasters that have now come to pass during the Presidency of George W. Bush—September 11th and now Katrina.

American cannot outrun my blessings; neither can she outrun the curse over this great nation for the national sin of slavery: which is the root cause of both of these disasters. Neither just happened; and neither can be fixed solely with a national attack on the rubble of the twin towers, or the terrorism that America thinks brought them down, or with the reconstruction that the United States will cheerfully do for the rubble and victims of Katrina, of all races.

But in this process of reconstruction today, and in the days, and months, and years to come, I am calling My Nation to come to grips with the failure of the first reconstruction in the lives of 4 million United States citizens—almost all of whom were my people—who worked for this nation for hundreds of years without pay, were kept in their "place" by a system of institutionalized terror from the cradle to the grave, and then "emancipated" with no land, no money, no guns and no butter; and a "reconstruction" that for only a few included a couple of years of school before the Freedman's Bureau was abolished. How pitiful, saith the Lord—terror from the slave masters before the War, and lynchings and the Ku Klux Klan terror after the War—for millions of my people: emancipated by the 13th Amendment and made citizens by the 14th Amendment, left to this new reign of terror…with no land, no money, and forced to chop the same cotton for the same masters as before the Civil War.

Katrina has uncovered the deep poverty throughout the South (and across the nation) in the lives of many of the same families who were failed by the first reconstruction. Without a second reconstruction for those of all races whose lives Katrina has damaged, that includes both repentance and a national fix for the first reconstruction, this curse will continue to manifest in national upheavals until the United States looses its position of leadership among the family of nations: for like I told the Church at Ephesus in the Second Chapter of the Book of Revelation, "except ye repent," I will put out your lamp of radiance among the nations of the world; because as I have also said in my Word, "judgment must first begin at the house of God," saith the Lord of Hosts. Jesus is my name.

I have recorded the root cause of September 11th and fall of the twin towers in my Word: James 5, verses 1 through 8, and Isaiah 30, verse 25. Do not attempt to judge this Word, or to whom it was given, before you—particularly those of you who reverence my Word, and who reverence me and know how to hear from me—first seek me in my Word…for there is no failure in my Word…and then judge this Word from me through my son, and what I am calling you to do in this national repentance, recovery from sin, and season of blessing that I so much want to lavish onto the United States of America.

The ball is in your court. It is not up to me; but the future of America is up to you…up to each of you. I am not out of mercy, saith he Lord, but I am out of time, saith God."

[Later that same day] "Oh that men would praise me, for all my goodness and all my works to the children of men, saith the Lord, for this is the day and now is the hour for my Glory to be manifested in the earth as never before…for I am handing out and revealing for those of me who will receive it, the knowledge of my glory, and how to use it and to flow in it at will, as my Son and your Savior walked in, and flowed in His ministry while He was on the earth, saith the Lord.

Don't let your stubborn pride keep you from the manifestations of my Glory as yet never seen in the earth—for the latter Glory shall be far greater than the former, saith the Lord—because so many of you believe that you have no responsibility for the sins of the past, and not even the recent past, and so many other nations owned slaves, saith the Lord.

Concern not yourselves in this hour with what other nations have done in the past, but focus on what I am telling and requiring from each of you in this day, and in this hour, saith the Lord; for you do not see what I see, and do not either realize or appreciate how many millions of cries of, 'How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth,' that I still have in my face—and must avenge now, as I posture the nations of the world for the second coming of my Son, saith the Lord.

I am not out of mercy, saith the Lord, but I am out of time, saith God. What will each of you do with this Word of destiny for each of you, saith the Lord?"

[Proverbs 26:2; Revelation 2:5, 6:10; 1 Peter 4:17, James 5:1-8; Isaiah 24:6, 30:25; Habakkuk 2:14]

> [For the much that the Lord has spoken to me on the subject of slavery over the past several years: please visit www.whattimeitis.org and click first on the Voice of the Lord link, and then the Judgments of James 5, Slavery, and God's Call to the US link; see also the Judgments of James 5 link on the home page.]

The Magnitude of Judgment is a Reflection of the Magnitude of the Sin

The magnitude of and judgment from the Lord is always a reflection of the magnitude of the sin that produced the judgment; and there are only two national sins of the United States big enough to have taken down the twin towers on September 11, 2001, or the Katrina flood—and that is un-repented slavery and abortion. Sins [or works] of the flesh (Galatians 5:19-21) will not produce this kind of judgment, particularly when there are interceding Christians around and America has hosts of them, only sins of the spirit: as are both abortion and slavery; and slavery is in the eyes of God a Christian institution (see www.whattimeitis.org , Voice of the Lord, *The Origin of Racism).

As a doorway to the judgment of God, abortion claims 500 lives each day in the United States, 25% of which are black. It is amazing that judgment for killing our unborn children has not yet come upon America, but it would appear that since the doorway to this carnage was opened in the courtroom of the United States Supreme Court, that God will allow its fix to now come in this same courtroom, as the nation has before it the almost unparalleled opportunity to fill two vacancies on the Court at the same time. Pray that the President and the Senate will each have the wisdom of God flowing in the nomination and confirmation processes: as the judgment of God will most surely come upon a nation that annually kills 1.5 million of its unborn children.

The Judgment of James 5:1-8 Is a Sure Word of Prophesy

Back to the issue of slavery. Peter said that, "We have also a more sure word of prophecy:

whereunto ye do well that ye take heed"…referring to the written Word of God (2 Peter 1:19). The written Word of God is even more reliable than the vision that Peter himself had when he saw of Jesus, Moses and Elijah (Elias) on the Mount of Transfiguration in the Gospels (Matthew 17:2; Mark 9:2; and Luke 9:29). The written Word of God is thus the highest form of prophetic revelation, and the standard by which all prophetic "revelation" must be judged…Can you show me that in the Word; or what does the Bible have to say about that?...must be the constant question asked when judging not the prophet, but any word from the Lord spoken by a prophet, as God in His sovereignty is not required to speak this Word or any Word to the nation through your favorite man or woman of God.

My initial revelation on James 5:1-8 and slavery came in the year 2000, with my Bible open reading the 5th Chapter of James, when a voice from behind me (Isaiah 30:21) said, "I have not forgotten about 300 years of slavery." (See www.whattimeitis.org and click first on the Voice of the Lord link, and then the Judgments of James 5, Slavery, and God's Call to the US link; see also the Judgments of James 5 link on the home page.)

My first notice of Isaiah 30:25, "…in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fell"…came on September 12, 2001, the day after the towers fell, while watching every conceivable view of those twin towers actually falling, and listening to TV news commentators as they reported that this verse of Scripture was being quoted with glee by Islamic fundamentalists around the world, as a judgment from God on the United States.

Next, by applying to this Scripture the law of first reference—which says that the first Bible reference to a Biblical subject, or to an original language word in either Testament, controls its usage throughout the rest of the Bible—elementary Bible interpretation "101" immediately connects Isaiah 30:25 with James 5:5, as they are the only two definitive references in the entire Bible to a "day of slaughter." (See www.whattimeitis.org, 24 Rules for Understanding Bible Prophecy.)

If, then, one but reads James 5:1-8, and applies this text exclusively to the United States and its history, immediately off of the pages of Scripture (without need of commentary or theologian) is revealed a judgment from God on the last days' wealth of some rich guys who didn't pay their laborers for reaping down their fields, and whom they killed at will!

The money is crying out [the withheld wages that are still in the wrong hands], and the laborers are crying out [in the same way that the voice of Abel's blood still cries out to God from the ground (Genesis 4:10; Hebrews 12:24)]; and their cries and prayers to God during their times of suffering are still in God's face and must be answered before the second coming of Jesus (Luke 18:17-18; Revelation 5:8; 6:10 and 8:1). The Lord of Sabaoth (the God of Armies, or Capitan of the Hosts) has heard the cries of both, and has come to judge. One has to have help to misunderstand this passage of Scripture.

Most Christians around the world, including me, use James 5:7-8 as a soul-winning/salvation Scripture, "Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord…for the precious fruit of the earth…until he receive the early and latter rain…for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh." However, when this passage of Scripture is put back into its context, it speaks of judgment and not soul winning.

There is no national spiritual sin left but slavery, that is big enough for long enough in a place important enough, for God to have recorded both its sin and judgment in His Word—and in the New Covenant of His Word—two thousand years before it came to pass. This is a "last days" passage of Scripture. Its application is for the last days.

Slavery Destroyed the Wealth of Egypt

The Book of Exodus, Chapters 2 through 15, reveals God's judgments of the richest nation on the earth, Egypt, for the enslavement of His people. Ten plagues of judgment destroyed the oasis of Egypt before Pharaoh got the message, and was willing to obey the voice of the Lord spoken by the prophet, Moses, to set God's people free. In Exodus 12:36, God also judged the money of Egypt. [The initial damage estimates from the Hurricane Katrina are 100 billion dollars; and only 25% of that figure is expected to be covered by insurance.]

On the way out of Egypt, back to the land that God had promised as a covenant to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, God paid the Israelites for 400 years of slave labor. In the post-Civil War Reconstruction—which lasted only five years—American blacks got nothing (not even a thank you); and, as God spoke in the above Prophetic Utterance, "…no land, no money, no guns and no butter." Nothing!

In the eyes of God, these back wages that James 5 makes reference to have been compounding at the maximum heavenly rate of interest for the last 140 years. Plus, in the language of a lawyer, punitive damages are owed to the descendants of America's slaves for the willful, wanton, and malicious use of terror and terrorism—as the very institution of slavery, itself, was held together by the systematic and applied use of terror to control the subjection and forced labor of populations that often outnumbered plantation whites by ratios of 10:1, or greater.

The United States also went much far greater than any other nation in the New World in its using the Bible to justify this enslavement and terrorism, in order to "save the heathen souls." Only a Christian that knows the Bible would be concerned as to the salvation of a soul that is introduced to Jesus—even a slave—or whether Christian baptism brought with it freedom from slavery. This was the constant question raised in every land to which European Christians carried their race-based economic slavery into North and South America, and the West Indies.

American slave-masters also went so far as to raise up a generation of plantation preachers—with their more distinguished looking hand-me-downs—to preach a gospel of obedience to the master in order to minimize the greatly feared freedom strikes of slaves (also known as slave revolts); and to keep these slaves looking to the sweet-by-and-by for their rewards, rather than to the nasty now for their deliverance.

For God not to judge America's un-repented national sin slavery before the return of Jesus makes Him a respecter of persons—He cannot pay the Israelites for their slavery and fail to pay black people for theirs and remain God…because His Word would fail! God is in a box; and so is America.

America is Sitting on a Time Bomb with a Short Fuse

What the Hurricane Katrina uncovered and laid bare for the nation to see in that New Orleans convention center, is the descendants of 'gang slaves'—men and women who bore the burden in the heat of the day, and who are now disbursed throughout the entire United States—who were awakened at 3:00 A.M. and during harvest time worked until midnight, and were told what to do, when to do, where to do, and how to do it twenty-four/seven, and whipped with a lash (or worse) if it was not being done fast enough, or for any other whimsical reason—terrorized and broke from the cradle to the grave, on both sides of the Civil War.

America is sitting on a time bomb with a short fuse. Black people are angry: those who show it, and those who don't. If Katrina had been anything but a flood which restricted mobility, there would have been rioting in the streets of New Orleans; and that rioting would have triggered similar Watts-type rioting [the Los Angeles riots of 1965] all across America. Jesus told the religious leaders of his day that they could discern the face of the sky, but could not discern the signs of the times (Matthew 16:3). Katrina is a wake-up call to this nation.

It is Way Past Time for a National Apology for Slavery

What must America do: admit it, and quit it! It is way past time for a national apology for slavery; and for a Godly repentance for the terror that kept the institution of slavery in place before the Civil War, and for the 100 years of lynching that kept blacks in their "place," and took away their franchise in the South, after the Civil War. (This terror and the never-prosecuted lynchings did not actually cease until the turbulence of the 1960's.)

The judgment of James 5:1-8 is all about money ("So the curse causeless shall not come," (Proverbs 26:2)). It is addressed to the miserable rich who are weeping and howling because their money is becoming corrupted, cankered and rusted (corroded)…all because they did not pay their laborers, and killed them [the just] at will.

For God's people—and the United States is a nation established by God—slavery itself is a curse (Exodus 21:16, 17, 26, 27; 22:21-24; 23:12; and Revelation 13:10); and false balances, unjust measures, and condemning the just are all abominations to God (Proverbs 11:1; 17:15; 20:10 and 23).

The Covenant that God actually has with the United States is the Mayflower Compact, and not the Constitution—which in at least 10 places gives explicit recognition to the institution slavery, and thus to the blood and terror which held it in place. Neither does God recognize the Declaration of Independence as a covenant with Him, as its language that, "…all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness…" was never intended either by Thomas Jefferson who penned most of the document, or by the founding fathers who signed the Declaration, to apply to African slaves.

What the founding fathers did and did not intend in their creation of the foundation documents of the United States, is a matter that has already been judged by the United States Supreme Court in Dred Scott vs. Sandford. 60 US 393 (1857), which can be easily pulled off of the Internet. This case was decided by a clear majority of the Court in a 7/2 decision. The Honorable Chief Justice Roger B. Taney, in writing for the Court, sets forth by a host of credible evidence and argument to support the fact that the founding fathers intentionally made it impossible for even an emancipated African slave to ever become a citizen of the United States; and, as the case holds, because Mr. Scott was not a citizen (and could never become one), he had no standing to sue in the courts of the United States, for anything, much less his freedom. Case dismissed!

Mr. Justice Taney has been much criticized and maligned in history for his judicial analysis of the founding fathers' intentions, because he was a former save owner (although he actually freed his own slaves before taking the bench). But, I have yet to read any credible arguments put forth to his analysis of the founder's intentions, not even from the two dissenting opinions on the Court.

Every American that loves this nation should read the Dred Scott Decision, to gain an understanding as to why it took the Civil War, the loss of 625,000 lives (100,000 more in the North than in the South), and passage of the 13th Amendment to the Constitution (which abolished slavery), and 14th Amendment (which made every person born in the Untied States a citizen of both the nation and the state of birth)—to overrule not what the Supreme Court did in the Dred Scott Decision—but to fix what the founding fathers intentionally did when drafting the Constitution.

To Get God's Judgment off of our Money, the Bill for Slavery has to be Paid

There is also a gargantuan bill that has to be paid, in order to get God off of America's case, and to prevent the curse of James 5 from further eroding the vast equity of the United States until (as God said in the Prophetic Utterance recorded above) America becomes a second-rate nation in the family of nations. Whites, even those of good will which is most, believe that it is impossible for the United States to ever go broke. Most of us in the evangelical church go even further by our belief that the United States cannot go broke because God has a Covenant with it and we are the primary financiers of the Gospel that's being preached around the world. This is a big time manifestation of the spirit of pride; as the Mayflower Covenant will not protect the United States any longer from this national un-repented spiritual Christian sin of slavery, and the burning bushes that God has been sending for the nation to repent.

God said in the above Prophetic Utterance that, "Except ye repent," that He would put out the United State's lamp of radiance among the nations of the world, like he did for the Church at Ephesus for their lack of repentance. As Church leaders and others evaluate whether or not God has actually spoke this Word through me, consider that as I write there are hundreds of pastors from New Orleans who are out of their jobs, as well as their staff's jobs, which number into the thousands. Most have no income, can't pay their bills, have congregations that may never recover and if they do, many of them will have no income because there is little economy left in New Orleans to support that income; and even if foreclosure-moratorium legislation is passed, as it probably will, which will prevent the immediate foreclosure of their churches, that legislation won't pay their salaries. "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall" (Proverbs 16:18). We are dealing here with a curse!

The first and almost universal response of American whites to the issue of slavery when it is mentioned is, "Well African sold slaves,"—which is like responding to one's Johnny or Jane, that it is OK for them to steal fruit from the corner grocery store because all the other kids are doing it. Ridiculous! Please consider what the world-renowned theologian, John Wesley, had to say on: the Christian institution of slavery, the details of its practice, the Africa that white Christians found when they first arrived, and just how it came about that Africans sold slaves [see Thoughts Upon Slavery, published in 1774, http://gbgm-umc.org/umw/wesley/thoughtsuponslavery.stm, last visited 09/09/2005; see also the last letter of his life written to William Wilberforce, a member of the English Parliament saved under Wesley's ministry, http://gbgm-umc.org/umw/wesley/wilber.stm, last visited 09/09/2005].

In a Half-empty Nation, Why no Land for Slaves?

During the Reconstruction of 1865, political decisions were made:

- to not break-up the land-based Southern aristocracy that owned the huge plantations; and
- to keep blacks, although now "free," in the South—without land and working for wages that would perpetuate a lifetime of poverty—because, after all, somebody had to cultivate and harvest the cotton and tobacco. So, blacks moved from slaves to sharecroppers! [For an example of a sharecrop contract, see http://www.toptags.com/aama/docs/sharecrop.htm, last visited 09/09/2005.]

The crowing piece of domestic legislation of Abraham Lincoln's first term of office as President (while the Civil War was raging) was The Homestead Act of 1862. Under its provisions, any free born or naturalized citizen and head of household could become the owner of 160 acres of land after only 5 years, by living on it and making "improvements" to it. The provisions of this act were only available to a white man or woman, because Indians under the Constitution were considered to be members of foreign nations; and according to the Dred Scott Decision blacks could not become citizens, either by way of emancipation or naturalization (because they were not citizens of a foreign nation because they were carried here as slaves)—which matter was not fixed until passage of the 13th and 14th Amendments, discussed above.

However, at the close of the Civil War, the Homestead Act was in place, and America was largely empty west of the Mississippi River. Four million newly emancipated slaves—called freedman—had earned the right to, were entitled to, and could have easily become major equity holders in America. There was, however, general agreement in Washington, D. C. that the territories out West were for poor whites from the industrial North, and for immigrants (also white) from Europe. It took the Hurricane Katrina to lay bare before the entire world the fruit of those decisions 140 years later, by this latest catastrophic judgment on the wealth of the United States that is rooted in slavery.

September 11th was also an Attack on the Wealth of America

September 11, 2001 was the first of these catastrophic judgments attacking the wealth of the United States. Terror was merely the vehicle through which the curse of James 5 was manifested—the product of the Biblical law of sowing and reaping (Galatians 6:7; Genesis 1:11-12). Who would argue that the United States is the financial capital of the world; or that New York City is the financial capital of the nation; or that those twin towers more than any other American icon symbolized America's wealth. When the chickens of the terror of slavery finally came home to roost, it was terror that attacked these icons of the nation's wealth and brought the twin towers down.

New York City's Sordid Past

New York City, like New Orleans, was also a major portal for the entrance of slaves into the country. This will come as a shock to the readers, as it also was to me, but New York City was also the site of the massacre of the largest number of freedom seeking slaves in United States history. Quoting from two incidents described by the eminently respected historian, John Hope Franklin, in his book From Slavery To Freedom:

"The ungovernable temper of New York's Negroes flared up into a fully organized insurrection in the spring of 1712. About twenty-three slaves armed with guns, knives, and hatchets, met in an orchard near the center of the town. At the appointed time one of them set fire to an outhouse of his master. As whites hurried to the burning building the Negroes shot them, killing nine and wounding five or six…When the Negroes were captured, six had committed suicide. One man shot his wife first and then himself, while the other had cut their own throats. Twenty-one were executed: some, including a woman, were hanged; one was suspended in chains alive without food or drink until he was dead; some were burned, one of whom was to be consumed by a slow fire for eight or ten hours; one was broken on the wheel, his head and quarters being place at the Queen's disposal." (emphasis added)

"In 1741 the hysteria resulting from the fear of a slave uprising plunged the city of New York into the greatest orgy of Negro persecutions that appeared anywhere during the colonial period." [At this time one-fifth of Manhattan's population consisted of black slaves.] "On the night of February 28, 1741…a series of fires broke out…They became so numerous…that the citizens knew that they were not accidental. Panic gripped the town in a flash. Then it happened: the emergence of the rumor that Negroes and poor whites were conspiring to destroy law and order in the city and seize control.

"The city council offered generous rewards for information leading to the arrest of the conspirators…Mary Burton, an indentured servant…said that three Negroes…had evolved a plan to burn the town, kill all the white people, and establish a monarchy…This surpassed the wildest imaginations of the whites…An impartial trial was impossible, and contradictions as well as falsifications are obvious in the 'confessions' and other testimony that were presented. In the minds of New Yorkers the conspiracy of a great Negro insurrection had taken shape, and vengeance must be swift and complete.

"In the trials 154 Negroes and 25 whites were prosecuted. Convictions wee secured in the case of 101 Negroes, of whom eighteen were hanged, thirteen burned alive and seventy banished. Four white people, two of whom were women, were also hanged. 'At the rate of two every week, one hanged and one burned alive, the victims were executed amid prayers, imprecations and shrieks of agony.'" (emphasis added) [From Slavery To Freedom, John Hope Franklin, Second Edition, pp. 91-93, Alfred A Knoff, Inc., 1956]

All this is from New York City—not Biloxi, Mississippi!

An Excerpt From New York's First Constitution of 1683

Paragraph #27. [Religious toleration]

THAT No person or persons which profess faith in God by Jesus Christ Shall at any time be any ways molested punished disquieted or call in Question for any Difference in opinion or Matter of Religious Concernment….

The Curse of James 5 Will Return to Finish its Work on New York City

Oral Roberts, the outstanding contemporary man of God and founder of Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, was given a vision of a manifestation of some sort that will set up over New York City and the Eastern part of the United States for a time before 2005 has ended—smoke, vapor, blood accompanied with a horrific sound (c/p. Acts 2:19)—and then will be disbursed across the United States and throughout the earth. [The "Wake-up Call" can be purchased in its entirety, two weeks of television broadcasts, from the Kenneth Copeland Ministries, www.kcm.org.] The Lord has already told me that this coming manifestation from outer space when it sets up over New York City is the curse of James 5 coming back to take out the city, but whose power is stayed to give New York City and the nation additional time to repent.

As I said way back in the beginning of this message, I am anchored in the Word of God. No matter whatever the subject may be, my frame-of-reference is the Bible. Can I find it in the Word; or what does the Word have to say about this or that? The only thing that I have been able to find in the Bible that comes to the earth from outer space, other than Jesus and the angels (including Satan and his angels), is the curse of Zechariah 5:3, which Isaiah 24 says devourers the whole earth.

Because people do not know, God will stay judgment over New York to give the City and the nation a final opportunity to repent, and then to begin to make restitution for slavery. The vision was given to Dr. Roberts as a "wake-up call" concerning the second coming of Jesus; and it is, because America's response to both the judgment written and the judgment stayed will determine the United States' place in the end time events that are yet to precede the second coming of Jesus. It is interesting to note that God has waited until the very year that the European Economic Union is or was set to begin its operations (with a gross national product bigger that the U.S), to require this national repentance of the America. [Although not the subject matter here, there are a whole host of world-wide events that have not transpired and nations which are not in place for the second coming of Jesus to reign over the earth. See www.whattimeitis.org, Coming Events In Bible Prophecy.]

A Man of God in the White House Trained in Terror

God has raised up and set in the White House a man of God who has been trained in terrorism and in the mindset of terrorists. He has also been trained in the liberation and reconstruction of the people of two nations—Afghanistan and Iraq—who were caught in the grips of terrorism and terrorists. I am persuaded that this man of God, George W. Bush, has now been commissioned by the Lord himself to lead the United States into A Second Reconstruction of major portions of the South for the deserving victims of Katrina of every race.

At the same time, the President is called by God to lead the nation in fixing of all that was lacking in the first Reconstruction of 1865, where 4 million Americans were "freed," but at the same time "fired" from their full employment status as slaves. They were given no land, no money, and now had to pay rent on the same shack they lived in a slave for "free". Four hundred thousand Blacks were turned out of school when the Freedman's Bureau was abolished after only a 5-year existence. (In fact, the public education system that is taken for granted across the United States had its origin in the Freedman's Bureau.)

Although Blacks were kept in the South, they were given no national liberation army to protect their franchise, or to protect them from the post-Civil Wars terror of the Ku Klux Klan and its friends. This southern liberation army would have had to remain and be supported by the President and the Congress until the hearts of Southerners were changed—likely a generation or more—and like Iraq, troops would have had to remain until the black male could be trained to lead, govern and protect their families, with a viable economic plan for physical self-determination that would guarantee the freedmen's becoming a financial member of the American dream.

My Message On Behalf of Black America to George W. Bush

This is a set-up, Mr. President. In the language of the Church, you have been called, appointed, anointed, and trained by God to lead the United States in A Second Reconstruction for the victims of Katrina; and at the same time to fix for the descendants of those who missed out in the Reconstruction of 1865, in all that this country now knows how to do, and to which we, its former slaves are entitled. You know more about every facet of this kind of national recovery of large populations of people than any president in United States' history.

On behalf of Black Americans—most of whom do not even begin to see you in this light with Katrina doing little or nothing to improve their perception in this regard—I believe in you; and I thank you in advance for your willingness to be used by God to lead the United States into a season of national repentance and national reconstruction, and to put the curse of James 5 behind us for ever.

I do not hesitate to say this, because in my heart I know that each of us has the same Commander-in-chief!

September 10, 2005
Sincerely,
Walter James Taylor

A Strong Sign

Ricardo Lemos

This afternoon I felt compelled to write since the Lord gave a word related to a previous post on this site.

There was a word posted - I do not remember the details - about 2 years ago or so, where the Lord gave a vision or a dream to a believer regarding a patient on life support.

The interpretation was that this patient was the US Economy, which was being kept artificially alive - specially after 9/11,so that the talk of a " healthy Economy " was just deceptive.

Well, I believe the Lord is giving a strong sign to our nation with the Terri Schiavo case.

And that is why it has been the news for the past few days.

The Lord would say - I believe - that since it has been decided that the life support system be removed from Terry, He has decided too that now is the time for Him to remove the life support from the Economy as well.

From now on, it will be evident that as the patient is dying, so will our Economy.

Notice that this case was centered around the resurrection day - Easter - And I felt that had this case turned out differently - and the life support was kept - maybe it would be a sign that the Lord would breath " new life " to the economy too in order to keep it going.

But now, unfortunately it seems, at least as I write, that Terry's case is irreversible. And, therefore, so it will be with the Lord's handling with us.

I believe then all that is being used and done by the Federal Reserve and other nations' central banks to keep the economy going, should begin to unravel and fall apart as soon as she passes away.

Ricardo Lemos
Southampton NY

A Solemn Word To The Church
Yolanda Ballard

Sep 24, 2005
(roarnworship@netzero.net)

A SOLEMN WORD TO THE CHURCH

Wake up, Church, and cast off all that would hinder you, and be united and seek My face, says the Lord. Keep your balance in all things. Seek wisdom and knowledge, and stir up your gifts and arise above the circumstances, and stand on My promises. Quit striving, let go, and let Me reign in your lives. Rest in Me and I will take care of your every need, for I AM your Heavenly Father, and I take care of My own.

I say quit striving to accomplish all the works and the programs and all the projects, etc. If you would just seek My face and My righteousness, all these things will be added unto you, and that is all the needs of the Church. Just rest in Me for it is My Body and I AM the head and I AM in control. Just trust Me and yield to My will. Be not as Martha being consumed with all the things that look like they need to be done, but be like Mary, being consumed with My presence, being at My side, seeking My heart and My perfect will.

Keep things simple and cease striving and rest in Me, says the Lord. Trust Me and yield to My will for it is all My program, and I AM the One who ordained it, orchestrates it, and will accomplish it in My timing and in My ways, says the Lord. My word to you, Church, is for you to obey and let Me be God, and quit being a hindrance to Me for this is a solemn word to you, and I cannot stress that enough. Just quit striving and give it all to Me and rest, and I will remove what isn't of Me, and create My programs through you that will best accomplish My will through you.

Give all to Me and start anew. What is truly of Me will stand, and what isn't will be removed. I want My order and My will in My Church. Are you afraid to give Me your all? Are you afraid to trust Me? Don't you feel I AM capable to run My Church? There is too much that is not of Me in the camp. For I AM God, and I will have My way in this hour, for time is short, and I have a lot to accomplish through you, but you must be totally yielded, My people.

I say again. Let go of all that would obstruct My vision. Get back to the basics -- to seek My face and My will. Prepare your hearts to turn over everything to Me. Take your true position in Me. Put on your armor and begin to march with one goal, one focus, one vision ----- to pursue My holiness, My intimacy, My love, and to break through the gates, pull down strongholds and let My river flow!

We Are To Be Examples!
Yolanda Ballard

Sep 23, 2005
The Lord is calling His worshipers together to stand boldly in the congregation of the saints with a humble, submissive heart but at the same time following the leading of the Holy Spirit. If we are in a true congregation of the Lord, the leadership will discern that we are led of the Lord and allow the true move of God, and if they don't have a heart for the Lord, we will be booted out! But at least we were able to take a stand for the Lord so that others will follow.

So many truly want to worship the Lord with all their heart but they fear that they would be out of order so they stand in line with the others quenching the flow of God in their hearts. I tell you this day that if you feel the Lord tugging on your heart and you are to travail, then do it! If you feel to dance, then dance!!! If you feel to bow down and worship at His feet, then please.....do it!!!

Others just want a leader that has the boldness to step out! I have heard comments made from others who just basked in the presence of God upon one who was truly worshiping the Lord in dance! No, never move in the flesh to step out, but humble yourself before the mighty hand of God, and wait upon Him. When He leads you, just step out.

For I believe there is a remnant who are truly worship intercessors who are standing in the gap for others to follow their lead. And I know God is going to move in a mighty way through us through His mighty roar. I know He is going to usher in the lost through the breakthrough that will come through this travail. This travail will move nations!!!

So if you want to be used in a mighty way, then worship the Lord! And wait upon Him and believe and He will come in our midst in a mighty way and He will pour out through us His most holy roar!!!! This roar will repel the powers of darkness away from the lost so that they can respond to His love and be saved.

I know this is true. I stand that others will catch the vision of what true revival is all about. It all starts with you as you humble yourself before Him, wait and step out, with no fear of man. This is the day of salvation! Who will you serve, Church, God or man?

Lord, Shake Us, Wake Us!!
Yolanda Ballard

Sep 23, 2005
Didn't the Lord say that judgment would first begin in the house of God? Didn't the Church just sit back and allow the enemy to take over through our deception, complacency, apathy, pride, legalism, and you name it! We are the ones who are to set the example through love to the world. And have we done it? Or have we been sidetracked by the schemes of the evil one?

In our preparation have we reached the lost with God's love? I have a hard time even seeing it displayed in the church to God's people, much less shown to the world! We have quenched the true flow of His Spirit in our midst. Look at the state of the Church!!! We need to cry out for repentance!!! and for His grace and mercy to be poured out upon us! If we don't straighten out, we will surely die! Do we even feel a need to cry out! We are too engrossed in the comfort zone.

Lord, help us. We are desperate for You!!!! Do what it takes to get us to be the blessing you called us to be.....the light in the midst of darkness all around. Give us holy boldness to take a stand to share Your love. Draw us close in Your secret place. Give us Your burden to pray! We are desperate! Travail through us, O Lord. Come Lion of Judah and use us as Your vessel. Roar through us, Lord. We are desperate for change!!!! Before it is too late!!!!

A Serious Warning for Israel
Diane Littleton Bahler

DLBahler88@aol.com
January 1, 2005

On December 16 I received an email from my friend Charlene Shoemaker. She told me about a disturbing dream she had that night. I also had a disturbing dream the same night and felt that the two came at the same time because they were interconnected.

Charlene is an intercessor for Israel and has made many trips and has many personal connections there. She and I both felt the dreams had a personal level of interpretation for her but I also felt that they had a much broader layer of interpretation for the whole of Israel. I sent her my interpretation of the dreams and asked her if I could share them publicly. She agreed but I decided to wait on the Lord for more confirmation before I did anything with them, partly because I felt that the interpretation would not be accepted and partly because the warning is of such a serious nature.

The only place that is NOT safe is outside of the will of the Lord and the only place that IS safe is within it. I believe that the Lord is issuing strong warnings that anyone who is not within His will is in imminent danger of destruction. I also believe He is issuing a warning that unprecedented shaking is coming to the physical land and people of Israel and anyone who is not specifically called by Him to be there should not go there or should leave unless and until they hear CLEARLY from Him otherwise.

The first confirmation came that same day in the form of a history update I receive daily by email. December 16th was the anniversary of two of the greatest earthquakes in history. In 1811 the New Madrid series of earthquakes began with an estimated 8.6 magnitude on the Richter scale. The earthquake greatly changed the TOPOGRAPHY of the region but there were no known casualties because it was sparsely inhabited at the time.

The other earthquake that occurred was one of the deadliest in history. It hit the Gansu province of midwestern China in 1925 causing massive landslides and the deaths of over 200,000 people. It measured 8.5 on the Richter scale. Quakes reaching a magnitude 8 are very rare.

At Christmas I received a second startling and horrific confirmation as I watched my dream being played out in television coverage of the earthquake and tsunami in southeast Asia. I do not believe that event was the fulfillment of the dream. I believe it was the confirmation of both dreams together and their warning for Israel.

Below I will recount the dreams and after that my interpretation of why I think they are warnings for Israel. As with all prophecy, it should be judged carefully. I am definitely open to any interpretations others may have.

Charlene’s dream:

I was at the airport with my mom and my daughter waiting by the gate for the plane to take off, an early morning flight. When we got in line to board, I suddenly realized that the itinerary in my purse that I had purchased on-line, had never been turned into tickets when I came into the airport. (Like I had the forethought to plan the trip and buy the tickets online but didn't go to the counter at the airport and get the tickets. I had gone straight to the gate and waited.)

I was supposed to be flying from here to New Ark to Israel, but my mom was only flying one part, like from here to somewhere else in US and she had her tickets. She wasn't going to Israel with me so the minute I realized - almost at boarding the plane 10 minutes before takeoff- that I didn't have physical tickets, I got her on the plane and ran in a panic back to the ticketing desk and I needed them to be in a BIG HURRY with me to print a ticket so I could get on this flight. But they immediately went into a lolly-gag mode and looked at my stuff and were happy, nice people but there was no way they were even trying to get me on THIS PLANE that was my connection to Israel.

I tried to push them saying if I didn't make THIS PLANE, which would get me to New Ark by 11, I would miss my 1 p.m. flight to Israel. They said their next plane I could get on was AT 11 and I could take that one. I said, "No, then I get to New Ark after 1 when my other plane is already gone." They wouldn't budge and time was wasting ... and I had a feeling the plane would wait if they would get in gear and take two extra minutes to just print my tickets, but it wasn't going to happen, I had the feeling, and I looked at my daughter and it was like we both just accepted that this trip to Israel wasn't going to happen. I knew my mom was on the plane and going "somewhere" and she would be okay, her ticket was fine, but somehow I had this whole thing planned out but didn't have the actual tickets to get on the plane, and yet it was already booked and paid for. I even said to the counter people, "Just look at my passport and see how many times I've traveled this flight. I know how to do this, I just FORGOT this step this time," like that would persuade them to help me (instead of penalizing me with missing both flights.)

Anyway, there was going to be a $70 charge to change my ticket to get me on the 11 p.m. flight (which was way too late for the next flight) and I think I knew suddenly with those changes that the whole trip was off. I just didn't have it in me to get to New Ark late, pay an extra fee, already have missed the Israel flight and then figure out from there how to get to Israel. It just seemed like too much and I looked at my daughter and we decided to go home.

And I woke up with the weird feeling of standing at the ticket counter trying to argue with them to put the effort into printing my tickets for this flight and hold the plane two minutes - I guess, pushing, striving, fighting (even though I wasn't being rude, just persistent), and they just weren't cooperating.

I woke up knowing that a trip to Israel that I had planned, hadn't come to fruition and I was going home and I guess I was okay with it because after the last trip being so disappointing I didn't have it in me to start on a trip over there that was from the beginning going so badly so we were going home to "wait."

Charlene reported having thoughts after she awoke of wondering if she had failed the Lord’s plan, as though He had done His part in calling her and paying for it, but she had failed to get the tickets. The night before she and her daughter found a bunch of shekels INSIDE an old clock. They had apparently thrown them in there when they moved and had never opened the bottom part. When her daughter asked her what she thought it meant, Charlene said, jokingly, "Oh, it must mean, IT"S TIME to go to Israel again but immediately felt that she could not do another trip at this time. She wondered if the dream was confirming that it was NOT time.

My Dream:

I was at a beach house with some friends. The man who lived in the house owned it and had many nice pieces of furniture including a very old and ornate piano that would be impossible to replace. There was a party or some kind of social gathering going on. I didn’t know the people and had been invited by a friend although not someone I am currently close to. While sitting there talking to them I went into some sort of trance/vision within the dream. It happened three times and it was obvious to them that I was in some sort of spiritual state but they chose to just ignore it and went on with their socializing. My sense was that although they had some exposure to the supernatural they were not spiritual people and didn't really understand it so it was easier to just ignore what was happening. Each time I went into a trance it was sort of like a reverse scene from the Wizard of OZ. I went from color in the dream to the vision being in rather dramatic black and white. In the first vision there was a monstrous storm with churning dark clouds coming over the ocean toward the beach. In the second vision the storm was closer. In the third vision it had already passed and the beach was covered with dead fish and dead bodies. There were so many bodies that there were men operating moving equipment to clear them away. I tried to warn the people at the house that this storm was coming - was practically HERE- but they just went on about their party and chose to ignore me.

First, any revelation of “Israel” always has several layers of meaning to it. There is a personal meaning for any believer who is an Israelite by faith. There are also those who are Israel that are physically connected to the land, history and religious traditions of Israel but are not believers in Jesus as Messiah. In this interpretation I will refer to them as NATURAL ISRAEL. There also are believers that include all those who are Israel by faith although they may not be faithful to their husband, the Lord. I will refer to them as RELIGIOUS ISRAEL and includes many of those who are saved but who are still loyal to and/or entrapped by the church's religious system. There is also a group of believers made up of all nations, tribes and tongues, who are the Bride or the Remnant that are faithful to their spiritual husband and not man's religious systems. I will refer to them as SPIRITUAL ISRAEL. Therefore, the dreams may have several layers of interpretation.

There are several reasons why I believe these dreams constitute a warning for Israel. First of all, Charlene's dream is directly about Israel and her ministry has been directed in large part toward Israel and the people there. In my dream I am with a group of people that I consider my friends but who I don't really know that well. They are not particularly spiritual people although they also aren't really freaked out when I have vision/trances. This could describe my experience when I have been to Israel. I consider them my friends but living in America keeps me from feeling close to most of them. They are people I sometimes visit. Israel has a long religious history and they have certainly been exposed to many Christians and their supernatural experiences when touring Israel but they are largely ignored or tolerated by most Israelis because of the tourism money.

In the dream I've been invited to a party at the home of someone who owns a beach house. A beach is a place where tourists go as they do to Israel. However, the man owns property at the beach. He is not a tourist he is a proprietor. This could also suggest Religious Israel who has felt secure in their four-walled church "homes." A beach is a place covered by sand, which is also symbolic of all layers of Israel since the Lord promised Abraham that he would make his descendants like the sand on the seashore.

The storm in the vision is coming across the sea. The sea often represents the nations. The interpretation is that the whole world is going to be affected by the storm. It may also suggest that the storm will come from the "gentile nations" - those who are not believers in any form, who are not Israel on any level. It may suggest that the storm or destruction will come from the nations of Islam, although there really isn't anything in the dreams to strongly suggest that. Given the earthquake confirmations, it is also possible that the physical land of Israel is about to experience a literal earthquake of huge magnitude. Whether it is symbolic or literal, given the fact that high magnitude earthquakes were used to confirm the word, it is clear that this shaking will cause massive destruction and loss of life.

The coming storm is first seen as massive dark clouds rolling across the sea. This also suggests that this storm is connected to the coming Day of the Lord's justice since His coming is associated with dark clouds.

"The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry. Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it. He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet. He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind. He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him – the dark rain clouds of the sky." (Psalm 18: 7-11)

In my dream the people are having a party and are mostly unconcerned about any bad thing happening. They discount the warnings even though in each vision the scenario gets worse. Many people believe that Israel in all of her forms is under such divine grace that she cannot be touched. Nevertheless, the Lord has issued many warnings in many ways over the last several years to leave religious tradition, to leave unbelief, and to leave Babylon and to come under the wings of His protection by faith. Most have not heeded those warnings except for a remnant (Spiritual Israel), which will be saved. There were three visions and three warnings in the dream. Three suggests completeness. There have been all the warnings necessary for the Lord to allow His justice to be released.

In the dream the visions occur in very stark black and white suggesting that the events to come have been "set". We say things are legal when they appear in black and white. It has been WRITTEN. It also suggests that there's no room for doubt. There's no middle ground between black and white.

In Charlene's dream she is prevented from going to Israel even though it would only take the airline workers "2 minutes" to give her the ticket that she needs. The plans have been laid but she is prevented from going by people who are genial enough but who have no interest in helping her to accomplish her goal. In fact, they seem to purposefully stand in her way.

I felt immediately when I first read the dream that Charlene was not able to go to Israel partly because it is soon going to be a very dangerous place to be and the Lord was protecting her by preventing her from making another trip. I think her difficulty in getting on the plane and forgetting a step that would be obvious also indicates that there are those who have made or will be making literal plans to go to Israel and the Lord will put obstacles in their way that they can't understand. They may think it is the enemy disrupting their plans but they should really seek the Lord about whether HE is the one who is thwarting their plans in order to keep them safe. The only place that is NOT safe is outside of the will of the Lord so those who are CALLED to Israel by the Lord at this time will be kept safe. But in the dream Charlene had made her own plans to go to Israel. She was prevented from going and told to go home and wait. Many will have the desire - especially as things begin to escalate - to go to Israel to help but the Lord may send angels to detain them.

I believe there is a broader interpretation of this in that there are many Christians who have "laid plans for Israel" according to what THEY want but when it comes to carrying them out they will be prevented by God's angels who have been given charge for carrying out HIS plans for Israel. There are a lot of Christians who have an interest in helping Israel but they have been interceding and making plans according to what their souls desire rather than consulting God’s two witnesses the Spirit and the Truth (TWO witnesses - 2 minutes that it would take to get the ticket.)

After Charlene woke up from the dream she wondered if she had somehow failed the Lord on behalf of Israel but as evidenced by her experience with the clock and the shekels, Charlene also represents those who have “bought time” for Israel through their intercessions. They have not failed the Lord or Israel. Destruction would have come much sooner if not for the prayers they have invested.

There are others, however, who have been trying to "buy time" for Israel through witchcraft prayers and military/political/economic manipulation and for them, time is up.

It is time for all aspects of Israel to come into alignment with the Lord’s will, righteousness and destiny. The numbers in Charlene’s dream - 11 and 1 speak of ALIGNMENT. It is TIME for Israel in ALL of her forms to come into alignment with the purposes of God. Israel has been given many warnings - (3 = complete) - and now time is UP. The shaking is going to begin NOW in earnest. The AT 11 flight also speaks of this alignment - Alpha and Tau, the beginning and the end. They are going to come together IN Israel and it will shake the whole world. It all begins and ends THERE. The countdown has begun and as it says in Revelation: "There will be no more delay..."

In my dreams my mother usually represents the Holy Spirit. As Paul said in Galatians 4:26 she is that Jerusalem that is above and is free and is our mother. She is the barren woman spoken of in Isaiah who has more children than she who has a husband so she is also the Spirit filled Bride. In Charlene’s dream her mother got on the plane and did NOT go to Israel. Charlene made sure she was on the plane suggesting that those who are part of the remnant, Spiritual Israel, will be kept safe. Revelation 12:13-14 says: “When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent’s reach.”

There is going to be only one place of safety in the days to come and that is being hidden in the Lord and completely reliant on the Holy Spirit. It is the safety of our MOTHER WHO COMES FROM ABOVE – the NEW Jerusalem that we need to be seeking to get to – not a physical “aliyah” to a land that may actually be very dangerous. As a body, believers have worked much harder at bringing the Jews home to the Middle Eastern Jerusalem than they have to lead them to the New Jerusalem, which is spiritual and not physical.

In the dream Charlene’s mother was going somewhere other than Israel and I think this is also indicative that the Lord is about to remove the protection of the Holy Spirit from both natural and religious houses of Israel. The Lord has also made many disappointing visits to Israel that have not come to fruition and now he's ready to "go home" for awhile and wait until she has been shaken enough to finally call on Him.

There have been other recent signs in the heavens to confirm these interpretations.

LUNAR ECLIPSE

On October 27, 2004, there was a full lunar eclipse. This was a particularly unusual moon eclipse. It was the fourth lunar eclipse since May 15, 2003. Four can signify “world-wide” – the “four corners of the earth”. Four successive lunar total eclipses coming at intervals under six months apart is called a tetrad and is fairly unusual. During a period of about three centuries tetrads can occur rather frequently; then in the next three hundred years tetrads never occur at all. Presently we are living in a period where tetrads take place. There won’t be another lunar eclipse until 2007. This was also an unusual eclipse because it was the first – and possibly the only – time that one will occur during the WORLD SERIES. Probably the last time that a lunar eclipse was televised to such a large audience was on Aug. 6, 1971 when the three Apollo 15 astronauts trained their camera toward a totally eclipsed Moon while returning to Earth after man’s FOURTH successful visit to the lunar surface.

The moon is filled with prophetic imagery. It can be symbolic of Israel on all levels because it reflects the light of the sun (son). This particular moon was called the Hunter’s Moon and also the Blood Moon because of the reddish color that it turns during the eclipse. The scriptures that refer to the coming of the day of the Lord being associated with the “moon turning to blood” are referring to a full lunar eclipse. The word ”eclipse” comes from the Greek word “ekleipsis” which means abandonment. It was not a happy word per se in history and often was associated with coming catastrophe.

During the weekend of this particular full lunar eclipse the Lord sent me to the red clay state of Georgia to hike up Blood Mountain. The trip was a prophetic metaphor as well as prophetic intercession. Near the top of the mountain I stopped to look out at the valleys and mountains surrounding me and I had a disturbing vision. In the distance was a mountain that is literally called Slaughter Mountain. In my spirit I saw the valley filled with blood like a flood. In addition to basically the whole book of Joel, the Lord gave me the following scriptures to prophesy:

“This is what the Lord says: ‘Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people and of the priests and go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. There proclaim the words I tell you and say, Hear the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel says: Listen! I am going to bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle. For they have forsaken me and made this a place of foreign gods; they have burned sacrifices in it to gods that neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. They have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as offerings to Baal – something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind. So beware, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. In this place I will ruin the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, at the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth. I will devastate this city and make it an object of scorn… This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel says: Listen! I am going to bring on this city and the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked and would not listen to my words.” (Jeremiah 19)

“The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God’s wrath. They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia.” (Rev. 14: 19-20)

“And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, ‘Come, gather together for the great supper of God, so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great.” (Rev. 19: 17-18)

“From about the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness came over all the land. About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” – which means, ‘My God, my God, why have you forsaken (abandoned) me?'…The earth shook and the rocks split." (Matthew 27:45-46 and 51B)

"For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back. In a surge of anger I hid my face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I will have compassion on you says the Lord, your Redeemer." (Isaiah 54:7-8)

JUPITER ALIGNMENT

Another rare and spectacular event occurred in the early morning hours of Tuesday, December 7, 2004 (Pearl Harbor Day) when the brilliant planet Jupiter and three of its largest satellites (moons) passed behind Earth's Moon. Astronomers refer to this phenomenon as an "occultation," taken from the Latin occultare, which means to conceal. This eye-catching sight was visible in complete darkness across all of eastern and much of central North America.

Charlene wrote to me that Jupiter is Tzedeq in Hebrew and means RIGHTEOUSNESS. It is the Messiah's planet. Charlene's last name is Shoemaker and it is also the planet that the SHOEMAKER-LEVI Comet was caught in its gravitational pull and finally ended up doing a crash and burn in its surface a few years ago. Charlene has been sent often as a Levite of the Messiah to minister in Israel and she has recognized that being pulled into the Messiah's gravitational destiny of Israel may cost her life. The event also represented alignment and there is realignment with the Lord's plans and His righteousness that needs to occur for all of Israel to come into her destiny – even if it costs her life in order to save it. Her light will arise in the midst of darkness. Those who refuse to come into alignment with the Lord's righteousness may soon be destroyed but those who are hidden in the Messiah will be safe.

SUMATRA EARTHQUAKE

On December 26, 2004 the world's most powerful earthquake in 40 years triggered massive tidal waves that slammed into villages and seaside resorts across southern and southeast Asia. Currently the death toll stands at over 150,000 with many more deaths possible from disease and other effects of the tsunamis. The earthquake was 8.9 in magnitude. When the New Madrid earthquakes occurred in 1811 they were so powerful that the Mississippi River flowed backwards for a time. The Lord has told me that the reversal of the river indicated a powerful change in the course of history at that time. The landmasses that broke up and moved during the southeast Asia quakes at Christmas time reportedly moved clockwise. Since the earth rotates counterclockwise it actually countered or stopped the rotation of the earth for a few seconds. In a sense "time stopped".

"Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it, and said, 'There will be no more delay! But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants, the prophets." (Rev. 10:5-7)

An early news report stated:

"…the rush of waves brought sudden disaster to people carrying out their daily activities on the ocean's edge: Sunbathers on the beaches of the Thai resort of Phuket were washed away; a group of 32 Indians - including 15 children - were killed while taking a ritual Hindu bath to mark the full moon day; fishing boats, with their owners clinging to their sides, were picked up by the waves and tossed away.

``All the planet is vibrating'' from the quake, said Enzo Boschi, the head of Italy's National Geophysics Institute. Speaking on SKY TG24 TV, Boschi said the quake even disturbed the Earth's rotation. On Sumatra, the quake destroyed dozens of buildings - but as elsewhere, it was the wall of water that followed that caused the most deaths and devastation…An Associated Press reporter saw bodies wedged in trees as the waters receded. More bodies littered the beaches…Relatives went through lines of bodies wrapped in blankets and sheets, searching for dead loved ones… An AP photographer saw two dozen bodies along a four-mile stretch of beach, some of children entangled in the wire mesh used to barricade seaside homes. Other bodies were brought up from the beach, wrapped in sarongs and laid on the road, while rows of men and women lined the roads asking if anyone had seen their relatives…Around one million people were displaced from their homes, Weerathunga said…In India, beaches were turned into virtual open-air mortuaries, with bodies of people caught in the tidal wave being washed ashore…"I never imagined anything like this could happen."…The huge waves struck around breakfast time on the beaches of Thailand's beach resorts - probably Asia's most popular holiday destination at this time of year, particularly for Europeans fleeing the winter cold - wiping out bungalows, boats and cars, sweeping away sunbathers and snorkelers, witnesses said…On Phi Phi island - where ``The Beach'' starring Leonardo DiCaprio was filmed - 200 bungalows at two resorts were swept out to sea.

Indonesia, a country of 17,000 islands, is prone to seismic upheaval because of its location on the margins of tectonic plates that make up the so-called ``Ring of Fire'' around the Pacific Ocean basin…The Indonesian quake struck just three days after an 8.1 quake struck the ocean floor between Australia and Antarctica, causing buildings to shake hundreds of miles away but no serious damage or injury." (Associated Press report)
I believe the Lord has given this warning out of His grace and mercy to "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains." (Matthew 24:16). I can NOT even suggest times or dates but I believe this day is imminent – even at the door. The only place to be safe is the "high ground" of the Spirit. The time to flee is NOW – not when disaster strikes. It will come suddenly and it will be too late then. I send out this warning so that any who read it and have ears to hear can seek the Lord about how they can reach a place of true safety. And although I don't think destruction can be avoided, I think it can be lessened through intercession. We can pray that the Lord's grace, mercy and glory will triumph in the midst of judgment. We can be ready and not found "partying" in the midst of the "storm warnings."

When the storm is finished the Lord will have ONE Israel that is made of all those who survived and were purified. There will no longer be "layers" of Israel. There will be one NEW Jerusalem who will shine like the restored moon did after the eclipse - bright as the sun and wearing her crown. THEN all of Israel will enter into the last battle and fight as one new man.

Grace and mercy to us all, Diane Bahler

A Sweeping Move

Patrick McBane

The prophetic picture I got was of a heavenly broom and a heavenly dust pan in the hands of the Lord.

He was sweeping things together. He was sweeping things into place. His sweeping wind of change was blowing across the lives of people who were desirous of Him. His sweeping hand was gentle yet purposeful. The sweeping was a gathering together of hearts who have been and will continue to seek after Him and position themselves as set apart for Him.

The broom quickly changed into a winnowing fork and the Lord began to lift and sift that which was gathered.

Separate unto Me, consecrate unto Me, get ready, get ready, get ready. For this is the 'Day of the Lord'. For a day is like a thousand years - and a thousand years is like a day. The culmination of years is being formed into One Day. This is not a day as we know it, but a day in God's economy where many things that have been on hold will begin to release. It will be a day when those things which were held back will be ushered quickly into existence. It will be a day of mercy, grace, direction and positioning. Watch, says the Lord. Watch as I lift many of you out of what was insignificant and restraining and place you into position for such a time as this. The waiting - the wandering - the wondering is coming to an end, and the beginning is like that of a new day in His presence with great clarity, confirmation and calling being fulfilled. Bless His Holy Name!

Patrick McBane
McBaneP@pios.com

A Time For New Songs

Marc Dupont

The Lord says that a New Song is being released to His people.... God is breathing a fresh wind of prophetic creativity on the artists and worship leaders. This wind will fill the sails of many congregations with a deeper understanding in their hearts of the goodness and the purposes of God for His people and the world at this time.

The Lord showed me a funnel of His light coming down from Heaven towards those who have been seeking His face and waiting on Him. The funnel was coming in a downward spiral. All who were underneath it and around it began to be caught up in a greater clarity of the light of His Presence. A great freedom came to many to loose themselves in the love and freedom of the Holy Spirit. But, as this funnel landed on many I could see musical notes like on a song sheet begin to blow back up the funnel towards heaven.

The Lord says the Tabernacle of David is in the process of restoration. The Holy Spirit is releasing a hunger for the wisdom of worship that David and the Levites who ministered at David's tabernacle walked in. Many who have never had an appetite for extended periods of prayer and worship are going to begin having a burning heart for ministering to the Lord, as Mary did, with extravagant worship. They are going to learn to take the precious perfume of the passion of their hearts and waste it on Jesus' feet. But as they do this the perfume of the sweetness of Jesus' Presence is going to begin to fill houses of worship in a deeper way. Many congregations are going to start spending what formerly would have seemed inordinate amounts time singing, praying, dancing, and just being in His Presence.

In this fresh wind there is also going to be a great release of creativity. New songs are going to be stirred up in the hearts of artists and worship leaders. They will be prophetic in that they are going to help the Bride of Christ understand and perceive the heart, majesty, grace, and love of her lover- the King of Kings. And just as leaders need like David to pay the price of building their own alters, the Lords says those leaders need to begin to make room in the sanctuaries for the people to minister to God. A shift is coming in these months and years we are now in. Many churches are no longer going to be centered solely on attracting man and ministering to man. The Father is pursuing those who will worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. He is pursuing those who desire to make a resting place, not merely a work place, for His Holy Spirit.

Just as David established a tabernacle of worship twenty four hours a day, seven days a week, so many churches are going to start establishing places continually open for prayer and meetings lasting all night celebrating God and raising up a canopy of worship for God's Spirit to enjoy. And just as David's tabernacle had no veil, so in these places of worship the glory of God will be greatly known.

This a time and season for the artists and worship leaders to more fully enter their priesthood. For the Lord says that if they shall be like Obed-edom, who loved God's glory, they shall indeed not just sing the songs and play the instruments, but they shall become Gatekeepers for many to help them move past the gates of thanksgiving and the courts of praise and into the glory of His Presence. They shall, in fact, help the people build a resting place with a canopy of worship for His majesty.

It is time for the singers to sing a new song. It is time for the painters to paint with fresh colors. It is time for the dancers to dance as David did. It is time for the Levites to emerge and to offer up sacrifices of hearts burning for Him and the incense of true worship and prayer. It is time for the tent of His Glory to be reestablished.

Marc Dupont
Mantle Of Praise
http://www.mantleofpraise.org/
info@mantleofpraise.org

Adjustment Time - Coming To Closure

Olivia Reitz Long

"This is what the Lord Almighty says: Give careful thought to your ways. Go up into the mountains and bring down timber and build the house so that I may take pleasure in it and be honored, says the Lord. You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home, I blew away. Why? declares the Lord Almighty, because of My house which remains a ruin while each of you is busy with his own house." Haggai 1:7-9

"The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. - Clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature." Romans 14:12, 14

IT IS TIME ... time for the I AM to move on with My plans and purposes. I have had My people in a season of adjustment. I have challenged each one going by My Name... I have given warnings both in the natural and in the spiritual...warnings that said: It is time for an attitude adjustment. Some have truly heard and have made the necessary adjustments but for many, they go on as before still believing all is well. Unfortunately the sands of time in My spiritual hourglass for this adjustment season are running out. For those who are still pre-occupied with their own individual kingdoms, seeking domination over others, seeking identities for themselves, into competition with others, having misplaced priorities and purposes - the last grains of sand are trickling down and when they are gone, there will be no turning back.

Adjustment time, another transition period for My own by My Time Clock. As all transition periods it had a beginning and it has an end and the end is now in sight. As in all transition periods I have brought to your life there have been set rules by the I AM in which you are to live by and to obey and this season has been no different. Many have heeded this adjustment time and many have not - now this season is in the last seconds of My Time and then all will move into My final destiny for the world. During this adjustment time much grace has been given, an extension in grace to truly walk My walk in all ways, not as you speak.

The night is far spent - the day is at hand! Gross darkness will come upon your lands. As the last sands trickle away - those who have not adhered to My adjustment season, your next season and time is fixed! There will be no going back for a second chance. For My Faithful Ones, your next season and time is also fixed! All will be in readiness for both sides and will not be changed once the sand is emptied. Cause and effect, it happens in the natural world and it happens in the Spiritual. My Kingdom purposes shall be done...

My remnant shall arise, My Faithful Ones shall come forth! It is the last hour, you are entering into the final days and you are entering into what I have said I had for you - My promises fulfilled. You are now eagerly awaiting those sands to finally trickle out for you knowing your time is nigh. Faithful, you have been faithful even through rejection and persecution by your own. You have persevered and always believed in Me, even in the deepest pits of despair, for even then you have held on to the I AM.

Even now many of you wonder how this will all come about but do not fear, I AM all sufficiency for you and the I AM is present with you always. Each will be touched by My hand and you will be transformed and changed by My Glory. Much will seek to detract you on this side of the final sifting but fear not for My will shall be done in your life and you will see all that was forfeited returned to you seven fold plus more!

Prepare to enter into My inner chambers reserved for My Chosen Ones. The place and the way I have prepared for you and the door shall swing wide open for you to enter... My presence is upon you, My scepter, the symbol of My royal power is extended to you. I see your eagerness mounting as you now watch those final grains of sand sifting through to completion ending this long, long season.

You have been taught and prepared by My hand and you have gone through perilous times, times when even as My Faithful, you have wondered if you could dare to hope it would still come to pass... NOW, I say unto you - be on alert.... knowing that I AM Who I say I AM and will do what I have promised! I AM in control in a world out of control and your destiny In Me is sealed and will be delivered. Your intense training has given you MY heart and love for all of mankind.

As you see the last grains of sand leaving this season, it shall light a spark and this spark will turn into a blazing flame as I move you forth. No enemy can steal what I have for you for I have placed a mantle on you that NO enemy can destroy. Rejoice, again I say rejoice for ALL is under My Control and what I have purposed before the beginning of time shall be accomplished shortly.

The season of adjustment is coming to closure and you are stepping into your destiny while also stepping into the final days, the destiny of the world - filled with My Glory, walking in signs and wonders, healing the sick, raising the dead and bringing in the final harvest. Adjustment Time - Coming to Closure and now it all begins!

All Things In Christ

Chip Brogden

www.watchman.net
"For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to Whom be glory for ever. Amen. (Romans 11:36)."

In my written and spoken messages I make frequent reference to the preeminence of Christ. Just what do we mean by Christ having the preeminence? What do we mean by giving Christ the preeminence in all things?

"Preeminence" literally means having the first, highest, chief, and best place in a position of ascendancy over everything else. It is an ultimacy, a glory, an honor, a distinction, a prestige, an illustriousness, a renown, a notability, and a nobility that surpasses all others. Paul simply says that the aim of God is for JESUS CHRIST to have THAT kind of position in - all things. That explains everything God has done, is doing and will do. But what does he mean by "all things"?

Whenever I teach from a passage that includes the phrase "all things" I usually stop and ask, "Now how many things does 'all things' include?" And the people always respond, "Everything!" That word "all" is a very large word, a very encompassing word. There is nothing outside of "all"! How casually and easily we allow our eyes to glance past these words. We have not comprehended them. If we comprehended them we could not read them with a yawn, but we would read them with a shout!

If we intend to make some exception to "all" we might say something like, "everything but" or "everything except" in order to qualify what we mean as something less than "all". But "all things" is without qualification. "All" is "all", and "all things" is everything. Nothing is left out, nothing is excluded. It is not necessary for us to list every single thing that "all" includes, because "all" is all-inclusive. But what about this, you ask? It is among the All. And what of this, you say? That, too, is included in the All. And what about this thing, or that thing? Oh yes, they are in the All as well. You cannot come up with a single thing that is not included in All.

So in Romans 11:36 Paul sums up the preeminence of Christ into three expressions: "Of Him... through Him... to Him... are ALL THINGS." "OF HIM" says that everything which exists - things in heaven, things in earth, everything that was created, everything that has come into being, everything that will come into being - is created by, and because of, CHRIST. "THROUGH HIM" says that everything which lives, moves, breathes, operates, exists, or functions in this universe, whether animate or inanimate, whether biological, chemical, spiritual, natural, or cosmological - does so THROUGH CHRIST, Who sovereignly upholds all these things, determines their place, and keeps them in order. "TO HIM" says that everything, no matter how far from God's Thought it may be, no matter how chaotic things may appear, is being directed, summed up, and gathered together INTO CHRIST. As the Alpha, all things flow FROM Him; as the Omega, all things flow TO Him.

That is quite a paragraph. A paragraph like that cannot be grasped in one reading. But that paragraph is, in essence, what Paul means, and what we mean, by Christ having the preeminence in all things. We are talking about Jesus as Lord over us individually, over the Church corporately, and over all creation collectively. We are talking about a preeminent Christ Who is exalted above every principality and power, rule and dominion; things visible, things invisible; things past, things present, things future; things in heaven, things in earth, things under the earth: all things are OF Him, all things are THROUGH Him, and all things are TO Him. That is preeminence.

Let us go through the Scriptures and bring out a few gems from the storehouse of tremendous wealth and riches in Christ. Our criteria for selecting these particular Scriptures was very simple. We wanted to look at every reference that mentions Christ in connection with His preeminence over "all things". We found quite a number. There are dozens more references that support our study, but we have included only the ones which contain the phrase "all things". Once we gathered the references together, we sorted them according to Romans 11:36 - those that are OF Him, those that are THROUGH Him, and those that are TO Him.

The result of that study is the basis of this writing. I pray these will not be mere verses of Scripture to us, but will be the very means through which the Father gives us greater illumination and revelation into His Son. We ought to meditate on this daily and ask the Lord to open our eyes to see the height, depth, width, length, and breadth of this JESUS Whom we say we serve. May God deliver us from our own idea, concept, perception, and illusion of a small Christ and give us revelation into the preeminence of His Son.

I promise that if you will read through these verses once or twice a day, every day, it will be impossible for you to remain unaffected by the Truth they present! I am affected just in the preparation of this material, and how much more in the application and apprehending of it! When we see Christ as All in All then it will be impossible for us to ever again be reduced to the small, the trivial, the petty things which occupy us and waste so much of our time. Our only hope is seeing a Christ that fills us, a Christ that is greater than us, a Christ that is larger than we can fathom, an indescribable Christ that overshadows, overwhelms, and consumes us through and through!

OF HIM ARE ALL THINGS

"All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made (John 1:3)."

"And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ (Ephesians 3:9)."

"For by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him (Colossians 1:16)."

"For Whom are all things, and by Whom are all things (Hebrews 2:10ff)."

"But to us there is but one God, the Father, of Whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom are all things, and we by Him (I Corinthians 8:6)."

"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created (Revelation 4:11)."

The Father declares the preeminence of His Son by involving Him in the process of creating all things. As a result, nothing was created apart from Christ. Of Him are all things - things in heaven, in earth, visible, invisible, spiritual, and physical. Scientists believe there may be as many as twenty-four dimensions in this universe, of which we only know five. However many there may be, He is preeminent over them all. Thus, the Lord Jesus Christ is the Alpha, the Beginning, the First, the Source. This establishes Him as preeminent over all creation.

All things were created by Him, and everything was created for Him. For Him! Why this earth, the moon, the stars, the galaxies? Why the animals, the birds, the fish, the insects? Why men and women, angels, cherubim, and seraphim? For Him! All for Him! God's original thought is for Christ to fill every created thing with His Life, Love, and Glory. A design implies a Designer, a plan implies a Planner, and a creation implies a Creator. We are not drifting along aimlessly, and we did not come into being by accident. We were created by Him, and we were created for Him. We were created to love Him, and to be loved by Him.

Of the three spheres - of Him, through Him, and to Him - "of Him" is probably the easiest to grasp. It is easier for us to look backwards and see Christ in retrospect than it is for us to perceive the present and to discern the future. But He is All of these at once. It is not that in times past He was the Alpha, and after a lengthy period of time He become the Omega. No, "I AM Alpha AND Omega, the Beginning AND the Ending, says the Lord: which was AND which is to come, the Almighty (Revelation 1:8)." And, "They rest not day and night saying, 'Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, AND is, AND is to come (Revelation 4:8b)." He always has been AND He always is AND He always will be; hence three "Holies" are necessary. What a mighty God!

So we progress forward and see that...

THROUGH HIM ARE ALL THINGS

First, all things are in His hands:

"All things are delivered unto Me of My Father (Matthew 11:27)."

"The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand (John 3:35)."

"Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He was come from God, and went to God (John 13:3)."

"All things that the Father hath are Mine (John 16:15a)."

"[God] hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, Whom He hath appointed Heir of all things (Hebrews 1:2a)."

His hands speak of His Ownership, His Authority, His Possessing of all things. The Father gave all things to the Son. Then, because all things are in His hands, all things are under His feet. His feet speak of His Dominion, His Rule, His subjecting of all things to the authority that is in His hands.

"Thou madest Him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; thou has put all things under His feet (Psalms 8:6)."

"And hath put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be the Head over all things to the Church (Ephesians 1:22)."

"And He is the Head of the Body, the Church: Who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence (Colossians 1:18)."

"Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. (Hebrews 2:8a)

This possession and subjection of all things to Christ is not a passive, disinterested, distant, absentee ownership, like a clock that was once wound and now ticks all by itself long after the watchmaker has left it. Make no mistake: at the core of this spiritual and physical universe is a living, powerful, proactive Personality at work to bring fallen creation back to its original state, back into line with God's Purpose, Heart, Mind, Desire, and Plan, which is CHRIST FILLING ALL THINGS, CHRIST UPHOLDING ALL THINGS, CHRIST AT THE CENTER OF ALL THINGS! Come quickly Lord Jesus! May Your Kingdom be manifest!

"And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist [Greek: find their being, take their place] (Colossians 1:17)."

"Who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His Person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high (Hebrews 1:3)."

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28)."

"Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do (Hebrews 4:13)."

"For the Spirit searches all things, yea, the deep things of God (I Corinthians 2:10)."

Everything is upheld by His power, and all things are working together according to His Purpose. The Spirit searches all things and reveals them for what they are. Before Him everything is manifest, and there is nothing hidden from Him. There is no darkness that He does not penetrate, no deception that He cannot illuminate, no evil that He will not eradicate.

"He must increase, but I must decrease (John 3:30)." Christ is ever increasing in order to fill all things, conforming them to His image, so that His glory is manifest in every corner of Creation - and He begins with individual disciples. The increasing of Christ and the decreasing of Self in every individual disciple is but a fragment of an ultimate Plan which extends from each disciple, to "two or three gathered together", to the Church, and finally to all Creation. We should be able to look at each disciple and see a demonstration of Christ filling All in All: "Look, this is what I intend to do with all Creation." He will continue to increase, and everything outside of Him will continue to decrease, until there will remain nothing outside of Him. He is Lord!

TO HIM ARE ALL THINGS

"Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself (Philippians 3:21)."

"And when all things shall be subdued unto Him, then shall the Son also Himself be subject unto Him that put all things under Him, that God may be All in All (I Corinthians 15:28)."

"That in the dispensation of the fulness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in Him (Ephesians 1:10)."

"And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by Him to reconcile all things unto Himself; by Him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven (Colossians 1:20)."

"He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that He might fill all things (Ephesians 4:10)."

Everything is moving back TOWARDS a Christocentric universe, so that as it was in the beginning, so it will be in the ending. Just as all things have their source and beginning in Christ, so all things will have their ending in Christ. He subdues all things, in order to gather together and reconcile all things, that He may fill all things. What a task that is! How can that be? How can all things ever be subdued, gathered together into one, reconciled, and filled by Christ? We cannot say how, but we know that "He is able". Praise God, how can we doubt Him? How can we question this Man? Do we not yet know that He is the Preeminent One? Let us bow down and thank and praise God that He is able!

When we pray, "May Your Name be hallowed, may Your Kingdom come, may Your Will be done: as in heaven, so in earth", this is the End we have in mind: "all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are in earth, even in Him." This reconciliation and marriage of heaven and earth is a tremendous thing. In heaven, His Word is settled forever (Psalms 119:89); but on earth, things are very unsettled. In heaven, we see Jesus seated at the right hand of God, exalted above all principality and power, name and dominion; but on earth, "we see not yet all things put under Him (Hebrews 2:8b)." We see that "the heavens are the Lord's: but the earth has He given to the children of men (Psalms 115:16)."

One day that discrepancy and unceasing conflict, that great chasm between Heaven and Earth, will be healed.

"And He that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new (Revelation 21:5a)."

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and He shall be my son (Revelation 21:7)."

"How shall He not, with Him, freely give us all things (Romans 8:32b)?"

"Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us (Romans 8:37)."

"Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; Christ is God's (I Corinthians 3:21-23)."

How glorious! How tremendous! He is doing all of this for us! Everything He has is freely given to us, and through Him we possess all that He possesses. When He has all that we have, then we have all that He has. When we give Him all that we are, He gives us all that He is. Oh, the depth of this love! Oh, the depth of the richness of His grace to us! Who can understand it? Who can know it?

The chorus to a song comes to mind, that says

How could you not love Him back? How could you hold out your heart For even another day? How could you not love Him back When you've learned every loving fact? How could you not love Him back?

Oh Jesus, may You have the preeminence henceforth and forever!

A Terrible Landslide

Jeannette Rodgers

September 22, 2005

Obadiah 1:3,4- The pride of your heart has deceived you, You who dwell in the clefts of the rock, Whose habitation is high; You who say in your heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?' Though you ascend as high as the eagle, And though you set your nest among the stars, From there I will bring you down," says the LORD.

In a vision, I feel the earthquake, I see the mountain move and I feel the ground shake and hear a sound of great trembling or thunderous rumble. It feels like an earthquake, looks like an avalanche to me, but then I hear LANDSLIDE. A great and terrible LANDSLIDE is coming.

I look up on high and see that this is something of great magnitude that I cannot fully comprehend right away, but I see enormous boulders of rock tumbling down with debris, and dirt. It is coming down at such rapid speed that dirt, dust and rock are everywhere. As it makes its way to the bottom it covers what appears to be a road or bridge but I hear THROUGHWAY.. This landslide has come so fast and with such weight from all that is coming from on high, that it literally causes a sinkhole in the ground destroying this part of the throughway. Nothing will travel on this road again. This part of the road, bridge, THROUGHWAY that once allowed many to travel on has been fully destroyed and devastated by this landslide.

Once again, I hear the spirit of the Lord say ... it will be revealed in the natural and yes in the spirit these things shall come fully. It will be by MY grace that I have give unto you that will sustain you until the end and forevermore.

As I travailed concerning this vision for almost into three weeks I continued to take the word Landslide and Throughway before the Lord persistently. For though HE revealed this too would come in the natural, it is in the spirit I sensed an urgency to understand more. For when we are safe and secure in HIM , those things that will come in the natural will not truly affect us because we know our inheritance, our Life, our security, is in HIM alone, and not in this world. Finally, I received the interpretation that God was speaking through this Landslide that will come.

The Lord declared that the LANDSLIDE is the destruction caused by pride. And began to break down the various forms of pride and the ways they come.

It is the rise of pride, (this was revealed as the height of the mountain on high) and fall of pride (was revealed as the sinkhole that the rocks and debris had made caused by the speed and weight and sizes of the pride that had risen). The falling of the boulders of pride and dirt of arrogance devastated and destroyed the throughway below making it impossible for this road to be traveled on again.

This landslide that will come is caused by Pride in many forms and it is about to fall rapidly, suddenly and unexpectedly. The Landslide shows the pride, arrogance, attitudes, thoughts of self sufficiency, misused wealth, haughtiness, carelessness, recklessness, and gloating in the body of Christ among other things that have continued in this world and in America as well.

The enormous rocks (size of various different pride's that have grown). The weight of the debris, was the amount of time this has stood and how heavy and strong it has become. The sinkhole is the depth of the fall after it has risen so high and has stood for so long and fallen so hard. The throughway is the way in which this pride came in and was used.

God is gracious, He went further and led me to a small book in HIS holy written word, the smallest book in the Old Testament, yet filled with Power, Correction, Mercy and Love from our God who reigns in dominion and majesty. This is the book of OBADIAH.

He now reveals the DESTRUCTION OF EDOM, through this vision of the LANDSLIDE. Be encouraged to read Obadiah which I have placed below. Surely, you will see the vision of the landslide, the verification and clarification of what God revealed to me, was already written long ago, yet for this hour.

America, it is High time to acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior. It is time America to BLESS GOD!! For surely, God has blessed America. Saints, I cry out to you in the Glorious name of Jesus Christ to bless one another, to Love as HE loves us, to lift up and not tear down. To pick up your fellow solider and not step over them. Let us hear the Word of the Lord in this hour. Let us rise up in Love and not arrogance, let us be humbled and rid ourselves of pride that has taken over and let us welcome the bringing down of these things that grieve the heart of God in our lives and in our nation. For it is by HIS Love He reveals these things unto us. It is high time to take the hand of your brethren and stand together in Him, walk together in Him, and declare ALL for One, and One for All. You will be released from the prison in your mind and of those things that have held you back, even within yourself. For this is the hour that strongholds will be broken and deliverance shall come, and healing will be manifested and the breached shall be restored. First things first, America, Bless God!! HE is the foundation !

Humble yourself in the sight of the Lord and HE will lift you up.

James 4(New King James Version)

Pride Promotes Strife
1 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members? 2 You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet you do not have because you do not ask. 3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. 4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"? 6 But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:
" God resists the proud,
But gives grace to the humble."

Humility Cures Worldliness

7 Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Do Not Judge a Brother

11 Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12 There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you to judge another?
Do Not Boast About Tomorrow
Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit"; 14 whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. 15 Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." 16 But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. 17 Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Obadiah 1 (New King James Version)

The Coming Judgment on Edom
1 The vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom
(We have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,

"Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle"):
2 " Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.
3 The pride of your heart has deceived you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
You who say in your heart,
'Who will bring me down to the ground?'
4 Though you ascend as high as the eagle,
And though you set your nest among the stars,
From there I will bring you down," says the LORD.
5 " If thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If grape-gatherers had come to you,
Would they not have left some gleanings?
6 " Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
7 All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
The men at peace with you
Shall deceive you and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap for you.
No one is aware of it.
8 " Will I not in that day," says the LORD,
"Even destroy the wise men from Edom,
And understanding from the mountains of Esau?
9 Then your mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter.

Edom Mistreated His Brother
10 " For violence against your brother Jacob,
Shame shall cover you,
And you shall be cut off forever.
11 In the day that you stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.
12 " But you should not have gazed on the day of your brother
In the day of his captivity;
Nor should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.
13 You should not have entered the gate of My people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.
14 You should not have stood at the crossroads

To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained
In the day of distress.
15 " For the day of the LORD upon all the nations is near;
As you have done, it shall be done to you;
Your reprisal shall return upon your own head.
16 For as you drank on My holy mountain,
So shall all the nations drink continually;
Yes, they shall drink, and swallow,
And they shall be as though they had never been.

Israel's Final Triumph
17 " But on Mount Zion there shall be deliverance,
And there shall be holiness;
The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire,
And the house of Joseph a flame;
But the house of Esau shall be stubble;
They shall kindle them and devour them,
And no survivor shall remain of the house of Esau,"
For the LORD has spoken.
19 The South shall possess the mountains of Esau,
And the Lowland shall possess Philistia.
They shall possess the fields of Ephraim
And the fields of Samaria.
Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel
Shall possess the land of the Canaanites
As far as Zarephath.
The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
Shall possess the cities of the South.
21 Then saviors shall come to Mount Zion
To judge the mountains of Esau,
And the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

www.NewWineToday.org
Archived Messages:
http://NewWineToday.injesus.com

A Tale Of Two Spirits

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

March 7, 2009
www.etpv.org

Two Spirits At Work In The End Times.

There will be two spirits at work in the end times; Spirit of Fear and the Holy Spirit of God. You will either yield to one or the other.

It's the Spirit of Fear that Satan uses to keep men in bondage.

> Hebrews 2:14-15
> 14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil*;*
> 15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage*.*

Overcomers in these end times will be those who get the victory over this fear. Others will be subject to it.

> Luke 21:25-26
> 25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity*; the sea and the waves roaring;*
> 26 Men's hearts failing them for fear*, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the* powers of heaven shall be shaken.

Consider that men's hearts fail them for fear because a Spirit of Fear abides in their hearts.

The Holy Spirit of God delivers us from fear.

> Psalms 34:4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

2 Timothy describes The Holy Spirit, given by God, as He gives the Kingdom. Power, Love and A Sound Mind stand out in great contrast to the Spirit of Fear.

> 2 Timothy 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power*, and of* love*, and of a* sound mind*.*

> Luke 12:31-32
> 31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
> 32 Fear not*, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to* give you the kingdom*.*

We mention power as it is the power to obey and do the Lord's will. The ability to prove what is that good and perfect, will of God is the same as ability to demonstrate the Kingdom of God. For to say, thy kingdom come means the same as thy will be done here on earth as it is in heaven.

> Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God*.*

> 1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power*.*

Sometimes this is spoken of as grace. The Holy Spirit is Grace or the Spirit of Grace.

> Philemon 1:25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

> Ephesians 1:2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

> Hebrews 10:29 … the Spirit of grace ….

We mention Love as it gives the Power to overcome fear.

> Romans 5:5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

> 1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love*; but perfect* love casteth out fear*: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.*

How does perfect love cast out fear? The Lord does this by entering your heart, driving out fear and taking it’s place when you yield to him completely. He stands at the door and knocks.

We mention having a Sound Mind. That is to have a mind transformed into the Mind of Christ.

> Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind*, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.*

> 1 Corinthians 2:16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ*.*

The unsound mind is subject to fear, delusion and self destruction.

> 2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

These are like the swine entered into by unclean spirits, they destroy themselves.

> Mark 5:13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine [unclean persons]: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

In this verse from Mark 5, the phrase two thousand is a clue to an end time event, something to happen 2000 years later.

Several of the epistles open with a salutation like this one from Ephesians. It’s the Lord’s prayer and will for us.

> Ephesians 1:2 Grace be to you*, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Let’s yield to the Holy Spirit fully in these times. His grace will see us through any storm.

> 2 Corinthians 12:9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

A Time Of Great Testing

Carol Green

Jan 26, 2005
"The time of great testing is drawing near for this nation and My people in this nation. Indeed, it has already begun. I am watching and listening to My people and to the cry of their hearts. I am waiting for a cry to rise up to Me calling on My power…My holiness…My mercy…My forgiveness…and My intervention in the affairs of your lives, your communities, your nation, and your world."

But, too many of My people are in a place of false comfort and ease. Their hearts have not been awakened. Their ears and their eyes have been covered with fat so that they cannot see or hear. Truly, they have become as Sodom…arrogant, overfed, full of careless ease, and uncaring for the poor (Ezekiel 16:49-50.)

So, cry out to Me! Lift your voice to intercede before Me on behalf of My people. Judgment does truly begin in the house of God. It is not within your own power or strength to turn the hearts of My people from their sin – even the hearts of your own family and friends. But, haven't I said that if you would stand in My council and hear My words and announce My words to My people, it would cause them to turn away from their sin? (Jeremiah 23:18, 22.)

That is your calling – to stand in My council and hear My words. I will open the doors where I would have you announce My word. You must first, and foremost, do as My servant Abraham did and bring the word of intercession before me. (Micah 7:18.)

I delight to show My mercy and kindness. My heart is for all to come to repentance (Ezekiel 18:23, 32.) My hand is not too short that it cannot save. But, I am looking for those who will stand in the gap and make up a hedge (Ezekiel 22:30.) Be a part of that hedge. I will give you opportunity to declare My word, but you must prepare your heart to be a spokesperson for Me. You must prepare your heart by allowing Me to deeply penetrate your heart and by embracing the fear of Me. You must embrace your death with Messiah and your new life as being found fully in Him.

Come apart to Me when I call you. Make your ear attentive to my voice…and My word…and I will accomplish My work in you."

A Time Of Great Trial

Lanna Perry

27th May, 2005
Sydney Australia

Many of you are feeling as if the dark night has settled over you. Many of you are feeling like a cloud of darkness has come and settled over you, and things that I have spoken to you seem so far off, and so far out of your reach. What I say to each of you now, is that I am so close to you.

In what seems to be a dark night, I am with you. Where things around you seem to be inexplicable I am there standing with you, and holding you. No matter what things are around you, no matter what temptations and attacks you are facing My precious church, I am standing with you. I am shining brighter than ever before in your circumstances and leading the way for you to walk through this valley in a greater victorious way.

Many things that are happening in the heavenlies are now playing themselves out in the natural, in the physical. The shaking has begun, where I have allowed temptation and trials to come which seem to have bound you and brought you down My church, I have seen your hearts. You have been tested and been proven faithful and true.

I am separating My children who truly love Me and want to serve Me, I am separating them from those who just mutter My name with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

In these dark places that many of you have been sitting in, My precious church, you are sitting there as I am preparing you. For I cannot send out My church, to the frontline when your hearts have not been tested, tried, and purged. Shown to be faithful and true.

Rejoice in your trials My children. For the entire body of Christ is now going through a greater purging than ever before. For I am about to unleash a great move of My Spirit, and I cannot hand My power and My revelations and great moves of My Spirit to just anyone.

My precious church, I have to test you, to see your hearts, and you must stand firm in Me at all times. Once you have been tested you will come out shining brighter than the purest of gold.

I am bringing a stability and strength to My church, that the world has not seen.

I am allowing circumstances, temptations and many attacks to come into the lives of My church now, to show you the one truth that sets you free. The truth My children, that I alone am your life. You can do nothing without Me, and I am the core of everything. Many of My children are in church, but do not live solely for Me. So now is the time for Me to see whom I can entrust My works with.

Many hearts are being hardened, many hearts are turning away from Me, many are feeling the price for them is too high. It is not too high. For do I gift My church with callings, and gifts that they cannot handle? Is that what My Word says? Surely Not! Yes hardship, suffering and dying to self is difficult, but I gift each person with the grace to endure this.

I am sending out My followers now, who live totally for Me. Who are radically abandoned to Me, and are walking in the strength that I am all they need. They have been through the fire, and come past the point of no return in Me.

So many of My church do not want to die to themselves or their flesh, but I am calling My children, to now really search your hearts. In this time of great trial that I am allowing to come into the lives of My children, search your hearts, and truly see if you are for Me, or against Me. For you cannot be for Me, and not be willing to do what I ask.

Have joy My church! Have joy knowing that the trials you endure last for a night, and joy will come in the morning.

I am using these great trials, temptations and attacks to bring a greater stability to My church, and to your personal walks with Me, that when even greater trials come, you will STAND, and STAND FIRMER than ever before.

Positioning is occurring in My Kingdom now, and I will not place people in key positions or frontline positions for war, if their hearts are not completely for Me, and have come through the trial and testing, for Me.

Many of you are passing the test, and how greatly I am pleased with each of you. Continue to remain faithful to Me, even through the pain, the heartache, the attack and temptation, and you shall come deeper in Me than ever before, and continue to come closer to the crown of Glory that I have for you.

Keep your eyes on Me, My church. Decide in your hearts, if you are willing to allow the trial and testing to continue until I see that you have proven well. My grace is sufficient.

Will you be a warrior for Me who will stand in position knowing that your heart is completely for Me? Or will you hide in the shadows still entertaining your flesh and your own desires?

Choose today My church, for time is short, and the separation must come, between those who truly want Me and will do anything for Me, and those who just mutter My name.

I love each and every person with an everlasting love, and that will never change, but I must continue with the plans I have for this earth and this world, and whether you are part of it My children, is up to you. If you are available I will use you. I love you My church. You are to be My pure and spotless bride, and this cannot come without great testing and trial. Choose today My children. Set your hearts towards Me completely, totally, abandoned to Me. Nothing else but Me. Let me uproot all things not of Me, so you may stand before Me, completely and wholly Mine.
chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

A Time Of Healing

Lanna Perry

Sydney Australia

My Precious Children, I am pruning many of you, and continually peeling the layers back more and more in your lives. For you are never completed. You are never in a place where you are perfected, and have nothing to deal with.
I am walking each of you through a time of healing. Healing of past wounds, healing of recent wounds, healing of bitterness, judgment and healing of negative words spoken over you and against you.

My precious jewels, I am continually refining you more and more into My image. I am constantly chipping away things in your lives that are not of Me. I am continually shaping you and molding you into My image.
I am taking many of you deeper into things in your lives that needs to be healed. Doubts, unbelief, bitterness, unforgiveness, and fear. Many of you know Me as Provider, Saviour, Redeemer, Lord, but do not know Me well as Healer.

I long to heal each one of you. For all have wounds and fears, and attitudes that need to be brought to My cross, and nailed there, and the old self reckoned as dead. It is a process. A constant process to die to self, and rise up in your new life, in Me, and who I have created you to be.

As an onion I am peeling back layer upon layer in your lives, and touching places that need continued healing, and allowing My Spirit to bring forth life in those areas.

I am a God who is passionate about My children being healed. I am passionate about seeing you set free from the things that have held you constantly walking in your old nature, and am longing to set you free, more and more.

The Promised Land is before you. For out of you will flow such goodness, such anointing and such depth of My Spirit. For there are certain things that stop My Spirit from being able to flow through you effectively, that is why My People, you must constantly be asking Me to check your hearts, and review your hearts.
As I conform each of you more and more into My image, your hearts shall shine brighter than the brightest stars in the night sky, and brighter than the noonday sun. It is not My will for you My children, to walk in bondage, to walk in things of the past, and to walk in attitudes that are not of Me. It is My will, that you continue to bring your old self to death at My cross, and allow Me to bring healing and new life in Me through you.

My love for you is gentle like the breeze. It is stronger than a Mighty river and fresher than the rain. There is nothing that can separate you from My love.
Each and everyday My children I am forming your hearts, your attitudes and your lives more into My image. It is My hand that is constantly molding you. Surrender continually to My workings, and to My hand, that is molding each of you to be more like Me.

Nail doubt, nail fear, nail attitudes, nail wounds, nail it all to My Cross, and turn completely away from all of these, and walk in the new life I have for you in Me. Wounds, fear, bitterness, and wrong attitudes are NOT to have a hold over your lives, for you are overcomers in Me, and are not to walk in these things but walk in Me.

I do not want each of you continually walking in muddy water, walking in things of old, I want each of you to walk in clear, life giving water, the water from Me. The waters of My Spirit.
Examine your hearts. Walk in forgiveness. Walk in the depth of forgiveness for others that I have showed you. Unforgiveness quenches the move of My Spirit. Unforgiveness is like poison in your blood and is contaminating the work I do in your life.

Walk in forgiveness My children. Continue to examine your hearts making sure you are continually modeling My nature, by the empowerment of My Spirit, showing forgiveness to all who wrong you.

Position yourselves under My healing rain. Position yourselves directly in alignment with the rain of blessings I have for each of you, by the words you speak over your lives, and the lives of others. Do not speak words of curse, or negativity over your lives, or the lives of others. For when you do, you are aligning yourselves under the rain of the enemy and allowing the enemy to bring upon you what he wishes.

As you position yourselves under the rain of My blessings, and My healing rain, you are then placing yourselves in a position where I can bless you, and continue to increase you, and you will continue to live abundantly in Me.

My children, My precious jewels, I have much work for you. I have much work for each of you to do, and am calling each of you to come, re-examine your hearts continually in the light of My love, and continue to allow Me to heal you layer by layer, and allow Me to show you what put be put to death on My cross. Walk through My Refiners Fire and allow Me to burn away all those things that are not of Me and purify you and make you more like Me.
As each of you continue to come to Me and live and walk in the new nature, the nature I have given you. The nature that is of My Spirit. The nature that I died to give to you. As you continue to walk out your healing, walk out the work I am doing by making each of you more and more like Jesus, you will live more abundantly and see My hand move more strongly than ever before.

Be Free My children! Walk in the freedom I purchased for you at Calvary. Be Free. Come to me, let Me break the chains that have kept you bound, let Me continue to peel away the layers of wounds, and attitudes, doubts and fears, and set you FREE!

Blanket Of Love
Lanna Perry

7th February
Lanna Perry
Sydney Australia
http://www.ourchurch.com/view/?pageID=216990

My children, My precious and beautiful children I have placed my blanket of love over each of you. Through my death and resurrection I have shown you just how sturdy and just how reliable my blanket of love is.

Wherever you go My blanket of love is with you. No matter what valley you walk, and what mountain you climb My blanket of love is over you. I have placed my banner of love over you. My blanket of love.

There is NOTHING that you can do to stop My blanket of love from covering you. My blanket of love covers the entire world. My blanket of love covers each person that walks this earth, for I did not die for a selected few, but for all. I died so that all may know how much I love them, and how much I treasure them.

No matter where you go, know My blanket of love is with you. Covering you. My blanket of love protects you from the storms, and My blanket of covers you when it feels like life is pouring all over you.

My children, I want you to be wrapped in My blanket of love. Yes, I have placed My blanket of love over you, but I am calling you My children to be wrapped in My blanket of love.

I am longing for My children to be continually wrapped in My blanket of love. My blanket of love cannot be destroyed and it cannot be penetrated and return void.

Whether you walk through the valley or are dancing on the highest mountain My blanket of love is what keeps you secure and protected in Me. Without My love there is nothing. No life, No hope, No purpose.

It is My love that brings hope, restoration, protection and confidence to the lives of My children. I am wanting you My children to consciously wrap yourself in My blanket of love.

Do not just leave it above you, but take it. Take My blanket of love for it is yours to have. It is yours to keep.

I see many of you taking up other blankets, and blankets that are not of Me. Blankets of insecurity, blankets of doubt, blankets of frustration, blankets of confusion, blankets of deception, blankets of depression, blankets of pride, blankets of criticism, blankets of abuse, and blankets of fear.

In order for each of you to walk in the fullness of My love and wear My blanket of love, you must remove the blankets that you are wearing now. Remove them.

Have I called you My children to wear such blankets? Did I die for you to continue to wear such blankets? Is that why I died? Can you live in the fullness of all I have for you whilst wearing those blankets? Surely Not!

My children it is a choice for each of you to remove these blankets, and you must personally remove them. It is a choice.

I am gathering My army! Am I going to send out My troops wearing such blankets? Am I going to place My people in places of influence whilst continually wearing such blankets? Surely not!

I am going to send out My children, with My blanket of love wrapped firmly around them. I am going to send out My children with My blanket of love which shows My signature upon them. My approval of them, and the mark that shows that they are Mine.

Many will come and try to pull of My blanket of love from you. You have the empowerment by My Spirit to stand against this. You do not have to allow others to come and take My blanket off you, or make you doubt that you even have My blanket of love.

Listen to My words My children. Always make sure that you are wearing My blanket of love. Daily CHOOSE to wear My blanket of love.

For do you want to be different to the world or the same? For the world wears all the blankets that are not of Me. If you wear them, that how are you any different? How are you any different if you do not wear My love?

It is this blanket of love, My blanket of love that will draw others to you. It will provide you with protection and security. Whilst wearing My blanket of love, nothing can penetrate it. The fiery darts of the evil one cannot penetrate My blanket. It cannot destroy this blanket of My love around you.

My children, it’s time to stand up! It’s time to stand confidently in My love, in the everlasting, and enduring blanket of My love. My blanket of love comforts those who mourns, rejoices with those who rejoice, and brings warmth and security in the coldest of times.

Come forth My children. Choose today which blanket you will wear. Which blanket will be wrapped around you daily? Which blanket will the world see you wearing?

Don’t leave My blanket just ‘above’ you, take it for yourself, own it, and never be caught one moment NOT wrapped in it.

Jesus Took a Towel
by Bill Somers

Some time ago I heard a taped message by a well known minister with the title of: Jesus Took a Towel. The text was these verses from John 13.

> John 13:
> 1 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
> 2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;
> 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;
> 4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.
> 5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
> 6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
> 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.
> 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
> 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
> 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.
> 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
> 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
> 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
> 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
> 15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
> 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
> 17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

There are many messages you can preach from the above verses. The importance of servant hood. The need to be cleansed by Jesus. The betrayer in the midst. The way to set an example. Etc., Etc,

What the Lord showed me was something quite different. It began when He got my attention by something very odd in the text. Look again at verse 5. "After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded."

What is so strange about this is that Jesus is wiping the men's feet on a towel that he is wearing, not one that he is carrying.

My wife will often give her dog a bath. When she does, she puts on an apron to keep herself clean and dry and she uses one or more towels to dry the animal.

But Jesus is wiping the men's feet on himself! He is getting the mud and filth off their feet and on to the towel he is wearing, onto himself. This is really strange! And it's awkward: You try doing that!

The bible is full of strange things like that. Often they are clues that there is a deeper spiritual meaning to be found in the passage.

Salvation
First of all we need to see that the washing of the feet represents our salvation.

Peter says to him "Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me." So what does this tell us? It tells us this.

Unless we are cleansed by Jesus, washed in His blood, we can not have any part with Him. That is we can't have any relationship, we can't know Him as our personal savior without the cleansing of the blood. The foot washing then is a picture of our salvation.

Next we consider the fact that Jesus is getting his towel that he is wearing all dirty, while he is washing the men's feet.

The Sin Bearer
The deeper meaning here comes from the idea that clean garments represent righteousness, and that filthy garments represent sin. We find a reference to filthy garments in Isaiah.

> But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; …. Isaiah 64:6

And clean garments are spoken of in revelation.

> … And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Revelation 7:14
>
> And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Revelation 19:8

So Jesus washed the disciples feet but in the process all their dirt, which stands for sin, gets on him. What this passage is showing is that Jesus cleansed us by taking our sin upon himself.

We can see it stated in another way in Peter, who speaking of Jesus, says:.

> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 1 Peter 2:24

And also these passages from 2nd Corinthians and Galatians say something quite similar.

> For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2nd Corinthians 5:21
>
> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13

It is also found in the old testament when the ministry of the suffering servant, Messiah, is prophesied.

> He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Isaiah 53:11

What this is saying is that Jesus took our sin upon himself, or he became sin, or became a curse, for our redemption.

Here are two more verses closely related to this theme.

> For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark 10:45
>
> So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. Hebrews 9:28

His normal clothes represent his Divine nature. That is what he set aside when he became a man to suffer and die for us.

The towel representing his human nature was clean, reflecting his sinless condition. But in saving us he had to take on our sin. And so the towel gets all dirty as he does this service. This is what the foot washing illustrates.

When He is finished, he sets aside the dirty towel and puts his own clothes back on. This speaks of Jesus once again taking on the Divine nature after his resurrection.

There is a veiled reference to this in the book of Zechariah, where Joshua the high priest is a type of Jesus.

> And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him
> And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
> Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.
> And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. Zechariah 3:1-4

This scene shows Jesus as a man coming to the judgment seat of the father, still bearing our sins. And we see the Lord, [the Father] rebuke Satan the accuser. After all Jesus was innocent! Then he gets a change of raiment, new clothes. His divine nature is restored to him before he is raised from the dead.

Another passage depicting the servant hood of Jesus, our messiah, is in Philippians.

> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
> Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
> And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Philippians 2:5-8

To sum up the entire scene, what Jesus has done here is to act out his entire ministry in a symbolic form.

He rose up from where he was seated represents leaving His throne in heaven Setting aside his clothes is his incarnation. He was born naked into this world.
Taking a clean towel is the sinless human nature that he took upon himself.
Washing the men's feet is washing us with the blood.
Getting the towel dirty, is bearing our sins for us.
Putting his own clothes back on, is his resurrection in a glorified body, taking His divine nature back once again.
His sitting down again speaks of sitting on his heavenly throne once again, at the right hand of the father.

> So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? John 13:12

Lord, help us to realize and be thankful for what you have done for us sinners.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of
Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

All Things Subject To The Risen Christ
John Piper

Philippians 3:20-21

Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

These verses assume something stupendous. And we must make that plain before we marvel at what is here. And that is my goal—that you would marvel at what is here. That you would marvel at the One who is spoken of here. And that is not just my aim. It's God's aim for you as well. I say that because in Paul's second letter to the Thessalonians (1:10) God's word says concerning Christ's second coming, "He comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed." The aim of history is: the people of God marveling at the majesty of Jesus Christ. So that's my aim this Easter Sunday morning—that you will marvel at what is revealed of Christ in Philippians 3:20-21.

But something is assumed here, and we must make that plain before we can marvel with understanding. And that is the only kind of marveling that matters. Marveling with understanding. If someone tricks you into marveling and makes you think they've done something great when they haven't, your marveling doesn't make much of them, it makes a fool of you. Only marveling with understanding makes much of the One who is true and beautiful.

So something is assumed here in Philippians 3:20-21. What is assumed is that Jesus was raised from the dead and is now alive and very powerful—to put it mildly. The reason Paul can assume this here is that he said it in chapter two. So we should go back there and make it explicit and clear. Philippians 2:6-11 describes the eternal deity of Christ, the incarnation of Christ, the obedient death of Christ, the resurrection of Christ, and the reign of Christ over all the universe. It is an amazing passage. You will never read anything anywhere in any literature more sweeping and important and true than this:

Though he was in the form of God, [he] did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, 8 he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

So Christ was and is equal with God. He is God. He became also a human being. He obediently suffered and died. Obediently. That means God the Father told him to do it. That means it was a planned death. And the point of the plan was that the Christ be a substitute for the damnation of all human sinners who would trust in Jesus. As it says in Galatians 3:13, "Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us." He bore our damnation as a substitute. This was God's loving plan for the salvation of sinners like us who deserve hell. That's why it says in verse 8, "He was obedient to the point of death." He wasn't just dying. He was obeying. God had a plan. God gave a command. The Son was fulfilling it, willingly, obediently. The plan was, "Be a substitute for the damnation of all who will believe in you. Bear for them my holy and just curse, and I will make them my children—fellow heirs with you of everything I own."

And then in verse 9, you see the greatest "therefore" in the Bible. "Therefore, God has highly exalted him." In other words, because of his obedient and successful life and death, God raised him from the dead and gave him great glory as the Lord of the universe. That is the stupendous assumption behind Philippians 3:20-21.

So now let's go there again. "Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, (and now we know how he got to heaven: he was raised from the dead) who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body (and now we know how he has a body in heaven: he was raised bodily from the dead), by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself."

Now we are prepared to meditate on this and marvel. Here are three focuses for our marveling on this Easter Sunday morning: 1) Marvel at the power of the risen Jesus today to subject all things to himself. 2) Marvel that one day, at his coming, he will use this power to transform your body into a body like his. 3) Marvel that today your citizenship is in heaven where Christ rules—or if it's not, put it there today..

Marvel at the Power of the Risen Jesus Today to Subject All Things to Himself

Verse 21b: ". . . the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself." In one sense Christ has the right to rule the universe because he is God, not because he died and rose again. He did not have to die and rise in order to be what he was. And what he is from all eternity is God. This gives him the right to exercise authority over all things. "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God" (John 1:1-2). Christ is God, and as God has all authority to submit all things to himself.

But in another sense God the Father decreed that it would be most fitting, appropriate, beautiful, good, and right for the one who rules the world of fallen humankind, and everything that relates to humans in their suffering, would be One who bore their likeness, and endured their temptations, and suffered their pain, and died their death. God decreed that the one who would rule in power would be a redeemer who suffered with us and for us in this world. God decreed that the lion of Judah when he comes in power and great glory to bring judgment on the earth will have been a lamb slain for sin on that earth (Revelation 6:16).

Here is one verse in this regard: Hebrews 2:10, "For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering." The Lord and Judge and Savior over all the universe was tested and found perfect through human suffering. Now he is doubly suited for his role as Lord of the universe: he is God with natural rights, and he is Redeemer with purchased rights. He can put his foot on Satan's neck not just because of raw divine power—which would have been enough—but also because he exposed himself to Satan's temptations and to his final weapon, death, and broke it on Easter Sunday morning. So he is doubly suited to rule. He has Creator rights and Redeemer rights.

And now with all that in mind we read in Philippians 3:21 that he has "the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself." In order to marvel at this power of Christ today, consider 1) its scope, 2) its process, 3) its pervasiveness, 4) its triumph, 5) its finality for man, 6) its duration, and 7) its final base of operation.

1.1. Marvel at the scope of Christ's power today.

After his resurrection, Jesus said in Matthew 28:18, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me." There is no higher authority than Christ's, not on the earth, not in heaven. And Philippians 2:10 adds, not "under the earth." There is no place or sphere of reality or dimension of existence anywhere in the universe that is not under the absolute authority of Jesus Christ.

When the world doesn't look like it is under the authority of Christ, it would wiser for us to marvel at the mystery of his ways (the way Paul does in Romans 11:33) than to question the scope of his power.

1.2. Marvel at the process of Christ's power today.

While Christ has absolute authority and power over all things, he does not yet use that power to completely subdue his enemies. Not yet. His kingdom advances by the preaching of the gospel and by the sacrificial love of his people. In this way unbelief and spiritual darkness and demonic deception are defeated by the power and beauty of Christ. When this process has gone as far as God wills, Christ will step in and finish the victory.

Here is the way Paul said it in 1 Corinthians 15:24-27:

Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death. 27 For "God has put all things in subjection under his feet."

"He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet." So his power and authority are complete. But the process of subjection goes on at the pace he chooses. Our job is not to know the times and the seasons which the Father has set by his own authority (Acts 1:7). Our job is to marvel at the scope and process of his power, and speak the gospel.

1.3. Marvel at the pervasiveness of Christ's power today.

Christ's power pervades the universe from the largest to the smallest elements of reality. Colossians 1:17 says, "He is before all things, and in him all things hold together." And Hebrews 1:3 says, "He upholds the universe by the word of his power." Christ's authority is absolutely pervasive. No galaxy, no atom, no demon would stay in being without the authority of Jesus Christ.

1.4. Marvel at the triumph of Christ's power today.

1 Peter 3:22 says, He "has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him." When Christ died and rose again, he was triumphant over all the powers of hell. He knew this triumph was coming, so he said to Peter in Matthew 16:18, "I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." In other words, hell cannot defeat Jesus. His triumph is sure. He will accomplish all his purposes for the church and for the universe.

1.5. Marvel at the finality for man in Christ's power today.

Jesus said in John 5:27, "[God] has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man." The God-Man has the right to act as God in judging men. And he will. And it will be final. There is no court of appeals above Christ. And John 17:2 shows how this authority is full of hope for those who belong to Jesus, "You [God] have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him." Both judgment and eternal life are in his hands. For every human being. Marvel at the finality of the authority of such a judge.

1.6. Marvel at the duration of Christ's power today.

In Revelation 11:15 loud voices in heaven said, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever." There will never be another chapter after Christ. Nothing comes after Christ. His power and authority last forever. Don't be found an enemy of that power. Marvel, don't mock.

1.7. Marvel at the final base of operation of Christ's power.

Namely, the earth. It will be renewed. All sin and sickness and satanic power will be removed. It will be a new heaven and a new earth. But not another one. The same one renewed. That's why he comes back in power. Matthew 24:30, "Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Marvel, therefore, that the scope and process and pervasiveness and triumph and finality and duration of Christ's power by which he subjects all things to himself will be based finally on the earth.

That is the first focus for our marveling at Christ this morning. Marvel at his power to subject all things to himself. Philippians 3:21b, ". . . by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself."

Marvel That One Day, at His Coming, He Will Use This Power to Transform Your Body into a Body Like His

Philippians 3:21a, "[He] will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself." All that power that we have just seen, Paul says, will take your decomposed body and raise it from the dead. No longer to be sick or disabled or frail or mentally ill or addicted or weary or tempting or tempted, but rather it will be like his glorious body.

Don't over-spiritualize this or under-spiritualize this. You would under-spiritualize it if you thought it could be explained merely in the categories of physical, material reality that you experience now. It is not identical to what we now have. Paul said in 1 Corinthians 15:44, "It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body." It will be perfectly suited to bear the weight of the glory of perfect spiritual souls.

But you would over-spiritualize it if you thought you couldn't eat fish or be recognized by your friends after the resurrection. Jesus was recognized in his resurrection body by his disciples (Luke 24:31). And he said in Luke 24:39-43:

"See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them.

And that is what you will do. If you belong to Christ by trusting in him, he will give you a new spiritual body, and you will be recognized by your friends and you will eat and drink with him in the kingdom of God (Matthew 26:29). Marvel therefore that Christ will use his infinite authority and power to raise you from the dead and give you a body like his.

Marvel That Today Your Citizenship Is in Heaven Where Christ Rules

Philippians 3:20, "Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." If you are a believer in Christ, you do not have to wait for the second coming of Christ to know where your home is: heaven or hell. When you trust Christ your name is sealed on the citizen roles of heaven.

Not because you will live there forever instead of on the new earth. But because your king is there. And when he comes, your citizenship comes with him. Where he is, there you have the privilege and the right to be.

And so you will be with him forever. And your marveling will never cease. It will only increase forever and ever.

Is your citizenship in heaven? Have you laid down the arms of unbelief and rebellion against Christ? Have you received the blood-bought amnesty that he offers to all rebels? Have you bowed the knee of submission and loyalty to the king of the universe? Do it today. And join the citizens of heaven in "awaiting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.’

Arise To The Call

Yolanda Ballard

Feb 15, 2005
Rise up and prepare for the Lord thy God is with you. Awake from your slumber and count the cost for this is the day I will be examining the hearts of My people to see if they are ready to go to war and fight for what is theirs or will they lay dormant and allow the enemy to have what he is after and that is their inheritance. Don't allow the enemy to have what is rightfully yours for I promised you divine health and I promised that you will prosper in every area of your life.

Why would you settle for less than the best when I gave My life for you? Don't you know that when you took Me as your Lord and Savior that you took also all that the Father gave to Me? I died that you would have My authority over all the power of the enemy and that you would fear no evil and also be able to live the abundant life.

Yes, this is the day to count the cost for when you lose all for My kingdom, you gain all that My kingdom offers. I give you My joy which gives you great strength. I give you My love that conquers all things, and I give you peace that passes all understanding.

So know this day that I AM for you and not against you. No matter what struggles you face I give you My victory to overcome. No matter what you have done in the past I will not let it count against you if you truly repent and make yourself clean by the power of My blood. If you asked for My forgiveness, I remember them no more any sin that you have committed. I love you, My people, and I raise you up as great warriors of My love. Yes, My love is the strongest weapon that you have. Don't allow the enemy to rob you by taking offense against others.

Yes, this is the day to count the cost...........your life for My life for I want to live My life through you this day. Step aside and see what I will do through you for I have called you to join together to do greater works. For I can reach the multitudes through you. Yes, I can reach the lost and the broken hearted. I can heal the sick and set the captives free.

All I want you to do is to love Me and respect My calling upon your life. Don't abuse the power that I've given you. And don't abuse your position in authority for great authority over the enemy comes only through submission and humility to My perfect will.

So I call you to love one another and allow My light to shine through. Bow down and worship Me in the secret place. Bask in My presence, and I will strengthen you and give you My wisdom as you go out and be My ambassadors, for this is the time and the hour that I AM calling you.

Rekindle the flame you once had for Me and stir your hearts in My word. Yes, love My will and My words to you and hide them in your heart. Prepare now while you have the time while it is still day. Do not waste it over complacency and busyness. Be cautious that the enemy doesn't rob you of what is precious. Set your priorities right. Know what is of most importance and cast off the vain.

I love you and give you My armor and weapons of war for I AM your Captain. Now I call you to pick them up and march out not looking back at what you are leaving behind. For all is worthless compared to what I have in store for you. You will never regret to having taken Me as your all in all. There's no life outside of Me. Yes, rise up and count the cost for this is the time for war.

At The Father's Feet
http://www.ourchurch.com/member/r/RainNglory/

At The Wailing Wall

Bill Yount

December 14, 2005

"I Will Begin To Manifest Myself Alive At The Wailing Wall, In Synagogues, And In The Streets Of Jerusalem This Coming Year!" -Bill Yount

"And to whom He showed Himself alive after the passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God."* -Acts 1:3

"O Israel, Your 'Wailing' Wall Shall Become A 'Hailing' Wall."

To "wail" means to cry out with lament or grief. To "hail" means to salute, greet, or acclaim enthusiastically, such as, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

"'Homecoming Angels' On The Wailing Wall Beckoning The Jewish People To Come Home!"

In the Spirit, I saw the very Shekinah Glory of God begin to gradually seep through the cracks of the Wailing Wall while "homecoming angels" on the wall were stuffing love notes into every crack as they were imparting revelation into the minds and hearts of the "standing room only" multitude of God's chosen people who were now facing the answers to their prayers!

Blinders began dropping off of their eyes as the Wailing Wall appeared to be turning into a giant theater screen. Many began to see visions and have trances of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords in all of His Glory in 3-D technicolor! In the Spirit, these panoramic scenes on the wall could be seen by the Jewish people all around the world.

A homesick kind of feeling began to spread in epidemic proportion in the hearts of God's chosen people, turning their hearts toward home!

"God Would Not Force His People To Return Home, But He Did Have A 'Ways And Means' Committee To Help Make Them Willing To Go! God's 'Ways' Can Appear 'Mean.'"

In the Spirit, I sensed great earth-shaking events were now being pre-approved by the Father that will cause a great nest-stirring for God's people, the Jews, to be willing to leave where they had grown comfortable, living in seemingly secure places of the earth. But I saw a great shaking in the world's economy coming that would literally gouge the side out of their Titanic-like financial investments and businesses. I sensed the Father conversing with the angels on this, saying, "Yes, that will do it!"

"SYNAGOGUES WERE BEING REVISITED BY THE GREATEST TEACHER EVER, JESUS CHRIST, REVEALING HIMSELF THROUGH SCRIPTURE AS THEIR MESSIAH--"THE KING OF THE JEWS!"

In the Spirit, I saw angels setting up camp around Jewish synagogues and Jesus Himself walking right through many synagogue doors into the midst of their ceremonies. I also saw Him stand up in their midst and read and proclaim, once again, Isaiah 61, but this time, He read the whole chapter, as many of their ears and eyes began to pop open! To many, Jesus began to show Himself openly. Some were having visions; others were actually seeing Him!

"JESUS WAS DANCING AND PLAYING WITH CHILDREN IN THE STREETS OF JERUSALEM!"

"And the streets of the city of Jerusalem shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." -Zechariah 8:5

I saw children dancing in the streets of Jerusalem. At first, it appeared that they were dancing with a make-believe friend. I then saw Jesus laughing and twirling them in the air and catching them as they danced together, as the joy of the Lord began running down through the streets of Jerusalem and beyond! Parents of these small children began to experience the presence of God as children began to talk about their experiences, visions, and encounters with Jesus Christ, proclaiming Him to be their Messiah! Children were bringing His anointing and carrying His Glory into their families!

"INTERCESSION FOR THE JEWISH PEOPLE MUST CONTINUE AND PREVAIL TO BRING THEM HOME!"

In closing, I sense the Father saying, "The intercession of nations for Israel is beginning to be heard, creating the greatest move of My Spirit in all of history in the lives of My chosen people, the Jews. Intercession must increase and prevail to bring My people home. Intercession has brought My Son back to be there for their homecoming!"

"COMING HOME. . . COMING HOME. . . NEVER MORE TO ROAM!"

Bill Yount
Blowing the Shofar Ministries www.billyount.com
theshofarhasblown@juno.com

An Urgent and Crucial Time

Ron McGatlin

There possibly has never been a more crucial season. The people who are called by the name of God are carrying the ultimate potential for the blessing or the devastation of nations and multitudes. The church is pregnant with a colossal worldwide awakening. The birthing time is upon us. The enormous transition will be made or it will be missed. At least as far as this season in history is concerned. The magnitude of the potentially earth changing awakening cannot be overstated.

The warnings are screaming forth that the transition must be made now. Trumpets are blowing, the earth is shouting and groaning, the nations are trembling and God is speaking.

The seriousness and potential of the season demands humble boldness. Humble people of God must rise up and boldly lift the standard of the Holy One. Leaders, it is not time to continue on as we have been. We must be boldly honest and move with uncompromising resolve into the reality of the work of the Spirit dissolving weak religious ways and bringing forth the powerful works of God.

In the wilderness the spirit of John the Baptist cries out. From the caves the prophets emerge, and from the belly of the whale the spirit of Jonah, after desperately trying to avoid the mission, now reluctantly speaks the message of God calling for transition of turning to the true God from our twisted ways. With tears the Spirit of Christ speaks from the high hill with outstretched arms, again dripping with precious blood, calling, calling, calling, turn look up and come up here. Turn to me and let me love you, let me save you from your own life of twisted ways, that leads to devastation and death. Come and experience all my Father and I have prepared for you. Lay down your nets, burn your plows and sacrifice your oxen upon the fire. Beat your plow shears into swords and prepare to become sons of my Father, kings and priests with Me. Now is this time. Make the transition in this day for night soon comes when you can do nothing.

The fire of God has come, renewal and revival came upon many in the decade of the 90's. God has poured out His Spirit and love upon many of His people. Many have been healed. The dead have been raised. Today many people are moving into a real and intimate relationship with God. Many young people are determined to live for God and not reproduce the powerless lukewarm religion of the past. There is a people coming forth that love God above all else and will give all they have and all they are to become the truly humble and holy people of God. Purity and holiness are again becoming the goal of life for the kingdom of God people coming forth in the world today.

Yet much of the church remains stuck in a deep rut of powerless religion and unbelief. Others who have tasted revival have been diverted and are often chasing after other gods of pleasure, self gratification, self promotion domination and control. Greed has captured many as money and fame become a major focus. Chasing gifts and following after men has diverted some who were once set free. We must have eyes to see truth to know where we really are and what God is really wanting for His Beautiful Bride.

Leaders, Christians, people who name the name of God, here the word of the Lord who loves us and gave himself for us and seeks to live in and through His people establishing His purity and holiness in the world. It is our place to bring the power and presence of God into the world to make a difference.

The purified holy Bride church is the plan of God to reach and change the people of the world. We must face the reality that holiness is far from most of the people of the world. Most of the world and some of the church are overcome with living lives of pleasure seeking. Immorality is destroying people, sexual perversion is rampant. We have strained at gnats and swallowed camels. Abortion has murdered forty million unborn babies in America alone and yet we despise the use of test tube embryo's being used for medical research and are quick to prosecute those who mistreat animals. We have locked God out of our schools, and yet open the door to "alternative life style" teaching. We must not deceive ourselves. It is time to GET REAL.

God is poised and ready to hear our sincere and desperate prayer for worldwide awakening. His ear is leaned forward listening for our prayer of turning from our ways unto Him and His ways. In painful long-suffering He waits. The angels await His signal to pour out their censors of golden liquid fire upon an awakening repentant people. God rejoices in the return of a prodigal world. He takes no pleasure and is greatly saddened in the devastation of the wayward.

Much of the world has been overcome with pleasure seeking, chasing sports, video games, entertainment, gambling, drunkenness, recreational drugs, sexual immorality, sexual perversion and every activity that pleasures the flesh and soul. Pornography, child abuse, and incest is invading the homes of the world and Christians alike, including leaders. Multitudes of people suffer as children are left to their own devices and grow up untrained in the truth and then later turn upon their parents in rebellion.

Much of the church has been and is yet spiritually asleep. Eyes and ears are closed to the kingdom of God and to the reality of the condition of our world. Many who should be leaders have become discouraged to the point of giving up and walking away from the sleeping church. We must wake up! It is time for a spiritual awakening that will lead to transition from where we have been as a church. There must be a transition to the reality of the supernatural presence of God moving in and through the people of God. There needs be a transition from a church emphasis type of church to a kingdom of God type of church, no longer man centered, man pleasing, church, but becoming truly God centered and God focused worship in all arenas of life.

What would happen if the Spirit were to lead every leader in every church to stand before the people next meeting and say, I am not doing it any more. What we have been doing is not working. We are not changing the world the world is changing us, and I refuse to speak another word or do another religious thing until God shows up to take over and lead us. I am laying here on my face before the alter crying out to God to wake us up and change us. You can do what you want, you can leave and go somewhere else, you can come up here with me and cry out to God or you can do whatever but I refuse to do one more empty work while we continue to go the way we have gone. This is the day I am laying it all before Him. This is the day I am turning from everything that He shows me is not of Him. This is the day I am seeking all of God with all of my heart. This is the day I must become holy as he is holy, No more white lies, no more trying to please people, I will seek to please God and to know him more intimately than ever before and to trust in Him only and no longer trust in anything else. Choose as you will but I am choosing to seek God's way and God's way only.

There just might be many who are hungering and thirsting for the reality of God enough that they would quickly follow such bold leadership of the Spirit. God will show up and people will turn toward Him and away from their ways.

There is a place of repentance before us. The last half of September and the first half of October is, I believe, a season prepared for repentance, turning to God and seeking Him. He will be found. There may or may not be another season like this one. Call a solemn assembly, turn fully to Him, pray desperately for your people, your nation, the nations of the world to be awakened and do not stop until it comes or until He says the season is finished.

This is the transition that must come. A shift to the reality of God's direct leadership and the laying down of our systems and traditions of weak ways. A transition to the reality of true holiness in the lives of His people. A shift to true humility and purity of heart. A shift to the power of God moving in every meeting or encounter. A shift to intimate saturation in the Holy Spirit and prayer that changes us and the world around us.

We have this time to awaken and make this transition. Let's let God take over and make the shift now.

Pursue Love, It Never Fails,

Lots of Love,

Ron McGatlin
www.openheaven.com
ronmcgatlin@earthlink.net

Faith That Doesn't Falter Love That Never Fails
Ron McGatlin

www.openheaven.com

Rom 5:1-5: Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

In the face of terror attacks and potential desperate volatile world conditions of war, natural disasters, global warming, moral degradation, and dwindling world oil reserves it is possible to begin to lose hope. If our hope rests only in natural strength and resources, there could be little reason for hope of a future much less a good future. It might be difficult to find reason to have faith in natural strength of men and governments to overcome the challenges and handle the situations of the world.

And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. 1 Cor 13:13

Hope depends on faith. If we have little or no faith we will have little or no hope. True faith works by love and God is love. Therefore our hope is in God. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word. What word? The word of God, the word of love, the word of faith. Hearing that God actually loves us is the source of faith. The same God who by his power spoke all things into being, the God who created all that exist, the God of all wisdom and understanding truly loving us is the root of our faith and the reason for our hope. Intimately relating to God and living in His passionate endless love gives us faith that will not falter no matter what the circumstances. As we simply rest in His awesome love, doubts and fears are gone and we experience perfect faith and everlasting hope. The peace of God that passes understanding floods our hearts even in the most desperate circumstances. (Gal 5:6) (1 John 4:8,16) (Rom 10:17) (Rom 10:8)

If God's love were to fail, if he ever just ran out of love, then we would have no hope. we would have nothing in which to believe - no faith. The good news is that God's love never fails, it never runs out. (1 Cor 13:8)

All of our well being begins with our relationship to God. We must become one with the Father and the Son through the Holy Spirit. Only then are we fully ready to relate to those around us. This is the basis of the relational church. Intimate relationship with God first and then intimate relationship with His people is the coming church model. This is the basis of the current reformation from organizational to relational church. This is the cure for the powerless church of the past and the key to living in the kingdom of God lifestyle.

If the hundreds of millions of people worldwide who call themselves Christians were to live this way the world would be saved and changed. (2 Chr 7:14) (Psa 33:12) There are some people living this way today and miracles are again happening as they did in the first century. Mature love produces mature faith and all things are possible to those who believe. (Mark 9:23) Our hope is firmly planted in the love relationship with our all powerful loving God. The reflection of that love back to Father from His children spawns awesome praise, sincere worship, pure adoration, eternal life abundantly now, endless hope and joy everlasting. Thank You Father!
www.openheaven.com

A Vision And A Word

Bob Neumann

In the last week I have gotten my share of "new years" greetings. People who all are wishing me prosperity and good fortune in the "coming year". Being of my atypical "scrooge" mentality, I have returned the smiles and best wishes from people for the last few weeks in an increasing grudgingly manner. I do not desire bad feelings between myself and others, so I keep my mouth shut. Accept overly repeated comments of merry this and happy that....but I wonder....what people would say if I shared my thoughts.

I suppose if I just went along with the flow I could have wished all my Wiccan, Neo-Pagan, and Goth co-workers with...Happy Winter Solstice... or Have a Rockin' Saturnalia.... I guess I could mumble ancient benedictions about Bacchus, Janus and the goddess Fortuna..... but none of my co-workers are out-of the-closet pagans. All seems to be some of the more common brands of Christian that are endemic to my area. They all look the same, no matter what day of the week it is. So I am always puzzled by their doctrines...or lack there of. So to wish upon them the blessings of ancient pagan deities because they hold these times in high regard lacks something. Likewise I am no longer comfortable faking it. Even saying HAPPY NEW YEAR right now feels just plain wrong. Sort of like wishing Aztecs, Omecs, and Mayans that they do not run out of virgins for their MOON FESTIVAL. YUCK...

SO....I have sat in this growing funk and got into a strange spiral of thought. If we disregard what is important to a MOST HOLY GOD, what in deed does HE OWE US? Now that gave me cold goose bumps up and down my spine. GOD'S year revolves around HIS FEASTS...the "MO'EDIM". Has nothing to do with equinoxes and solstices. THE FEASTS are based on THE RAIN and THE HARVEST. SO...I have pondered what my GOD was doing. SO...I stepped aside and began a fast and a wait. Only nether lasted very long....things being what they may....and I got a song...an old tune... Had it for a day or two before the VISION came....

THE VISION I was simply watching a "stage" and an instrumental version of the "song" was being played. Two "men" stepped forward and each were hit by bright spot lights. Each wore expensive three piece suits. Each was perfectly "groomed". Each held a microphone. Now I "saw" their mouths moving, and I heard nothing. I "saw" them gesture and move to the "audience" I never saw or heard. It is here where I heard THE LAMB SPEAK.... THE WORD ""ALL YOU WILL GET IS A LOT OF " "SHUCK" AND "JIVE" " IN 2005!"" and that was it.

at first I wondered which of the two was SHUCK...and who was JIVE.... only it did not matter... and the song was from a movie called SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER... it was STAYIN' ALIVE... now this movie had two other songs by THE BROTHERS GIBB worthy of some thought... HOW DEEP IS YOUR LOVE... and JIVE TALKIN'....

so...in keeping with the ancient traditions of this "season".... I give to all this VISION....and a message from THE LAMB for the next solar cycle.... WASSAIL, y'all dog

A Valentine from Heaven

Judy Bauman

Rev 19:10b Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

It was February 12, 1997 and I had had enough. From every angle my life looked wonderful. I had a husband who not only loved me but provided me with a beautiful home and the desires of my heart. My two children were healthy, smart, polite and helpful. However, I was miserable. I didn't just have a hole in my heart; I had a vacuum. I was trying to live a good life and basically ‘be a good person’, but it wasn't filling the emptiness in my heart. I was trying to let the things of the world be my comforter, yet I was finding no comfort. For several years I had been trying to sooth my aching heart with ‘a glass or two’ of wine most evenings. Too often I ended up with too much ‘soothing’ and then had the guilt and condemnation to deal with the next day. On the morning of Feb. 12th, as I was nursing a hangover, I decided I would end this cycle by writing myself a note on the corkscrew. It was a very condemning note about how I needed to be more health conscious and if I did not use the corkscrew, I would be fine! I looked at the calendar so I could date my little note and saw that it was the first day of Lent.

In my heart I knew that God was the only One who could help me. I had a profound experience in 1982 and had accepted Jesus as my personal Savior, but because of a divorce, I had been in a backslidden state for about 12 years. I had recently been hearing the Lord speak to my heart and I knew if I didn’t answer Him soon that I would end up in worse shape than I was already. After seeing that date was the beginning of Lent, I looked up and said, "God, I am going to give up alcohol for Lent."

When I was a child I remembered adults giving up things for Lent - only to see them back at it again a few days later, so I never saw the importance of participating myself. It was kind of like New Year's resolutions to me. Empty promises. However, somehow I knew in my heart I would be able to do this and that this was a serious promise to God. After I had told the Lord, "God, I am going to give up alcohol for lent," the Holy Spirit spoke to my heart and said, "And you will fast the last three days." I was shocked but mostly scared. It was as if someone had been standing right next to me and spoke it into my ear! I knew it was Him though because it would never occur to me to do such a thing. Understand, I had never fasted a meal let alone three whole days! Now I find it very presumptuous of me that I would be so contrary to the Lord of hosts! Sadly, I have to admit I have been guilty of this on more than one occasion.

One day during this time I was reading a book in a park while my children played. The author, a doctor, was saying that she could not figure out why one of her patients was so sick, so she fasted and prayed for the solution (wouldn't you LOVE to have a doctor like that!) As I read that she 'had fasted,' I literally jumped up off the bench thinking that I had missed fasting the last three days. You see, by this point during Lent, the Lord had proved Himself so mighty in my life and I would do anything for Him – even fast! God is always on time; I realized that I had not missed it at all as the last three days would begin the next day. I was a little scared but prepared myself mentally not to eat at all for the next three days. I was concerned about coffee withdrawals but a thought came to me to drink two cups of black coffee on day one, one cup on day two, and then not drink any on day three. That is what I did and I had no headaches! The first day I was taking a walk and prayed. I barely made it around the block, so I prayed as to what I should do. In my mind's eye I saw all my vegetables in my fridge in a pot, somehow I knew to go home a make a broth from what I had seen and that was what sustained me for three days.

Why do I tell you this? Well, this was the beginning of a beautiful ongoing relationship I now enjoy with the King of kings. I asked Him to come and make a home in me. I asked Him to change me and mold me into His image. Though I had had a profound experience and accepted Jesus as my personal Savior in 1982, I had allowed worldliness, persecution, and my own fears to take me away from Him. I knew I could not afford to ever do that again. While I may still stumble around and fight with sin, I know that God loves me and will see me through. I know that Jesus died for me. It is a very personal thing. He would have gone through what He did on the cross if I were the only sinner and that is really something to ponder. Jesus loves you the same way. If He had to do it just for you He would have. The good news is that He stands at the door of each of our hearts and knocks. It is up to us to answer. We are creatures of free will and God will never violate that privilege He gave us.

That moment that I looked up and God touched me is best defined as this; They that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31

God met me in my kitchen that day and swooped down and rescued me. He carries me on His wings of love. Each year I so grateful and it is at the same time we celebrate Valentine's Day. For me it is the most wonderful Valentine's from heaven. The greatest part is that God's love is a gift that anyone can accept.

Rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

A Very Present Help
Ephraim and Rimona Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

With the Gregorian calendar year of 2004 coming to an end accompanied by a jolting earthquake, a “tsunami” (tidal wave) and the loss of an estimated 150 thousand people (at least), we acknowledge the sovereignty of Elohim, His might and strategy. During a time of sobering prayer, the following Psalm came racing back to my memory:

"YHVH is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, even though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though its waters roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah. There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of YHVH, the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High. YHVH is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; YHVH shall help her, just at the break of dawn. The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved; He uttered His voice, the earth melted. The Capitan of hosts is with us; The Elohim of Jacob is our refuge. Selah. Come behold the works of YHVH, Who has made desolations in the earth. He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariot in the fire. Be still, and know that I am Elohim; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth! YHVH of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah" (Psalm 46).

Several years ago, when we were traveling and speaking across the U.S., the above Psalm that was impressed strongly upon my heart, and I shared it in many places. I had pointed to the two situations that are juxtaposed here. On the one hand, there is a tumultuous and raging sea of troubles and natural disasters having a horrendous effect on the populous. But right in the midst of it all there is a portrayal of a steady, flowing stream coursing through YHVH's city, whose residents are not unaware of the commotion but at the same time are unafraid, trusting their Elohim. It seems that in the past several years this Biblical word-picture has been displayed very graphically and experientially before humanity.

Yesterday my eyes fell on a very puzzling scripture in Jeremiah 5:22: "Do you not fear Me?' says YHVH. 'Will you not tremble at My presence, I have placed the sand as the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it. And though its waves toss to and fro, yet they cannot prevail; though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it". Yes, in light of the recent disasters, which frequented South East Asia and East Africa, these words were indeed puzzling. Although YHVH declares here that He has placed the sand as the border of the sea, we just witnessed that body of water completely overriding its boundaries. As I was pondering this and wondering how is it that YHVH's word seems to contradict present reality, it occurred to me that the disrespect, total disregard and lack of fear of Him, who has pronounced those natural decrees, would bring on something of these gigantic proportions. In fact, it is the very magnitude of the event, which is a reflection of the magnitude of man's separation from his creator and of his disdain of Him, His people, land and His Word.

“I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and indeed they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. I beheld, and indeed there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. I beheld, and indeed the fruitful land was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of YHVH, by His fierce anger. For thus says YHVH: 'The whole land shall be desolate; Yet I will not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black, because I have spoken. I have purposed and will not relent, nor will I turn back from it'" (Jeremiah 4:23-28).

Adam, mankind, although largely in a state of sin and inequity, still has dominion over the earth (just as YHVH had decreed after He had created him). Thus, when he is a vessel of spiritual darkness, that darkness descends upon the earth and the earth responds in kind (see above, verse 23).

Isaiah 24 describes in great detail, in language replete with alliterations which are almost onomatopoeic (in the original Hebrew that is), the devastation which we have witnessed just a few days ago: "Behold, YHVH makes the earth empty and makes it waste, distorts its surface and scatters abroad its inhabitants. And it shall be: as with the people, so with the priest; As with the servant, so with his master; As with the maid, so with her mistress; As with the buyer, so with the seller; As with the lender, so with the borrower; As with the creditor, so with the debtor. The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered, for YHVH has spoken this word. The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away; the haughty people of the earth languish The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell in it are desolate. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, [cremated] and few men are left" (verses 1-6).

It is in the midst of this description that Adonai declares: "The new wine fails, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh. The mirth of the tambourine ceases, the noise of the jubilant ends, the joy of the harp ceases. They shall not drink wine with a song; Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it. The city of confusion is broken down; every house is shut up, so that none may go in. There is a cry for wine in the streets, all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. In the city desolation is left, and the gate is stricken with destruction" (verses 7-12).

Many of the places where the tidal waves hit had witnessed a great deal of merry making, being this world's tropical "paradise" resorts, and what with it being the season of celebrating, which is always a good excuse for a "good ole party"!

"When it shall be thus in the midst of the land among the people, it shall be like the shaking of an olive tree, like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done. They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing; For the majesty of YHVH, they shall cry aloud from the sea. Therefore glorify YHVH in the dawning light, the name of YHVH the God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea. From the ends of the earth we have heard songs: 'Glory to the righteous!'" (verses 13-16).

Notice the "shaking of the olive tree" and the "gleaning of grapes" in the above scripture. Is this YHVH's way of shaking His olive tree and vine of Israel? As such, we should be the ones taking refuge in YHVH who is the “very present help” mentioned in Psalm 46 above, even at times when "the moon will be disgraced and the sun ashamed; for YHVH the Almighty of the hosts of Israel will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His elders, gloriously" (Is. 24:23).

Let us say with utter conviction, believing that, "the way of the just is uprightness; O Most Upright, You weigh the path of the just. Yes, in the way of Your judgments, O YHVH, we have waited for You; the desire of our soul is for Your name and for the remembrance of You. With my soul I have desired You in the night. Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early; For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Is. 26:7-9).

Will 2005 bring with it more of the consequences of sin, so that the world will learn righteousness the hard way? Isaiah 27:6 offers a solution: “He [YHVH] shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit”. What an awesome privilege, which is not to be taken lightly!

Shabbat Shalom,
Rimona

A Very Tempting Article

Danny Korakas

Nov 18, 2005

It has been a couple of weeks since I last posted anything on our newsletter and I must admit that it has been a time of profound revelation. However, the revelation, for the most part, was centered on "me." Not in a self-centered way, but, in a way that reflected and gave greater understanding to my true spiritual condition and the mandate of today's prophetic ministry. I have come to believe that the glory of genuine godly revelation hinges upon our willingness to be "revealed" or encounter the revelation of whom we truly are and our vulnerabilities. With this said: I sense that many who have come under the prophetic umbrella are experiencing the same kaleidoscope of emotions, vulnerability, and wilderness temptations that I have and am still presently going through. It is with great hope and a spirit of victory that I share with you what I believe to be a timely word that may change how we view the battles of "Wilderness Temptations."

"Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil." (Matthew 4:1) We need to ask ourselves, "WHY?" I mean, after all, Jesus was just baptized and the spirit came upon Him beyond measure. Why did the Spirit lead Jesus to such a time of both natural and spiritual temptation? What was the purpose of His assured victory over temptation?

Over the course of the last month, I have experienced various temptations that I have had victory over for many years. These have not been your typical fleshly or random thoughts that are easily overcome by the fear of the Lord that resides in the hearts of those who are called by His name. These have been genuine temptations that have drawn me to the edge of falling into compromise and blatant sin.

I have a daily habit of blessing and praying for my wife and children as they are asleep at 4:30 in the morning. Although, I have continued in this vital function as the head of my family over this last month, I have found myself focused upon my guilt of having or entertained various temptations and in a perpetual state of crying out to God to cleanse my mind and desire to dance on the edge of compromise. Now, there is nothing wrong in crying out to God for forgiveness. This should be a part of our Christian life. But, I could not seem to get free of the desires to visit on the "fringes" of internet sites that up to this time, I would not have even entertained the thought. (I never did until this past month and my fingers were desiring with unsatiable curiosity to hit keys on the key pad that took everything in me to fight and resist) My mind was oddly gravitating toward random sexual thoughts and I was finding ways and excuses to make things such as music choices and rationalizations "ok" in my own agenda.

The grip of compromise and rationalization was seeking a foothold in my life and mind. I thought of myself (pridefully) for so many years as being spiritually immune to the "obvious" sins that have gripped most of humanity and even the church. But, now I found myself in the midst of battle and close to the edge of the same sins that I prophesied and taught against! Man, was I in a strange and desperate place…But, I can only thank God that I continued to cry out too Him for help and a clear understanding of what was happening in my life. After-all, everything seemed to being going great in every area of my spiritual and natural life prior to these subtle, and vicious attacks of temptation.

I now recognize with clarity that my temptations have been directed toward me where my amour is kinked and vulnerable. I have never experienced such fiery darts propelled with such accuracy and precision. It has also become clear that the temptations aimed at Jesus were likewise, directed at His most vulnerable areas in His humanity and at His ultimate and divine authority. Most importantly, I see the hand of Gods mercy and grace in protecting me from such an onslaught until I was properly equipped with His Word to endure and understand the priceless value and victory of overcoming temptation.

What I am about to share with you is a word that I received from the Lord on November 6th as I was walking into a time fellowship and worship with our congregation. I will do my best to explain what I heard from the Lord.

The Lord said that walking in the Spirit of prophecy is more than simply speaking His words…It is living and experiencing both the glory and the BURDEN of His Words. We read many times in the scriptures in reference to "The burden of the Lord came upon me" The "burden of the Lord" would come upon those who were called and commissioned into prophetic ministry as a "lifestyle." Literally, the prophets who were filled with the Spirit of God felt the burden and weight of sin that was upon the land and nations. Today, we recognize this as "taking up our crosses daily." This is not to say that they were identifying or relating to sinfulness because they were in bondage to it. Quite the contrary; it was a burden that allowed them to experience (feel) and (see) as seers and the prophetic impact of sin and its grip upon humanity. Jesus was not led into the wilderness by the "Spirit of God" by happenstance or chance. It was for the purpose of identification to our sin and His ability to overcome temptation as a model for us to live by.

I have taught many times that we can only give what we truly have. Thus, we can only prophesy holiness to the church and the days ahead if we have attained holiness through the overcoming of tremendous temptations. The desire and the attaining of the fullness of God's anointing hinges upon this discipline. Many are prophesying concerning the last days anointing and its vitality to the end time harvest. These are true words inspired by Holy Spirit. However, the measure of the anointing will be INCREASED in our lives through the overcoming of INCREASED temptations. Why? Because, this is where the rubber meets the spiritual road and the true strength of our spiritual muscle tested and exercised.

When the Lord overcame the grand and yet subtle temptations of Satan, He set a dynamic in motion within the spirit realm that provided us a blueprint for victory in all areas of life and a roadmap for corporate spiritual maturity and revival. This wilderness moment and victory of Christ gave hope and empowered the church to establish the kingdom of God and holiness upon the earth. The Bible states that Jesus is the "Spirit of prophecy." The spiritual implication that transpired in Christ's resistance and victory over temptation was the kingdom explosion that cleared the way for the same Spirit of God and overcoming power to dwell within us as His body.

The prophetic implication was spiritual breakthrough…The overcoming of temptation through the Word of God changed the spiritual climate or atmosphere and created an environment for the church to be birthed and empowered. In other words: Christ identified and experienced the burden of man's temptation and potential to sin. Through His conquering over temptation, a dynamic in the spirit realm enabled the church to be more than conquerors and holy in all areas of life. "Be holy, for I am holy."

The prophetic mandate and ministry in this season is being taken to the next level in its present revival. The next level and third heaven revelation will not happen by osmosis. We will have a part to play in this becoming a reality in our lives. The "part" and key will be how we approach, view, and deal with temptation. Today's prophetic individual will do and attain more than simply speak…They will be a signpost and a barometer of the true spiritual condition of the church by the life they live. In other words, our ability to overcome temptation and sin will be the pinnacle of prophesy and this will "speak" and declare in the heavenlies the grace and power of God. Forces of darkness will buckle under the glory of the church living a life worthy of Christ dying for. God will take ownership of this in bringing the church into holiness in the same way that He takes ownership of a genuine spoken or written prophetic word. Spiritual forerunners will set the spiritual environment and potential through their ability to overcome temptation and walk in holiness themselves. This is the prophetic ministry that the Lord is setting in place and desiring to arise. The church will finally move from the position of Pentecostal empowerment and into Tabernacle holiness.

To "speak" a prophetic word is relatively easy. To "live" as a prophetic word and signpost (Christ in us) is a different matter and the paradigm shift that many are sensing. Our willingness to see temptation as one of our greatest weapons for spiritual victory(as Christ did) will be paramount as the great harvest accelerates. Tremendous spiritual breakthroughs in the heavenly realm will compound and spread as a flaming fire through our embracing, recognition and conquering over temptation.

We need to be real and honest with ourselves in that we are certainly entering into various and intense trials in this winter season approaches. These trials and battles will be primarily waged within the confines of our own mind and fleshly desires. The kingdom of God is counting on the prophetic mandate to be released in the lands of the earth. The kingdom is counting on you! It is counting on you because you are intricately connected to others within the same collective body. With that said, others cannot and will not fulfill their destiny if the part BEFORE (FORERUNNERS) them is gangrenous and eaten up with guilt. In other words, if you are a prophetic "arm" that is polluted and weakened in sinful thoughts and actions – how well can we expect the "hand" and "shoulder" to fulfill their purpose? The Bible says, "that there is no greater sin than one who sins against his own body." Yes, the application of sexual sin is obvious. But, I believe a much larger picture is being drawn for us to see and realize -- My own "body" is also "YOU." When I compromise toward potential sin...I sin against you and hinder your spiritual destiny. Yes, we will stand alone before god. However, there is a corporate connecting and fitting of the body that is eternally permanent and one part impacts the other. Again, It will not be the words that we speak and write as much as the victory that we are willing to fight for in our battle with temptation that will change the atmosphere within the church and kindle the flames of God's presence.

When we came under the prophetic mantle, we came under a tremendous responsibility and stewardship to serve the Lord and His church. The prophetic anointing of today will affect the church in what we do behind closed doors as much as the words we speak. As a matter of fact, the words we write or speak (regardless of the content) will bear little to no fruit if we fail to overcome our constant rationalizations and subtle temptations. This is battle front that is raging in the spirit realm. The paradox is that we are waging war with weapons that are not carnal or seen as believers. However, the world and its lost can clearly see in the natural how we are warring and if we are winning. What they are seeing in our life will change their eternal destiny and give them hope and victory over sin through Christ -- our Captain of salvation.

What the Lord shared with me is astounding in that I understood the vitality and mission of the prophetic movement to change the spiritual environment of the church along with the sobering thought that my sinfulness today was likewise, a prophetic barometer of tomorrow's church.

The question we need to ask ourselves is this: "What am I "prophesying" today?" It will shape the spiritual landscape of tomorrow. You may have your own temptations that you are struggling with in this season. I encourage you to view them in a new light. Look at them as your opportunity to build and expand the kingdom through your victory over them. Your prophetic act of obedience and steadfastness to holiness today will prophesy a greater anointing of holiness in the church of tomorrow!

All articles by WaterMark Ministry may be reprinted in their entirety.

www.watermarkministry.injesus.com

www.watermarkministry.org

A Word For 2005

James Dickson

Over the past few months the Lord has been speaking to me quite extensively about this upcoming year, 2005. Many of it started in October when I was on my way home from a conference in Connecticut with my friend Shawn. We had gotten about an hour out of the way, lost, and had finally gotten ourselves straightened out. We were going through the back roads, some of the boonies of Maine outside of Portland. There wasn’t much life to be seen not a store or lights or homes. I was talking shortly with my friend Todd on my cell phone when I heard this loud humming/buzzing noise inside of my car, I turned to Shawn, and he gave me a somewhat freaked out look. The noise grew somewhat loud to the point where I couldn’t hear Todd anymore so I let him go. I immediately pulled the car over which happened to be just in front of the first sign of life, a store, all lit up nonetheless at around 11 o’clock at night. I stepped out of the car and the noise stopped immediately, I checked all the tires, popped the hood, checked my fender and everything seemed to be normal, but at the same time I knew without a doubt something spiritual was in affect, Shawn and I both agreed that was definitely the weirdest thing we had ever heard! We continued on and absolutely no noise occurred anymore. The Lord immediately gave me a download of what had just happened, this was the first eye opening word for this coming year the Lord has given me.

The store we had pulled in front of, all lit up for my eyes to notice was called "Tots to Teens, Kings and Queens", the store seemed to be a furniture refinishing, crafts type store and on the same lot was parking lot full of brand new cars for sale. Anyone catching on yet?

As we began to driveway I felt the voice of the Lord say, from the year 2000 to 2004 I have been raising up my toddlers of this generation, in 2004 my people have gone from the milk fed, crying, foundation searching, controlled toddlers to teens, free willed, hungry, independent, teens. Before we would believe anything people would tell us, and at times we seemed like the annoying two year old that repeated anything the person we looked up to said. We were milk fed, feeding off of the revelations of others, doing nothing to gain our own knowledge and revelation. But in 2004, the Lord brought us into what seems like our teenage years. Where we are seeking things for ourselves wanting to know more than what we have been told our whole lives, becoming rebellious to the tradition we have been so pressured under. 2004 has definitely been a year for the body to learn from its mistakes, just as in adult hood we will look upon our teenage years see the stupidity or our mistakes but at the same time to see how our entire live were shaped upon these years.

In 2005 the Lord is bringing his people out from the teenage years, and entering into the years of reigning, where we will be become Kings and Queens, walking in the authority we have been so destined to walk in. "Tots to teens, Kings to Queens".

How will we walk into our destiny? How will the believers learn their authority in 2005? It’s simple, they will learn to love. These three things remain, faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love. 2005 will be a year that our generation, the body of Christ will enter into a deep intimacy with the Lord. I’m not talking about an intimacy of 10 minutes in the morning praying and reading the word and saying "wow that is dedication God, you must now know I truly love you". What we have never understood but this year will, is that intimacy takes sacrifice, intimacy hurts, what was the cross all about? Intimacy. It’s a passionate intimacy. Why do you think Solomon warns us three times in the book of the Song of Songs "Oh, let me warn you, sisters in Jerusalem, by the gazelles, yes, by all the wild deer:

Don't excite love, don't stir it up, until the time is ripe--and you're ready.". There’s a reason why 15 year olds don’t get married, because that kind of sacrifice is too much for them. They are awakening intimacy before it is ready. In 2005 the people of God are going to come into a place of intimacy that has never been imagined before, along with this intimacy will come authority, with authority the signs and wonders, the supernatural realm.

I Corinthians 13:11

When I was an infant, I spoke as an infant, I thought as an infant, I reasoned as an infant. But when I became a man, I did away with the things of an infant.

For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall fully know even as I also am fully known. And now faith, hope, love, these three remain; but the greatest of these is love.

We have always seen the face of God through a reflection of a scuffed piece of metal barely able to make out his figure but now we will see him with a mirror as if we were face to face, like Moses would talk to God, I see kids spending so much intimate time in the presence of God in the mourning before school that they walk in and the kids throw a shirt over his face because the radiance of the Glory of God is too bright on them.

As we walk in the revelation of the face of God then we will even know who we are, we will know fully our authority, that we are cosigners, heirs to Christ, nothing can come against us.

No eye has seen no ear has heard the things that the Lord has in store for those who love him!

As we walk into this place of intimacy with the Lord we will surely see the atmosphere of heaven sweep through our schools, work, the government, the white house, through Baghdad, England, India, all the nations will turn to the Lord and see what great things he has done for us, the ones that love him.

The other part of this happening I had was that the cars, what’s with the cars! I felt like the Lord said the cars have never seen the market, those were cars no one has even thought of creating. Could it be I was gazing upon a store house of heaven? I felt as if the Lord said those cars are ministries, that will arise in 2005, those are just but a few of the ministries that will sweep the nations, and the great thing is they have already been financed we just gotta come pick up the keys and learn how to drive, which will come by the way of intimacy with the Lord, seek first the Kingdom and all these will be added on to you.

The Lord would also say to you that we have looked upon the prophets and seers, the pastors and evangelists. Jim Goll, Bob Jones, Dennis Cramer, Rick Joyner, Bobby Connor, and Shawn Bolz, etc. We look upon these forerunners and the thing that we don’t understand is that they are forerunners. Do you know what a fore runner is? Someone that is doing something before others will do it, but others will do it! They are trend setters world shapers, but they are a prototype of what the body will become. This generation will go twice as far as they have gone. Their supernatural happenings will become daily occurrences and 2005 will be the beginning of us seeing that in our lives.

There’s so much more the Lords has placed upon my heart for this year and I will share those things in the near future as the Lord continues to clarify his mysteries! But until then!

Bless you all in this coming new year
James Dickson
Rain Ministries
eastgaterain@hotmail.com
12/31/04

A Word For Ireland

Catherine Brown

March 17, 2005

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."
John 14:27 (NIV)

Whilst driving to the North East of Scotland the other day, I was enjoying a lovely time of fellowship with the Lord. I began to think about St. Patrick's Day (www.prayonstpatricksday.com) and asked the Lord for a word from His heart to help me pray for Ireland. The Lord replied, "Child, my word for Ireland is peace -- not politics, not platitudes, but My peace. Deep within the land of Ireland is an ancient mantle and gift for peace. I am bringing it forth."

[Politics - the principles relating to or inherent in a sphere or activity; especially when concerned with power and status. Platitude - n. a trite, obvious or insincere remark or statement.]

I then had a vision of the United Kingdom and Ireland, and the word Transformation was imprinted upon the land. God is building unity and will bring transformation (www.transformations-ireland.org).

Another vision appeared before my eyes as I saw angels wearing huge boots marching up and down on the land. The ground was shaking with the force of their marching. I asked Jesus where the angels were marching, and then I noticed a red hand under the angels. The angels were marching in Ulster! As I looked more closely, I noticed the hand had a number eleven (11) engraved on it.

The number eleven (11) is symbolic of the spirit of lawlessness (Lawlessness because of the eleven evil years that Kings Jehoiakim and Zedekiah reigned [II Kings 23:36; II Kings 24:18; II Chronicles 36:5; II Chronicles 36:11; Jeremiah 52:1]; Idolatry because of Micah's idol [Judges 17]; Bribery, seduction, and allurement because of Delilah and the eleven hundred shekels of silver from the Philistines [Judges 16:4-5]). The angels had been given their "marching orders" and were contending for peace in Ulster. The peace released in Ulster by the angels and the prayers of the saints will ricochet across the whole of Ireland.

(Ulster, a former province of north Ireland, in the 5th century A.D. was the most powerful of the five ancient kingdoms [see also Connaught, Leinster, Meath, Munster]).

I asked the Lord about Southern Ireland and He spoke to me of Dublin. I saw a river, which I believe is the site of ancient battles, and the Lord impressed to my spirit that He also desires to dispatch angels to this site. This is a place where repentance and reconciliation will release healing into the land.

I see a gathering of believers to intercede and praise into this situation. Pray that the land and the people will be healed from the battle scars of the Drogheda massacre (September 11, 1649) -- the killing of the defenders of Drogheda by the parliamentarians under Cromwell. Drogheda, a port north of Dublin, was occupied by English and Irish royalists who defied Cromwell's call to surrender.

Cromwell then stormed the town and ordered the killing of the 2,500 members of the garrison.

Pray for the church in Ireland to receive the gift of faith to believe that nothing is impossible with God. Even though Ireland has been torn apart over the centuries by conflict, Christ proclaims His peace! Jesus has deposited His peace in Ireland (we may pray this with faith as we receive it as the promise of John 14:27). Pray for unity between Northern and Southern Ireland.

"Many angels have been sent on assignment to Ireland, and many more are yet to be dispatched. Pray for a release of my angels in Ireland, for there is much work to be done. Thank Me for angels on assignment and for the promises of salvation. Pray for My Spirit to be poured out and for the spirit of lawlessness to be broken under My feet."

Prayers For Ireland

- Pray that the faith that St. Patrick had and the relationship with God that he enjoyed would become the norm on the island of Ireland and throughout the nations.
-
- Pray that the island of Ireland would be a welcoming place for the stranger and that many souls would be won to Christ through compassion and acts of love and hospitality.
-
- Pray that God would help His children all over the island to see themselves as they really are - i.e. in His image.
-
- Pray for the island of Ireland to come into the fullness of God's purpose.
-
- Pray for angels to be released on assignment to minister to all those who will receive salvation.
-
- Pray for the spirit of lawlessness to be bound and a spirit of peace in Christ to be released in the mighty name of Jesus.
-
- Declare that the Blood of Christ cleanses and heals the land and the people of Ireland.

Yours in Jesus' love,

Catherine Brown
Gatekeepers Prayer & Mission, www.gatekeepers.org.uk
Million Hours of Praise, www.millionhoursofpraise.com
Email: Catherine@gatekeepers.org.uk

All Who Are Bowed Down
Sandy Warner

Jun 13, 2005

ALL WHO ARE BOWED DOWN
Are you weary from your load? You have so many issues to juggle, and so much to do. Dear one, I see you bowed over from carrying so much upon your precious soul, body, and spirit. Lie prostrate before Me and let all your cares melt into the pool of My deepest tranquility. So broken, dear one, so broken. I understand and know everything which has torn and separated your very members. I will raise up everything which is bowed down. Trust Me to repair each thing and raise you up into a healthy place.

Ps 145:14 NKJV
The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

And Will You Remember Me?
Sandy Warner

Jun 15, 2005
AND WILL YOU REMEMBER ME?
When you fall, dear heart, and your knees are dirty and your heart is torn and your tears fall upon My lap…. I hold you and kiss you and speak to you tenderly. How I long that your heart and life would be healed and put back together again. How comforting it is to My own heart to be able to hold you so near and so intimately as you spill your brokenness out to Me. How I have longed for our fellowship to be this intimate. And My heart is comforted when I see you receive My loving embrace and that I can reach you. You forget I have been knocking on the door of your heart your whole life, merely waiting to be able to hold you as I am now. I treasure this, - our time together.

And My love, when your heart is healed and your life put back together again, and I send you out to play once again… will you remember Me? May I come too? May I enjoy your days and your productive projects with you? All I have ever wanted is to abide in you and you to abide in Me as we walk together through every day as One. Will you remember Me?

John 17:18-21 NAT
As you sent me into the world, I am sending them into the world. And I give myself entirely to you so they also might be entirely yours. I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me because of their testimony. My prayer for all of them is that they will be one, just as you and I are one, Father — that just as you are in me and I am in you, so they will be in us, and the world will believe you sent me.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Commanded A Blessing
Sandy Warner

Jun 20, 2005

COMMANDED A BLESSING
How good it is when My loved ones assemble and gather together as one. This unity happens when they form together as one body, and as one priest. This is similar to what I did with Aaron, whose mouth I anointed and filled to be a spokesman for Moses. A similar anointing dwells with each of My own as they each take their place to speak My Word in good season. They speak forth My Word in prayer, in song and in declaration. And when they share what I have done in their lives, their faith is projected and takes root in the people.

I always dwell in the midst of two or more people gathered together in My Name. How I long for this harmony to link, two by two until it fills the earth with My great love and bonded commitment to support one another in loving prayer and relationship!

Ps 133 NLT
How wonderful it is, how pleasant, when brothers live together in harmony! For harmony is as precious as the fragrant anointing oil that was poured over Aaron's head, that ran down his beard and onto the border of his robe. Harmony is as refreshing as the dew from Mount Hermon that falls on the mountains of Zion. And the LORD has pronounced his blessing.

Ps 133:3 NKJV
For there the LORD commanded the blessing — Life forevermore.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Fresh Start
Sandy Warner

Jun 19, 2005

FRESH START
Let no guilt or shame ever cloud your heart.
Always know you are set free for a brand new start.
Never busted, but rather readjusted is all that it takes.
For fresh beginnings and new starts in the plans that I make.
You are loved and kept and held and accepted.
Not scorned or thrown or put away rejected.
Take joy that in one moment of time from your choice.
With eyes that are wet and cheeks that are moist.
That lives change in the flash of My moment of truth.
Let Me set you free from all that is uncouth.

Poetry2Ponder are poems birthed out of intimacy with the Holy Spirit through yearnings of intercession. They are posted once a week.
Sandy Warner : swauthor@usa.net ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com
~ Permission given to forward or post. ~

My Friends Listen
Sandy Warner

Jun 24, 2005

MY FRIENDS LISTEN
A man is known by the Words he keeps. This is a hard truth dear ones, but understand the meaning. My friends listen to My Words and treasure them. He who hears and heeds you, My servant, also hears and heeds Me. If he treasures My Word, his heart is with Me. If he treasures your Words as being My servant, his heart is also with you. By this My friends are being increasingly known and manifested to each other. You shall know them and they shall know you. There will come a day when you will choose your friends as I do.

Luke 10:16 AMP
He who hears and heeds you [disciples] hears and heeds Me; and he who slights and rejects you slights and rejects Me; and he who slights and rejects Me slights and rejects Him who sent Me.

John 15:20-21 NKJV
Remember the word that I said to you,' A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

John 14:23-24 NKJV
Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Sprinkled With Merciful Prayers
Sandy Warner

Jun 17, 2005
SPRINKLED WITH MERCIFUL PRAYERS
I AM sprinkling you with mercy. I AM liberally salting you with the prayers to keep you, preserve you, establish you in your calling and destiny. And even as I do these things through My mercy, having received salt upon yourself, you too shall become salty and liberally shake yourself out upon others who need preservation. Your stand against sin will slow its growth. I have called you to preserve the world with your prayers. I will also salt you with a good testimony. As you share all that I have done in your life, you sprinkle that salt upon others. Let Me salt you liberally!

Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. (Mark 9:50)

Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one. NKJ (Colossians 4:6 NKJ)

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

To The Spiritual
Sandy Warner

Jun 22, 2005

TO THE SPIRITUAL
When you are employed in the world and have tasks to perform in your daily life, I ask that you do all things unto Me, for no matter what you are doing I am puzzling everything together and speaking through it. I connect everything in your life to have meaning and purpose. To the spiritual all things are spiritual. Nothing passes by unnoticed, dear one, not you, nor what you do on earth.

1 Cor 2:13-14 KJV
Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Washed Clean And Holy
Sandy Warner

Jun 26, 2005

WASHED CLEAN AND HOLY
Oh God deliver your child from the weeds and tares
Where they lurk and he feels that they are always there.
Separate them from his life. Help him not despair.
Uproot the shackles from the pain of sin and care.

Break the dominion of the temptation and lure
Consecrate his body, soul and spirit pure.
Wash him in my mind, make him stable and sure.
Honor him for all the temptation he's endured.

Generations of sin are harvested to go.
Release him from the memory of having known.
He is fighting for his blood line of progeny shown.
What he overcomes they will never have to moan.

Empower his will to stand strong and obey.
Fortify him set, there is no other way.
Righteous and faithful let him always say
That his heart is set and he is OK.

My child, my child, you have held on for so long.
You are forgiven and clean from all the wrong.
Come to Papa, let Me hold you, for you belong.
I sing over you with My heavenly song.

Each tear is so precious as I hold each one
You are set aside holy, your destiny begun
Let My peace carry you as you're set to run
The crown that was stolen is returned and won.

Authority and dominion are given to you.
To root out, tear down and consecrate too.
I send you in tears to wash away filth.

Brokenness being your weapon of stealth.

Saturate the ground of stubborn hard soil
>From all that has striven and all that has toiled.
Softened and gentle, with you I am well pleased.
The tares come up and uproot with great ease.

I bow low and listen to your words of prayer.
I linger to hear everything that you share.
I wait until your last word is spoken
You are My delight, you are My token.

Set apart for My work, set aside for Me
I will carry you in to your destiny.
I AM the One that you really long for.
I will never leave you and I will never ignore.

I want to touch you and caress you My Child.
With My Presence I linger and will never shun.
Low I AM with you always, to the ends of the earth.
Replace sorrow and mourning with My joy and girth.

Ps 126:5-6 NKJV
Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Poetry2Ponder are poems birthed out of intimacy with the Holy Spirit through yearnings of intercession. They are posted once a week.
Sandy Warner : swauthor@usa.net ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com
~ Permission given to forward or post. ~

A Word Delivered In The US
Robert I Holmes

In June 2005, I was preaching at a prophetic conference in Olympia, Washington with Julia Mason and Kurt Pfanstiel. Prior to the meetings, I was asking the Lord about the nation, the prophetic, the church. Here is part of what I shared.

1. Jezebel is not the issue

Jezebel is only mentioned once in the New Testament. But how many books are written on her? Balaam rates at least three mentions and gets no books at all. The Lord wants us not only to look at the problem but at what God might want you to do about it. It may be standing like Elijah, and confronting her. But it may be to help hide the prophets. Obadiah served Ahab in the palace, but he took a chance to hide the prophets, 50 to a cave and fed them bread and water. The prophetic is re-emerging, and the Lord is asking local fellowships and congregations to hide the prophets, to provide a place of restoration.

2. Don't cut class

When I landed in the US this year, I heard the Lord say, "The church is playing Hookie". Now in Australia, this is not a familiar term. I needed to ask my hosts what Hookie meant. But upon examination, it is clear, the church has been skipping (cutting) class. What is the curriculum of the Lord in this hour? I believe the Spirit has been training us on apostles and prophets; fathers and sonship, community and love. We have got to stop cutting class. Training involves education, yes training but it also involves tutorials - practicals and outworkings. I think we are avoiding the pain of working this out in the earth. Community is not sentiment, it is not nice theology. It is blood, sweat and tears, joy, love and rejoicing.

I had a beautiful dog, Tess who lived with us on our farm. She snarled at my daughter. She hassled my neighbour, baked all night, chased rabbits and was getting crotchety. But one day she bit my son. I had to put her down, she had to go, for the sake of community. But I was not going to let a vet do the job. I had to shot her myself. It was one of the most difficult acts of love I ever did.

3. Use things for what they were made for

I had a dream some months ago in which I was sitting in a car with my spiritual father John Alley. We were driving through his town, Rockhampton. We got stuck in an alley, and did not know the way forward. He sent me to get a map, so I went out in the rain, on a skateboard, going the wrong way up a street. I got the map, and woke up. But as I came to, the Spirit said this audibly: "In the days ahead, you have to use things for what they were made for". Using things properly - that's the current call of God. But do we really know the proper use of a prophet for example? Are they really supposed to go down a line giving good words? How are they to partner with apostles? What does fathering really look like? In the days ahead we need to find out how to use things properly - refer to the manufacturers guide book.

4. Lessons in the blessing and the curse

I had a vision of two boats. One was in harbour, the other was out on the high seas. Both these boats had a problem. The one in harbour was loaded and ready to go. The weather was clear, the navigator had checked co-ordinates. But they had not left. The one on the open seas was labouring under a heavy load, a storm was coming and it was foundering. She needed to abandon her project, she needed to cast the cargo overboard.

Two problems, both with boats and oceans. One needs to get on the journey, get on with life, stop being intimidated by circumstance - or whatever holds you back. The second was striving under impossible circumstances, and needed to let go of it's mission. Like Paul's boat leaving harbour - was driven by a majority rule (Acts 27:12). It was labouring hard in a storm (vs14). They began to throw cargo overboard (vs18), and eventually ran aground to save the lives of people (vs26).

The issue is this - the captains of each boat would not do well advising one another. God's will for each was different. Your brothers presumption does not speak to the fact that you are resting in harbour. Your brothers laziness does not speak to your need to slow down, and save lives. We need to judge our own behaviour, conduct and progress by the standard for our own lives.

5. Are you happy with your harvest?

One question the Lord asked me (for myself) was relating to my productivity. He appointed us to good works (Eph. 2:10). He has put seed into your hand (2 Cor. 9:10), and he has decreed a field for you to work (2 Cor. 10:13). He asked me, "Are you happy with your harvest?" This question contains the thought that I have seed, and have applied myself to a field. But have I reviewed the harvest? Have I recognised the wheat, the tares, the age of the crop. Do I know if it is 30, 60 or 100 fold?

Then He revealed the real reason behind it. This reaping and sowing is a partnership between He and I. "Where is the return on my investment?" God invested a life seed in me. He has placed a life message, resources appropriate to the advancement of the kingdom in this time. He did not give it for my sake, nor even for the lost or the church. He gave it for himself. He bestowed the talent, and wishes to see the return - at least an interest return if not a full harvest! Is He happy with your harvest? What is downstream from your life, fruit or shipwreck? If fruit, what kind, and how much?

6. Where do you live?

Part of the answer to this intense question relates to where you live. You prophesy from the place where you live. The word you try to bring comes out of the atmosphere and environment you dwell in. There is such a dichotomy nowadays between where people daily live and the realm into which they wish to speak. Do you think you can live a prayerless life, read trashy women's magazines, watch TV, eat too much and then seek to prophesy over the internet (or over nations)? Do you think you can play with drugs, smoke, drink and play the harlot with lust then minister on Sunday?

You'll not address kings and leaders if your table manners resemble the animals you own (Prov. 22:30). You'll not rise and raise the dead, if you can not rise and walk the dog. "Do you see those who are skillful in their work? they will serve kings; they will not serve common people" (Prov. 22:29).

References

Jackson, JP. "Unmasking the Jezebel Spirit". Mason, Julia. "What is Your Environment?" Audio message, Olympia 2005. Pfanstiel, Kurt. "What are you willing to drop?" Audio message, June 2005.

A Word of Encouragement

Musa Opiyo

Hello all,
While going about doing my daily chores, the Lord planted the following word into my heart that I feel will bless and encourage you,
Be blessed and encouraged :)
Musa.

"My grace supersedes all your shortcomings and your failures. The Lord would say that indeed many of you have come under a spirit of condemnation that would point at your weaknesses and faults and say that you have missed the mark. That you cannot live the life that I have called you to live. No says the Lord, of yourself you cannot live and fulfill that which I have called you to be and do but because of the blood of My son upon you, you are washed, sanctified and called into My presence as My own. What the flesh cannot do My grace has accomplished. That is why I said My grace is sufficient for you. However My grace is so sufficient that it gives you a chance to repent of your sin and make things right with Me. My grace is not an excuse to fall into that which I have delivered you from and called you out of. You are a righteous generation of holy people whom I have called to shine forth My light through your vessels.

I AM your Justification. Do not let the accuser of the brethren sidetrack you into a place of no return. My grace allows for you to have a second chance, even a third, a fourth, a fifth, as many times as you will come to Me. Like clay on a potters wheel so you are in My hand. I am working in and around you to shape you into My image. I have tailor made your situations to shape your future. I have began the work and therefore I will complete that transformation. As you look to Me, you will see that transformation happen like the metamorphosis of a caterpillar to a butterfly. Be encouraged little one. Raise high those hands that hang low. My strength is made perfect in your weakness. You have and will overcome all that has been sent to beset you because of My name and My seal upon you."

Let us then with boldness come before him just as we are and let him do the work in us.
Be blessed and encouraged,
Always seeking his presence,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

A Warning On Partial Obedience

Judy Curmi

2-27-2005

I saw the head of a great lion and he was wearing a gold and jeweled crown. Instead of the crown being upright, however, it was tilted at an angle. Then the Lion said:

There are some men who are willing to make me total Lord in their lives, but there are others who are not. They give me partial obedience, but their hearts are not wholly given to me.

I call you this day children to give me your total obedience, not partial obedience or conditional obedience, for the days that lie ahead will be serious indeed. You must give me your total obedience or I will not be able to give you the protection that I desire for what lies ahead.

Later in the day I was shown a picture of Goshen. This was the place in Egypt where the children of Israel were protected when God brought His judgments against Pharaoh and the Egyptians. Goshen is a picture for us today of the hidden place or the place of immunity. It is the place of total obedience and total protection.

Psalm 91, the great Biblical Psalm of protection and deliverance, is for those who trust in and abide under the shadow of the wings of the Almighty. Either you TRUST or you do not. Either you ABIDE under those wings, or you do not.

If you are not residing in Goshen… if you are not abiding under the wings of the Almighty… then you are not in the place of immunity and you will not be protected. It will be your lack of obedience that will be your down fall, as it was for those who did not reside in Goshen.

Put another way, after the escape from Egypt during the time of Moses, when the cloud moved in the desert, the children of Israel were to obey and move also. If they followed, they were protected. If they refused to move, they were no longer under the protective covering of the Almighty, for the cloud had left and gone elsewhere.

A Wake Up Call

Musa Opiyo

August 13, 2005

Vision:
I saw a group of people milling around and then suddenly a cobra springs from the ground and starts spitting poison into their eyes. This poison solidifies and forms a hard coating such that the people seeing anything around them. They started staggering about and I could tell they were in a lulled and very passive state until finally, one by one, under a strange drowsiness, fell down to sleep. Then I hear the sound of a shofar blowing and the sound of it shatters the solidified mass of poison on the peoples eyes and they shatter, sirens go off which rouse the people from their sleep and onto their feet.

Interpretation:

A complacent spirit has been released for some time now upon the people of God, and to those who have been open to it have been lulled into a spiritual sleep where their interest in the things of God have diminished, their prayer life has been greatly affected and some just do not see the need to give God the praise and glory he deserves.

But the Lord is giving a wake up call to those caught in complacency to 'wake up'. God is not looking for a lukewarm bride but an 'on-fire-for-God' Bride. He is releasing new Holy Spirit passion zeal for his presence and his fresh workings amongst us. Let us repent of all complacency and lukewarmness and come boldly into the throneroom of grace and receive fresh vision. Let us not forget our First Love. For he who has called you is called Faithful and True.

Word:
I hear the Lord saying, Awaken, sons and daughters of God, for this is truly the hour when I will move to shake heaven and earth through those vessels that will open up and receive from Me. Release the sound of your praises and see the eyes opening before you. For this is a crucial time of war in the heavenlies. As light contends against darkness, I have a remnant who burn with My Fire and My Zeal. Let My Consuming Fire burn in and through you to change the atmosphere about you, for this is the day of new beginnings, of a new work coming forth. Let your hearts say yes and amen, for this is a special time says the Lord.

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

Accept Your Assignment In Faith And Trust

Betty Heimbach

November 3, 2005

My children,

“Come to Me, seek Me and I will enable you minute by minute to be everything that I, the Lord, your God have called you to be.

“Do not be dismayed over what may appear to be failure. Don’t be alarmed over anyone’s reactions to what you do and say. Keep seeking me first in all things. Let Me be your guide and your rear guard. Don’t look at the situation and think that you have failed because things are not working out perfectly according to your expectations. My plan is still in operation. My plan is going forth.

“Don’t ever try to prove yourself to anyone. Don’t worry about pleasing people instead seek to please me every day and I’ll prove the reality of My work in you to others.

“Don’t defend yourselves, or try to prove that you are right, or prove that you are Mine. I, the Lord will be your defense to others. I will defend you – if you allow Me to do the work. But I will not, I cannot do it if you are doing it yourself. I will not step in to take up your cause and defend you if you are busy defending yourselves.

“Think on these things. Ponder My words. Know this, know that I gave you the job you have. I put you in your neighborhood, I sent you to the church you are in specifically to accomplish My purposes for you and in those people at that place. Don’t doubt that I am able to work in every situation to bring about My will. I will bring good out of your present circumstance. Blessings are in store for you. There are blessings ahead. My plans for you are good - the best!

Know that you are My agent - sent there to do My will, sent there to speak My word and sent there to demonstrate My love, My forgiveness and My compassion.   Know and believe that I did this. I gave you the job. I knew who else would work there and what they would need. Believe it. I sent you to the neighborhood in which you live. I knew the people who were already there in need of your witness, your example. Believe that you are there “on assignment” and seek Me for how to fulfill that mission. You will accomplish much and walk in great joy.

“Act and live as if you are truly My ambassadors, My agents - wherever you are- because you are. Act as if whether at home, on your job, out shopping – wherever – that place is your mission field, because it is. Live your life in such a way that whomever you meet, whoever is around you, will see Jesus in you. Live in such a way that Holy Spirit may speak through you at anytime He chooses to anyone around you.

“Then in every situation, in every decision, ask for My direction. Look into My Word, listen for My voice, look at the example of Jesus throughout My word. Then follow His example, say only what you hear Me, the Father say, do only what you see Me, your Father doing. Crucify your flesh, deny yourself, your rights, your feelings, and your own ideas and submit to Me and My plan and My way. Then you will walk in victory. You will walk in peace.

“Be like Nehemiah and keep doing the work that I have put in your hands to do. Don’t be distracted by others who want to hinder you, or stop you from doing what you are doing to help build My kingdom on the earth.”

Ps. 94:22 But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge.
Ps. 7:10 My defense and shield depend on God, who saves the upright in heart.
Ps. 62:2 He alone is my rock and my salvation; He is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.
Ps. 59:9b, 17 for God is my defence. Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing; for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.
Luke 12:11b Do not worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say; for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what you ought to say.

May you know God's presence and His keeping power every day.

Are You Born Again or Just Saved?
Elena Gonzalez

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and [of] the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. John 3:1-5

Most Christians totally misunderstand the words of Jesus in this passage. They assume that they are born again because they are partakers of the common salvation through faith in the atoning work of Jesus Christ. These Christians (evangelicals, charismatics and pentecostals) hang their hopes on going to heaven when they die and they see the promise of that in this passage. In fact, this “promise” is the chief motivating factor, along with the fear of eternal damnation, in going to the altar.

When Jesus said that unless you are born again you cannot see the kingdom of God, he was not saying, as most assume, that the reward for being born again is to one day see the kingdom of God. The key word is cannot (to be unable or incapable) as opposed to shall not. It was not a promise to be fulfilled in the future but a statement of a current reality. This is a crucial distinction. What he was saying was that seeing the kingdom of God is the proof that one is indeed born again. It is the very definition of being born again.

At best, what the great majority of Christians have experienced is the salvation of their spirits. One must be born again in order to go beyond the common salvation and to enter the kingdom of God where the mind, the emotions, the will and the body are transformed through submission to His dominion. To be born of God or born again is to begin seeing the way God sees, thinking the way He thinks. Without being born again, you will not be able to perceive the spiritual reality of the kingdom of God within you.

The kingdom of God or the kingdom of heaven (and both terms are used to describe the same reality) is not a location, a destination or something that is reserved for a future reign of Christ. It is all about His reign in you in the here and now. What confuses many are scriptures such as the following:

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. I Cor 15:50

I want to first deal with the word inherit. The carnal mind is a sly and slippery thing. We all know that in the natural you inherit something when a loved one dies if he included you in his will. The death that triggers the inheritance is the death of the testator, not the death of the heir. Why is it then that when it comes to our spiritual inheritance our carnal mind is programmed to unthinkingly and automatically place the attainment of the inheritance in an afterlife? We look at this scripture, identify ourselves with “flesh and blood” and assume that we need to wait until we die to come into our inheritance.

But what is Paul referring to when he uses the term “flesh and blood” in the scripture above? To understand the term we need to go back to John. Among the New Testament writers, John had the fullest understanding of what it means to be born of God. (See 1 John especially 3:9 and 5:18 to give yourself something to ponder.)

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, [even] to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. John 1:12-13

Those who “receive” him are born of God and their identity and life source are no longer in the adamic flesh and blood. To receive is defined as: to take up with the hand or lay hold of any person or thing in order to use it, to take up a thing to be carried, to take upon oneself. When you are born of the water (the germinating Word of God) and the Spirit you experience a change of identity, paternity and life source. You are truly a new creation. This goes far beyond merely believing that Jesus died 2000 years ago to pay the price for you to go to heaven after you die. Being a new creation goes beyond cleaning up your act by giving up all the things religion condemns. You cannot truly receive him now if you are waiting for him to appear in the sky. Do you see how the doctrines of man rob the people of God not only of their birthright, just as Jezebel robbed Naboth, but of their very identity as sons?

The system of religion tries everything in its power to prevent the conception of born again sons. It does this “spiritual contraception” by teaching lies and programming Christians to reject the spiritual Word, which is the supernatural seed of God that engenders sonship. (It is interesting to note how the religious system gets very judgmental and self-righteous about those things in the natural -- contraception, abortion, fornication, adultery -- that it is guilty of in the spirit. Which transgressions do you imagine are worse, the natural or the spiritual, in the eyes of God?)

In order to bring to pass His glorious plan of redeeming the creation from the bondage of death, God had to set aside for Himself a first fruits company of sons, the predestinated elect of God, in whom He is replicating His mind, His personality and the divine genetics that He created in the beginning. These are truly born again because they see with anointed eyes the unfolding of the kingdom of heaven within themselves. As God’s dominion unfolds in our heavenlies, it will begin manifesting in our earthly dimension: our physical bodies. It is then that the creation will begin to see a body of people who are walking in the fullness of salvation: spirit, soul and body.

Elena Gonzalez
elenagon777@netzero.com

Are You Being Attacked

Jane Williams

Jane Williams
Aug 17, 2005

"Are You Being Attacked Right After Doing Deeds Of Faithfulness? God Is Simply Moving You On!"

After Our Deeds of Faithfulness
"After these deeds of faithfulness (on the part of King Hezekiah), Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them to himself." II Chronicles 32:1, NKJV

Hezekiah had indeed accomplished many "deeds of faithfulness" since becoming king. He had cleansed and repaired the temple and re-instituted regular worship. He had organized a national Passover celebration, of which it was said, "since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there has been nothing like this in Jerusalem" (II Chronicles 30:26, NKJV). He so stirred the people that they tore down the pagan altars in Jerusalem and the surrounding region, and they brought such abundant offerings that rooms had to be prepared in the temple to receive them (II Chronicles 30:14; 31:1,11).

Judah, Hezekiah's tribe, had also done many "deeds of faithfulness." They, in particular, had responded to Hezekiah's call for reform. Though other tribes had mockers in their midst, "the hand of the Lord was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, at the word of the Lord" (II Chronicles 30:12).
"The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced" during the Passover celebration (II Chronicles 30:25). The people of Judah tore down all the wooden images in their midst and brought tithes in abundance to the temple in Jerusalem (II Chronicles 31:1,6).

Then we read the verse at the top of the page: "After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah." Sennacherib didn't come to the half-hearted tribes. King Sennacherib came to Judah where the people had been exceptionally faithful. Isn't this often our own experience in the body of Christ? Satan seems to attack most frequently those most faithful to God. As we have all heard it said, he doesn't bother those who are no threat to him.

But, God never lets Satan (or King Sennacherib) have the last word. We read of some amazing things occurring in II Chronicles 32, after King Sennacherib makes his threats. As I list them below, my hope is that they will encourage anyone who is experiencing "enemy invasion" in their life "after deeds of faithfulness."

"God is Simply Moving You On!"

First, we see that Sennacherib's arrival got Hezekiah and Judah moving. They couldn't just sit and enjoy the afterglow of the wonderful Passover celebration or glory in the abundance of tithes and offerings brought in. They had to fortify themselves.

Here are some of the verses that follow with some suggestions for application in our day:

1) Hezekiah consulted with his leaders and mighty men (II Chronicles 32:3).

Application: Enlisting the help of others; team ministry.

2) They stopped up the water that ran through the land so that the enemy wouldn't have it available to him (II Chronicles 32:3).

Application: Not strengthening the enemy in any way (negative statements, gossip, divisiveness).

3) Hezekiah "strengthened himself" (II Chronicles 32:5).

Application: Personal time with God.

4) They "built up the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall" (II Chronicles 32:5).

Application: Working to create a "safe" environment; enhancing security through strengthening relationships, repairing breeches.

5) They repaired the Millo (literally landfill; according to The Bible Dictionary, thought to be a tower or bastion filling of some weak part of the wall) (II Chronicles 32:5).

Application: Special attention given to weak areas.

6) They "made weapons and shields in abundance" (II Chronicles 32:5).

Application: Steeping ourselves in the Word of God.

7) Hezekiah set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement" (II Chronicles 32:6).

Application: Encouraging others and ourselves in our callings, speaking faith to one another.

All this happened because the enemy came. And then it gets better. As Sennacherib makes terrible threats, Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah "prayed and cried out to Heaven" (II Chronicles 32:20). "Then the Lord sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land." II Chronicles 32:21

Are you being attacked "after deeds of faithfulness"? God is simply moving you on. He is working a deeper work in you -- things that wouldn't have been accomplished if the enemy had not come. Be encouraged. Respond as King Hezekiah and the people of Judah did when they were in this place. The outcome for you will be the same as in their day.

Do what you know to do, pray and cry out. Angels are waiting even now to be dispatched to you.

by Jane Williams
Awaken the Day
www.awakentheday.com

Copyright © 2005 Jane Williams

Are You Cleaving To Me?
Lanna Perry

chosenwarriorprincess@yahoo.com.au
2nd October, 2005

> Serve only the Lord your God and fear Him alone. Obey His commands, listen to His voice, and cling to Him - Deuteronomy 13:4 NLT

My Precious church, I adore you. I delight in you, and I have called you My own. I love to hear your prayers to Me, and I love to answer your prayers. Yes, I love to answer that which you ask. You may not always receive the answers that you desire, but know that I am working for you best, My church. I will always bring the best out of your lives and out of your situations, for My Glory.

My church, things are changing rapidly. A great shifting is taking place not only in the physical realm but also spiritually. The situations that surround you My church, within the world, are not going to get any easier. The only thing that you have to stand on is Me. I am the only sure foundation. When everything else crumbles around you, I am the only One who is your sure foundation.

With disasters upon the earth, and the uncertainty and instability of the world and all the world calls stable, is now increasing, I have called you My church to be My friends. To be close to Me and to listen to Me.

Cleave to Me, My church. There is nothing else that will sustain you, and fulfill you, than Me. I have called each of you to cleave to Me alone. Because of fear, and insecurity many are cleaving to things not of Me. Are they stable church? Are they your Rock? Your sure foundation? Surely not!!!! Only I, the Lord your God, am your safe foundation, and Rock in these times and times to come.

It is only I, that will hide you in the cleft of the Rock when the wind rages around each of you My church. The time of greater deception is closer than many realise. It is time for My church to wake up and slumber no more. Slumber no more. Wake up, and through cleaving to Me, I will show you what is to come, and what is happening around you. For there is spiritual significance to every physical event on this earth.

Come to Me now My church, and find your rest in Me. Through such turbulent times that are upon you now, and are to come, come and cleave to Me. Do not cleave to anything else but Me. Learn to rest in Me, learn to take your seat in Me, because if you do not, you will not survive what is to come.

Shake off fear My church. Do not be fearful of the events around you, but stand tall in confidence, the confidence of knowing that you are cleaved to the Almighty God, and I will continue to give you the strength to stand.

If you continue to slumber My church, you will be awakened by a great disaster that will take you off guard, and you will not be able to stand. You will be devoured.

My church, cleave to Me. What happens when you cleave to Me? You are close to Me, your head on My chest, and you hear My heart. Cleaving to Me, you will always be stable and be prepared for all that is to come. Never unprepared, but always prepared in Me, for My Spirit prepares and builds those who cleave to Me. I love you My church, I love you.

People of Love
Lanna Perry

Tuesday, 27th September

"I am giving you a new commandment; love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other" – John 13:34

My love is like no other. There is none that loves you as much as I love you My church. There is none that delights in you as much as I do My church. There is none that cares for you as much as I do My church. There is none that longs to see you grow, as much as I do My church.

I have such great plans for My church. I have such great plans for you. My church has been spotted and speckled. My church is not shining in the brightness of holiness that I have called it too. I am saddened by this.

My church, I love each of you more than anyone ever has or will. It is My love that reaches those deep places within each of you that needs to be reached. It is My love that brings each of you deep confidence in who I am, and who you are in Me. It is My love, that brings redemption, that brings life. It is My love for each of you My church, was the motivation of the cross. Because I loved each of you so much, that I wanted you to be saved, and spend eternity with Me.

What have I commanded from My church? Love Me with all your heart, all your soul and all your mind, and then what? Love one another. Yes, My church, love one another.

For I look at My church, I do not see love flowing amongst My children. I see envy, I see jealousy, I see bitterness, I see unforgiveness, I see slander, and I see criticism. These are not fruits of My Spirit. This is not the fruit of My love.

I continue to see backbiting and knives being thrown into the hearts and backs of many of My people. My precious church, this is not My heart. I have not called you to hate each other and treat each other this way. I have called you to love each other. With My love. Would My love do this to you? Surely not!

Repent of your attitudes, your actions and your words towards each other My church. For love is wanting what is best for another, and many are not walking in love. Many are walking in things not of Me.

Many are allowing the enemy to divide through them, than allowing My Spirit to unite others. My church, you are called to reach the world for Me. You are called to pour out My love to those who don't know Me, as well as those who do.

How will you reach the world with My love, if you cannot love your brothers and sisters?

My church, repent. Repent for your hardness of heart. Repent for allowing division to come to My church through your lack of love for each other.

There is so much jealousy in My church. Why? Because many are wounded and do not know who they are in Me. Do not compete with each other, but rise up and unite together. Truly love each other.

My church, I love you. I have offered you My heart and My love to reach out to others. Reach out and allow My love to flow through each of you.

Death is coming to My church through My children turning on each other. No more. No more My church. Walk as people of great love.

For as you spend time in My love, you will be seen as people who truly love one another. As you abide in My love alone, and reach out to all those around you, you will then see others be attracted to you, for the love inside you. My love inside you.

The world will never be attracted to hatred, bitterness, unforgiveness and slander. They can get this in the world My church. Oh My precious church, listen to My voice.

Love one another. Come into My light and let Me show you My love. Let Me transform each of you in My love. Let Me mould each of you in My love. Let Me show you how to keep check that you are continually loving one another.

Let the light of My Spirit bring up all weeds within your hearts that are bringing corruption and divisiveness to My church.

Rise Up in love My church. Rise Up in My love. Walk as I walked, and talk as I talked, then freedom and love will flow from within My house, out to the world.

Accelerating Your Destiny

Claire Lampan

God Is Accelerating Your Destiny On An Open Road

“I will take you where angels fear to tread; where grown men have stumbled and gone astray. As you stay close to me I will guide and direct your path; stay close to me. Listen for my voice at every junction before you venture out on the “open road”. The sign posts will be there, you must seek and you shall find; do not rush and miss them, but do not stand and dwell beneath them.

You are about to enter the open road; be alert; be ready to accelerate as the road allows, be ready to negotiate each bend with care. Is anything too difficult for me? I will make the crooked path straight when I release my favor, my increase; “kairos” will be a living experience for you, what was crooked will become straight.

I am accelerating your destiny; time is the essence and the essence is time. Do not fear the unknown, this is a road of opportunity and it is “open” for you. Just listen at the junction, and then move out.

You must listen at the junction for directions. Do not fear the danger of colliding with other traffic on the open road. No one has traveled this open road before, only I. The danger is not in collision but in moving off course. I have set your course. I will then direct you into the paths of righteousness; the path awaits you; take courage my child, step out.

I will wipe every tear, hear every plea and every longing will be realized as you align your hearts desires with mine.

Glory is mine; honor and glory are mine; release my honor and my glory to my children. As you see healing in your own family, minister healing to my body. The remedy is not a repeat prescription but a cure.

Trust me once more my child; I want to bless you beyond measure, beyond limits, beyond expectations, and beyond.”

Claire Lampan
claire@thesecondcall.org
Center for Revival Studies
Wales – Argentina – United States

Are You Having An Identity Crisis?

Francis Frangipane

As Christians our faith tells us that Christ died as payment for our sins. We believe He actually rose from the grave as proof that He was, indeed, sent by God. Yet, it is also our conviction that, upon this resurrection event, not only were the sins of mankind atoned for but, through Christ, a second Genesis began.

Paul explains, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit" (1 Cor 15:45). The word Adam means "man" and is representative of "mankind." There are now two Adams or two species of man. The first species of man is the descendant of sinful Adam. His life orbits around his carnal or "natural" desires. He carries both the DNA of Adam's nature and the consequences of Adam's sin. This natural man is focused upon fulfilling the needs of his soul. He is, indeed, a "living soul," but he is controlled by fears, physical needs, intellect boundaries, cultural environment and sin.

The second species or race of man is Spirit-centered. His thoughts, dreams and experiences originate primarily from the Holy Spirit, who lives in union with him. The highest aspiration of the Spirit-centered man is not on attaining natural successes, but upon attaining conformity to Christ. While the first man lives to experience what the world around him can give him, the last species of man, the Christ-man, lives for what he can give to the world: He is a "life-giving spirit." The first Adam engendered descendants with problems; the spiritual descendants of the last Adam, Christ, provide the world with answers.

New Creatures

While men divide over many things - culture, skin color, language or social status - from God's view mankind is only truly divided into two subsets: those controlled by their souls and those controlled by the Holy Spirit. One race is dead in sin; the other is alive in Christ. One species of man is destined to perish; the other will live forever. Just as the first Adam passed sin, weakness and death to his children, so the second Adam, Christ, passes virtue, power and eternal life to the children of God.

"Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come" (2 Cor 5:17).

"For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation" (Gal 6:15).

We are not merely men of flesh temporarily acting spiritual, but we are spiritual beings temporarily living as men of flesh. If you have received Christ into your life, you are part of the second Genesis. You possess a new nature which, like Christ's, shall live forever.

Identity Crisis

Yet, too many of us suffer from an "identity crisis." We are confused about who we really are. We attend church, but internally we are still deeply identified with the traits and expectations of the first Adam. Paul rebuked the church in Corinth, which suffered with fleshy attitudes, saying "are you not walking like mere men? (1 Cor 3:3).

Hear me well: If you have received Christ, you are no mere mortal. The very same power that raised Christ from the dead, abides also in you. While you may experience many of the same trials that the descendants of the first Adam face, you are buoyed by God's Spirit as He faithfully works all things for good in your life. On the other side of your trials is not death, but resurrection!

"But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who indwells you" (Rom 8:11).

We may look human, but abiding within us is a treasure more valuable the earth itself: resurrection power.

"And God raised Him up again, putting an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in its power" (Acts 2:24). Just as it was impossible for death to hold Christ in the grave, so it is impossible for the substance of "death" still in us - our sins and failures - to hold Him as well. Christ conquers death as readily as light drives out darkness. Indeed, in all things we are "more than conquerors through Him who loved us" (Rom 8:37 NIV).

Seated With Christ

As I was engaged in a particular struggle, a friend asked me, "How are you doing under the circumstances?" I answered, "I'm not under the circumstances; I'm seated with Christ in heavenly places. My Father is God. There is no weapon formed against me that can prosper. I'm born again from above, a new creation; I am a partaker of the Divine nature."

Everything I answered came directly from God's word and represents the reality granted me by faith in God's promises. Faith unlocks the power of God's promises. So, beloved friend, you are not under circumstances or "the weather," or pressures or curses; you are alive together with Christ (Col 2), and positioned in the shelter of God's domain. Yes, we face conflict, which God uses to perfect our character, but He also "always leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place" (2 Cor 2:14).

Beloved, if you are not using God's word to define and shape your spiritual identity, you will, in fact, be under circumstances and clouded by the oppression that abides on the first Adam. You may still be a Christian, but you will suffer from your identity crisis. This is why Paul said, "put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth" (Eph 4: 24). You must accept, believe, and then apply the word of God until you are fully established as a new creation.

"Those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren" (Rom 8:29).

This quest to walk in your new nature is the crux of your primary battles in life. This is not just a war between your virtue and your vices. No, it is a war between your identity after the flesh and your true identity as a new creature in Christ. "Faith," John tells us, "is the victory that overcomes the world" (1 John 5:4). You are a citizen of a new realm. As such, you must learn the customs and understand the language. In the kingdom of God, everyone believes what God says about them. When God speaks, His words create realities. Our faith accepts the grace and truth of God's word and, in so doing, our lives are transformed.

Yes, we will still fail, but Christ is greater than our failings. True, we will still err, but in all things God works good. Indeed, we pass through hard experiences that God uses to conform us to the character of His Son (see Phil 3:10), yet He also brings us through such things so we can possess the power of Christ's resurrection!

Consider Paul's analysis of his personal journey:

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and delivered Himself up for me" (Gal 2:20).

Again, he wrote:

"Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day" (2 Cor 4:16).

Let us ask ourselves, is our spiritual consciousness focused upon what is inwardly "decaying" or are our hearts lifted to that which is "being renewed day by day"? Are we living as mere men or as new creatures fashioned after the likeness of Christ? Would you agree that it is time to get over your identity crisis?

Lord, forgive me for dwelling in the basement of my old nature rather than the penthouse of Your love and promises. You have chosen me to reveal Your life, You've given me Your Holy Spirit and spoken to me through Your word. I am Your child, born from above and destined to inherit Your glory. I worship You, my Lord and King.

Two Things Only
Francis Frangipane

There are so many things to occupy our minds: so many books, so many examples, so many good teachings that deserve our attention, that say, "here is a truth." But, as I have been serving the Lord these past years, He has led me to seek for two things and two things only: to know the heart of God in Christ and to know my own heart in Christ's light.

Knowing the Heart of God

I have been seeking God, searching to know Him and the depth of His love toward His people. I want to know Christ's heart and the compassions that motivate Him. The Scriptures are plain: Jesus loved people. Mark's gospel tells us that after He taught and healed the multitudes, they became hungry. In His compassion, Christ saw them as "sheep without a shepherd" (Mark 6:34). It was not enough for Him to heal and teach them; He personally cared for each of them. Their physical well-being, even concerning food, was important to Him.

A lad with five loaves and two fish provided enough for Jesus to work another miracle, but this miracle had to come through Christ's willing but bone-weary body. Consider: Christ brought His disciples out to rest; "For there were many people coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat" (Mark 6:31).

Consider: Jesus personally had come to pray and be strengthened. For John the Baptist, Jesus' forerunner, had been beheaded earlier that very week at the hands of Herod. It was in the state of being emotionally and physically depleted that Jesus fed the multitudes - not just once or twice but over and over again "He kept giving [the bread and the fish] to the disciples to set before them" (Mark 6:41).

Thousands of men, women and children all "ate and were satisfied" (v. 42)! Oh, the heart of Jesus! The miracle was for them, but we read of no miracle sustaining Him except the marvelous wonder of a holy love that continually lifted His tired hands with more bread and more fish. Out of increasing weakness He repeatedly gave that others might be renewed.

So, if my quest is to know Him, I must recognize this about Him: Jesus loves people - all people, especially those society ignores. Therefore, I must know exactly how far He would travel for men, for that is the same distance He would journey again through me. Indeed, I must know His thoughts concerning illness, poverty and human suffering. As His servant, I am useless to Him unless I know these things. If I would actually do His will, I must truly know His heart. Therefore, in all my study and times of prayer I am seeking more than just knowledge; I am searching for the heart of God.

Knowing Our Hearts

At the same time, as I draw closer to the heart of God, the very fire of His presence begins a deep purging work within me. In the vastness of His riches, my poverty appears. The psalmist wrote, "Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully" (Ps. 24:3-4).

We cannot even find the hill of the Lord, much less ascend it, if there is deceit in our heart. How does one serve in God's holy place if his soul is unclean? It is only the pure in heart who perceive God. To ascend toward God is to walk into a furnace of truth where falsehood is extracted from our souls. To abide in the holy place we must dwell in honesty, even when a lie might seem to save us. Each ascending step upon the hill of God is a thrusting of our souls into greater transparency, a more perfect view into the motives of our hearts.

It is this upward call of God which we pursue. Yet, the soul within us is hidden, crouching in fears and darkness, living in a world of untruths and illusions. This is our inner man, the soul God seeks to save. Have you discovered your true self, the inner person whom truth alone can free? Yes, we seek holiness, but true holiness arises from here; it comes as the Spirit of Truth unveils the hidden places in our hearts. Indeed, it is truthfulness which leads to holiness.

God, grant us a zeal for truth that we may stand in Your holy place!

Men everywhere presume they know the "truth," but have neither holiness nor power in their lives. Truth must become more than historical doctrines; it must be more than a museum of religious artifacts - mementos from when God once moved. Truth is knowing God's heart as it was revealed in Christ, and it is knowing our own hearts in the light of God's grace.

As members of the human race, we are shrouded in ignorance. Barely do we know our world around us; even less do we know the nature of our own souls. Without realizing it, as we search for God's heart, we are also searching for our own. For it is only in finding Him that we discover ourselves, for we are "in Him."

Yet, throughout that searching process, as I position my heart before the Lord, it is with a sense of trembling that I pray the prayer of King David, "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me and know my anxious thoughts; and see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way" (Ps. 139:23-24).

Let us wash the cosmetics from our souls and look at the unadorned condition of our hearts. I know God has created us eternally complete and perfect in Christ. I believe that. But in the first three chapters of John's Revelation, Jesus did not tell the churches they were "perfect in His eyes." No! He revealed to them their true conditions; He told them their sins. Without compromise, He placed on them the demand to be overcomers, each in his own unique and difficult circumstance.

Like them, we must know our need. And like them, the souls we want saved dwell here, in a world system structured by lies, illusions and rampant corruption. Our old natures are like well-worn shoes into which we relax; we can be in the flesh instantly without even realizing it. The enemies which defeat us are hidden and latent within us! Thus, the Holy Spirit must expose our foes before we can conquer them!

Concerning man's nature, the prophet Jeremiah wrote, "The heart is more deceitful than all else and is desperately sick; who can understand it?" (Jer. 17:9). Quoting another of David's prayers, a similar cry is heard, "Who can discern his errors? Acquit me of hidden faults. Also keep back Thy servant from presumptuous sins; let them not rule over me; then I shall be blameless, and I shall be acquitted of great transgression" (Ps. 19:12-13).

There may be errors inside of us that are actually ruling us without our awareness. Do we realize, for instance, how many of our actions are manipulated purely by vanity and the desire to be seen or accepted by others? Are we aware of the fears and apprehensions that unconsciously influence so many of our decisions? We may have serious flaws inside yet still be either too proud or too insecure to admit we need help.

Concerning ourselves, we think so highly of what we know so little!

Even outwardly, though we know our camera pose, do we know how we appear when we are laughing or crying, eating or sleeping, talking or angry? The fact is, most of us are ignorant of how we appear outwardly to others; much less do we know ourselves inwardly before God! Our fallen thinking processes automatically justify our actions and rationalize our thoughts. Without the Holy Spirit, we are nearly defenseless against our own innate tendencies toward self-deception.

Therefore, if we would be holy, we must first renounce falsehood. In the light of God's grace, having been justified by faith and washed in the sacrificial blood of Jesus, we need not pretend to be righteous. We need only to become truthful.

No condemnation awaits our honesty of heart - no punishment. We have only to repent and confess our sins to have them forgiven and cleansed; if we will love the truth we shall be delivered from sin and self-deception. Indeed, we need to know two things and two things only: the heart of God in Christ and our own hearts in Christ's light.

Are You Happy With Your Harvest

Robert I Holmes

One day when I was flying into Seattle, I heard the Lord ask me two disturbing questions. The first was innocent enough, "Are you happy with your harvest?" I was beginning to ponder that when he followed up with, "What about the return on My investment?"

Harvest is a difficult thing to consider when you are talking about a life. My Harvest? What is that? Besides, how do I measure it? What is my seed? What outcomes am I pressing for in life. and am I achieving them? The second question though, brings an eternal perspective. God placed seed in my life, he spoke my name into my mothers womb and destined me for a purpose He appointed me to bear good fruit. "You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name" (John 15:16).

Sown much, reaped little

At this time, I was studying the book of Haggai, and to my surprise I began to find harvest right there in the minor prophets. For example, God says to Israel: "You have sown much, and harvested little; you eat, but you never have enough. You that earn wages earn wages to put them into a bag with holes. Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider then how you have fared" (Hag. 1:6,7).

He is speaking at first literally - you have sown seed and harvested little. You have earned wages, only to loose them. But behind this is a spiritual imperative: are you happy with the harvest? Of course Israel was supposed to reply, "No we are not happy!" to which God can bring some remedy.

Jesus said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what should I compare it? It is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in the garden; it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches" (Luke 13:18).

The kingdom of God operates on a seed and growth principle. The smallest seed produces a large tree. Anyone who has traveled the east may well have seen (as I have) a Mustard Tree. Most of the time we only allow the plant to take root and produce one season of seeds for harvest. But Mustard Trees can grow for decades and produce vast amounts of seed.

Seeds don't look like trees!

A mustard seed is small, brown and insignificant. A mustard tree is large, lush, spindly and fruitful. So it is with all trees and plants: Banana seed (those small black dots in your banana), banana tree; apple seed, apple tree; tea seed, tea bush.

One cannot measure the harvest by looking at the seeds. One can not even begin to aim for a harvest of mustard, but looking at a mustard seed. They do not compare. A tiny seed can produce a massive tree - just look at the acorn. God is not asking us to measure the seed, but consider the harvest potential.

As an aside - one therefore does not sow an apple seed expecting to reap apple seeds, one expects apples. Neither does one sow a guitar expecting a guitar, or sow money expecting to reap money! It is not the seed - but the harvest, the fruit we are after. One does not sow a soul to reap a soul in the harvest. One sows the gospel to reap a soul for the Kingdom!

The seed left in the barn

The prophet goes on to ask Israel, "Is there any seed left in the barn? Do the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still yield nothing?" (Hag. 2:19). Behind God's questions to me that day lay a deeper meaning - have you still seed in your barn? What seed have I held onto because of fear, because of past failure or because of inadequacy.

I know of a man who had two children, beautiful girls. The Lord had promised him a baby boy. For years he and his wife wrestled with this promise, because they were actually very happy with their family the way it was. Besides which, he feared his ability to sire a son. He feared it might also be a girl.

One day I received a call from him, from hospital. "I've just had an operation!" he said, somewhat triumphantly. Yes, he would not have anymore children now. I was heart broken. The seed would stay in the barn, the son promised would never come. The promise would not see fulfillment. But how many of us are the same? What kind of operation, what kind of avoidance, what cover have we hidden under, only to hear God call our name?

Sowing good seed

The next thing I consider, once I have determined to sow seed, and find my field, is this - what kind of seed do I sow? "He put before them another parable: The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field" (Matt. 13:24).

Not just any seed, it must be carefully prepared, well selected, good seed. I live in a rural district where lots of farming goes on. My neighbour - Andy owns many thousands of acres. One day I was in the field with his son, asking him about how he chooses his crops. One year wheat, the next year canola, the next year fallow. He told me about crop rotation, and climate and season.

But then his son, Murray floored me with this. "Seed selection actually goes a lot further than you might think. We work with the CSIRO on developing seed. We assist them in creating better crops. We take the best of last years' crop, and grow a new generation of seed for the harvest"! Wow, how that principle could apply in life!

Harvest of righteousness

When the topic of seedtime and harvest comes up, most of us go straight to thinking about money. We have heard Malachi 3 on tithes, we have heard so many sermons on giving, money and seed. But this has been to the detriment of considering the broader range of harvest available to us. Eternal reward, abundant harvest.

In his second letter to the Corinthians, Paul begins by covering suffering, offense, the new covenant, the gospel, resurrection, judgment day, reconciliation to the gospel, the marks of true ministry, and then he turns to the subject of giving. In chapter 8 he thoroughly covers the need to excel in giving, taking up collections, donations for needs and the issue of motives. He starts chapter 9 by saying "It is unnecessary for me to write any further to you about giving" (vs 1). They are willing and eager.

So he moves up - he moves on to the subject of sowing and harvest. He says if we sow sparingly we reap sparingly (vs 6). He says God loves a cheerful giver (vs 8) then makes the point that God will make GRACE abound toward you (vs 9). That's right. Not money. grace. "Always having all sufficiency in all things". That's right - all things. Then this:

"Now may He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits [harvest] of your righteousness." (2 Cor. 9:10)

1. There is bread for eating, and seed for sowing. Don't eat your seed and sow your bread!

2. He will supply and multiply only the seed you have sown, Seed in the store house does not multiply. Only seed sown, released, let go can multiply.

3. The result of it all is an increased harvest of RIGHTEOUSNESS!

Your harvest tested

The sobering point about God's second question to me is this - He IS looking for results. My harvest is being and will be measured. "Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, the work of each builder will become visible. it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test it." (1 Cor. 3:12,13).

The parable of the steward also shows us that God left mankind with the "stuff". The master "went away" and gave his kingdom to us (Matt. 25:14,15). At the end of the day, there will be an accounting for all that we have been given. How are you using your "stuff"?

References

Roberts, Murray. Private discussion, January 2002.

Anchor Yourself In Me

Susan Cummings

I say unto you, Beloved, anchor yourself in Me. Be found to be rooted and grounded in Me.
Be found with oil in your lamp and My Name written upon your hearts and minds.
Take not your eyes off of My face and do not let go of Me.
For many waver at this time, as they look around at the events that take place, and have stopped inquiring of My Face.

Do not leave the place of Grace that I have given to you, but remain at My side.
Do not let fear in you abide, but quickly shake loose all of the demonic slime.
It is time to return to Me and set your face against the roaring seas.
Fear will cause you to loose your grip and then into the enemy's hand you will slip.
But, My Life and Light, will strengthen your faith and vision as you continue to abide.

All restraints will continue to fall away as men give place to their desires and ways.
Greater turmoil and darkness will envelop the rebellious as they move further away from Me.
But you are called to walk closer to me and in greater intimacy.
Anchor yourself to Me, and cleave wholly unto Me, this day.
Reasoning and wisdom will flee away as men run swiftly to their choices.
Hearts will fail as fear roots deeply within, for men have chosen their ways, over Mine, and so it now deepens.
Waves of unrest will come ashore, as the hearts and minds are tossed amongst the worldly uproar.

Not so, with you.
In Me, be found, and learn to deeper abide.
For it is in Me, that you will live and hide.
Not to be just hidden, but to be found as alive, preserved through the hour that comes with the night.
All will pass through on this twilight cry.
For the ears of men have heard the cry, now they will walk with their paths set.
For the days of men have been given into their hands, as the Fiery breath now passes over the lands.
Each will carry their own lot and fate, as the choices have been made.
Now the paths will each cross and mate as the camps have drawn their lots for the hour.

All that is anchored in Me will stand and be found in My Holy Light.
For the darkness moves in deeper, as the twilight comes forth, and soon the last wave will come ashore.
The seas will roar and the winds will blow and all that is not rooted will pass through the dark flow.
But Mine will stand and be seen in the midst, and be full of My Fire as the last witnesses.
Great will be the Display of My House in the great Night, as the full recompense is reaped and met.
Ears to hear and eyes to see, have all those who walk intimately with Me.
Darkness and Glory will ride side by side, separating the wheat and the tares in the Holy Fight.
Holy Flames burning in My Hands, anchored deeply in Me, burning across the lands.
Rising up now, as the final prophetic sands fall through the hourglass.

Stand, faith believing, in Me.
For I have fully equipped thee, and will now reveal Myself to thee, as you stand, anchored in Me.
Let go of all that distracts and hinders you, and move freely.
For the Hour of Release is upon you, as I finalize the whole Body.
For I am the Anchor that upholds thee, and is within thee, as you walk with Me.
Come, and abide in Me, and My Glory you will see.
For this time, you were born to destiny.

-Susan Cummings
10-5-05
11:55 am

http://groups.msn.com/CummingsFamilyAdventures
http://topica.com/lists/JustHisWords

Are You In A Difficult Situation? Rejoice!

Rick Joyner

Opportunity for Sons and Daughters of the King

The seedbed of the fruit of the Spirit is New Testament church life. Of course, one main seedbed of this fruit is family life. This is why both church life and family life are under such an assault in our times. However, it is during these times that the greatest church life and the greatest families will emerge.

We know that the Lord Jesus could have bound the devil and taken possession of the world immediately after His resurrection, as He had fully purchased it by the cross. However, before taking possession of this world, He wanted to give an opportunity for many others to become sons and daughters of the King. Their faithfulness would be proven by them enduring the onslaught of the world and the devil, and remaining faithful.

The Greatest Fruit of the Spirit is Grown in the Most Difficult Conditions

Since the Fall, the devil has had a boast that the Lord's crowning creation, mankind, which He created especially to have fellowship and to dwell with, when given the choice, chose evil over righteousness, even when living in the most perfect conditions. Because of this, the devil boasts that, given the choice, all of creation will choose his ways over the Lord's ways. Before the end comes, the Lord will have a people who will have ended this boast. Even in the darkest of times, in the worst conditions, against the onslaught of all that hell and the world can throw at them, they will remain faithful, choosing righteousness over evil to obey God rather than the evil one. In this way, they will even become witnesses to principalities and powers, as well as the rest of creation, that God and His truth will always ultimately triumph.

Therefore, the greater the trial, the greater the witness. Even the angels will admit that the faithful church, which has endured the greatest of trials and remained faithful, is worthy to be their judges. For this reason, the greatest fruit of the Spirit is grown in the most difficult conditions, which is why we are given the important exhortation in James 1:2-4,12:
"Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

"And let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

"Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him." (NASB)

Increase Occurs When We Press Past Our Previous Limits

Just as a runner's endurance does not increase until they press past their previous limits, our faith does not grow until we are placed in conditions that require more faith than we have had before. Our love does not grow until we are placed in a situation where it requires more than we have had before. The same is true of our patience, our peace, and so on. For this reason, for as long as we remain on the path of life, we can expect to be going through some trials that are helping us to grow. When we learn this, these trials do not become something to be avoided, but embraced as opportunities and the joy that James talked about.

As Francis Frangipane has said, "We never fail one of God's tests -- we just keep taking them until we pass." I think most of us are now ready to stop having to take the same tests over and over, so let's pass them and move on. Then we shall receive the reward that God gives to all who pass His tests -- even bigger ones!

This is true: the bigger the trial, the bigger the opportunity to enter into the kingdom. This truth strengthened saints in the first century, as we are told in Acts 14:22: " . . . strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying, 'Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God'" (NASB). Only the weak, immature, or deceived fail to see trials as gateways into the kingdom and opportunities to grow in the fruit of the Spirit, which is to grow up into Christ.

Those who want to live lives of escape, where they can avoid all trials, are those who will fail to mature. The sad thing is that they will have trials anyway because of the failure to face them, and be increasingly defeated by them instead of strengthened. These go from defeat to defeat, usually growing in self-pity instead of the nature of the Lord. Once we learn how overcoming a trial strengthens us in the Lord and how much sweeter victory tastes, learning to go from victory to victory and to never leave a situation in defeat, we begin to see greater trials as the opportunity to taste even sweeter victories, leading us deeper into the kingdom.

Does God Tempt Men with Evil?

God does not tempt men with evil, but we are told throughout the Scriptures that the Lord does test the righteous. There is a difference between a test and a temptation, though a temptation may be a test. The Lord tested Adam and Eve by placing the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil in the Garden. This was not done to cause them to sin. There could have been no true obedience if there was no freedom to disobey. Likewise, there can be no true worship if there is no freedom not to worship. It is for this reason that there must be freedom for there to be true worship. This freedom requires that we choose.

We must choose to believe. We most choose to love. We must choose to be patient. We must choose the fruit of the right tree. Adam and Eve could have complained that if the Lord did not want them to eat from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, why did He put it right in the middle of the Garden, and why did He make it so appealing? Because it would not have been a test if it had not been appealing. And like that tree, most of our tests are placed right in the middle of our lives -- where it is very difficult not to face them.

We can make the same complaints: "Lord, why don't You just bind Satan now so that he can't tempt us? Why don't You just remove the temptations?" Then it would not be a test of our faith, love, and devotion, and we would not grow. We must understand that the harder the trial, the more the Lord thinks of us, not less. In fact, it should concern us greatly if we are not going through trials or if we are not being disciplined by the Lord. We are told this in one of the most important exhortations in Scripture, which I quote below, and encourage you to read it carefully.
The written Word of God is the seed, the fertilizer, and the water required for us to bear the true fruit of the Spirit:
"Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance, and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

"For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary and lose heart. You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin; and you have forgotten the exhortation which is addressed to you as sons,
'My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by Him; for those whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives.'

"It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

"Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, that we may share His holiness.

"All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness.

"Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble, and make straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed." Hebrews 12:1-13

"God Always Leads Us in His Triumph in Christ"

If we are going to bear fruit, we cannot keep wasting our trials, but must be resolved to believe God and trust in the sure fact that He: " . . . always leads us in His triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place" (II Corinthians 2:14, NASB).

We are also encouraged by His sure Word that: " . . . we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the first-born among many brethren; and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified (Romans 8:28-30, NASB).

This is the sure Word of God that will never fail! We can only fail if we quit living according to His Word. Just as the first thing the devil did to cause Adam and Eve to stumble was to get them to doubt God's Word, we must, above all things, resolve to hold fast to His Word, knowing that it is true.

All of God's tests are open book tests where the answers are readily available to us. However, just knowing the answers are not enough -- we must live them. The real test of whether we believe the Lord is whether we live according to His Word. Determine today and every day that you will not run from the tests, but resolve to recognize them and pass them.

by Rick Joyner
MorningStar Ministries
www.MorningStarMinistries.org

A Year Of Accountability

Clay Sikes

2005 Proving To Be A Year Of Accountability
May 19th, 2005

As has been mentioned here and posted on our website (www.lighthouseprophecy.com) are several prophetic words about this very significant year in which we now live. This has indeed proven to be a year of the strictest accountability before God. In December of 2004 God began to speak to a number of prophetic men and women about accountability issues in 2005. Accountability is nothing more than the acceptance of truth, and our willingness to move toward that truth, even when it hurts - exposes sin or shortcomings in us etc.,

I am convinced that a man of true accountability moves toward truth in a true transparent nature, and no matter the depth of his missteps with God he will be restored. Every thing hidden will be revealed and God allows us, in dealing with accountability, to come forward on our terms, or be exposed by His judgment and brought forward on His. Accountability is God's LAST ORDERED STEP before judgment. If we are not able to make ourselves accountable judgment falls, and has often been said on this site, "God's judgment is not against us but for us because it forces us to accept and often do what we will not accept and do on our own. In His mercy, His judgment comes as punishment for those He loves. As scripture tells us, He chastens those He loves. Sons are chastened bastards are not!

2005 has also been mentioned as "The Year Of Positioning." It is only now, this fifth month of the year that I am beginning to understand the inextricable link between 'Accountability' and 'Positioning.' As the prophetic words of late 2004 and EARLY 2005 state, 2005 is a critical year in us getting positioned spiritually, physically, financially, and emotionally for what is to come in 2006 and beyond. Accountability, like the thrust of a rocket engine, will move us into perfect position before God.

In revealing this prophetic word, I saw a bucket in a yard. There was a hard rain falling. I saw the bucket in many different positions, the optimum of which was right side up that it might catch the greatest amount of rain (falling water). I saw this bucket turned upside down catching no rain, tipped sideways catching some rain. God said to me, "The position of the bucket determines the amount of rain one will receive from Me. Tell my people that 2005 is the year to get into proper position for what I will do in 2006 and beyond. The bucket you saw in various positions represents the various positions that people will find themselves beyond this year. The rain represents my favor and blessing, and the greatest favor and blessing any man can receive is fulfillment of his destiny, my purpose for his life upon the earth."

God desires us to catch all the rain possible as the rain represents His favor, purpose and destiny, and power being released into His true church (Body). We are given this year 2005 to pray and move as His Spirit leads, and much of what the Spirit is leading us into is being accountable where we have fallen short, moving into a higher realm spiritually, developing a deeper more abiding one-on-one relationship with the Father, WALKING IN THE AUTHORITY WE HAVE BEEN GIVEN (SPIRITUAL AND NATURAL). Where we have fallen short of God's Word and Authority in a situation, we must be willing to make the Word authority in that situation. Where sin has been exposed in us we must be willing to acknowledge it before God and man. When we have sinned against another, we must be willing to acknowledge it accordingly - these are all examples of true accountability issues.

True accountability produces proper positioning, which sets us up for God's greatest benefit, our true inheritance. When true accountability is in full operation there is no room for pride, denial, or false images: WE CANNOT HIDE FROM GOD! Man's greatest hindrance to receiving his full inheritance IS HIMSELF. Man's fallen nature, as with Adam after the fall, is to hide from God, unwilling to face truth about one's self. This fallen nature places a premium on image with little regard for true condition of heart. Where truth is, there is power. Truth ignites God's power like a match ignites gunpowder. Where there is no truth there is no power. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." When we lack a true fear of the Lord we will always lack the power to overcome sin in our life. According to scripture, "Anything that is not done by faith is sin." Our good works are poor substitutes for hearing and obeying God. THOSE WHO FEAR THE LORD HEAR THE LORD. We can only have faith for what we have heard God say to us personally. Faith comes by having heard God speak to us – this is the privilege of eating from The Tree Of Life – Communion with God!

True accountability in us is a sweet smell in the nostrils of God and will invoke His favor almost instantaneously. One's spiritual accountability before God can be seen in the physical realm. God's power operates through those who are accountable. It is my personal belief that His power operating in us is directly proportional to our accountability before Him. The greatest display of God's true power in a man is his life; his testimony that contains no shortage of consistency. The most powerful men on earth are those who get their prayers answered.

It is most important here to understand that I am not referring to 'the gifts' as His power; "the gifts are without repentance," but rather God's power which He invest in His trusted Sons. Understanding this difference here is a key to understanding how "the very elect will be deceived were it possible." "Do you look on things in the outward appearance" (2 Corinthians 10:7)? We are so guilty of judging Godliness in seeing an external gift operate.

The power I am referring to is the character of God in a man; his fear of God is far greater than his fear of man, his willingness to be accountable before God, to die to himself, to have no identity, to be a nobody, to hear and obey, to give his life if called to do so. These are the elements of God's true power – a surrendered man! Some in the TV ranks and even in local churches who operate in the gifts of God are anything but surrendered, yet men who need a king flock to them like sheep to the slaughter.

Our testimony unlike our doctrine can never be argued. We are what our life says we are. "How will a man overcome? By the blood of the Lamb and the Words of his testimony" (Revelation 12:11). Unlike what is taught in much of what we call church, revelation is not what I know; it is what I walk in. My testimony (my life) and the Word I teach must be one in the same. If not, I am no more than a barking dog spewing out scripture in an effort to convince man that I am the real thing! The true character of God can ONLY be found in true Sons of God, those who are led by His Spirit (Romans 8:17). They only speak what they walk in because they know they are only qualified to talk about what is real in their lives. They know they are not complete in other areas, and recognize there is little anointing to take others where they themselves have not been. They are quick to acknowledge their imperfections and sin.

One of our greatest enemies to finding true accountability is our preconceived mindset of what we think Christianity is all about; how we think a Christian should act or look, conduct himself, etc., Often our religious tradition disables us from truly hearing God speak to us. We eat from The Tree of The Knowledge of Good and Evil, judging others by our standards, not Gods, and in so doing positioning ourselves to be resisted by God. God resist our pride and pride is always the instigator of our judgment. When we eat from this wrong tree we induce the most dangerous of conditions; the inability to eat from The Tree Of Life, losing the ability to hear God. It is probably important to mention here that our often erroneous judgment of "good" is just as dangerous as our penchant to judge what is "bad."

We often look upon works, pleasantness, outward image, great preaching ability, healing the sick, working miracles as THE POWER. These are simply images or 'gifts,' which are not necessarily linked to the character of God. God's character is found in man's level of surrender and willingness to obey God at all cost. Look at a man's life (his testimony), not his command of scripture, his ability to heal, to give great prophecy, words of knowledge or wisdom. We need discernment more than any gift God can give in this hour!

Crisis will always produce reality (what we truly believe). God's character will always produce God's power in times of crises; and all we have when a crisis has ended is our conduct during it! Our conduct is our testimony! A crisis doesn't make the man, but certainly does reveal him to himself. As an example, we have dealt with much sickness in our family in recent weeks. What I have discovered about these crisis situations is my lack of revelation about healing. Seldom do our circumstances change without something in us changing first. This adverse circumstance has sent me headlong into prayer and repentance and fervent desire to understand the character of God about healing. What you respect you will attract. What you are missing in your life is something you do not yet value greatly. What I am discovering in these circumstances of sickness is that God's power and authority has always been available to me, yet I have failed repeatedly to operate in it for others or myself.

Another profound revelation has emerged in me this year – When I do not operate in the authority I have been given in a specific situation, I will become the victim in that situation. It is my choice, victory or victim! This is true in both the natural and spiritual realm. When I operate in my appointed position of authority I always walk in victory. When I fail to do so I always become the victim. This too is a major accountability issue.

The simplicity of one's willingness to be accountable before God cannot be understood in our natural thinking. It is a spiritual phenomenon that will align us with God quickly and empower us greatly.

Seven months remain in 2005 - a year of accountability and positioning.

Comments: 2005 - A Year Of Positioning!

Clay Sikes
May 21, 2005

Dear List Members,

I have included two very interesting comments about the posted word on Thursday, '2005 Proving To Be A Year Of Positioning!' The warnings given in these prophecies have proved most accurate to me and others close to me, especially in the areas of accountability, guarding your boundaries, and positioning.

These two responses also seem to align with this word...Clay.

Boy, clay, this lines up with the word a while back about being watchmen on our walls. My warning to others, unfortunately from recent experience, is to guard your boundaries. I allowed a rapid fire of painful events to wear me down and in that condition allowed the "cares" to scream over the voice of the Lord. Now Im paying the price, but the bottom line is I know God well enough to know He must have warned me.

So, if it helps anyone out there, keep watch not just over your walls, but IN your walls. Sometimes those closest and dearest to you are the very ones who launch attacks. Keep your place of peace, where you can hear the Spirit. It took a wonderful councilor to teach me to breathe again and return to stillness. If the cares of your world are spinning you out of controll and zapping every once of strength, ASK for help from councilors, friends, family, pastors, whoever! Prayer partners yes, but sometimes natural, practical help...like learning to breathe.

God's judgment is not fun..trust me on that one, yet in the middle of this natural pain, I thank Him everyday for loving me enough to stop me before I went over the edge. First words from my mouth every morning.

Dana

From :Lori,

Content :Mr. Sikes:

I don\'t claim to be prophetic by any means. I do love our Lord and strive for obedience to his word through his blood. The Lord put on my spirit back in May of 2003 that he was positioning his people. My husband and I made a physical move a couple of months later. I always believed that the positioning was for all of God\'s people at that time.

My brother (Kent Johnston) fowarded me your prophecy for the 2005 year. I was very interested to see the prophecy on Positioning. I then subscribed myself to your website. I received your e\'mail today about your vision of a bucket. I also had a dream about a bucket this past Fri. night. Only in my bucket money was being dropped. As I heard the money dropping in the clear bucket, I turned to look and there was soil all in the bucket with money pressed to the sides. I said pour the soil out so that we can fill it with more money. A voice said to me no, there must be soil in the bucket for it to be planted as a seed in order for a harvest to produce. I was unsure what the dream meant.

I do know that all that we do and give must be a seed in order for God to produce a harvest. God doesn\'t just want our money, or our gifts, or our good works. Everything has to be given to God as a seed and he will produce the harvest. We may not ever see the harvest. We must give to God in faith trusting that he will produce a harvest for his glory. Thank you for your time.

Lori Knight

A Year Of Breakthrough
Annette Ammarell

January 1st 2004

ammarell@prodigy.net
To the Saints/ Priest of the Lord,
I am hearing a year of breakthrough-of breaking forth is upon you.
Old doors, new doors....
Closed doors , open doors.
I am seeing a corridor of doors-
Doors that have been closed behind you,
And is closing as you come upon them..
But up ahead, I see an open door-
It has your name on it.
It’s for you to walk through-
Open doors of opportunities-
Closed doors of the past-
Of tradition.
Behold. I do a new thing.
Step forth.
Keep walking,
because the door isn’t that far ahead.
There’s still some doors in front of you that will be shutting,
But know that there’s a door not too far ahead
That has your name on it.
Remember that in days ahead- in days to come.

I AM before you
And I AM behind you.
I AM is with you- as you seek me
I will have made a way
It is unfolding.
You have yet to know the depth of the things I have called you to.
You have only begun to touch the surface-

The tip of the iceberg.
I am doing a great thing-
A wonderful thing.
This is a year of unfolding.. More of me-
It’s a year of breaking forth!!!
The things that have held you back have been of me
I am working in you to my plan
It’s not what you think..
But as you spend time in my presence..
More will unfold.
I sense the Lord calling you to a time of
Like a sabbatical of time-
A space of time taking some time
Of just getting into his presence
Of soaking in his presence
In the solitude of your home
Put on some worship music and just dwell in his goodness-
Soak up in him
Minister to him.. In worship
A time of ministering to him.
There’s more to unfold.
And he is wanting more of you.
Right now I speak over you ….. (blessings) proclamations …
Increase, prospering in him…
A year filled with more of him to overflowing.

A Year Of Positioning
Clay Sikes

2005 - A Year Of Positioning!
Jan 9, 2005

God is beginning to birth His true Church as "the Sons of God" begin to manifest in the earth. Those coming into Sonship (Romans 8:14) are being tested as never before, as the heat of God's fire intensifies. Many of God's "called" men and women continually fight through the afflictions of the darkest oppression, winning victory after victory as they near the season of their 'time.' A great separation and joining continues as men's hearts are tested and revealed. To those who repent at the revelation of an unclean heart, the journey continues. To those in denial, the journey ends.

What is God's purpose for the 'Sons of God'? To vest His corporate authority upon His Church; an authority that exudes the character, revelation, and power of God to all who come in contact with it. What are the objectives of these Sons? To raise a Body/Church that is without spot or wrinkle – a corporate work that is pleasing to the Father, which is totally controlled by the Holy Spirit - every man must hear God as to his part in this work.

As this yet small victorious assembly begins to emerge locally and internationally, the attacks of the anti-Christ spirit will test and expose the true motives in the hearts of men. As the Corporate Christ begins to come together as a remnant Body, even some in that Body will be separated (Matthew 22:14). If we are to be part of the promised seed of God we must distinguish between that which is blessed of God, and that which is "chosen." There are many ministries today which are anointed and blessed, but are still works of the flesh, having their origin in the minds and strivings of men; not in the heart of God. Like Saul, their leadership and anointing will pass. While Saul enjoyed the blessing and following of the people, David appeared cursed, and so will God's chosen until the appointed time.

Saul's hatred for David, like Ishmael's for Isaac will surface against God's chosen, often from within our own ranks. There is enmity between that which is born of the flesh and that which is born of the Spirit. David would not take the authority for himself but waited patiently, even during intense persecution for God to establish him. Retaliation and self-promotion will not be found in that which is truly born of the God's Spirit. Those who allow circumstances to antagonize them into retaliation or self-promotion will find themselves disqualified.

Glenn Jackson recently wrote, "If we take action to vindicate a wrong done to us, then we prohibit God from righting the wrong. By taking action, we have taken His right of Lordship away from Him in that area of our lives. Even the act of holding unwholesome thoughts against those who have come against us hinders God from working on our behalf…As one walks in absolute (perfect) love, then God will be free to wholly vindicate us." I have failed miserably in this area of my life; I know it, admit it, confess it, and ask God's forgiveness.

What then is the difference between the "called" and the "chosen?" The distinguishing feature between flesh and spirit is the fear of the Lord (obedience). The fear of God is greater than the fear of men or circumstances. An ultimate tests for the "chosen" is deciding who is feared the most, men and circumstances or God. The spiritual nature of man must rule over the soulish (emotional/intellectual) nature. This conflict rages within all being prepared for 'Sonship.' Spirit draws unto Spirit; soul draws unto soul (flesh). God's chosen will always yield to that which is spirit, just as truth will be rejected by those who love pride, self-promotion, and men's approval. The "chosen" of God are those who fear Him the most. Winning the approval of men no longer rules. Being liked and popular has faded as a necessary part of their personality.

As God continues to separate us from the ways of men and those who practice such ways, we will soon find ourselves in a unique company of believers, who on the surface, share common beliefs in coming out of the Babylonian World's System (Revelation 18:4). It is in this unique company (assembly) that God unmask us even more, as those with righteous motives are separated from those with unrighteous motives. This separation will be the most painful. This statement, I know in advance, seems harsh and unchristian, but I ask you to test it.

March on O soldier of God! Be of good cheer, for the Lord of host is orchestrating the events of your life (Romans 11:36). Remain steadfast, unwavering, undeterred, as hell's assault will soon fade into the fiery pit from which it came. Through the smoke and dying embers of your hard fought battle you will emerge victorious, a mighty man (woman) with a mighty purpose. Hail King Jesus, our Lord, our King, arise in the hearts of men that your will be done on earth.

Assume Your Positions

Cindy McGill

August 27, 2005

We are being trained to keep the promise in front of us. The Lord is establishing His purpose and building His kingdom on the earth. There are things the enemy has tried to throw our way so discouragement can settle in and rob us of our destiny. Paul exhorted Timothy (1 Timothy 1:18) to war a good warfare by the prophecies given to him:

> "This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, Things all around us are moving rapidly, but it is important that we assume our post. It is time to stand and see the salvation of God."

Towels Thrown In

I saw a pile of towels heaped up. But I looked again and the Lord was picking up the towels and throwing them back to the ones who have wanted to quit. This is not the time to quit. It is the time to advance. God is positioning you for the plan and purpose He has for you. It is His strength, His wisdom, His authority, and His instruction to "GO." The very arenas that have been challenging us, are the areas God is going to give us more favor and anointing.

Have Faith in God

Several months ago, I had this dream about faith. I was on a platform and before me were two barrels. On one, the word "doubt" was printed. I reached down to pick it up, and it seemed weightless and empty. It was very easy to pick up in my own strength. I looked to the side of it, and there was another barrel with the word "faith" on it. I bent down to pick it up, and it wouldn't move. I asked God, in the dream, why I was not able to lift up the "faith" barrel. He responded by saying it was a "substance". Then He instructed me to use the measure of faith He had given me, and He would put His faith with it and try to lift it again. I bent down and this time the barrel went up over my head.

I knew, when I woke up, that faith is the key to everything we do in God.
In Mark 11:20-24, it says:

> "Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. And Peter, remembering, said to Him, 'Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away.' So Jesus answered and said to them, 'Have faith in God. For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, "Be removed and be cast into the sea," and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.'"

In other words, have the "God" kind of faith. Christ's strength is always made perfect in our weakness. We do our part in exercising our measure of faith, and God does the rest. As we continue to use our faith, we will grow in faith. Jesus is always looking for demonstrations of faith. Without it, we cannot please God. All through Scripture, we find Him blessing those who used their faith and sternly instructing those who displayed no faith at all -- many times, asking them where their faith is. God would not ask us to "GO" and then not display His power in the places He sends us. The harvest is RIPE.

Honor the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is present to impact the ones we are encountering as we go. These "Power encounters" radically change people's lives. When we give Him room to do what He wants -- He does. People are then impacted with the Spirit of Truth, the Healer, the Worker of Miracles, the Prophet, the Interpreter of Dreams, and so on. As we look into the lives of past evangelists, they used faith and honored the Holy Spirit. Signs, wonders and miracles were documented by their ministries. Katherine Kuhlman, Smith Wigglesworth, William Branham, Maria Woodworth-Etter, just to name a few, understood that honoring the Holy Spirit birthed the power that was demonstrated in their ministries. The testimonies are endless.

Those who know their God

As we assume our positions in this harvest, we are assured that the One who sends us out, will equip us to do the task.

> Daniel 11:32:
> "Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits."

God is revealing Himself to us as we co-labor with Him to reach into lives of desperate, searching, broken people everywhere. We are truly partakers of a Divine nature.

Let us take our strength in His strength and invade the earth for His Glory. Light dispels darkness. It's "Isaiah Sixty" time.

> "Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the Lord will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, And kings to the brightness of your rising. 'Lift up your eyes all around, and see: They all gather together, they come to you; Your sons shall come from afar, And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.
> 'Then you shall see and become radiant, And your heart shall swell with joy; Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you. The multitude of camels shall cover your land, The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; All those from Sheba shall come; They shall bring gold and incense, And they shall proclaim the praises of the Lord. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, The rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; They shall ascend with acceptance on My altar, And I will glorify the house of My glory.'"

Be Blessed,

Cindy McGill
Hope for the Harvest Ministries www.hopefortheharvest.com dreaminslc@yahoo.com

Are You Pregnant?

Kurt Pfanstiel

kurtp1@charter.net

Monday, 22 August 2005 9:45 AM

The following is a piece of revelation I shared recently at a conference in Olympia Washington. It is a question I felt impressed by the Lord. A question he would ask us as individuals, and ask us as a church, or even as a movement. It is a parallel between our walk of faith, and the pregnancy of a woman. Please do not be offended by some of the detail of the analogy.

Intimacy

Being pregnant implies there has been intimacy. A man and a woman came together and planted a seed. It is a fair question for our relationship with God. Have we been intimate with him, shared our hearts, our time, given of what is inside of us, to the point we can be trusted with His seed of faith?

Normal flow stops

Once a woman is pregnant, her normal menstrual cycle stops. This is because her body is getting ready to do something different and the normal way of doing things won't work. In fact the normal way of doing things would, in essence, abort the new seed. As God works in our lives, we must seek Him for the new way we must handle His direction and be willing to change to provide the environment for faith to grow.

Body changes

As a baby starts to grow, a woman's body changes. It changes to provide nourishment for the baby, it stretches in places it normally doesn't to make room for growth, etc. As full term grows near, stretch marks may occur as expansion goes beyond the skins ability to stretch normally. Sometimes the skin or body parts never go back to their original state. Are we willing to stretch to allow God to grow in us? Is the mark of prayer and fasting evident in us as we prepare for God's plan to unfold? We are all members of one body. As individual believer's move in faith, does the body prepare to help them bring their faith to completion? Are we helping each other with the new wineskin needed?

Preparation for new life

Couples have lots of things to get ready as the pregnancy progresses. What will we name the baby? The baby's room must be prepared. Money needs to budgeted differently. The other kids in the family have to be prepared for the "new kid on the block" and the time it takes mom and dad with a newborn. These can be fairly drastic changes for a while till things get settled. What about the move of God and how we adjust to it? Is it important to describe or "name" the thing we want to do? What changes in physical location changes, like a "room", need to occur? Will money need to be spent differently and have we been planning for it? How are other people, like existing "kids", impacted?

Check up

As the pregnancy develops, women are checked by the doctor, maybe by trimester, how they are doing. Some women want a specialist, an OB, to watch their progress. They may go in for a sonogram to actually see the baby and check for any potential issues. As we move in faith, who do we go to as a "doctor" to check on our progress in the Lord? A woman needs to let a doctor get to "some pretty sensitive areas" to see how things are. Will we let someone get that close to us? What "technologies" will God use to help us see how we are doing?

Labour

Two things generally start labor. One is if the water breaks. The other is contractions or labor pains. If we liken water to the Spirit, is the move or flow of the Spirit forceful enough for a breakthrough? Will it break through the mindsets we have built around the lives we protect? Are we praying for the seed to come forth, for the faith to be strong, to see the plan of God come to fruition? Paul said he groaned in labor for the maturity of the saints. Contractions are needed because the bodies normal process won't "deliver the goods", in this case. Our normal approach to God won't find His presence. Numbers 24:1 says Balaam did not go as he would normally to soothsay, but sought God in the wilderness where he found the vision of the Almighty. Wilderness or "contraction" is for preparation so we can go the way we have not gone before, Joshua 3:4.

Birth

At birth there is a timing when there is enough dilation or opening to push. Breathing, pacing, understanding the rise and fall of contractions is important to delivery. Emotions can run wild (my feet are cold, my feet are hot, get those socks off!!). Many couples use a breathing coach to practice Lamaze. It teaches you to relax, to focus, to breath when appropriate, etc. This is a time of pace so mom doesn't run out of gas before the last push. It is a time of team effort, of putting into practice what you have learned, of focus on the end product. Just as the prophets were there to help build the wall with the people, so the doctor is there for "hands on" experience in the delivery. As we live our lives together, as we walk in faith, do we have friends and "doctors" or mentors who coach, help with team, help us focus, bring the plan of God into reality?

Joy

David's men at Ziklag partied for three days. There is joy at the delivery of a newborn, fresh life into the world. Congratulations are in order for the parents, especially mom, mum to my Aussie friends! Do we have real relationships that cause us to share our lives together and do we take time out to enjoy each others' lives and company?

After the event

There are two issues left after the baby is born. One is the placenta. That which grew and nurtured the baby to full delivery, now won't do the job anymore. It must be discarded. As a matter of fact, if it is not discarded, it can be a poison to the body. Acts 27 is a story about Paul sailing to Rome and ending up in Malta. The bottom line to the story is they had to throw the cargo overboard and allow the ship to be smashed in order to save themselves. We must look at our lives and the systems we create to live in. If they are not able to hold the wine for the next season, or if they were good for a season but now must be replaced, like a placenta, we need not fear letting them go and pursue new wineskins. It is what saves us in the end, being willing to move on in the Lord.

The other leftover is the baby bears the mark of it's delivery process, the navel. For the work we do for the Lord, does it bear the mark of the delivery of faith? Was the prayer evident? Was the relationship evident? Was the new learning evident? Was the mark of the suffering of Christ evident and was His presence and power displayed? Did He receive the glory?

Are You Truly Gathered In My Name

Yolanda Ballard

Oct 22, 2005
March 1, 2001

Two or more gathered in My name .... here I AM with you in your presence. Yes, I truly delight to meet with My people when they gather in My name in unity, in one accord, seeking My face, My will, and My ways. Although many say they are gathered in My name, they still have their own agenda and that leaves Me out, because I will not join in and anoint something that I did not initiate; therefore, you end up having a meeting in My name and I am not there.

For this greatly grieves My Spirit that I have to partake of a gathering that I have no part in. And I am tired of your solemn assemblies void of My power and life. And many are leaving the assembling of My people to stay at home where they say they are seeking My face, but many are not but are partaking only of the wicked ways of the world, namely watching the TV filling themselves to the brim with the ungodliness and vanity that the enemy offers.

And this grieves Me because if My people who say they are gathered in My name were truly seeking My will for their services, this would not be happening. My people would be joined in unity and would be blessed in My presence, and My will and My ways would be proclaimed. My life and My Spirit would be drawing them closer to each other and to Me. For I long for intimacy with My people. I long for them to be one where My will alone would be proclaimed. How are we to reach the lost in a mighty way if we are not one, with one mind and in one accord, for I am not in unity or agreement with that which I did not initiate.

So seek My face and humble yourselves and turn from your wicked ways of having your own agenda, and I will bless your gatherings in My name. And I will pour out My anointing and My presence in a mighty way. And I will pour out My gifts, and signs and wonders will follow My words. And you will see the healings and deliverances and salvation of your loved ones that you have believed Me for. It is all up to you. You are the one that is holding up the show. I AM ready and I have been ready, but I cannot move where I do not have the complete freedom to do so, says your Lord.

Becoming One As He Is

Ron McGatlin

John 17:3 "And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.

John 17:9-11: "I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. "And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. "Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are.

Eternal life is in knowing the Father and becoming one with the Father and the Son who are one.

Jesus has done a wonderful work of connecting followers with the Father. His work is not fulfilled until we are intimately related to our Heavenly Father.

Jesus and the Father are One. As Jesus abides in us and we abide in Him we are become one with God. This is not to be just a spiritual doctrine but must become a practical reality.

Jesus is glorified IN His followers on earth. Jesus is on earth glorified in His followers. Father's name is hallowed, honored, on earth as Christ lives in His people. Christ in you is the hope of glory and becomes the manifestation of glory when we really become one with Father in intimate relationship.

Religion has clearly shown that it can never produce unity but rather produces denominating and division. Unity is not really a worthy goal to pursue. Unity suggest uniformity and is not the same as oneness. Transformation into oneness through the reality of intimately relating to Jesus and the Father by the Holy Spirit is eternal life, the desire of the Father, and the mission of Jesus.

Without faith it is impossible to please God and without LOVE it is impossible to intimately know God. Abiding in the presence of God and experiencing His passionate pure unconditional love produces complete humility. Brokenness comes as our heart and soul is overcome with the enormity, the depth and the fire of the passion of His love. We are melted together in the liquid fire of His love and truly become one with God.

All who are melted into one with God are also melted into one with one another.

Today many are coming and abiding in the presence of God and becoming one with God. As this is happening walls are crumbling, divisions are melting and the transformation of the people of God is changing the church. Large church group leaders are beginning to become one with home churches cooperating as one. As more continue to soak in the presence and become saturated with God and melted together in love and humility with God, the citywide church under the headship of Christ and meeting in many places is beginning to come into view.

Becoming one with God and one in God causes institutional to become relational, man centered becomes God centered, and high minded ness becomes humility.

Doctrinal debate never purifies doctrine. Abiding in the presence of God changes doctrine as pure revelation of God's word is only possible in the pure love of His presence.

God is Spirit and moves in the supernatural. As we become one in Spirit with God we move in the supernatural

Ron McGatlin
www.openheaven.com

Beginning To Rain

Pat Gregory

5/29/05

While a friend and I worshipped the Lord, He began to sing a word in my ear, and I began typing as the Lord of glory sang. A song of the Lord.........A NEW SONG to His beloved body!

I am not a singer or musician (wish I was, haha), but the Lord sang this in my ear, and I typed as He sang. I was literally overcome by His presence.......tangibly......it felt as if an electric current was pulsating through my entire being, inside and out, every cell......I felt like Abba Father was literally embracing me, consuming me. Beautiful, awesome, nothing compares to His presence, His touch, His love. Oh how I love you Lord!

Read and let it become a melody in your ear....propelling you forward, upward, onward, higher and higher IN HIM, and then MOVED TO ACTION. 1 John 4:17b.....as he is, so are we in this world.

It's beginning to rain......can you hear it?
It's beginning to rain......drops of love
It's beginning to rain......sweet refreshing
It's beginning to rain......the former and the latter as ONE.

I'm pouring forth new wine......drink of it freely
I'm pouring forth new wine......My heart in you
I'm pouring forth new wine......now give it away
I'm pouring forth new wine......the best for last.

My river is flowing......let it carry you
My river is flowing......My fire through you
My river is flowing......speak to the mountains
My river is flowing......nothing impossible to you.

Come to Me now......let Me whisper
Come to Me now......mysteries untold
Come to Me now......hear My secrets
Come to me now......I am beckoning you.

Run away with Me, My love......let me hold you
Run away with Me, My love......beauty divine
Run away with Me, My love......behold My glory
Run away with Me, My love......you are forever Mine.

All I have is yours......receive it gladly
All I have is yours......I paid the price
All I have is yours......My blood and My Name
All I have is yours......I in you and you in Me.

Oh beautiful bride, I long to hold you
Oh beautiful bride, My heart's delight
Oh beautiful bride, the day is coming
Oh beautiful bride, eternity ONE.

Go tell the world......that I love them
Go tell the world......I died for all
Go tell the world......I'm waiting for them
Go tell the world......I'm coming again.

My child now hear......listen softly
My child now hear......as I whisper your name
My child now hear......the rhythm of My Spirit
My child now hear......JESUS IS NEAR.

Speak forth My word......you are My voice
Speak forth My word......My sword in the earth
Speak forth My word......with fire and passion
Speak forth My word......and I will bring change.

Do you hear the rumble......war in the heavenlies
Do you hear the rumble......the end is near
Do you hear the rumble......I am coming
Do you hear the rumble......rise up without fear.

Go forth in power......I AM with you
Go forth in power......the blind shall see
Go forth in power......the deaf shall hear
Go forth in power......miracles not seen.

Come away My child, see My glory
Come away My child, splendor untold
Come away My child, your Lord is waiting
Come away My child, My will unfolds.

Fear not My love, nothing can harm you
Fear not My love, angels on guard
Fear not My love, all heaven applauds you Fear not My love, I'm praying for you.

www.propheticfire.org

Prophet's Speak
Pat Gregory

RISE UP AND SHAKE YOURSELVES

Get up.........rise up, shake yourselves off and stand tall, servants of the Most High God, for I AM strong and mighty, and I AM moving......speak, shout, sing, for your GOD is shaking all that will be shaken. Let the shackles fall, wipe the sleep from your eyes, wash your face, and wage war on the enemy.......for I AM WITH YOU, I AM IN YOU, AND I HAVE MUCH TO SAY THROUGH YOU.

PROPHET'S.....PROPHESY

No longer hold back, no longer remain silent, for My word is in you......I HAVE SPOKEN & I AM SPEAKING................let it pour forth................ root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, build, and plant. Do you not yet realize that MY WORDS OUT OF YOUR MOUTH WILL DO THIS?????? SPEAK FORTH THE WORD OF YOUR GOD! It is not you, BUT I. As you speak, My word will indeed root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, build and plant. This is why you were born. This is what I have purposed. This is My call on your life.

Prophets......PROPHESY! Prophets......PROPHESY! Prophets......PROPHESY!

I'M SENDING THE HUNGRY - RELEASE LIFE

Release LIFE, speak LIFE.......to all those that come before you with a need. Speak LIFE to all that appears dead. I am sending the hungry, the broken, the down trodden, the lame................SPEAK FORTH MY WORD TO THEM. Freely ye have received, freely give.

It is TIME, MY TIME, for My prophets TO WALK IN MY ANOINTING in power and demonstration.

DO MIGHTY EXPLOITS

Every hindrance, every fear, every opposing thought...........LAY IT DOWN THIS DAY, and go forward BY THE POWER OF MY SPIRIT, and DO MIGHTY EXPLOITS, for I, THE LORD AM WITH YOU. My word out of your mouth shall be a sword that will cut through every lie, deception, and stronghold, setting the captives free, releasing the bound to liberty, and opening the eyes of the blind. Speak forth My word with boldness, and I shall perform it, says the Lord of Hosts.

Believing For Breakthrough
Catherine Brown

BELIEVING FOR BREAKTHROUGH - WHEN THERE IS NO VISIBLE SIGN OF BREAKTHROUGH

Have you ever found yourself in a state of affairs where you are believing God for breakthrough in a situation where there is no visible sign of breakthrough? When there is simply no tangible sign on the earth of what we have received as Kingdom promises in our heart? Me too!

Whilst meditating recently on this particular subject, the Lord blessed me with some pearls of wisdom as I studied Matthew 3 and 4. From this short study I believe there are some valuable principles that we may lay hold of by faith, today, as we believe for breakthrough in our personal, community, or international situations.
In the early part of Matthew 3 we read of John the Baptist, who came preaching in the desert saying, "Repent for the Kingdom of heaven is near." Jesus described John as a prophet (Matthew 11:9), and the Scriptures point to John as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy (Isaiah 40:3).

"John the Baptist Continues to be a Prophetic Message to the Church Now"

In essence, John becomes a prophetic message to the Church then, and continues to be a prophetic message to the Church now.
In order to understand what this means, we need to consider the essence of the message John brought.

BECOME ONE WITH CHRIST THROUGH PURITY AND REPENTANCE TO BRING THE KINGDOM

"Repent for the kingdom of heaven is near." Matthew 3:2
Confession and genuine repentance lead to purity of heart through our being forgiven, accepted, and adopted as sons by Christ Jesus. John pointed to Christ as the Lamb of God and the Savior of the World. Our lives ought also to reflect Christ's Messiah-ship in order that others can come to a saving knowledge of His Truth.

PREPARE FOR THAT WHICH IS COMING

"Prepare the way for the Lord." Matthew 3:3

John was all about making straight paths for the Lord; in other words, his preaching, his lifestyle, his words, his thoughts, and his actions pointed to the necessity to remove every obstacle that would keep us from God's love in Christ and the power and compassion of the Cross of Calvary.
John lived to exalt the Lord. May we likewise emulate John's surrender to Christ in our own walks of faith, allowing the Holy Spirit to illuminate and remove any sin, wrong mindset, or lack of faith that prevents us from honoring God with our whole beings.

WE PRODUCE FRUIT BY BEING HUMBLE

"Produce fruit in keeping with repentance." Matthew 3:8
Perhaps we might describe the fruit of repentance as a broken and a contrite spirit (which the Bible says God esteems -- see Isaiah 66:2).

"Our Lives Become Totally Transformed . . . "

Our hearts become marinated in the grace of God, our minds saturated in the reality of His total forgiveness, and our spirits are awakened to the reality of the kindness of Christ as our personal Savior and Lord. Our lives become totally transformed by God's love through the Holy Spirit. What a privileged position of agape (love) given unconditionally to all who seek Christ with humble hearts. John continually pointed people to the Christ and the Cross -- where our sins, our sickness, our death, and our poverty are exchanged in the Blood Sacrifice of Christ for forgiveness, health, life, and abundance.

GROW IN PASSION FOR THE BRIDEGROOM

"To this John replied, 'A man can receive only what is given him from heaven. You yourselves can testify that I said, "I am not the Christ but am sent ahead of him." The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete. He must become greater; I must become less.'" John 3:27-30

"The Smaller We Are, the Bigger God Can Be in Our Lives!"

John calls the Church (the Bride) to holy union with her Bridegroom King, Christ Jesus. Part of believing is belonging. Attaining such a place of abiding in the Father heart of God releases us to untold joy. We should be a cheerful bride! John's message was wrapped up in a genuine understanding of the position of Christ as Bridegroom King.
The ongoing message of decrease calls us to humility and servant hood, whereby Christ is exalted. The smaller we are the bigger God can be in our lives!

A TIME TO PRUNE

"The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." Matthew 3:10

In the context of this Scripture, John was addressing the religious people of the day. Specifically, I believe he wanted the Jewish people to come to a revelatory understanding that their natural lineage to Abraham could not bring them to into a position of righteousness; this comes not by works, but by faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. May God deliver us from any religious bondage today that we might be a pure and spotless bride.

[Romans 4 is just one excellent link Scripture if you wish to study the topic of justification by faith alone.)

THE WILDERNESS THAT BIRTHS POWER ENCOUNTERS

"I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Matthew 3:11,12

Matthew 3 and Matthew 4 are two desert/wilderness experiences placed back to back, with a message on harvest interwoven throughout. John reveals Jesus not only as the Lamb of God, but also as the Harvest King endowed with omnipotence, omniscience, and omnipresence.
John clearly enunciated that any encounter with Jesus was a power encounter of profound proportions that would rock our world! Over and over he compelled the people to receive the message of the coming King.
John was a soul winner. We have a similar calling. I pray for a fresh baptism of God's love and Spirit on each one of us today, in the name of Jesus.

A CALL TO PIONEER

"A voice of one calling in the wilderness . . . " Matthew 3:3
John was a forerunner for Jesus, pioneering the eternal message of the Gospel in his generation. He broke the mold and dressed differently, spoke differently, and acted differently for the sake of Christ, defying religious convention of his day.

He was bold for God, immersed and consumed with serving God and seeing the people embrace purity.
It's time to come out of our church buildings and bless our communities and streets in Jesus' love.

BARREN BUT BLAMELESS

John was a much-loved son. His parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, endured their own spiritual desert prior to the long awaited birth of their apostolic son. The Bible says, "Both of them were upright in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commandments and regulations blamelessly, but they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren; and they were both well along in years" (Luke 1:6,7).

"John Believed for Breakthrough Before His King Came"

The Lord knew at exactly what point in history he wanted John to be born. John literally came out of the desert when he began his proclamation of the coming Christ. One thing we can glean from the Scriptures is that Kingdom forerunners cannot evade the desert experience. It is an integral part of our training. A desert experience is one when it appears that the manifest presence of Jesus is not with us, but we believe God for breakthrough despite or, perhaps, even because of this.

John believed for breakthrough before his King came. His words were full of passionate and powerful exhortation, warning people of the coming judgment for those who would not accept the mercy of Christ. John creatively preached and spoke of Jesus as Savior, Lord, King, and Bridegroom.

YOU ARE ABOUT TO BE REWARDED FOR YOUR PERSEVERANCE

Ultimately, John was rewarded for his perseverance when Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. What a moment this must have been for John, who had proclaimed, prophesied, and longed for the time when he would see his Savior face to face. "Behold the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world."
Finally, John broke through in the desert and found the face of Jesus Christ and heard the voice of God in a moment of heart-stopping, life-changing prophetic fulfillment.

"John Was Rewarded for His Perseverance When Jesus Came"

Jesus is the One who brings breakthrough. All we have to do is trust Him, receive His love, and continue to walk in obedience to His call on our lives.

May you be enveloped in the beauty and the sweetness of the aroma of Christ. Believe for breakthrough -- it is coming!

Yours in Jesus' love,

Bread for Hungry Hearts
Betty Heimbach

bettyjay@bellsouth.net

October 28, 2005

Are You Listening?

My Children,
Are you listening? Are you listening? I am speaking through My prophets. I am sending forth My word. I am speaking through the elements. I have spoken through the winds and through the water and through the earth. Are you listening?

Change. Change. Change! Truly things are changing at My Word. A change is coming by My hand. You will see great changes. You've already seen that much has changed in the wake of recent events. At first sight things do look bad. Then they may look worse. But wait and see. Watch and pray. Change requires upheaval. True change requires reversals. Get ready for change.

Do not be afraid. Do not be dismayed. I am fulfilling My word. I have spoken purification. I have spoken cleansing. I have spoken shaking. I have sent forth My prophets to speak My word. Listen. Listen.

The cleansing will begin in My house. The purification begins in My Body. The shaking begins at the top. My house will be cleansed. My Body will be purified. All that is unclean, unholy, unsanctified and all that is false, deceitful and soulish will be shaken out or washed away.

Then will My people walk in purity and holiness. Then will My people walk in true light that will draw the lost and sick and forgotten to seek Me. Get ready. Get ready. Listen for the wind. Listen. Listen to My word that is going forth in this day.

Seek Me. Rise up. Shake yourself free. Purify your heart and mind. Get ready. Get ready to be My voice crying out in love to those who need to hear. Get ready.

While you are getting ready, get ready to rejoice. Yes, rejoice. As the shaking and the cleansing and the purifying are coming to an end you will see Me move as never before. You will walk in power as never before. Signs and wonders will follow all who believe, all who listen and prepare. Get ready. The weeping and mourning will end. Rejoicing will follow. Get ready.

This one says “Doom!” That one says,” Ruin and damnation!” Another voice speaks forth “All is well. Peace and prosperity is here.” They declare “Peace! Peace!” But I say, “Change is coming. Great change has begun and will continue until My work of purification and cleansing is complete. Do not run from it. Do not deny it. Cooperate with Me. Get ready for change and see the fulfillment of My word. The harvest is coming. Many have sown. Now the reaping is at hand. The harvest is coming. But first a great change. Get ready.

May you know God's presence and His keeping power every day.
Betty Heimbach

Bow and Arrow
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, July 15, 2005

I injured my back this week and have had a hard time sitting, standing and walking. I mentioned to a friend that I was praying for wings. So much is going on here in Israel and around the world, that I thought maybe just to send a partial repeat of a letter from December 1999 on the progressive takeover of the one world order, which actually is not a takeover at all but a culmination, or the full maturation, of the kingdoms of this world as seen by the prophet Daniel. The one head that was wounded like onto death out of the seven heads of the great beast, (ref Rev 13:3) is one of the four heads of the Greeks (Leopard), and that is the political head - Democracy. So it is not hard to see what spirit is behind the democratization of the nations. However, what are we, the redeemed remnant, to be bearing witness to during this end time scenario?

"Return to the stronghold, You prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. For I have bent Judah, My bow, fitted the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man." Then YHVH will be seen over them, and His arrow will go forth like lightning. YHVH Elohim will blow the trumpet, and go with whirlwinds from the south" (Zechariah 9:12-14).

In today's world, with the rise of a restored ancient Greek political system called democracy, along with the efforts to reconcile the main monotheistic religions by the "queen of heaven", man (under the influence of Satan) has devised a method of uniting the world around a single theme, "humanism". Humanism brings together a type of a kingly and priestly order, which will ultimately manifest itself in a temple that will be built in Jerusalem, where the man of lawlessness will sit and rule over an anti-Messiah, anti-Torah system. But what we must also consider, since the Word calls man a temple, is that the "man of lawlessness" may be the person living inside one's own body (or temple). Man thinking that he is lord of his own destiny, worships through pride the works of his hands, doing what is right in his own eyes and deciding what is holy and profane. Then through the political system he will elect one head to represent this system of Humanism, which is a direct counterfeit of YHVH's Kingdom in the earth.

The Greeks established democracy in order to give freedom to the individual enabling him to express the lusts of his own heart. The same is true today; the nations that have adopted this form of government have the highest rate of abortion, euthanasia, homosexuality, etc. They look for every opportunity to satisfy their lusts; setting times and seasons (feast days, birthdays), to indulge in food and drink resulting in gluttony, drunkenness and sexual promiscuity.

This freedom is symbolized by a statue, which stands in the harbor of New York City, called the Statue of Liberty. To those who are familiar with ancient Greek history, this modern day pictogram is very familiar. Around 290 BC, another such icon was erected, called the Colossus of Rhodes. Approximately three hundred tons of copper and iron were used to construct this "wonder of the ancient world." It was built as a tribute to their savior "Helios", who protected the islanders from being captured by an invading army. This sun god Helios was an Egyptian god who according to legend took up residence on the island; later Helios became known as Apollo.

Journalist John Rigos reported that the municipality of the city of Rhodes, aided by the European Union, was planning to rebuild this monument as a symbol of growing European unification and international peace and cooperation. In order to implement this theme of "new world in a new millennium", as it was coined, the monument was going to be made out of melted-down coins from "all the members of the European Union and from prospective candidates abandoning their individual currencies in favor of one euro".

Not surprisingly, the Europeans have also altered the arrangement of the weekly calendar, with "Sun-day" appearing as the last day, or seventh day of the week. The sun gods of the ancient empires were believed to give light and life. The Messiah came to do the same thing, thus it was not difficult to blend the two concepts. The purpose of the Gospel was also to bring peace, harmony and unity to humanity living in a world of wars, conflicts and strife between governments and religious factions. Political and spiritual leaders were always looking for the right combinations of governmental and religious ideals to advance their control and power over the populace. Constantine, in the 4th century, was one such leader who combined the "nativity of the Greek sun god", with an alleged birth date of the Messiah. This was an intentional ploy on Satan's part to deceive humanity and to lead it further away from the truth of YHVH's divine times and seasons. Thus, the celebration of the ancient festival of the sun god on the 25th of December was in reality honoring a more ancient Egyptian god, who during the Constantinian era was worshiped by thousands of followers of Mithraism.

The Torah gives us divine instructions on how to observe the calendar of YHWH. The enemies of Torah know the importance of a calendar as a tool, which keeps order in society. Without a calendar humanity would be in a state of chaos.

We, as YHVH's redeemed, have been exhorted to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, being holy (separate) as He is holy. "Since we have been set apart to be the witness of His kingdom of righteousness peace and joy, what kind of people ought we to be in holy conduct and godliness?" (Acts 1:8; 2 Pet. 3:11). To be in the world but not of it, certainly would mean that we do not participate in pagan practices, nor mix them into the Torah that is being written on our hearts. The times and the seasons are in YHWH's hands. "So let us be sober, knowing the time that it is already the hour for us to awaken from sleep; for now our salvation is nearer to us than when we believed. The night is almost gone, and the day is at hand. Let us therefore lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy. But put on Messiah Yeshua, and make no provision for the flesh in regards to its lusts" (Rom 13:11-14).

As the redeemed sons of Zion we are facing one of the biggest battles this world has ever known. We are the prisoners of hope, with a restored kingdom government ruling in our hearts, with Yeshua as king of kings, leading the way into this war. We are to become the united weapon in His hand. In order for us to be effective in this end time conflict, Judah must be the bow and Ephraim the arrow. But as long as we are dueling with one another we will not pose the enemy any problem and the sons of Greece will continue to take possession of that which actually belongs to the sons of Zion.

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim

Be Awakened And Achieve Breakthrough By Your 'Tests'"!

Matt Sorger

Don't be disqualified by your tests. Let those tests become stepping stones to your promotion!

ENTER INTO THE BREAKTHROUGH

Here at Matt Sorger Ministries, we have entered a new season of God's presence with an incredible release of an open heaven. I have been living in His presence for weeks now, and with each passing day it grows stronger and stronger.

There is a place of breakthrough that God gives us, and as long as we protect the ground we have gained in Him, there is nothing that can hinder us from moving higher and higher in His power and glory.

If you are reading this, I want to invite you into this place of breakthrough with us. Position yourself before the Lord in prayer, and let Him pour out His glory in a fresh way in your life. I have recently been seeking the Lord in a deeper way, and [I] have felt a renewed passion and sense of urgency to see a fresh awakening released in our nation. God is about to break out all over our nation with extended moves of His Spirit. God is sending us to strategic locations throughout the country to help prepare the way for one of the greatest moves of God we have ever seen.

There has been a tremendous anointing in our meetings with a great release of God's glory and healing power. People are being healed of cancer, deafness, Multiple Sclerosis, Fibromyalgia, eye conditions, back conditions, and Rheumatoid Arthritis, along with many other life-threatening illnesses.

GOD IS LOOKING FOR A RESTING PLACE

"And His resting place shall be glorious." -- Isaiah 11:10

As I have been waiting on God, I can hear His voice speaking very clearly. I hear the Spirit of God saying that He is looking for a resting place. The Holy Spirit desires to come and abide in a tangible way. And He is looking for those who will make room for Him to come. He is about to release such an outpouring, that [it] will rival that of the Charismatic renewal of the 1970's. Another wave of revival will hit the Catholic Church, bringing a renewed passion for Jesus in their midst.

As the Holy Spirit is poured out, there will be many centers of healing raised up where people will come from miles around to receive a touch from Him. There will be such a degree of the manifest presence of God that people will be healed before they are even prayed for. They will be healed just walking into His presence.

God is about to show off His power. The healing anointing is about to increase upon the church, releasing many into signs, wonders, and miracles with a bold witness for the Lord. Even the meekest among us will roar like a lion.

"And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken, they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness." -- Acts 4:31

A SEASON OF INSPECTION AND TESTING

God is looking for resting places where He can come and settle down --places where He can display

His power and [He is looking for] people with whom He can trust His anointing. The church is in a season of inspection and testing.

Just as Gideon's army was tested to see who would qualify, so now many hearts are being tested. Many have been in testing and have not understood why or have lost sight of the ultimate end, which is the display of God's glory. It is vital that each one of us, personally and corporately, recognize the tests we are facing so that we can pass them and move to the next level God has for us. We must get the heavenly perspective [so] that our circumstances, no matter how negative, do not determine our future. It is our response to those circumstances that will determine our next step in God and whether He can trust us with more of His power.

"But the Lord said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there." -- Judges 7:4 The very testing some have been walking through will become the very thing that promotes them in this next season. They will become carriers of God's grace and glory, for they will have learned two things during this time: they will have learned how to lean upon God's grace which has been sufficient for them, and they will have learned that God's glory is revealed in their weaknesses.

"And He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities (weaknesses), that the power of Christ may rest upon me." 2 Corinthians 12:9

God will strategically use these vessels of clay to reveal His glory in this next season. Some will even be the most unlikely. God will choose the most unlikely of people, just like He chose Gideon, hiding in a winepress, the weakest of the weak (Judges 6:15). We must remember God is for us and wants to promote us. It will be by His power, through a yielded heart, that we overcome every test and pass [on] to the next level. Every test we are facing or have faced is an opportunity for promotion.

"But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. We are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So then death is working in us, but life in you." -- 2 Corinthians 4:7-12 (also see verses 13-18)

THE SWORD OF THE LORD GOD'S JUSTICE AND JUDGMENT RELEASED AGAINST THE WORKS OF THE ENEMY

In Judges 7:16-22 Gideon instructs the 300 [men] to hold their torches inside empty pitchers. After they surround the camp of the enemy, at Gideon's command they blow their trumpets and break the pitchers and cry out, "The sword of the Lord and of Gideon!" Suddenly, the enemy is thrown into confusion, flees, and turns on itself, bringing victory to Gideon's army.

God is about to release the light of His glory through vessels that have been emptied and broken so that He can execute and decree judgment on the works of the enemy. As God's glory is revealed in us during this next season, the very works of the enemy will come under God's judgment and be destroyed. God is releasing again His sword of justice on behalf of His people.

"For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil." -- 1 John 3:8

GREAT SHAKING -- GROANINGS FOR THE REVELATION OF THE MANIFESTED SONS OF GOD

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.

For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now." -- Romans 8:18-22

There is a great shaking happening in the world around us today. There is a groaning in nature as creation experiences the labor pains of her full redemption. Earthquakes, famine, hurricanes, flooding -- these are all signs of the approaching redemption and revelation of the Church in full power and glory. The sufferings of this present age can not be compared to the glory that is about to be revealed in the Church.

The time is drawing nearer. When a woman is about to give birth, the contractions get stronger and more frequent. The more creation groans in travail, the closer we are to our full redemption and transformation. The shakings around us are a sign of the power that is about to be revealed in the Church. Get ready!

PREPARE AND BE READY

So get ready, and prepare your hearts for His coming. Holiness and purity will be great preparations for you as your temple is cleansed and made ready to house the increase that is coming. We prepare ourselves by staying full of His presence and by guarding our hearts against any defilement of the flesh and the world.

"And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: 'I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people.'

Therefore, come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you. I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty." -- 2 Corinthians 6:16-18

Be prepared and ready. Let your spirit be full of oil. Matthew 25 reveals to us that we are each responsible to have our own oil. We can't depend on someone else's relationship with God. We need to have our own. As we cultivate our relationship with Him, He will prepare us for His coming.

"Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!' Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming." -- Matthew 25:1-13

As God releases the Spirit of Awakening within us, we are brought out of darkness and into His marvelous light. His light within us exposes and drives out the shame of sin and empowers us to live in complete freedom and victory. As the Spirit awakens our hearts with His light, our lives are full of spiritual fruit and power.

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them.

For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. Therefore He says: 'Awake, you who sleep, arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.'" -- Ephesians 5:8-14

During this time of inspection, we must remain self-controlled, alert, watchful, and sober. As we abide in His light and glory, He will fill us with more and more of Himself, releasing more of His presence and manifest power in our lives.

"You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation. For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ." -- 1 Thessalonians 5:5-9

These are key scriptures for the Church in this hour. They talk about living with an awakened heart. Meditate on them and pray them over your life. Stay alert and be on-guard against all distractions. 1 Peter 5:8 exhorts us to be sober, self-controlled, vigilant, and watchful. And nothing will be able to stand against what God will do in the days to come. Your destiny in Him is limitless!

This prophetic now-word of the Lord will help prepare your heart to move to the next level of God's power and glory in your life. Don't be caught sleeping during this hour of history. Receive a fresh anointing to live with an awakened heart!

By MATT SORGER
Igniting Revival Fire
www.mattsorger.com

Become as a Child

Mike Tucker

Matthew 18:1-4, ‘At that time the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" And He called a child to Himself and set him before them, and said, “Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever then humbles himself as this child , he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”
NASU

Recently I was exiting a store and saw a line of teenagers entering the storefront. As the first few came in, it was evident by their faces and child-like actions that these youth were different. That is, the world labels them retarded or mentally challenged. Whatever the label, they are the segregated in the world’s eyes. I saw smiles on the first few faces and the Holy Spirit spoke in my heart, ‘Here goes the Glory of God’. That word stunned me for a second. I was then compelled to stand and watch each one pass by and smile with them as they looked back at me and played ‘handsies’ amongst themselves.

Later that day I took my own children to a public park. I sat down on a bench seat to watch over them as they ran about the playsets. After a while, a small blond child perhaps three or four years old walked by. He had such a beautiful smile on his face. Yet he was what the world labels ‘mongoloid’ or more clinically correct ‘Down syndrome’. As he walked by the Holy Spirit spoke in me and said, ‘You are in the presence of royalty. This one is a prince of Heaven.’ My heart was greatly stirred. And as I observed this princely child, I was made to know that he had only one simple gift… he was just happy to be alive. He seemed to exercise his gift well.

Buttons And Bows

Mary Clark

3/23/05

I want to talk to My dear children about buttons and bows today. You might ask what I could possible say about buttons and bows that would tie in with your life. I will tell you:

I have created My children to walk holy before Me. I have given them all that is necessary to accomplish this feat. I gave My life and I filled you with My Spirit – the promise – the wonder of your God living in you, which is the hope of glory. Now, you say, “Father, You gave us these things, we know, because Your word is true, but I find it difficult to walk holy before You on an ongoing basis.” I tell you this truly, beloved, it will get easier as you progress. It will get easier as you draw closer to Me, I promise.

But hear these words of caution: The enemy would like to see you stumble, and he will do all that is in his power to trip you. Remember this when temptation comes your way. No matter how good something may look, beloved, it may be the tempter, and I want you aware of this fact.

I have made a way for you to walk holy before Me. I have given to you the seal of My Spirit. I reside in your heart. I enjoy residing in your heart, making My corrections here and there. I enjoy seeing that heart come into agreement with Me. I want you to know that you are not too difficult for your Beloved. Nothing is too difficult for Me, and I can do absolute wonders with a willing heart.

In this day, many are seeking to walk holy before the Lord God Almighty – the One Who is Holy – the One Who gave His life that all might walk in agreement with His Holy Word. This is most pleasing to your Father. Look on the days ahead and know that I am at work purifying your heart and bringing it into agreement with Me. This should please you greatly. And know this too, beloved: I am adding some buttons and I am adding some bows in the process. Now, what could I mean by that proclamation? I tell you, beloved, that I am adding some things to your walk that will not only look good, but will be useful – useful in your walk, and useful in leading others into My kingdom.

I am doing a fine work! I am bringing all to a completion. I want you to know that these things that I am adding to your walk will be most beneficial, but they will also bear a certain attraction. Look on this attraction as a signal from Me that I am doing a miraculous work in your heart, and enabling you to draw others into My fold by the beauty that lies in your heart. No, your heart cannot be seen, per se.

That is true, dear one. But the reflection of your God, Who resides in your heart, can be seen. I can be seen through the smile on your face, the tenderness of your touch, and the light in your eyes. This is what I mean when I say that I am adding some buttons and bows to your walk. I am adding something that is both attractive and useful. What could be more useful that shining forth the light of My glory from your eyes? What could be more useful that having your Holy Master touch another through your hands, or speak words of tenderness through your words – through your voice?

Yes, it is true. I am adding some lovely finishing touches to My beloved in this hour – finishing touches that you may keep for eternity. These finishing touches could be classified as buttons and bows, which can be lovely to the eye and useful in your walk. These buttons and bows can draw attention to your walk in a way that you never dreamed possible. So look forward to these pleasant additions coming from My hand, and know, beloved, that your lifestyle is about to change – change for the better, and it is all coming by My hand – by My hand adding these sweet and simple touches of buttons and bows.

Let Me tell you something about these bows: They are multi-colored. They are BIG, and they are to be yearned for. Yearn for the bows, but know that the buttons will hold you closer in My arms than you ever dreamed of being. This is My goal – to see you decorated with these gifts of loveliness and usefulness. It is My goal to see you walk My chosen path for you, fully aware of the greatest of gifts that your Father has to offer – more of Himself – more of His love, radiating from your heart , and more of His will shining through the life that you have chosen to lead.

I am calling to you, beloved. Come into this place in Me of great beauty, and know with every step that you take, that you are drawing closer than you ever expected into the haven of wonder that I have prepared for those who have sought after Me – the Holy One – with a whole heart!!!

Bearing A Burden

Bill Somers

> (Luke 11:46) And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

In this dream, I was on the way somewhere. I was walking along in a city environment. My old pastor was walking along with me.

I had to stop and pick up a very large cardboard box to carry along, on my shoulder. As we went, the box got heavier and heavier. It got to where I could barely carry it. The pastor did not offer to help.

Then whatever was in the box began to shift position, apparently not being loaded in to evenly distribute the weight. As the load shifted position, it became even harder to carry, because it would throw me off balance. Then the load shifted so much that the box began to break up!

Finally when I could not carry it any longer, we met up with a group of people who were coming out of a church, a funeral party. Just then the box broke apart. And a mans leg stuck out. It turned there was a body in the box. We put the body in the coffin from the funeral party, because it was empty. Then they took it off to bury. The dead person was familiar to me, but I can't recall who it was. I was so relieved not to have to carry that burden any more. The pastor went off somewhere else.

On waking up, I recalled the dream, and the Lord spoke to me something like 'you've got to bury the old man.'

Bereft And Desolate

Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 7th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

1 Tim 6:5 AMP And protracted wrangling and wearing discussion and perpetual friction among men who are corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, who imagine that godliness or righteousness is a source of profit [a moneymaking business, a means of livelihood]. From such withdraw.

2 Peter 2:1-3 AMP BUT ALSO [in those days] there arose false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among yourselves, who will subtly and stealthily introduce heretical doctrines (destructive heresies), even denying and disowning the Master Who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their immoral ways and lascivious doings; because of them the true Way will be maligned and defamed. 3 And in their covetousness (lust, greed) they will exploit you with false (cunning) arguments. From of old the sentence [of condemnation] for them has not been idle; their destruction (eternal misery) has not been asleep.

“ I AM provoked to jealousy for My bride. It is time. It is time. It is time for the overturning of the tables of the moneychangers ! You have seen the cunning ways in which covetousness has grown and prospered in My church. But I will overturn the ways of those serpents and I will raise up shepherds after Mine own heart who will listen to ME and do MY bidding.

They will not break in and steal and rob from widows. They will not oppress My prophets. They will no longer steal from the single mothers and fatherless children, nor ignore the poor and needy. I will raise up the compassionate and merciful, the humble and those who are filled with the fear of the Lord over the fear of man. I will not choose the “politically correct” for this job. I will render to each according to his works. For the works are the fruit I will test.

I will take the failures in the eyes of men and make them the seers of today ! I will take those who seemed like so much flotsam and jetsom to the sophisticated and rich, and powerful, and use them to humble those who are prideful of their own opinions. Judgment will be swift to the wicked in this hour. Remember that I told you that I did NOT come to bring peace but a sword in this hour. Because the hour has come to judge the covetous and greedy. There is no rest for those who have swallowed up the righteous, and discarded the weak. I will humble the prideful and arrogant and you will see the GLORY of the LORD descend in your homes, in your churches, in your gatherings as never before !

It is time for JUSTICE to roll. It is time for the Righteous to prevail.
I will restore those with hearts that have been broken and damaged. I will restore the tormented and afflicted. I will arise with HEALING in My wings and you will go forth as stall fed calves. You will overcome evil with good, and you will enjoy prosperity in the midst of famine and darkness because I AM with you. Truth will prevail over the lies ! Love will prevail over fear and darkness !

Sing the song of Moses ! Sing it loud on flute and harp ! Sing My Bride for your Bridegroom is coming and entering into His chamber ! Come and rejoice and make melody you who play on instruments ! Dance and sing and celebrate for JUBILEE is coming to those who are faithful to ME in their hearts. The decree has gone out. It is accomplished in the heavens and you will see the fruit of it in the earth ! Again, I say to you, REJOICE and be GLAD for your King is coming to you, and life will never be the same again !

Rev 15:2-4 NKJV They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints! 4 Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, For Your judgments have been manifested."

Psalms 19 NKJV The Perfect Revelation of the LORD
To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
1 The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork. 2 Day unto day utters speech, And night unto night reveals knowledge. 3 There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard. 4 Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and rejoices like a strong man to run its race.
6 Its rising is from one end of heaven, And its circuit to the other end; And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

6 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul; The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple; 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes; 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. 10 More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. 11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned, And in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? Cleanse me from secret faults. 13 Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, And I shall be innocent of great transgression. 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my strength and my Redeemer.

Bait on the Hook

by Bill Somers

> "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."* (2 Corinthians 2:11)

The Ancient order of Assassins

An historic legend in the Middle East concerns the so called Ancient order of Assassins. This group was a cult branching off of Islam. It was supposedly led by the Old Man of the Mountain, a mythic figure named Hassan. Hassan's method of recruiting men to serve as assassins involved the use of Hashish, a drug based on opium. The words 'assassin' 'hashish' and 'hassan' are perhaps somehow related in Arabic.

Anyway Hassan had a remote mountain fortress where he trained spies and assassins. These men had to be willing to go on suicide missions and obey orders at all costs. Hassan had a way to get them to believe that if they sacrificed their lives on a mission, they would automatically go to Allah's Paradise. There they would enjoy pleasures for all eternity.

How did he do this? Sometime, early in their training, the men would be drugged with Hashish. Then while they were unconscious, they would be taken to another, secret part of the fortress. There when they awoke they found themselves in the midst of luxurious apartments and gardens. There they could indulge themselves on the finest foods and wines. They were waited upon by harems of beautiful women who gave them every sort of sexual pleasure. All the while the men were kept slightly drugged. They were told that this was Allah's Paradise and that all good servants of Hassan would go there when they died.

Next they were drugged unconscious again and taken back to their former quarters. When they awoke to a normal state they believed that they had been to paradise. After this, they would do anything Hassan asked them to do.

Some say that Hassan never existed and the whole thing is a myth. Whether it's true on not, it illustrates a pattern of deception that the enemy of our soul commonly employs.

The pattern of deception.

The pattern of Deception has three standard features.
The Bait. An Experience. The person has or is given a genuine experience that is either supernatural or way out of the ordinary.
The Hook. A Lie. The experience is followed by a false explanation of what happened.
Destructive Consequences: Physical and or spiritual death. The explanation tends to lead them away from belief in God or the Bible

The Ancient order of Assassins

In the case of the assassins the bait was the very real experience of a pseudo paradise.

The hook was the lies that they would go there if they gave their lives in service to Hassan or to Islam.

The consequences were that these men became willing servants of satan leading to their death, both physical and eternal.

The Truth: These men were deliberately deceived by Hassan.

Belief in Ghosts

The Experience: Apparitions, noises and other happenings that hundreds have experienced all around the world and all through history are quite real.

The Lie: These phenomena are caused by spirits of the dead who for some reason are unable to find rest in the afterlife.

The Result: The belief in Ghosts contradicts the Word of God. You end up believing a lie.

The Truth: Ghostly phenomena are caused and created by demon powers who deliberately intend to deceive.

Psychic Phenomena

The Bait: Psychic readers who can tell you things about yourself that they could not possibly know through natural means.

The Hook: The belief that these people have inherent talents that give them this special power.

The Result: People seek to acquire or develop these so called talents for themselves, instead of looking to God for guidance.

The Truth: The psychics get their information from evil spirits who have the ability to know all about you and tell it to them. The psychics themselves have no control over how this happens. They as well as their clients are being deliberately deceived.

Reincarnation

The Experience: People who have dreams of past lives or who are able to remember details of past lives under hypnotism. These details often contain information that the person could not have know by natural means.

The Hook: The Lie is that people have past lives, and that their souls are reborn into other people after they die.

The Consequence: Disbelief in heaven or hell and complete loss of the fear of God.

The Truth: The information and the dreams come from evil spirits who deliberately intend to deceive and lead us away from belief in God.

Evolution

The Bait: Scientific Evidence from fossils and geology.

The Hook; The idea that the earth is very old and that life forms came about by gradually change from simpler to more complex and advance species.

The Consequence: Denial of the Biblical account of God's creation. And hence a denial of God's authority over us and over this world.

The Truth: God Created the Heavens and the Earth. He created man and set the laws that he must live by.

Near death experiences

The Bait: A person dies during surgery and finds themselves aware that their spirit is floating is space above their body on the operating table. Then they find themselves going down a long tunnel and coming out into a bright place where they are met by the spirits of their dead relatives and a host of angels. They are told that life after death is a wonderful peaceful reality and to not be afraid. Then the surgeons revive them and they eventually wake up in their own bodies again. Often they are able to relate things that went on while they were unconscious in surgery. Their experiences are real, but the spirits they encounter are fake and the things they are told are lies.

The Hook: The lie that there is nothing to fear after death.

The consequence: Disbelief in biblical accounts of heaven and hell. Disregard for the consequences of sin and no fear of the Lord.

The Truth: These experiences are deliberately engineered by demon powers intending to deceive. [These kinds of near death experiences never happen to born again Christians. They usually have an experience with the Lord or a vision of heaven in these cases.]

Out of Body experiences

These are similar to the above.

Drug related experiences

These are similar to the above.

UFO's

The Bait. People are constantly having sightings of UFO's. Some are abducted by alien creatures, others are in contact with them through psychic means.

The Hook: That there is intelligent life on other worlds and they have spacecraft they use to visit this earth.

The Result: Once again disbelief or denial of God's creation.

The Truth: These sightings and other happenings are well within the power of Demon spirits to create with the intention to deceive.

Conclusion:

In these end times we are about to go through, we will see many signs and wonders, Supernatural happenings are about to become commonplace. These in many cases will be bait, watch for the hook. Beware of any offered explanation that ignores or denies that God is in control.

Back to: HOMEPAGE or FILELIST of

Bill Somers Prophetic Vision

Balagàn (Confusion)

Catharina Schouten - Meijer

Balagàn (confusion)
November 09, 2005
In the wake of two questions of brothers in faith, the Heavenly Father reminded me of the following article.

Daniel 9: 21 – 27
The Seventy Weeks
Daniel wrote:
20 I was still confessing my sins and those of all Israel to the Lord my God, and I was praying for the good of his holy mountain, holy mountain: Jerusalem (see verse 16) or the temple.
21 when Gabriel suddenly came flying in at the time of the evening sacrifice. This was the same Gabriel I had seen in my vision, 22 and he explained: Daniel, I am here to help you understand the vision.
23 God thinks highly of you, and at the very moment you started praying, I was sent to give you the answer.
24 God has decided that for seventy weeks, seventy weeks: Or “seventy times seven years.”
your people and your holy city must suffer as the price of their sins. Then evil will disappear, and justice will rule forever; the visions and words of the prophets will come true, and a most holy place will be dedicated.
a most holy place will be dedicated: Or “God's Holy One will appear.”
25 You need to realize that from the command to rebuild Jerusalem until the coming of the Chosen Leader, the Chosen Leader: Or “a chosen leader.” In Hebrew the word “chosen” means “to pour oil (on someone's head).” In Old Testament times it was the custom to pour oil on a person's head when that person was chosen to be a priest or a king.
it will be seven weeks and another sixty-two weeks.
seven weeks and another sixty-two weeks: Or “seven times seven years and another sixty-two times seven years.”
Streets will be built in Jerusalem, and a trench will be dug around the city for protection, but these will be difficult times.
t will be seven ... difficult times: Or “it will be seven weeks. Then streets will be built in Jerusalem, and a trench will be dug around the city for protection. But Jerusalem will have difficult times for sixty-two weeks.”
26 At the end of the sixty-two weeks, sixty-two weeks: Or “sixty-two times seven years.”
the Chosen Leader will be killed and left with nothing.
left with nothing: Or “no one will take his place.”
A foreign ruler and his army will sweep down like a mighty flood, leaving both the city and the temple in ruins, and war and destruction will continue until the end, just as God has decided. For one week one week: Or “seven years.”
this foreigner
this foreigner: Or “the Chosen Leader.”
will make a firm agreement with many people, and halfway through this week, halfway through this week: Or “for half of this week of seven years.”
he will end all sacrifices and offerings. Then the “Horrible Thing” that causes destruction will be put there. And it will stay there until the time God has decided to destroy this one who destroys.

Cleansing & Purifying

Now is the time for those who are serious about following the Lord to leave the old behind and entrust themselves completely to the Lord.
Teshuva : a total return to God, humbling, cleansing, turnaround, repentance!
Sons and Daughters are destined to become visible in our time! Here come the anointed ones!

Anti – Christ

So much has been said and written down already in regard to the Anti – Christ, but what in fact does this word imply?
Christ = Messiah = the Anointed One and His Anointing!
Sons and daughters will be anointed persons. With hearts that are utterly broken and contrite, they will be led by the Spirit, the Holy Spirit, to shine as bright lights in an ever darker world.
Anti – Christ = Anti – Anointing! Being against the anointing…….

Word received

Daniël 7:2
"I had a vision at night; I saw there before me the four winds of the sky breaking out over the great sea."

Like the sea brings forth foam which is made as a result of the salt in the water, so will it be with My Body. The remnant are the children whom I have filled with the oil of My Spirit. Like a wave, it will manifest itself and flow over the world. My body ... My army

Living water will be produced as they speak what I command. They shall be one from heart and soul. They will expect it from Me. I will be their Father and they will be My children. Unexpectedly, it shall blossom in the silence. It is now growing. The signs are already there. Like the foam at the sea, so shall My light shine in this dark world. Thou are the salt of the earth. From the four corners of the earth, they shall come together to exalt My Name.

Isaiah 28: 5 - 6
"On that day, Adonai Tzva`ot will be a glorious crown and a brilliant diadem for the remnant of His people. He will also be a spirit of justice for whoever sits as a judge, and a source of strength for those repelling enemy attacks at the gate."

Isaiah 28: 28 -29
"When crushing grain for bread, one doesn’t crush it to powder.
This too comes from Adonai Tzava`ot. His counsel is wonderful and his wisdom great."
25-5-2005 1:53:18 Catharina Schouten

But, before we can set off as such, the Bride will have to be restored to full function in the power of God Almighty!
Being anointed! The best wine saved for last! Out with the old stuff, enter the new!

Powerful Army

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Sons and Daughters of His Highest, will do greater things than our Messiah did while He walked on this earth!
The secret to these ‘greater things’ is to be found in that very word ‘anointing’….
Indeed, there will be this false unity of mixed religions, the Babylonian church!
This Babylon embodies unity without the Blood of Yeshua (Jesus), without the anointing!
In this Babylon system there will be enmity towards the anointed of God, His chosen Sons and Daughters !

Anti – Christ = Anti – Anointing! Being against the anointing…….

Important

In light of the above it is CRUCIALLY important to allow yourself, your own fleshly thinking to be BROKEN and CRUSHED, now that it is still possible!
And: to allow yourself to be RESTORED, on all fronts!
This is why it is so vital and imperative to give God a free rein, to have Him search your innermost parts, to see yourself in His full light!

For the Anti – Christ, the false messiah and his false religion, the false church with its false unity, they will so deceptively masquerade as… the Gospel…

By making use of the very same ingredients, the very same words, such as ‘Peace’, ‘Love’ and ‘Righteousness’ it will closely, deceptively resemble what Yeshua told us, but nevertheless it will be BLOODLESS and DEVOID OF LIFE & POWER !

“I Am The TRUTH, The WAY and The LIFE,” says our Messiah, “no one will come to the Father EXCEPT through ME” !!!
Precisely this principle will be principally denied and contradicted in the false church and its false unity. Anything goes in this melting pot of religions that propagates a kind of love that God has never intended!

THE DEFINING WORD OF LOVE!
I Am the Lion of Judah, says Yeshua of Himself!
My word will be sweet like honey for those who have been broken in their own selves and their fleshly thinking, but bitter to those who choose to hold fast to their own ways, their own thinking, their own soul power…..

The Lion and The Lamb a different kind of love than the love as we’d like to interpret it.....

NO can be an answer that doesn’t sound like love to our fleshly thinking, but in His Love the answer no can do us so much good!
Do not reduce our King to a human being, do not try to weave our human love around Him...
My thoughts and ways are higher than yours, says He about Himself!!!

POWERLESS
To become utterly broken, utterly emptied and cleansed of sins and curses, in order to be born form Spirit,
To be a vessel, an instrument in His hands…..
To be led and guided by the Spirit, step by step, so as to doe what He wants to do…..

Such is the true Gospel, in all the splendor of its simplicity…..
But Heavenly Father revealed to me that in the course of time more and more people didn’t get to the point of allowing themselves to be broken completely, to the point of becoming FULLY AWARE of the TOTAL lostness and deprivation of their sinful state if it were not for the atoning sacrifice of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, the Lamb, slain before the foundation of the world….
Over time so many people have come to ‘accept’ Jesus as Saviour with the hidden agenda to gain a better life for themselves……
If vessels like these set out to preach the Gospel, they cannot but share a weak, watered-down version of the Message……

Paul was struck by The LIGHT and was instantly blinded……to subsequently be filled with SPIRIT & WORD, SPIRIT & WORD This same ‘scholar’, who once knew everything, tells us later:

For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

Why would it be that we in our time have so few enemies… so little persecution…?
Because we are still so powerless…..
But, the Lord is NOW in the process of restoring HIS BRIDE, of ridding her of old patterns, structures, doctrines, dogmas…..
RESTORATION….the best wine saved for last…….Sons & Daughters being made visible……

Therefore my dear brother or sister, if this applies to you: humble yourself and allow the Light to shine brightly through you as well !
Confess your guilt, turn around and repent! Teshuva !! Turn around totally towards: GOD!!!!!!
No other name than the name of JESUS will suffice!!!

And then… we will march on, shoulder to shoulder as a mighty army…..
Then… there will be no more confusion (Balagàn in Hebrew) in this army…..
Persecution and hostility? FOR CERTAIN !
Anti – Christ Anti – Anointing…… The false church with its false unity, bloodless, lifeless and powerless without the Name and HIS atoning sacrifice, will be our enemy…..

But we know in WHOM we have believed ! We know already WHO has overcome: Yeshua (Jesus) !
I Am the Alpha and the Omega!
In Me dwells the beginning and the end!
Amen!

Translation: Jan Pruis

COPYRIGHT POLICY: Articles and prophetic words may be copied for free distribution or personal use provided they are reproduced in their entirety and with no changes. If printed in a publication, 'or copied to a website' we have one request: Please include the following information with the article Will you mention here name and website address: www.tesjoeva.nl
So people can ask questions and have the opportunity to contact Catharina.

Just serving Him, by serving you!
Johan & Catharina Schouten Teshuva Ministries
www.tesjoeva.nl

Balance

Catharina Schouten - Meijer

Netherlands

I am determined by one word, BALANCE!
Many who are living in Abba’s family are broken and cast away their own self.
But the Father told me the following:
"Cut diamonds can spark as diamonds…..
But a diamond only glitters when the LIGHT shines upon the diamond…..
I need you to gather the rest of My children, I am standing at your doorpost and I am waiting with open arms, a ring for your finger, and a table filled with food!"

And now a lesson in balance:

We found out that too much time is wasted with talking about money in the body of Messiah, and the so called “prosperity teaching" was preached too often!
But the Lord said the following to me:
“You drank the cup which was bitter, but this was not always without grumbling and resistance…..
Now I want to give you a cup with abundance, I give you of the abundance like I gave to Josef and he accepted the gifts I gave him……….
All my children who are not looking for fortune and who are willing to walk with Me, wherever I go, receive My prosperity….. just like Josef, and do like he did, and share this prosperity when hunger is coming into the country!”

A lot is written and we where judgmental about people who are HIS servants who seem to live in great prosperity….
Let us be very careful in what we are writing….
Because the Lord had a plan with Josef and He allowed Josef to be thrown in the well, He also enhanced him when the time was there, His time….
I am determined that many traveled a journey which is similar as Josef’s journey when he was thrown in the well, but many of us are now out of the P.I.T (Prophets In Training)

And the Father is ready to divided His wealth, in order to SERVE HIM AND HONOUR HIM WITH THIS WEALTH!
That is what we should never forget…. But He has a plan for your calling and if you follow Him and if you let Him open that door, you will enjoy the richness that He wants to give you…..
Back to the word of the beginning: Father spoke: “A diamond glitters when the LIGHT is shining on it, HIS LIGHT upon us walking in Him for HIM and by HIS grace! Only than the world is able to see the LIGHT!"
Josef was reunited with his family, many of us had their own well time and were thrown in a well by brothers and sisters, they were alone, abandoned and rejected…..

But the time is come to supply the nation with BREAD & WATER! But this must be LIVING BREAD and LIVING WATER!
Do not look behind, but forgive each other and together, we have to look to the Lord and do what He is asking from us!

I noticed that more and more people want to know how many people join the gathering before they want to come to a meeting. How big a calling is, before they are willing to see! You do not see in people, but you see in GODS WORD!
We need each other, one has money and the other has talents or gifts, one has a table, and the other a cloth, a chair, a fork, a knife, a spoon, food is given and with each other and the picture is complete! The table, the knife and the spoon etc. are brought together, and when everything is brought together, the people supply their diner!
Father told me, "now you drink the cup I will give you, which is called abundance ….. as long as you expect it from ME and you honor ME and continue to follow ME, there is nothing wrong… and do not put your hearth on it ….. complete surrender!"

Psalm 133
if we live together, and work together , the Father will make the oil fat, fatter than the oil which was running down the beard of Aharon! Oil represents anointment… the world must see, learn to see the body…..In His unity a variety and diversity……
But TOGETHER! Nothing in “our calling” is OURS! We are stewards of the ministries….Will He give you abundance ???????
SHARE this abundance share whatever you have… . and He can bless you more……
BALANCE! It is NOT GOOD to claim it and be controlled by the thought of it !
When the Father’s children emptied the cup of purification and cast away their own self, they where able to cry out:
THANK YOU ABBA! ALL THE GLORY AND HONOR FOR YOU ALONE!

Word from the Bible: Jesaja 23: 17 - 18
17 And at the end of seventy years it shall be that the Lord will visit Tyrus. And she shall return to her hire and commit whoring with hall reigns of the earth on the face of the soil.
18 And her goods and her hire shall be set apart for the Lord, not treasured nor laid up, for her gain is for those who dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for a choice covering.

COPYRIGHT POLICY Articles and prophetic words may be copied for free distribution or personal use provided they are reproduced in their entirety and with no changes. If printed in a publication, ’or copied to a website’ we have one request:
Please include the following information with the article
Will you mention here name and websiteaddress: www.tesjoeva.nl
So people can ask questions and have the oppertunity to contact us!

Just serving Him, in serving you!
Catharina Schouten - Meijer

Ballroom

Tim Cook

“Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover?” Song of Songs 8:5

“Have I your permission to kill the lizard?” said the Angel to the Ghost … and the Ghost gave a scream of agony … The new-made man turned and clapped the new horse’s neck. It nosed his bright body. I thought his face shone with tears, but it may have been only the liquid love and brightness … in joyous haste the young man leaped upon the horse’s back.” C.S.Lewis (The Great Divorce)

“Oh, sexless!” said Ransom disgustedly. “It’s about as good a description of living in Perelandra as it would be to say that a man had forgotten water because Niagara Falls didn’t immediately give him the idea of making it into cups of tea.” C.S.Lewis (Perelandra)

“Don’t lag,” said the Guide, “this is a very dangerous place. You had better come away. This is Luxuria.” C.S.Lewis (The Pilgrim’s Regress)

“Listen to me – there is something missing in all this. You long to be in a love affair, an adventure. You were made for something more. You know it.” Brent Curtis and John Eldredge (The Sacred Romance)

“All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves … when I found the one my heart loves – I held him and would not let him go.” Song of Songs 3:1,4

I stood on the balcony – looking longingly into the dance room. It was a huge and beautiful ball room – a very shiny floor, and seemed to have glass walls and ceiling like a conservatory. Elegant couples in exquisite clothes danced and swirled around the room. Others seemed to be watching the scene from the balcony.

Jesus stood at my side. “These are my closest friends, Tim. They dance with Me even now, and will dance with Me, and I will array them in the very best of My Kingdom.” And suddenly we were together on the dance floor. “It is a good thing – in a way - that you envied those with the anointing for many years and still do. But it is only a good thing if you choose to enter in and get caught up into the dance yourself. Those who delight to be around My friends – are watching from the balcony – and it is an easy thing – yes, an easy and a natural thing – for them to enter into the dance themselves. The King’s friends will attract people to the King.” Then there were just the two of us in absolute darkness. “You know why I sometimes let you feel distance from your friends … it is so that we can be alone. Tonight in the cool of the evening you deeply sensed My sadness as I walked across your land looking for Adam to walk with Me again – and you were caught up into the Dance – the Fellowship – allowing all else to fade into irrelevance. Worship with Me in a new and fresh way everyday. Do not worship your visions or your past visions – even though I revealed Myself to you in them – all prophecy shall cease and fade – and it will be you and Me in Love that remains. The seasons move on – and I run on into a new landscape – and you must chase Me – leaving behind even the good we have shared in the past!”

And I saw that Autumn leaves were beginning to blow across my past vision-scapes, but I also knew that if I could keep in step with the King then my past encounters with Him would somehow be preserved in perpetual Springtime.

“Jesus, I have found it hard to dance, but the best times were when the music caught me up and was anointed, and I know it was You that ravished my soul at these times – and I love it. It will never be taken from you – just get deeper. Speak what is troubling you … Lord, the dance requires good music, and good friends, and also romance. I know that I’m naive, but it seems difficult to see romance in Heaven when there is no marriage there.” We’re back in the cool evening of the balcony. *“Tim, trust me with your deepest desires – this is an important thing you have said – and I do not mock it. I value this honesty.For you this is now a pinnacle – and from here we shall leap into space and fly higher and higher. Trust Me. grin so define Romance then you young expert!* haha Lord – you know – knight in shining armour rescues damsel in distress from untold dangers and carries her away and they live happily ever after.” He knew that my heart wasn’t laughing. “For this world that is certainly one of the highest types of romance.” Someone in the highest dance whispered, “But could he rescue her and give her to another man – that’s the question? … cringe I see now – yes – even my highest ideas of romance are basically selfish at heart. Forgive me."

Now I must show you two more dances.”

Another room – dark and gloomy. “What’s happening? The dancers are dancing with phantoms and ghosts, and giving their love to materialism, lust, greed, idols, even to false ideas of You. Some are beginning to fade and crumble. What shall I do? smile Send in Your lightning … and what is that? …. It is the First Love restored, it is deep Heaven ravishing a heart so that they remember something pure and holy and beautiful that sang with them in their childhood; it is a Love dart from the King Himself, it is the Holy Spirit wind of absolute purity and passionate holiness, and a quickening fire that opens the eyes to the besetting demons, but it calls them to turn and run to the Kingdom again.” And as I wept Jesus lifted a finger and sent in the Lightning – to jump from dancer to dancer – heart to heart. And I saw again that the man of sin must be revealed so that the inner pure man could hate him and run from him into glory.

From the balcony was another dance hall. I could only enter this dance as a little golden child. And I danced with these ancient and wise and giant people. And they were stars, and suns, and planets, and galaxies, dancing the great Cosmic Dance. And in the distance was a golden girl. And the children ran and played and chased each other amongst the stars, in the fresh innocent morning of a new universe. *“Does he understand yet? No he’s only young – but he’s trying – and the Creator is whispering impossibilities into his heart even now laugh.”*

He took me to another dream – another vision. “Ah yes, I’m fighting through the forest of my heart – cleaning up the ancient Highway of Holiness, and getting torn and cut by the brambles – because the Way is unused – most people have detoured the wood and gone down into the valley. And I see that I am about half way through the wood. Right – look ahead beyond the woods …” At the top of the hill, I could look down into the valley and a huge smoky city – rumbling ominously. An elegant bridge was beginning to be formed across the sky – and was arching right above the city. Jesus sat with me on this bridge – and occasionally blood and tears would drip down into the city from one of us.

“Many don’t realise that cleansing their hearts and overcoming sin there – has enormous Kingdom ramifications into the future.” We sat – and I knew what He was thinking about. “Two will come. They will go down into that great city – and fire will come out of their mouths to consume those that attack them, and they will prophesy for … (checking my Bible) … about 3 and a half years – clothed in … sackcloth …. Repentance?” He nodded. “Tell them about the race vision.”

Many horses were racing around a racetrack – wearing numbers – and racing for the benefit of the crowd – who were often just trying to bet and make money out of them. But some of the horses knew of another race …. a hidden and a dead straight one – right out into the wilderness and the mountains. Some horses – maybe two or three - broke free of the stadium, and ran the long race, unmarked, and ran into obscurity, destiny and legend.

And as I lay on the Highway with my head on Jesus’ lap – Revelation was still shaking me.

Tim Cook
http://www.ourchurch.com/member/i/inspiredlight/

Be A Redwood

Conrad Lampan

A few weeks ago I shared with you all a dream about "Redwood Land". I want today to share what the Lord has impressed in my mind this past week when He said "Be a Redwood"

Redwood trees are a very particular type of tree, not only because of the amazing heights they reach and the long life they have, in fact one of the longest spans of time in the world of plants, but also because of some not so widely spread facts about their life and their interaction with their environment.

I want to refer here to three aspects in the life of a Redwood tree that we can take as examples for our Christian life and in fact in our pursuance of revival.

LIGHT:

Redwoods use sunlight so efficiently (4 times more than pines) that they can grow even in deep shade.

They can grow higher than any other tree because they are continually reaching up in search of light, but also because they make good use of what they have.

How many times we Christians complain about what we lack not realizing that we are not actually using what we have?

Next time you look around and see so much darkness surrounding you, begin to look upward because even in the deepest of shadows there is light coming in: use it!

WATER:

How long have we been praying for rain? Maybe we need to start taking some lesson from these hydrostatic marvels called redwoods. During the dry summers in California, the coast redwoods actually create their own "rain" by condensing heavy fog into drenching showers that provide moisture to the roots below.

This brings me back to Genesis where we read that dew watered the earth. It makes me think that what happened in Eden was that the plants and trees of the garden did exactly as the redwoods, condensing the water from the water vapor that surrounded them and then let the "rain" fall from them to water the earth.

How many times have we complained about the "fogs" around us, when we cannot see clearly, our future seems so uncertain because the "fog" does not let us see. How about being a redwood? Condense the waters that surround you in the forms of "spiritual vapors" and start raining down refreshing drops that will nurture your own roots and that of those surrounding you.

FIRE:

Redwoods have a thick protective bark rich in tannin (hence the reddish color) that makes them fire resistant. While everything around might be burnt in a forest fire the redwoods will still stay up unharmed. Actually a fire around them might be beneficial as it can eliminate noxas, dangers in the forms of bacteria or fungus or even other plants.

The Lord has told us in Isaiah 43:2 "When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you." NKJV

Be a redwood like Christian, covered by the protection of the Blood of the Lamb you can stand against the fires of adversity, to the point where the fires designed to damage you would actually benefit you.

But there is yet another aspect that comes to my mind and relates not to the fires of trials but to the Fire of God. We read in Ex 3:2 "So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed." NKJV

Christians, the Fire of God can burn in us! We can be like that plant that burned and was not consumed; a Fire that causes all to come and see the wonder, people stirred up to come and see what is this Fire that burns in us and we are not harmed!. Wesley said about revival "I set myself on fire and people come to see me burning"

SUPPORT:

The root system of the redwood tree is surprisingly shallow, especially given the great height the mature tree attains. There is no tap root and the other roots may reach no deeper than 6-10 feet.

In some sense we can say a redwood seems to be more concerned to reach the sky than to tap from the earth sources. What a wonderful example of what we Christians should do. Our eyes and hearts toward heaven, to the place where our Father of Lights abides.

However there is more to it. We know that with no tap root there is a loss of stability which might cause a tree to fall; but here is another marvelous lesson we can gather from nature: one way in which the redwood trees are able to remain upright for millennia is by growing pretty close together with other redwood trees, intermingling root systems.

Wow! They support one another by being close together, growing very close to each other, and intermingling their roots: they build a network of roots and also the branches help support one another! Oh precious God what an example you have given us! It is not just per chance that God created the Church; the Church should actually be like this network of roots and branches that support one another while at the same time we grow upwards; if this is not happening we need to look at ourselves: could it be that we have become so isolated, so private, so selfish that we are trying to grow alone, receiving no support and alas! giving none either?

My friend, let me encourage you today: Be a redwood! Stand firm! Use what God has given you! Don't despair! The Spirit of God is in you, start raining from the water you have! Let the Fires of revival burn in you, don't be afraid! Again: Be a redwood!

Conrad Lampan Center for Revival Studies Wales - Argentina - United States Email: revival@thesecondcall.org Website: www.revivalstudies.org www.conradlampan.org

Bluebirds, New Orleans, and the Harvest Nets

Catherine Brown

As I prayed recently for the United States of America, specifically for the victims of Hurricane Katrina, I had a vision of tiny blue birds carrying nets in their beaks as they flew towards the South in America. The Lord was directing their movements, as He spearheaded this Kingdom convoy.

One might ask, "What do blue birds and nets have to do with Hurricane Katrina?" It is a reasonable question. It is my belief that when the Lord desires for us to understand a divinely coded message, He speaks to us with signs and symbols that as individuals, we are able to interpret and comprehend. A blue bird represents the promise of happiness to me. A net speaks of harvest, and the blue birds are a sign of Jesus coming to visit the south with His beautiful, manifest presence to rebuild shattered lives and harvest many souls in the coming months and years. Help from Heaven is on its way.

I was once given a prophetic word about having a blue bird on my shoulder. I thought this quaint and wasn't too sure if this was really God speaking to me or not. As I pondered this word, I thought of the song lyrics "there's a blue bird on my shoulder" and started to smile quietly.
On returning home from receiving this word, our daughter Rebecca (7 at that time) handed me a little gift that our children had made for me during my day trip to Ireland. Imagine my surprise when I looked at the blue, cardboard bird mounted on a straw, stuck into a plastic cup! Just to be certain, I asked Rebecca, "What is it?" She replied gently, "Mummy, it's a blue bird of happiness."

God has not Forgotten You!

God really got hold of my heart that day, and I repented for not receiving the blue bird word! God has given me a gift to make people smile. I cherish that gift. The blue bird prophecy encouraged me so profoundly that day, when I realized God was confirming this as part of my call.

There have been so many words and prophecies about the situation in the South, but all I have today from Jesus, to share with you, is this: He will make you smile again because He loves you so much. He is near to the broken hearted and carries His lambs with exquisite tenderness through the storm. I personally understand that when tragedy strikes at the core of our beings, it is difficult to smile.
It seems as though one will never be able to smile again, but I want to say to the rescuers, the victims, and the families and friends of victims of the tragedy in the South: God has not forgotten you, and He walks with you through this valley of desperate times, carrying you into new beginnings, with healing in His wings. From the ashes of today, He will kiss your bruised souls and broken hearts and bring you through to victory in Him.

The bluebird is an American songbird. Prior to Hurricane Katrina, the states in the South have been extremely supportive in the global praise called 'Million Hours of Praise,' and I believe there is an anointing of praise and worship in the southern states that God is calling forth again in this hour. A breaker-anointing is being released on the praise of the people of the South, which will harvest many souls. To praise Jesus through suffering is such an incredible and priceless gift of sacrificial love to Christ.

Nehemiah -- a Role Model to Inspire Us to Rebuild

In recent months, I have been studying Nehemiah, who was used by the Lord to rebuild the shattered walls and gates of Jerusalem. When Nehemiah first heard the news of the devastation in his nation, he wept and mourned, and his heart broke over what had happened. He spent time in God's presence, fasting and enquiring. He prayed from a posture of adoration. He prayed in confession. He prayed his petitions, and he interceded for his people and his nation. Ultimately, God released divine favor on Nehemiah, allowing him to present his prayer request to King Artaxerxes. Nehemiah gained favor, provision, and protection, as he embarked on his monumental, rebuilding mission.

Nehemiah was well organized, a Godly and humble leader with excellent motivational skills. He knew how to inspire faith in his people, and he was a man who listened to God for direction and inspiration. During a nighttime stealth mission, which Nehemiah undertook in Jerusalem, he gained a blue print for the way forward. Nehemiah encountered problems, overwhelming odds, and what may have seemed like insurmountable difficulties. He was pressed on all sides, and he and his co-workers were intimidated by the enemy, harassed, and ridiculed. Yet, Nehemiah found a place of hiddeness in the heart of God and led like a true warrior of God -- one who leads as a servant, laying down their lives for Christ, and preferring others in love.

He stayed focused on God; he kept his hand to the task he had been assigned to do, and he responded strategically when pressing needs arose that threatened the progress of the work. When things got really tough, Nehemiah put in place a 24-7 army to ensure the rebuilding work was completed.

God is Raising Up Leaders to Rebuild the City

Nehemiah was a tremendous leader whom God had prepared and raised up for such a disastrous time in the history of the Israelites. Nehemiah cared for the poor and was a man of integrity. He was a hard worker and never asked anyone to do anything that he wasn't willing to do himself. He finished the job God gave him to do!

One heartbreaking quote from New Orleans is, "We advise people that this city has been destroyed, it has completely been destroyed."

As I think of New Orleans, Mississippi, Louisiana, and many other states now affected by Hurricane Katrina, I see a role model in Nehemiah from which we might take some encouragement. No odds are insurmountable, with Christ on our side.

As refugees head to Arizona, Utah, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, South Carolina, Missouri, Illinois, West Virginia, Minnesota, Michigan, and Texas, we stand in faith, declaring there are no odds that are insurmountable with Christ on our side and by our side, as we petition our Heavenly Father and receive His provision for homes, new jobs, and schooling for the half million displaced people of the hurricane.

I proclaim that God is raising up leaders, in like manner to Nehemiah, who will rebuild the cities devastated by Hurricane Katrina. God has been preparing men and women like Nehemiah to lead and rebuild cities, for such a time as this.

"Lord, Strengthen Our Hands"

There came a time when Nehemiah and the people were being ferociously pursued, as further opposition to the rebuilding work arose. "They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed." But Nehemiah prayed," Now strengthen my hands." Nehemiah 6:9

The enemy wants to convince us that the task is too big, that we don't have enough resources or energy or willpower or strength, and in some ways, he is right. We can do nothing apart from Christ, but in Him and through Him, all things are possible, and I prophesy in faith that the South will rise again to greet Jesus Christ as her coming King.

The people of the south will come together, and the Spirit of the Lord will release strategies for overcoming -- strategies for rebuilding in the natural and in the spiritual realm. I pray Father, strengthen the hands and heart of every willing worker in your Kingdom, in Jesus name!

Sir Winston Churchill Broadcast Extract, May 13, 1940: "Be Ye Men of Valor"

In 1940, Winston Churchill, as Prime Minister, spoke to the nation and said this, "In that supreme emergency, we shall not hesitate to take every step, even the most drastic, to call forth from our people, the last ounce and the last inch of effort they are capable of. The interests of property and the hours of labor are nothing compared to the struggle for life and honor, for right and freedom, to which we have vowed ourselves.

"Today is Trinity Sunday. Centuries ago, words were written to be a call and a spur to the faithful servants of Truth and Justice: 'Arm yourselves, and be ye men of valor, and be in readiness for the conflict; for it is better for us to perish in battle, than to look upon the outrage of our nation and our altar. As the Will of God is in Heaven, even so let it be.' " --Sir Winston Churchill, May 13, 1940

May we take courage today from the inspirational words of a tremendous leader, who was not afraid to speak of hard work and almost insurmountable circumstances, and who inspired others to work until the battle was won. The battle is on today for souls and for nations. Today, beloved America, know that millions stand with you throughout the earth for the restoration of the devastation that Hurricane Katrina has wrought in its wake.

Christ is King, and to Him we bow our hearts and posture ourselves for His perfect plans and solutions. He is our Mighty Redeemer and the One in whom we take refuge, in whom we find shade, and the One we can rely upon to be our shelter.

As a Scottish/Irish woman, my heart is entwined with the South, where so many of our ancestors migrated. As of September 5, there were still 130 Britons missing in the South. We are praying for y'all and for President George W Bush, Mayor Ray Nagin, Deputy Police Chief Warren Riley, and many more. I leave you with the words of promise concerning blue birds, penned during the 2nd world war:

"There'll be blue birds over
The white cliffs of Dover,
Tomorrow, just you wait and see.
There'll be love and laughter
And peace ever after
Tomorrow, when the world is free.
The shepherd will tend his sheep,
The valley will bloom again
And Jimmy will go to sleep,
In his own little room again.
There'll be blue birds over
The white cliffs of Dover,
Tomorrow, just you wait and see."
Words - Nat Burton
Melody - Walter Kent
Published - 1941

Yours in agape,

Catherine Brown
One Million Hours of Praise
www.millionhoursofpraise.com

Be Careful What You Call Trouble

Chimezie Onyebilanma

Try and put yourself in the place of Mary that resurrection morning when she found the stone rolled away and the tomb empty. It was not a joyful experience for her. The only way she could describe what she was faced with was 'This is more trouble!'

Just two days ago she had watched her most beloved friend and Lord mercilessly tortured, publicly ridiculed, and brutally crucified. And now, still reeling from that pain, here she was faced with the disappearance of her Lord's body. I can imagine her thinking "Haven't we suffered enough? Why are they doing this to us? Why are our troubles never ending?" Calling Peter and the others did not seem to help matters. So she stayed behind at the empty tomb weeping, "They have taken my Lord away, and I don't know where they have put him".

Now you know the way the story ends. That which she called trouble at the dawn of that first Easter morning is what we celebrate as victory today. The empty tomb, which looked to her as if God had allowed more trouble to befall them, was really an expression of God coming to help them and all of mankind.

Beloved, I do not pretend to know what you may be going through right now. Life is harsh and filled with troubles. But I want to encourage you to be careful what you can 'trouble'. Be careful that you do not conclude too quickly that God has abandoned you. Be careful that you do not cast away your confidence in the faithfulness of God so easily. For what might look like trouble and pain might actually be God's help in disguise.

Two weeks ago I was faced with what looked like big trouble. One of our missionaries had gone to seek travel papers to facilitate his journey home to Rwanda. But the immigrations said his visa had expired and arrested me along with him (since I am the head of the ministry with which an "illegal immigrant" was working). Despite days of going back and forth to explain that we acted in ignorance, they fined us an amount that was way beyond our capacity. The trouble just seemed to get more and more complicated each day despite our prayers. And they spoke of deporting me from Togo. Finally we were able to see the Director General (DG) of that bureau and we were released without fine. But that is not all of the testimony. You see out of the warm discussion we had with the DG came the information of how we can acquire a status with the government that will not only allow us free visas for our foreign staffs but also duty-free privileges. God used this thing that looked like trouble to provide for us something that will save us thousands of dollars and a mountain of hassles in the coming years. This is something we need so much at this point in our work. God knew and sent us this trouble.

As we celebrate Easter I want to remind you that the God who raised Christ from the grave is our God. He is at work in your life even in the midst of your troubles. Looking around will only lead to more despair. Rather look up and hope in him no matter how much trouble may increase. You will not be put to shame.

HAPPY EASTER!

~~~~~~
~~~~~~

PLEASE are you born again? It is not enough to believe in the existence of God, to go to church, or be interested in spiritual things. Jesus said "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus died to deliver you from sin so that you can come to God. (John 3:16) If you ask him to forgive you and give you a new heart he will. (Acts 2:38; Romans 10:9-11).Try it. I'd love to hear from you @ caprotogo@laposte.tg

~~~~~~

Chim'sWRITE are regular articles on Christian living and cross-cultural missions from Chimezie Onyebilanma a cross-cultural missionary with Calvary Ministries (CAPRO) in Togo. CAPRO is an indigenous African non-denominational cross-cultural mission agency involved in reaching the remaining unreached peoples in 15 countries of Africa as of present. CAPRO is involved in missions mobilization, training, and research as well as church-planting and mercy ministries (literacy, rural development, primary health-care, relief and rehabilitation). CAPRO is a faith mission, both the ministry and its missionaries depend on God's provision through the giving of his people. None of its missionaries are salaried. All gifts are used as designated.

Surface Address: Calvary Ministries (CAPRO),Togo. B.P. 14223, Lome. Tel: (228) 221 33 78 or (228) 946 33 87

To learn more about the cross-cultural missionary work of CAPRO send email to chim_ibidun@hotmail.com with "information on CAPRO" in the subject column or visit www.capromissions.org

Do you know that your monthly gifts to support a missionary can make a big difference? To learn more about supporting missionaries please visit www.adopt-a-missionary.org or enquire at chim_ibidun@hotmail.com

~~~~~~

To subscribe to Chim'sWRITE please send a blank email to ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com

To unsubscribe to Chim'sWRITE please send a blank email to ChimWRITE-unsubscribe@yahoogroups.com

~~~~~~

COPYRIGHT It is required that permission be obtained from chim_ibidun@hotmail.com before these materials can be re-published on a website or in hard copy. However permission is granted to freely redistribute these materials via email, provided that such redistribution acknowledges the source and includes this phrase: "For a free subscription to Chimezie Onyebilanma's weekly Chim'sWRITE, send a blank email to <ChimWRITE-subscribe@yahoogroups.com >".
~~~~~~

Being Doers Of The Word
Don Walker

> "But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves." (James 1:22 NAS)

James warns us of the danger of hearing the truth, but failing to apply that truth to our lives. He uses the term "hearers," which is the Greek word akroates, a word that was used in classical Greek times to describe people who were part of an audience. It has connotations to the modern day equivalent of someone who audits a class rather than taking it for credit. They are simply there to hear the lecture, think about, and maybe even discuss it; but they are not there to be tested on what they have heard. In the ancient Greek world, the akroates, sometimes actually followed their favorite speakers from city to city to listen to their lectures.

The mistake we can make is to assume that our intellectual knowledge of a Biblical truth means that that truth has become part of our life. In other words, we deceive ourselves with the notion that since we know it, that is the same as doing it. The reality is we all probably know more than we live. This is what I call the "sin gap" that each of us must deal with, because the Scripture says, "to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin" (James 4:17). We must constantly be working to narrow this gap between what we know and what we do.

A.W. Tozer used the word "textualism" (a term I believe he coined), to describe the approach to Christianity some have taken that divorces knowledge from action. A textualist is satisfied in knowing about truths and less concerned with experiencing the truths he knows. In his book, Keys to the Deeper Life, Tozer writes about the impact of textualism:

"Faith, a mighty, vitalizing doctrine in the mouths of the apostles, became in the mouth of the scribe another thing all together and power went from it. As the letter triumphed, the Spirit withdrew and textualism ruled supreme. It was the time of the believer's Babylonian captivity.

In the interest of accuracy it should be said that this was a general condition only. Certainly there were, even in those low times, those whose longing hearts were better theologians than their teachers were These pressed on to a fullness and power unknown to the rest. But they were not many and the odds were too great; they could not dispel the mist that hung over the land. The error of textualism is not doctrinal. It is far more subtle than that and much more difficult to discover, but its effects are just as deadly. Not its theological beliefs are at fault but its assumptions.

It assumes, for instance, that if we have the word for a thing we have the thing itself. If it is in the Bible, it is in us. If we have the doctrine, we have the experience. If something was true for Paul it is of necessity true of us because we accept Paul's epistles as divinely inspired. The Bible tells us how to be saved, but textualism goes on to make it tell us that we are saved, something in the very nature of things it cannot do. Assurance of individual salvation is thus no more than a logical conclusion drawn from doctrinal premises, and the resultant experience wholly mental."

One of the problems we face as believers today is the fact that we are inundated with teaching. We have books, tapes, radio, television, etc. all feeding us Biblical truth, much of which we have little opportunity to "digest" before we are fed something new. We are given new truth before we have had a chance to do what we have just heard. We move on to the next thing before we did the last thing. Like the overproduction of an assembly line, we soon encounter the problem of being overstocked.

We become accustomed to hearing, and not doing anything with what we hear. We can even fill notebooks full of notes, but never have those "notes" written on our hearts. We need to ask ourselves: Am I listening with a "doing heart?"

As akroates we deceive ourselves in thinking that we will not be "tested" by God on what we have been taught, but God says: "To whom much is given much is required" (Luke 12:48). The Scripture says that, "Every word of God is tested" (Prov. 30:5). God does not allow anyone to "audit" his classes, we can know with certainty that the tests are coming.

basileia@sbcglobal.net

Being Birthed
Catharina Schouten

> 1 Corinthians 12:31 But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

This passages precedes 1 Corinthians 13!!! LOVE is the MOST EXCELLENT way!
Before all else : Love HIM ! Love HIM ABOVE everything else!!!
HE PREPARES THE WAY, HE PREPARES HIS BRIDE!!

Word Of The Lord :

> My Body will function on the basis of LOVE !
> My LOVE will break yokes.
> There are those that I want to keep from having a miscarriage.....
> Allow ME to prepare you BEFORE trying to push open the gates by yourselves!
> Depart from the ways of the world! That's not the way MY Kingdom functions!
> I am going MY way!
> Promotion comes via ME!
> I Am the Redeemer, your birth is at the door......
> Allow ME to put you on the world!
> Allow ME to put MY Bride on the world!

COPYRIGHT POLICY: Articles and prophetic words may be copied for free distribution or personal use provided they are reproduced in their entirety and with no changes. If printed in a publication, 'or copied to a website' we have one request: Please include the following information with the article Will you mention here name and website address: www.tesjoeva.nl
So people can ask questions and have the opportunity to contact Catharina

Serving Him, before I serve you!
Johan & Catharina Schouten Teshuva Ministries Ministry Site:
www.tesjoeva.nl

Believe

Nichole Jackson

nikkijack216@aol.com

EPHESIANS: 3: 17-21 [17]That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, [18]May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; [19]And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God. [20]Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, [21]Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

You have made many request and I long to fulfill your hearts desire yet there are two things that serve as hindrances to my Spirit moving freely on your behalf and they are a discontented heart and unbelief.

Out of a grateful heart give praise and adoration unto my name, yes worship. In order for you to get to your next level you must leave the outer courts and come into a new level of intimacy and what has kept you out has been your unbelief.

"I have not withheld," says the Lord "what you have long awaited but have been making preparation for you to inhabit the land swore unto your Father's."

I am waiting for you to praise me for what you know I am capable of doing but even the more what you know I am doing for you. I am not a man that I should lie neither the son of man that I should repent concerning things I have promised you and vowed to fulfill.

My word says you have not because you ask not or you ask with the wrong motives/intentions but yet for those whose hearts have been purified and have solemnly awaited my promises for years, I am have come to do more than what your finite mind could fathom if you would simply believe.

I am awaiting the love and adoration due unto Me. As you seek after parts I am desiring to give you ALL OF ME. Let your desire be for me and watch what I will do. Let you hearts overflow with adoration unto My name and deity. You WILL NOT be disappointed, no you will not be disappointed, for I the Lord love you and long to be in communion with you.

Trust me to do great things concerning you, I have ALREADY supplied not only your needs, but your wants and even more what you DID NOT ask me for but because of my love for you I am doing. Simply believe, trust My word to not fail you and my promises concerning you to BE as you praise Me.

This is the time I am pouring out my love for you and my favor upon you. Believe I will do exceeding; abundantly above all you can ask or imagine. BELIEVE!

Believing

Becky McLendon

The Lord will give us perfect peace whose minds are stayed on Him. With our minds stayed on Jesus, we believe. If we believe Jesus we are letting Him believe in us. And the peace that comes with that is because we don't have to fret and worry over things. He says "be anxious for nothing, for the Father knows before you even know...." The foreknowledge of God is His believing in us. Believing assembles us together in His name. It is coming into agreement with Him. Believing gathers together two or more in His name, agreeing as touching, and things happen: all for God's purposes and not man's.

Christ's belief in us lets us believe. We say, "Lord I believe; help me in my unbelief. (Lord, I believe as much as I can as a human being, so you do the believing in me!)" His foreknowledge is His believing in us. The Joel army will be only those he believes in. How can He walk with one He doesn't believe in? There is no agreement! So He cannot walk as one with them. He is sharing revelation with those he believes in. He cannot cast pearls before swine or share His holiness with dogs.

Jesus can only believe in those whose "works" and "self" have been consumed in His fire, and ashes remain. Only ashes can keep His sayings. Ashes say: its just Jesus. Nothing more. I love Him alone, for He is enough. Ashes are our wedding garments. Who is this standing with the king all glorious within? Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty God shines. The beauty comes from within. On the outside, there is only sackcloth and ashes, the mark of a repentant soul. Many times as you look at people, you see them clothed with spirits. Their sin is their covering. Our fellowship is with those that have become ashes. Only ashes can know Jesus, like ashes can.

We can ask*: when Jesus comes* (reveals Himself) will He find faith (belief) on earth? Will He have those He believes in on earth? He says come on up, into more revelation, on up into more of me. Come on up into agreeing...I believe in you and you believe me.

As we come into agreement with Jesus, the medication people will go out of business. Exodus 15:26 says, if thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the lord thy god, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

No matter what we eat for health, it is the Lord that heals. What works for us is not keeping others alive because it is the Lord that heals. It is not of works it is the Lord that heals. We give the glory to Jesus, and whatsoever He says do, we do it. This is believing. If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight. Whatsoever he says do, do it. The Lord tells us to "fast" certain things at certain times, to eat certain things at certain times, to do certain things (like wash in the Jordan 7 times) etc., but what works for us is not keeping others alive. We do not "teach" them "how to be healed. It is the Lord that heals...so the key for each of us is to hear His voice and keep what He says committed to Him until that day. And then "I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians (the world*): for I am the Lord that healeth thee. "* We can run to the doctor every time we feel sick, or we can ask of the Lord, "Lord what will you have me to do?" and then wait for him to tell us, and then do whatsoever He says do."
If we believe Jesus, we are letting Him believe in us. People can't understand people outgrowing their "religion". They believe this is "it," and why would anyone want to go for more than what "has always been"? Joshua and Caleb outgrew the "Moses church." We have out grown what we were yesterday.

As we keep ourselves under, we daily find a new place in Jesus. What preachers were preaching forty years ago doesn't belong in today's preaching. As the Lord leads but slowing down not pushing we get more great things from the Lord. More and more we are going to experience being in Jesus. In every thing we do or say it must happen in Jesus. We are living in Jesus, never coming out. We wait for him to do the talking. It's precious when you don't have to think what to say. With believing, we have confidence He will say "all the right things."

Amen.
Becky

Perfection In Present Truth
Becky McLendon

Man tries to add to perfection or take away from it. Perfection is present truth. Some say the perfect is already come, in Jesus, or in the completed "bible," but the lack of present truth causes their doctrine to mean nothing. Others say the perfect has not already come, and wait for the "rapture." Thus, the perfect is "postponed" until an ideal time somewhere in the future. They have added to or taken away from the present truth to make it more "palatable" to them.

They add to it and take away from it because perfection is not present truth to them. They do not know we have the present truth of perfection in our imperfect natural state through Jesus Christ, and that present truth brings us to perfection. We have the wrong perception of perfection, for the most part. We associate it with "doing everything just right, not missing one jot or tittle." The Jews were good at that, trying to "keep" the law from all points. But they missed it...they were not perfect. In Jesus the perfect was come, but, not seeing it, they put a crown of thorns on Him (perfection).and nailed Him (perfection) to the cross, saying, "away with Him (perfection)." In their judgment, they despised the Perfect, whom we worship. Perfection means state of being mature, complete, finished, converted, fully born. Perfection was, and is and is to come. We are converted unto perfection in this process of salvation as we embrace present truth when He appears to us.

We are the sons or the offspring of His perfection. We cry to be in perfect unity and out of His way. When that which is perfect is come, then what is not perfect is done away with, leaving only perfection. So it is perfection that remains. Since we are not perfect, we bring our selves under to touch not and let Jesus make us equal with Himself. Perfection says, " I am God; I change not. "

Blessings and Shalom,
Becky

Be Released

Musa Opiyo

June 27, 2005

I speak to those of My children who have been caught in unhealthy addictions and you feel that you are trapped way in too deep with no form of escape and the Lord says to you that I have heard your inner cries for help and I will pluck you from the captors net. As you look to Me for your deliverance you shall see the chains fall from your hands and you will see the baggage drop off from your shoulders. Refuse to believe the lie that satan has told you that you cannot escape and be free from these habits, for I have seen your hearts and yes you have been willing to forsake all besetting sin.

Now let My Spirit breathe life and set you free from every shackle that has held you captive. And, I will not only stop there but I will bring healing to the areas in your life that brought this bondage so that you will no longer be vulnerable to the enemies arrows. But you must be willing to embrace freedom and face your new day. You cannot look back to the past. Your desire must not be for Egypt but for the Promised Land ahead of you. I will give you hinds feet to jump out and escape the trap of the enemy but you must embrace freedom and holiness.

In some instances healing shall be instant but in others it will be a gradual process. Do not take the longevity of your healing to be a sign that you are still bound, but rather that I am removing, bit by bit, every piece of debis left by the destruction of the enemy. I am the Master Builder and I will rebuild everything that was laid waste by the enemy. I will even shake you so that all the lies and the fallacies satan built into your life crumble so that I can build you up again on My foundation.

Do not despair or cringe as I do this rebuilding, for you are My child and you will continually move from glory to glory as you let Me do the work of restoration, for I promised that I would finish the work that I started says the Lord

Psalm 25:15 My eyes are ever toward the Lord. For he shall pluck my feet out of the net

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo
http://mannaword.no-ip.com

Beyond Contention
Sandy Warner

Jun 5, 2005

BEYOND CONTENTION
Abba heal the heart of those who kick
And let us trim the candle wick.
Let it burn clean and strong,
And let us right the things gone wrong.

Release us from our past offense,
And let us not speak from defense.
Keep our hearts pure and sound.
May we not pile offenses in a mound.

Please bury our past and keep it there,
So we will be light and safe from despair.
Forgive us when we argue and strive.
Our flesh kicks and screams to stay alive.

We feel alone and by ourselves,
When others withdraw and sit on the shelf.
They watch us from a distant place.
And we feel isolated in disgrace.

Help us to draw together in one,
That we not feel the coldness of shun.
When we call upon others for their help,
Please draw their hearts off their shelf.

We can not walk alone in this day.
We need one another in every way.
Forgive us for contention and kicking so much.
All we really want is some loving touch. Amen.

1 Peter 3:8 NKJV
Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted , be courteous; not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing.

Poetry2Ponder are poems birthed out of intimacy with the Holy Spirit through yearnings of intercession. They are posted once a week.
Sandy Warner : swauthor@usa.net ~ Website: www.thequickenedword.com
~ Permission given to forward or post. ~

Come Out Of Fantasy
Sandy Warner

Jun 1, 2005
COME OUT OF FANTASY
Fantasy is alive and well in the body of Christ. I can hear the thoughts and passion of My loved ones. They have yet to wash their thoughts pure with the blood of Jesus and be delivered through the power of My Word. Come out, My people, come out of jezebel's bed. Many are deluded by spirits of fantasy and they are deluded because they have entertained fabricated stories of men and demons and these have become a breeding ground for the counterfeit.

It is My truth that sets you free to know the path of wisdom. You hunger to know Me and know My ways. Let go of fantasy and then your visions shall be clear and then your ears shall be unstopped and then your heart shall be set free to know Me even as I know you. You shall have what you desire, you shall have what you hunger for. In whose bed do you spend your time and your money?

Ps 51:6-11 AMP
Behold, You desire truth in the inner being; make me therefore to know wisdom in my inmost heart. Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean [ceremonially]; wash me, and I shall [in reality] be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and gladness and be satisfied; let the bones which You have broken rejoice. Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my guilt and iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right, persevering, and steadfast spirit within me. Cast me not away from Your presence and take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Falling Short Of My Image
Sandy Warner

Jun 2, 2005
FALLING SHORT OF MY IMAGE
My dear battered child, how often you whip yourself with condemnation and self battered thoughts! I simply do NOT condemn you like this. This condemnation places a wall of separation between us, and keeps you from receiving My love. Yes, I understand you have fallen short. Yes, I understand you have failed to measure up to My image. But I understand even deeper than you, that much of your failings are due to wounds you can not heal.

When you see what does not measure up within your attitudes and your behavior, all I ask is that You not hide from the truth, but offer it up to Me in confession. Ask for My forgiveness and My touch to make you whole. My love covers a multitude of failings, dear one. I AM infinitely more patient than you are, and I see the end from the beginning. When I see you, I see your level of maturity and the fallen places that need healing and I understand. I send exactly what you need to raise up My full stature into your life, one simple step at a time.

Now pour out your heart to Me with confession and yielding, for I will listen to every Word. I wrap My arms around you, precious one, and just ask you to rest. Come now and rest, rest, rest. Rest in My arms of love.

Heb 4:15-16 NKJV
For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Healing The Child
Sandy Warner

Jun 2, 2005
HEALING THE CHILD
Within every human being is a wounded child which needs to be healed. Beloved one, when you receive a wound you stop growing in that place in your life. Life grows up around you, and you keep growing into maturity with wings to fly in every area except where you were wounded. I AM wanting to raise up the tabernacle which has fallen inside of you and bring you into manhood. In order to do that, I want to heal the child places in your life which are so deeply disabling.

Old wounds are like knot holes in a tree. There is a circular pattern around the wound, and the closer you get to the knot hole, the more warped and perverted and out of shape it is. When people get near your wounded areas, you wince. The more tender those wounds are, the stronger you wince. The farther away they move from those places, the more normal and well balanced and stable you are... able to stand and function in an adult society with adult pressures.

It is important that You allow me to touch you in these wounded areas and bring healing. I want to flow through you and use you as My vessel. But, I do not want you to minister through your wounds before you are healed. This would cause you to spill poison onto others and also pervert truths and spill out bitterness, unforgiveness and self pity etc.

Until your wounds are healed, there will remain that unstable place. You have held up all these years with scar tissue and hardened places. My Spirit is spotlighting these places and bringing them into focus so I can wash them and draw out the poison. I AM taking the heart of stone and replacing it with a heart of flesh.

The closer you come to the anointing, the more I will approach these tender and sore places. The process of washing, although humbling, makes you feel like a child and insecure. It is not something to be ashamed of, it is simply a part of the process. As you are willing to become vulnerable before Me in the holy place, I will allow this healing to take place in the secret places behind closed doors. I will supernaturally keep you, so that when you return to do your daily tasks, I will give you the ability to function without transparent pain.

2 Cor 3:2-3 NKJV
You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com]
Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Revelation Of Intimacy
Sandy Warner

May 30, 2005
REVELATION OF INTIMACY
Often I come to you in disguise through the weakest and most foolish places. I delight in appearing in these ways before you and then suddenly, without being told, you know. The revelation is made manifest, the cover is taken away and you see and know that I have been there and only now, do you understand. I drape the revelation of authority around your shoulders and it covers your heart to mark what you know as truth. What was unknown is now known and you suddenly know, yes My child, I have spoken clearly. It is ME.

I earnestly desire to give you a resting place in sharing the intimacy of My Words. This resting place is a safe place and you shall be massively equipped. As you listen and share, you shall join with other like hearts and connect as team players. I shall help you find your identity in Me as you make good decisions and are willing to lay down your carnality and stay pure in sharing. The gifts that shall come to your door shall bring you great excitement and I shall smile to see your joy, dear one.

Put away the past grief and pain of the sins of your youth, where you once reasoned as a child. I am bringing you into maturity where you will truly understand My government which drapes across your shoulders. You are holy. Put condemnation and shame away. They have no place in you. Be set free now, for you are clean and made pure through Jesus.

1 Cor 13:11-13 NKJV
When I was a child , I spoke as a child , I understood as a child , I thought as a child ; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Separating The Soul From The Spirit
Sandy Warner

Jun 3, 2005
SEPARATING THE SOUL FROM THE SPIRIT
The closer you come to My anointing, and the more I pour My Spirit out upon you and through you, three things take place simultaneously. First, you flow more in My gifts and become more of a conduit to others. Second, your soul is being healed of old wounds as it gets washed, and three your flesh, that carnal part of you, begins to die. The process that takes place is a separation of the spirit and the soul and even the flesh, that you may become whole and have My Spirit reign in your mortal body. My Spirit will spotlight all your motives until what you share is not self motivated to feed your soul or your flesh, but only motivated by what You hear and see Me saying.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post with this footer attached.

Bread For The Bride
Cheryl McGrath

Oct 16, 2005

INTRODUCTION
The following message from the life of Jacob sheds light on aspects of our spiritual lives we as individuals following Christ desperately need to hear. It was not until after this message was prepared and ready to be posted, however, that I became aware there is also hidden within it a "now" word for the Bride-church that speaks loudly into the place we find ourselves corporately at the present time in the Spirit.

Many of us are discerning a spiritual season of desperate anticipation right now that is hard to vocalise. It is both the best of times and the worst of times, as the saying goes. Sensing we are on the brink of something beyond our capacity to adequately express, nevertheless corporately we are experiencing together the deep anguish of soul of those who smell, taste and hear but do not yet fully see. Our hearts cry out for the final emptiness from self, while we reach forward to grasp the fullness of Christ.

I believe the very spirit of the corporate Bridal company is wrestling with the Almighty as we seek the full revelation of the Face of Christ in our midst. Daybreak comes, and as our natural strength fails and we behold ourselves in all our desperate need for His Fullness to overtake and apprehend us, we are groaning within "I will not let You go until You bless me!". This is crunch time for the emerging Bride. For many years now we have sought His Face and been transformed by the growing revelation of His Holiness. We have desired an encounter that would leave us free of our flesh and baptised into His death and resurrection. We have been left breathless and speechless as His manifest Presence has broken through and we have been lost in the beauty of His holiness and depths of His love. Daybreak comes, and with all that is within us we now cry out with one corporate groan, "Lord either kill me or change me, but do not leave me as I have been." There is an intense struggle for life within us, but life as we have never before experienced it. There is an intense awareness that He MUST increase to the fullness of His stature, and we MUST decrease to emptiness of self, or we will die.

This is a critical moment for the corporate Bride, a season of violent abandonment and discomfort as our weakness is exposed and His all sufficiency overtakes us. As we wrestle and behold His Face, we are seeing with ever increasing clarity in the starkness of His Daybreak that truthfully without Christ we can do nothing, yet in Christ we can do ALL things. We are about to find out what that truly means.

Cry out, church of the Living God, cry out church of the Firstborn, cry and moan for His fullness as never before. Do not let Him go until we have taken hold of His very fullness and leave this place of wrestling changed and limping, leaning only on our Beloved. Cry out for His fullness until we have prevailed with Him and He changes our nature, changes our name (Rev. 2:17) and appears in all His glory in His spiritual temple! For daybreak comes and we must prevail! Selah!

Cheryl McGrath

www.greatsouthland.org

Are You Limping Yet?
Cheryl McGrath

In remote dessert areas of Australia where I live there are native trackers, Australian aborigines who assist the police when someone becomes lost in the desert, or is on the run from justice. These trackers can read human tracks like most of us read a book. They are so proficient at this that they can look at a pair of footprints and tell whether that person walks with a limp and which leg they are favouring. We need that kind of discernment in the church today, spiritually speaking. We need to be able to track a person's journey in the Spirit and discern the nature of their strength. We need to understand the difference between those whose weakness is their strength, and those whose strength is their weakness. We need leaders who lead with a spiritual limp.

In Genesis 25:20-26 we read of the birth of Esau and Jacob, twin sons born to Isaac and Rebekah. Rebekah had received a word from the Lord that her two sons each represented a different nation, and that the older son would serve the younger. The scriptures reveal that Esau, the firstborn, became a "skilful hunter and a man of the field" (Gen. 25:27). He was very much an outdoors man, confident in his physical strength and athletic abilities. The scriptures say Jacob, on the other hand, had different attributes. His mother's favourite, Jacob was noted more for his quiet, studious nature than his physical strength or ruggedness. He was "a quiet man, dwelling in tents". The implication is that Jacob was of a gentler disposition than his brother, preferring to spend his days working around the tents, listening to the conversations of the women and observing the interactions of his community. As Jacob grew up in the communal atmosphere of the tents he had ample opportunity to study the people he lived with, including their various strengths and weaknesses of character. Esau, on the other hand, would have spent long hours and days on hunting and food gathering expeditions, and in so doing had earned the respect and admiration of his father Isaac.

One day as Esau was returning from an unsuccessful hunting expedition, Jacob sat among the tents preparing a steaming red stew. Weary from hunger, the delicious aroma was more than Esau could resist, and he begged Jacob to give him some. Immediately taking advantage of his brother's weakness, Jacob offered to give him some of the meal in exchange for the eldest son's birthright. The birthright custom provided that when a man died his firstborn son must inherit a double share of all his property.

And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die, so what is this birthright to me?" Then Jacob said "Swear to me as of this day". So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright. (Gen. 25:34)

As Jacob was her favourite, Rebekah had no doubt at some time shared with him the Lord's word that "the older will serve the younger". Jacob knew he could never compete with his brother in terms of physical strength, so even in his youth Jacob had determined to bring about the fulfilment of that prophecy through other means. He learned to read peoples' weaknesses and discern their vulnerabilities. He became adept at watching and waiting for opportunity to take advantage of situations in order to get what he wanted. And like many in the church today he set out running with a genuine word from the Spirit, determined to fulfil it in the strength of his own flesh.

Having already entered into the deception that God needed help to fulfil His own word, Rebekah now joined Jacob in scheming and manipulating to bring it about. Genesis 27:5-29 relates that while Esau was away hunting, Jacob, with his mother's assistance, disguised himself as his brother. Taking advantage of his father's blindness, he then deliberately deceived his father into laying hands on him to bestow the blessing that belonged to Esau as the firstborn son. On Esau's return the only blessing Isaac could give him was the blessing he had reserved for the youngest son. In his anger and sense of loss Esau openly plotted to kill his brother as soon as their father's death and burial had taken place. As for Jacob, he now not only had a prophetic word, he also had the anointing to go with it! Fearing for his life and left with no choice but to put as much distance as possible between Esau and himself, he fled to his mother's relatives in another part of the country.

Now Jacob was what I call a "ducker and a weaver". When I was quite young, leaving school, my first job was in the middle of the city of Sydney. Each day I would travel by train into the city from the outer suburbs, but I was not used to the large crowds of people rushing along the streets. I would arrange to meet my friend every day in my lunchbreak, but she was working right up one end of a very long street, and I was working down the other end. It was a very straight street, but between us there was a large distance and the busy lunchtime city crowds! I had only one hour for my break and because I was rather a small person I was getting considerably knocked around by the crowds as I tried to make my way quickly along that city street. Not only that, I was taking so long to get back to my work I was coming in late! But you know, before long I found a way to get through those city crowds without getting hurt and without returning late. I started to duck and to weave! I turned my small size and speed to my advantage and learned how to move swiftly in between, under and around those big hurrying people. And pretty soon I was rushing along that city street faster than anyone else. I knew where I wanted to go and I was determined to get there no matter what. I just put my head down and took off, weaving and ducking at full speed, scarcely looking up till I got to my destination!

Jacob's life became one of ducking and weaving! He knew he would never be strong in stature or skilful in hunting like his brother, so he learned to put his own unique strengths and skills to use because he was determined no-one was going to stop him realising what had been prophetically spoken over him. He didn't know yet he'd chosen a course that would lead him straight into a head on collision with God, because God is not needing duckers and weavers - He wants overcomers!

As Jacob was fleeing out of Esau's reach, the scriptures say he had a dream in which he saw the angels of God ascending and descending and heard the Voice of the Lord saying "I am the Lord God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants." (Gen. 28:12-13) So now Jacob not only has a word and an anointing, he has a prophetic experience as well! Things are certainly looking promising for Jacob. But there's something missing.

Next we find Jacob living and prospering among his mother's relatives. He works hard for his mother's brother, Laban, marrying two of his daughters, and is blessed with eleven sons and a daughter. Laban in turn recognises God's favour and anointing on Jacob, acknowledging that he and his own household have prospered solely due to Jacob's presence among them (Gen. 30:27). After several years, however, Jacob is becoming restless working for another man's vision and begins to dream of returning to his country to establish all that is in his own heart. And so it happens, after falling out with Laban, Jacob sets out towards home with his wives, his children, his servants and his livestock, knowing that his brother Esau will be waiting and remembering what he had done to him so many years before.

By this time Jacob has acquired an entire community bearing his own name and following his leadership. Even the angels meet him along the way (Gen. 32:1). We might say Jacob now has a prophetic word, an anointing, some amazing supernatural experiences, and an established ministry. But there is still something missing!

Still scheming and manipulating, Jacob devises a plan whereby he might placate any anger still left in his brother and sends messengers ahead to assess Esau's mood. However, when they return warning that Esau is coming with 400 men, the Bible records that Jacob becomes "greatly afraid and distressed." (Gen. 32:7) Jacob finds himself in a situation where his manipulative and scheming habits will not help him. Behind him is Laban and in front of him is Esau - both men he has dealt with less than honourably. Not knowing what to do, he calls out to the Lord to save him from his brother's wrath (v.9). But God has been waiting for just this moment! God has been patiently bringing Jacob to a time and place when Jacob's ducking and weaving would fail him. And God makes His move on Jacob!

Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day. Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him. And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks". But he said "I will not let You go unless You bless me!" So He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob". And He said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed". Then Jacob asked, saying "Tell me Your name, I pray." And He said, "Why is it that you ask about My name?" And He blessed him there. So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: "For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved" Just as he crossed over Peniel the sun rose on him, and he limped on his hip. (Gen. 32:24-31)

Now what is it the Lord wants us to see in this story of His dealings with Jacob?

BREAD FOR THE BRIDE: Are You Limping Yet, Part Two. Cheryl McGrath Oct 16, 2005

Part Two of a two part article.

Have you been called by God? Very often those called by the Lord to ministry are people of strong will, strength of resolve, determination and vision. These are the natural characteristics most would agree are needed for leadership. However, until they are one by one brought under the power of the Cross by the Holy Spirit, these are the very traits that will hinder the Hand of the Lord in our lives and ministries.

Wherever we are naturally strong God will wrestle with us until each of our natural talents and strengths has been surrendered and sanctified. Many are those who want to offer their talents and gifts to God for use in the Kingdom, failing to understand our strengths are of absolutely no use to Him as long as they provide us with an identity outside of Him. Rather than needing our talents, the Lord wants to break our dependence on them. He will contend with us over these areas of natural strength until "daybreak". Daybreak represents revelation, when light comes, and we are able to see that every last ounce of our own strengths of personality is not enough to get us where God wants to take us! Our natural strengths are always only a substitute for His grace, and His grace is always sufficient, always enough! We do God no favours by putting our talents, gifts and natural abilities at His disposal. He can do far more with those who have faced and offered up their weakness than those who offer up their strengths (see 1 Cor. 1:27). Our natural abilities only become useful to God after we have seen them in the Light of His Countenance. It is then we understand it is the sufficiency of His Grace rather than the efficiency of our abilities that enables us to do anything at all in His Kingdom. This revelation must come to all who desire to be used by the Lord to the fullness of their potential in Him.

There is more the Lord would have us learn from Jacob's life.

Jacob had a genuine prophetic word from God. He had heard from his mother those things God had spoken over his life, and he desperately wanted their fulfilment. But that word wasn't enough. Jacob had an anointing - he carried the blessing of the firstborn. But it wasn't enough. Jacob had endurance - he was able to wait patiently for that he had set his heart on, but his endurance was not enough. Jacob was running with a vision, utilising every skill and talent available to him in his determination to get where he knew God wanted him to go. But those talents weren't enough. Jacob had no shortage of prophetic experiences. He had watched the angels of God ascending and descending in open vision at Bethel (Gen. 28:12). He had seen and heard God speak to him in night visions (Gen 28:13, 31:11) Angelic hosts had come to meet him on his journey home. But his prophetic experiences were not enough either.

Jacob still didn't have humility!

When Jacob looked into the Face of God, however, his nature changed forever! Jacob had contended with man for many years and prevailed. But not until that night alone in the wilderness when he had nowhere else to go, did he understand what it is to contend with God and prevail! Jacob came away from the encounter a marked man, limping as one who has contended with God and yet lived. In Genesis 32:30 we read: "So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, (which means Face of God), "For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved".

God wrestled with Jacob until daylight came, the time of revelation. Having already left His mark on Jacob by dislocating his hip, at daybreak the angel of God challenged Jacob to let Him go (Gen. 32:26). But Jacob said "I will not let you go until You bless me!" Looking into the Face of God, Jacob beheld something he'd never seen before - One who was even more determined than he was! Jacob was about to find out that he could no longer stand on his own two legs or walk as he had previously walked. He could no longer rely on his own strength to uphold him. Everything had changed. So He said to him, "What is your name?" He said "Jacob." There, face to face with God, in the stark light of daybreak, Jacob confessed his own name and for the first time knew the reality of what he was and how he had lived his life. "I am Jacob - Schemer, Supplanter, Trickster!"

The blessing Jacob received was the revelation of who he really was in light of God's grace! God intends for each of us to receive the very same blessing, for until we too behold ourselves in the same Light, until we receive revelation of the total inadequacy and incompleteness of our own human strength, we will be in contention with God! We will be thinking and acting like we are something we are not. But when daybreak comes, He will reveal Himself to us as He is, and we will see ourselves in His true Light. Then we will only begin to understand His grace. The scripture says Jacob contended with God and prevailed. His prevailing was in his surrender. And right then and there God changed Jacob's name and nature. Jacob became Israel, no longer one who deceives, tricks and supplants, but one who has contended with God and lived! The name means "prince with God" or "he will rule as God". It speaks of one who manifests power and strength of a different kind and from a different source than Jacob had previously known. Thereafter Jacob no longer knew God as "the God of my fathers Abraham and Isaac". He called Him El Elohe Israel - the God of Israel (Gen. 33:20).

Until a revelation of grace comes to us, we will always stand on our own understanding. We can have a word, a vision, an anointing, an experience and even a growing ministry, but we will burn out long before we ever achieve our potential in God. Until a revelation of grace comes to us, we will always resort to our own strength and willpower to accomplish the work of God. And we will never know His Rest. God has only one way to deal with the strength of man's flesh and it's the Cross. If we are serious with God, the Spirit will apply the Cross to our spiritual walk in many and diverse ways, until we understand by revelation that it is only by His Grace we stand in ANYTHING!

You can discern the footprints of one who has contended with God and surrendered - they walk with a spiritual limp. They walk with the mark of the Cross. Their strength has been spent and they have entered by grace into the Rest of God. They walk leaning on the Beloved, for they have forgotten how to walk any other way.

Are you praying for greater faith to meet the needs around you? Expect a contending with the Lord, because He wants to give you a revelation of grace. Are you setting out to be a leader among leaders? Expect to be weakened in your natural strengths, abilities and talents until you understand that by grace alone are you left standing. Are you crying out for the boldness of a lion? Boldness is born of brokenness! Expect to be a lion that limps. Expect others to overlook you, pass you by and judge you as weak and ineffective by human standards, because they surely will. Until you open your mouth, that is, and they hear the lion roar.

The scripture prophesies of Jesus He was despised and rejected of men. He had nothing about Him physically or naturally that we should desire Him (Is. 53:2) . People did not follow Him because of His good looks, His charismatic personality or His ten point plan to get to Heaven. They followed Him because the words He spoke were Spirit and life, and the gospel He brought was demonstrated by the Spirit's power.

Are you limping yet?

.....through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand.... Romans 5:1-2

Copyright 2005 Cheryl McGrath, Great South Land Ministries, Australia. This article may be copied or reproduced freely providing copyright notice and contact details remain intact.

Cheryl McGrath
Great South Land Ministries, Australia Website: www.greatsouthland.org Email: southland@greatsouthland.org

Be Healed And Be Fruitful

Betty Heimbach

November 17, 2005

“Beloved,

“You have been broken for too long. It is time for healing. You have struggled and tried to endure. You have tried to smile and go on. But it is time for healing. It is time for restoration. I am doing a deep work within you. You are mine. My hand has been upon your life all through the years.

“The enemy has tried to destroy you. He has sought to beat you down, to rob you of your joy. He has told lie upon lie because he is the father of lies. I say to you, My lovely one, listen to My truth, listen to My voice, tune you ears to My Spirit. Resist the lies of the enemy, the deceiver.

“Do not allow the enemy to rob you now through anger or unforgiveness. Forgive. Forgive fully those who have wounded you, those who have rejected you and those who have mistreated you. Forgive, regardless of how hard it may be. Ask Me to enable you as you determine in your heart and declare with your mouth your forgiveness of all involved."

“I am you maker, your creator and you are Mine. You are beautifully and wonderfully made. You are the workmanship of My hands. I have called you to walk with Me, to minister to Me, to worship Me, so that I can minister through you and be glorified. You are mine and I am your God. It is time for your healing so that you can walk in your destiny.

“Beloved, come and rest in Me. Bring all your cares, bring your burden to Me, lay them in My lap, let Me take them. You were not made to carry these burdens, let Me take them. My plans for you are good and not evil, My planned path for you is easy to walk, not hard. Draw away with Me. Seek My face. Seek your wholeness, and your healing in time spent with Me.

“Look into My Word, pray to see My heart and listen to My voice. I have healing for you, even for the deep wounds of the past – even for the deepest wounds of your childhood. You are Mine and I want to be glorified in your life. Ask for your healing to bring glory to Me.

“Look not to the right, nor the left, but listen to My voice. Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost who dwells within you, who prays for you, who leads you in prayer and speaks My answer to you? Look to Me and Me alone for your strength, your joy, your peace and your healing.

“Come to Me for restoration, let Me complete the work I have begun in You. Draw close to Me under the shadow of My wing. Draw all your sustenance from Me, as the branch lives only because it is attached to the vine – you live and blossom and bear fruit because you are one with Me.

"I see you not as others see you, and not as you see yourself. When I look at you I see the divine gift resident within you. Others may not see your value. They may discount you; see only the barrenness of a dry twig. Even loved ones and friends may not see your potential, or your fruitfulness. In My love I have cultivated and developed you. My will is that you bear much fruit, that your gifts be realized and expressed, that even your hidden talents be revealed and become reality. When I look at you I see your completion, your fruit.

“Be all that I, the Lord God, have called you to be. Don’t let anyone – not people, or Satan – dictate to you who you are and what you are, or what you can do in My kingdom. I chose you. I called you. I have anointed you. Only I can tell you what you are to accomplish for Me, for My glory.

“Come to Me, learn more of Me. Listen to My heart. Be healed. Let Me complete the work of restoration I have begun in you, so that you can walk in the fullness of life that I have ordained for you to walk in.

Betty Heimbach

bettyjay@bellsouth.net

The prophetic words by Betty Heimbach are sent out no more than 1 a day and no less than 1 per week. If you would like to subscribe to HUNGRY HEARTS e-mail list to receive the prophetic words sent out by Betty simply respond with the message "subscribe" to bettyjay@bellsouth.net .

Benny Hinn Conference Report
Flo Ellers

As a full time minister, I enjoy attending good conferences for personal edification and on-going education. This summer I tried to go to a couple of meetings but for lack of finances or other reasons I was not able to go but recently, I was financially blessed so I went to Benny Hinn's Minister's Conference in Dallas, TX. It has been less than 24 hours since I returned home but I sensed I needed to get this report to you.

What transpired there greatly impacted my life and challenged my spiritual walk with the Lord. There were only three scheduled sessions but those three sessions totaled 14 hours of high praise and worship, a special time of impartation, great messages and special reports by Benny Hinn and his guest speakers. The following remarks are the headlines from each speaker:

BENNY HINN:

In a recent vision, he saw MASSIVE earthquakes in America.

He saw a TIDAL WAVE hit both the East Coast and West Coast.

The coastal lands were flooded with water even New York City.

Sudden weather changes coming with dangerous winds in excess of 200 mph.

A "Christ-less" move coming where God will be extremely popular.

Millions of tapes, CD's about God will be sold everywhere.

The "seed" of this false revival is being sown right now in churches and ministries that have a "blood-less" religion. These groups have taken the Cross of Jesus out of their messages.

"You take the Cross out—you invite Satan in!"

Their messages are very deceptive and centered on the "how-to-succeed in business" and life when the message should be "How to deny self!"

Part II – Benny Hinn spoke on end time events according to the Bible and shared a little from an article from Foreign Policy Magazine. He made the following statements:

What is ahead is frightening. The rise of militant Islam has one agenda—global invasion.

The greatest threat to peace on earth is what the magazine calls "falling nations"—nations that are falling politically and economically. They are Nigeria, Russia, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iran and Iraq.

The U. S. is the only super power that is helping to keep these nations afloat but with increased judgment on the US, our economy will be greatly drained and will no longer be able to carry these "falling nations" so the world will look for a one-world government for answers. This newly-formed political union will need a new leader to protect this political and economic oneness. This political union will be formed before the year 2010.

Before Pope John Paul II died he said if you do not come through Mary you can not make heaven. The Catholics want to make Mary a co-redeemer with the God Head!

The current Pope will not last long. He will do something dangerous and he will allow what Pope John II said. Majority of the Catholics will choose idolatry but a remnant will join the true Body of Christ.

The next Pope will introduce the Anti-Christ.

Benny Hinn said Israel will have new elections and Ariel Sharon will lose the election. He spoke with Benjamin Netanyahu and told him he will be the next Prime Minister of Israel and Benjamin told him he knows that already in his heart. But Benny said we must pray for B. Netanyahu for if we don't he will be killed.

Benny said there are great changes in the Church that have to come about, certain changes that will unite all true believers, NOT denominations but a Spiritual oneness and in that will come great power. All we need is 120! (Acts 2).

He brought us up to date on Israel's history as it relates to Church history and shared about current events regarding the Gaza pull out and how Israel lost territory. He said the Church has also lost territory too. As it is with Israel, so it is with the Church. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem for when you do so, you are praying for your own tomorrow.

There are a people in the Body of Christ holding on to territory and we are not giving it up!

Pray for a true spiritual unity to come to the Body of Christ. It is for our survival.

- FREIDA LINSEY was called upon and she told Benny "Do not hold back a thing! Give it to them straight." She then shared with us when her husband Gordon Lindsey was alive and she was dying of T. B. he held the Bible up before her and asked her, "Is this true or do we throw it away?" She said, "It's true!" "Well then get out of this bed!" he shouted and she did and was instantly healed. She told us she is 91 years old going on 120 and has read the Bible through 68 times. And she goes to work at her office every day. No retirement for her. What an inspiration she is!

o CHUCK PIERCE: After reading about Chuck's prophecy about New Orleans in Chuck's book on the 50 State Tour Benny's staff called Chuck's office to find out if he could share at B. Hinn's gathering of ministers. He agreed even though he had just returned from a trip to Rome. As soon as Benny introduced this prophet of God he started to prophecy over Benny Hinn in a very accurate word according to Benny's own testimony. Then Chuck shared with us what the Lord was saying to him about recent events:

o We are to be proactive not reactive to Katrina.

o Baton Rouge is a model "refuge city".

o There is coming a shaking from the heartland of the US, an invasion and the Glory will rise out of St. Louis.

o Luke 14 The Lord is calling forth His disciples who are willing to learn again. We are in a learning process now and the next three years. We will be learning and building for next three generations.

o From mid September – October 15 shake economic systems; by November the economy will be rearranged and by February the government will shake.

o He is concerned about Houston, Los Angeles where lawlessness will arise (root of that is fatherlessness) and San Francisco is in a precarious place.

o God has a heart to unlock the fragrance in His people.

MIKE BARBER: Prison is the fastest growing industry in the world! One out of six will be in prison unless we reach them for the Lord. There are currently one million youth in prison in America!

RON LUCE: 96% of all America's youth do NOT believe in the Bible. Only 35% of the "baby boomers" believe in the Bible.

If we do not reach the youth by the time they are 20 years old the chances of them giving their lives in total surrender to Jesus drops dramatically. Those that were born in 1989 are now 16 years old. We have less than 5 years to capture this generation.

We are at a crossroad. We must rescue a generation and it is going to take all of us to do it. The whole church must be turned into a hospital for a broken-hearted generation. Grandmas, grandpas, everyone, not just the youth pastors must get engaged and involved.

A revolution is brewing—a generation is rising up and they are going to change the world. (But will they know the Lord Jesus?)

Behold I Come

Carol McCarthy

March 26, 2005

The Lord gave me this word today...after much worship and prayer...

I am in control and My breath is blowing upon the sons of men that I have prepared beforehand as the Great Son of Man mounts His white horse for this last hour and end of days.

Oh, sons of men, watchmen of the morning, see the brightness of My glory being revealed in all My creative acts as the unfolding of mankind's darkest night of the soul comes forth. The final decision has been made, and My hand holds the scales of balance; on the left unrighteousness, and on the right righteousness.

Look up and see the Sacrificial Lamb Who now puts on the robes of the Righteous Judge, and Who is coming to divide the vile and the profane from the pure and the holy. Those nations, peoples, and individuals stand as He declares His verdict, and no more excuse or delay is heard from the mouths of the guilty nor the innocent. In utter silence, each one receives the justice due their actions; either eternal life or eternal hell and death.

"BEHOLD, I COME QUICKLY.. AND MY REWARD IS WITH ME" .."THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE SAY 'COME'". Rev. 22:12 & 17.

Big Story In The Middle East
Joel C. Rosenberg

The Big (Untold) Story In The Middle East

"More Muslims are becoming followers of Jesus Christ today than at any other point in history."

(WASHINGTON, D.C., March 25, 2005) – Despite unprecedented press coverage of Afghanistan, Iraq, and the Middle East since September 11, 2001, one big story is not being told by mainstream media. Scores of Muslims are converting to evangelical Christianity and will be celebrating their first Easter this year, even amidst widespread persecution and the very real threat of death.

Over the past few months I interviewed more than three dozen Arab and Iranian pastors and evangelical Christian missionary leaders in the U.S. and the Middle East. The picture they paint is one of Christianity being dramatically resurrected in the lands where the Bible was written.

One Arab Christian leader tells me that based on his research with churches and ministries throughout the Islamic world, he now believes more than 1.5 million Muslims worldwide have trusted Christ since 9/11. Such numbers are difficult to verify, but the trend is clear.

"More Muslims are becoming followers of Jesus Christ today than at any other time in history," a prominent Arab Christian leader told me recently, on the condition that I not mention his name or organization. "It's not something we talk much about openly, but it is very exciting and very important."

In Afghanistan, for example, there were only 17 known evangelical Christians in the country before al-Qaeda attacked the United States. Today, the number of Afghan Christians is in the thousands and growing quickly.

Church leaders say Afghan Muslims are open to hearing the gospel message like never before. Dozens of baptisms occur every week. People are snatching up Bibles and other Christian books as fast as they can be printed or brought into the country. The Jesus film-a two hour docudrama on the life of Christ based on the Gospel of Luke-was even shown on television in one city before police shut down the entire TV station.

"God is moving so fast in Afghanistan, we're just trying to keep up," one Afghan Christian worker told me, requesting anonymity. "The greatest need now is leadership development. We need to train pastors to care for all these new believers."

In Iraq, mainstream media attention is focused almost exclusively on the violence of the insurgents. But despite numerous church bombings and attacks on Christian leaders, an evangelical revolution is underway in Iraq and interest in Christianity is at an all-time high, say Iraqi pastors and other evangelical leaders who have recently visited the war-torn country.

Over one million Arabic New Testaments, Christian books, and gospel publications for children have been distributed in Iraq by various ministries since the end of major war operations. Bibles are even being printed inside Iraq today. Even still, demand outpaces the supply.

Western Christian organizations are also trying to care for their persecuted brothers and sisters in Iraq, shipping in food, medicine, and other supplies to meet pressing needs. One such group, Samaritan's Purse-run by Franklin Graham, son of the Rev. Billy Graham-reports that they have "airlifted 16 tons of medical supplies and equipment into Baghdad to refurbish a teaching hospital . completed construction of one clinic and supplied medicine for several others, and sponsor[ed] a church that provides food to poor families, Muslims and Christians alike."

As a result of such efforts and many others that for security sake must go unmentioned, thousands upon thousands of Iraqis have already made decisions to become followers of Christ, and many others are coming to Christ every week. What's more, some 162 new Iraqi believers recently began ministry training in an undisclosed section of the country to become pastors and lay leaders.

Similar stories are being reported in countries considered most "closed" to the gospel, from Central Asia to Sudan. In Kazakhstan, for example, there were only three known evangelical Christian believers before the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991. Today there are more than 15,000 Kazakh Christians, and more than 100,000 Christians of all ethnicities.

In Sudan-despite a ferocious civil war, genocide and widespread religious persecution, particularly in the Darfur region-literally tens of thousands of Muslims have made decisions to become followers of Jesus Christ just since 2001. A seminary to train new pastors is run in a mountain cave. Hundreds of churches have been planted, and thousands of small group Bible studies are being held in secret throughout the country, though two evangelical leaders asked me not to mention the specific numbers out of concern it could lead to still more persecution.

Other Arab Christian leaders tell me that the immense controversy last spring over Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ" had an intriguing if unintended and counterintuitive effect in the Middle East. Charges by American Jewish groups that the film was anti-Semitic caused enormous interest among Muslims to see the film for themselves. Soon "The Passion" was being shown in theaters throughout the region, and popping up on tens of thousands of bootlegged DVDs, including in Saudi Arabia and Iran where it is typically illegal to buy or sell Christian materials. While it is difficult to accurately assess the impact of the film, I can report that in Lebanon, some 310 people are known to have made decisions to become followers of Christ after just one showing of "The Passion."

A wonderfully inspiring book published last fall by Brother Andrew (of God's Smuggler fame) and Al Janssen of Open Doors International takes those interested in what God is doing to reach Muslims on a powerful and unforgettable journey that reads like the 29th chapter of the Book of Acts. LIGHT FORCE: A Stirring Account of the Church Caught in the Middle East Crossfire (Revell) is chock full of amazing anecdotes you will never read in the New York Times or the Washington Post.

My wife and I had the privilege of having lunch with the authors in Southern California where we peppered them for more details. What struck us most was Brother Andrew's boldness and incurable confidence in a God who can open doors to reach the most unreachable. Over salads and iced tea, Andrew humbly shared story after story of how he personally shared the gospel with Yasser Arafat, with Islamic Ayatollahs, and with Palestinian terrorists exiled to Lebanon. He also told us his unforgettable experience of preaching the gospel to 400 Hamas leaders in Gaza City, which he relates on pages 182-190 of his book.

"I can't change the situation you face here in Gaza," Andrew told the Hamas leaders. "I can't solve the problems you have with your enemies. But I can offer you the One who is called the Prince of Peace. You cannot have real peace without Jesus. And you cannot experience Him without forgiveness. He offers to forgive us of all our sins. But we cannot receive that forgiveness if we don't ask for it. The Bible calls this repentance and confession of sin. If you want it, then Jesus forgives. He forgave me and made me a new person. Now I'm not afraid to die because my sins are forgiven and I have everlasting life."

Hearing the story, I had to confess to Brother Andrew that it had never dawned on me to pray for-much less preach the gospel-to Hamas leaders. But isn't that what Jesus tells us to do, to love our enemies? What made the story all the more remarkable was that rather than lynching Andrew for trying to convert them to Christ, the Hamas leaders invited him to speak to other Muslims.

"Andrew, I believe you know that I teach at the Islamic University," said one. "To my knowledge, we have never had any lectures about Christianity. While you were talking, I was thinking that it would be helpful for our students to know about real Christianity. Would you consider coming to the university and giving a lecture about the differences between Christianity and Islam?"

Even the Palestinian Christian leaders who accompanied Brother Andrew to the event were taken aback. "I think my God is too small," said the head of the Palestinian Bible Society. "I never thought that a Christian could speak to radical, fanatical fundamentalists. But even if someone did have a chance, it never occurred to me that they would actually want to sit and listen to the gospel. Today God showed me how big He is."

Such are not stories being told by the mainstream media, but they are important stories nonetheless-the good news of a great God. He is risen! He is risen indeed!

Short Bio for Bill Somers

Updated August 2008

Basic Information

William H. (Bill) Somers Jr., 6195 St. Rt. 95., Mt. Gilead, OH 43338

Phone 1-419-768-2043 Email: wsomers@etpv.org --

Origin:

DOB 8-20-1945 Wyandotte Michigan. Hometown is Southgate MI. Ancestry is Irish, Hungarian, English and/or German.

Education

8 years of Catholic elementary education
4 years High School, graduated in college prep program, then
3 and 1/4 years at Michigan State. Philosophy major, then
4 years in United States Navy, during Vietnam. Back to Civilian life at the end of 1970
Also several courses at University of Michigan and University of Phoenix

Family

One of 6 siblings. Married at ripe old age of 33. My dear wife, Marylee, had 7 children from her first marriage of 19 years. It was instant family! She is 6 1/2 years older than I. All the children are grown and living on their own. Some are even producing grandchildren.

Likes: Good food, drink, music, and video's. Getting things for free!

Dislikes: television, especially the news and the commercials. I only watch it if there is a war, national emergency or I'm at someone else's home. Other dislikes: having to fix my car and shopping.

Work History

Electronic Technician in the two way radio area. 14 years in Michigan and 14 years in New Orleans LA.
Computer Technician for 2 1/2 years in Mansfield Ohio. Now Retired

Current Status

Officially retired in August 2007.

Computer experience

My first computer was an Atari 800 with a whopping 48k of memory. I've done a lot of hardware repair and software support, full and part time for about a decade.

Philosophy

I was raised a catholic, and became an atheist in high school. In college I flirted with eastern mysticism. [It was the 60's after all.] In the 70's till the mid 80's I maintained an interest in New Age topics but not much of a commitment there. My big involvement was in the War Games hobby. I was VP of Metro Detroit Gamers for about 10 years and helped put on some big conventions. We relocated to Louisiana in 84 and almost a year later my wife and I became 'born again' Christians. This is where we are at today, though we are now part of the new phenomenon of 'out of church' Christians. That is we're committed Christians but fed up with churches. Technically we are 'between churches.'

Interests

Military topics, Jazz, Bluegrass and other instrumental music, cooking.

Hobbies

Playing music on guitar or flute, computers, collecting mp3 files of music and cooking, mostly baking things.

Activities

I'm a writer, editor and publisher on the internet. The Web Site is called End Time Prophetic Vision. www.etpv.org.

Each week I publish 25 to 30 articles on the site, including my own writings at times. I have about 90+ articles posted there that I have written myself.

It's like doing a weekly magazine without having to deal with a printer.

The content consists of essays, articles, prophecies, and accounts of dreams or visions. All of these are supposed to be relevant to the belief that we are living in what's called the End Times, just before the Second Coming of Jesus. This year [2008] I completed 12 years of such publishing on the internet.

Believing Is Trusting God

Becky Mclendon

Mark 16:16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned

Believing is a process, a faith at work, believing present truth, and he that believes what God is now saying shall be saved. It does not say is saved, but shall be saved. Faith without works (without leaven) is dead faith. We will take what the lord gives with out any mixture. Nobody can add any thing to, what Jesus gives. It is seed with out any mixture. Perfect, coming from the very God himself. The seed is the beginning or the author. The preaching will be the finisher of that faith or seed. Seed can be used here the same as leaven. This leaven prepares us for Jesus only preaching. There are no carnal helps and this will go out to a people that love Him with all their heart. A word translators and scholars have never touched. Many dead will hear this preaching and come out of their grave. The lord is not chapters and verses. When he said let there be light, He didn't have chapter and verse for it. Salvation is of the Lord, and that by revelation.

A believer grows daily
A believer is leavened daily
A believer loves Jesus daily.
He lives in all our thoughts and words.
As we live in the spirit it will shut peoples words out.
We have to be arks pitched on the inside and outside.
We are sitting in heavenly places above all that is not Jesus
Jesus is our head, and that is where our body's look for precious food, to remain, and live .His head does away with study.

Study is going over what he has said. Revelation is what the anointing is saying now.
The light we walk in is showing us things to come. People that study all the time need to be turned around with eyes in front of them, because they are always looking back at what others have said from their studies in the past. Remember Lot's wife.

Now that the flood is over, they are looking for the ark. Men study scripture searching for “truth” and look for things in archaeology to “prove” God did it or is going to do it. But faith says God did it so that settles it and goes on with God and in His revelation,

The self-righteous do not understand. That we can have faults yet still be in the perfection and holiness of God...it is only because it is not our righteousness that gets us there...it is his righteousness. So the self-righteous study and study and study seeking to “get” revelation that God gives only by faith and in His own righteousness. We are not chosen by our degrees or our fame before men. We are chosen in the righteousness of God. In myself I cannot boast of what degrees I have earned, the titles men have bestowed upon me, the studies I have done in the bible, the teachings I have sat under, or the articles I have read that men have written. Any boasting I may do is of the lord. The boasting ones are dying off.

It is something how great some think they are in their little kingdom. The Lord’s own people don't look like much to them. Some remind me of roosters crowing but we know we have nothing of ourselves to crow about.

Trusting God has to reach perfection before obeying God can reach perfection. Men have it backwards, and try to obey God without trusting him. The self righteous man cannot act on “whatsoever i say do, do it.” He is too busy “trying to do for God” and missing the mark every time. Why? He has not trusted God, and is therefore walking in sin. The Lord intends for the election to bring an end to the works of the devil and healing to the land. As we seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, we have a vision. We are going to be clothed in his perfection. There is that leaven which, when complete, will heal the world and the nations.

We have tests that determine whether we go on or dry up. In these tests we see two things: a going on, and a falling away. Falling away creates denominations to get men entrapped in teachings, studies, and programs all to perpetrate the denomination. In revelation, the holy spirit always brings about a two-sided thing. After all, the anointing on the word is a two-edged sword. There are two kinds of people: believers and unbelievers. Believers are going to know the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his suffering. The whole earth will hear the powerful preaching of the Lord.

Instead of showing people where they are wrong, we will show them where Jesus is right. We will point them to Jesus, rather than point out their wrongs. Without the Lord's help, they come out of one wrong leaven and jump into another one. I have seen so many who have "come out" of religious works only to begin another religious work. Thus, the leaven of the kingdom is completely different from the leaven of the Pharisees. Jesus warned us of the leaven of the Pharisees, because it is a leaven of self-righteousness and religious empire building. Babylon is never built using the right, or revelation, but is built on their studies and teachings and programs. Many are saying i can't use this leaven. It is too hard. So, have me excused. This leaven can actually bring them a little persecution, and they certainly do not want that. Their teachers have always told them “just accept Jesus and everything will be smooth sailing from here on.”

It will be the ones that love Jesus that will increase and go deeper. Believing is living. The blind the dead do not believe. It is not flesh and blood running this business world; it is spirits controlling men’s lives. They don't even know it, so they boast of their own works. It's spirits controlling the religious machine too: bible study, bible schools, teaching seminars, books and tapes and videos and huge ministry centers are under a religious spirit. But men boast of themselves!

John 8:24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

These sins are spirits that people take with them to the grave. Spirits commit crimes, and men go to prison for them. It is sin spirits at work, and the wages are death to the ones they work in. And, in the religious kingdom, they are the “good works” that don't count in the kingdom of God. It is stronger spirits replacing weaker spirits. This is something for the election ministry. We cease from the spirits that want to help us to “do for God” and to “study for God,” and we wait to hear his voice saying, “whatsoever I say do, do it!”

These spirits are also linked with people’s sickness. In this election ministry we will break every yoke, get deliverance from every spirit and come into a Jesus only life. Walking in the light brings us out of all these spirits.

Matthew 15:8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

This is men’s and women’s preaching. Jesus will preach what we have made a commitment to with our hearts. A commitment brings revelation. This will bring true grace, and conviction, out loud salvation. How then shall we be saved? By BELIEVING on and TRUSTING the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen and Amen

Heaven’s Leaven
Becky McLendon

An apostle might be walking in present truth, but sometimes the Lord would show him to keep it a secret until it was all leavened. Paul was never allowed to speak the full revelation he received. Walking in the light could be a secret light. Satan comes as an angel of light and exalts himself, but the light of the world is sheltered in the earth, and hidden from the wise and the prudent until fully leavened. The leaven is working harder. He knows what time it is.

Glorified means fully leavened! There is revelation in John 17 where he prayed. Every time He said glorify He was saying as you leaven me...leaven them...........as you marry me.....marry them...as you convert my fleshly body convert them.....as you save me unto yourself, save them.

> These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, father, the hour is come; glorify (leaven, convert, save, perfect, set up the concrete, marry, fulfill, reveal) thy son, that thy son also may glorify thee: as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. and this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true god, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. and now, o Father, glorify leaven, marry, convert, save, perfect, set up the concrete, fulfill yourself in) thou me with thine own self with the glory (leaven, marriage, conversion, perfection, concrete, fulfillment) which I had with thee before the world was. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. for I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them, which thou hast given me; for they are thine. and all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified leavened, converted, perfected, married, saved, set up (concrete) in them. and now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. while I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them thy word (the lump of leaven daily, manna, revelation); and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep (earth sheltered home, protect, hide, overshadowed) them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world and for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
>
> Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. and the glory (leaven, revelation, > conversion, concrete set up, salvation, marriage) which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. and I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Leaven is the same as “the fullness of time!”

> After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. for there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. for neither did his brethren believe in him. Then Jesus said unto them, my time (leaven, completion, perfection,...) Is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. (They kept the traditions; he kept the feast, but in secret until the leavening was fully come) then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, where is he? and there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, he is a good man: others said, nay; but he deceiveth the people. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. John 7:1-13

These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time (leaven, revelation conversion,) cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father (you shall be leavened with revelation) John 16:25

We cannot impart fully until we are fully leavened. Paul said the gospel is the power of God. We are coming into a gospel. This is this gospel that Jesus said would be preached.

I believe that when he says: “In that day, the Day of the Lord” He is saying:

Fully leavened!!!!
That day of perfection
Wedding day
Fully converted
Word becomes flesh
The flesh becomes the word when leavened

You have to live in the spirit to hear these things. You have to live in the spirit to know these things. You have to live in the spirit to speak these things. We are in the spirit on the Lord’s Day. In all this dieting, the world knows nothing about spiritual foods. Oh that nations would eat and explode. His blood is spirit, and that spirit is leaven. If a man keep my sayings he keeps my leaven, says the lord. Leaven takes us to the beginning in God

But when that which is perfect (fully leavened, converted, marriage, revealed,) is come, (out of its earth sheltered-hidden in the earth home: the house of God) then that which is in part shall be done away. (Day of the Lord in the earth)1 Cor. 13:10

So glory, fullness of time, day of the Lord means leavened, it means converted, married, present truth

John said God would raise up the very rocks to praise him. Jesus, let the rocks praise you and let them arrest the rocks.

Right now the glory, the leaven, the present truth, conversion, marriage, Lord's Day that man does not know the day or the hour, is hidden in Him in His earth-sheltered home. The whole lump leavened is this treasure in earthen vessels. The foreknowledge of God was there as he took dust to make man. Then, by a leavening, he would have a body in the earth.

Treasure in earthen vessels = earth sheltered abode of Jesus. Earth sheltered home = place to lay His head Satan comes as an angel of light and exalts himself, but the light of the world is sheltered in the earth, and hidden from the wise and the prudent until fully leavened. The weakness of most ministries is that they are not telling the people to wait for power to witness. Once fully leavened, we will go to nations telling them to wait for a leavening process; for their faith to become a tree. The church (Samson) has had a haircut, they cut away, leaven, conversion, present truth and gave him a “my ministry” ministry.

As we speak revelation words of God to each other, it is precious leaven. It is life to his body.

Back In The Saddle

Sandy Warner

Apr 28, 2005
BACK IN THE SADDLE
What do you do when you fall off your horse?
Dust off. Mount up. And settle in, - of course.
Sometimes you feel bruised, sometimes all shaky,
What matters to Me is what's in the making.

We've seen that lower lip hanging down so low,
As you've born the weight of gravity bestowed.
All who have witnessed your fall in faith,
Wait with bated breath to see what's been scathed.

